CARL BANAS VOICES A CHRISTMAS CAROL

It's a year later but Carl Banus is still creating excellent sales and plays for his Polydor album release, "A Christmas Carol". Banus, one of the heavies at CKFM Toronto, performs all the parts in the Christmas classic.

It was in the early fifties when Banus first broadcast "A Christmas Carol" live and received such a response from his listeners, the tape became an annual happening for him. In November of last year, Polydor approached Banus with the idea of putting out an album which would include his "Christmas Carol" as well as "The Night Before Christmas", "Is There A Santa Claus?", and an explanation of the Lord's Prayer which features a conversation between Banus and his son, Reed.

Polydor's label chief, Frank Gould, and national ad manager, Allan Katz, have concentrated on a national promotion early enough this year to take advantage of the Christmas season. Lori Bruner, the label's artist promo rep, has been working closely with Banus in picking up press and extra plays in the Toronto market.

Banus, besides hosting CKFM's top-rated 8PM to midnite and is known throughout North America to youngsters who are familiar with the Wizard and the Cowardly Lion on "Return To Oz", or Smokey The Bear, Mr. Toad on "Wind and The Willows and as being the voices of most of the characters on the NBC production of "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer".

Banus is also regarded as being Canada's most sought after commercial voice and can be heard several times daily, selling name products on radio and television from coast to coast.

RECORD BUSINESS UP IN OCTOBER 1972

Statistics Canada reports that 1972 continues to show increases in production for Canadian record and tape manufacturers. 6.59 million records were produced in October, up from 5.28 million a year earlier.

Production of pre-recorded 8-track tapes and cassettes increased to 1.11 million from 600,000 in October 1971.

GEORGE HAMILTON IV RECORDS CANCON MUSIC

George Hamilton IV will continue to release Canadian music on record, even though he has moved his home from this country back to the states. George wrapped up a four-week concert tour of the British Isles which included an appearance at London's Royal Albert Hall. Also on the Hamilton agenda was a network TV appearance for the BBC and a recording session to cut a single especially for the British market.

Now that the tour is completed, George Hamilton IV is back on this side of the world working on a new LP of Canadian music. The busy North Carolina Native recently moved back to his home state to spend more time with his family.

ANNIE TO PERFORM AT MIDEM IN JANUARY

Capitol recording artist Anne Murray has been selected as one of the principal artists to perform at the world-renowned MIDEM Festival in Cannes, France. MIDEM is considered to be the key international gathering of the world music business, with 5000 trade people from all over the globe attending.

While in Europe for the January '73 MIDEM, Anne will tape several international television shows in England. This will mark Anne's third European excursion in the last ten months, and a host of concert dates are planned. Her recent appearances, coupled with two giant British hits ("Snowbird" and "Destiny") led the British Country Music Association to select Anne Murray as this year's number one female country recording artist. The award was just announced in Britain.

Anne Murray's latest single "Danny's Song" continues to climb the RPM 100 chart in its third week of release.

COLUMBIA PREPARES HEAVY SCHEDULE OF RELEASES

Top of the list for future releases from Columbia will be Contraction, who have just gone through a name change from Musis. This Montreal group, produced by Columbia's A&R chief, at Andre Perry Studios will release in both French and English

Also set are album product from John Allan Cameron - "Lord Of The Dance", produced at Toronto's Eastern Sound; Edith Butler, and Marty Butler's "Can't You Hear The Music", produced by Ben Kaye.

Columbia have discontinued the first volume of the Oak Island Treasury and are releasing Vol II in a deluxe package with cover art work for the $2.98 set, executed by Christiana.

Also from the east coast and with a new name and deluxe packaging comes Ryan's Fancy, formerly known as Sullivan's Gypsies. This too will be released as a $2.98 item along with the Calamity Brothers, another Maritime group.

Tommy Hunter fans will have an opportunity to pick up his "Greatest Hits" album, released with a suggested list of $2.98.

For the more serious record buyer there's another Ivan Rebroff, with a new image (physical) and a trip with the light classics "Lieder der Welt".

Most popular import item is the Saint-Preux "Le Piano Sous La Mer" ("The Underwater Piano"). Cover artwork for the Saint-Preux and Contraction albums is by Montreal artist J. Michel Fortier. The Saint-Preux set was released in November and is now picking up action in both English and French Canada.

Opening cut, "Departure" immediately gives one the false impression this is a "Starlight Concert" album, but "The Journey" soon shakes you loose of this thinking although Saint-Preux is definite in his approach to classicizing what is obviously music of today.

The album is released in both English and French packaging.

RICHARD GET IT TOGETHER FOR THEIR FIRST SOLO GIG

Richard (long for Dick) cut out on their own (11-16), for an appearance at the recently "glamorized" Embassy (no more motorcycle gangs etc.) in Toronto. Said one observer: "They're the most musically together, tight and professional groups I've ever seen. They're just so good, they'll never make it, on their own."

Robert Martin of the Globe, obviously not a fan of Anne Murray, noted: "What is remarkable about Richard is the fact that it is the same band that produces the bland mush in front of which Anne Murray sings. It's almost an act of musical schizophrenia." Well - you can't expect to have everything from Toronto critics. By the way, he dug the group.

Anyway, back to Richard, who appeared before an enthusiastic audience of Capitol pickers and a sprinkling of media people who braved a rare (for Toronto) December thunderstorm, to catch this polished collection of professionals who have everything - even a single release on Capitol. The title of the single, if you're interested, is "Dracula Is Coming To Town", which could pick up a few plays during the "Ho Ho" season - and that's unfortunate, because the flip "So Long My Friend", a Don Thompson penning, is excellent. According to RPM researchers, a few Adult Contemporary programmers also agree the serious side of Richard could happen. They'll be off with an album, self-produced at Eastern Sound, sometime after the new year.

Admittedly, Richard looks much prettier with the talented and beautiful Anne Murray up front, but as runners-up, they were obviously trying harder. They are comprised of Skip Beckwith, Pat Riccio, Don Thompson, Miles Wilkinson, Andy "Dracula" Cree, and Lenny Breaux. The latter didn't make the Embassy gig which gave Butch Watanabe the opportunity to jam with the group - and a Watanabe on a trombone is just too too ear caressing for description - beautiful, man (as they say in the vernacular).

Richard will continue to back Anne Murray and are off for a go at Midem and then will tour with Ms Murray and Glen Campbell.

A&M PREPARING SOUND 80 ALBUM

With two successful singles under their belt, "The Theme" and "Whiter Shade of Pale", the Winnipeg-based Sounds 80 Orchestra, will soon bow the scene with their first album, entitled "The Beginning". Jerry Lacoursiere, Director of A&M's Canadian operation, has been working closely with producer Bob Burns in the packaging and marketing preparations for the album.

The album was taped at Sound 80 studios in Minneapolis and was arranged by Bob McMullin and Neil Harris. The set contains both the "Theme" and "Whiter Shade" cuts as well as "Reverie For Lisa", penned by Burns, Johnny Cowell's "Walk Hand In Hand", and a couple of Whitey Hains writings, "Lost" and "I Wouldn't Know".

LIVE MET OPERA RETURNS TO CBC RADIO — DEC 9.

Live Metropolitan Operabroadcasts returned to CBC Radio Dec 9 which marked the 41st season for the popular Saturday Afternoon Met broadcasts. They have been carried continuously in Canada since 1931 (before the inception of the CBC) from the stage of New York's Metropolitan Opera House.

The Operas are heard over both the English and French Radio Networks, with special intermissions in French for the latter. There are a total of 120 stations, comprising the full Texaco-Metropolitan Opera Radio Network, carrying the opera performances during the 20-week broadcast season. They are also heard on an additional 90 educational stations.

The CBC recently hosted a press reception at CBC's Montreal headquarters, with several of the behind the scenes voices on hand. In appreciation of over 40 years of Saturday afternoon Met Opera broadcasts on CBC Radio, Frances Robinson, assistant manager of the Met; Schuyler Chapin, new acting general manager of the Met; and Milton Cross, the famous voice of the Met broadcasts, were presented with Canadian Eskimo carvings.

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

This year's Met Opera broadcast commenced with Verdi's "Otello" with two Canadians taking leading roles - Jon Vickers as Otello and Louis Quilico as Iago. Other performers included Teresa Zylis-Gara, Jean Kraft, Leo Goeke and Raymond Michalski.

Scheduled for broadcast are: "Die Walkure" (Dec. 16), "Die Zauberflöte" (Dec 23), "Faust" (Dec 30), "La Fille du Regiment" (Jan 6) "La Traviata" (Jan 13), "La Boheme" (Jan 20), "Un Ballo in Maschera" (Jan 27), "Macbeth" (Feb 3), "Rigoletto" (Feb 10), "Norma" (Feb 17), "Aida" (Feb 24) finishing up April 21 with "Lucia di Lammermoor".

Intermission features, almost as important as the Operas, include Opera News on the Air, Texaco's Opera Quiz with Edward Downes, the Singers' Roundtable, Instruments of the Orchestra, and Texaco's Roving Reporter.

Milton Cross will again narrate the plots of the operas, marking his 41st season with the Met broadcasts. He has never missed a program.

The Met Opera broadcasts have been sponsored by Texaco Canada Limited, for 32 years.

JOHN ALLAN CAMERON INTO EASTERN TOUR

Columbia-Balmur recording artist John Allan Cameron is spending December working on concert dates and TV appearances. Cameron just wrapped up TV sessions for Toronto's CITY-TV and CTV's "Canada A.M." and then returned to his native Maritimes. While in the East, his concert tour of Cape Breton and Newfoundland is being filmed by CBC-TV for a fifteen minute documentary-travelogue to be shown in January on Weekend.

The latter part of December will include a week in Halifax to tape a couple of pilot variety shows for the CBC. Two other John Allan Cameron shows have already been taped and telecast throughout the Maritime region.

JULIETTE & FRIENDS IN CHRISTMAS SPECIAL

Juliette kicked off the Christmas season on CBC-TV this year with an hour-long special aired Sunday Dec 10. Juliette performed several solo selections in the program of fun and song, and was joined by a distinguished lineup of guests.

Comedian Rich Little stepped in for some comedy music featuring the voices of John Wayne, John Diefenbaker, Robert Stanfield and Pierre Trudeau. Other special guests included Jerry Reed, Jack Duffy, the St. Michael's Boys' Choir, the Vern Kennedy Singers and the Roland Dancers.

LONDON GIVES HEFTY PUSH TO TAYLOR'S COUNTRY SAGA

Rodeo's recent release of George Taylor's "The Saga of Canadian Country and Folk Music" has become a popular item in both Canada and the U.S. Taylor reports copies of the album as being on display at the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville. Ken McFarland, Ontario Branch Manager for London Records, distributor for Rodeo product, has found good acceptance for the set throughout Ontario and expects to move many more over the holiday season. McFarland is also preparing television spots to be featured at various out-of-town stations - giving an assist to retail outlets in getting to the consumer with the package.

Taylor's "Saga of Canadian Country and Folk Music" takes a country nostalgia trip back into the late forties and fifties. The two-record set contains many of the big names of that era and those responsible for today's acceptance of Canadian country and folk artists. Included in the package are Don Messer and His Islanders, Marg Osburne and Charlie Chamberlain, Graham Townsend, Juliette and The Rhythm Pals, Winston (Scotty) Fitzgerald, Hal Lone Pine, Gaby Haas, Andy Dejarlis, Mac Beattie and The Ottawa Valley Melodiers and many others.

LIGHTHOUSE CO-FOUNDER INTO ADMINISTRATION

Lighthouse has announced that the New Year's Eve Show at Maple Leaf Gardens will mark the last performance of Paul Hoffert as a Lighthouse musician. Hoffert, vibes and piano player, will become a full-time administrator for the group.

In today's competitive and complex music business, adept management of group affairs is just as important as good musicianship.

Group leader Skip Prokop said, that with the increasing success of the group, it was vital to have an administrator that would be involved in Lighthouse completely. Said Prokop: "Paul and I have been together for a long, long time. We're going to miss him on stage, but I know it's going to be a lot better for all the members of the band."

As individual Lighthouse members continue to record albums separate from the group, Hoffert will be kept busy with publishing, recording and promotion. Previous administrator Bruce Bell will now be able to spend full time on Lighthouse gigs & tours. Rick Stepton will be the new Lighthouse member (trombone) and trombonist Larry Smith moves to piano & vibes.

Paul Hoffert has previously been involved in the administrative end of Lighthouse, but said the increasing workload made it imperative that he devote full time to it.

Lighthouse has 2 albums and a single in the RPM 100 charts.

BALMUR HAS EAGLE EYE FOR ANNE MURRAY FANS

Balmur Ltd., the Toronto management company, never was one to miss a chance to expose its artists to the public. Now they're filling the demand for photo albums of Capitol's Canadian Sweetheart, Anne Murray. The album is offered on a mail order basis through P.O. Box 71, Station L, Toronto and is priced reasonably at $1.50 postage included.

Annie's picture book follows her singing career from her high school days in Springhill N.S., through to world success in 1972. Besides several family photos, Anne is seen with such notables as Gene MacLellan, Glen Campbell, Jerry Reed, Gordie Howe, Merle Haggard and Paul Williams.

MERV SMITH RELEASES NEW NASHVILLE SESSION

Calgary's Merv Smith is back on the disc scene, this time with a Nashville session, "Come Along When I Go", a self penning. The Quality single was produced by Travis Turk, with back-up assist by The Smith Brothers, also given label mention.

Both the plug side and the flip, "Come Along When I Go" are copyrighted by Pretty Picture Publications-BMI.

Smith reports several Western Canadian stations have already charted the country deck with others now playlisting the single which he claim as having "a better sound than any of my other efforts."

ELTON JOHN FIRST ON MCA

Scott Richards, newly appointed national sales promotion manager for MCA had an easy task cut out for him as his first promotion chore, the introduction of MCA's first single on the MCA label. Elton John did the honours with his "Crocodile Rock" deck, penned by himself and Bernie Taupin with the flip, "Elderberry Wine" (same writers). The session was produced by Gus Dudgeon, in England.

U.S. trades have been quick to pick up on the single with several Canadian stations charting the lid before its release in Canada. MCA have now shipped in Canada with a report of heavy backordering.

LONDON OUT WITH STONES' MORE HOT ROCKS ALBUM

London Records is rush-releasing a new Rolling Stones album to hit the pre-Christmas market. Titled "More Hot Rocks (Big Hits and Fazed Cookies)", the double LP contains eight previously unreleased songs plus seventeen more (none of which are on the "Hot Rocks" album released one year ago). All tracks include performances by the late Brian Jones.

London is to unleash a saturation barrage of promotion and merchandising on the radio and retail levels, to coincide with the December 18th U.S. release date.

All sixteen of the previous LP releases by the Rolling Stones, have been certified gold.

DAFFODIL LAUNCHES THE IMMEDIATE SERIES

Frank Davies, president of Daffodil Records, has launched the Immediate (UK) Series with a national promotion campaign that should see their initial four album release, chalk up heavy sales. Off and moving are: "Town & Country"/Humble Pie, "Ogden's Nut Gone Flake"/Small Faces, "The Nice", and "An Anthology of British Blues" featuring Savoy Brown Blues Band, Jimmy Page, John Mayall, Eric Clapton, Tony McPhee, Stone's Masonry and Jo-Ann Kelly.

Other releases will include product by: Fleetwood Mac, Jeff Beck, Tony McPhee (formerly of the Groundhogs), Chris Farlowe (Atomic Rooster), and Rod Stewart.

It's interesting to note some of the nostalgic properties brought back by these releases. Small Faces were one of Britain's top groups during the early sixties. Their initial single, "Whatcha Gonna Do About It" became a giant hit throughout Europe. The original group was comprised of Steve Marriott, Ronnie Polonk, Ian McLagen and Kenny Jones. They split in the late sixties and re-formed in 1970. Marriott quit Faces to form Humble Pie in 1969 and a year later, Plonk, McLagen and Jones teamed with Rod Stewart and became The Faces. As the Small Faces they went through a period of lawsuits and bad publicity but were referred to as the champions of the young British musicians being largely instrumental in bringing about better working conditions and contracts for British groups at home and abroad.

LES EMMERSON SINGLE RUSHED OUT BY POLYDOR

The man who helped make "Absolutely Right" and "Signs" such big hits for the Five Man Electrical Band, has released his first single. Les Emmerson, who wrote or co-authored the majority of the Polydor group's successes, has "Control of Me" out on the same label. The side was written by Emmerson, and produced in L.A. with Emmerson and Ted Gerow sharing producing duties.

Les' new single is expected to hit hard and fast, if certified gold status on the Electrical Band's "Signs" means anything. CKLW and CFGO added it upon receipt.

In other Polydor news, Tapestry, now hitting with MLS station play and big U.S. interest on their "Music Doesn't Seem To Be Going Anywhere" single, have dropped from a trio to a duo. Judi Jensen has left, and group leader Jack Winters recently married lead vocalist Heather Woodburn. Polydor A&R chief Frank Gould said the changes were a good sign. He currently has Tapestry in the studio completing their first album.

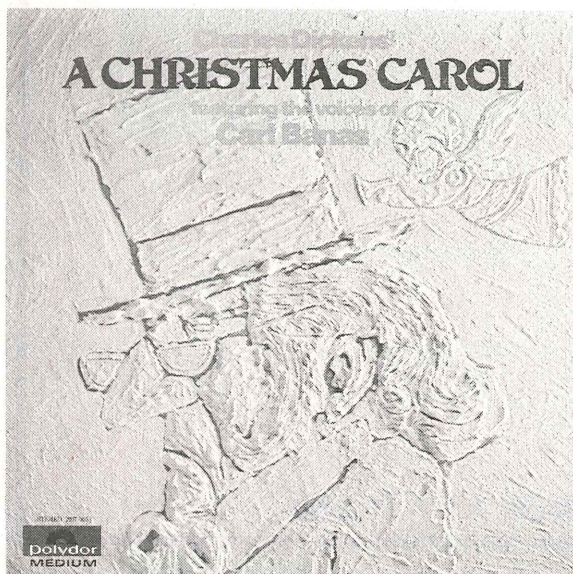

Gould also reports that an exclusive distribution agreement has been reached for all future product by Australian group The Bee Gees. Active chart climbers for ten years now, the Bee Gees saw Polydor Canada rush out the DJ copies of "Alive", their new single, within 24 hours of the signing with Polydor.

GRT ROLLING ALONG WITH NEW PRODUCT

GRT's Larry Green reports to RPM that Lighthouse (who else) is causing all the excitement lately. Group is a strong, strong seller in Canada with Lighthouse Live and Sunny Days LP's both doing great business.

Moe Koffman is keeping busy with TV appearances to promote his latest for GRT, Vivaldi's "The Four Seasons". Koffman will appear on CITY-TV Toronto as well as CBC and CTV network gigs in the near future. Meantime, the campus "Bump & Grind Revue" tour by Mainline is proving successful for the group, reviving their LP on the RPM Album chart. Green also is enthusiastic about the continuing airplay being given to Dr. Music's "Long Time Comin' Home", still climbing the RPM 100. Dr. Music will be doing a major appearance at Toronto's Colonial Tavern at Christmas/New Years.

New 45s to watch out for include the Chuck Berry tune "Reelin' and Rockin'". More in the old rock vein that Chuck is known for (rather than novelty material like his hit "Ding A Ling"), the single is expected to hit quickly. Green also would like programmers to give a listen to a new Metromedia release picked up by GRT. It's by Peter Allen, called "Just Ask Me I've Been There" and is an MOR/Top 40 "crossover" of the type that is making it big today. Blackstone (formerly Blackstone Rangers) have a new 45 coming from the LP "On the Wine", and Mike Graham has had the song "Redemption City" culled from his "Friends" LP, for immediate release.

MONTREAL'S TUDOR SINGERS ARE TEN

The Tudor Singers, a Montreal choral group, have celebrated their tenth anniversary with a Bach concert to be aired on CBC Radio in December. Originally formed in 1962 as a madrigal group performing only Tudor and Renaissance music, the Tudor singers marked their tenth birthday with a Montreal performance of Mass in B Minor by Bach. The concert drew praise from the Montreal Star and Gazette and was recorded for presentation on CBC-FM on December 1, and on CBC-AM on December 8.

Originally 15 voices, the membership is now maintained at around 35, but was enlarged to 80 voices for the Mass and was accompanied by a 29-piece orchestra. The music was conducted by founder Wayne Riddell, faculty member in McGill University's Music department and organist and choirmaster at the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, Montreal.

Producers for CBC Radio were Michael Cass-Beggs and Larry Lake.

LORRI ZIMMERMAN GETS RAVES FROM MONTREAL

Montreal's Lorri Zimmerman and The Vegetable Band are getting increasing interest on the local scene lately. Lorri played on the Elton John Concert at the Forum, then followed it up with a Place des Arts performance with Lighthouse. The Montreal Gazette called her performance "the best sounds of the night" while the Montreal Star wrote "An impressive performance was given by a local group, The Vegetable Band, before Lighthouse got on. At their best, they delivered good uncluttered rock; they were neither frenetic nor impetuous and were in control of their performance throughout."

Hoping to catch ears nationally, Lorri Zimmerman has a new single out on Sweet Plum, "Sixty Minute Man".

CROWBAR INTO STUDIO WHILE TOURING ENGLAND

Daffodil recording artists Crowbar broke off in the middle of their month-long November-December tour of England, to record at Island Studios in London.

Though no information is available on what was cut, Music Week reported Crowbar nearly "broke up" the place. It was a session that, reportedly, engineer Phil Brown won't forget. The recording date is the first since Crowbar added three hornmen, as reported previously in RPM.

The British rock press and daily papers have given close coverage to the high-energy rockers. Reviews have been extremely complimentary, with the patented Crowbar stage antics (Kelly Jay carrying people across the stage etc.) creating dynamite reaction. A couple of BBC TV appearances have helped assure sell-outs at virtually every stop on the tour. And the word is out everywhere that Crowbar is definitely "Canada's Top Band".

Crowbar returns to Canada December 12 to pick up the Bad Manors II bus and tour the Maritimes and Quebec for nine dates. The group will end up in Ottawa at Christmas for a concert at the National Arts Centre.

MACLELLAN TUNES WIN ACCEPTANCE

Beechwood Music of Canada reports that it's doing well with a new assortment of songs written by Gene MacLellan, quickly placing several of them on new record product.

MacLellan introduced the new songs in a September gig at Toronto's Riverboat, one of his rare public appearances.

Cliff Edwards, former leader of the Bells, will be using two MacLellan tunes on his first Polydor album to be released in January (as yet untitled). Mike Graham has chosen two songs for his first GRT album. Karl Ericson, newly signed to United Artists, has reportedly picked up four MacLellan compositions for his initial album release.

LP FOLLOWUP PLANNED FOR CHELSEA WIND

Quality recording artists Chelsea Wind plan to follow up their Celebration single "Oh No" with an album release in the New Year. Currently enjoying success on the club circuit, they ended a four week gig at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel in Montreal, moving over to Toronto's Airport Hilton where a media reception promoted the single release.

The deck received playlistings at CKOC, CHAM and CKEN, and the flip "Loneliness Can Really Get You Down" has achieved listings at CFRB, CKCY and CKEC. "Oh No" was also featured in the recent Chelsea Wind taping for the "Musical Friends" TVer.

CHAD ALLEN EXPANDS HORIZONS

Chad Allen, former founding member of top rock group The Guess Who, has produced and cut an album of his own material. Release details have not been arranged at time of writing.

Allen is on the writing staff at the Century 21 complex, and has several music industry projects going for him. Besides his writing and performing, Allen and Harry Hildebrand co-write many commercials coming out of Century 21. Several of the spots have turned into saleable tunes.

Recently, Chad Allen has signed several writers to his And Then I Wrote Music publishing house. They include composers for the groups Spice and Blakewood Castle.

Chad is also keeping his hand in production. He produced Blakewood Castle's latest single, "Scarecrow."

NEW MUSIC MAKES WAY INTO TORONTO SCENE

Toronto firm New Music Concerts is bringing to light Canadian musicians involved in experimental and electronic music. After a first concert earlier this season, New Music Concerts apparently decided the market could support another, and scheduled it for December 15 at the U of T's Edward Johnson building. Three groups will perform simul-

THE TORONTO WINDS TO REVIVE WIND INSTRUMENTS

A new musical ensemble calling itself The Toronto Winds has made its debut on the Canadian serious music scene. The Toronto-based group consists of flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon and French horn, and intends to promote the wind music which has of late fallen into neglect.

Music by Mozart, Haydn, Beethoven, Hindemith, Barber and Neilson will be featured, in appearances custom tailored to fit occasions from regular concerts to high school concert-workshops.

Members of the group are Melvin Berman of the U of T Music Department, plus TSO members Nicholas Fiore, Stanley McCartney, Eugene Rittich, and Christopher Weait. Since each of these players is active as a soloist and internationally renowned in classical music circles, The Toronto Winds promises to occupy an extremely important position in Canadian musical life. The ensemble can be contacted through Mabel H. Laine, 66 Hillholme Road, Toronto 7.

Featured will be David Rosenboom and Associates. Rosenboom, a professor at York University, was a pioneer in using computers and human brain waves to create music, and worked to develop early electronic music synthesizers. With a four-piece backup, Rosenboom will illustrate methods of improvising with jazz overtones.

Also to perform are Nexus, a Toronto six-member percussion group who perform new, improvisatory music, and The Canadian Electronic Ensemble, four composer-performers who will be accompanied by violin, trombone, and environmental visuals.

Handling publicity for New Music Concerts, is Toronto's Artists Canada Management, 164 Eglinton Avenue East.

STAMP LABEL DEBUTS WITH JOHN LAUGHLIN

Ralph Harding, a man with vast industry background, has announced the creation of the Stamp label, to be based in Vancouver. Harding was Ontario Branch Manager for Quality Records for several years, has worked for BMI, and most recently, he opened Studio 3, which has produced several west coast hits.

W.R. Bays, president of Quality Records, announced that his firm would be handling manufacturing and distribution for Stamp. The first release is a single by John Laughlin called "Changes in the Weather", which is receiving play on several western radio stations.

BAKER & THOMPSON INTO WEST COAST COUNTRY

Port Alberni B.C. native Gerry Massop passes along word on two new recordings that mark the first releases for Bruce Thompson and Dave Baker.

Bruce Thompson releases "I Have Seen the Rain" on London, written, performed and produced by Thompson. The single is his first effort as a country singer-songwriter, but not his first as a producer. He produced several singles and albums for the Lethbridge label Big Chief (now distributed by Rada Records, Vancouver). He also heads his own Lapelle Music publishing firm.

Dave Baker, formerly of the Montreal Folk Workshop, has a first single out on his own Tsunami label. The A side is folk, "West Coast Loggers' Saga" and the B side country "Now and Then". The single was recorded at Leslie Studios in Victoria B.C., with production chores also handled by Baker.

RIAA GOLD FOR COOPER AND MOODY BLUES LP's

Alice Cooper and the Moody Blues, neither of whom are strangers to RIAA Gold awards, have done it again. The Moody Blues latest LP, "seventh Sojourn" has just been certified; Alice Cooper wins identical honours for their latest album "Love it to Death".

The Moody Blues have six previous gold record LP's, while the Alice Cooper ensemble have two previous gold albums.

ARPIN & LIGHTFOOT ON NEXT CTL RELEASE

The Canadian Talent Library has announced it will release an album of John Arpin doing ten Gord Lightfoot songs. The new LP, out January 1, showcases pianist Arpin on both Grand Piano and Tack Piano. The album is as a result of the great reception accorded the last Arpin effort, Barroom to Baroque, which featured two Lightfoot compositions.

CTL's pre-Christmas release was "Vaya Con Juan", by guitarist John Perrone. Johnny Burt arranged the LP, and George Semkiw produced.

In other CTL news, star clarinetist Henry Cuesta sends along the word that he's having a great time since joining Lawrence Welk. His first number on the Welk TV show was "Just A Closer Walk With Thee" which he recorded for CTL five years ago.

NEXT WEEK OUR SPECIAL YEAR END WRAP-UP EDITION

Season's Greetings

DESIGNED FOR CANADIAN

CRTC PROTECTS CJVR MELFORT AGAINST TV

Radio CJVR in Melfort, Saskatchewan, will be protected against undue loss of sales revenue from a new TV rebroadcaster in the area. The unusual decision came as the CRTC approved a rebroadcast station which would be owned by CKBI-TV Prince Albert and CFQC-TV Saskatoon, and would serve the Melfort-Tisdale-Nipawan area. This area now gets CBC television service from CKBI-TV.

The new station will repeat local news from the CBC outlet, and will pick up CTV programs from CFQC-TV. Revenue from national advertising will go to CFQC while local spots will be sold by CKBI-TV.

Radio station CJVR Melfort had argued against approval of the TV station because it could face unfair competition if CKBI offered package rates for its two TV stations and one radio. The CRTC agreed, and licenced CKBI's new TVer on condition that it does not combine radio and TV rates in its sales offerings.

CKLG WINS MURROW AWARD FOR INDIAN DOCUMENTARY

Radio station CKLG, Vancouver, has received the Edward R. Murrow Award for the outstanding radio documentary in North America. The five-hour documentary, "Our Home and Native Land", examined the status and problems of Indians in Canada. The award was made at the recent Nassau convention of the RTNDA.

The documentary has also received the RTNDA of Canada's award, the Dan, and the H. Gordon Love News Award from the CAB.

CKLG currently holds the CAB citation as "Canada's AM Station of the Year".

JANUARY DEBUT FOR CJOK FT. MCMURRAY

Ft. McMurray, Alberta is the location for Canada's newest radio station. January first will see CJOK radio on the air, bringing the first local service to this developing area 275 miles northeast of Edmonton.

Appointed to the post of CJOK station manager is Stu Morton, who leaves the Program Manager job at CKRD Red Deer as of December 8. The holiday season will find Stu putting the operation in order before the first broadcast. One area where Morton needs the assistance of the trade is in building the CJOK library. Record companies are asked to add Stu Morton to the mailing lists at the following address: CJOK Radio, Box 3000, Ft. McMurray, Alberta. The music format will be a mix of music of today and contemporary country which will not be block-programmed, but blended together throughout the 18-hour broadcast day.

The Ft. McMurray area has a population of 8000 and is growing rapidly because of the Athabaska Tar Sands development. Payroll figures last year alone from oil processing companies totalled 21 million dollars.

CRTC TELLS WESTERN TO DISPOSE OF BUSHNELL

The Canadian Radio-Television Commission has ordered Western Broadcasting Company to dispose of any shares it holds in Bushnell Communications Limited. The government body had called Western and Bushnell before it on March 28, 1972 when it heard that Western had been buying shares in the Bushnell companies. The decision came in a two-page statement explaining why the subsequent Western request to purchase shares was being denied. Then, in a footnote, the CRTC directed Western to divest

MUSIC DIRECTOR SHEET READY WITH '72 RECAP

Top 40 stations are ready with year-end charts for the "Hits of 1972" programs. And MOR stations have not been forgotten by the Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts sheet "The Music Director". They will have their list of the top 300 MOR hits of the year out by December 29. To ensure that it reaches stations on time, the guide will go out by airmail special delivery.

Herb Jackson, Client Relations Director of "The Music Director", also passes along word that, due to the increased emphasis on programming oldies, oldie guides are also available for each year back to 1950.

Firm can be contacted at Box 177, Chestnut Hill, Mass. 02167.

RADIO YORK BOWS "RADIO YAK SHEET"

William Auchterlonie, Station Manager for Radio York, reports the introduction of the station's own bi-weekly internal newsletter, "The Radio Yak", put together by Promotion Director, Elaine Freedman. It was recently reported in RPM (Dec 2) that Grant Corbett's "Music Week" was being used extensively by Radio York. This information was not entirely true. Corbett had been associated with Radio York but severed his relation with the station and set up his own information weekly for those who might be interested. He is also a music reviewer for Excalibur Publications, although his "Music Week" weekly is not a part of the University's weekly paper.

According to Auchterlonie, two or three programmers do use the Corbett sheet but that the majority of the station staff use their own music tip sheet which is produced by Music Director, Claude Vickery and Programme Director, Chris Davis.

PROGRAMMER OUIMET TO HANDLE ANIK FOR CBC

Marcel Ouimet, programming V.P. for CBC in their Ottawa headquarters, has been shifted to V.P. of Special Services in a newly created department. The newly melded External Services and Northern & Armed Forces Departments will be looking to Ouimet to solve any problems resulting from the launching of telecommunications satellite Anik I. The satellite is expected to be sending radio and TV programs to the far north by Jan 1.

In other top-level CBC appointments, W.T. Armstrong steps up from CBOT duties to CBC VP of public relations.

PRINCIPAL MARKETS

This seems to be a week of cleaning out the charts and consolidating action of past weeks. There are seven records that are now listed on over half of the principal market charts in our sample, due to action over the past three weeks. These solid hits are: "Me & Mrs. Jones", "Stoned In Love With You", "Sweet Surrender", "Living In The Past", "You're So Vain", "I'm Gonna Love You Too", and "Crocodile Rock". All are happening across Canada. Edward Bear's "Last Song" continues its slow climb by chartings this week at CKFH and CKLG. "I Wanna Be With You" is on a great number of playlists, and is now transferring this action to chart listings. Stevie Wonder's "Superstition" gets chartings from CKFH, CFGO, CKLG, and is a record to watch with a number of other stations already having it on playlists.

PRINCIPAL MARKETS

The hottest newcomer this week is "Hi" for Paul McCartney's Wings group. Added at CJME, CKXL, CKLG, CKFH, and CKOM. Carly Simon adds to CHLO, CKXL, CKLG, CJME and CKLW play, with listings at CJBK, CFRW, CKY, CFRN and CHED this week. Three other records are also becoming staples in virtually every market: James Taylor, Elton John, and Terry Jacks. Taylor had CKVN, CKLW, CKY and CKOC last week, adds CKXL, CKLG, CFGO, CFRN and CKCK this week. "Crocodile Rock" is being aired on at least 12 out of 17 principal market stations in the RPM sampling. And Terry Jacks adds CKY, CKCK, CKOM and CKGM to total 13 out of 17 -- a national smash. "Oh Babe What Would You Say" picked up 3 major additions this week; the record is breaking slowly over a period of several weeks. Only other record of interest is Les Emerson's "Control Of Me" which grabbed CHAM and CFGO play after two days of release.

BREAKOUT MARKETS

Four records stand out this week among product added to breakout market play-lists. They are: "I'm Gonna Love You Too", "Crocodile Rock", "You're So Vain", and "Don't Let Me Be Lonely Tonight". These four are now airing at stations from coast to coast. Abraham's Children with their latest release, "Gypsy", are definitely a breakout this week. CKOM is the only major station playlisting the single but 20 breakout market stations are giving strong airtime to the deck after only one week of release. Three records that stand out as receiving solid breakout market action while only getting moderate play in the principal markets are: "Oh Babe What Would You Say", "Your Mama Don't Dance", and "Been To Canaan". Three others receiving quite a selection of breakout market action while staying outside most principal markets are: The Who's "The Relay", "And You And I" by Yes, and John Denver's "Rocky Mountain High". Records showing up for the first time this week include: "Natalie" by Robbie Rae, and "Killer Joe", the titler from Donny Osmond's LP.

Greetings

FROM THE STAFF AND ARTISTS OF A&M RECORDS

The

TRIBAL

Congrats to Chuck McCoy who heads to Vancouver and CKVN (now in the CHUM fold) to look after the musical chores. He was given a sendoff by his old CHUM buddies and industry people, Dec 14.

CJON St. John's get a fair bit of mileage out of the city's recent "Little Miss Downtown Beauty Pageant". Downtown businessmen organized the promotion with CJON broadcasting "live". Future St. John's beauty queens (3-6 years old) were in the limelight. Local interest special programming like this can pay off for almost any radio station.....great community image builder.

CFPL, the London adult station heavy on news and talk, has added the feature, "University Talks". The 2-minute program has a professor explaining his department's services or projects. University of Western Ontario faculty wanted to be more accountable to the public, by supplying information about UWO activities

CHSJ Saint John continues to readjust the program department. Morning man, John Caines, just appointed MD.

Changes at CHEX Peterboro: MD Ron Johnston gives up his 3-6PM airshift to Norman McDonald, and his music responsibilities to mid-morning man Ron Smith. Johnston joining the air staff of CHEX-TV. Another new voice is Dan Seabrooke, coming from CKAP Kapuskasing into the all-night CHEX country show.

CKEC New Glasgow N.S. recently reorganized to serve its rural listeners better. Current lineup is: Stan Carew 5:30-10AM with Jim Goldrich till 2PM. Wayne Spence does 2-6 and Frank Lowe-6PM-1AM. Lloyd Rose and Larry McInnes weekends. Operations manager is Don Walker, and morning man Carew is PD and MD. He is interested in getting tapes from young announcers interested in personality radio. Format is block programs, with emphasis on adult contemporary music.

"FIFTY FLASHBACK" BIG PROMO AT CFPL

Radio station CFPL London recently wrapped up "Fifty Flashback", a four-week audience-building promotion held in conjunction with CFPL golden anniversary celebrations.

130,000 entry forms, in the form of a calendar, were circulated in an elaborate tone-on-tone gold-colour 6-page newspaper supplement. The piece also included sketches of CFPL air personalities and news team, and sketches of some of the highlights in the station's first 50 years.

"Fifty Flashback" ran throughout the month of October, capitalizing on the mood of nostalgia developed over several weeks of special events and programming. Each day, a different golden year was featured, with listeners asked to enter the year on their calendar-entry daily. A weekly contest sent a solid gold watch to the listener having a correct calendar drawn.

Other opportunities to win included "gold albums" given away to callers whose calendar serial numbers were within a specified range. The grand prize was a sporty gold-coloured luxury car loaded with extras.
