THE KINKS CONTINUE ASSAULT

Few bands in the annals of rock and roll can lay claim to the esteem accorded Arista recording act The Kinks. One of the original 'British invasion' bands of the mid-sixties, The Kinks have hovered just outside the mainstream since, remaining a vital and influential force in pop music. Word Of Mouth, the band's current album, is distributed in Canada by RCA.

Fronted by vocalist and songwriter Ray Davies and his brother Dave on guitar, The Kinks first appeared on the scene with a version of Little Richard's Long Tall Sally. Ray Davies has said he was influenced by the American music played on Radio Luxembourg when he was in his teens - seminal artists such as Chuck Berry and Eddie variation Society LPs, The Kinks left the Reprise label for RCA. The RCA output includes Muswell Hillbillies, Everybody's In Showbiz, Preservation, and Schoolboys In Disgrace. Davies' writing had progressed from 3-min, encapsulations of teen angst and pointed social commentary to lengthier, more textured efforts involving theatrics, in-depth production, and detailed story lines. With a move to Arista in 1977, The Kinks returned to the shorter songs and more contained lyrics of their earlier days.

Sleepwalker, the first Arista LP, was something of a commercial hit and went Top 20 in Canada. 1978's Misfits, which yielded AOR play in the form of Rock 'N' Roll Fantasy, was key in that it dealt in a pop format with subjects long present in Ray Davies' songwriting: estrangement, escape, and fantasy.

Low Budget, the next LP, was the first Kinks studio effort recorded in the U.S. The LP's success compelled the band - now consisting of Davies, Davies, Avory, bassist Jim Rodford, and keyboardist Ian Gibbons - to hit the road. The result was a 2-record set entitled One For The Road. This live LP added no special dimension to their material, but served proper notice that the band was - and still is - first and foremost a live act. Perhaps most welcome about this particular live set was Dave Davies' ferocious treatment of songs such as Lola, Low Budget, and You Really Got Me.

By the early '80s, Ray Davies' reputation as pop craftsman had found its way to a newer generation of artists. His material was covered by such artists as The Pretenders, The Knack, and The Romantics.

Give The People What They Want, and State Of Confusion (1983) followed the live LP, the latter yielding Come Dancing, the band's first major chart hit in 20 years.

With the release of Word Of Mouth, it was announced that drummer Mick Avory - a founding member - has quit the band, to be replaced by Bob Henrit. Henrit and bassist Rodford played together at one time in Argent.

While Word Of Mouth may not possess the material with the CHR wallop of Come Dancing, or Lola, the LP yet again demonstrates the durability, potency, and perennial appeal not only of Ray Davies' talent but of that 22-yr-old band of rock gypsies known as The Kinks.

Ray Davies of The Kinks

Cochran. The preceding, as well as Fats Domino, Elvis, and most of the Motown canon inspired a generation of young British musicians including The Rolling Stones, The Who, and even The Beatles. If it was American R&B and rock and roll that these youths cut their teeth on, it was a British/American pop hybrid that materialized in The Kinks first hit, You Really Got Me. Released in 1964, the song was distinctive and unmistakable with Davies' braying vocal, brother Dave's brittle, energetic guitar playing, and all the production value of a pop can.

Other hits followed - Tired Of Waiting For You, A Well Respected Man, Dedicated Follower Of Fashion - that demonstrated Davies' knack for penning simple, but often socially relevant lyrics.

The Kinks at this time consisted of Ray Davies (lead vocal, guitar), Dave Davies (lead guitar, vocals), Peter Quaife (bass), and Mick Avory (drums).

Following release of the Face To Face, Something Else, and Village Green Preser-

Hot British product set for CBS release

CBS is gearing for a heavy promotion campaign to introduce album product from Sade and Alison Moyet, two of the hottest U.K. acts of last year. The Moyet album, Alf, will be pre-empted with the release of Invisible as the first single. Formerly with Vince Clark in Yazoo, Moyet opted for a solo direction because she was somewhat apprehensive of the electronic format that she believed was too limiting for her to realize her full potential. "I wouldn't like to try and describe my solo stuff," she was quoted as saying. "I think some of it sounds a bit like the Velvet Underground and some of it sounds like Shalamar. There's a bit of very different ingredients in there."

The Moyet session was produced by Tony Swain and Steve Jolley.

Sade (pronounced SHAWDEY) has already gained a foothold in the Canadian market, with Hang On To Your Love, taken as the first single from her Diamond Life album. The single entered the RPM Top 100 Singles chart at No. 73 with a bullet (Jan 19/85). Videos of this track, plus Smooth Operator, and How Am I Gonna Make A Living, will be made available.

P.O.P. assists include custom-made four-colour posters, and header cards. Also available are Sade message pads and a four-colour bio. A Diamond contest is also in the works, and a possible promo visit by the artist.

There has been an increase in popularity for female dance artists. Peter Budge, Manager Pop Product for CBS Records Canada, says "The popularity of female artists has always been there. CHR radio is opening up and they (female vocalists) are getting a break. Radio is opening up in general. If it's a good song, it's a good song."

Budge also pointed out the increase in club activity with regard to dance-oriented music, as well as record distributors and rackers who are specializing in this type of product.

Gabriel's band guests on Gowan's new LP

CBS Records Canada has kicked off an extensive national promotion in support of Gowan's new LP, Strange Animal.

The LP, slated for a Feb. 4 release, is the first from the singer/songwriter/key-boardist in almost two years and was produced by David Tickle, who also worked Platinum Blonde's successful debut LP.

Guesting on the album, produced at Startling Sounds Studios in England, were members of Peter Gabriel's band, drummer Jerry Marotta, bassist Tony Levin, and guitarist David Rhodes. Also giving an assist was guitarist Chris Jarrett.

Housed in a colourful gatefold jacket the album includes nine tracks, all Gowan originals. The latter also handled keyboards on the session.

A Criminal Mind has been taken as the first single, released as a 7" in a picture sleeve, and as a 12" with a custom jacket. The latter contains 3 versions of the single, an edited version, the LP track, plus a video mix.

A video shoot of the single was done by Campaigne Pictures, directed by Rob Quartly and produced by Mike Rosen, which utilized animation. The video has been described as the company's (CBS) most adventurous project to date, and the first time they've used animation in a video.

A Canadian tour is now being pencilled in with a start-up date expected about the end of March.

MCA & Chrysalis gear for Cancon releases

MCA/Chrysalis will be issuing their debut albums from two Toronto bands during the month of February.

Refugee, formerly known as The Michael Fury Band, will be on release with their Affairs In Babylon, a self-produced set recorded at the Metalworks. A tour is expected to be announced shortly.

Hanover Fist will release their Stacy Heydon production on the MCA label. Radio listeners had a sneak preview of the five-piece band's sound when Metal Of The Night, a track which is included on The Wild Life movie soundtrack was given widespread airing. A tour by this group is also in the planning stages.

MTV exposure for Siberry's Mimi clip

MTV, the American all-music video channel, has added Duke Street recording artist Jane Siberry's Mimi On The Beach video to their playlist. The addition was effective Jan. 7.

Directed by Dick Oleksiak of Toronto-based 60 Sumach Productions, the 3 min. 20 sec. version of the song from Siberry's No Borders Here LP has created a sizable Canadian profile for the singer which her label intends to translate into an American record deal.

Siberry was one of a number of Canadian artists to benefit from a VideoFACT production grant. VideoFACT is aligned with the Canadian MuchMusic video channel.

Siberry is currently preparing material for her new LP. Distribution on No Borders Here is through WEA Music.

Flamingo soundtrack released by Quality

Motown Records, distributed in Canada by Quality Records, has announced the Feb. 4 release of a soundtrack to the film The Flamingo Kid, starring Matt Dillon.

The soundtrack, a compilation of "era" music, features the work of The Chiffons (He's So Fine), Dion (Runaround Sue), Barret Strong (Money), and The Silhouettes (Get A Job). There are 12 tracks in total.

Jagger's first solo LP slated for mid-February

CBS has slated a mid-February release for She's The Boss, the long-awaited first solo album from Mick Jagger.

The album represents the first LP under the Rolling Stones' signing with CBS, and also the first solo album from Jagger in the over 20-year history of the legendary British band. The group was most recently distributed through WEA and during the '60s were released on the London label.

Just Another Night has been taken as the first single, as both a 7" and 12", expected to ship the end of January.

Jeff Beck, British guitar legend and former Yardbird member, guests on the session, as does Who guitarist Pete Townshend. The latter is featured on the Hard Woman track.

Other musicians of note on the session were Jan Hammer, Herbie Hancock, Sly Dunbar, and Nile Rodgers. The majority of the tracks were produced by Jagger and Bill Laswell. Other than Jagger, no other Stones were on the session.

Turn The Girl Loose, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  A Loaf were co-produced by Jagger and Rodgers. All the material was written by Jagger with the exception of Lonely At The Top - a team effort by Jagger and Keith Richards.

RCA/Polar artists and Chess collaborators Tim Rice, Benny Andersson, and Bjorn Ulvaeus, in Toronto, meet with RCA Canada's Don Kollar and Jim Fotheringham.

WAT SAYS

The beginning looked good ... but!!

The sell-through for one very large operation apparently wasn't enough. A couple of locations were unceremoniously closed, and now there are deals and bartering going on. You can guess who won't get hurt ... the bank, of course. What's the old expression "forewarned is forearmed". It will take one brave soul to introduce a better system for the protection of the suppliers. This loss could surpass $5 million.

It just ... disappeared!!!

Somebody asked me just recently if I knew what happened to the Panasonic All Star Award? Just asking.

Cassettes versus LPs

The year end saw a lot of cassettes being sold as the result of incentives which will no doubt decrease the usually devastating "returns" season. One major made a point of offering lower incentives on LPs, which will most certainly affect their return situation. Checking a few stores last week I noticed some hit product was only being heavily stocked in cassette form, while "... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

LP bins were really looking hungry. It was hard to believe that top-of-the-chart acts were being stocked in ones and twos. One retailer told me that he's selling cassettes, three to one over LPs, so naturally he's stocking accordingly. Just as a footnote I checked with a couple of majors and they both agree that the split is about 60/40 for cassettes.

Company on the move .... ?

It's about time! Many were speculating about when they would move, and now the rumours are that they are about to move ... right along, and get into the mainstream (EC: That's a clue!). Didn't I predict this in one of my columns just a couple of months ago?

A little time solves everything!!!

Well, the critics of the Compact Disc, may have been a little presumptuous in their predictions of the early demise of this music form. Given a little time, which it has had, and a reduction in the hardware, which was the major stumbling block, and we've got the makings of what could be a major benefit to the industry. PolyGram's Bob Ansell tells me that even this early in the new year, the projections look excellent. PolyGram has 900 CD items in their catalogue, and that covers pop and classics. Now, if they can get the cost of the disc down to a reasonable price .... and what's a reasonable price ... ?

My son the ... whatever he does!!!

What do the following have in common? Touch, New Music, and Cheap Thrill? NOW! what do these have in common? Rainbow, MCQ, Grapevine, Record Week? The answer will appear in next week's column. (EC: Oh good! A trivial pursuit. Very trivial!)

I hear rumours!!!!

Could it be that with the success of a couple of Cancon artists, one of major proportions, someone very close to someone very close to the top honcho, has been asking 'how-cum ... that with all this press hysteria over Cancon acts (EC: which is very rare indeed ... I must say) and with the 30% Cancon legislation, that sales of domestic product only amounts to 5%. Could it be that the independent label people actually have an ally in this Tory government??

Linda's Calendar - another masterpiece!

Linda McCartney sent me her 1985 Calendar and, like previous issues, this one is another treasure. The photos are exceptional, in both size (16X23) and in colour tones, and include some of her friends, late and present, including Jimi Hendrix (1967), Janis Joplin (1966), George Harrison (1969), The Who's Pete Townshend (1967). Jim Morrison of The Doors (1967), and, of course, hubby Paul, Ringo Starr and the late John Lennon, all taken in 1969. The Music Therapy Calendar (Linda McCartney's Music Makers) was produced by MPL Communications for the Nordoff-Robbins Music Therapy Centre, which supplies aid to handicapped children in the U.K. Those interested in having their own calendar should direct their enquiries to MPL Communications, 39 West 54th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019. By the way, Linda has been sending her calendar to me over the years, along with samples of her photography, and I've become quite a fan. Her camera work captures very rarely seen facial expressions by these artists.

Radio is changing .... !

Some random thoughts on radio. Pretty soon you'll be hearing that radio listeners are dropping off (EC: I notice this every day in the obituary columns!!). You will also notice that CHR radio is taking a beating in some areas. The sound of AOR is getting softer and softer, and music is becoming very fragmented with the 16 to 20 age group, who are really choosing their music and following it with greater reverence than in years gone by. This finding, by the way, comes from my own research, and not from some hack programming expert. Will we, someday, have a heavy metal format on the dial, just down from the mod sounds or skins, poseurs, rockers, soul boys, dreads, or funk formats? Now, there is country-rock and cow-punk ... and what else? Young people are really adamant about their music, and it affects radio and record sales more and more every day. If music be the food of love, what would you play in a fast food outlet?

Gowan will go ... this time!!!

I've long held the belief that Larry Gowan was going to be a monster recording act, but unfortunately, not many shared my view. Well ... he's back and this time he has the added promotional vehicle of a pretty astounding video. Gowan will break very fast with his first single, A Criminal Mind, and I'm predicting that his Strange Animal LP, set for release Feb. 4 ... will finally be that monster. By the way, word has leaked that Bernie DiMatteo had a great deal to do with the concept for Gowan's video. The video is unique in that it blends animation with the real thing and the result is just incredible.

CBC Video Hits has 53% of teenage audience

Video Hits, the videoclip/rock news package airing 5 pm EDT weekdays on the full CBC-TV network, is hosted by Samantha Taylor - best known in the Toronto area prior to the show's Oct. 1984 debut as Music Director at Toronto's Q-107 and host of Toronto-based Video Singles. According to Sandra Faire, Executive Producer of Video Hits,

Samantha Taylor

Taylor was a more than appropriate choice for the host slot because of her extensive on-camera experience and considerable contacts in the music business.

The program currently boasts a 53% share of the teenage audience (13-20) watching television at 5 pm. The percentage is based on 15 markets, and is derived from statistics provided by A.C. Nielsen.

In addition to Faire, the program is produced by Pam MacFarland and researched by Faith Feingold. The CBC provides the services of a production secretary and director.

Taylor is concise in assessing her role. "I like to think of myself as the link between the artist and the audience," she says, continuing with "The program reaches markets where no other program goes, and viewers can see major Canadian acts in an international context. People like Bryan Adams and Corey Hart are, to a great extent, role models."

The program's national profile is maintained by covering clubs and concert news in various Canadian cities, as well as answering the flood of mail that Taylor receives each week. Witness the 8,000 letters Video Hits received in 2 weeks as the result of a Prince contest held prior to the singer's 2 Toronto dates last December.

The program has obviously created a profile for Taylor. "If there's a complaint, a letter gets written," she assures. "We're a 'pop' program, and we do have a committee that oversees the videos we program. Surprisingly, it's often the parents who recognize me and tell me on the street how much their children enjoy us. I guess it's best to be home watching Video Hits".

Taylor was recently a judge - with David Marsden of CFNY-FM and critic Peter Goddard - on Rock Wars, a CBC production. The contest, featuring 4 Toronto bands, was hosted by Brad Giffen. The bands were judged in one of several competitions to be held nationally. The Rock Wars segment will air on CBC (Feb. 1).

Sade, Jagger, Gowan & Moyet - priority at CBS

Promo Profile by Lynda Kay

Lynda Kay, Manager of Press and Publicity for CBS Records Canada is confident of the company's continuing roll for the new year, as she reports in the following:

The new year has seen the release of 4 priority solo projects on CBS. These are Sade (Diamond Life), Alison Moyet (Alf), Gowan's Strange Animal, and Mick Jagger's She's The Boss. Sade is already breaking across Canada with her initial single release Hang On To Your Love. Her debut LP, Diamond Life, is platinum-plus in the U.K., and Sade was recently voted the country's top female vocalist by Record Mirror. The LP is scheduled for release the last week of January.

Alison Moyet's debut LP is simply titled Alf. Her first single and video release from the album is titled Invisible. Alison is the former lead singer of Yazoo. She recently topped Sounds' Female Vocalist Of The Year poll. The LP has just been released.

Gowan's second LP release for CBS is Strange Animal. The initial single and video release is Criminal Mind. The video, directed by Robert Quartly of Champagne Pictures, blends animation with live action, and was close to 3 months in the making.

Lynda Kay

Gowan's LP was recorded in England, produced by David Tickle, and features such top musicians as Tony Levin, Jerry Marotta, David Rhodes, and Chris Jarrett. Gowan plans to tour Canada in support of this release. No dates are confirmed at present.

She's The Boss is the title of Mick Jagger's debut solo LP set for release the second week of February. Just Another Night, the first single, will be delivered to radio Jan. 23. The single features such greats as Jeff Beck, Robbie Shakespeare, and Sly Dunbar. Jagger co-produced the LP with Nile Rodgers and Bill Laswell, which features in addition to the above musicians, Pete Townshend, Herbie Hancock, Ray Cooper, and Jan Hammer, to name a few.

Other releases due out within the next few weeks include Flash And The Pan (Early Morning Wake Up Call), Danny Spanof's Looks Like Trouble, and the motion picture soundtrack Heavenly Bodies which includes tracks from Bonnie Pointer, The Tubes, Gary Wright, and The Boys Brigade.

New Canadian releases are the second LP from Orphan, produced by Jon Astley and Phil Chapman, recorded at Kingdom Sound in New York and mixed in Manchester, England; and John MacLeod and The Young Pioneers, the latest signing from True North Records. The LP is Dynamite In The Stove.

Touring soon will be Kick Axe, whose LP surpassed gold status in Canada, as well as country artists Tammy Wynette, Janie Fricke, and Exile.

Alert's Berry & Durand gear for a busy '85

Alert Records, the aggressive independent fuelled by the moxy of Tom Berry and Marc Durand, is set for 1985 with a U.S. deal for guitarist Kim Mitchell, a debut LP in February from recent signing Sylum, and the latest single from The Box.

Mitchell's debut Alert LP akimbo - having sold in excess of 75,000 units in Canada - will be released in mid-February in the U.S., U.K., and Germany. The signing is to the Bronze label in the U.K. In the U.S., Bronze is licensed through Island with distribution through Atlantic.

Mitchell recently wrapped his Canadian tour with SRO dates in Ottawa, Toronto, and Halifax. Mitchell and producer Nick Blagona have re-cut Feel It Burn, which will be released as the LP's third single. Mitchell's current single is All We Are.

The Box recently completed a tour of Western Canada as support for Ready recording act The Spoons. The Box's current single, Dancing On The Grave, is available in both 7" and 12" dance remix formats.

Alert's latest signing, Sylum, are currently in-studio with producer Blagona with an LP expected in mid-February.

Adams tops MuchMusic climbs Video Hits

Run To You, the first single taken from Bryan Adams' A&M LP Reckless, tops the MuchMusic video chart for the week ending Jan. 18. On the Video Hits (CBC-TV) chart for the same week, Adams is in the No. 4 slot, up from No. 5 last week.

The MuchMusic Top 5 is rounded out by Bruce Springsteen (Born In The USA) at No. 2, Bronski Beat (Smalltown Boy) in the No. 3 slot, Band Aid (Do They Know It's Christmas) holding down the No. 4 spot, and Foreigner (I Wanna Know What Love Is) at No. 5.

On the Video Hits chart, Madonna remains at No. 1 with the title track from her WEA LP Like A Virgin. Duran Duran (Wild Boys) remain at No. 2, The Honeydrippers (Sea Of Love) hold down No. 3, and Pat Benatar (We Belong) is down to No. 5.

Platinum plus sales for classical album

Charles Dutoit and The Montreal Symphony Orchestra have earned the unprecedented distinction of creating the very first recording by a Canadian classical ensemble to surpass platinum status (sales in excess of 100,000 units) in Canada.

The MSO's interpretation of Ravel's Bolero - recorded in 1981 and released in 1982 - was certified gold (50,000) in Nov. 1983.

This level of achievement is singular for a Canadian classical ensemble and serves to substantiate the popularity of Ravel's work as well as the critical kudos accorded the MSO's recording.

TRUE WEST

- Country rock

Drifters - Passport - PVC-8921-W

While the synth/dance/funk end of pop continues strongly, the past year has seen the resurgence of what can best be characterized as country rock - ringing guitars, hook-laden songwriting, and frequently maudlin, distracted vocals. True West has staked a strong claim in this region. Guitarists Richard McGrath and Russ Tolman weave an often spare but attractive rhythmic pastiche that supports Gavin Blair's wistful vocals. Ten well-written and neatly executed tracks here that pay homage not only to Dylan and The Byrds, but also to the current crop of young rockers exploring the limits of guitar-based pop - Jason and The Scorchers, Rank And File, and R.E.M. to name a few. Produced by Paul Mandl and guitarist Tolman at The Automatt in San Francisco. Key tracks: Hold On, At Night They Speak, and Morning Light.

MALCOLM McLAREN

- Pop-Opera

Fans - Charisma - VM-2308-Q

Old King's Road meets Gilbert and Sullivan. Producer/lyricist/entrepreneur/litigant McLaren delivers another in a long line of ideas predicated more on style and calculated outrage than on substance. The former manager of The Sex Pistols now hands us high opera - with an apparently straight face - candy-coated in Trevor Horn style studio funk. An interesting - but inevitably superficial - record that doesn't do justice to either Bizet or Puccini. Various production credits. Inner sleeve contains libretto. Whatever did happen to Bow Wow Wow?

JOHN FOGERTY

- Rock

Centerfield - Warner Bros - 92-52031-P

Comeback of '85. Great writing and performance from a latter-day American legend. Key are I Saw It On T.V., and The Old Man Down The Road - pre-released as the first single and closing on RPM's Top 50. Produced by Fogerty.

LOS LOBOS

- Pop

How Will The Wolf Survive

Slash/Warner Bros - 92-51771-P

Arguably destined to be one of '85's 10 best. A rollicking, yet respectful distillation of trad Chicano music and R&B-tinged American rockabilly. Produced by T-Bone Burnett and Steve Berlin. Key are the title track, Serenata Nortena, and A Matter Of Time.

RATT

- Rock

Ratt - Time Coast - 79-02451-P

Too pop to be metal, but still a tired rehash of well-worked glam/metal cliches. ZZ Top are safe.

DEBORAH ALLEN

- Country rock

Let Me Be The First - RCA - AHL1-5318-N

Whether it's country or rock or a fusion of both, Deborah Allen has a unique talent to sound good in both music forms. She has just come off the chart with Heartache And A Half, included here. Key are: the title track and It's A Good Thing. Produced by Rafe VanHoy.

ECHO & THE BUNNYMEN

- Pop

Seven Seas - Korova - 24-93200-P

More food for thought from Ian McCulloch and his Bunnymen. Key are a laconic version of Lennon & McCartney's All You Need Is Love, and the title track.

BOSS

- Rock

Step On It - RCA - VPL-1-0467-N

Occasionally derivative hard rock with enough energy and good spirits to keep things moving. Key are Escapee and Kick

Ass (Rock 'N Roll). Produced by Eddie Hansen and Boss.

SKYY

- Pop/R&amp;B

Inner City - Salsoul - SA-8568-N

Dance pigeonholing wouldn't do this record justice - a heady blend of funk, street rhythms, and pop dynamics. Produced by Randy Miller and Solomon Roberts Jr. Key are Dancin' To Be Dancin' and Slow Motion.

What does Ozzy Osbourne think of the "heavy metal" tag? "I hate it, because we play hardcore, ass kickin' rock 'n' roll. I prefer to call it that than heavy metal." Does he believe in life after death? "I don't know. I've never died." Does he trust managers? "I don't trust anybody. I've been burned so many fucking times I think I'll come back as a piece of dust." Author Gritter was in the right place at the right time to record these and some classic, "off the lip" comments by those he refers to as "The Madmen of Music". From Alice Cooper explaining how he crashed the scene in 1968 with his outrageous act ("when people were still into peace and love") through to the Who's John Entwistle describing the personality clashes within the group, and the death of Keith Moon, and the colourful anecdotes by Cheech and Chong on being stoned: "When I first started smoking dope, nobody knew I was doing it. Just the guys that turned me on. We had to go to parties and stand there with an empty beer can," recalls Cheech. Says Chong: "We were smoking it at concerts, on the street. We got searched in Calgary once, for gear, and the cop says 'what sort of tobacco is that?' We'd say 'Italian'; they never knew." Gritter also focused in on Tiny Tim, Split Enz, Lou Reed, Bob Marley, Devo, Long John Baldry, and Frank Zappa. What an interesting way to make money. There must be enough material out there for another half dozen books of this type.

A new showplace for Peterborough

The Celebrity Room of Peterborough's Branscombe Motor Inn had its official opening (Jan. 9). Eddie Eastman & The Terra Nova Express did the honours and played the new room for two days. The room will feature name acts in country, three nights a week (Thurs/Fri/Sat). Eastman was followed by Joe Aylward & The Yelverton Express (17-19), Terry Sumson (24-25) and Kitty Wells for one night only (26). Donna & Leroy Anderson cap the month (Jan. 31 through Feb 2).

Baker does it her way!!

The recent Tom Jones release of I'm An Old Rock 'N' Roller, is beginning to fade in the U.S. and there isn't too much hope for the success of this single in Canada - if in fact it's been released in Canada. The song was co-written by Carroll Baker and Terry Frewer, which gives it 2-parts Cancon.

Taylor finalizes deal for label/publishing sale

George Taylor, veteran music publisher and independent label owner, has finalized a deal for the sale of his label/publishing complex to Frank Swain of Holborne Distributing.

The sale involves the Rodeo, Banff, Celtic, Canadian Cavalcade and Caprice labels, and was effective Oct. 1st. 1984.

Also sold to Swain was the Banff and Rodeo Music Publishing firms (PRO Canada) and Melbourne Publishing (CAPAC), effective Jan. 1st. 1985.

Taylor founded Rodeo in 1949, a label that became a leader in the release of Canadian product, notably LPs by Don Messer and Winston Fitzgerald. Taylor also released Lucille Starr's famous French Song in the late fifties, and was instrumental in the career of the Mamas And Papas, who were originally recorded by Taylor as The Colonials, then going to Capitol as The Halifax Three and finally as the internationally-acclaimed Mamas And Poppas.

There were more than 500 albums released through Rodeo/Banff and associated labels since 1949, many of which are still active.

George and his wife Grace are living in Cavan, Ontario.

Baker recorded the song at her Manta session and, after hearing the tape, one observer noted: "That's a Carroll Baker I've never heard before - one of the best country-rock recordings I've heard. It might be unconventional but releasing the Baker version of I'm An Old Rock 'N' Roller, could be the big break for Carroll."

Jamie Warren has hot release

Jamie Warren is looking good with his latest single, Take Me Home Mississippi, described as "a nostalgic ballad with sensitive lyrics." With this release, Warren is almost assured of making it three for three. His first single, World Of A Child broke the national barrier for Warren and the follow-up, We Care About Us, scored him across-the-board chart and playlist adds that established him as one of the most promising of the new artists. Take Me Home Mississippi has indicated quicker acceptance by country programmers, one in particular being Robin Ingram at CFAC Calgary where the single scored a "Most Requested" tag.

Perras and Taylor ready for '85

Anita Perras and Tim Taylor finished 1984 in good style with excellent national exposure (chart and playlistings) for their individual singles, How's A Girl To Know and Three Little Words. They will now concentrate on the completion of their second album, which will be a compilation of duets and solo tracks by both artists.

CTL release for new Denis single

CTL recording artist Tim Denis is on release with Fallin', a Denis original. The flip, I Wanna Be The One, was penned by Alan Rhody (responsible for The Oak Ridge Boys' I'll Be True To You). Both the plug (MAPL) and flip (AP) were produced by Stan Campbell.

A native of Port Colborne, Ontario, Denis plays guitar, piano, and sax, and is the morning man at QR-FM in St. Catharines, Ontario.

Fallin' is a re-recorded effort originally released in 1982. "This CTL recording is a major development for me," says Denis. "I got to do the recording at The Reflections in Nashville, and to work with premiere country studio musicians . . . I can't believe how exciting a song like Fallin' sounds with the enhanced production, thanks to CTL."

An early spring release is expected on the Tailspin label. The first single is expected to be one of the duet tracks. 1984 also saw Tim and Anita move away from the club circuit for successful concert dates, sharing the stage with Canadian and American acts. Television guest shots were also on the increase in 1984 and is expected to continue through the new year.

Triple platinum single a first for Wonder

Quality Records has made application to CRIA for triple platinum (300,000 units) certification on Stevie Wonder's single, I Just Called To Say I Love You. According to CRIA, this will be the first single in Canada to be certified in excess of double platinum. The single, which topped the RPM 100 singles of 1984 (RPM - Jan 5), has sold over 3 million copies worldwide, and went to No. 1 in many territories.

Says Quality's National Sales Manager Ned Talmey: "The response has been overwhelming. We have sold over 350,000 units, and we're still shipping it as fast as we can press it."

Wonder has followed the success of the single with another release from the Woman In Red soundtrack. Love Light In Flight, currently climbing the RPM 100, is Wonder's new single, with the video now in rotation on the MuchMusic Network.

Attic readies release of Rover's Party LP

Attic has set the end of January for the release of the new Rovers' LP, Party With The Rovers, an LP based on the group's syndicated TV show. The album is described by Attic as "a country novelty album that rocks."

The album, which was produced by Jack Richardson, will be preceded in mid-January by the release of Everybody's Makin' It Big But Me, the first single taken from the LP.

The band's show is syndicated in Canada by the Global TV Network and is also picked up in other Canadian markets as well as in Australia and the U.K. A tour of Australia is expected for this summer.

Originally known as The Irish Rovers, the band scored an international hit in the late '60s with The Unicorn. It wasn't until only a few years ago, after the band dropped the "Irish" from their name, when they came up with their second hit, Wasn't That A Party.

Attic is distributed in Canada by A&M.
