Heavy industry turnout for Pindoff tribute

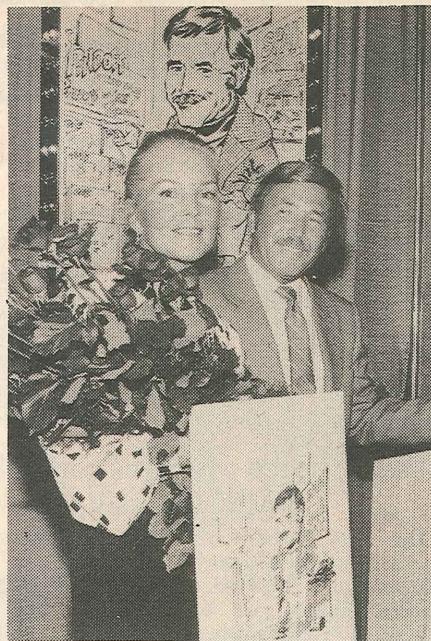

Toronto: Monday, January 16th, 1984 and it was "This is your life - Kris Pindoff" as a record turnout of record and broadcast industry people paid tribute to Kris Pindoff on his 25th year in the business.

The Pindoff tribute was the brainchild of WEA Music's Canadian President Stan Kulin who contacted RPM's Stan Klees and Walt Grealis to put the idea into production. Kulin, together with his WEA staff and the Pindoff organization's Bud Farquharson and Bob Smith, canvassed the record industry and using a Pindoff caricature, an extensive mailing was prepared by RPM. Priority, of course, was that Mr. Pindoff nor his wife Eva, were to know about the plans.

It was obvious the plan worked as Kulin, who arranged a non-existent dinner at the Inn On The Park with "an old friend" of the Pindoffs, guided Eva and Kris down the hall toward the dining room. "Let's check our coats in here (Centennial Ballroom)" Kulin told his guests. When the Pindoffs walked through the ballroom doors, the packed room exploded with applause which took the both of them completely by surprise. The first hurdle of the evening was over and quite successfully so.

The dinner, specially created by Stan Klees, again using the Pindoff caricature as the theme and prepared specially by the Inn's Chef Jurgen Petrick, was exceptional, capped with the best in wines. Hurdle two was over and the night was young.

WEA's Kulin and RPM publisher Walt Grealis co-hosted the after dinner "roast", doing a little "schtick" and introducing the guest speakers who were Barry Stafford, Ron Newman, Sam Sniderman and Bud Farquharson. There were good-humoured barbs aimed at Pindoff and members of the audience and a few very respectful moments that reflected the esteem the industry has for this very distinguished member of the industry - and it was up and over for yet another successful hurdle of the evening.

An array of beautiful gifts, treasured momentos of the evening, were presented to Eva and Kris by members of the industry, including two dozen red roses to Eva. As well, a video of the entire evening will be edited and presented to the Pindoffs by WEA.

Kris Pindoff capped the evening with a short expression of his gratitude, concluding with "Eva and I are touched." Hurdle four, and the end of a perfect industry tribute.

Writing Schilling lyrics adds to Lodge's stature

Toronto: Although a composer for several years, as well as a member of the Kitchener-based Major Hoople's Boarding House, David Lodge is suddenly gaining widespread attention for writing the English lyrics to the international hit, Major Tom by Peter Schilling.

Two Canadian recording acts recently recorded Lodge's penning of If You Still Want Me. One is by Bijou, a Quebec trio, produced by Greg Hambleton and the other by Kitchener country vocalist Carol Johns, produced by Bob Cousins and released on his Bel Air label.

The flip side of the Bijou single is an instrumental version of the plug side. Released on the Axe label, the single, the group's debut, was produced at Kitchener's Waxworks Studio.

Bijou comprises lead vocalist Doreen Moen with Patricia Levy and Carol Rupert on backing vocals. The trio began their singing careers in the commercial field. An album is now in the planning stages.

Name change for Rosen's Era label

Toronto: Era Records, a classical label, has changed its name to Marquis Records.

A division of Earl Rosen and Associates, the label is managed by Managing Director Deborah MacCallum, and is distributed in Canada by Intercan with the exception of Quebec, which is handled by Diskade.

Carrying a suggested list of $12.98, recent releases include album product from the Vancouver Chamber Choir, Lois Marshall/Judy Loman, Robert Aitken/Erica Goodman, and Robert Silverman. Many of these recordings were digitally recorded.

The Marquis people instigated their own unique marketing survey by inserting a questionnaire in the jacket. The buyer was asked what led the buyer to purchase the recording, whether it was bought as a gift or for the buyer, how many records does the buyer have in his collection and what percentage is classical.

Posters of some of the album covers can also be purchased. They feature photos of well-known paintings which retail for $20. However, if the record-buyer answers the questionnaire, they can purchase the poster for only $10.

Ann Mortifee sound difficult to categorize

Toronto: Canadian singer/songwriter Ann Mortifee recently completed the Canadian Orchestra Benefit Tour with Harry Belafonte which also coincided with the release of her new WEA/Jabula album, Born To Live.

Produced by Henri Lorieau, the title track was taken as the first single. Musicians assisting on the album included such well-known session people as Doug Edwards, Robbie King, Dave Pickell and Jim Vallance.

In addition to Mortifee compositions, the album also contains the Eric Woolfson/Alan Parsons penning of The Eagle Will Rise Again.

Also released were Mortifee's previous albums, The Ecstasy Of Rita Joe, Journey To Kairos and Reflections On Crooked Walking. The stage production of the latter was presented last December by the Arts Club Theatre in Vancouver.

Mortifee will be presented in concert with the Edmonton Symphony (April 11) at the Jubilee Auditorium.

Although she leaves a trail of sold out dates and rave reviews, defining Mortifee's sound is difficult, even to her.

"I don't know," she said. "It's one of the things I'm often asked. It's not rock, folk or jazz - it's a smattering of all those things."

As well as writing scripts and music scores, the multi-talented Mortifee also makes appearances in the stage productions she has written, which are transformed into album concepts.

"I went on the Canadian Orchestra Benefit tour for two reasons," she said. "Firstly, I feel very strongly about the orchestra and the cutbacks that have taken place. It was also a wonderful opportunity to work with Belafonte."

Both Mortifee and Belafonte are members of PAND, Performing Artists For Nuclear Disarmament. "Both of us are involved in the nuclear issue. I've been involved as far back as the '60s."

In the works for this year are possible tours of New York, Japan and Australia.

WALT SAYS

Excellent response to programmer poll

It never fails to amaze me the excellent response RPM receives from programmers when doing surveys. We recently mailed Program and Music Directors a questionnaire regarding their format, along with an invitation to pick the top recording artists of this past year. It looks like we have a 60% return on the mailing. Those stations that do not return their form, will be sent another form and if there is no response, we will simply list their station as INFORMATION NOT AVAILABLE, which might get a few noses out of joint.

Donabie, Mazmanian and videos

John Donabie, who does the mid-afternoon show at Toronto's CJCL and David Mazmanian, have been busy putting together video promotions on name recording artists. Their most recent is a project for MCA, promoting the upcoming Canadian tour of Huey Lewis & The News. David is still doing consultive work for CFNY-FM, but broadening his scope.

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

French only doesn't work - always!!

There are a few of the more sensible people in Quebec's music industry who are now exerting influence on their counterparts to abandon their unilingual thinking. Many of Quebec's artists have found they have no where to go with their French-language recordings. Even France isn't too impressed. So, there will be, over the next few months, a wooing of the English-language market by some very big Quebec recording artists. The English language is still key to the global music/recording market.

First Choice prepares early '84 simulcasts

Toronto: First Choice Pay-TV kicked off their First Choice Rocks series this month with concerts by Johnny Winter and Golden Earring plus The Band. Several FM stations across Canada will be simulcasting the shows, both 120 minutes in length.

Winter and Golden Earring were aired Jan. 14, while The Band is scheduled for Jan. 28. The series was produced by Concert Productions International (CPI).

Appearing on the Winter/Golden Earring segment was Santers, the Canadian Capitol recording group. The latter was taped before a live audience at Massey Hall, directed by Stan Jacobson.

The Band Is Back, features four out of the five original members - Levon Helm, Rick Danko, Garth Hudson and Richard Manuel. Only guitarist Robbie Robertson didn't make the tour. He is one of the co-founders of the Canadian group. The Band was taped live during their 11-city Canadian tour and directed by Michael Watt and produced for CPI by Jack McAndrew. The tour marked the first for the group since tells me they will be looking at the New York-based MTV's promotion, successes and failures and the artists who broke into prominence because of MTV. Jonathan Gross (remember him?) will be anchoring the show which runs from Jan. 23 through the 27th. Watch MTV Canada to follow-up with their new video show, the one that John Mahjour just left for CITY-TV.

Even for those who aren't First Choice subscribers, radio listeners can still catch the audio portion of the show in stereo, which will be simulcast by KIK-FM Calgary, K97 Edmonton, LA 107 FM Lethbridge, Z99 Regina, FM 103 Saskatoon, CKCY Sault Ste. Marie, FM94 Swift Current, Q107 Toronto, CITI-FM Winnipeg, and CFOX Vancouver.

Scheduled for February's rock series are the Eurythmics (Feb. 11) and a double Canadian feature of The Payolas and Rough Trade (Feb. 25). Both concerts will be premieres.

First Choice will be re-broadcasting The Stray Cats in concert, Feb. 9, 16 and 19.

Saga, another Canadian group, will be taped during their mini-tour of Canada, for a First Choice Rocks series. Tentative TV and radio simulcast date has been set as March 31.

Record return for RPM Programmer Poll

Toronto: Once again RPM invited radio programmers to vote for the top recording artists of the year and this year's return was the largest in the history of the annual poll.

RPM publisher Walt Grealis noted, "We believe that music programmers, program and music directors, play a leading role in popularizing recording artists and that is why we restricted our poll to programming management of Canadian radio stations. It's obvious from this year's return of the voting ballots that radio programmers are very keen to make their choices known."

Although Anne Murray had some difficulty with the release of her Little Good News single, which did not qualify as Cancon, but which scored immediate success with American programmers, the Capitol recording star did impress Canadian programmers who voted her the No. 1 Canadian Female Vocalist. Bryan Adams, whose A&M album, Cuts Like A Knife was the top Cancon album on RPM's Top Albums of 1983, took honours as the No. 1 Canadian Male Vocalist. The album was also voted the No. 1 Canadian Album of The Year. Loverboy, whose CBS album, Keep It Up, was the No. 2 Cancon album of 1983, was voted the No. 1 Canadian Group. The No. 1 Canadian Single of the Year was Parachute Club's Rise Up, which was RPM's No. 2 single of 1983, just behind Loverboy's Hot Girl's In Love.

Voting in the Cancon Country categories was particularly heavy this year, indicating a greater degree of interest by those stations programming some country. It's interesting to note that 85% of all radio stations in Canada program some country through their block programming format. They also program some rock, contemporary adult (MOR) and classical music.

Eddie Eastman, who released on the Bel Air/Diamond label, topped the poll as No. 1 Canadian Country Male Vocalist. His Sherida single, the last one for Bel Air, enjoyed ten weeks of RPM Country 50 action, the latter part of last year. Marie Bottrell, whose RCA single, Everybody Wants To Be Single, scored well on country charts last year and she took top honours at the No. 1 Canadian Country Female Vocalist. Ottawa's Family Brown broke into the U.S. last year with their RCA single, You Really Got A Hold On Me and made it to the No. 4 berth on the RPM Country 50 on Nov. 14 of last year. Canadian programmers voted them the No. 1 Canadian Country Group of the year. Their single was perhaps one of the most important releases in the history of this popular Ottawa Valley group. Although it did not qualify as Cancon, the single did manage to overcome what has been an obstacle to some, to become a favourite with many country programmers. The single was also well received in the U.S. and served to give the group a foot in the door for releases expected to follow shortly.

In the international categories, there was no contest as Michael Jackson took top honours as the No. 1 International Male Vocalist. Jackson's Thriller album, released by CBS, topped RPM's Albums of 1983 and was certified for a diamond award (one million units sold) in December and has sold gold (50,000) for each subsequent week to time of writing. Clear cut winners as the No. 1 International Group was The Police. Their A&M single, Every Breath You Take, topped RPM's 1983 Singles chart and their Synchronicity album remained No. 1 on the RPM 100 for eight weeks running. Bonnie Tyler, who made it to No. 5 on the year end chart with her CBS single, Total Eclipse Of The Heart, was one of the most popular females of last year and Canadian programmers voted her the No. 1 International Female Vocalist.

Says Greolis, "The RPM programmer poll is an important barometer of the popularity of recording artists and reflects, very closely, the buying habits of record consumers. Radio is still very much the foremost vehicle in promotion and eventual sales of recorded product. The poll doesn't represent only the very restricted music tastes of the CHR and AOR programmers but rather a very wide demographic and in particular the contemporary adult programmer, who is too often overlooked when it comes to handing out record industry plaudits."

New Jack Bailey single produced by Ray Griff

Toronto: The Bel Air Record label has released a long overdue single from country singer Jack Bailey titled Out Of Tune With The Times. The single was written and produced by Ray Griff. The flip, Here's To Loving You, is a re-release of one of the most popular songs ever recorded by Bailey. It too was written and produced by Griff.

"I've known Ray Griff for about 12 years," said Bailey, who is a newcomer to the Bel Air label. "Ray's an excellent songwriter, entertainer and producer."

Bailey, who bases himself in Peterborough, Ontario, released six albums through GRT, two of which reportedly went gold. But it was 25 years ago when Bailey began recording, firstly for George Taylor's Rodeo label.

"I bought my old master tapes from GRT. It took me two years. Ray will probably produce my next album which will be recorded in Nashville. We're going to release three of four singles first then release the album in March or April."

Influenced by such names as Ernest Tubb, Hank Snow and Webb Pierce, Bailey describes his latest sound as a combination of country and MOR with the emphasis on country.

"I met Ray when I was with GRT," Bailey recalls. "He listened to one of my LPs and told me the songs were good, but the production was bad. I've recorded 18 songs written by Ray and I had two hits with Can't Look Sunday In The Eye, Darlin', and Aaron Brown."

Bailey, who has performed with several name country acts including Charley Pride, Roy Clark and Loretta Lynn, is hopeful that Here's To Loving You, might take off again with the new country audience. The single was apparently the longest played record on CFGM up to that time. It was also the title of one of his past albums.

Canadians looking good for Grammy nominations

Toronto: Canada's record industry gets a well-deserved boost this year with the announcement of Grammy nominees.

Anne Murray has been nominated as Country Female Vocalist of the Year and her single, A Little Good News, as Song of the Year. The Montreal-based Men Without Hats, who release on the WEA label, have been nominated as Best New Group and Rob McConnell & The Boss Brass have been advised that their album, All In Good Time, has been nominated for a Grammy in Category 49 - Jazz - Instrumental Big Band. McConnell and his Band are up against album nominations for Gil Evans, Count Basie, Louie Bellson and Bob Flowers. The McConnell crew have just completed a mini-tour of the U.S. West Coast which included dates in North Hollywood, Costa Mesa and San Diego as well as at the University of Nevada. The tour was in support of their Innovation/Tembo album and was made possible by a grant from the cultural Department of External Affairs.

A new album, yet untitled, has been produced at Toronto's McClellan Place and the tracks have a decided Latin flavouring, for expected release throughout Latin America. The album was produced by McConnell, Phil Sheridan and Fernando Gelbard.

Back home McConnell and his band recently played to a sold-out date at Bourbon Street, Toronto's best known jazz spot.

Jackson a retailer boon as Thriller sales continue

Toronto: Michael Jackson, who was voted the No. 1 International Male Vocalist in the RPM Programmer Poll (for the year ending 1983), predictably swept the American Music Awards (Jan. 16). The young Epic phenomenon took eight out of the awards he was nominated for, which included favourite male vocalist in both the pop and soul categories and his Thriller album as favourite pop and soul album. His single, Billie Jean took top honours as favourite pop single and Beat It took both the pop and soul video categories.

Jackson was also presented with a special Award of Merit at this the 11th annual presentation of the awards.

Jackson's Thriller album shows no signs of slowing down and is already the largest selling album worldwide in the history of CBS Records. The album surpassed the one million sales mark in Canada, the latter part of December to achieve the coveted Diamond status and CBS Canada's Don Oates reports the album "has sold gold (50,000) plus each week since reaching the one million mark. This is the most phenomenal happening, not only in the history of CBS but the entertainment industry generally. Jackson is obviously the man of the eighties."

The title track from the Thriller album is now being prepared as a single release, the seventh from the album. Many programmers have carted the single from the album, adding it to their charts which could make Thriller the seventh top 10 single from the same album. Thriller is being released as both a 7" and 12" with the latter containing the 12 minute edit from the video.

Because of the enormous demand, CBS is also re-releasing a 12" of Billie Jean in a special custom cover which will also contain an extended club mix.

The Thriller album topped RPM's Album Chart for 1983 and has now been on the RPM 100 for 56 weeks. In view of the continuing sales of the album it has moved back up the chart once again.

A&A's Yonge Street store in downtown Toronto reported selling more than 1,000 Thriller albums on their Boxing Day sale. Demand was so strong that many stores and distributors ran out of stock.

Lynda Kay of CBS Records described the sales response of the album as "just incredible. The album surpassed the platinum mark again just over the Christmas period, passing double platinum again in an eight week period. You can expect a superstar act to barely or just reach Diamond, but the Thriller album is an exception with such strong continuing sales."

Nominated in 12 categories for the upcoming 26th annual Grammy Awards, the Jackson excitement is expected to hold for some time. Worldwide single sales now exceed 12 million with worldwide sales of the Thriller album at 20 million units and growing. A new album is expected by the spring to coincide with Jackson's tour with his brothers.

NEW ALBUMS

THUNDERMUG

Axe AXS502

A blast from the past. One of the original heavy metal groups, Thundermug made an impressive entry into the market back in 1972. They became popular with the release of two singles, Africa and You Really Got Me, included here. Produced by Greg Hambleton, with Terry Brown as engineer at the now defunct Toronto Sound Studios.

FRIZZELL & WEST

- Country

In Session - Viva - 92 39704-P

Produced by Snuff Garrett and Steve Dorff, this popular duo have already hit the charts with their single releases including Pleasure Island. Also contains their follow-up single, Silent Partners. Also key are You're My Better Half and the medley of The Wild Side Of Life and It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels.

B.J. THOMAS

- Country

The Great American Dream

Cleveland International - FE-39111-H

His second album for Cleveland Int'l and it has already made an impression with country programmers. The vehicle for the popularity of this album is the first single, Two Car Garage. Don't pigeon hole Thomas in the country category too soon. The album is full of surprises. The time he spent on the religious kick is reflected here, not in lyrics but in a very self-righteous delivery reminiscent of the old B.J. Thomas.

JOHN LENNON & YOKO ONO

- Rock

Milk And Honey - PolyGram - PDS-16368-Q
Described as "a continuation of the dialogue created by John Lennon and Yoko Ono" on their Double Fantasy album, Milk And Honey should become one of the top releases of the year. There's a little more of a rockier edge as well as laid back ballads. I Don't Want To Face It is a classic of the Lennon talent that is no more. Also key is Lennon's Nobody Told Me, released to radio stations as a 12" single with Yoko's O' Sanity on the flip.

PLATINUM BLONDE

- Rock

Standing In The Dark

Columbia PCC-80090-H

Platinum Blonde, a recent signing to Columbia, make an impressive entry into the market with this exceptionally-well produced package. The material was penned by band members Mark Holmes, lead vocalist and lead guitarist Sergio Galli. The remaining member is drummer Chris Steffler. Doesn't Really Matter has been taken as a 7" single. A 12" EP AOR sampler has also been released and brought the group into instant prominence. The EP includes a 3:13 mix of the album track, plus a 4:11 cut of Leaders In Danger and a 3:59 of Not In Love. A video of the title track is also available. Lyrics included.

Alcatrazz U.S. action spilling over to Canada

Toronto: Alcatrazz, the first rock group signed to the fledgling U.S. Rockshire label, have showed indications of locking up the U.S. AOR radio scene with the conquering of the many tip sheets and consultants - all giving their self-titled album and single, the green light in the U.S. Early Canadian programmer response has been slow but there is a pattern of interest beginning to show.

The initial CHR-AOR single is titled Island In The Sun and features the soaring voice of Graham Bonnet and the guitar playing of Yngwie (pronounced Ingway) Malmsteen.

The Anaheim, California-based label have obviously invested a bundle in this group, particularly with two exceptional promo videos on Islands In The Sun and another key track, Hiroshima Mon Amour. The Islands video is now in good rotation on MTV U.S. and the label is bicycling the video across Canada. Initial AOR reaction in Canada has been favourable but the album has only been on release for three weeks in Canada as opposed to the seven weeks in the U.S.

Anthem's Berry quits as Managing Director

Toronto: SRO/Anthem have announced the resignation of Tom Berry, who was Managing Director of Anthem. His resignation becomes effective Feb. 1st. Mr. Berry has been with the company for eight years and was a major player in leading the label to its current status as one of the most successful independent labels in Canada.

Mr. Berry will be acting on a consultant basis in Canada and the U.S. for SRO/Anthem by the releases of Ian Thomas, Rush, Coney Hatch and Boys Brigade albums. It's also reported that in the coming months Mr. Berry will be announcing details of his new business venture with Marc Durand, producer and manager of Men Without Hats.

In the meantime, Val Azzoli, presently Vice President of SRO will take over as the new Managing Director, but will also continue his duties at SRO.

RCA crew got together in Toronto to present Parachute Club with gold for their debut Current self-titled album. The group and their manager Gerry Young accept the award.

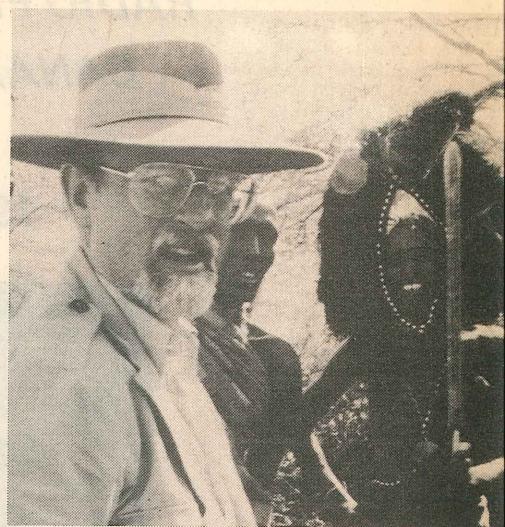

Disney exclusive for Whittaker's Safari film

Burbank, Calif. The Disney Channel has acquired exclusive pay-TV rights to Roger Whittaker's one-hour musical film, Roger Whittaker In Kenya, which stars the popular Tembo recording star. The special is expected to air in the U.S. during March.

Ed Preston, President Tembo Music Canada, advises that dates for the film's Canadian TV premiere are still being negotiated. It's expected however, that the soundtrack album and video cassette will be released and distributed in Canada by RCA. Release is being scheduled for the latter part of February or early March. Preston also advises that the Kenya Musical Safari is the first commercial release of a Roger Whittaker video cassette anywhere in the world.

Whittaker, who was born in Kenya and now lives near London, recently completed a highly successful 80-city U.S. concert tour this past year. His record product, released as TV packages and at the retail level, have met with exceptional sales in the U.S. and have scored gold and platinum awards in Canada.

Tembo's most recent single release by Whittaker was a Christmas outing of Momma Mary, with Tiny Angels on the flip.

ROGER WHITTAKER ON SAFARI

A scene from the Tembo recording star's new international television special - Roger Whittaker meets the magnificent Maasai tribesmen of Kenya. The movie will be aired in March by The Disney Channel. Negotiations are underway for the airing of the film in Canada, hopefully for an early spring showing.
