Volume 21 No. 10
April 20, 1974

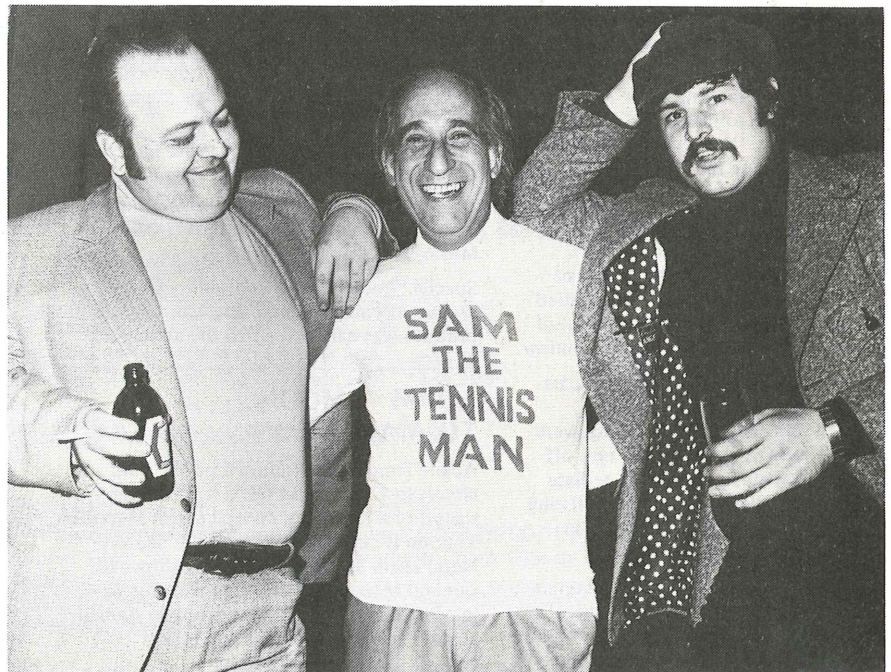

The National Ballet of Canada held its Second Annual Celebrity Tennis Tournament April 5, 6 and 7th and in one sense it was a success but financially, a bust.

The event was kicked off with a benefit rock concert at Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, by two of Canada's top recording groups, Guess Who and the Stampeders. The concert drew close to 13,000 fans and grossed almost $63,000.00.

The ballet reportedly paid $5000.00 for tennis headliner Bobby Riggs and in an effort to assure themselves of a successful event paid another $1,200.00 for tennis pro Pancho Segura. Peter Sever, ballet assistant manager, claims the tournament grossed approximately $10,000.00.

Pepsi-Cola, which sponsored the three day event, donated $15,000.00 and the Tennis Club another $3,500.00 and besides this the Women's Committee of the Ballet brought in $15,000.00 from the patrons package ticket sales. The advertising in the souvenir booklet grossed another $3,000.00.

Even though such stars, as Abbey Dalton, Mickey Dolenz, Sandra Giles, Cathy Lee Crosby and other celebrities attended the tournament at Windfield Indoor Racquets Club, only half of the 6,000 expected showed for the two day event. The services

SINGLE ACTION LOOKS HEALTHY FOR POLYDOR

The up and down importance of the single would appear to be up for Polydor this month. Mark Hodes, national singles promotion, reports a wide open programmer door for the recently released "People & Spring & Love" by Sunshine featuring Claude Philippe. Canadian "pop" giants have been so taken with the Canadian production they took the time to pen their comments to Hodes. Barbara Pocock of CJAD Montreal found "Immediate phone response" with CFRN's (Edmonton) Mike Cranston reporting "This is great. We'll use this right away." Harry Boon of CJCA Edmonton asks "How come there aren't more good Canadian singles like this, instead of all those gloomy ballads; this is what we are always looking for". Also out of Edmonton, Don Andrews of CHQT found the single as "It's a nice light tune". Other stations adding the single to their playlists are CFCF/Montreal, CFRB/Toronto and CKFM/Toronto.

Hodes is re-servicing the Sami Jo single, "Tell Me A Lie" together with a copy of the lyrics. He is convinced the single failed to reach its full potential and is hopeful of breaking the MGM single across the country.

Don Goodwin, who qualifies for two part Cancon (ML) on his Silver Blue single, "Time To Cry" (the words and lyrics were written by Paul Anka), looks like he's off to a good start with an almost immediate charting at CKOC/Hamilton and playlisting at CKLW/Windsor, CHEX and CKPT in Peterborough and CHUM/Toronto.

Back into the single fray once again comes the Five Man Electrical Band with one of their strongest entries for some time. "Were-wolf" has picked up several major markets in the U.S. and would appear to be breaking nationally in Canada.

The big news from Polydor is the chart success of Bachman-Turner Overdrive's "Let It Ride". Polydor's national team of promotion people put a great deal of effort behind this single and the album from which it was culled. The big payoff for Polydor and BTO was this year's Juno Awards. Bachman-Turner Overdrive were honoured as Most Promising Group of the Year and the "Bachman-Turner Overdrive" album picked up a Juno as Contemporary album of the Year.

RUTLEDGE TOUR COINCIDES WITH VAN-LOS RELEASE

Singer-songwriter Doug Rutledge has embarked on a three month tour of major and secondary centres in British Columbia and Alberta to coincide with the release of his Van-Los single, "Necessary Man" f/s "It's About Time". The tour consists of a series of dates varying in length from three days to a week from north to south and east to west in the two provinces.

Upon Rutledge's return to the Vancouver area he will immediately enter the studio for an album session before again hitting the road for a nation-wide tour. Van-Los is independently distributed.

QUALITY & MUSIC SHOPPE SHOWCASE CANADIAN ACTS

The first of what is a hoped-for series of showcasing Canadian artists, took place at Wexford Collegiate Institute in Scarborough (Toronto) Friday, March 29. Billed as Quality Records Artist Showcase Concert, the two hour show was put together by Quality and Music Shoppe Booking Agency.

The latter is one of the most aggressive of booking agencies on the scene today.

Featured at the show were Kanata recording artist, Peter Foldy and, from Celebration, Karen & David, Sugar Cane and Chester.

Those in attendance included high school and college entertainment buyers as well as press representatives. The show resulted in a number of engagements for the acts being filmed.

Emcee of the show was Quality's Joe Owens. Co-ordinating the show with Owens was Quality's national merchandising manager, Peter Graham and representatives from Music Shoppe.

Special "goodie" bags containing Quality promotion material and single and album product was handed out to the audience.

ADAM TIMOON TO MARATHON

Adam Timoon, well-known on the club circuit in Canada and the U.S., has been signed to a recording contract with Marathon. Timoon is currently working the Seaway Hotel chain as well as industrial shows for General Motors. He was held over for so long at the Seaway in Toronto they named a room after him — Adam's Room.

Marathon's A&R chief, Doug Taylor, has scheduled an album release for Timoon entitled "The Incredible Adam Timoon" which gives the singer a live concert atmosphere and gets him into pop, rock and Broadway show tunes.

PIERRE & FORESTIER GET IT ON AT TEMPO

Studio activity at Montreal's Tempo studios has been centred around two well-known Quebec female artists — Isabelle Pierre and Louise Forestier.

Ms. Pierre will shortly complete her set which is being engineered by Ian Terry and features Mario Bruneau on guitar; Leon Aronson, piano; Richard Pelletier, drums; and Gene Kurtz and Jean-Guy Chapados, bass. Lyrics for the Pierre session were put together by Roch Poisson with guitarist Bruneau in charge of the arranging. The album is to be released on the Barclay label, distributed by Polydor.

The Forestier album will not be released until September, allowing the artist to honour a European tour. The album is being produced by Editions OK-Solset Inc. with engineering duties taken on by Michel Lachance of Studio Tempo. The album release will be on Gamma, distributed by London.

EDMONTON SYMPHONY SET FOR ITV TAPING

Edmonton's ITV, or CITV as it is licensed by the CRTC, will go on the air shortly with a diet of movies, public affairs programming, variety offerings and significantly, a series of six concerts featuring the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. ITV is breaking new ground in several areas. Firstly, it is the first independent UHF channel to be licensed in western Canada. Further it will be one of the few commercial television outlets in North America to give support and exposure to a symphony orchestra on a regular basis.

Additionally, the channel will provide a good avenue of exposure for contemporary talent via the "Tommy Banks Show" scheduled to premiere this fall. The daily hour long program is expected to feature artists of international stature set against a backdrop of local western musicians.

VANCOUVER'S CHRIST CHURCH FEATURES NORMAN'S ROCK MASS

Vancouver's threatened Christ Church Cathedral played home this week to a multimedia "rock mass" composed and co-ordinated by the city's Marek Norman. For six nights the beautiful old church rocked to the sounds of a forty piece band and a one hundred and fifty voice choir, operating under the collective name of the Vancouver Youth Orchestra and Choir.

The fourteen-part mass was recorded live by Stoney Sound of North Vancouver for future release in album form.

The mammoth production, including a bevy of dancers, was also taped by the CBC in anticipation of an hour-long broadcast over the entire network sometime around Easter. Proceeds from the six-day long engagement go to the United Appeal.

CANADIAN & U.S. ACTS SIGNED TO MARATHON

Marathon, known basically as a Canadian content country label, has stretched south to Nashville to pick up three top performers from that Music Capitol of the U.S. Signed to a recording contract are Donna Darlene, the Calhoun Twins and Shot Jackson. The trio of acts will fly into Toronto on the Calhoun's lear jet for an April recording session.

Jackson, known for his talents on the dobro, can be heard on the Roy Clark "Family" album and has chalked up many U.S. national television appearances including "Flip Wilson" and "Hee-Haw".

Canadian country group, The Eastwinds, with Johnny Burke as leader, have also been signed to Marathon. They appear regularly on the popular "Harry Hibbs Show".

SKETER DAVIS STILL ON LIST OF GRAND OL' OPRY

Skeeter Davis, just returned from touring Africa had turned away crowds. The large halls in Nigeria, Kenya and Nairobi weren't large enough to accommodate the No. 1 girl singer in Africa. The young RCA artist presents her regular country concert with backing from her Nashville road group which leads in to a short sermon by Evangelist Bill Lowery.

Miss Davis is still apparently on the "baddie" list of the Grand Ol' Opry for remarks she made recently about the Nashville Police and their treatment of Christ Is The Answer group. Opry officials apparently are not interested in discussing Skeeter's suspension

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

which caused much concern within the ranks of those who have supported this Nashville institution for many years.

Contrary to rumours, Skeeter Davis is not planning on being married — now or in the future and she hasn't given the religious group all her money nor her property. She claims she has never been happier in her life and she plans to do her concerts and to work with the religious group when time permits. She will also continue to live in and work out of Nashville.

Considered one of her strongest records in some time, "Don't Forget To Remember" made impressive gains up the U.S. trades but suddenly stiffed. Some observers are of the opinion that if you offend the Nashville bunch you just open the door to many disappointments from those who have been indoctrinated by the "prophets of Nashville".

CANADIAN SCENE BECKONS RAPSON

Canadian Bob Rapson, enjoying a successful career in modelling and television work in the U.S., may return to Canada to become involved in the recording scene. He is currently working through Midland International a label on which he will release his single, "Someday", a recent Eurovision winner.

Rapson is actually no stranger to the Canadian recording scene. A few years ago he recorded a session at Lannie Williamson's Chelsea Sound (Toronto) which has apparently found favour with pop programmers across the country. It's expected that Rapson will be taping an album session for the Canadian Talent Library over the next few weeks. Rapson flew into Toronto a few weeks ago for talks with his manager Joy McDonald and with BMI.

TALENT SEEN Sammy Jo

STAMPEDEERS join THE GUESS WHO in concert for the Celebrity Tennis Tournament to benefit The National Ballet of Canada (5) at the Maple Leaf Gardens. What a show. The Stampeders were right on and my only concern was that they were used as a warmup act for the Guess Who, a group that doesn't need this type of pre-excitement. Anyway it was all done for charity and the crowd loved the Stampeders.....and what can you say about a group like the Guess Who, except it would be nice to see them dressed like Burton Cummings was the night of the Juno Awards.....white silk suits wouldn't hurt their image one bit.....it could add that touch of class we need in Canada.

CASTLE MANAGEMENT, headed by BILL TOWNSEND, JIM McBAIN and their promotion and publicity man, GRAHAM WOVENDEN, have succeeded by taking one of their top acts to being one of the most popular lounge acts in the business today,

A&M'S ALPERT & ALBUM READY FOR MARKET

Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass have set their sights on the disc and personal appearance market after an absence of almost five years. The Alpert album has already been released in the U.S. and should be ready for Canada by the time Alpert and his crew open at Harrah's in Lake Tahoe April 19.

Alpert the trumpeter teamed up with Jerry Moss back in the late sixties and their first production, "The Lonely Bull" started the Alpert ball rolling. It was in 1969 when Alpert was at his peak and had sold more than forty-five million albums when he decided to go behind the scenes at A&M.

His new album, "You Smile — The Song Begins" is what Alpert refers to as "a fresh inspiration".

URIAH HEPP & SLADE OFF WITH POLYDOR

Canada has one up on the U.S. with the Mercury release of "The Best of Uriah Hepp" (SRM 1-695). The album, not yet available in the U.S., was developed in Canada and comprises the best of the group during the period they were with Mercury (middle of last year).

The new Slade album, "Old, New, Borrowed and Blue" (Polydor 2383 261) has created some confusion with the U.S. release on Warner Bros, entitled "Stomp Your Hands, Clap Your Feet". The cover design is the same which also confuses the issue.

Slade have experienced some difficulty in North America with single releases that have proven giant sellers in other countries. The Canadian operation of Polydor established the group with their last single which had some spillover effect in the U.S. The Canadian single success has led to a healthy album situation.

BITTER BLUE, which is booked to September and engagements are now being negotiated to December. Castle Management has been obtained as Entertainment Consultants by MacKenzie's Corner House, 620 Church Street, Toronto, to bring in such top acts as ROY BUCHANNAN, EDWIN HAWKINS SINGERS, JERRY JEFF WALKER and even top Canadian acts as DAVID CLAYTON THOMAS and JESSE WINCHESTER. Artists managed by Castle are: BERTH, BITTER BLUE, COTTONWOOD, GREGORY LEE FITZPATRICK, ANN LOUGH, PURE COUNTRY PLEASURE, STRAW BOAT and FRED WERTHMAN Good Luck Jim & Bill.

JULES RABKIN, has been obtained as Entertainment Director for the Savarin Restaurant & Tavern, Toronto. Jules as most of us know is the Personal Manager for BOBBY G. GRIFFITH and has done a most successful job in this field.

CONCERT PRODUCTIONS INTERNATIONAL, will be presenting HAWKINS with MAN, FAIRPORT CONVENTION with TIM BUCKLEY, GENESIS, and GEORGE CARLIN during April and May, all at Massey Hall, Toronto.

SCRUBBALOE CAINE will be appearing at Massey Hall April 14th, Toronto with STEELY DAN, presented by ENCORE PRODUCTIONS.

GREASEBALL BOOGIE BAND, will be doing their special at the Colonial Tavern, Yonge Street, Toronto, from June 24th to the 29th. At this time, they will be presenting their new show and performing with the band will be the CATHY, MOREEN and ELAINE MURPHY, formerly from SUGAR & SPICE, Winnipeg.

YORKE'S ENTERTAINMENT CONTACTS, with offices in Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, have arranged a three week tour for A FOOT IN COLDWATER, beginning May 3rd. And also arranged by Yorke's Entertainment is a seven week tour beginning May 21st, for BROTHER LOVE in Western Canada. TIM GARAGAN, formerly of PEPPER TREE will record an LP this month. All selections will be written by Garagan and produced by Tim Garagan and SKIP YORKE of Entertainment Contacts Ltd.

COLUMBIA recording artist JOHN HAMMOND jr will be appearing at the McKenzies' Corner House, April 10th, through the co-operation of Castle Management and Columbia Records.

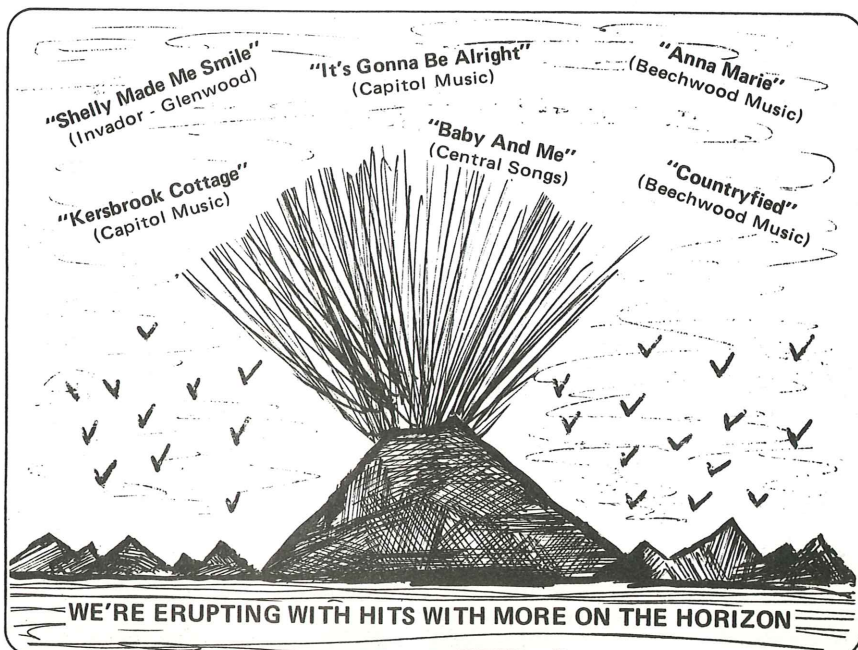

MIKE LAIS, owner of record store Stop 322, Peterborough, is presenting True North recording artist, BRUCE COCKBURN on April 19th, at Peterborough College Vocational Institute, Peterborough, Ontario . . . Good Luck Mike.

KAREN OXLEY, known for her appearances on Singalong Jubilee both as performer and musical director, will be making a guest appearance on ELWOOD GLOVER's LUNCHEON DATE on Thursday April 18th, on the CBC-TV Network.

Polydor continue their Mercury "Golden Imports" series with truly magnificent performances by Antal Dorati and the London Symphony Orchestra and Chorus of music from two great Russian Operas. "Le coq d'or" was Rimsky-Korsakov's last stage work and the orchestral suite has become a deserving favorite with audiences around the world. The suite contains four movements and is one of the composer's most brilliant orchestral scores. Alexander Borodin's opera "Prince Igor" is represented by the Overture which was written down from the recollection of a single performance on the piano by Glazunov, and scored by Rimsky-Korsakov, and the popular Polovetsian Dances which are presented here in their original version for chorus and orchestra. Beautiful playing enhanced by superb sound.

ADAGIO ROYAL
 Ensemble Instrumental Coecilia conducted by Paul Bonneau
FONTANA 6549 534

This Fontana disc which is pressed in Canada and distributed in Canada by London Records of Canada (1967) Ltd. is directed exclusively to Quebec listeners. The titles, and liner notes are printed in the French language only. Perhaps a separate release is planned for English speaking Canada. The album appears to contain a group of works written for the King's supper by Baroque composer de Francois de Boisvallee. Selections include a suite titled "Musique pour les fetes d'eau", a three movement work titled Premier Concert, followed by Deuxieme Concert for 2 Mandolines, string orchestra and harpsichord, and Troisieme Concert for piccolo, bassoon, strings and harpsichord, and concluding with a Tambourin Champetre. The performances under the direction of Paul Bonneau are authoritative and the recorded sound is fine.

HANDEL Overtures
 The London Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Karl Richter
DGG 2530 342

The London Philharmonic Orchestra reinforce their reputation as one of the world's greatest Symphony Orchestras in this latest Deutsche Grammophon release containing nine overtures from operas by Georg Friedrich Handel. The orchestra is here under the direction of Karl Richter and the harpsichord continue to be played by Hedwig Bilgram. The contents include Overtures to Alcina, Deidamia, Agrippina, Radamisto, Rinaldo, Jephtha, Rodelinda, Belshazzar and Susanna. The orchestra plays with breathtaking dash and virtuosity and DGG engineers have captured their characteristic sound with the utmost fidelity. The music has tremendous virility and nobility and should be a part of every collection.

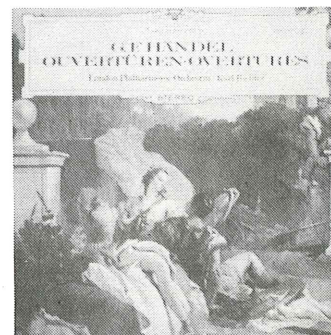

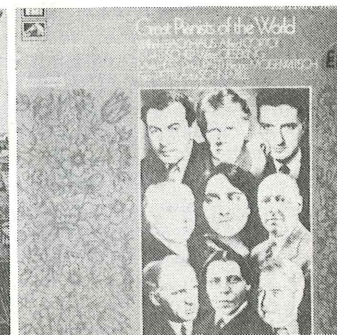

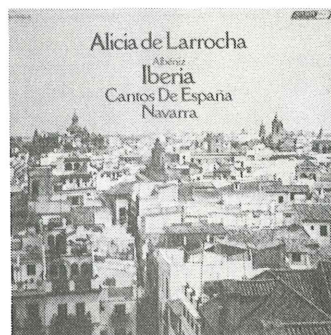

KING OF THE HIGH C's
 Luciano Pavarotti - Tenor
LONDON OS 26373

A showcase of hits from the recording career of Italy's most popular Tenor, Luciano Pavarotti. The selections are all drawn from previously released album and opera sets and give an impressive cross section beginning with arias from Donizetti's "La fille du Regiment" and "La Favorita". Verdi is represented by the popular Di quella pira from "Il Trovatore". Side two opens with the aria Di rigori armato from the recording of "Der Rosenkavalier" by Sir Georg Solti and Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra, followed by arias from Rossini's "William Tell", Bellini's "I Puritani" and Puccini's "La Boheme".

ISAAC ALBENIZ Iberia
 Cantos De Espana
 Navarra

Alicia de Larrocha - pianist
LONDON CSA 2235 (Two discs)

Spanish pianist Alicia de Larrocha has over the past twenty years gained a reputation as the greatest interpreter of the vast repertoire of keyboard music by the greatest composers of Spain. Isaac Albeniz composed the suite of twelve compositions entitled Iberia in the early years of this century. They are considered among the most difficult works in all keyboard literature ture and they have always held a special place in the repertoire of Alicia de Larrocha who recorded them for Epic label and Erator label on previous occasions. Her latest London recording benefits from superlative recorded sound. Side two contains a brilliant virtuoso work called Navarra which was intended as an added number to the Iberia suite but was left incomplete when Albeniz died. It was completed by French composer Deodat de Severac and dedicated to French pianist Marguerite Long. The set concludes with a first rate performance of the suite "Cantos de Espana" which contains a Prelude, Orientale, Sous le Palmier, Cordoba and Seguidillas. Better performances throughout could hardly be imagined.

GREAT PIANISTS OF THE WORLD

This EMI import is available in Canada through Capitol Records. It is a must for all lovers of great piano artistry. The programme begins with a performance by Dame Myra Hess of the Scarlatti Sonata in G, L. 387, full of sparkle and laughter. Edwin Fischer plays the "Turkish Rondo" by Mozart, and Artur Schnabel is superb in Schubert's Gb major Impromptu and the Moment Musical Op. 94 No. 3. The piano music of Brahms was always a specialty of Wilhelm Backhaus as the 1936 performances of the Intermezzo Op. 117 No. 1 and Capriccio in B minor Op. 76 No. 2 indicate. The side ends with the Gounod/Liszt Waltz from Faust played with steely-fingered dexterity by Egon Petri. Alfred Cortot begins side two with the Chopin Nocturne in Eb and Impromptu in Gb Op. 51, followed by Dinu Lipatti's superb performance of Ravel's Alborada del Gracioso. Walter Gieseking plays Debussy's La fille aux cheveux de lin and La plus que lente with memorable sensitivity, and the disc concludes with three Rachmaninoff Preludes played by the greatest of Rachmaninoff interpreters, Benno Moiseiwitsch. A wonderful souvenir of the golden age of keyboard pianism.

WINCHESTER AT TORONTO'S MacKENZIE CORNER HOUSE

Jesse Winchester is one of those rare artists who enjoy an almost fanatically loyal following. What he does, he does extremely well. His music is a subtle mix of folk and blues, most of the time, with a sensitivity capable of personally captivating an audience — providing the audience is willing to make a reciprocating effort. Sometimes they aren't.

Winchester played last week at Toronto's MacKenzie Corner House. Despite a cover charge, the audience seemed to be there primarily for a drink and not the music. Winchester still put his heart and soul into it though, but the eyes seemed far away. "Everyone's a whore. But don't complain if you don't cum", was the way Winchester shrugged off the first set. Later on, only those who came for the music stayed and I'm sure Jesse got off on it. He's an uncompromising artist and a real fresh breath of air. A new album from WEA should be forthcoming soon. - D.T.

VANCOUVERITES VOW TO SAVE ORPHEUM

The campaign to save Vancouver's Orpheum Theatre moved into high gear this week with a major benefit performance by Jack Benny and one hundred and ten members of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. Proceeds from the concert go to the drive to save the turn of the century showplace from the wreckers' balls and to restore and renovate it into a condition where it can continue to serve as a major venue in this city.

The Orpheum, seating close to three thousand, is an elaborate monument to show-business architecture of the early nineteen hundreds. Its gilt ceilings, beautiful foyer, immense chandelier, and other touches set it a world apart from contemporary theatres. In recent years the word has been out that the Orpheum would be reduced to rubble in order to accommodate a concrete and steel shoebox, prompting a cry of outrage from far and wide. Commitments are now being sought from the various levels of government that funds will be made available to safeguard and restore this monumental work of art from destruction.

Guess Who (Bill Wallace, Burton Cummings, Garry Peterson, Don McDougall, Kurt Winter) presented with plaque from National Ballet's Frank Augustyn (2nd from right) at Toronto benefit.

RCA's Ontario promo, Johnny Murphy, took his Guess Who message above the crowd at Sam The Record Man (Toronto) giving added sales boost to group during their Tennis Tournament gig.

RCA RED CARPET PROMO FOR ACTS

RCA's national promotion team are currently into one of their heaviest schedules of the year. Name acts as well as new names are being given a strong promotion representation on a national scale.

The Family Brown, an Ottawa-based country group played a good week at Adam's Rib in Toronto and are being given the promotion nod by the label's national country promo manager, Barry Haugen and Ontario promo rep, Tom Berry.

The Royal Alexandra Theatre in Toronto recently staged "Gypsy" with Angela Lansbury giving the original Broadway soundtrack a boost with Ontario pop programmers.

Scrubbae Caine, nominated for a Juno in the Most Promising Group category, returned to Toronto and three days at the El Mocambo (1-3).

The Carlton Showband have just completed a date at the Georgian Theatre in Barrie and took the week out at the Horseshoe Tavern in Toronto (4-6).

Three Dog Night played three dates in Western Canada, their only Canadian dates at Calgary (4), Edmonton (5) and Vancouver (6).

The Guess Who are now being given good press and radio coverage on their headlining this year's Tennis Tournament of the stars in aid of the National Ballet. The Winnipeg-based group, the first Canadian recording unit to headline the big show, did it all at the Maple Leaf Gardens April 5.

Hank Snow, making a rare charge up the charts with his "Hello Love" single played Toronto's Massey Hall April 6 and Scrubbae Caine the same evening at the Bayview Collegiate in Toronto. They followed this date the next evening (7) at the Kitchener Arena.

The Allan Sisters, Arpeggio recording artists, move out to their favourite haunt for an engagement at the Sheraton Cavalier in Saskatoon (8-20). Steely Dan cancelled

CHAMPLAIN ACQUIRES RIGHTS TO "HAMLET"

The Music Division of Champlain Productions Limited completed an agreement recently with Canadian composer Cliff for Massey Hall (14), David Amram back to Toronto and Egerton's (15-20) and Lee Roy and Donna Ramsay into the Lakeview Hotel in Kingston (15-27).

B.B. King returns to south central Ontario and a date at Hamilton Place (17-18) this time with the backing of the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra.

Gary Buck, now feeling his oats on the RPM Country Playlist with "Knowing That She's Leaving", returns to the Atlantic Provinces and an April 18 date in Charlottetown. Ferlin Husky into the Toronto scene (18-19) and David Amram fills out his act with backing by the Toronto Symphony Youth Orchestra at Massey Hall (18). Gary Buck moves up to Sault Ste. Marie (26) with Lee Roy and Donna Ramsay into Oshawa (April 29-May 11) and the Mercey Brothers, this year's Juno Award winners, head east for an April 30th date in Fredericton.

Jones for the rights to his rock musical "Hamlet". Champlain Productions has the development rights for a record album, outside Canada theatre productions and a motion picture. The pop music version of "Hamlet" was originally commissioned by and aired on CBC radio. It will be introduced to Canadian theatre audiences this summer at the Charlottetown Festival with Champlain Productions recording artist Cal Dodd in the title role.

The acquisition of the rights to "Hamlet" is the biggest project undertaken by the Champlain Productions Music Division, a subsidiary of Multiple Access Limited, owners of CFCF-TV Montreal.

HOSIER DROPS PLANS FOR FICTIONAL NOVEL

Jack Hosier has decided to drop plans for publication of a fictional novel with Anne Murray as the central character.

Hosier, Marathon promotion representative and country songwriter, had laid on a fictional kidnapping of the famous Canadian songstress, aiming the book at the children's market.

Apparently the current world situation regarding the novel's theme, and Balmur Limited, Anne Murray's management firm, brought about the decision to shelve publication of the book.

CAPITOL'S VAUGHN SET FOR CANADIAN DATES

Capitol recording artist Frankie Vaughn brings his London Palladium show to Canada for engagements in Ottawa and Toronto.

The Ottawa show was scheduled for April 9 through the 13th at the National Art Centre. The Toronto O'Keefe is next for two weeks (15-27).

Vaughn's most recent album, "Sing Song" (OU 2027) is distributed by Capitol-EMI Canada.

B.B. King, Gladys Knight & Pips at O'Keefe with Quality's Joe Owens and Gene Lew and RCA's Tom Berry and John Murphy.

Backstage at the Victory with Badfinger and WEA's artist promotion Grant Webb (2nd from right) winding up tour.

New Albums

JOSE FELICIANO — For My Love . . . Mother Music — RCA APL1-0266-N

This album was put together to follow up "Compartments" and it has done that, plus in my opinion it is a far superior disc. His Spanish style shows through in both his vocals and his guitar work. The use of both Moog and Arp synthesizers on both his strings and his horns give it a moody quality. For easy listening or for entertainment this is definitely a favorite. Side one has one cut by Harry Chapin, "I Want to Learn a Love Song" backed up by "Blame it on the Sun". Side two has "Shoo-fly" and one of the title songs "Mother Music". I found this album so enjoyable that I would buy it.

BO DIDDLEY — Big Bad Bo — Chess 9033-50047-T

In keeping with his past record of hits Bo Diddley has once again come up with another good product. His sound is unmistakable but it varies from rock to soul to blues. The extensive use of the horn section really gives you a "big sound" to please any stereo buff. His voice coupled with a slight amount of background vocals gives the album the sound he is famous for. From the sound of this disc you can tell why Bo Diddley is where he is today, and why his concerts and personal appearances are so widely acclaimed. Side one leads off with "Bite You" and "Hit or Miss" both of which really showcase his talent. On the flip side, we find a touch of a message in "Stop the Pusher". The album comes to a close with a song by Van Morrison known as "I've Been Workin'".

VARIOUS ARTISTS — Country Music Cavalcade — Marathon CMC 101-D

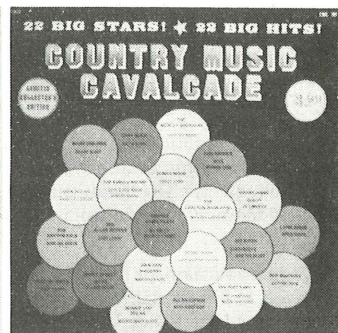

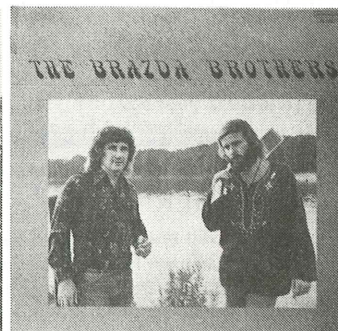

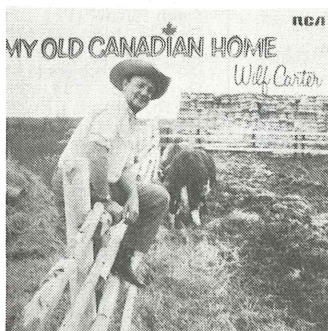

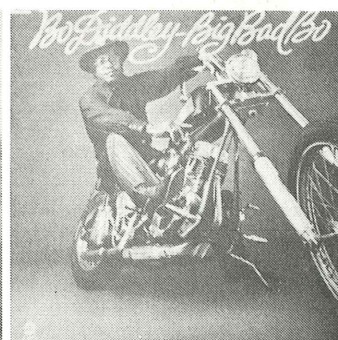

More than sixty minutes of comfortable country listening with some of the big names in the business including: Donna Moon, Mercey Brothers, Gary Buck, Harry Hibbs, Lynn Jones, George Hamilton IV, Dick Nolan, Marg Osburne, Family Brown, Carlton Showband, Diane Leigh and more. The package is certainly a collector's item and a must for country programmers. This is the first album of its kind and a great tribute to Canadian country music.

WILF CARTER — My Old Canadian Home — RCA KCL1-7007-N

With more than forty years of plugging his brand of Canadian country, this album is in keeping with Carter's image as Canada's first internationally-known country folk singer. The title song was co-written by Carter, John Klenner and Bob Miller. The Carter voice hasn't suffered any for the years of wear as evidenced by his yodelling on several cuts and in particular on "When It's Springtime In The Rockies" a Mary Hale Woolsey and Robert Sauer composition.

THE BRAZDA BROTHERS — Dominion LPS-93077

The Brothers Brazda have brought a little European folk to these shores and have attempted to mold a bit of North American everything into their first effort. As pure folksters Gin and Andy Brazda would probably fare much better than experimenting with sounds they are obviously not in tune with. A bit more knowledge of the English language would also help. Clean, simple lyrics would probably take the strain off what could ordinarily be strong communicative voices.

THE MOM AND DADS — Love Is A Beautiful Song — MCA 17025-J

They're back, Doris, Les, Quentin and Harold, flashing a Burt Kaempfert type album and already chalking up good sales with their unusual brand of old time music. This group has to be one of the most unique in the business. Seasoned programmers and record people wince when they first hear the Mom and Dads but marvel at the listener and buyer response when word gets around that a new album is in. You might laugh but so are the Mom and Dads . . . all the way to the bank. If you have any doubts, and guts, try a cut or two on your listeners.

This system of identifying Canadian content releases is used in RPM each week to show, not only those records qualifying under the CRTC 30% Canadian content regulations, but to also familiarize the trade with what parts of the record actually qualify. The parts necessary for identification are as follows:

M - Music composed by a Canadian
A - Artist is principally Canadian
P - Production wholly recorded in Canada
L - Lyrics written by a Canadian

JODIE DRAKE SET FOR SUMMER CBC

Jodie Drake, well known Toronto-based blues singer, has been filmed for a CBC-TV mini summer series. Besides Miss Drake the series will feature Gene Di Noni and friends.

To be produced by Robert Gibbons, the show will be seen Saturdays at 7PM. Kick-off date will be announced later.

of Limelight Productions from the U.S. were obtained to bring in such headliners as Clint Eastwood, Barbra Streisand, Burt Bacharach and Liza Minnelli, all of whom failed to appear.

The tennis tournament has been reportedly dismissed as a financial failure and a disappointment to the Ballet. The rock concert which drew 13,000 grossed $63,000 and was considered by the Ballet as a "huge success". Both the Guess Who and the Stampeders are Canadian acts residing in Canada.

THE EXCITING CASE OF (CBC vs. CRTC) vs. PARLIAMENT

The last few days have seen the CRTC winning over more print space and broadcast time than streakers, and probably causing more of a sensation. The Commission made some very strong demands on the CBC in an attempt to rid the network of "the North American merchandising system" and to combat the influence of the mushrooming growth of American television via cable. How the reduction of Canadian mass-appeal programming is to increase the influence of the CBC on Canadian viewers should be interesting to see.

At any rate, the most controversial demand is the phase-out of advertising on the network. The CBC's annual budget is $210 million, augmented by a sizeable $53 million in advertising revenue. The loss of this sum, in addition to the increased cost of programming the CRTC is calling for (estimated at double the present budget) poses a helpless situation for the CBC. Pierre Juneau has openly admitted that these demands cannot be met without further funding from Parliament. And so the power play is on, revolving around the CBC.

In addition to the critical situation the CBC is in, fear has been expressed that some of the thirty privately owned CBC affiliates will also be in financial difficulty since they receive a share of the CBC advertising revenue. The Canadian Advertisers Association has also expressed fear that a monopoly in television advertising will result in escalating rate cards.

The image of the CRTC certainly seems to be that of a power hungry bully. But to quote the Broadcast Act of 1968, "the national broadcasting service should be a . . . service of information, enlightenment and entertainment for people of different ages, interests and tastes covering the whole range of programming in fair proportion . . . serving the special needs of geographic regions . . . and contributing to the development of national unity . . . predominantly Canadian in content and character." That is the law which the CRTC is required to interpret and enforce. The Commission is taking this responsibility seriously and certainly cannot be criticized for that.

But the result is a political face-off precipitated by the CRTC. Parliament passed the Act and is now faced with the realities of it. The CBC and the CRTC will get together to iron out a practical compromise in the near future to present to Parliament. If a compromise is not found, Gerard Pelletier, Communications Minister, will arbitrate and the power of the CRTC will be at stake. Even if a compromise is found, the CRTC's power will still be in the hands of Parliament. Certainly these are critical days for the Commission.

CFRB's Bill McVean will be taking a first hand look at how the Arabs conserve on gas. McVean and his wife are planning to join a desert caravan on their upcoming holiday. They'll ride camels from Tunisia to Jerba, a distance of 300 miles. Should make for interesting talk if and when he comes back. McVean also emceed the awards ceremony for the Metro Toronto Science Fair Thursday, April 4th at the Ontario Science Centre.

Chris Coyle of CKCY is putting together a special on Lighthouse to coincide with their up and coming tour. The special is slated for April 25. Chris is asking for any written or recorded material (interviews) pertaining to the group. Contact Chris at CKCY Sault Ste. Marie, 134 John St. or 254-3651.

CFCY Charlottetown has new line-up: 6-10AM Jimbo Cross; 10-noon Loman McAulay; noon-2 Dave Holland; 2-6 J.P. Gaudet; 6-1AM Ronnie Gillespie; 1-6AM Connie MacDonald.

Dick Bourdeau is new morning man at CFCO Chatham.

New MD at CKSL London: Bruce Devine. Bruce also continues normal duties as production manager. Contact Bruce at 432-4181 or direct Toronto line 368-7200.

CKLC Kingston's sports director received a mention in a newsletter called "Changing Times", published by inmates of the Kingston Reception Centre under the direction of Bob Cox. "John Hancock is a welcome addition to the airwaves. His opinions are unbiased and his open line discussion with Expos' Jim Fanning was a scoop". The newsletter is meant to supply a medium for communicating amongst the inmates and as a link to the outside world. Subscriptions are $2/year available from P.O. Box 22, Kingston, Ontario K7L 4V7.

Someone cares! Art Osborne of CJIC Sault Ste. Marie dropped a line to let us know that he cared about the "Sun saga", even though his Nov. 4th charting of Terry Jacks hit fell short of qualifying as a first. But he is willing to take anybody on for Lisle and "Going Away".

Be reading next week, when Tribal Drum presents "The Spring Break-up", brought to you by BBM.

PREHISTORIC MONSTER IS REPORTED BY CKLG RADIO

In keeping with their trendsetting news policy, CKLG Vancouver was the first news organization in Canada to get wind of the discovery during the small hours of April 1 of an almost perfectly preserved prehistoric animal beneath Granville Street, now torn up to make way for a pedestrian mall. 'LG's early morning newscasts were headed by an in-depth examination of the find, including interviews with the construction worker who made the discovery, the foreman of the project and various scientific luminaries from UBC. One archeologist suggested that the existence in the area of the creature, described as being fifteen feet long and snake like but with a very large head and in excellent condition, would prompt the scientific community into demanding that Georgia Street be ripped for a stretch of some three miles to search for other remains.

Later in the day, the find was identified as Roy Hennessy who had stumbled into the construction pit on his way home from a party on the night of March 31st. April Fools to you too.

CBC TELEVISION TO AIR MUSIC SPECIALS

CBC Television will be airing two music specials this month in prime time. On Monday, April 15, from 7:30 to 8:30 a special called "Out Front — Cat Stevens" will be shown. The show was taped live in London, England a year and a half ago and was produced by U.K.'s Grenada television. Music from Cat Stevens' albums "Tea for the Tillerman" and "Teaser and the Firecat" will be featured.

A repeat of the Stampeders' special "A short visit to Planet Earth" will be aired April 22nd from 7:30 to 8PM. The show is a collage of clips and sequences of the group backed up by cuts from their album "From the Fire" and was produced by the group's manager Mel Shaw and Henning Jacobsen.

McGOWAN AWARD WINNER — ALEXANDER ZELKINE —

Alexander Zelkine was born in 1938 in Lyon (France) and at an early age, accompanying himself on the guitar, he began to sing the folk songs of his two motherlands (his father was Russian and his mother is French). By the time he was twenty his adventurous life was leading him through Europe, the Middle-east,

Israel and Africa, where during the Algerian War, he was drafted by the army and spent two years in the conflict (two years he regards as torn out of his life).

In 1966, after almost two years in the United States, where he recorded his first album, appeared on T.V. (The Pete Seeger Show), was presented by Theodore Bikel at the 1965 Newport Folk Festival and worked as a free-lance press and fashion photographer, he decided to settle down in Montreal and is now a Canadian Citizen.

Since his arrival in French Canada, his reputation as a folk singer, musician and storyteller has never stopped growing. Zelkine has been most successful in universities, colleges, cultural centres and "Boites a Chansons"; has appeared on many television shows like "Jeunesse Oblige", "Fine & Dandy", "Les Cailloux", "Cent Mille Chansons", "Zoom" and "Sous Mon Toit" in Montreal, and "World of Music" and "Islands & Princesses" in Toronto.

In November of 1968, Zelkine gave his first recital for American students at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York and later he appeared at Harvard receiving a wonderful, enthusiastic response from the students at both schools.

In concert, Zelkine sings songs from France, Russia, Israel, Spain, Romania, Argentina, Bolivia, Peru, Mexico, England, Ireland, U.S.A., Canada and from his Yiddish and Gypsy repertoires. His act is also punctuated by story-telling, poem recitals and through-out, he accompanies himself on guitar and balalaika.

Alexander Zelkine has experienced much success since joining United Artists, unfortunately all of it in Quebec. His album, "Pessimiste" containing the popular single, "Come Away Melinda" chalked up heavy sales. At the recent Juno Awards' presentations he was honoured as the first recipient of CHIN Radio's Douglas McGowan Award (a painting by Manitoba artist Joseph Sanchez) to be awarded annually.

Rolling Stone says:

"Thundermug is not content to merely exploit conventional rock formulas on their first U.S. album. The band has worked up some startling oddball rock songs . . . like the sinister 'Africa', the night-marish 'Mickey Mouse Club', and the sci-fi 'Orbit' — and performs them with power . . . !!"

Zoo World says:

"along with Sweet, Thundermug seems to be the band that's going to fill the void left by the dissolution Move into two separate entities. Yessir, Thundermug is not only a brash demolition crew, but also a band with a sense of humor, and this album is the best example of that since Roy Wood's 'Brontosaurus'."

Performance Magazine says:

"It's a set of simple driving rock and roll, but tight and extremely well-performed by this quartet. There's a rich, full sound, good vocal harmonies, and a well-done string-arrangement on one track."

Record World says:

"a spectacularly well paced set of first-class rock and roll that is distinguished by consistently interesting songs, tight playing and a genuine sense of style."

Cash Box says:

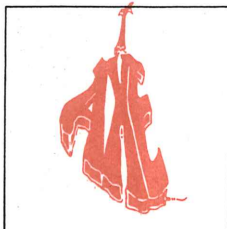

"this quartet explodes with the unrestrained energy of a super-nova."
