ANDY KIM FORMS PRODUCTION HOUSE

Andy Kim and his brother/manager Joe have formed a new production company flying the banner of Copper Penny Productions Inc. The production house will be responsible for Kim releases as well as other artists now being signed. Initial production was Kim's "Who Has The Answers", a Canadian content single on the Uni label. Both sides of the single were written and produced by Kim.

He is presently working on his initial album release for the label which he will also produce. Material will all be Kim originals.

Joe Kim has just completed a million dollar long term contract deal whereby Andy Kim will record exclusively for Uni Records, a division of MCA.

The Kim family complex, based in Montreal also houses Joachim Music Inc (BMI); Denim Music Inc (ASCAP); and Joe Kim Management. Plans are now being formulated for a television production company with an "Andy Kim Special" already on the drawing board.

Offices are also maintained in New York and Los Angeles. The latter, located at Shoreham Towers, West Hollywood, has just been opened.

A tour of the U.S. is now underway for Kim to be followed by several dates in Canada and Europe.

RODEO'S SCOTT INTO OTTAWA'S BEACON ARMS

Hugh Scott, who recently saw good chart action with his Rodeo single, "Donna On My Mind" has moved his group into the posh Beacon Arms Hotel in Ottawa. Scott, who pens most of his own material, has been on the disc and gig scene for several years and although he hasn't had a hit in that time he has sold extremely well particularly in the areas in which he performs regularly.

Scott was seen on the popular Ottawa and area "Call It Country" television show which was aired Wednesday June 21st.

CHWILL'S "MOUNTAIN" MAKES STRONG INROADS

Heavy airplay by Canada's leading country radio stations has created a strong national outing for Edmonton's Eddie Chwill and his Barry deck, "Somewhere There's A Mountain". Eastern Canadian radio stations were among the first to chart or playlist Chwill's single which was penned by fellow Edmontonian Dick Damron.

CKBB's Jack Jacob (Barrie) and Vic Folliott of CKPC in Brantford leaned on the single after finding it had good listener response. Western Canada was led by CKX-FM Brandon Manitoba and CFCW Camrose Alberta. It was on the latter where Chwill was featured on the station's "DJ For A Day" series where they showcase country music personalities every Monday.

Chwill's "Mountain" moves into the No. 14 spot on the RPM Country Playlist this week and shows early indications of being a strong follow-up to his "There Ain't No Easy Way" single which topped the RPM chart not too long ago.

WALLACE REPLACES GUESS WHO'S KALE

Don Hunter, manager of The Guess Who, reports that Bill Wallace, well known Winnipeg musician/singer, has replaced Jim Kale in the group. Kale has joined Hunter's Fist and Ear management firm. The odd name came from the firm's accountant (fist) and lawyer (ear). The Guess Who's next album "Live At The Paramount Theatre" (Seattle) features all new material. One side of the set is comprised of two cuts only — "Truckin'" and their concert performance of "American Woman".

Hunter has arranged for John Kay, former member of Steppenwolf and now releasing as a solo on Dunhill, to appear with the Guess Who at the Toronto Fair (Aug 31). Negotiations were arranged through Reb Foster Associates of Los Angles. Whitey Glann and Huey Sullivan will form part of the back-up for Kay. They first played with the Guess Who at the Convention Centre in Anaheim California on May 26.

Gypsy, another group under Hunter's wing, into RCA's Los Angeles studios July 5 for an album session. Jack Richardson will be producing this American unit.

BMI CANADA GRANTED TARIFF INCREASE

The recent hearings before the copyright appeal board have resulted in a tariff increase for BMI Canada. Although BMI has not been able to fully project the full effects of the new tariff, it has announced that the higher rates will be passed along to affiliates with the revenue from the first quarter of this year. BMI will shortly make available a new Performance Payment Schedule to its members.

FLOOD MANAGEMENT GROUPS DOWN EAST

Two of Terry Flood Management's top acts are currently on a fourteen-city tour of the Maritime Provinces. Mashmakan and April Wine are appearing in various Maritime centres from June 27 to July 12. For April Wine, the tour is something of a homecoming as each of the four members of the group comes from a different Atlantic province. The group has not been home since their major hit, "You Could Have Been A Lady" broke.

Mashmakan, who hit with "As Years Go By" has been completely re-organized, the only original member being Pierre Senecal. Their new Columbia single, "Ride Johnny Ride" has just been released.

LEGREAND SET BECOMES QUEBEC STANDARD

The Michel Legrand album, distributed in Canada by Quality, is fast becoming a standard with Quebec stations, according to the label's Quebec promotion gal, Nicolle Vidal-Dufour. CKMF-FM Montreal was one of the stations that gave top airplay to the album particularly the "Les Chaines" cut.

Other stations leaning on the album include: CKAC, CFGL-FM in Laval, Quebec's, CKCV, CHRC and CHRD Drummondville.

FESTIVAL CLUB PRESENTS WOODY HERMAN AND HERD

The Festival Club, who have been pumping life into Toronto's jazz scene through their annual "Jazz on the lake" cruises, have signed The World's Greatest Orchestra, led by Woody Herman, for a Toronto date. Herman and his Herd move into the Palais Royale Ballroom July 11th, and display that sustaining power that makes the old that much better than today's pampered musicians. They start playing at 9 PM and finish at 1 AM. Advance ticket sales indicate a packed house.

The Festival Club also announces the dates and lineups for their tenth Annual Jazz On The Lake cruise. Their first cruise was held in June with the Toronto Island Ferry packed to capacity. Wednesday July 5th saw another good crowd on board the Sam McBride. Supplying the fun were: the Camelia Jazz Band and the James Hartley Blues Band.

The fourth and final cruise of the year is Wednesday August 16 with a repeat performance of the popular Camelia Jazz Band and Climax. Tickets for all cruises are on sale at A&A, The Book Cellar, and Mister Al. Principals involved with the Festival Club are: Ron Arnold, president; Ray Harding, Wanda Chervinski and Doug William.

AMPEX ACQUIRES GRAMM TAPE LICENSE

Ampex Stereo Tapes and Great American Music Machine Inc. has signed a long term agreement for Ampex to manufacture and distribute GRAMM product in Canada, Europe and the United States. Ampex's William Slover, vice president and general manager, made the announcement. The deal was negotiated with J. Carlos Shidlowi of GRAMM.

First release will be "Free Spirit Movin'" by Ralph Harrison, the first artist signed to GRAMM and a principal in the company. Single releases scheduled to be culled from the album are "The Message" and "California Bloodline". GRAMM is based in Englewood, Colorado.

FESTIVAL OF MUSIC INTO TORONTO'S O'KEEFE

The O'Keefe Centre (Toronto) was the site for the Festival of Music from Nashville the week of July 3-8. Starring in the show were Chet Atkins (Mr. Guitar), Floyd Cramer, Jethro Burns (formerly of Homer & Jethro) and Boots Randolph who emceed as well as performed with his orchestra who backed him up on his renowned sax to "Yakety Sax" "Shadow of Your Smile" and others.

RCA played host to three of their artists; Floyd Cramer with his unique piano all-time favourites along with his own composition of "Last Day"; Jethro Burns who is now doing a solo act since the loss of his partner Homer and one of the most respected guitar pickers in the industry Chet Atkins whose superb playing on both electric and classical guitar had the audience bring him back for two encores.

CANADIANISM - BUYING A PIECE OF THE ROCK

Dominion Day (July 1st) this year must have been a landmark in Canadian history. The growing feeling of Canadianism among Canadians became apparent as never before - and radio was right there - front and centre.

The holiday turned out to be an opportune time to do some radio listening and it was soul satisfying and damned astounding the amount of Canadian music that was being pumped out by the radio stations. The music was excellent - displaying an extraordinary "tune-in" factor. The attitude of the man behind the mike has changed which may have

living with it without too much discomfort. Most broadcasters have been guilty in their approach - perhaps through following the lead of those "professionals" who were hell bent on creating a fuss where there could have been peaceful solution. However, that would appear to be in the past. There's one slight problem - Canadians as a whole may be slightly ahead of broadcasters insofar as nationalism is concerned, which wasn't the case a few short months ago. There have been many happen-

HIS IMAGE BOLSTERS CANADA'S GOSPEL IMAGE

The majority of this continent's Gospel music is produced out of and centred on the Southern United States. However, there has been an appreciable move forward by Canadian Gospel groups over the past few months. Perhaps the most famous being the King James Version who created a mail draw never before experienced by the CBC when the Toronto-based group appeared on the "Tommy Hunter Show."

Handling much of the disc business for Gospel music is Word Records, with offices in Vancouver headed up by Gerry Scott. Their latest signing, His Image, are now released on Word (WCS5532) and are apparently scoring well with their new brand of contemporary Gospel Music.

In making the announcement of the signing, Word's Scott noted: "Seldom do we ever sign up a group as new as His Image, but I was completely overwhelmed when I heard this group for the first time, and I am absolutely thrilled at the spiritual impact they have on their audience. This is a Gospel quartet that is literally going to shake the country with its sound. It is the type of sound the young people are going to love, and so are the older folk. Their musical message rings out loud and clear".

Appearing in RPM's New Albums (July 1/72) the set drew the following comment: "Gospel music seems to be undergoing a revival, if you'll pardon the pun. His Image are in the forefront in translating a traditional message into contemporary styling. A select and devoted audience awaits this newest Word Album".

ings lately indicating that Canada is coming into its own. The flag of Canada is becoming accepted, by Canadians. Blue jeans and jackets come complete with a Canadian flag etched on the pockets. You'll find the Canadian flag on car windows and bumpers, flying from flagpoles in front of residences and large and small office buildings.

Really now - what did you expect to happen? The mere fact the music industry is making an attempt to sell Canada back to Canadians points up the fact that one of the very basic fundamentals is being looked after.

Slowly (and Canadians in the past have always been followers not leaders) we are discovering Canada, and our American visitors are beginning to notice this change (have you noticed the anti-Canadianism being displayed by a name tipster).

Prime Minister Trudeau, appearing on CFTO-TV's "Saturday Night", the Saturday before Dominion Day, reflected a somewhat unusual and knowledgeable awareness of what Pierre Juneau and the Canadian Radio-Television Commission meant to the economic structure of Canada. It was indeed encouraging to hear "the man on the hill" refer to the legislation of Canadian content and how it was beginning to bring Canadianism to Canadians by way of the publicly-owned airwaves.

Compare the product being put out today as opposed to a few years ago. There is more and the quality is, for the most part, comparable to any disc product in the world. It's having effect in other areas as well. Canadian artists are more readily available for television and public appearances, which you might say is the start of a "star system" in Canada. Most of our domestic stars are now internationally accepted. A record experiencing success in the U.S. and in other countries. Canadian compositions are being recorded by foreign artists and 80% of Canadian productions are comprised of Canadian copyrights. The Canadian music industry is slowly developing into an important export vehicle, an amazing contrast to what was happening in Canada five and six years ago.

It's interesting to note that Canada has become a threat to the world music market. We are now fair game to several important people in the international music scene who have taken us to task for getting into the music business. That, in itself, is a sign that as a music nation we are coming alive. When foreign protectionism becomes apparent, we can rest assured that we are a threat to the world music monopoly.

So, Dominion Day '72 is a landmark. In the next 52 weeks, we may find the trend growing. After all, we could do more than buy back Canada - we could buy into it.

A GRIM TALE OF WOE

I was sitting around the other night on a bit of a downer and I was trying to convince myself that things are not as bad as they seem in the Maple Music industry. Yet you can't escape it . . . things are grim right now. In fact, I cannot remember a time when things looked as bad for the domestic scene.

BURN THIS!
e. k. roy richard

Sure we made one hell of a potential dent in the European market with the Maple Music Junket, but how about back at home? It's pretty damn hard to find many encouraging viewpoints.

Take the Stampeders, as an excellent example. They are one of the biggest groups in the country in terms of record sales. Last year they had a two-million seller with Sweet City Woman (which, incidentally, I predict is going to sell another million in Europe in the aftermath of the Junket).

Since then they've had several hits, including Devil You, Monday Morning Choo Choo, And Then Came The White Man, and the latest, Wild Eyes.

The Stampeders edged out the Guess Who in RPM's Juno Awards last February, and they're now into making a 30-minute film for international distribution. There can't be much doubt that the Stamps are a mighty powerful act in Maple Musicland. God knows we desperately need another dozen Stampeders to get some adrenalin back into our music scene. Yet the Stamps have been running into the sort of bullshit which would not even be fitting for a group just starting out, let alone a band with nine years of Canadian music scene slavery and salt-mining behind them.

A couple of weeks back, Wild Eyes (the latest single) was submitted to the Maple Leaf System for review. At that time, the disc had already sold 25,000 copies. Check that out folks -- 25,000 copies sold and paid for. Both Lee Farley (of Quality Records) and Mel Shaw (of the Stamps' management) are understandably quite reluctant to rap about this particular trip, but you can take it from me that Wild Eyes was a legitimate best seller in Canada when it hit the MLS fan.

It had already reached Number 1 in Winnipeg and Peterboro and was top ten in at least six other markets. A proven hit, you might say. The sort of disc we need to push into the U.S. market which is notable at present only by its lack of Maple Music product. A record which represents no gamble for our chicken-arsed programmers, since it has already demonstrated its potential.

So let's examine how our MLS programmers demonstrated their keen awareness of new hit product (with numbers already behind it). Three stations (CHLO, CKOC and CKPT) gave it a 10, one gave it 9, two gave it 8, and there was one 7.

Those three great Canadian hit-makers — CKLG, CKXL and CFOX — voted it 5 (which presumably is a 50% grade). Well done fellas. Then that other bold programming innovator, CFRA (which I've often heard called the most unresponsive Cancon station in the country) gave it 4.

Starting to get the message . . . a record does 25,000 units in less than a month and this is how it rates with what are supposed to be the shrewdest programmers in the country. But hold it folks — there's one more vote still to come in.

CHUM, the most powerful rock station in the country, voted nil for Wild Eyes. I don't want you to get that wrong — CHUM said none out of 10 for a record which was top ten in eight markets, and is even now Number 1 at CKGM Montreal.

Now I ask you . . . where is that at? What chance does an unproven disc have on the MLS when a clear and positive hit gets nix. Perhaps there's a little politicking going down behind the scenes? I don't really know, and I couldn't really give a shit. That's not the point.

On the same MLS vote, the obvious hit by Foot in Coldwater (Anything You Want) was rejected. It's a first record by a new group, and one that is bound to ultimately make it (I'm told it now has 51 playlistings in the country). Yet it lost first time out. Our ace pickers.

Down in Windsor, our dearly beloved femme fatal, Rosalie Tremblay, dropped Wild Eyes from the playlist.

It had sold 10,000 pieces in the Detroit area, and U.S. records have often been charted with less units moved. But Wild Eyes is a Canadian record and that apparently means something else.

The whole point is that this entire programming picture is a farce. The development of the Canadian music industry is still being hindered by the same factors which kept it from happening until the CRTC stepped in — namely, broadcaster ignorance.

I don't know about you but I'm sick to death of the Maple Music scene being muddled up by a bunch of mother U.S. — oriented music directors who don't even know a Canadian hit when it's served up with chart numbers and sales sauce.

If you can't handle the gigs boys then why the hell not move out and let people in who can. Or are we going to have to wait until you die. Or we do.

For many a moon I've wanted a prominent Canadian recording company executive to lay down a picture of what it's really like out in the music marketplace — without fear of reprisals or vendettas. You can never really be honest while they can get back at you and harm your business.

At last I've found someone with the balls to put it all down on the paper. You'll read the first of this two-part series in next week's RPM. I urge you not to miss it because it is verbal dynamite. A lot of people will not be ready for it.

In just a couple of days, we are taking a plane trip as far away as it is possible to travel from Toronto. We are covering 12,000 miles on a journey to New South Wales, Australia to spend a month recuperating from the Maple Music Junket and to get our heads together on this whole Canadian music trip.

I'll be filing a story or two from the unique perspective of the Australian outback.

I feel certain that the Canadian music industry is going to look a lot different from that far away. I hope so.

In the meantime, have a nice summer and try to get things together. We need all the help we can get. Maybe even more.

CHILLIWACK INTO TORONTO FOR "RIVER" TAPING

A&M's Chilliwack, with their new man in tow, Glenn Miller, into Toronto to tape two shows for CTV's "Rollin' On The River". No airing dates available as yet but they'll be doing both new and old material.

The Vancouver-based group had to pull out of the recent Maple Music Junket lineup because of the replacement. They are currently putting together material for their next album session.

PENA/WALKER TOGETHER ON CANADIAN TOUR

Capitol's top blues guitarist/performer/writer, Paul Pena, has returned to the T-Bone Walker fold. They just completed a week at the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland where it was decided to resume their long-standing association.

They are already into their June 22 to July 2 date at Ottawa's Le Hibou, which was interrupted to enable Pena to do a one-nighter with Ike and Tina Turner in Wooster, Ohio. Pena and the Walker group then move into Hamilton for two dates (7-8) and over to the Colonial Tavern in Toronto from July 10 through the 16th.

Their first U.S. date will be at Joe's Place in Cambridge Mass. (17-30). Dates are being arranged through Pena's agency, Associated Booking.

VANCOUVER'S CHILLIWACK REORGANIZES GROUP

Just prior to the scheduled Maple Music Junket concert of June 7 it was heard that Chilliwack had broken up and would not be performing. It took a few days for the real story to surface. The truth is that Chilliwack did not break up at that time, and in fact are expanding. The three current members of the group visited RPM last week to discuss what had happened and their plans for the future.

Bill Henderson, guitarist and vocalist, acted as spokesman for the group. He stated that Claire Lawrence, brother of the group's manager Keith Lawrence, had left Chilliwack for reasons of his own, presumably to launch a solo career. With Lawrence's departure, Chilliwack now consists of three members, Henderson, Ross Turney on drums, and Glen Miller. Miller, the bassist, rejoined the group after an absence of a few years. He appeared on the Parrot "Chilliwack" album, the first following the name change from the Collectors.

Chilliwack is now in the process of breaking in one or two new members who will become a permanent part of the act. In Toronto to tape two segments of CTV's "Rolling on the River", Chilliwack left on the weekend to begin work on a new A&M album. It will be recorded sixteen track at Aragon Recorders in Vancouver. This marks the first time that the group has used Canadian facilities for their recording work. Chilliwack will produce the album themselves.

Released last week was a single, "Hit Him With Another Egg", a tune which Henderson says "must be heard". "Egg" is the group's first single release since "Lonesome Mary". The group will tour Canada after the release of their next album, then follow up with a tour of the United States.

MCNEIL OPENS NFLD. DISC/TAPE CENTRE

Ron McNeil has opened his own record and tape distribution centre in St. John's to service the entire Island. McNeil, prior to his own venture, was in charge of Crawford Atlantic a firm he has been associated with for the past six years.

Information is scanty on the McNeil operation at press time, but it's expected he will build the Island marketplace before spreading out to the mainland.

TPC ACTIVE IN VANCOUVER

Ray Ramsay, promotion representative to Taylor, Pearson and Carson, Vancouver, has been busy lately with Quality Records acts in town. Dan Hicks and His Hot Licks were the leaders of the invasion, performing at Infinity Fair. Despite minimal advance warning, Ramsay was able to provide some advance hype on the group. Commander Cody and the Lost Planet Airmen were the next into town, for a Queen Elizabeth Theatre opener. Cody arranged for numerous deejays, press and other media people to be in attendance. The group headed for Infinity Fair after the Queen Elizabeth gig to jam with Hicks and the Licks.

TAYLOR, PEARSON AND CARSON ON GODFATHER

Vancouver's Taylor, Pearson and Carson laid it on heavily for the "Godfather" soundtrack on the Paramount label, distributed by Quality. Radio station CKNW was chosen to head up the promotion due to the aptness of its format to the soundtrack material. The effort tied in with CKNW's "Orphan's Fund". Give-aways included tickets to dinner, albums and free passes to the movie.

To tie in with the promotion, TPC's Ray Ramsay arranged for newspaper ads and full stocking of "Godfather" product by all local rackers and retailers. The single release, culled from the album, was re-serviced to all radio stations and one-stops. Special in-store material was also provided.

EXTENSIVE WESTERN PROMOTION FOR STAMPS

During the recent west coast appearances of Music World Creations' Stampeders they were given the red carpet treatment by Taylor, Pearson and Carson, the Vancouver-based distributors of Quality and MWC. The group's first western appearance was at the Victoria Day Celebration, a three-day romp for the citizens of Victoria. TPC arranged for air time on both CJVI and CFAX.

The Stampeders then headed for Vancouver for a performance at Infinity Fair. There, the trio made an appearance on the Peter Alpen Show, airing over CKWX and the Jack Cullen Show. Following the radio work and just prior to the performance, King, Dodson and Berly rapped with Michael Bennett, the Vancouver rep for Canadian Press, and joined Brave Belt for an impromptu session at the Pharaoh's Retreat.

During the Stampeders' stay in Vancouver, TPC ensured that disc product was amply displayed. The back of the CKLG chart featured the group's latest album. A special "Big Mother" promotion was laid on by the Bay, in conjunction with 'LG and Record Distributors.

QUALITY ACQUIRES MUSICOR LABEL

George Struth has announced the acquisition of the Musicor label for distribution in Canada by Scarborough-based Quality Records. The agreement, signed by Struth and Art Talmadge of Musicor, includes all record and tape product on the Musicor label. Quality will both manufacture and distribute the product.

Initial release under the new deal is "Popcorn" by the Butterfingers. The pop-R&B instrumental is now beginning to show action in both Canada and the United States.

In addition to this new material, Quality also has rights to the Musicor catalogue which includes material by Gene Pitney.

STEVENS/PIE/WILLIAMS MAKING NEWS AT A&M

Latest from A&M and Paul Williams is the chanter's "My Love And I". American advances into Canada have impressed several programmers. The Canadian operation has rushed ahead their release date for the single.

Humble Pie's next single will be "30 Days In The Hole". The lid was culled from their "Smokin'" album through programmer pressure.

Cat Stevens is getting ready to move back on the chart scene once again. This time it's an uptempo bit called "I Want To Live In A Wigwam". It's a newie, not included on any album yet. Stevens is still chalking up good sales on his previous album releases, "Tea For The Tillerman" and "Teaser & The Firecat".

MARIPOSA BIGGER & BETTER

The Mariposa Folk Festival, one of North America's most consistent and best organized annual festivals of music, will take place again this summer, July 14, 15, and 16 on Toronto Island. In line with the Festival's policy, folk-rock superstars will not perform to prevent a repetition of the gate crashing which occurred two years ago. Instead the Festival will present a mixed bag featuring one hundred and fifty artists. Among the name artists are Taj Mahal, Bruce Cockburn, Dave Bromberg, Murray McLauchlan and Dave Bradstreet.

Various ethnic communities will be represented in song and music including Delta, Cajun, Maritime, Chicago Blues and others. Also on hand will be numerous crafts displays. Although the Festival organizers have done no advertising to date, ticket demand is already reported as being strong. Tickets to the non-profit festival are being limited to 10,000 per day at a cost of $4.00 advance and $4.75 at the site. Children's tickets are fifty cents. A complete program of Mariposa activities is available from the organizing office at 329 George Street, Toronto.

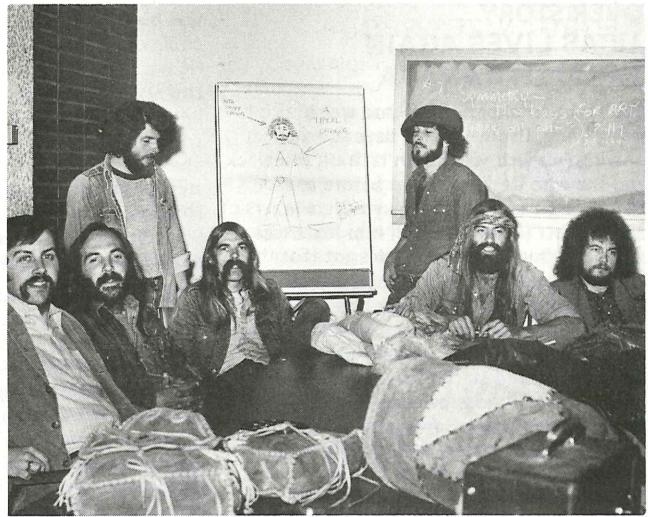

STAMPEDERS SET FOR CALGARY STAMPEDE

Music World Creations' Stampeders will return to their hometown of Calgary for a red carpet engagement at the famous Stampede. They recently stopped over in Calgary en route to their one nighter tour of British Columbia, to present special Gold Album Awards to two former members of the group. The trio, Rich Dodson, Kim Berly, Ronnie King and their manager, Mel Shaw, took the opportunity of showing their appreciation to Van Louis and Race Meyer for "the many hard years both had put in prior to parting the group and returning to Calgary".

On hand for the presentation were members of the local media, the Calgary Herald and Albertan both of which gave extensive news and photo coverage. CFAC-TV and local radio stations also extended their welcome to the Stampeders and congratulations to Louis and Meyer.

Claudia Valade, young Quebec charmer, has signed with United Artists - here with U.A's national promotion mgr. Allan Matthews.

It took IPC's Bruce Davidsen (l) three hours to get Cat Mother through Canadian Immigration in time for Infinity gig (Vancouver).

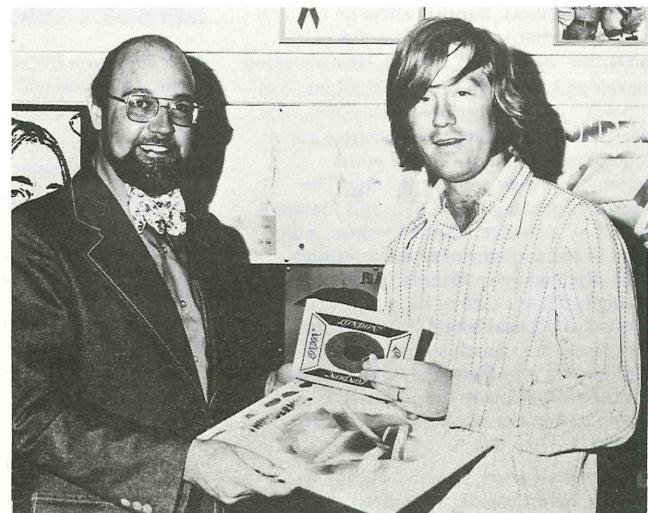

Much's Pagliaro (centre) in for Pindoff's Montreal "Music Explosion" promotion. The aggressive record supplier tied the promotion in with 145 sixty second spots on CKGM. Results from the four Morgan stores considered excellent by Pindoff's Bud Farquarson.

Rada's president John Rodney (l) signs distrib deal with Pan-O president John Woodson. First single is "Nadja" by Woodson.

Axe president Greg Hambleton (r) cues Media Man's Skip Fox in on new product he'll be handling for the London distributed label.

COVER STORY

LUCAS LIVES AGAIN THROUGH KANATA

Have you ever experienced that weird feeling "hey, I've been here before, man" knowing full well you haven't? Well, meet someone who has been there before and he's reliving a lost part of his youth. His name is Matt (his friends call him Mattress) Lucas, but this time 'round he's got that "gut experience", man. You heard that famous Ronnie Hawkins story about the guy in a southern bar who got nailed by a couple of rednecks and pulled a chain saw out of his car and started cutting the joint up looking for "those bastards". All this was happening while Hawkins and his group were performing. Well, Matt Lucas was playing a Chicago bar in the early stages of his career (1957), when during a lull (a rarity) in one of his songs, he heard the pop of gunfire just outside the door. The house emptied and Lucas found a black guy lying on the curb. He was going to give the guy a hand but the bartender said "leave it buddy - he's dead. I know from experience. It's Mike O'Bannon's birthday and he always shoots a nigger on his birthday". Nice folks - those Americans.

Lucas went on to get deeper and deeper into the rock and roll jungle. Managers, pimps, booking agents, whores, record execs, and dumb hoods - they all had something in common and they all entered and almost destroyed the career of Matt Lucas. Much of his early rock life was centred around his drumming ability and his easy come easy go backward personality. He was always in the background, backing imitators of Presley or whoever else was big in those days. He also backed Roy Orbison and lays claim to penning Orbison's big hit "Ooby Dooby" - and you know what that did for Orbison. It also got Lucas into the hummin' and singin' end of the business. It was a song by Hank Snow, "I'm Movin' On" that really got Lucas out into the open. This was in 1963 and it was as far from country as "Peter and The Wolf". Lucas blued it up and shot it out of his gut so hard it made Southern Baptists chew on their hymn books. Matt Lucas was ready to set the "bible belt" on fire. He discovered himself and, through positive thinking, had a "black" hit in his grimy white hands. But, with positive thinking, goes positive action. He peddled the record to the white stations, but they weren't buying. The black stations dug it and gave this Memphis white boy a chance. Rufus Thomas, a big name in the soul business and a leading black disc jockey in Memphis, was actually the big break for Lucas. He was the first to break the Lucas single. Lucas claims: "he played it so much and so many people were buying it in Memphis, it was on the charts before it made the playlists", adding "Then the white stations began playing it. They had to".

As the record went, so went Lucas - up. Atlanta, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco and on and on. The Mercury released single broke internationally and finally chalked up sales of more than three and a half million copies.

Pulling down a weekly take of $8000.00, which was big money in 1963, Lucas went the full circle of anything, everything and anybody. He began 1964 owning a fleet of Cadillacs and saw the year out with the hospital holding his baby in hock because he couldn't pay the hospital bill. That was the year of his big and final trip. His next step down was playing drums for John Lee Hooker, who at that time was just another blues singer. Lucas earned six bucks a day plus all he could drink.

This is where the Canadian content enters the picture. His wife happened to be from London Ontario and talked Matt into moving to the land of milk, honey and Johnny Cash freaks and taking a job with a printing company. It was a whole new bag, but at least he was making a hundred dollars a week. However, he still had a few knocks to go through - he met "heavy" Andrews. But then he met the Kanata people and with his knowledge of the business - from the old days, and Kanata's fresh new approach to the Canadian scene, they launched a single and album. The session was produced at Toronto's Thunder Sound with several of Canada's top musicians doing the backup. Early reports indicate that "I've Paid My Dues" (Kanata KAN 9) and the single "Old Man" could move Lucas back into the disc spotlight.

Matt Lucas has a unique and rare approach to the music business. He oozes confidence almost to the point of making you feel you're being conned - but mark that all down to experience. He also takes advantage of every possible situation and works it into a promotion gimmick. His most recent discovery was Madame Toussaud's Wax Works in Niagara Falls. He was guesting on a talk show at CJRN when he found out about the famous museum and somehow wangled photographs of himself and several of Mme Toussaud's famous guests. Holding tightly onto the Lucas album were King Henry VIII, Richard Nixon, Adolf Hitler, Chopin and many others. Needless to say, Lucas worked these photographs into a promotion piece through Kanata.

Another good thing that happened for Lucas was his being discovered by Harold Kudlets, who operates one of Canada's most successful and oldest booking agencies, out of Hamilton. He's now steadily employed and playing the busiest and most important club circuit in North America. By the way, Matt Lucas record product is 100% Canadian content.

Aarons and Ackley have released their second album on the Capitol label. The duo opened at Grumbles Coffee House in downtown Toronto for a week-long stint to celebrate the release. Produced by Dennis Murphy at Thunder Sound in Toronto, the album is entitled "You and I".

Aarons and Ackley have laid plans for the expansion of the group. The two are now in the process of acquiring a bassist and a drummer for live appearance work. The new group is expected to debut very shortly.

Meanwhile, Dennis Murphy of Sundog has been in New York placing material by his recently signed Truck and laying the foundation for a deal with Jason, the rock showband.

STANFIELD PRESENTS GOLD TO HARRY HIBBS

Robert Stanfield, leader of the Progressive Conservative Party and former Premier of Nova Scotia, presented Arc's Harry Hibbs with an RPM Gold Leaf Award for his most recent release. The presentation took place at Ancaster's Wentworth Curling Club (Hamilton) where more than 1000 localites, jammed into the club, danced and jigged to the tunes made famous by the popular Newfoundland.

The Gold presentation was the finale of the labour city's "Atlantic Provinces Week" proclaimed by Mayor Vic Copps in acknowledgement of the contribution made by the people of the Atlantic provinces to Hamilton and Ontario.

Hibbs is one of Arc's top money makers. Each of his six albums have sold in excess of 100,000 copies.

TRAVELLERS RESTORE CANADIAN IMAGE TO ONTARIO PLACE

In the light of recent criticism by RPM (July 1/72) of the "backing-off" by Ontario Place in presenting only Canadian talent at its Lake Ontario Showcase, it was interesting to find a Canadian group, The Travellers, restore some of the faith in the original concept. As part of the Millbank junket, the Travellers represented the only "stay-at-home" Canadian act and they did it up in their usual crowd pleasing manner, for ninety minutes (July 5) to a capacity house at the open-air Forum. The show was emceed by television personality Fred Davis and was free to Ontario Place visitors.

Imperial Tobacco, attempting to establish their Millbank brand, worked a deal with the Ontario Government whereby they presented "free" a lineup of foreign name artists including Vic Damone and Jack Jones. Rich Little, formerly of Ottawa, also appeared

LABEL WORK KEEPS PACE WITH JINGLES AT EASTERN

Jingle dates, radio and television commercials continue to make up the major action at Eastern Sound however, label work is keeping good pace. There had been some concern that a slackening off of label work had become evident. Murray Shields, Vice President and General Manager of Eastern has found this to be the complete opposite at Eastern. In fact his studios are now attracting several big names in the Canadian recording industry.

Ginette Reno was in just recently for London Records (Parrot) with Harry Hinde on production and John Stewart as engineer.

Columbia's Marty Butler, still chalking up good sales with his "Gotta Make It Together" album, taped a session with Ben Kaye looking after production chores and David Stock on the board.

Syrinx, with their lead John Mills Cockell producing, taped a session for True North with David Stock as engineer.

Other sessions included: Muppets for Columbia, Jim Henson/producer, Chris Skene/engineer; Paul Grady for Happy Sack Productions, Brian Ahern/producer, Jim Jones/engineer; and Rose for J.J. Stewart Enterprises, John Stewart as both producer and engineer.

on the cigarette bandwagon. The shows will be presented throughout the summer and fall months.

The Travellers are perhaps the longest running group in Canadian showbusiness. In name they have been on the scene for more than twenty years, although leader Jerry Gray is the only original member left. They have toured for the Government entertaining Canadian Armed Forces, toured the Soviet Union, appeared with Jack Benny, opened the Canadian Pavilion in Japan at Expo '70, and appeared in concert on behalf of the Canadian Government in Panama.

Today's Travellers are: Pamela Fernie, Joe Lawrence, Jerry Gray and Ray Woodley, Ted Roberts does the guitar work while Don Vickery looks after the percussion chores.

LONDON "SUPERSTAR" VERSION TO OPEN

Robert Stigwood has announced that the rock opera, "Jesus Christ Superstar" will open in London at the Palace Theatre during the beginning of August. The extravaganza recently opened on Broadway and is playing to packed houses. Productions are currently running in Australia, Scandinavia, France and Brazil.

The Decca album of the music from "Superstar" has racked up an enormous sales figure of over four million. Decca is released in Canada through MCA.

HEAVY ARTISTS ITINERARY FOR UNITED ARTISTS LABEL

Newly-formed United Artists Records has been busy lately. The label's prize English group Groundhogs hit St. Catharines on June 25th, for the first of three Canadian dates. Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto hosted the group on June 26th as did Montreal's Forum on June 27th. U.A.'s national promotion manager, Allan Matthews and Gordie Morrison, Ontario promotion, looked after the group during the dates. The Groundhogs' "Who Will Save the World" album, just released here, is now climbing the British charts.

Following the Groundhogs' departure from Toronto, Matthews hosted a private screening of the new United Artists movie "Duck You Sucker" for press and radio types. Copies of the soundtrack, on U.A. Records, were distributed. On the same day, June 27, the label's Del Reeves headlined a country show at Bolton, Ontario's Convention Centre.

EDWARD HARDING & GEORGE IN HALIFAX

Edward, Harding & George, met with a surprising degree of success during their recent two week engagement at the Black Knight Lounge in Halifax, reports manager, Mark Robbins. According to Robbins the ready acceptance of Edward, Harding & George's distinctive folk sound came as a bit of a shock to both the group and the management of the Lounge. The nitery is more accustomed to being played by traditional rock bar groups.

The group received standing ovations several days of the engagement, a rarity for a lounge performance, and have now been invited back by the Black Knight Lounge for a three week engagement.

COUNTRY ROWAN RELEASES ON VINTAGE LABEL

A new face has appeared on the country scene carrying the tag Bob Rowan. Like so many recent discoveries, Canadian Rowan release for the label. Although he has relied on foreign copyright for his first release, the plug side was penned by Dave Kirby, Rowan is building a solid repertoire of his own material. His album, "Rowan Country" contains six compositions he wrote or co-wrote along with five originals from other Canadian writers.

For the most part, Rowan prefers to work alone. However, for his recording, taped at Sound Canada with Art Snider producing, he utilized eight of the best musicians in the business. Says Rowan: "It's important for me at this point to produce as good a record as possible that will compete with other records for airplay on Canadian radio stations". He expects to form a group around him to create his disc sound, on stage.

Rowan is well known across the Ontario and Atlantic provinces' club circuit, which has been the basis of success for his record on several radio stations. CFNB in Fredericton gave his "One More Favour" a top berth on its chart within four weeks of release.

Unfortunately Rowan is suffering from that "lack-of-distribution" disease plaguing so many good country acts. He has relied, up to now, on his popularity through personal appearances but a voice as "big and easy" as that of Bob Rowan deserves national exposure.

comes from the Atlantic Provinces and calls Minto, New Brunswick his home.

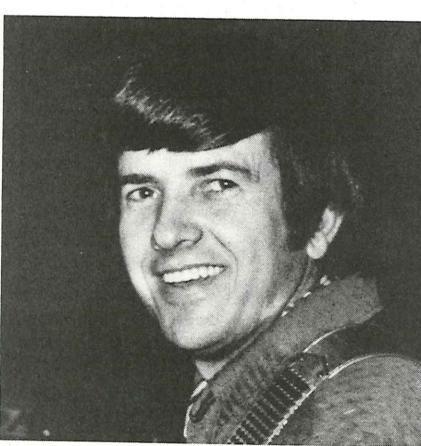

Rowan bowed the disc business with his Vintage release of "Words I Couldn't Find" and "One More Favour", his initial single

NEW ALBUMS

ROOTS AND BRANCHES

Dillards

Anthem ANS5901-U

Openly psuedo-Band, the Dillards are no less a group for it. They play folk-country-rock and play it very well. The superb production job is a great asset on such cuts as "Sunny Day". FMers already know about it, but MOR programmers should certainly give it a listen.

COME SUMMER

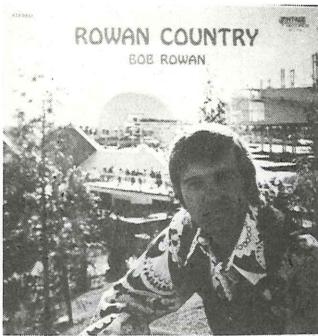

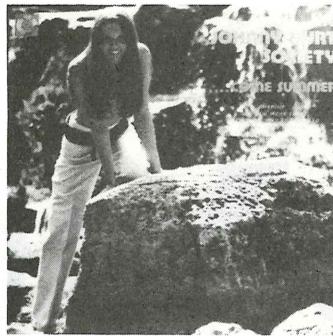

The Johnny Burt Society

Canadian Talent Library

477-5160-Z

The big daddy of the Canadian Talent Library's arrange/conduct staff, lays down a few hit sounds along with his own penning of "And You Were There". Great voice and instrument backup. "Candy Man" and "Cherish" right on.

MPL

THEME FROM THE PERSUADERS

John Barry

Columbia ES90099-H

FIELDS OF GREEN & SKIES OF BLUE

Sean Dunphy

Cynda CNS1011-K

A very impressive folk/country balladeer. Title song was produced in Canada by Jerry Krytiuk. The Tom C. Connors' cut "Jenny Donnelly" qualifies as two part Canadian. Don't tag Dunphy as ethnic. He has a lot of voice going for him.

PETER THOM

United Artists UAS5587-U

MPL

A sophisticated, sometimes up-tempo folkie, Thom is a native of Montreal. This album, his first for U.A. amply illustrates his considerable talent for composition as well as performance. The nicely arranged "Lunacy" and "Lullabye" are our favourites.

AMERICA EATS ITS YOUNG

Funkadelic

Westbound 2WB2020-T

One of the most confusing and interesting albums we've come across in a long time. It seems there must be at least a hundred artists who appear on it at one time or another from Funkadelic, Parliament, Doctor Music and other groups. Yes, it's funky, fun and good.

ROWAN COUNTRY

Bob Rowan

Vintage SCV119

Excellent guitar pickin' supporting this new Canadian country artist from down New Brunswick way. Strong and pleasing voice. We like "Stolen Moments In The Night" and "Lonesome Heart". No distribution yet.

MPL

ON RECORD

April Wine

Aquarius AQR503-K

April Wine are a study in contrasts, ranging from pretty dull noise-rock to excellent vocal harmonizing. Anyway, they do come across strongly here with "Believe in Me", "Refuge" and their current "Bad Side of the Moon".

MPL

NATURALLY

The Mercey Brothers

Harmony HE 90094-H

A potpourri of everything the Mercey Brothers did that was exceptional. This set points up the rock/folk/country potential of this highly talented trio - yet to be discovered. Lots of excellent programming here.

CLOCKWORK ORANGE

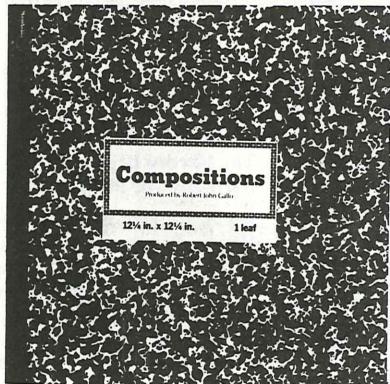

Walter Carlos

Columbia KC31480-H

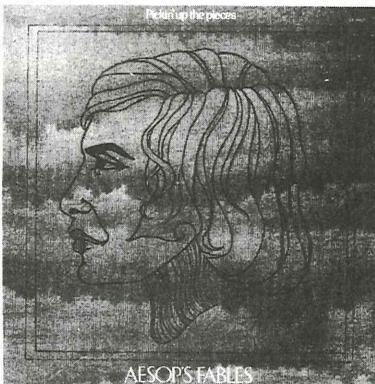

The unsurpassed master of the moog presents us with the original uncut score for Kubrick's masterpiece. Several of the cuts do not appear in the movie. Carlos' brilliant treatment of the fourth movement from Beethoven's ninth symphony bears hearing. A must for Carlos and Clockwork fans.

The Programmers
The Programmers
The Programmers

A WEEKLY FEATURE IN RPM

DESIGNED FOR CANADIAN

Programmers

THE MESSAGE IS ONE WORD - LISTEN !

In a word, I would say to programmers
"Listen!"

That one word is the key to a distinctive Canadian sound for the radio medium. The programmer must listen because in front of me there is a pile of material that I have assembled just over the past week of reading matter that would indicate to me that any

music director is capable of listening to very little and reading a great deal and he would still be able to program a radio station very well. In the pile are three trade magazines each thick with information on which records have passed the test of programming. Also included in the pile are four tip sheets just bulging with breakdowns of airplay in markets all over North America. In each of the seven sources of information, there is not only a summation of popularity of the records in question, but a market by market verification of the action. Proof positive.

Beside the pile of foreign publications is one thin Canadian source of record information. (It shall remain nameless.) Strangely enough the listings in this magazine are about one tenth the size (and so is the market and the population of Canada.) Most of the listings concentrate on foreign records. About ten percent of the listings are Canadian records.

If nothing else, the programmer's mind boggles with the amount of information that is available to him from foreign sources. In sheer volume, the information from elsewhere dwarfs the Canadian industry.

What is there for the programmer to do to compensate for all the (and I guess a word used by programmers is what I am looking for) "hype"?

LISTEN! Listen to the product coming out of Canada. I constantly sit down and listen to Canadian discs. I evaluate the work that is being done here, and I am pleased with what we are turning out. The disappointment comes weeks later when Canada's gifted producers get a few listings, a few plays and the outcome is "a non-hit".

Maybe I'm looking too hard and listening too hard to hear a Canadian hit.

But I'm not programming a radio station. There should be no inference here that I could if I had to. I can easily shove aside the mountain of material and listings that come from the United States and listen closely to Canadian product. Maybe I want to hear a hit so badly from Canadian producers, I really listen.

To compensate for the volume of product and information that does affect our industry, possibly the programmer can think about my one word message.

6TH INTERNATIONAL CHIN PICNIC

For the past five years, CHIN Radio, Toronto's major ethnic outlet, has held a picnic on Toronto Island. The Picnic usually includes various entertainers from around the world, food, contests and other picnic activities. This year, for the first time, the picnic will be spread over two days, Saturday, July 8 and Sunday, July 9.

Entertainment will include the Odum Ukrainian Choir, the Lithuanian Choir, the Italian Philharmonic Orchestra, the Vesnaka Ukrainaian Dancers, the Harmonie Club Dancers, the Armenian Masis Dancers, Pakistani Dancers, Russian Dancers and Choir and many other attractions. Contests include various eating contests; shish kabab, pizza, yogurt.

Also scheduled is an Italian Catholic Mass, spit roasted lamb and ox, and a Miss Bikini contests. Attendance this year may go well over the 100,000 mark. Last year, the Picnic drew 75,000 in one day.

CHAB Moose Jaw recently celebrated its 50th Anniversary with a "tear the town up" promotion and visits by former employees. Seen above are (l to r) Daryl B (CKLG Vancouver), Frank Callaghan (CKLG), Tom McBride (CKXL Calgary), Mark Love (CKXL), Dave Lyman (CKY Winnipeg) and CHAB's Tony Chipman and Vern Traill.

(with hitline) The hitline sure is hummin' today. With all these lights going on and off, I thought I'd won a free game.

(Jock) is just like a xerox machine. Never comes out with anything original.

Time for another helpful household hint. Here is today's, number 105. For those of you looking for the secret to Raquel Welch's figure, don't exhale.

I feel happier today than a new rooster in a henhouse.

(with C.C.R. record) I'm playing hit records regardless of colour, race, or creedence ...

Considering what we've seen of the latest swim suits the designers are working themselves out of a job.

(jock) is a nut on exercise. He touches his shoes 25 times. Then he gets out of bed and puts them on.

Station looking for drive jock, preferably for mornings but evenings will be considered; also evening jock with at least one year's experience and a continuity writer. Contact J. Jay Jeffrie.

RCA's Mercey Brothers dropped into CKCL Truro for an open line interview with Chuck Phillips. Good reaction.

CKOM giving away Beatles album to listeners who can identify the parent album of cuts being played. Two weeker contest runs in conjunction with Capitol and Simpsons Sears. I've found a way to make a car last a lifetime—Drunk Driving.

(Jock) Could have any girl he pleases. That's the trouble, he never pleases any.

(When you get caught off guard) Pardon me, I was under the desk counting the gum.

(Jock) used to go out with a twin. He never made a mistake and kissed the wrong one. No, her brother always wore a mustache.

(with taxi) Harry Chapin, the taxi driver, a guy who thinks nothing of going out of his way to make a buck.

Funny thing! I was in the bookstore the other day and came across a book called "Man, Master of the Household" — in the fiction department.

CHUM'S WATERS TO O'KEEFE MANAGEMENT

Allan Waters, president of CHUM Ltd. has been appointed to the Board of Management of O'Keefe Centre. The appointment was made by Metropolitan Toronto Council, now responsible for the Toronto showplace.

Mr. Waters, a leader in the broadcasting field, replaces Donald Ross, one of the original members who has resigned.

Taking over Toronto radio station CHUM December of 1954, Mr. Waters has built a strong radio and television empire with acquisitions in Ontario and the Atlantic Provinces. He has not restricted his activities to the broadcasting field. In fact he serves as a director of some 20 different corporations, both within and without the broadcasting industry.

Mr. Waters has been most active in the broadcasting industry, playing an important role in the formation of the Radio Sales Bureau, serving as its first chairman. He served as a Director for the Central Canada region of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters and as Vice President (Radio) for the Canadian Association of Broadcasters. In November of last year he was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Canadian Development Corporation.

Other members of the O'Keefe Board are C. Warren Reynolds (Chairman), R. Louis Christie, Frank F. Fisher, Donald K. Marquis, Miss Vida Peene and Noah Torno.

CKSL INTRODUCES ALBUM PREVIEW

CKSL, London has introduced a new Sunday feature, "Album Preview", program director, Dave Craig, takes a few minutes, twice a day on Sundays, at 8:45 AM and 6:15 PM, to discuss a recently released album and to play a few tracks from it. Craig has a solid background in music, going back to his days at the Royal Conservatory of Music. Record companies interested in having albums reviewed should send two copies to Dave at the station.

CKSL is also interested in getting a bit more action in the interview department. Station has a direct Toronto line (369-7200).

CRTC EXTENSION FOR CANADIAN MARCONI

Canadian Marconi Ltd. will be allowed to operate their radio and television outlets until Dec. 31 of this year. The extension has been allowed by the CRTC.

There are two major interests after the station, one headed up by Geoff Stirling who owns CKGM/CHOM Montreal, and the other listed as Multiple Access Ltd. (Bronfman) of Toronto. The Marconi complex is comprised of CFCF-TV, CFCF-AM, CFQR-FM and CFCX shortwave.

The Programmers INSTANT LAFFS

(Jock) is a loser. He shot an arrow into the air...and missed.

One of the girls that started to work here at the station was a struggling stenographer. If she'd have stopped struggling, she'd still be working here.

I know a lotta lovers sit in front of the TV for hours. Sometimes they even turn it on.

(Jock) is crazy to get married...and he knows it.

A comic strip is a stripper who gets laughs. It rained so bad, it rained cats and dogs. We were standing there in a poodle hailing cabs.

If you think that last joke was bad, one of the channels on television is running the Annette Funicello Film Festival all this week.

(Jock) is so nervous that he takes so many tranquilizers...if he breathes on you, you go limp!

Now what would they call the coffee break at the Salada Tea Company?

(Jock) is a hypochondriac. Just one of those people who can't leave being well enough alone.

I have a friend who had started a campaign to get rid of graffiti. He had a rubber stamp made that says, "Stop writing on these walls".

(Jock) was away for awhile. Everybody was asking for him. The landlord, the phone company, the milkman, the department of Revenue, the RCMP, the gas company, Scotland Yard, the local grocer, Alcoholics Anonymous, the loan company, Mike's Bar and Grill, the arson squad, Interpol, the CRTC... (Note: Go into music as the list continues and fade. Come out of music still reading the rest of the list).

Two Martians meet on earth. One says, "What's your name?" "465,301,275." "And what's your name?" "743,809,101." "That's funny, you don't look Jewish!"

If Bob Mathias had a brother who was a singer, would they be Bob and Johnny Mathias?

CHUM TAKES POLL ON MAYOR'S JOB

CHUM News entered the political arena (June 29) and took a poll to determine who might be the front-runner in Toronto's December mayoralty race. Mayor William Dennison has decided to quit politics and several Aldermen are expected to take a stab at the job.

According to the poll, Executive Alderman Tony O'Donahue, is ahead of the pack. In a survey of 100 city-dwellers, O'Donahue came up with 40% while Dennison, who isn't running anyway, polled 41%. Executive Alderman David Rotenberg came off with 12% with the remaining 7% to Ward 7

The government has just announced that they are going to create additional employment. They're going to put weather-stripping around the North West Territories.

This pollution thing is really getting bad. They're selling filters for Indians to send smoke signals.

They tell me that Las Vegas is getting crowded. No one has the plane or the train fare to leave.
