ROE/BLIND FAITH CERTIFY FOR GOLD LEAF AWARDS

Montreal: Polydor Records Canada Ltd. was the first Canadian record company to apply and qualify for the first of the recently introduced Gold Leaf Awards which certifies actual sales figures of albums and singles.

Mr. Fred Exon, managing director of Polydor, submitted the necessary forms and sales figures for the ABC single of "Dizzy" by Tommy Roe which actually topped the RPM 100 chart on March 24th of 1969. The single continued a top of the RPM 100.

The Blind Faith album release was categorized as a best seller almost before its release date. Word of the impending release of this super group's album had spread across Canada and several radio stations had managed to secure U.S. copies of the set and subsequent play created an explosive situation insofar as backordering was concerned at Polydor's branches from coast to coast. This album held the No. 1 position on the RPM album chart for a record breaking 5 weeks from Sept 27 through Oct 25 and is still very much a part of the chart scene, resting at No. 27 this week.

Since the "Dizzy" single, Roe has gone on to experiencing excellent sales for his album under the same title and a single "Jam Up Jelly Tight" now making a bid for the

CHUM BID FOR CKGM DENIED

The Canadian Radio-Television Commission has turned down a bid by CHUM Ltd. to buy CKGM-FM from Maisonneuve Broadcasting Corp. of Montreal. In withholding its consent, the CRTC stated that "it would be in the public interest that this station be operated by a licensee with more direct involvement in the social, cultural and economic life of Montreal."

The CRTC, successor to the Broadcast Board of Governors, has, in the past expressed concern regarding the trend towards control of broadcasting falling into the hands of a few. Also of concern is tendency for such power to flow from the larger centres and impose itself on small communities.

Announced at the same time was the CRTC's decision to allow CHUM to acquire the remaining fifty per cent of the stock of CJCH in Halifax. CHUM now has complete control of CJCH, as well as numerous other holdings.

PLASTIC ONO BOWS TORONTO SET

John and Yoko Lennon's Plastic Ono Band will release their first album this week on the Apple label. The LP, "The Plastic Ono Band — Live Peace in Toronto 1969" features live tracks recorded at the Toronto Rock 'n' Roll Revival earlier this year. The revival touched off a series of similar events throughout the United States and has heightened interest in many of the old rock 'n' roll greats. The Plastic Ono was formed in Toronto at the time of the revival and includes the blues guitar of Eric Clapton.

Cuts include "Blue Suede Shoes", "Money", "Give Peace a Chance" and "Cold Turkey" which has been somewhat of a disappointment for the Plastic Ono with its failure on the charts. The Lennons' plan to be in Toronto this week to launch a campaign of "peace persuasion". In Toronto; billboards, posters, newspaper ads and handbills form part of the campaign for peace. The Lennons will not perform while in Toronto, but are expected to announce plans for a massive peace festival to be held next year.

MYRNA LORRIE PACKS LOCARNO

By Ben Kerr

It must hurt to know that you've got something special to offer but nobody's interested.

I've been watching Dave & Irene Ralston hurting for almost two years now. Many times I've heard them say: "If it doesn't get any better we're going to pack it in."

Dave & Irene run a country music show, The Boot Jamboree, at the Locarno Ballroom in Toronto every Sunday night.

They're honest, sincere people, and they've been putting their heart and soul into promoting Canadian country music talent.

They didn't get into the business to make a lot of money. But they didn't intend to lose their shirts either.

They rented one of the most beautiful sites for country music that I've ever seen. The Locarno Ballroom, located on Danforth Ave. near the Main St. subway station, is a former theatre converted into a night club.

The accoustics are all an entertainer could ask for, and the atmosphere is simply out of this world.

Inject into this setting some of the finest entertainers in the country music business, and this should result in a packed house every Sunday night.

Not so. Something was missing.

A few weeks ago, Don Turner, Myrna Lorrie's personal manager, was introduced to the Boot Jamboree. He reached the same conclusion.

ALLDISC REPORTS 50% INCREASE

Toronto: Tony Frank, prexy of Alldisc Distributors, reports an increase in sales of over 50% from last year.

8 track and cassette sales have accounted for the bulk of the increase but disc sales have also shown advances.

Alldisc recently moved to their Queen St. location which is three times bigger than their old building but find that the overall increase in sales has made for space problems again.

In order to facilitate his mail order tape customers, Frank has put together a tape catalogue listing all 8 track and cassettes available. This together with his bi-monthly mailings has kept his staff of three exceptionally busy.

WEBCOR TO LARGER QUARTERS

Toronto: Webcor Electronics have moved from their Toronto St. location to a large warehouse, office and service department complex at 222 Front St...

Bill Patterson, vice president of the firm, reports a banner year for their new operation which has only been in existence since February of this year.

Webcor have fully recovered after a serious setback due the prolonged west coast dock strike and Patterson reports the New Year shaping up nicely. The firm will be going into the speaker business the first of the year.

Auto and home cassette hardware have chalked up excellent sales nationally and the demand for Webcor blank cassette product has opened up a whole new market. Patterson recently closed a deal for the blank tapes with K Mart, Kresges, and Woolworths.

Don came up with the answer which will undoubtedly put the Jamboree on the map. Myrna Lorrie.

Sure, the entertainment at the Locarno was excellent, but it was lacking a name attraction.

Don's theory was put to the test when he booked The Myrna Lorrie Show into the Lacarno last Sunday (Nov. 23) Result: a standing room only crowd.

Don wrote, telephoned or visited everybody he could think of associated with the record and publishing companies, radio, TV and trade papers, and many responded.

Among those present I noted were BMI's Whitey Hains, George Taylor, President of Rodeo Records, and his son Alex, who is with the CBC.

Phil MacKellar, popular Toronto radio personality, and Jack Jacob, who spins the country sound from midnight to morning over CHSC radio in St. Catherines were there.

Gary Buck, newly appointed General Manager of Capitol Records' Beechwood Music, and his secretary, the personable Margaret Topping, had Hal Yoergler, who was up from the Hollywood office, with them.

An unexpected guest was Don Quinlan, who writes for the University of Toronto paper The Varsity. Don is rapidly becoming an avid country fan and has already written several excellent articles for his publication.

Jimmy Clemens, who operates one of Toronto's top country night spots, the Edison, was particularly impressed with the wide array of talent on stage.

The first half of the show comprised mostly Boot Jamboree regulars, backed by the Country Showmen and emceed by Graeme Harris.

Outstanding as usual was pretty Donna Moon and the handsome Art Essery. Stan Taylor and Reg Cable put out some of the harmonies they've been displaying in night clubs around the country.

Elmer Harrison got his usual reception from his "down East" fans, and Omar Leblanc was also well received.

Stealing the show were the Madel children, Neil, 6, Darlene 13, and Bonny 21, Neil's "Gween Gween Gwass of Home" drew a thundering ovation.

The Myrna Lorrie Show, featuring Steve Glenn and Marie Babin, comprised the second half.

You've all seen Myrna Lorrie in person or on the Don Messer Show, so I don't have to comment on this seasoned pro's ability to put a song across.

And Steve Glenn, with his impersonation of Johnny Cash and other top country stars, well, he's something else.

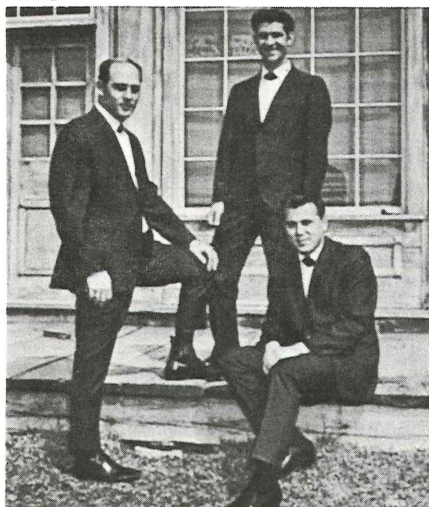

In the near future The Julie Lynn Show will be featured at the Lacarno. She's got a terrific show, and like Myrna Lorrie, you can expect another full house.

It's nice to see Dave & Irene Ralston smiling for a change.

And lets not forget some of the people behind the scenes like Jackie & Jim Scott and Bob Dalton, Canada's Country Music Ambassador. Without people such as these there wouldn't be any country show.

CHAPARRALS TO FAR EAST

Capitol recording artists, the Chaparrals will be heading across the Pacific in February for appearances in Egypt, Thailand and at Expo '70 in Japan. The Chaparrals have been working in Canada for the past few years with only fair response and Capitol sees the Eastern tour as the start of something big for the group. They will be travelling with USO entertainers to army and airforce bases in the area. The group's first album, "Riding High" has just been released by Capitol.

BOOK REVIEW

LILLIAN ROXON'S ROCK ENCYCLOPEDIA

Crosset & Dunlap, New York.

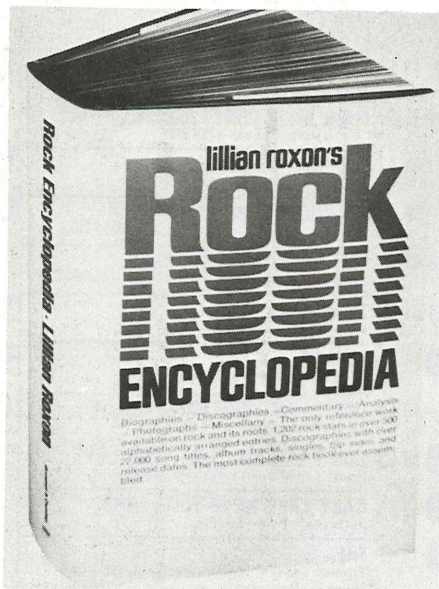

From "acid rock" to the "Zombies", the Rock Encyclopedia is well researched, well laid out and informative. Probably the book's most appealing aspect is its total impartiality, and abstention from taking a dogmatic stand on what constitutes good music and what constitutes bad music. Instead the entries are strictly factual and to the point.

The book is written in a concise, easily understood style, which makes looking up an entry a pleasure, not a chore. Entries include rock groups, individual performers, musical eras, musical styles and of special interest, a section on the Canadian Scene. Admittedly, it consumes only three quarters of a page in a book of six hundred and eleven pages but, as is to be found throughout the book, the point hits home: "A lot of good musicians, a lot of talent, but very little money spent on promotion and a strong emphasis on good imitations of current US hits."

Also of interest to Canadians are entries on the Paupers, the Mandala, the Kensington Market and Canadian artists who have made it big elsewhere, Steppenwolf, Zal Yanovsky and others. Included in this "Rock" encyclopedia are entries on Gordon Lightfoot, Leonard Cohen and Joni Mitchell.

In a book of this nature it is impossible to come up with too much original material and Miss Roxon doesn't, but presentation is so attractive that it is not a matter for too much concern. Especially pleasing is the credit given to some of the cornerstones of modern music. Among these are Pete Seeger and Johnny Cash, who quite often suffer at the hands of critics and rock writers who are unable or unwilling to admit their influence on today's sound, but receive their due from the author.

The encyclopedia consists of over 500 biographies, 22,000 single and album titles and contains information on over 1200 rock stars dating over a period of thirty years. No one book can contain all the information on the subject, but one fault was noted and that is the lack of information on important behind-the-scenes persons. Entries on Brian Epstein, Andrew Loog Oldham and Albert Grossman are conspicuous by their absence. However what is in the book more than makes up for what is not.

"SUPERSTAR" FROM DECCA

"Superstar" by Murray Head could well be the most controversial record of the year if it receives sufficient airplay. Head, who receives backing from the Trinidad Singers and a full sized orchestra, was the star of the London production of "Hair". "Superstar" comes from the rock musical "Jesus Christ" which, if all goes well, will make its premiere at St. Paul's Cathedral in London next spring. Opening with a gigantic orchestral piece the single continues with Head's harsh voice rasping out such lyrics as "Jesus Christ Superstar Do you think you're what they say you are?" and "Did you know your messy death would be a record breaker?". However irreverent the preceding quotes may seem, taken in context they are not and in fact the piece may even be meaningful. Accompanied by a chanting chorus of "Jesus Christ", which sounds although it belongs with Mahalia Jackson, the song includes an almost apologetic "Don't get me wrong, I only want to know" to cover all possibilities. "Superstar" f/s "John Nineteen Forty-One" 732603 is distributed in Canada by the Compo Company.

ALBUM REVIEW

MOONDOG

Columbia Masterworks
MS-7335-H

Don't classify set as classical. Potential is there for light or heavy listening. Composer Louis Hardin (Moondog) has an obvious rap with the past and a smooth today way of putting it across.

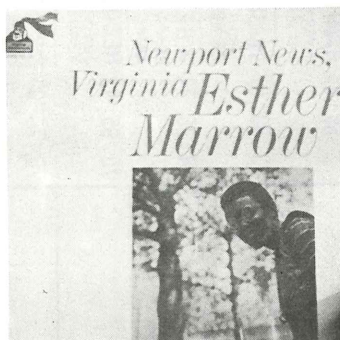

GUITAR IN GOLD 2

Franz Löffler
Polydor-543095-Q
Löffler guitar mastery with excellent guiding by producer Hans Bertram and arranging by Werner Twardy makes set a must for programmer with a yen for class guitar pickin'. A gem of an instrumental set.

NEWPORT NEWS VIRGINIA

Esther Marrow
Polydor-543119-Q
Marrow sound could be just what will revive jazz. Much much today flavouring. Excellent programming material for progressive sound formats (underground) and lotsa funk for non-jazz buffs as well.

JULIETTE'S COUNTRY WORLD

Camden-CAS-2341-N
A beautifully put together joint effort from the CBC and RCA. Canada's only female singer with an established star image moves with great ease into the country bag. Lotsa potential. Display well.

BEST OF TOMMY JAMES & THE SHONDELLS

Roulette-SR-42040-C
"Crimson And Clover", "I Think We're Alone Now", "Crystal Blue Persuasion", and their current charter "Ball Of Fire" makes this a stock heavy item. Set will make RPM 100 Albums soon.

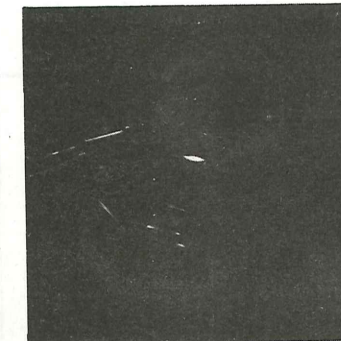

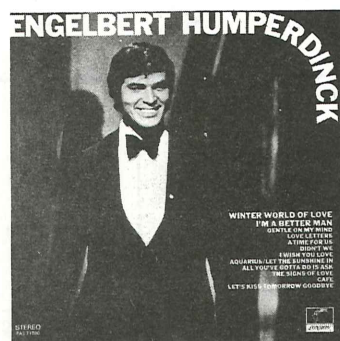

LIFE GOES ON

Paul Anka
RCA-LSP-4250-N
Anka fans will dig this one. He has a go at the Beatles' popular "Eleanor Rigby" and shows excellent form with "I Was There". Also contains his recent single release "Happy".

ENGELBERT HUMPERDINCK

Parrot-PAS-71030-K
This could be his top seller to date. Personal appearances of Britisher have guaranteed top sales. Excellent fare for MOR and can't resist material for MOT formats. Contains current hit "Winter World Of Love".

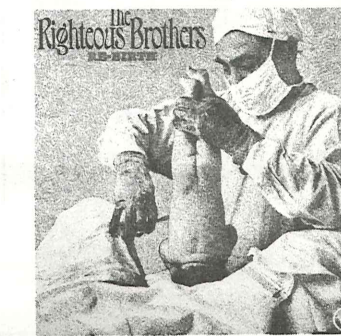

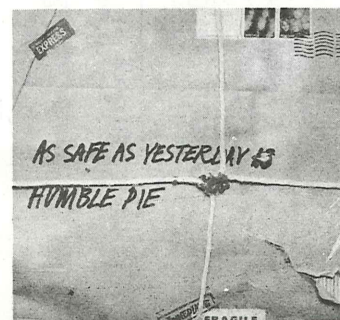

ALIVE ALIVE-O

Jose Feliciano
RCA-LSP-6021-N
Will be a much demand item. Particularly for those who have seen Feliciano in concert. Set recorded in concert at the London Palladium. 2 record set contains a couple of past hits and artist patter.

AS SAFE AS YESTERDAY IS

Humble Pie
Immediate-IMOGS-101-F
A pseudo-super group made up of two gone by the boards, Small Faces and The Herd. Country cum folk-jazz with funk is best description of this British group. We dig "As Safe As Yesterday".

RE-BIRTH

Righteous Brothers
Verve-V6-5076-M
RPM penned the expression "blue eyed soul" a couple of years ago. Hatfield and his new partner Jimmy Walker fit this expression beautifully. Could be what the industry ordered for duo.

Collectors Stir Calgary

Calgary finally got a taste of the Vancouver based Collectors. They had just played Edmonton's Gardens the previous night before doing a Sunday evening concert (Nov. 23) at Calgary's own Piccadilly Square. The near 1,000 in attendance were convinced to sit and watch as dancing is frowned upon on Sundays. From the very start, the group maintained a program of almost two hours of virtually non-stop original music, motion and most of all entertainment. "Lyon", "Sundown", "Yesternoon", "Rain", "17th Summer", "Must have been Blind", "Ballad", "I Got You Fixed", and "Early Morning" rounded out their only set. A standing ovation brought the group back for one last song, "Sometimes I'm up, Sometimes I'm Down". In addition to the tight instrumentation, The Collectors arrived on time, refrained from drawn-out tune-ups, and thanked the audience after each number. What more could you ask! Look to hear more from The Collectors in 1970 as they represent Canada at Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan.

Steppenwolf in Calgary? Radio Station CKXL brought in this $10,000 group to a very unreliable market, and it paid off.

Approximately 6,000 paid $3 to $6 on Friday, November 28 at the Corral.

Steppenwolf, featuring the strong vocals of John Kay, gave a solid performance by opening with their initial mild hit "Sookie Sookie" before delivering a few new songs from their just released "Monster" L.P. Also taken from their first Dunhill album and given top-notch treatment were "Born to Be Wild" and "The Pusher". The latter song drifted right into their big "Magic Carpet Ride" which concluded their performance. Other songs which deserve mentioning due to excellent presentation included "Draft Resistor", "Power Play" and "Move Over". Kay was aided on vocals by Goldy McJohn on organ, Nick St. Nickolas on bass, Michael Monarch on lead, and Jerry Edmonton on drums.

Bo Diddley and Little Richard gave a Sunday Concert to a disappointing 300 in attendance some time ago. Little Richard went through all his old hits which included "Lucille", "Good Golly, Miss Molly", "Tutti Frutti", "Keep A-Knockin'", and "Long Tall Sally".

This week, I would like to talk about the cost of a group. I would like to give you the range at which it is possible to obtain entertainers and give you examples of price.

A three man group within a range of 100 miles of Toronto, could be picked up for as little as $150. A Canadian group with a top name and the ability to draw an audience with just their name range anywhere from $600 to $800 for an engagement. You might even pay more for a group that has developed an international reputation and are sought after by many operators. A group with a hit record demands an even higher fee. The fact they are known by their hit records makes them a very hot draw.

If you are looking for a top attraction, it is advisable to make your demand early. The hotter the group, the farther advanced their bookings could stretch. You may find it difficult to get the group you want when you want them if you don't book far enough in advance. Besides you want the extra time to promote their date.

A trio can supply a very danceable and entertaining sound. A group of thirteen can supply a much bigger danceable and entertaining sound. The larger the group, the higher the price. (Continued)

1969 YEAR-END WRAP-UP

Let's FLASHBACK twelve months to January of 1969 and take a quick look at the events that made this past year an exciting one for the music industry in Canada.

JANUARY

The year started off with Glen Campbell topping the charts with Wichita Lineman. "Hey Jude" by the Beatles was being heralded as the top single of 1968. The Staccatos changed their name to Five Man Electrical Band. "Rainbow Ride" by Andy Kim topped the Canadian content charts. RPM announced the Canadian Music Industry Directory was skedded for Feb. 3. Compo presented Leapy Lee with a gold

CKXL AND COMMUNITY ACTION

Calgary: CKXL in Calgary, a Moffat station, is currently emphasising community activity and involvement in public affairs in its format. David Lyman, station manager, reports that the station has been "directing a concentrated effort toward the problems being faced by our community, and ways we might assist in solving them." To date, the station has looked at four major problems, both local and international.

Of first concern was the amount of press coverage being given to "student radicals" while the voice of "responsible youth" was largely being ignored by the media. CKXL's part in remedying the problem was to provide a forum for free and uncensored discussion of issues of interest to youth. "Youth Comment" is aired 5 days a week and features a one minute talk by a student of one of the local high schools or universities. The 60 second spots are aired in prime morning time to reach the older market and again in the evening to reach youth. Probably the most enlightened aspect of the idea, is the talker's freedom of choice on the topic discussed. This has always been a major stumbling block in similar attempts at the same end. Quite frequently speakers were not allowed to talk on subjects on which they felt the strongest, and as such the talks were largely meaningless. Equal time will be given to qualified spokesmen for the opposite viewpoint.

CKXL singled out as its next problem to tackle, youth's disinterest in religion. In an effort to promote interest in religion and adoption of conventional moral and ethical principles, the station, in association with the Unitarian Church of Calgary is producing a weekly half hour show titled "Both Sides Now". The program is aired at 10.30 Sunday mornings, and explores areas of conflict between youth and their parents. The show is moderated by Rev. Jerome Howell and is edited into short segments which are interspersed with modern music

The Band Returns

The Band will be in concert at Toronto's Massey Hall this January 17th at 7.00 pm and 9.30 pm. The Band, most widely known for their work with Bob Dylan, is yet another Canadian group who had to go south of the border to become popular. Of the five members, four are from Ontario: Robbie Robertson, Garth Hudson, Richard Manuel and Rick Danko. The fifth, Levon Helm, is from Arkansas. The Massey Hall date is the Band's first major solo appearance in Toronto. "Up on Cripple Creek" the group's current release is riding high on all major charts. Ticket prices for the Massey concert are pegged at 3.50 to 5.50.

relevant to the points discussed. Reaction thus far has been reported to be very favourable.

A problem of local concern was the inability of community associations to attract membership and support in order to carry on their work. In answer to the problem, CKXL and the Southwood Community Association sponsored a day-long carnival. Beginning with a street parade and winding up with a family dance, the carnival passed through a long list of events. A requirement for participation in an event was membership in the Southwood Community Association. William Sotham, president of the association reported an increase of 60 to 70% in membership after the event. In view of the success of the project, CKXL has offered to work with other associations in a similar manner.

The final problem, noted in the report from Calgary, was the matter of ambulance service in the area. Local ambulance operators were charging twenty six dollars for the service and in many cases demanding cash on the spot while the city contract specified a maximum charge of twenty. CKXL looked into the problem and caused the city council to investigate, the result being that charges of over twenty dollars made to users of the ambulance service had to be refunded.

CKXL admits that these are only a few of many, many problems facing the community but feel that they have taken a concrete step by their actions and that at least a start has been made.

Albert King and St. Louis Symphony Join Forces For Concert

Proving that musical categories are more in the mind of the listener, Albert King and The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra joined forces to present a combination of blues power and classical power recently.

Decked out in white tie and tails, Albert and his guitar Lucy, gave a special concert at the Powell Symphony Hall in St. Louis, Missouri. Albert brought along his three piece band and after an afternoon of rehearsals, their funky blues sound was combined with the musicianship of the eighty-four members of the symphony orchestra.

"These seem like very nice people back here. I don't know if they've ever played the blues before, but they're going to do it now," said Albert as he stood, looking like a politician at a victory dinner in his evening clothes, ready to begin playing. With the symphony rocking along, Albert went through his standards: "Born Under A Bad Sign", "Personal Manager Blues", "As The Years Go By", and "Crosscut Saw". Then, without the symphony, he performed, "Stormy Monday", "Everyday I Have The Blues", and "Kansas City".

After leaving the stage with a standing ovation echoing in his ears, Albert commented, "I never had so many strangers sound so beautiful behind me."

This is not the first time rock and classical musicians have mixed to make music, but it is the first time that I can recall that a stone bluesman like Albert has been involved in such a performance. As to the importance of such events, I doubt very seriously if adults who are fans of the classics came to this concert and were won over by Albert's sharp, stuttering guitar lines and his coal bin voice, but I'm sure that numbers of young people who came to this concert, who've been grooving on rock and roll blues, were turned on to the eighty-four man band's musical potential and excitement.

The rock and roll revival craze, although just beginning to catch on all over the country - has pretty much overdone itself in New York City, where it began several months ago. The first concert featured some of the all time greats like Bill Haley and Jimmy Clanton and The Coasters and the Platters. The second concert, held last week, featured more near-greats than greats - Shep and the Limelights, The Five Satins, Johnny and Joe and several other groups who mainly had one big selling hit, and, as the main act again, Bill Haley and The Comets. Although the audience, who looked straight out of the fifties, thoroughly enjoyed themselves, the applause seemed more for a way of life that has passed by than for the actual musicianship of the groups. Bill Haley, by the way, has signed a recording contract, and from the response that he has received at these concerts, I expect that he alone will have a one-man revival when his first album is released within the next couple of months.

The Who will reach the highlight of their incredible career when they begin a tour of five English cities with their rock opera "Tommy". The group is currently being swamped with offers for the film of the opera. A spokesman for the group said that there is a possibility that George Dunning, who did the animated "Yellow Submarine" film for the Beatles may do something similar for "Tommy". All five of the British concerts by The Who will be filmed for possible use in the future film.

The plans for the film so far are that it will not be just a straight, narrative version... but instead will be an extension of the album. Peter Townshend will most likely write additional music for it, and the name may even be changed.

"Tommy" is also to be expanded into a ballet form, with several ballet companies presently bidding for the rights.

ABC Records' Tommy Roe has been a consistent hitmaker for the label for several years now. Born in Atlanta, Georgia, Roe organized a five man band in grade nine. The group, known as the Satins played at dances and parties and became so successful they played together professionally for several years. While still in school Roe wrote "Sheila" which he performed with the Satins and was heard by a man from ABC Records. One thing led to another and soon ABC released "Sheila" which immediately proceeded to climb to the top of the charts.

"Sweet Pea", "Hooray for Hazel" and "It's Now Winter's Day", quickly followed "Sheila" to the number one spot. In 1966 Roe became a regular on "Where The Action Is" shown on network TV in the States. This served to increase his popularity to the point where every release is almost assured of success.

Roe's single "Dizzy", for which he has received the first RPM Gold Leaf Award, actually surpassed the required sales figure several months ago, topping the RPM 100 for the week of March 24th. 1969. His latest lid "Jam Up, Jelly Tight" has made national gains and is currently riding at No. 8.

ABC is distributed in Canada by Polydor Records, Canada Ltd.

From jams in the country homes of Eric Clapton and Steve Winwood came Polydor's Blind Faith. Ginger Baker, Cream drummer, began to sit in on the sessions and soon they found themselves in a London recording studio. Rick Grech, bassist and electric violinist joined soon after and on June 7th Blind Faith made their first public appearance in London's Hyde Park.

An eight week tour of the United States and an LP release soon followed and Blind Faith was established. Eric Clapton, well known as a blues guitarist, formerly played with the Cream. Steve Winwood, organ, piano and guitar, had previously belonged to the Spencer Davis Group and Traffic. Ginger Baker, drums, played with Cream and John Mayall. Rick Grech has had five years classical training and played with the Leicester Youth Orchestra. The group's LP "Blind Faith" is currently number 27 on the RPM 100 Albums Chart.

John & Yoko To Toronto

The Ontario Science Centre in Toronto was the scene of a press conference held by Ritchie Yorke and John Brower to provide the press with information on an upcoming peace festival for the Toronto area. At the conference, John Lennon announced plans for the festival to be held July 3, 4, and 5th at Mosport Park forty miles east of Toronto. Although no performers have been named yet, Lennon expressed hope that many of the big names of music would be there including Elvis Presley and some if not all of the Beatles. When asked if the performers would be paid, Lennon stated that it would be necessary to pay them in order to draw them away from other work. If the Beatles do appear, it will be their first public appearance as a group since 1966 when they stopped touring.

Lennon indicated that Toronto had been chosen as the site because he thought Canada's role in world affairs was a sensible one and he felt "good vibes" in Canada. If the festival is a success, and that is almost guaranteed, it will move to many locations in the world including perhaps Russia and Czechoslovakia. John and Yoko's campaign to sell peace as a consumer product is picking up momentum in Canada with an agreement between Lennon and Geoff Sterling of CKGM in Montreal to dedicate the station to peace. Lennon has offered to do the same for any other station which indicates their desire.

The festival and the peace campaign are being promoted and paid for in Toronto by free-lance pop writer Ritchie Yorke and promoter John Brower. The festival is being organized for profit but Lennon said that "the cream off the top" will go towards setting up a peace

CAPITOL RELEASES "ALL IN YOUR HEAD"

Ex-Animal, Hilton Valentine, has recorded his first LP as an individual performer. The album, "All In Your Head" is a startling departure from the Animal mixture of heavy blues, to a Donovan-like peacefulness. Valentine came from an Oliver Twist boyhood to riches almost overnight, and promptly proceeded to throw it away. After the Breakup of the Animals, Valentine became a recluse and did very little. Now, three years later, he is out of it and going strong. "All In Your Head" is the story of Valentine's life and what he has gone through and is an intensely personal album.

fund to be administered by a peace committee including Toronto's Rabbi Abraham Feinberg.
