

Bob Muir to head Virgin Records Canada

Montreal: Virgin Records, which renewed its distribution agreement with PolyGram (Oct. 1st) has opened their Canadian office in Toronto to be headed by newly-appointed Virgin Canada President Bob Muir.

Muir spent over four years at CBS Records Canada, most recently as Director of Product Management for the company.

The opening of the Toronto office is based on the success of the Virgin label in Canada, and follows similar moves in Europe and Australia. PolyGram, in addition to continuing to distribute the label will also provide promotional support on a regional level.

The first deal between the two companies was struck in 1976 by PolyGram Canada President Peter Erdmann and Virgin head Richard Branson, when Branson was preparing his move from London, England to Montreal.

Virgin has since grown to become a major force in contemporary music. The label's development of international acts, combined with PolyGram's promotion and marketing teams, has produced a respected number of hits over the years including XTC, Simple

A million-airs for Frank Mills

Toronto: At a recent Broadcast Music Inc. (BMI) luncheon in New York City, Frank Mills, Capitol recording artist, received a rare award. His recording of Music Box Dancer was honoured for one million logged performances in the U.S., which means the record has been performed on radio in the U.S. for at least 50,000 hours of broadcast time.

Mills is one of the few Cancon artists to be so honoured. Previous Canadian recipients were Gene MacLellan, for Snowbird and Put Your Hand In The Hand; David Clayton Thomas for Spinning Wheel; Dan Hill for Sometimes When We Touch; Paul Anka for My Way, Put Your Head On My Shoulder and Having My Baby; and Joni Mitchell for her recording of Both Sides Now.

Mills recently completed his first Christmas album, being readied for release mid-October.

Minds, The Human League, Culture Club, Mike Oldfield, O.M.D. and Toronto's own Martha & The Muffins.

"When we made our first pact, both PolyGram and Virgin were left-fielders in this market, hungry for success," said Erdmann. "Since then, we have grown side by side, to our mutual benefit and with great respect for each other. It comes therefore as no surprise that Virgin wanted to stay with us."

Erdmann says that there will be no interruption in service to the trade and they have already prepared their forthcoming new releases including Colour By Numbers from Culture Club, Mummer by XTC, Labour Of Love from UB40, and the Soundtrack from Merry Christmas Mr. Lawrence.

MUSEXPO registration up over previous years

New York: Roddy Shashoua, President MUSEXPO, reports that MUSEXPO '83 "will be our biggest year." He continues with "The five days are shaping up as a worldwide event in scope of attendance from North and South America, Europe, Asia and Africa."

As of August 31, more than 500 companies from 24 countries have firmied their participation for both MUSEXPO and VIDEXPO '83, and this includes a larger than usual delegation from Canada.

This year's event will be held at the Condesa del Mar, in Acapulco, Mexico from Oct. 31 through Nov. 4th. Registrants to MUSEXPO and VIDEXPO will be allowed free access to each other's functions.

A special presentation by Philips of its Compact Disc plus available hardware will be made at the Condesa del Mar (Nov 1-4) plus new products from Philips line of audio and video electronic equipment including videodisc hardware and software.

Philips has been appointed Official Audio Supplier for MUSEXPO '83 and will equip office booths (stands) with audio components i.e. record and cassette players, 48 watt amplifiers and 28 inch speakers for use by exhibitors for the duration of the event.

CBS Canada introduces Masterworks Portrait line

Toronto: CBS Masterworks has introduced a new mid-price classical line titled Masterworks Portrait beginning with an initial release of 40 titles which is expected to grow to 250 over the next few years.

The high-quality mid-price line is described as containing "a European slant, which has been aimed at the knowledgeable and discriminating classical record and cassette-buyer with a sense of taste, plus a taste for value."

The package design features gold type on sleek black covers framing full-colour period artwork. All packages feature liner notes in three languages and includes a specially-designed inner sleeve which cross-references all 40 available titles. Cassette packages also contain complete liner notes and a product listing.

For sound, the Masterworks Portrait series features the specially-produced New Dolby "A" transfers of original master tapes resulting in a new improved sound that the company describes as "containing spectacular signal to noise ratios greatly extending the dynamic range, while also offering the cleanest reproduction the masters have ever had."

"This series doesn't emphasize the basic repertoire," explained Norman Miller, Director of CBS Masterworks for Canada. "The focus is on the more unusual releases. It's aimed at all age groups and draws from two markets, the individual who wants to update his collection and the person who is just getting into classical music, but hasn't the money for regular priced classical records."

Miller pointed out that the company's regular digital classical records would carry a list price of about $14.98 while the new series would cost approximately $8.98, but noted that there is no suggested list. Therefore the record outlets can price them differently.

"Sales for classical product is still up. The market is growing. There's no question about it. They still sell the best in the major markets of Toronto and Montreal, followed by Vancouver and Calgary."

Boomtown Rat's Cott signed to Current label

Toronto: Current Records has signed international recording artist Gerry Cott, co-founder, guitarist and one of the principal writers of the British group The Boomtown Rats.

Cott played a key role in the success of the band which included nine consecutive Top 10 singles, three platinum LPs and three successful world tours.

Believing there was little left to achieve within the framework of the group, Cott left the band in 1981, but continued writing material. At MIDEM '82, the composer/guitarist met Gerry Young and Joe Fodor of Current. Young had known Cott from the days when he worked at PolyGram, distributors of Boomtown Rats. Current had Cott flown to Canada where he recorded a demo using several of Toronto's top musicians resulting in a signing with CBS (U.K.).

Cott released two solo singles on the Epic label, which were released in Canada and the U.S. However, due to the absence of an LP necessary to follow the singles, Cott cut his ties with CBS and re-approached Current, resulting in the signing.

The first Current project for Cott will be a five-song EP to be recorded in November, co-produced by Cott and Gerry Young. Both U.K. and local musicians are to be utilized.

Current is presently experiencing success with the debut self-titled LP from the Parachute Club containing the hit single Rise Up. A video has recently been completed of the single which is receiving national exposure and is also expected to receive heavy play on MTV in the U.S. The band is scheduled to close the season of Canada's Wonderland Oct. 9.

Meanwhile, Martha & the Muffins are due to enter the Power Station studio in New York to continue the recording of their forthcoming album and second for the label, tentatively titled Mystery Walk. The band will also be doing production work at Hamilton's Grant Avenue Studio. Young reports the group will be utilizing some of "New York's hottest studio musicians on many tracks.

M&M recently completed a world tour in support of their latest album, Danseparc. Tentative plans include a possible soundtrack for the movie Blind Rage, a film by Don Carmody and the producers of Porky's 1 and 2. Also planned are tours of the U.K. and Europe to support the new LP.

Another Ottawa Little hits record business

Toronto: Canadian impressionist Fred Little, brother of Rich, is broadening his horizons by entering the entertainment world on a fulltime basis.

Little, who has been performing comic impressions for 33 years, is scheduled to open for legendary '60s rock star Gene Pitney on his Canadian tour. Pitney is best known for his hits, Liberty Valance, It Hurts To Be In Love, A Town Without Pity and She's A Heartbreaker.

Little is an understudy of Mel Blanc, and can be heard doing the Looney Tunes voice recordings for Kid Stuff Records and is also the originator of the Cedric Snier voice in the Christmas Racoons TV specials and records. Even Blanc has confessed that hearing Little was like hearing himself in stereo.

"I began doing barnyard impressions when I was very young," said Little. "Then I imitated cartoons and finally other people. Some of it rubbed off on Rich and he started doing his own. If you count barnyard impressions, then I was the first in the family doing this."

The Pitney/Little tour begins in Saskatoon (Oct 21) followed by Regina (22), Toronto (24), Winnipeg (26), Kitchener (27), Hamilton (28 & 29) and Ottawa (30).

Little can perform 150 well-known voices including 50 cartoon characters.

Fischoff pens new Como single

New York: George Fischoff, well-known songwriter/performer (keyboardist) has penned Perry Como's new single, As My Love For You. The single is included on the 71-year-old Como's recently released RCA album.

Fischoff is currently seeing U.S. adult contemporary action on his Moss Music Group single, Summer Love/Piano Power, enjoying a record breaking run of 32 weeks on the adult contemporary chart of a major U.S. trade.

Summer Love is Fischoff's follow-up to his successful Pretty Kitty single and is now gaining strength with Canadian contemporary adult programmers.

The L.A.P.D. busts a somebody!!!

L.A. dectives have arrested a fairly prominent Canadian who dabbled in record production and art. If you can recall a few years ago when there was a bank scam, hustled by this same individual, you'll know who they arrested. He was apparently doing the same thing in L.A.

Who reads RPM???

Someone asked me recently who RPM goes to. Principally it goes to radio stations and perhaps there are some of you who remember when a representative of the CRTC commented at one of our communication meetings that if a radio station wasn't getting RPM, that would be the radio station the CRTC would like to log for Canadian content. I would say that practically every English-language radio station in Canada gets RPM and we haven't even mentioned the stations in the U.S. Take a look at our classified ads each week. This is where radio finds talent and where talent can advertise to radio. In the same way, RPM goes to the people who make the hits and if one radio station in Toronto isn't on our bandwagon . . . well, look at the latest book and (what can I say) if they can't take a joke!!

Maybe we all are???

So many people in this industry refer to themselves as "musicologists" that it prompted me to look it up in the dictionary and I discovered that it isn't defined as a case of formal schooling. It seems to imply that the study of music and its history qualifies you. Therefore most of us would qualify to call ourselves musicologists and the term has no meaning at all. The voice on the other end of the telephone asks, "Mr. Grealis, I understand you are a musicologist," to which I reply, "Lady you've got the wrong number!"

Motown image boosted by Richie/Wonder dates

Toronto: September was a Motown image building month with two of their top stars playing Canadian dates. Both Lionel Richie and Stevie Wonder played dates in Toronto and Montreal with the latter including Halifax on his Canadian swing. Western Canada is already on the itinerary of both artists for next year.

While in Toronto, Quality Records, distributors of Motown product in Canada, presented Richie with double platinum for his debut solo album and platinum for his single, Truly. Richie's current single, All Night Long, has made impressive gains on Canadian radio and at the retail level. His new album, Can't Slow Down will ship Oct. 17. Wonder's new album, People Move, Human Plays, is scheduled for a mid-November release.

Other Motown releases set for October include new albums by DeBarge, Four Tops, Dazz Band, Temptations, as well as the soundtrack from The Big Chill and a Marvin Gaye compilation, 16 Greatest Hits.

Motown's 25th Anniversary TV Special will be repeated on NBC, Sunday Oct 30 at 9 pm EST.

Conflicts of interest do conflict!!

Conflicts of interest in both the radio and record industries are rampant. Some of them are harmless overlapping of procedures while others are designed to cheat and discredit others who are doing their job legitimately. Fate always intervenes and usually with disastrous results. One of these people got trampled on last week.

Media represented at Festival!!!

Yes, there were a lot of people at the Festival of Festivals opening party. There were representatives from radio, television, and the dailies, and if I missed anyone, I apologize. I was really looking for record industry people and there weren't any, other than those I mentioned. Maybe the phones will stop ringing. Yes, you were there, and I limped around to as many of you as I could. See you again next year, same party. It was REALLY GREAT!!

Ready/Quality sign
A&M distribution deal

Toronto: Quality Records, together with Ready Records, which is partially owned by Quality, have announced a distributor deal whereby A&M will distribute the Ready label in Canada. The deal became effective Oct. 1. The move to distribution by A&M is described as "a consolidation of Ready Records, since its affiliate label, Kids Records, is already distributed by A&M, and one of its major acts, The Spoons, is distributed by A&M worldwide outside of Canada. Quality however, will retain its equity position with Ready.

"We are proud of the success to date of Ready Records," noted Quality President George Struth, "and we are looking forward to continuing that success through the association with A&M."

Initial release under the A&M distribution pact will be the new Spoons album, Talkback, which was produced by Nile Rogers.

Heartache Ave. launched start for Maisonettes

Toronto: Rarely do groups begin their career with a smash hit, but the debut single from the Maisonettes, a '60s influenced pop-rock tune, became one of the favourites of the summer.

A major factor for its success is believed to be its left-field qualities which obviously didn't conform to the present rules.

For Lol Mason, a co-founder of the British group and a former member of City Boy, it's an unlikely beginning. Mason formed the group along with Mark Tibenham in early 1982.

Graduate, a British label, was impressed enough with the Maisonettes' demo they used it to launch their Ready, Steady, Go label.

Heartache Avenue was released in the U.K. in late 1982 where it was acclaimed by the media and reached top 10 to be followed by the same results in Germany, Holland, Belgium and of course Canada. The Maisonettes also became one of the first new bands to gain a spot on, The Tube, a popular British TV.

Quality recently released the group's debut album, Maisonettes For Sale and their follow-up single Hot Club Lifeboat.

"Well, it's different," Mason told RPM. "It's a fairly varied LP. A lot of people have said that it sounds like something from the '60s. As far as I'm concerned, the two of us have a big affection for the music of the mid-60s. It was a very formative period..

"The album has been released in Canada before the U.K. and we are now in the process of negotiating a deal in the U.S. Things happened in a hurry for us. We've been talking about doing a tour of Europe, but it's not easy because we're a fairly big show. If enough people want us, we will come to Canada."

Mason noted that with City Boy, the band had gone about as far as it could go.

"There are so many forms under the umbrella. Everything has been done. It's impossible to get away from that. There's no such thing as something totally different."

Along with Mason and Tibenham Maisonettes comprises drummer Nick Parry, keyboardist/vocalist Carla Mendonca and vocalist Elisa Richards.

November date for new Stones album

Toronto: The first week of November has been tentatively set as the release date for the new album from The Rolling Stones. Titled Undercover, the album was produced by Mick Jagger and Keith Richards.

In announcing the release, Kim Cooke, Atlantic/Elektra/Asylum Product Manager for WEA Music of Canada, reports that he expects the release to "contain the typically wild Rolling Stone packaging."

A single release hasn't been decided at this time, nor is there word of tour dates.

It's expected that Undercover will be the last regular Stones album for WEA. The band recently signed a deal with CBS. WEA however, is expected to release a compilation album as their last package from the group, possibly a double set.

Christmas album & tour for Troubadour's Raffi

Toronto: Raffi, noted children's recording artist who releases on his own Troubadour label, is preparing a national tour to coincide with the Nov. 15 release of his Christmas album.

The Christmas album marks Raffi's sixth collaboration as co-producer with multi-instrumentalist/producer Ken Whitely. Also contributing instrumentally to the album session are jazz great Moe Koffman and the Canadian Brass.

Raffi had apparently been considering for some time the recording of a children's Christmas album, which was in response to the many requests he had received through meeting children and parents through his tours.

"I perceived the current Christmas album situation to be very similar to the overall children's record scene immediately prior to us releasing Singable Songs For The Very Young in 1976," said Raffi.

"Most of what is currently available for children at Christmas time are budget-line records. With the new album we've tried to apply our ongoing commitment to quality music, performed by top-notch musicians, with a gentle approach that encourages participation on the part of the listener. I'm delighted with the results."

The Troubadour recording artist has sold well over half a million copies of his five children's albums and is a recipient of gold and platinum album awards.

Dan Hill — out of the darkness with a new album

Dan Hill, one of the most successful and highly promoted young pop singers during the latter part of the seventies, has resurfaced after an absence of more than two years. He eases back into the limelight with his initial album release for the Mercury label, titled Love In The Shadows.

Hill co-produced and co-wrote the album with John Lewis Parker. The latter has written material for several name recording acts including Sheena Easton and Dolly Parton.

Many critics have already agreed that the new Hill album contains a fresher, brighter quality, which has been reflected with its almost immediate acceptance by middle of the road programmers. There is obviously a new direction for this past Juno award winner.

The album has been released in a gatefold jacket, colourfully designed by Deborah Samuel and Heather Brown. A 7" single of the title track, similarly jacketed was released prior to the album along with a radio-only 12" EP containing a vocal dance mix of the single plus Where You Gonna Run To. The album was recorded and mixed at Toronto's Manta Sound by Gary Gray and is highlighted by the Fairlight System, programmed by Dee Long.

Born and raised in Toronto, Hill began composing music at the age of 14 and was greatly influenced by the recording stars his parents listened to including Frank Sinatra, Count Basie and Billie Holiday. By the time he reached 18 he scored his first recording contract, followed shortly by his first hit, You Make Me Want To Be, taken from his self-titled album which went on to chalk up sufficient sales to garner him a gold certification. He followed this with Hold On, which also became a gold album. Hill was hot and from 1975 through 1979 he won five Junos in five consecutive years.

It was one success after another and the metal became even brighter as Hill's two albums, Frozen In The Night and The Longer Fuse, both hit platinum. The latter, which contained his extraordinary hit, Sometimes When We Touch, went on to triple platinum, a rare accomplishment for a Canadian artist.

Success however, wasn't without its frustrations and disappointments. Unfortunately because of his hit singles Hill became labelled as a balladeer, a label that wasn't entirely fair being that he recorded as much uptempo music as he did ballads. Radio listeners and the media lumped him into the ballad slot and he was unable to bring them around to his brand of soft rock that ironically became the norm for the North American music industry.

"My last album was Partial Surrender and was released in the fall of '81," Hill told RPM. "It didn't do that well although it received good critical reaction. Even though I was evolving musically, the change was not radical enough."

"I began recording more rock-oriented material, but they weren't the songs being played. So the image was being reinforced. In the record company's opinion the ballads were the most commercial tracks and listeners kept hearing the same type of thing. Pretty soon it became like a Dan Hill syndrome."

Hill explained that the listening public developed a pre-conceived notion of what he could and couldn't do. "Immediately people were saying, 'Here we go again'."

The singer-songwriter then decided it was time for a break from the business.

"I felt I needed some time off. I had banged off six LPs and needed a break to re-evaluate and re-generate myself."

It was also during this two-year hiatus when Hill decided a change in direction was needed. In this period Hill was writing for ATV in Los Angeles and met up with John Lewis Parker who was also working for the company. A partnership developed between the two, with Parker encouraging Hill to be more aggressive and physical in his writing.

The recording contract with Hill was apparently signed on the basis of demos put together by the Hill/Parker team. In addition to producing the LP, Parker also co-wrote six of the songs.

"The album is a lot more rhythmic and more to the point lyrically," Hill pointed out. "The vocals are positive. During my two-year hiatus I felt my voice was getting stronger rapidly and needed material that could tap the potential."

"The reaction to the album has been excellent. But I didn't know what to expect. After several years in the business nothing surprises you. There are ballads on the album but they're not featured."

In terms of the evolution of his music, Hill thinks it's just the beginning. In addition, noted guitarist George Benson is experiencing success with the Dan Hill/Mike Masser composition In Your Eyes, the title cut of Benson's album.

Hill has also been busy on a fictional novel titled Comeback, due to be published shortly. The story is of a singer who is no longer selling many records and seduces a girl he thinks is 18, but turns out to be 15. The character gets charged with statutory rape, but because of all the publicity has his career revived. The more publicity the character receives the more pressure the law tries to apply as it seems the character benefits from the press. Hill hopes for interest in a motion picture based on the novel.

PolyGram readies new Culture Club album

Montreal: PolyGram Canada is preparing the release of a new album from Culture Club titled Colour By Numbers.

Their Kissing To Be Clever album is now well over the platinum mark in Canada. At the group's recent appearance at the Kingswood Music Theatre in Canada's Wonderland, they were presented with platinum for Kissing To Be Clever, platinum for their single Do You Really Want To Hurt Me and gold for Time (Clock of the Heart).

Culture's Club's latest single, I'll Tumble 4 Ya, is about to reach the gold mark. PolyGram has previewed the forthcoming album with the release of a 12" single containing Church Of The Poison Mind. The song debuted on U.K. charts in the #9 position, leaped to #2, and was certified silver. Their new British single, Karma Chameleon, from the new LP, is already at the top of the British charts.

The group, known for the soulful vocals of lead singer Boy George, has recently added Helen Terry, as their fifth member.

Gale maneuvering return to country popularity

Toronto: Canadian Country singer-songwriter Norma Gale is making an impressive comeback after a brief absence with the release of her new single, So Far Away From You, on the Foxways label.

Produced by Ross Allen and Johny Burke, the single was recorded at Shotgun and Marigold Studios. The flip, My Picture Province, was produced by Ted Gerow at Marc Productions in Ottawa, the area where the artist presently makes her base. Both sides were written by Gale.

Gale, who was born in Moncton and left at the age of 22 to work at Toronto's legendary Horseshoe Tavern, discovered one rainy day in Toronto, that she was homesick for her home province and wrote My Picture Province as a tribute to New Brunswick.

She explained that the new single takes on a more country-rooted direction than her previous single, What More Can I Say.

"My last single was more MOR, but received airplay on both MOR and country stations," she said. "It wasn't really designed to crossover, but the production was MOR."

Gale reported that her next album which she hopes to record in Nashville and release early next year, will also be more country-oriented, although some material can also be considered MOR.

Guesting on the So Far Away From You session were Rich Dodson, Joe Howe and Johny Burke on guitar, Steve Smith on steel, and Lorence Hud on piano.

Influenced by such names as Connie Smith, Ray Price and Tammy Wynette, Norma Gale moved to the U.S. where she lived in Nashville for several years. She travelled extensively through the U.S. which included two memorable appearances at the legendary Grand Ole Opry where she received standing ovations.

Although she had offers from some of the biggest names in the country music business plus steady work in Nashville, Gale explained she briefly left the music scene to spend more time with her young son Marc. Her return to the business was further delayed through a painful back injury.

Now that her son is much older, Gale is ready to tackle the Canadian country scene again and is now playing dates.

MCA/Churchill deal benefits Jessie Burns

Toronto: With the recent merging of Jim Halsey's Churchill label with MCA, it's expected that Jessie Burns, Churchill's most prominent act will reap the benefits. Burns was in Toronto to tape the Tommy Hunter Show (Sept 30) after a hectic TV/promo trip from Vancouver to Ontario. While in Vancouver she taped two shows for Don Harron, which were aired Oct 4th and 7th.

Initial Canadian release through the new merger deal will be a single, Easy Me. However, the U.S. will be going on All From Loving You, her first Canadian release that climbed the RPM Country 50 the latter part of last year. The Easy Me side will be on the flip of the U.S. release.

Burns has also been firmed to open for the Don Williams tour of the Maritimes and Ontario the latter part of March next year. This will be the third Williams tour for Burns. Dates are now being finalized through the Jack Roberts Agency of Seattle.

Ford nod to MRB

The recent recording session of Vancouver's Midnite Rodeo Band, has sent top RCA execs into a flap. Vice President and General Manager John Ford is so excited about the session he's taking it to Nashville where he'll showcase several of the 15 tracks for RCA's Nashville brass.

B.C. awards in jeopardy

The B.C. Country Music Association's Danny Awards has run into difficulties. CKWX has withdrawn its support and rumours have it that a major sponsor has also left. In any event the awards show, were set for Oct 9 at the Royal Towers Hotel in New Westminster. There will be 12 categories voted on. Dick Damron will be the special guest artist. Other names appearing are Anne Lord, Slim Driscoll, Gary Fjellgaard, Peter Chipman, Marilyn Ann Taylor, Frank O'Connell and Denny Eddy.

U.S. trade action for Lord

Anne Lord's recent Comstock single, Endlessly, now climbing the RPM Country 50, has moved into the seventies on the Cashbox 100 Country chart. Comstock's Frank Fara has been building on this release both in Canada and the U.S. and reports "heavy response."

Merceys single is Cancon

Information has it that the recent MBS single from the Mercey Brothers, titled Anytime Down is two parts Cancon (AP). The single, and their self-titled album were produced at Toronto's Eastern Sound.

Kees & Golden Fiddle on MBS

Latest single release from MBS is titled Ain't Drinkin' Whiskey by Carl Kees & Golden Fiddle Music Co. The single was produced by Ross Allen, a songwriter in his own right, and written by Hughie Yorke and Ralph McDonald. Co-producer was Rich Dodson. The plug side features Leigh Schott on vocals. Kees, who heads up the group, played fiddle with the Good Brothers for five years. Says Kees, "Here's something different and 100% Canadian — not Texas Swing or Western Swing. We call it Canadian Swing." The flip is an exceptional cover of Earl Scruggs' Foggy Mountain Breakdown.

Tom Charles Band to Australia

The Tom Charles Band no sooner hit the RPM Country 50 with their initial release, We Are The Cowboys, when they were booked for Australia. The down under trip came about through Australia's Radio Marketing Bureau Director Bob Logie. The group's single is being distributed through various country/MOR format radio stations that are part of Australia's Federation of Broadcasters. The single is receiving heavy play on 2FB-1 in Hamilton, Bermuda and 2BV1 Tortola, Virgin Islands. Notes the group's leader Tom Saull, "Holidaying Canadians in the Caribbean looking for Cancon, just call in on the request line and ask those nice Caribbean radio folks to hit you with a little, We Are The Cowboys."

Heavy Audiograph promo push

Watch for the Nashville-based Audiograph label to launch a hefty promo push on their Cancon signings. Harold MacIntyre and Ronnie Prophet. They've got an impressive lineup of U.S. acts as well including Tommy Cash and Leroy Van Dyke. The promo-oriented dude behind Audiograph (part of the Indigo umbrella) is Larry (Lee) Broderick. You might remember him from his Larry Lee and The Leesures days. Larry's a native of London, Ontario but is now living in Nashville. Prophet's single release will be I'm Gonna Love Him Outta You. Also watch for Colin Butler, another name from the past, to emerge with a Nashville production by Broderick. Colin has been working the studios in Nashville as a background singer and Larry believes the time is right for him to re-enter the recording scene.

Bluegrass fest for CHOK

One of the highlights of the year for CHOK was their 3rd Annual Down River Bluegrass Festival (Aug 14). The event attracted more than a thousand bluegrass and country fans to the Moore Sports Complex, an outdoor setting on the St. Clair River. Entertainment was provided by the Sarnia Bluegrass Club, Pulse Creek, The Blackwell Sideroad Bluegrass Band, The McGrath Family, Allen Family Reunion, Dixie Flyers and Sugar Hill. CHOK's Dave Curtis reports the station and the Sarnia Bluegrass Club are already making plans for the 4th Down River festival.

NEW ALBUMS

DARK ROOM

- Rock

san paku - WEA 25 02431-P

Dark Room was established on the Alberta club circuit before getting involved in the recording business. An Edmonton group, with the exception of Calgarian Wolf Radke, the group's keyboardist and guitarist Alan Marks, who was born in the U.K., their sound has been described as "modern rock 'n roll, not overly synthetic, very powerful vocally in the Bryan Ferry/Jim Kerr mold." The power is in fact lead vocalist Jim Gray, but comparisons are not necessary. His vocals are uniquely his. The projection and lyric attack are exceptional, sitting front and centre with the equally-powerful instrumental backing. The other members are drummer Tim Palmer and bassist Jeff Schmidt. In Dim Light has been taken as a single, a choice cut. Also notable are Leave It To Heaven with Wolf Radke on lead vocals, Tears Hold No Cure and the title track. The latter refers to a Japanese phrase that describes a momentary flash of light that occurs just before death, a fairly good description of Dark Room's sound. Produced by Wes Dakus at Edmonton's Sundown Recorders. Board chores were looked after by engineer Howard Steele, who is listed as "currently active with DFX2 on MCA. Lyrics included."

ANNE MURRAY

- Pop

A Little Good News - Capitol ST-12301-F

There's a slight change in direction but not enough to turn off Anne Murray's legion of fans. She dropped a bit of a blockbuster with the title track, taken as a single. The impact on programmers has been exceptional, particularly in the U.S.. There's no Cancon properties for this track which may be why the programmer holdout in Canada. Most of the other tracks have two-parts Cancon and one very impressive track, I'm Not Afraid Anymore is four-parts Cancon, written by Bob Quinn. Other choice tracks are Kenny Loggins' The More We Try, and a real change of pace with the Goldmark/Galdston penning of That's Not The Way (It's S'posed To Be). Produced by Jim Ed Norman. Lyrics enclosed.

C-WEED

- Country

Going The Distance - Hawk HRLP-03

After what seems an eternity, C-Weed are back and the absence has made them a stronger and much closer-knit vocal/instrumental group. (Play Me) My Favourite Song has been taken as a single and it could surprise those who remember C-Weed's previous releases. This is country but done up in C-Weed's unique hard rock style, that very closely resembles their live performances. All the material on the album was written by C-Weed's leader Errol Ranville (lead vocals, guitars). The flip of the single however, A Little Bit Of Loving Tonight, was written by fellow-Winnipegger Fred Oleson, and was on their High And Dry album. Produced by Craig Fotheringham and Errol Ranville at Winnipeg's Century 21 Studios. Background vocals supplied by group members Wally Ranville (bass) and Clint Dutiaume (fiddle) plus Rhonda Hart. The latter releases on the AmeriCan label. The remaining member of C-Weed is drummer Don Ranville. Fotheringham is also heard on keyboards. Steelman on the session is Dylan Evans with Jim Flett looking after gut-string guitar, Clyde Roulette, the slide guitar and Ed Birkett on percussion. Distributed through Hawk Records in Winnipeg.

WIDE BOY AWAKE

- Rock

RCA MFL1-8511-N

Founded by Kevin Mooney, formerly of Adam and The Ants, Wide Boy Awake are already creating heavy club action with the 12" release of Chicken Outlaw. Mooney wrote all the material for this mini-album which was co-produced by Trevor Spencer and Nick Glennie-Smith. Mooney also handles the lead vocals for this British group. The other members are bassist John Keogh, drummer Kelly Lovell and percussionist Horace Carter-Alien. The video of Chicken Outlaw should sell this group whose songs are described as "rebellious", which really doesn't put them into an outside category. Their energies are exceptional and far in front of many of their contemporaries. Danceable and listenable. This first release should get them a foot in the door of the North American market.

ROUGH TRADE

Weapons - True North TN-55-H

Rough Trade are even rougher this time out and with jacket artwork that demands a front rack. Carole Pope is overly energized with this powerful outing produced by herself, Kevin Staples and Gene Martynec. The vocal and instrumental cushioning is given an extra professional bump from Don Troiano on sitar, keyboardist David McMorrow, who also provides vocals and background vocals by Nona Hendryx and Lisa dal Bello. The guts of Rough Trade, of course, are Staples, who doubles on keyboards and guitar and vocals, Jorn Andersen, on drums, bassist Howard Ayee, both providing vocals, and percussionist Chi Sharpe. The title track was released as a single and did well as a promotion vehicle for the album. Other notable tracks are Beyond Love And Desire, If You Want It, and You Must Adapt. All material written by Pope and Staples. Lyrics included.

MacIntyre & Prophet get Audiograph boost

Nashville: Two Cancon acts have top priority for the Indigo people with their Audiograph album releases from Harold MacIntyre and Ronnie Prophet.

The MacIntyre album, Tragic Romancer, has been experiencing solid sales across the country, much of it due to the quick acceptance by country programmers of MacIntyre's single, Pressures Of Progress. The single has made impressive moves up the RPM Country 50, resting at No. 14 this week.

MacIntyre has just finished the Dallas Club in Hamilton and moved up to the Stampede Corral in Kitchener for three days (Oct 6-7-8) and then he's off to Nashville for the DJ Convention where Indigo's Foreign Market Director, Larry Broderick has laid on four heavy days of promotion, including a Bloody Mary party (12), hosted by Audiograph's Sam Cerami and Rebecca Norman, followed by the Chuck Chellman & Georgia Twitty Radio Invitational Golf Tournament and an evening presentation of Indigo's roster of recording artists (13), guesting on the Rev. Jimmy Snow's Grand Ole Gospel Time (14); and as a guest performer on the Grand Ole Opry (15).

Prophet's initial album release for Audiograph is titled I'm Gonna Love Him Out Of You. Prophet played several dates in Ontario and Saskatchewan before going home to Nashville for the DJ Convention.

ON STAGE

LIONEL RICHIE

Maple Leaf Gardens - Toronto - Sept 23/83
by Kevin C. Wynne

If there was any doubt as to this man's ability to go it alone after strong success with the Commodores, it was firmly removed Friday night at the Gardens. Richie has it all down pat; the silky voice, the moves, and a genuine warmth that puts ladies under his spell right from the start. Not being fully committed to this rather romantic/dramatic type of material, the show was approached with some trepidation. However, after his opening number, it was obvious that in his sphere, Richie is unbeatable. Pacing was an important element in the show; the solo material was carefully layered between Commodores' material, and all pulled together with Richie's admonitions of love and caring. While the back-up band never really cut loose, they were a major component in the overall feel of his presentation; tight and very flexible in moving from number to number and even shifting to other instruments at one point. Given the opportunity to do some material on their own, they showed why they were chosen to support Richie on this tour. An extra touch was the inclusion of the Pointer Sisters (the opening act) doing a couple of numbers.
