UNITED ARTISTS RELEASE INITIAL ANGEL SINGLE

Jimmy Bertucci, former lead singer and bass player for Abraham's Children, has now formed his own group, Angel, and scores a single release on United Artists. The single, "Winning Side", was produced and written by Angel off with "Winning Side" on United Artists.

Bertucci. Publishing is through U.A. Music and James Pert Publishing (CAPAC). Sessions for the single took place at RCA and Eastern Sound studios in Toronto with George Semkiw and Ken Friesen sharing engineering chores.

The new Bertucci group comprises Chris Bennet, guitarist/vocalist; Mark Bajona, guitarist/vocalist; Ron Benedict, drums and Bertucci, lead vocalist and bass player.

GOLD LEAF AWARD TO BABE RUTH

Capitol Canada's director of marketing, Dave Evans, presented English rockers Babe Ruth with a Gold Leaf Award (12) at Le Cercle discotheque in Old Montreal. The award was for outstanding Canadian sales of their "First Base" debut LP on the Harvest label. The presentation was made just before Babe Ruth set off on their U.S. tour with Roxy Music.

The single "The Mexican" pulled off the album was responsible for generating the interest that resulted in "First Base" selling unusually huge quantities for a debut album.

The group took advantage of the occasion to thank the hundred-plus media people who were on hand for the award, and made a presentation of their own to Michel Theriault of Ottawa's Treble Clef store, who earned a special honorary Gold Leaf Award for promoting the album when it first became available through Capitol's Imports Division. CHOM's Les Sole and Earl Jive also received awards for their support in promoting the album, and Bill Rotari, eastern region manager for Capitol, received a special award for his enthusiastic support of the group.

Guy Latraverse of Kebec Spec has announced a lengthy provincial tour to commence in April for Babe Ruth. The group's third album "Babe Ruth" has just been released and is receiving heavy national exposure on FM stations.

APRIL WINE ALBUM FOR U.S. RELEASE

April Wine, currently on their first tour of the United States, will see their new album "Stand Back" released midway through the two-month series of concert dates. Tour dates are being booked by the William Morris Agency and are being co-ordinated through April Wine's U.S. representative, Jerry Kellert. During the tour, April Wine will make their debut in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, Boston, Washington, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and in other centres in the eastern U.S. The album will be released through Big Tree Records in cooperation with Atlantic Records.

The group has just completed a series of appearances in the major centres of northern Ontario and the Maritimes. A new attendance record was set at the Halifax Forum with more than 5,800 tickets sold and attendance passed the 5,400 mark at the Moncton Coliseum. In seven concert appearances April Wine reportedly grossed more than seventy five thousand dollars.

Their new album "Stand Back" has had an initial order of more than 30,000 units in Canada. It was critically acclaimed at the recent Midem Music Festival in France, and will be the object of a massive advertising and promotion campaign conducted by Aquarius Records. Aquarius has allotted an unprecedented budget for radio and/or TV advertising in all major Canadian markets. Stickers and posters will be available as point of sale aids with London Records and Alta Distributing sharing duties.

In commenting on the success of the recent Canadian tour, promoter Donald K. Donald said "April Wine's popularity in Canada has been growing at a fantastic rate and there is absolutely no end in sight."

NEW BRANCH MANAGER FOR POLYDOR VANCOUVER

Polydor's national sales manager, Dieter Radecki, has announced the appointment of Peter Behnke as branch manager for Polydor Ltd. in Vancouver. Behnke's appointment is effective immediately. He replaces Ted Hopkins who has resigned.

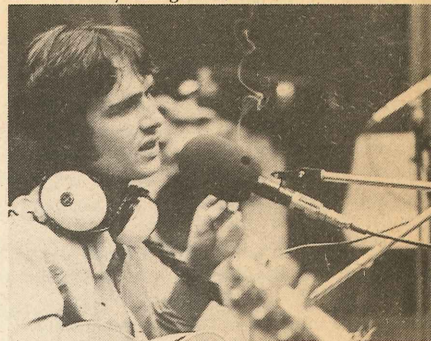

Behnke was previously employed at the Vancouver branch as a salesman.

NEW TELFER SINGLE RELEASED ON AXE

Axe Records has just released a new Jay Telfer single titled "I Write Your Name on the Wall Above My Bed." The tune has been geared toward acceptance in Top 40, MOR and country categories.

Jay Telfer

Telfer's western tour with Gary & Dave helped establish him as an entertainer in the Canadian music industry. He had been involved for some time with the movie industry in Toronto and is now currently living in Los Angeles in order to follow up leads for small parts in TV series and movies.

NEW RELEASES ON PERIWINKLE LABEL

Art Snider of Sound Canada has announced a new series of releases for the studio's flagship label, Periwinkle.

The Peaches, Teddy Grimes and country instrumentalist Mickey Andrews, along with Ina Harris, constitute the first package which is now in the mail.

A second mailing will feature Borgy's "Banjo Reunion", Susan Layen, and Newfoundland J. Terry Hynes. All of the singles have been drawn from previous Periwinkle albums with the exception of the Layen and Grimes releases.

Richard Comber's Shining Tree Associates are now handling co-ordination for promotion of Periwinkle and programmers can expect to be receiving phone calls and newsletters from the staff at Shining Tree in the near future.

Music Canada Quarterly's Joey Cee will be involved in work with two of the label's singers, Susan Layen and Ricki Yorke. Both have releases scheduled for March.

Snider's new stepped-up release and promotional schedules and new artists have made him confident that the Periwinkle label will soon become an established part of the Canadian music scene.

"SONG & SCRIPT" A TEAM WHO CARES

Feb. 7/75

Publicity always seems to go to the same few dealers repeatedly.

No one ever says anything about "Song & Script" at 98 Bloor St. W., Toronto which is one of the best organized record and book retailers in the business.

The books are looked after by Joe Sagman and the records by his son Bob.

It is a pleasure to talk to Bob Sagman always smiling, always friendly and who knows the records, artists and labels inside-out.

The record industry in Canada desperately needs more dealers like Joe and Bob Sagman of "Song & Script" who care.

MORE RECOGNITION FOR CLASSICAL MUSIC!!!!!!!

Feb. 12/75

As you know, the last year or so has seen a great change in our business at BOOT RECORDS. Our entrance into the Classical Music Field with the Boot Master Concert Series has made most of these changes happen.

We at Boot are quite obviously newcomers to the classical scene, but even so we feel moved to offer some observations to you about a couple of needs which we perceive. With the CBC, other private recording companies, and ourselves producing classical recordings in Canada, would it be too much to hope that the industry awards, your JUNOS, could soon extend into the classical area? We feel that this segment of the Canadian recording industry is now coming of age and deserves to be recognized in its achievements.

We further feel that your publication could afford to devote more space to news about the classical end of the industry. We all know that rock and country are here to stay, and that they are the life blood of the industry, but it should be remembered that it all started with the masters and that they will always be with us.

On the subject of neglected areas, we might also suggest that RPM could consider the inclusion of a category for jazz in future JUNO awards. There are many fine recordings available today which feature well known and proficient Canadian jazz musicians.

It is our belief that the expansion of the JUNO awards to include some additional categories could only increase the status of the awards and their value to the industry.

CHAD ALLAN ALBUM PENDING RELEASE

An album by Chad Allan, formerly of The Guess Who and Brave Belt, will be released in the near future. All tracks are Allan compositions and production credits are his as well. Recording sessions took place at Winnipeg's Roade West Studios.

Allan is currently involved in producing a band called "Flying Tiger" and an artist named Glen McCabe. Both artists' sessions have been booked in Winnipeg.

WEA's release of the Bachman-Turner-Bachman album (Brave Belt) features Allan and a single titled "Try", pulled off Daffodil's "Beowulf" album, has the singer doing lead vocals.

Chad Allan is represented in Toronto by Bob Tennyson; further information may be obtained by calling 636-8557.

NEW CTV SHOW DEBUTS WORK BY TORONTO WRITER

The new CTV & ABC-TV show, "Imperial Grand Band", which was broadcast (15) in Canada via CTV, featured tune segments written, produced and arranged by producer Bob Halley who is based in Toronto. The show is due for an air date (22) in the U.S. on the ABC-TV network.

Several of the songs were co-written with Ben Raleigh during Halley's recent visit to Los Angeles.

THERE ARE THOSE WHO GIVE A DAMN!

Feb. 9/75

As an avid reader of RPM for the past five years, I have finally decided it was about time I took to writing you and tossing a few ideas and comments, like I'm sure 80% of your other subscribers do, or should do.

Recently, I was looking back over my 100 odd issues of RPM. I noticed many things missing in the past two years. A few have come back, such as the album reviews and info on artists' playdates. But many of the things I used to appreciate as a record fanatic have vanished. The MAPL chart, new MAPL releases, Lisa Robinson's column, Terry David Mulligan's column, and Ritchie Yorke writing about Canada, to name a few!! What happened to all of these? I assume the Cancon info was dropped because programmers never read it. Lisa Robinson most likely went "south for the winter". And Terry David is busy with such projects as "The Great Canadian Gold Rush". I shouldn't complain about Mr. Yorke, I guess; you still have him! At least!!

However, there are some recent changes that have impressed me. Newsprint, for one. I don't quite know why, but it gives RPM a certain uniqueness! I think it looks better.

Now about the Cancon! I felt, as a record buyer, that those charts and info on MAPL product, prompted me to become increasingly aware of Canadian artists. Right now, I would, given the choice, buy a Canadian record over a foreign disc. I give RPM credit for this attitude. I would go out of my way to listen for a new release that I found out to be Cancon. RPM has made me very nationalistic! When a country can turn out artists such as Mashmakhan, BTO, the Guess Who, Rush, April Wine, A Foot in Coldwater (each and every one vastly underrated) etc, etc, etc, one can only want to seek more where that came from! That's my opinion, anyway. I feel it necessary for all Canadians to be aware of what Canada has to offer. RPM has done (and will do) more in this respect than anyone or anything!!

A great example of this is the CMID. (I recently subscribed just to secure myself a copy!) (Also, "RPM" isn't available in Fredericton!)

Another, is the weekly TV program. Although, I haven't seen it, since I moved from Ottawa shortly before Skyline picked it up, I'm sure it serves a great "shot in the arm" to the industry. The only real complaint I have about RPM is that there aren't enough pages (no fault of your own, I'm sure!).

MURPHY CLUED IN ON ABC INT'L OPERATION

John Murphy, newly appointed national product manager for ABC Records, has just returned to his Toronto base after a week of orientation of company policies regarding future international penetration. He met with heads of departments in Los Angeles, discussing merchandising, artists relations, in-store promotions and other sales aids. He will be in communication with Merf Helfer of the head office, but will report directly to Bob Cook, vice president and general manager of RCA Canada.

Murphy finds his new position "A whole new challenge". He will be responsible for the release of all ABC, Anchor and GTO product for the Canadian market. Says Murphy: "Much of my time will be spent in organization and developing my knowledge of product that I was familiar with but not as in depth as is necessary for handling the line as an exclusive entity."

ABC is very aware of the Canadian market. There will be definite plans for a heftier penetration of ABC acts into the Canadian market. Murphy will be concentrating on the development of these acts in Canada — tagging on Canadian dates to their U.S. tours. He will be meeting with some of the big guns of Canadian promotions, namely Donald Tarlton and Martin Onrot, among others.

Although the work load will be extremely heavy, Murphy plans to expand his pattern of communication with radio, press, and retailers, which will become national in scope, through necessity. He will also be looking for suitable Canadian talent for "a very interested ABC A&R department in Los Angeles".

Much of the success of ABC has been in their album product, but Murphy points out that "ABC is a singles company. When they're looking for a new act, they measure the act's single potential. They are extremely single conscious because they feel this is a ready made promotion for album product."

One of Murphy's initial challenges will be the breaking of Jimmy Buffet, an Impulse recording act. Buffet is now showing signs of breaking in the U.S. with his new release, "A 1 A" (the highway leading to his home in The Keys, Florida). Jazz has been making good inroads in Canada and Murphy is of the opinion that Buffet will shortly establish himself as a winner.

Murphy has been in the business for fourteen years. "I've come a long way from the Quality shipping room where I started in 1966". He credits much of his success to the guidance he received from RCA's Ed Preston, who hired him four years ago. Says Murphy: "Since going with RCA, I have never experienced a morning when I didn't want to go to work".

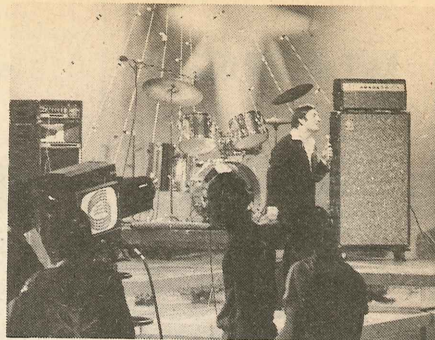

LIGHTHOUSE SINGLE FLIPPED ON RELEASE

Lighthouse's newest entry into the singles race was shipped as "8 Miles High", but even as the single was being shipped, there was indications that the flip, "Got A Feeling" was the preferred side.

H.P. & Bell have now mounted a national push on the "Feeling" side, written by Ralph Cole and published through C.A.M. and Media-trix Music (BMIC). The session was produced for H.P. & Bell Productions by Jimmy Jenner.

NEW E.F. RECORDS SINGLE DISTRIBUTED BY BERANDOL

"Don't Go Away" f/s "It's Easy to See" has just been released on E.F. Records, distributed by Berandol Music Limited. The single is by Enrico Farina, written by Gino Salvador, and marks the second release by Farina for the English speaking market.

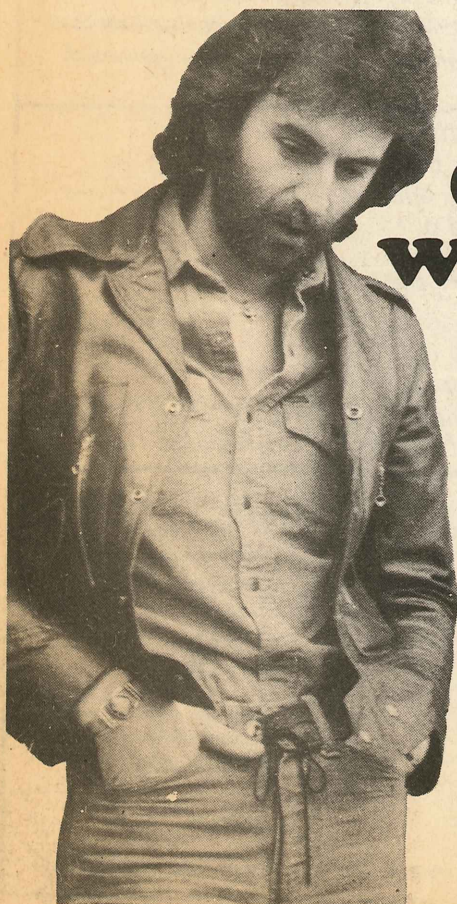

Enrico Farina on Global TV's "Parade of Stars" Telethon.

CFRB and approximately twenty other stations have pledged airplay for the record. Farina's previous release "Don't Say Good-Bye" was No. 1 on CFRB for months and is still one of the station's most requested songs.

An appearance on the Tommy Banks Show is currently being negotiated for Farina who has just completed dates on the Elwood Glover Show and Global TV's "Parade of Stars" telethon.

Farina has recorded 45 singles and 3 albums for Canada's Italian community. His "Luna Canadese" qualified for a gold record which was presented to him at Ontario Place.

Keath Barrie-"a man of all seasons"

by Kate Elliott

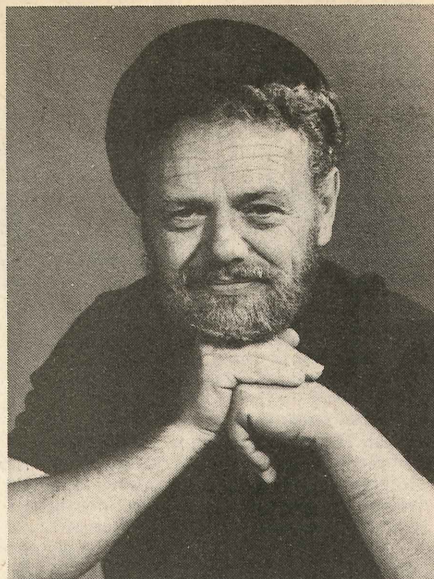

Keath Barrie is an artist who has done much to champion the cause of MOR music in Canada. It was a struggle, he says, to gain acceptance in an industry that thrives on the residuals of Top 40 music, but his own determination and belief in his kind of lyric and instrumentation finally saw positive results. The latest reinforcement he received to indicate he has "arrived" is the fact that within two weeks of release, his Canadian Talent Library album, "Keath Barrie Sings Of Love And Places", broke a sales record for the company. Barrie is an unassuming man who is inclined to say "After all, I'm not that great", but the increasing public recognition he is gaining, along with record sales, point to the unavoidable conclusion that he is one of the biggest MOR voices in Canada.

Barrie is a multi-talented individual who has had training in theatre and dance as well as music, and his survival through the trials of what can be a soul-destroying business have ultimately given him the aura of a man who knows himself and his strengths very well.

The story of his climb to the top of his profession, together with his own comments and observations, follows.

Barrie spent the first few years of his life on a pioneer style farm in Northern Alberta and began his preoccupation with music when he started singing German folk songs with his mother to alleviate the loneliness of a solitude occasionally broken by the howling of coyotes. His enthusiasm for music was encouraged through various successes in school plays, and when he later moved to Calgary, a job as a department store decorator supported him while he took lessons from a choirmaster "bent on creating another Pina basso profundo." He soon realized that he didn't envision himself as being an opera star (?), believing that the sound being cultured was unnatural for the human voice. At that point, as he puts it, "starry-eyed and naive, I headed for Broadway and was soon discouraged by some knowledgeable people who told me to forget about trying to make it on the Big White Way." Moving to Toronto, he again took singing lessons which were of little value and followed them with a year of acting lessons. "I then decided to take on Hollywood" which sounds much more serious than it actually was since "I was still very naive and pursuing a rather unrealistic dream." Again, met with rejection and disappointment, he returned to Toronto and after a few more stabs at an acting career, settled down to a fifteen year career of freelancing as a set decorator and property master in the film industry.

Any notions of ever making it as a professional singer had more or less been shelved when one day in 1970 a friend overheard Barrie singing to himself on a film set and suggested that he again consider breaking into music. Still unconvinced that he was cut out to be a recording artist, he wrote a few songs with the idea of having an established singer do them and began making the rounds of music publishers' offices. The publishers were receptive to his material but seemed to lack the artists who were suited to present the songs properly. Finally, one publisher suggested that Barrie record his own material and approach record companies with the results.

During the next two years and "a couple of thousand smackers" later, the difficulty of trying to infiltrate MOR product into a record company was making itself felt. It was hard getting A&R executives to listen, since rock music is the big seller and no one could be convinced that there was a worthwhile MOR audience. But "I just got mad, believing more and more in my product. I knew that what I had was good, I had the proof of the reactions of friends and acquaintances and I knew there was a very sizeable audience." One company at long last reluctantly agreed to release a single written by Barrie called "Apalachicola". He had written the tune on an almost whimsical note after being struck by the sound of the word, which actually is the name of a town in the southern States. Programmers across Canada apparently liked the tune, giving it the airplay needed to expose it to an enthusiastic public. It achieved enough success to "more or less pay for the cost of production", but again, record companies seemed to be unwilling to risk a release following on the heels of what had been a promising beginning.

Finally, Nancy Gyokeres of BMI in Toronto suggested that Barrie speak to Al Mair, who had recently formed his own label. Mair listened to the tapes and agreed that Barrie had potential but felt that his material didn't really fit in with the image he was establishing for his company. In turn, Mair recommended the people at Canadian Talent Library under distribution by United Artists Records, as a prospective label. After "a few phone calls and meetings, Canadian Talent Library's Lyman Potts and Mal Thompson had bought a single in addition to offering an album contract."

The single was the end result of a request that Barrie write something romantic, which led him to consult an Atlas where he again was inspired by the name of a town, this time, San Sebastian. "San Sebastian" was recorded and released shortly after and received the kind of airplay that solidly established Barrie as a recognized MOR artist.

The album, "Keath Barrie Sings of Love and Places", is a pleasing combination of mellow-voiced Barrie originals and country-oriented compositions by Hank Williams and Marty Robbins as well as tunes by artists such as Lightfoot, Neil Diamond and Jim Weatherly. Both "Apalachicola" and "San Sebastian" have been included, and the album is now listed at No. 25 on the RPM chart. Four additional Barrie compositions appear, one of which, "On Being Canadian" f/s "Old Fashioned Song" has just been released. "On Being Canadian" was written during the Quebec crisis, at a time when a strong atmosphere of negativity was predominant throughout Canada. Barrie decided that saying nothing was just as bad as saying something negative and decided to retaliate with a song. He believes strongly in his country and is hoping that the airplay he is getting with his latest single will generate some of his convictions to others. He also hopes that the single will pick up some younger listeners in addition to his now confirmed older audience.

At this time in his career, Barrie hasn't done many live performances, pending a little more exposure on the recording scene. Several TV dates included an appearance on Elwood Glover's "Luncheon Date" where, to his embarrassment, in the midst of a song "I forgot the words on coast to coast TV, but managed to fake through a couple of lines and recovered."

Barrie is a family man who lives on a farm outside Toronto with his wife and two children. City life holds no attraction for the singer who prefers to live away from the noise and hectic pace of urban life.

When questioned about his growing stardom, he confesses that he still isn't quite used to being in the limelight and hopes eventually to settle down to writing for other artists. At present, he's busy helping United Artists promote his single and album and speaks highly of their all-out efforts on his behalf. He points out that his single "On Being Canadian" which features "Old Fashioned Song" on the flip side does not fall under Canadian Talent Library restrictions and can be played on any station. Both sides of the single are being given equal promotion and neither is being treated as an "A" side.

McLAUCHLAN ASSERTS UNUSUAL FOLK POWER

It has often been said that Canada's power in international music circles will evolve through its folk roots. Murray McLauchlan, True North recording artist, asserted his important role in this field with a "sold out" concert (Massey Hall Feb 15) - easily his greatest accomplishment to date. McLauchlan has always bordered a little on the arrogant side, and he was in true form for this Toronto date. His audience was a little too eager to sample everything that McLauchlan had to offer, but he was giving it to them - his way. He "sassed" the audience, and they loved it. His image is tough and his sound is tough - the real and honest experiences of a unique "metro poet".

The McLauchlan concert was a "sound experience" - an almost whispered intimacy in Toronto's most intimate concert hall. The mixing was exceptional, resulting in a soothing vibration of the McLauchlan sound, accompanied only by Dennis Pendrith, a bass player who has mastered the art of using his instrument to gently embrace the piano, acoustic guitar and mouth harp skills of McLauchlan.

McLauchlan "live" isn't that far removed from McLauchlan on record. His latest album, "Sweeping The Spotlight Away", is, like his concert, a package of first rate folk entertainment. RM

FIRST ISLAND/DAFFODIL PROMOTION CONVENTION

The Love Productions promotion team recently held a five day meeting in Toronto, the first annual convention for the company. Discussions ranged from methods of promoting communication between members of the

Canadian music industry and image design for labels, to the unrealized potential of campus radio stations, and various methods of streamlining the company's promotional activities. Members of Love Productions also listened to upcoming Daffodil releases including The Huggett Family's "Renaissance Delight", Klaatu's "True Life Heroes" and a new German band called Sahara which will debut on Daffodil within the next few months.

Plans are underway for an extensive campaign revolving around the catchphrase "On Daffodil Records... Naturally!", a monthly newsletter called Love Letters, a weekly national radio action sheet called "Airplay", a weekly sheet from Ontario promo rep Joe Owens "Commander Gonzo's Bull Sheet", a major international mail order designed to efficiently merchandise the soundtrack album from "My Pleasure Is My Business" and "Imposters of Life's Magazine" a double album repackaging of the first two Idle Race albums featuring Jeff Lynne.

Other highlights of the convention were a dinner at The Hot Stove Lounge with Love Productions' Directors Bill Ballard and Myron Wolfe, and a luncheon at the home of Francis Davies, head of Love Productions.

Representing Love Productions at the meet were Francis Davies (President) and Directors Myron Wolfe and Bill Ballard; Peter Larsen (Maple Leaf Gardens); music industry lawyer, Peter Steinmetz; and Island/Daffodil's Bob Dunne (press officer) Joe Owens (Ont. promo) Roger Cross (west coast promo) Liam Mullan (national promo) Jean Marie Heimrath (Quebec & Maritimes promo) and Deane Cameron (manufacturing coordinator).

artist. Gilley's hit singles, "I Overlook an Orchid" and "City Lights" were well-received by both audiences; "City Lights" is Gilley's current single and within a short period after release is picking up airplay on many country charts across Canada. Gilley's album credits include "Room Full of Roses" and "City Lights" on Playboy Records, distributed by Quality.

COVER STORY

WEA'S LARRY GREEN SAID IT BACK IN '72

Now that Mr. Juneau has let it all hang out with the FM Regulations, it's interesting to look back in RPM and pick up on some of the chatter by Larry Green who was interviewed by Wilder Penfield III in the January 29, 1972 issue. Green was at CHUM-FM, and was, in fact, one of the people responsible for the smooth move from classical music into the world of the progressive freak. Green moved from a Saturday spot on CHUM-FM to a daily one hour show and finally the powers that be recognized an unusual talent — and Green took up a regular 2 to 6PM shift on a daily basis.

Penfield discovered, in Green, a unique personality, and now, through the wonderful world of print, we reveal Larry Green, the crystal ball gazer — or did he have a hot line to the CRTC or perhaps the Chairman tucked this issue of RPM into his briefcase for future reference. The following excerpts are from that particular issue.

"Larry Green gives a damn, not only about his show and about his individual listeners, but also about the current political and social issues that affect them. Example: SAD, the Society for Animals in Distress, an unaffiliated, non-profit crusading little organization offering protection for mistreated pets, help for concerned people. Cat fancier Green caught an article about its founder, Al McGuinn, and began to talk about its problems on the air. Now he and his wife are both involved, he's on the Board of Directors, and they are planning a first birthday party for SAD next month.

"Long before air time he has gone through all three of the Toronto newspapers for important or amusing stories, and has made selections from the library (he knows most of the 4,000 or so albums there intimately) which might tie in.

"The show starts off with a theme cycle or montage — something different which will introduce the show with punch and give him a chance to tune in psychologically. The afternoon I sat in he re-organized one of his favorite superimpositions — Charles Laughton's reading from The Dharma Bums over Mason Williams' Classical Gas.

"It's loose, but it's not a free form show. The CHUM-FM format requires him to play cuts from two former and two current hit albums each hour, a maximum of one jazz, one classical and one spoken word cut each hour, and the same maximum for blues or folk each hour, which can be raised to three for a montage.

"Green feels at home in this loose structure, he explains, because even back in his MOR days, he had been trying to expand people's tastes by programming as wide a variety of music as possible.

"Green has a quadrophonic mind: he can maintain the coherence of his answers through on-air and on-phone interludes, even though all the while he is simultaneously planning the next three or four selections, finding the albums chosen, cuing up specific cuts, cleaning the records, riding the volume levels, typing the logs, sparring with John Donabie, getting some obscure information he has promised to a caller, checking the news and weather and traffic reports as each comes in — not to mention listening to what is on the air — all this without the faintest hint of nervous tension, and without ever giving, say, a caller or an interviewer, any hint that there might be something else on his mind.

"Occasionally he challenges himself by playing two cuts in a row from the opposite sides of a record. More often he takes minor but significant liberties with the ads he reads, treating them in a loose conversational way, adding personal feeling and sometimes personal endorsement where he feels it is merited. reminded him of a piece he knew; it was found and cued up before the end of the ad.

"Green maintains the fiction that he is talking to one individual listener. The intimacy gets positive results. The listeners who called in that afternoon generally thought of themselves as friends, and the majority had constructive comments to make on his musical thought progressions; nothing seems to please him more.

"The callers appear to be of all types. People of many ages can live with his program, as with most of the others on CHUM-FM. 'We try to avoid the colloquialisms or clichés of any particular group,' says Green. 'If we're supposed to be so aware of music, and of what's happening in the world and in our community, and if we're communicating with people who are also aware, we can be eloquent without alienating them with minority language.'

"The deejays feel responsible to their listeners: rip-off concerts are put down hard; soft-sell commercials are encouraged; ads have been refused because either the quality of the ad or the product itself was unacceptable.

"Moreover, as Larry Green sees it, CHUM-FM has been the biggest promoter of Canadian talent since it came on the air, and he'll include in this assessment any organization this side of the CRTC. Green himself does not make a big thing of it on or off the air, but his show is generously laced with Canadian music - usually more than the AM requirements (which don't apply here), occasionally an entire afternoon.

"This comes in addition to his enthusiastic support of a number of individual Canadian groups. Just the previous evening he had been out hosting a gathering where Lighthouse had been given a Gold Leaf Award (The whole proceedings were aired 'live' a few hours later on CHUM-FM).

" 'I had a good time,' he said afterwards, 'I like emcee work, especially when I feel close to the music and to the musicians.' This last clause incorporates quite a variety of artists besides Lighthouse, including Crowbar since Bad Manors, the Flower Travelling

Band (the jacket of their new album reproduces his haiku tribute), Eric Andersen, Eric Mercury, Chuck Mangione, David Wiffin, and Ian and Sylvia.

"He fields a listener comment that CHUM-FM has become overcommercial. 'Listen,' he says, 'We're not subsidized. CHUM Ltd. is a commercial venture, and CHUM-FM needs income to survive. There's never more than seven minutes of commercial time per hour - three minutes under the CRTC limit - and it is not going to get any worse. But we need that much; we don't want to be indebted to the AM side.'

"So he gives the show its own organic growth. Though he remains almost unconsciously within the format (during the first hour of his show and of our interview, his selection was made up of one cut each of folk, jazz, classical, blues, spoken work, '6AM to noon' and six of rock, three from older albums, he likes to work as much as possible with themes, playing back to back songs that have similar subjects or roots or titles, so that each hour is made up of a series of chains. 'We can be creative here and really say things, make some social comment, just by the choice of music.'

"Then he has to mind the shifting demographics. Between 2 and 6, the predominance of housewives in his audience is supplanted by hordes of schoolkids, and then by evening drive-time businessmen. They are all treated as listeners, however, and the main concession made is that he comes out of Wally Michael's show at two easily and gets progressively harder throughout the afternoon, easing off a bit towards the end of the show when Steve Harris takes over.

"People sometimes phone in to request specific cuts they want to tape; he will not change the program unless the selection recommended fits into the train of thought. 'You can't please everybody, so I don't try; what I do try to do is to get people into exploring new areas and making new associations. And nowadays I find that most people are getting more sophisticated in their musical tastes.'

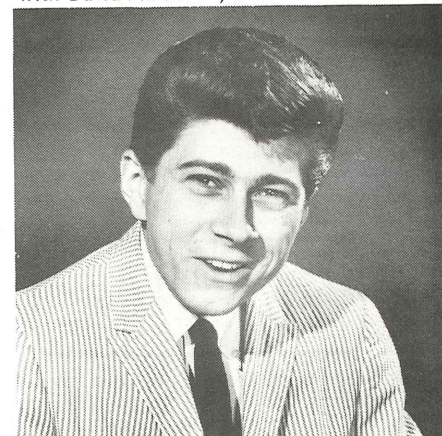

POLYDOR PYROMANIA FOR OHIO PLAYERS

Polydor's Mark Hodes, national singles promotion, is currently working on a major campaign using a theme based on the Ohio Players' latest single and album, "Fire". The promotion is being developed around the group and will be supported by extensive advertising on CKGM and CHOM-FM in Montreal. In-store action at Montreal's main A&A Records' store will feature displays of fire eating by Prince Oscar, who will also lie on a bed of nails, and a company of limbo dancers performing beneath a burning pole. Performances will take place at A&A in Montreal (22) and at the main A&A store in Toronto (March 1).

Chartings for the "Fire" single include CHUM, CKLW, CKGM, CJME, CFOM, CKOC, CKRC and CKPT as well as playlist additions on many other stations.

CBC-TV SHOWCASES CHUM-FM'S MARSDEN

CBC television producer Robert Gibbons has scheduled his Feb 23rd showing of "Such Is Life" as an in-depth study of David Marsden, one of the phenomenons of Canadian radio. Entitled "An Evening With David Marsden", Gibbons and his Dave Mickie (circa 1963) camera crew catch Marsden at work on his highly rated CHUM-FM evening show. The special will be aired at 11:50 PM and the following day (24) at 1 PM. Marsden, professionally known as Dave Mickie in the early sixties, created change in Toronto radio. He was the small town boy (CHLO St. Thomas) who made it to the big time. Shortly after he hit the airwaves at CKEY (1962-63) he became the toast of rock Toronto. He arrived with his talent, speaking quite audibly at seven hundred words per minute, and he literally added a new dimension to rock music and polarized the Toronto music scene. Music fanciers took sides - those who hated rock music because of Dave Mickie and Mickie's followers who were eager to identify with him and his music. Mickie moved almost as quickly as did his music. He created a huge listening audience for the CBC television network through "Music Hop" and he did the same for CHCH-TV's "Dance Party" (Channel 11 Hamilton). His slide into obscurity however, was almost as rapid as his rise to fame, but he hung in and finally emerged as a smooth talking progressive David Marsden at CHOM-FM Montreal. His next stop was the CHUM empire, the very walls that he rattled during his heyday at CKEY.

WBEN-FM HAS ADVANTAGE OVER CANADIAN STATIONS

With commercial time selling for only $30 per minute, which is considerably less than Toronto stations charge, Buffalo's WBEN-FM rocker continues to take its toll of border coverage area advertisers. The American station has a distinct advantage over its Canadian counterparts because of its programming factor.

The Buffalo station is able to offer the low advertising rate in view of their purchase of a pre-packaged rock music service that obviously cuts down on a great deal of overhead.

Canadian stations steer clear of this type of full-time service. The CRTC apparently frowns on remote-control or automated types of programming.

A GUIDELINE TO HOW THE RPM 100 IS COMPILED

The RPM 100 is a national chart compiled weekly from national sales and radio station airplay and chart action. The top 50 records are computed from sales and airplay.

The computation of the records from 51 to 100 is based on early airplay, chart action and regional sales and breakouts.

The chart is based on samplings from markets across Canada and indicates trends that may not be prevalent in all areas of Canada.

Shaded numbers indicate a strong upward trend and gains in airplay or sales. This chart is offered as a guide to new product and an indication of trends in Canadian markets.

The RPM 100 singles and album chart (or any part thereof) may be reproduced with a proper credit.

graffiti: Communicate with your son, advertise in Penthouse.

(record intro for "Black Water")... what happens when (dj) takes a bath.

(show opener) Today's show promises to be fantastic, terrific and stupendous. However, as you probably already know... I never live up to my promises.

(show closer) Stay tuned for (dj)... a guy who is so lazy... the only things he fixes around the house are drinks.

Q: What's a blue-bill? A: A Canadian $5 note.

Hey, (dj) just got back from vacationing down south. He says there are more canes in St. Petersburg, Florida... than in all the sugar plantations in Cuba.

Say, have you ever wondered what it is that doctors do that makes it necessary for them to wash their hands so much before they operate?

Hockey, basketball, tennis, curling, golf, auto racing, track and field, skiing... there's so much sport on TV lately, I've developed athlete's seat.

The Programmers OUT IN THE COUNTRY

HEY, HEY, HEY, our very first column and we boobboobed. Now hear this, Tim Daniels, who records for Kangi Records is doing all his recording at Toronto's Thunder Sound — not that other studio. Thunder has been the setting for mucho label work lately and we hear they have a quality country sound.

Jim and Don Haggart move back into the singles arena once more and Jim has teamed up with Lynda Wolf to co-write the plug side, "Follow Your Heart". The session was produced by John Arpin. The Haggarts have had good success with their previous Arpeggio singles and this one has a good feeling about it. Maybe it's the contribution made by Lynda. No wonder the post office is going on strike. Boot records fouled up the mails with more than one hundred Ukrainian Survival Kits, which they sent out to country radio stations across Canada. The promotion tied in with the Stompin' Tom Connors single release "Zakuska Polka". Almost forgot to tell you what was in the survival kit — a European sausage and a bottle of Vodka. Charlie Russell of CJCJ had a complaint however. His bottle had a fly in it and the bottle was still sealed. Charlie asked one of his on-air buddies "What's that fly doing in my Vodka". His buddy answered "The Backstroke, I think."

Roy Payne's song, "Good Morning World", published through Crown-Vetch Music is getting the red carpet treatment as a Canadian worldwide-copyright. The single was first released by Julie Lynn on the Dominion label and followed by Sharon Lowness on Boot. Gwynneth Ashley-Jones made it a Top Ten item in South Africa and there is now a Swedish version getting good chart action. Mark Altman, general manager of Crown-Vetch, reports that a U.S. country star name of Kelly, is interested in the song for her next session.

Marathon have a couple of goodies they're working on: George Riddel's tribute to Roy Acuff, "King Of Country Music" and the Calhoun Twins with "Path Across My Mind", culled from their album, "Goin' To The Dogs". There's a country magazine out of Windsor that you might well take a look at. It's called Windsor Country Music News and just blew into town. Again. The hit song from Pure Prairie League's "Bustin' Out" album that was released two years ago is making it big as a single today.

The Fall and Rise of a hit single.

Rediscovery. Requests. Airplay. The whole bit.

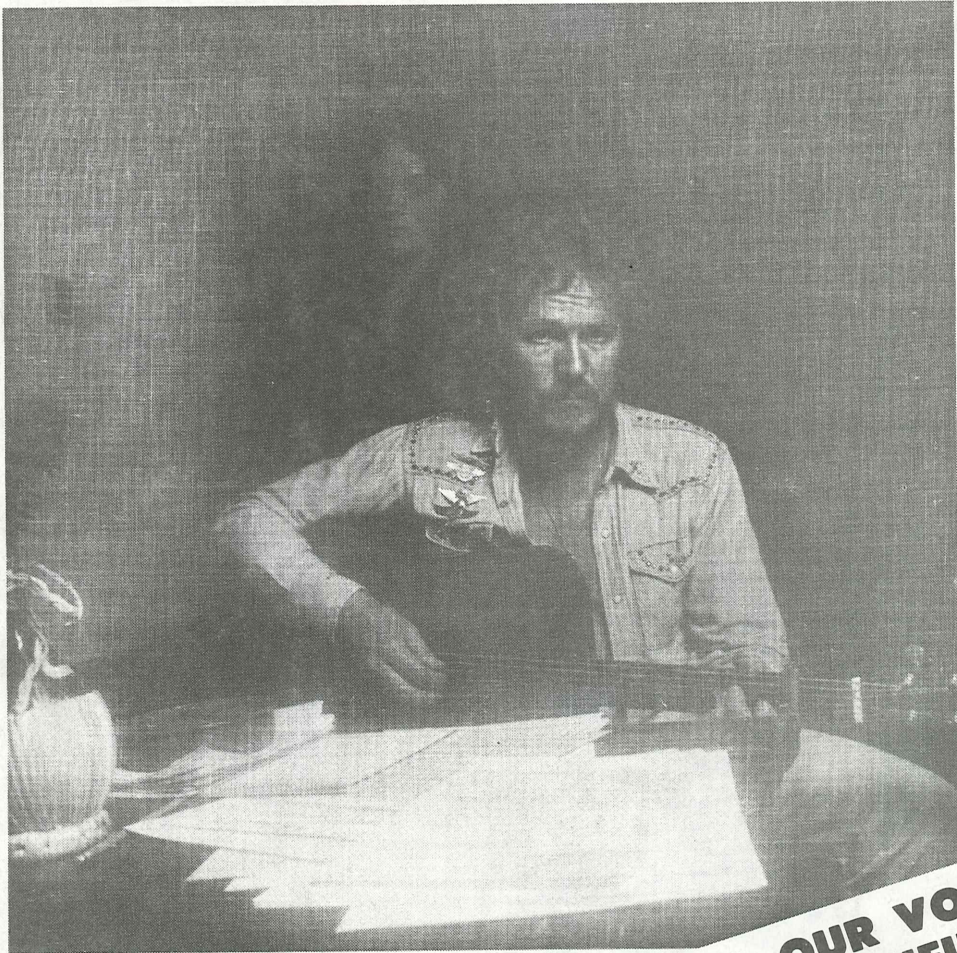

What went down is coming up. And this time there's no stopping her.
