POTENTIAL GOOD FOR ORPHAN'S 2ND LP

Portrait recording act Orphan are on release with their 2nd LP, entitled Salute. Lyin' To Me has been taken as the first single, supported by a video. Salute was produced by Phil Chapman and Jon Astley, notable for their work with The Who, The Supremes, Paul McCartney, and latterly, Corey Hart. The LP qualifies as 3 parts Cancon, and was recorded at Kingdom Sound Studios in Syosset, New York. The label has shipped a special AOR sampler that includes 2 versions of the single - one a video mix.

Orphan, based out of Winnipeg, are Chris Burke-Gaffney (lead vocals, bass); Steve McGovern (guitars, vocals); Brent Diamond (keyboards, vocals); and Terry Norman Taylor (vocals, drums, percussion).

Two members of the band, Burke-Gaffney and Diamond, were part of The Pumps - a Winnipeg-based band that released one LP in 1979 on the PolyGram label. An Orphan LP was released in 1983, but failed to impact significantly in Canada at either radio or retail.

"This is a lot better record," states Chris Burke-Gaffney in the label's bio. "For the first one, we were pressured into being a lot more commercial than we really wanted. With Salute, that didn't happen. The record company gave us the green light to do what we wanted, and the result is an album that's a lot more creative. It has a more European sound."

The lion's share of the writing was done by Burke-Gaffney - his solo pennings are A Little Heart & Soul, The Way It Should Be, and Open Up The Skies. Also included are Crazy For The Night, Stand Up, Uncle Sam Wants You, Steel & Iron, Woman In Love, and Old Enough To Know.

The LP, which was also engineered and mixed by Chapman and Astley, was released simultaneously in the U.S. and

THE NIGHT IS STILL YOUNG

Sales of CD's increasing dramatically - retailers

Several retail and distribution operations have reported that the sales of compact discs have increased dramatically this year. The most common complaint is that they can't get enough stock on several titles. It would appear that the consensus of opinion is that CDs are fast becoming the recorded sound phenomenon of the future.

"CD sales are up substantially," says Allister MacLean, Classical Manager for A&A's Yonge Street store (Toronto). "It's going to be a banner year for CDs - and we had a great year last year."

MacLean believes their outlet carries the best selection for compact discs in the country.

"Since last year, 4 or 5 manufacturers have dropped their prices," he said. "Earlier it had been announced there would be a worldwide drop in CD prices, but it didn't happen."

MacLean explained that when the manufacturers realized the sales weren't what they had hoped for, the prices were finally reduced. Now, he says the cost is more in line in terms of the market. Currently, most of the CD sales are still for classical titles.

"But it will certainly move towards pop as time goes on," he continues. "The world of CDs cannot survive on classical alone. At the moment the dollar figure of

Cassette shipments up 17% - Stats Canada

Year-to-date net shipments of pre-recorded cassettes are up 17% for the month of April, according to Stats Canada data. Net shipments for the month of April for this year shows an increase of 11%, which is up 5% over the same period last year. However, the net value of year-to-date sales for this year registers a decrease of 2% ($36,789,983) as compared to last year's $37,709,342.

Year-to-date net shipments of 7" and 12" records are down by 12% and 23% respectively, indicating a decrease of 22% ($36,635,934), as compared to last year's $47,110,544.

Figures for the month of May are not yet available.

A&M recording star Sting in Toronto to accept a gold single and platinum album for his solo debut, If You Love Somebody Set Them Free and The Dream Of The Blue Turtles. A&M's Gerry Lacoursiere made the presentation.

CDs have equalled LPs in Europe. It shows you the impact of CDs. Canada's not there yet, but it soon will be."

Due to the increasing popularity of the compact disc, MacLean predicts that by this fall there will be a noticeable decline in sales of LPs.

"We'll see the decline on certain LP titles this fall even though CDs are twice the price of albums," he concludes.

MacLean, who also cited cheaper CD players for the increased sales in compact discs, reveals there will be a CD mid-price line by this fall.

Carey Meltz, who handles CDs at Sam's Yonge Street store (Toronto), confirms that the compact disc prices have dropped and now average about $24.99.

"At the end of January, prices went down," he said. "Our sales have tripled in the last 4 months. People are building their own libraries."

In addition to lower prices, Meltz pointed out that the increase in CD popularity can also be attributed to more selection.

"My stock has doubled since January and there are new CD releases every day," he said. This also includes previous album releases which have recently been made available in CD.

"I think compact discs are the wave of the future," continues Meltz. "But I don't see them ever phasing out LPs. We still get some customers asking for 8-tracks. As long as there are turntables, there's going to be vinyl."

Meltz revealed that the Dire Straits LP, Brothers In Arms, is currently one of the hottest items in CD, because of its digital qualities. Another favourite at Sam's is Madonna. Requests are also growing for the Amadeus and Cats soundtracks and CHES.

"A lot of CDs have been unavailable for sometime," Meltz continues. "Born In The USA was only recently re-stocked. It's hard to keep some titles in stock. There's also a little war going on right now involving price and selection among retailers."

One of the most common questions from consumers is whether certain CDs are digital, although few of this type are available presently.

Mike Doyle, CD Buyer for Records On Wheels, reports sales in CDs have increased "5-fold" over the last six months.

"By Christmas," he says, "there will be 10 times the volume. The dollar value of compact discs will be equal to cassettes this time next year, but not in quantity. It's accelerating that much."

Doyle said that in the first half of last year there weren't many titles available in CD, but there is a decided increase in titles now, mostly in classical and popular Top 40 music. He is hoping for more digital CDs.

Although Doyle feels the CD can make an album sound like an 8-track in comparison, he doesn't believe the LP will become obsolete. He concludes with "I think what the industry is trying to do is put the CD side-by-side, similar to cassettes and LPs."

WAT SAYS

Where were you when . . . ???

A former distributor of an indie label, currently enjoying a very big hit, said to one of the label's execs: "I wish you had a hit like this when you were with us," to which the label exec replied; "We did".
Got your ears tuned . . .

Got your ears tuned . . . ???

Just got news from an Ottawa reader about what he called "one of the most fantastic voices I've ever heard". Both he and a local radio programmer (a programmer who knows talent when he hears it) were shook up over her album. All they know is that she goes by the name Ferron and that her LP was produced in Vancouver, where she drives a cab. That's all there is, but it might be worth looking into. It's quite often this kind of info that leads to the discovery of a star.

Get ready for CDs

Compact discs are fast coming into their own - now that the masses are being considered. The titles are beginning to attract even my eye: Honeydrippers - Volume 1; Billy Joel - Piano Man; Quiet Riot - Condition Critical; Robert Plant - Shaken 'n Stirred; Bruce Springsteen - Greetings from Ashbury Park; and Genesis - Trick Of The Tail; to name just a few. Thanks to AE, who now has a vested interest in the CD market, for the use of the CD player. By Lotusland revisited . . . !!

I know there are many of you out there just waiting for this item. My sour grapes department. Well . . . what have I heard? Not too much and that worries me, BUT!!!, apparently there is a feeling that there are some favours owed and the time has come to collect. Now . . . that can become very difficult and they tell me that the whole hype thing has become top heavy . . . and you don't need a periscope to see that the writing is on the wall. Moral of the story? Beholding is one thing, but business is another. (EC: Very deep! Speak again old, bald and toothless one!!!)

Is the grizzly finally trapped . . . ??

For those of us waiting for hell to freeze over . . . the big, bad West Coast grizzly has finally been bagged. What a hell of a honeymoon that must have been.

Me too! Me too!

My item about industry VIPs not often venturing to the east coast apparently caused quite an uproar. Everything from "We were called on the carpet", to "I have receipts to support my claim" and also "retailers are lying". Regardless of all these claims, I have been assured that the problem (if there was one) has been remedied . . . if not swept under the carpet! (EC: Another

Sony in vanguard of Canadian CD push

"Our intent is to turn the CD (compact disc) player into THE recorded medium," says Chris Jameson, Customer Relations Manager for Sony of Canada. The firm has just introduced mobile and walkman versions of its product that retail for about $1,000 and $450 respectively.

"Three years ago, when Sony introduced the CD format to this country," Jameson recalls, "the company imported 22 discs - that was the extent of product availability." At present, the lone North American software facility is in Terre Haute, Ind., operated jointly by Sony and CBS.

"The manufacture of software has been considered (by Sony)," Jameson points out, "but the cost is presently considered just too prohibitive."

He continues with "We do believe that at even prices as high as $30, the CD is a better value over the cassette format, and will last longer - that's the idea we're pushing."

Jameson notes that while the initial demographic for CD hardware in this country consisted primarily of the "educated audiophile with money", changes in price and availability have caused the consumer profile for the product to alter considerably. "Many people are now in a position to afford this equipment," he says.

"The proposed Canadian software operation will certainly be advantageous for the industry," Jameson concludes. "Obviously, access to software product in the Canadian market will be vastly improved."

RPM accomplishment and hardly any bloodshed!!)

A hidden message . . . ??

MCA Home Video continues their cute little promotions - I'm now wearing an Airwolf "baseball cap", and a Miami Vice "muscle shirt", to name just a few. The latest, and I hope it doesn't carry a hidden message, is a pretty authentic, however plastic, looking hand gun. The message, of course, is that Blood Simple is available through MCA. Now . . . if we can only light a fire under those other video people.

Speaking of sojourns! And we were!!

On my many trips to the west . . . I like to sneak into record stores and look around to get the feeling of the business. I did just that in the new A&A store on Seymour in Vancouver. A nice, new bright store that quite impressed me. (EC: Glad to see you're out in the field checking around and not checking on record stores in the Caribbean and Monte Carlo . . . you jetsetter you!!) Now . . . there was a very nice little record shop in Gstaad Switzerland I was told about!!!

Audio books . . . coming up???

There are reports that a new form of recording entertainment is on the way. They are known as Audio Books, and a recent test in the U.S. has given book publishers a great deal of encouragement. Some of these books will be presented as actual dramas, while others will be read by commercially-powerful voices with the talent to read with pathos and conviction. These Audio Books will be distributed in Canada by a major record manufacturer, but they won't be available in record stores (EC: God forbid!!!). What a great opportunity for the acting profession. You better get in on this one quick Gino.

Speaking of opportunities . . . !!!

We mentioned last week about the number of opportunities available each week in RPM's Classified section. There seems to be an unending quest for people in the news and sports field as well as country and rock communicators. This week there's even an opportunity to get into the marketing end of the record business; a job as a "Friday Person", and even a chance to sell your old Burton Cummings' LPs.

CD bottleneck eases - increase in sales predicted

The uneven - and frequently insufficient - flow of compact disc (CD) product from the lone North American manufacturing facility to Canadian record labels has apparently stabilized somewhat, according to sources at 2 majors.

"The situation has eased somewhat," admits Norman Miller, Director of CBS Masterworks. "We do expect to be out of trouble by the end of July; the flow of product is definitely improving."

As reported in RPM earlier this year (Apr. 27), the label was encountering difficulty in obtaining product for major acts like Billy Joel, Cyndi Lauper, and Bruce Springsteen from the CD facility (Digital Audio Disc Corp.) operated in Indiana by the label's U.S. parent.

Miller estimates that the CD configuration currently represents approximately 2% of sales (pop and classical combined), a figure that could rise to 5% by year's end. "When you refer specifically to classical," Miller points out, "the CD% of sales is noticeably higher - currently about 11% - running potentially to 20% by the end of this year."

"I'm getting more (product) than I was," reports Garry Newman, WEA Music's Vice President of Sales. "But it looks as if they're trying to spread out the product artist by artist to get all the labels looked after. Current product like No Jacket Required (Phil Collins) is still hurting."

Newman estimates that WEA's CD

catalogue is "closing in on 100 titles". He reveals the label's top 3 CD sellers as ZZ Top, Van Halen, and Prince. "Our manufacturing costs aren't dropping," Newman points out. "Until the retail end lowers, the consumer will consider spending the money he'd spend on a CD on 2 or 3 cassettes."

At this writing, financing is underway for a Canadian CD plant by Praxis Technologies, a multi-million dollar venture, set to commence operations in January of 1986. Worldwide, labels currently rely on Indiana, Japan (Sony/CBS), and Europe (Philips/PolyGram).

Newman concludes, "If a plant came into operation here, I think that North American companies would certainly look to Canada as an important supplier of Canadian CD product."

Plant's Little By Little gets WEA video boost

WEA's Video Compilation No. 35 is expected to add chart visibility to Robert Plant's Little By Little single, which was taken from his Shaken 'N Stirred LP. The latter has made strong moves up the RPM 100 and, after only 4 weeks of charting, hit the No. 30 spot.

The complete list of tracks on the WEA Compilation are as follows:

The Crystal Gayle entry of Nobody Wants To Be Alone, is one of the better country music videos to be released and should attract attention through in-store play. The single is moving towards the top of the RPM Country 60.

Praxis set to go with Compact Disc plant

Alun Elias, formerly of PolyGram, and Eric Johnson are principals in Praxis Technologies, a new Toronto-based firm that is building Canada's first manufacturing facility for compact discs (CDs). To be based, at this writing, somewhere in Etobicoke, Ont., a suburb of Toronto, Praxis expects the plant to ultimately be capable of producing 24 million CD units per year.

In a recent telephone conversation with RPM, Johnson, who is President of Praxis Technologies, indicated that initial production will be closer to 4 million units.

Elias, in his capacity as Senior Vice President, has apparently met with major Canadian labels to brief them on the firm's plans.

An open-house at the Etobicoke location has been pencilled in for late August.

Junos expand with new classical award

The 1985 Juno Awards, firmed for Nov. 4 at Toronto's Hilton Harbour Castle Convention Centre, will include an additional classical award. This is as a result of the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences' recent approval of a proposal from representatives of the classical segment of the Canadian recording industry.

The 2 awards are Best Classical album: Solo or Chamber Ensemble and Best Classical Album: Large Ensemble or Soloist(s) with large Ensemble Accompaniment.

As a "craft" award, nominees and winners will be chosen from submissions by CARAS members. No actual voting will be involved.

A Classical Advisory Committee, consisting of classical recording industry people, will assist CARAS with the Classical Juno Awards on an ongoing basis, dealing with eligibility of submissions, potential jury members, appropriate presenter selection, and artists' participation.

Says CARAS President Peter Steinmetz: "I'm delighted that more exposure will be given to Canadian classical recordings. The participation of the CARAS Classical Advisory Board is further evidence of the commitment of the broad base of volunteers from our industry who are coming forward to help build the Canadian star system."

More ballads, less metal - Trojek

"We're seeing more ballads for this summer" says Terry Trojek, Head Buyer for the Toronto-based singles distributor, Saturn Distributing. "There aren't as many 'up-tempo' records as in previous years... and heavy metal is down compared to last year - although the Helix and Motley Crue look to do well. Overall, in the last 6 months songs have gone softer, perhaps because of the way radio formats are going."

Terry Trojek

With the opening of a Calgary branch for early July, Trojek estimates Saturn to have as many as 800 accounts nationally. The firm's central office is in Toronto, with a branch currently in Montreal.

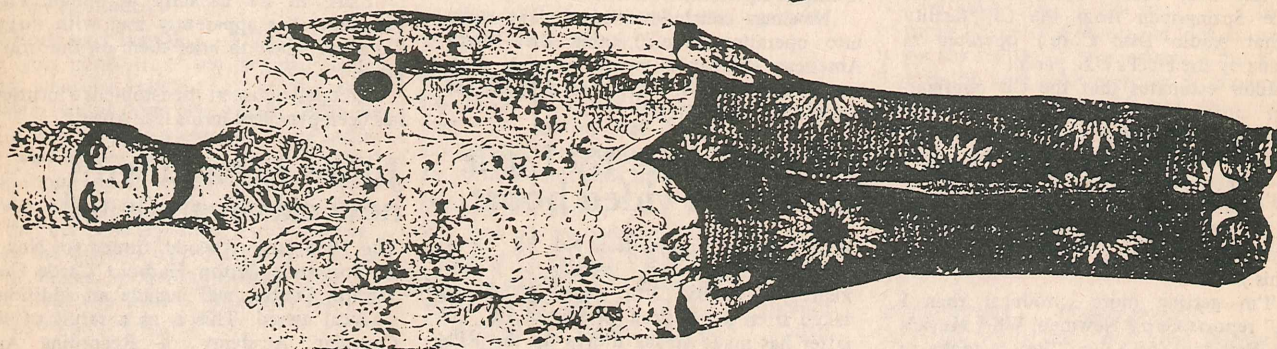

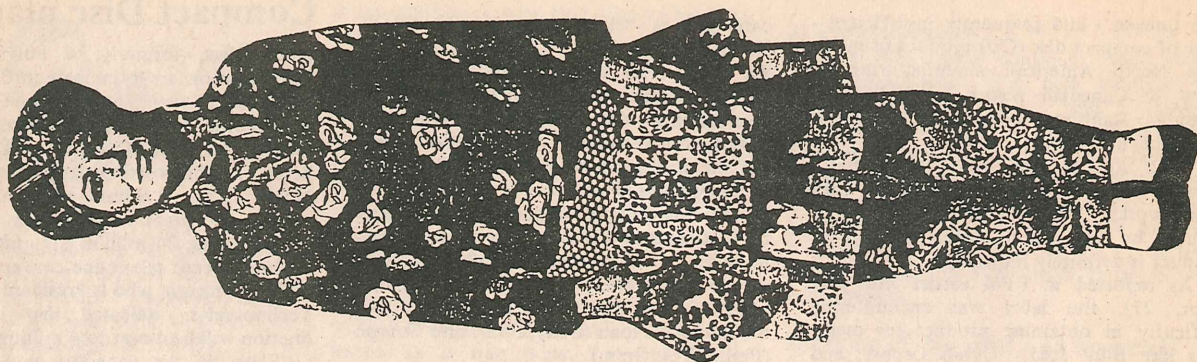

"We do 35-40% of our business in Quebec," Trojek explains, "and you have more important independent operations in that province."

Trojek continues with, "Saturn tries to work with radio quite closely. We don't wait for radio to break a record... we report to radio."

Trojek cites UB40's Red Red Wine and General Public's Tenderness as examples. "We try to have a good rapport with radio," Trojek concludes.

Helix, Strange Advance pace Capitol action

by Sarah Norris
National Press & Publicity Manager
Capitol Records-EMI of Canada

The new Helix album, Long Way To Heaven, shipped well over gold status. It was accepted readily by AOR radio, and is already charted at Q-107, Z99, Q-104, and at CHOZ. We're expecting heavy rotations to transfer to numbers at other AOR soon. Even before Deep Cuts The Knife was released as a single, it had been added by several CHR stations including CHUM and CKOC.

Sarah Norris

The follow-up to Strange Advance's hit, We Run, is The Second That I Saw You. This second single walked onto radio, and we expect chart numbers within the next few weeks. They've just started to tour, and the live show is brilliant. As well, the second Rational Youth single, Call Me, has just been shipped. Rational Youth too are on the road, and we expect these live dates to boost album sales. Our debut Bamboo single, Come Day-O Night Eh, has just been released. It is a classic r'n'b flavoured track that deserves immediate attention from radio. The album, Stop All Distractions, will be out in July.

Kim Carnes' Crazy In The Night is hit-bound in the U.S., and is picking up steadily in Canada. We expect a hit. Heart's What About Love is two parts Cancon, and this ballad virtually walked onto radio. It is a great comeback single, and their self-titled album is now set for immediate release.

Limahl's European hit, Never Ending Story, is turning into a Canadian hit! This track was released back in March, yet is still hanging in strong at radio, and has recently moved into the Top 10 at several major CHR's, including CKGM and CFTR.

We expect Marillion's Kayleigh ballad to be a huge breaker single for this progressive U.K. band. It is the band's most commercial record to date, and currently sits at No. 2 with a bullet on the National U.K. charts. They've sold over 450,000 copies of this single in the U.K. in just one month. The album, Misplaced Childhood, will be out by the end of June.

Power Station's Get It On, and Duran Duran's A View To A Kill are doing well, as is Corey Hart's brilliant single, Never Surrender (over gold), and LP Boy In The Box (over platinum).

BOOKS

Jerry Hopkins
$24.95 - 286 Pages (HB)
Collier MacMillan Canada - Toronto

A fascinating docu-novel of the life of one of the giants of the rock music scene through the '70s and '80s. Considering the popularity he did enjoy, one wonders, after reading author Hopkins' account of Bowie's outrageous outrageousness, how or why he did, in fact succeed. Not that he did reach the top in his record, movie or stage endeavours - he did succeed where many others failed. His flippant references to his sexual preference wasn't as well received as he and his handlers had thought they would. He admits here that the biggest mistake he ever made "was telling that Melody Maker writer that I was bisexual. Christ, I was so young then! I was experimenting." It was early 1972 when Bowie was harpooned by the press when he answered Melody Maker's Mick Watts' query of "Are you gay", with "Yes, of course. I'm gay and always have been, even when I was David Jones." Watts, of course took full advantage of the situation and wrote: "David's (Bowie) present image is to come on like a swishy queen, a gorgeously effeminate boy. He's as camp as a row of tents, with his limp hand and trolling vocabulary."

Hopkins would appear to have interviewed everyone and anyone who had any knowledge of Bowie, past and present, everyone, that is, with the exception of Bowie. There's even a rare interview with Bowie's mother, Peggy Jones. Bowie's personal life was incredibly counter-productive to his career and Hopkins reveals many of the sordid "facts" - his record deals, his drug habits, marriage . . . and on and on. Also includes several interesting black and white photos as well as a complete discography, filmography and videography. Recommended, shocking reading. - WG

CBS Direct launches Stevens' TV package

CBS Direct, a division created 7 years ago by CBS Records, is using TV and mail order in an attempt to break Epic recording artist Shakin' Stevens in this country. For half a decade a major star in Europe and the U.K., the talented and handsome Stevens has been unable to crack the important but challenging North American market with his Presley-esque voice and mix of standards and original material.

"In every market where Stevens has had success, TV has been employed to break him," says Len Freidman, the division's Senior Director of Direct Marketing and Special Products. "He's such a visible artist - and incredibly talented - but radio here doesn't seem to know what to do with him."

RPM is speaking with Freidman and Direct's Marketing Manager Steve Pulver at Fresh, a dance club located on Toronto's waterfront where Schulz Productions will spend 18 hours grinding out a 2-min spot that features Stevens singing snippets from 8 songs. The clip's director is Fred Stenger.

A native of Cardiff, Wales, Stevens' debut LP was Legend, produced by Dave Edmunds. Fronting a band called the Sunsets, Stevens toured the U.K. doggedly from 1970 to 1977.

He finally broke into the U.K. charts in 1980 with Hot Dog, and since then, has compiled some impressive numbers - 17 consecutive Top 20 singles (including 3 No. 1's, This Ole House, Green Door, and his own Oh Julie), 6 consecutive Top 20 German singles and 2 Top 5 LPs, and a worldwide tally at press time of 7 million in LP and singles sales.

Stevens has never performed in Canada, but Freidman hopes to see a tour of some sort early next year depending on response to the TV campaign. At the shoot, Stevens' manager is overheard to say that the Fresh date is the 23rd TV promo that Stevens has filmed.

CBS Direct's next project is a 30-sec. spot for a Neil Diamond LP, His Very Best. This campaign will apparently be strictly retail, with the spot essentially a Neil Diamond video compilation. An August launch is slated, with Canada's CBS division being the first in the world to secure approval for a Neil Diamond TV album.

On the subject of Shakin' Stevens, Pulver, a confessed fan, feels confident that the campaign will bring the singer's image and song material closer to the market the division feels he can attract.

Duke Street's resident bear-pursuader puts the touch on CKFM's (Toronto) Sheila Connors in aid of the Hugh Marsh album.

MIDEM connection for Helix & Treumuth

It was at MIDEM, the internationally influential music industry event held annually in Cannes, France, where producer Tom Treumuth crossed paths with Bill Seip - manager of Capitol recording act Helix. "It was at MIDEM, where I was shopping my True Myth record - that I ran into Bill," Treumuth remembers. "He was there to talk to people about Helix. We ended up becoming partners, and I convinced him that I should have a shot at producing the band."

Tom Treumuth

Back in Canada, Treumuth and Helix sequestered themselves in the former's basement studio, ultimately creating bed tracks that were used on the band's Capitol debut, No Rest For The Wicked, which was produced by Treumuth.

Long Way To Heaven, Helix's 3rd LP with Treumuth, was released about a month ago, and is shooting rapidly up the RPM album survey. In addition to Helix, Treumuth has produced LPs for Honey-moon Suite, Darkroom, and Smash Palace.

Treumuth characterizes the latter as "Tom Petty meets U2 with folksy overtones". A product of Fanshawe College,

Adams' Reckless tops CRIA list

CRIA reports 20 metal certifications for the month of May, topped by A&M recording artist Bryan Adams' Reckless LP attaining quintuple (5X) platinum status - representing sales of 500,000 copies or more.

Other designations are Triple Platinum Album (300,000) and Double Platinum Album (200,000), and Platinum Album (100,000) - for Tears For Fears/Songs From The Big Chair.

Also certified for platinum awards were Gowan/Strange Animal; Mick Jagger/She's The Boss; and REO Speedwagon/Wheels Are Turnin'.

Gold Album awards (50,000) went to Tears For Fears/Songs From The Big Chair; Martine St. Clair/Il Ya De L'Amour Dans L'Air; Alison Moyet/Alf; Mick Jagger/She's The Boss; and REO Speedwagon/Wheels Are Turnin'.

A Triple Platinum Single certification (300,000) was gained by Northern Lights for their Tears Are Not Enough release; with Double Platinum single status being gained by Murray Head/One Night In Bangkok; and Northern Lights for their Tears single.

Gold Single certifications (50,000) were for Gowan's A Criminal Mind; (Don't You) Forget About Me by Simple Minds; Everybody Wants To Rule The World by Tears For Fears; and Northern Lights' Tears Are Not Enough.

Treumuth spent a couple of years in the late-'70s convincing a major label to sign True Myth, a band in which he played keyboards. If for any other reason, True Myth are notable for their digitally recorded LP - the first such in Canada. The producer, Jack Richardson, had been "coerced into letting me co-produce the record!" says Treumuth.

Treumuth-produced musicians with whom RPM has spoken have nothing but praise for the deceptively soft-spoken producer. "I try not to be a tyrant," he explains, continuing with "but right at the beginning, I say to the band that I'll listen to any idea that they may have, but the final decision is always going to be mine. My name is on the record as well, and I'd always like to think when a project has ended that I gave - if anything - more to it than I had to."

There are several artists that Treumuth would like to produce - given the opportunity. The list apparently includes U2, Kate Bush, Rickie Lee Jones, and AC/DC.

"It's the kiss of death to limit your-

Variety connection for Heart compilation

Heart Of Rock, a compilation LP from Quality Records' Special Products Division, will aid the Variety Club through the donation of monies generated by sales of the LP, publishing, and artists' fees.

One of 4 compilation LPs in the division's initial launch, Heart Of Rock contains tracks from Irene Cara (Flashdance . . . What A Feeling), Parachute Club (Rise Up), Sherry Kean (I Want You Back), and Nena (99 Red Balloons).

"This is something we're trying on an ongoing basis," says Bob Mauro, Special Products' Marketing Manager. "A set portion of the selling price will be donated, through CRIA, to a Variety Club trust fund, with artists, publishers, and media outlets giving back a portion of their fees as well."

The Special Products Division is utilizing special p.o.p. material that indicates the Variety Club connection with the release.

Staff changes, move for Kids' Records

Bill Usher, President of Toronto-based Kids' Records, has announced several staff changes and a move to offices separate from Ready Records.

Lyndon Fournier, formerly with both Kids' and Ready, has been promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing of Kids' Records.

Ruth Hotchkiss has joined the label on a freelance basis to coordinate publicity for the label's 13 acts, with Susan Grainger signing on as Administrator. All staff changes are effective immediately.

The label's new offices are located on Broadview Ave. in Toronto's east end.

self," Treumuth explains. "I'd like to do Kate Bush or Rickie Lee Jones because they're female vocalists - I've never produced one - and they don't follow the mainstream. AC/DC produced themselves on the last record (Flick Of The Switch) and, as far as I know, they'll do the same this time. Mutt Lange's production on Back In Black (1980) remains state of the art even 5 years later. Yes, I think that they'd be really interesting to produce!"

At this writing, Treumuth's production on the upcoming Honeymoon Suite LP has been put ahead to September, and he is currently doing pre-production with the band. Treumuth was recently signed to Bob Ruziak & Associates, the Los Angeles-based management firm. "That's a real step for me in the U.S. market," he says. "Bob is constantly in touch with the labels, and he knows who's ready to record and when."

Jeff Burns, Vice President of A&R for CBS, distributors of Portrait product in Canada, tells RPM Salute has "taken off surprisingly quickly". The LP has been in the U.S. market about 2 weeks at this writing, garnering a number of trade picks, and apparently stirring significant response at AOR with CHR just coming into play.

As to why Salute has "taken off" the way Orphan's debut LP didn't, Burns suggests that producers Astley and Chapman "have gotten what we originally wanted out of the band - AOR depth, as well as what it takes at CHR".

No tour dates had been firmed at press time, although Orphan have been firmed to perform at the CBS Convention slated for June 24 in the Laurentians. - KCW

Fevens launches The Music Box

Loran Fevens, a veteran programmer based in Charlottetown, has launched The Music Box, a 2-hr weekly program of serious music. The program has actually been airing on Q93 FM Charlottetown since the first of the year, but will be made available to stations across the continent beginning in July.

Several stations in Nova Scotia, B.C., Alaska, Pennsylvania, Virginia and New York have picked up the series, which is the successor to Osborg's Choice, also produced by Fevens and which had been popularized on many FM stations in Canada and particularly NPR outlets in the U.S. for more than 20 years. Host of that series, Dr. B. Osborg, retired his program on June 30 last year and Fevens decided to pick up where Osborg's program leaves off.

CJFM promotion for Kidentification

Montreal's CJFM 96 recently launched Kidentification, a program aimed at heightening parents' awareness regarding information available to authorities in the event a child goes missing.

A special I.D. card was used to record children's personal data: vital statistics; thumb prints; photo (taken on location at various neighborhood shopping locations); and height/weight measurements. Should a child go missing, this information can be used, according to the release, "as a valuable reference in initiating a recovery".

The Kidentification project, originally slated to run 8 weeks, was extended due to "overwhelming response". By its conclusion, the program had registered over 10,000 children.

"Superstations" no real threat to radio - Adkins

Community involvement, local news, weather, and personalities must be emphasized by radio stations in order for them to properly compete with "superstations", according to Denny Adkins, President of Los Angeles-based Drake-Chenault Enterprises. Adkins' comments came in a recent address to the B.C. Broadcasters Association in Kelowna, B.C.

"It is imperative that radio stations interact with their audiences in order to compete successfully with distant stations which may offer a slicker sound," said Adkins.

Adkins continued, "In the '50s, Elvis Presley and the transistor radio saved radio as millions of teenagers had radios to their ears." He cited MTV, HBO, and other re-broadcast signals as services perceived to be current threats to radio.

"Though these have certainly had an effect on radio, they have had not had a major impact," continues Adkins, concluding with "Superstations are no more a threat to radio now than the advent of television as to radio in the '50s."

"I've worked with Dr. Osborg for these many years," says Fevens, "and made some great friends in the process. I've watched the interest in pre-classics grow over the past 10 years, and this program will continue to speak to that interest."

The Music Box will feature music written prior to 1800, presented in what Fevens

CAB presents brief to Commons Committee

Canada's private broadcasters, as represented by the Canadian Association of Broadcasters (CAB), apparently support federal legislation proposals that would enable the Canadian Cabinet to issue broad policy directives to the CRTC.

Michel Arpin, CAB President, has also said that broadcasters would welcome 7-yr. station licences and proposal amendments to the definition of a broadcasting undertaking.

Arpin has noted however, that legislation should allow broadcasters to control the use of their signals by commercial enterprises that may wish to use broadcasts without permission.

The CAB, in a brief presented to the federal governments Committee on Communications and Culture, expressed concern at provisions which would permit the CRTC to exempt certain classes of broadcasting undertakings from licensing, without holding a public hearing.

Other CAB recommendations are that: policies and regulations should ensure the preservation of local broadcasting services; regulations should be applied equally to all elements of the broadcasting system that provide similar services; the CRTC should regulate on broad principles only; and Canadian advertising markets should be preserved for Canadian broadcasters.

describes as "a friendly, easy fashion. The series originates from a small, well-equipped stereo studio in Fevens' home in Charlottetown."

"I expect the greatest potential lies with Public Radio in the U.S." Fevens continues. "Most Canadian private stations feel the CBC provides lots of this kind of product. I'd be delighted however, to have Canadian stations pick up the series."

Some Canadian record companies are cooperating in providing Fevens with product - CBS and WEA both have made their product available at radio station rates. Several other major distributors of serious music have been contacted but have not replied to the producer's correspondence. Fevens says he is particularly anxious to have recordings featuring Canadian soloists, ensembles and orchestras.

Distributed by Appletree Audio of Charlottetown, the cost of the 52 - 2-hr. program each year is $20 per program.

Nevin Grant, CKOC (Hamilton) Music Director, drops by with his son to say hello to Paul Rutherford and Mark O'Toole of Frankie Goes To Hollywood. Band performed 2 SRO shows at Massey Hall.

ALBUMS

JANIE FRICKE
Somebody Else's Fire
 Columbia - FC-39975-H

- Country

The big winner this year as the CMA's Female Vocalist of the Year award (2 years in a row) Janie Fricke is never far from a chart number. She is currently climbing the RPM Country 60 with She's Single Again, included here. Also key are the title track and What A Heart Won't Do. Produced by Bob Montgomery.

T.G. SHEPPARD
Livin' On The Edge
 Columbia - FC-40007-H

- Country/Pop

His debut album for Columbia, T.G. Sheppard makes it look easy with Foiled Around And Fell In Love, taken as the first single and already charting nationally. It doesn't hurt being the spokesman for Folgers Coffee, a TV ad campaign seen in many parts of Canada (border TV stations).

Produced by Rick Hall. Besides the single, key tracks are Crazy In The Heart, In Over My Heart and Banging My Heart Against The Wall.

KIM CARNES
Barking At Airplanes
 EMI America - SO-17159-F

- Pop

Newest from powerful vocalist Kim Carnes, features Crazy In The Night, already nudging the Top 30 of the RPM 100 singles chart. Produced by Carnes, Bill Cuomo, and Duane Hitchings. Also key are He Makes The Sun Rise, and Rough Edges.

BRYAN FERRY
Boys And Girls
 Warner Bros - 92-50821-P

- Pop

Space doesn't permit a lengthy assessment of former Roxy Music vocalist Bryan Ferry's influence on a generation of musicians - from the pomp-rockers of the early '70s to the neo-progressive sounds of current entries like Tears For Fears and Psychadelic Furs. Indeed, the Furs' Richard Butler evidently came under Ferry's spell at some point.

Concurrent with David Bowie, the dapper and visually dynamic Ferry stood in marked and elegant contrast to many of his overly casual and invariably blue-jeaned contemporaries. It's been said that the only 2 bands of any importance to emerge from the '70s were Roxy Music and The Sex Pistols. As if in homage to the ice-king of pop, over 25 musicians are listed as contributing to Boys And Girls.

The same strand of melancholy and emotional desperation that ran through much of the Roxy canon is here. Ferry's often chilling vocal is surrounded by crisp, cogent arrangements. Slave To Love, taken as the first single, reprises the romantic tribulations of the protagonist in many other Ferry songs.

Produced by Ferry and Rhett Davies. Mixed by Bob Clearmountain. All tracks are key. Entered the RPM 100 album survey at No. 79 with a bullet. Destined for many 'best of '85' lists.

LIFE BY NIGHT
Life By Night - Manhattan - ST-53003-F

- Pop

Occasionally funky pop/rock from quintet fronted by vocalist Tom Croucier. Produced by Richie Zito. All material written by lead vocalist Tom Croucier. Key are the title track, Angel and Trouble.

JIMMY BUFFETT
Last Tango In Paris
 MCA - 5600-J

- MOR/Country

More sun-burnished margarita music from singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. A mix, this one, from the straightforward country of Please Bypass This Heart to the light-hearted Everybody's On The Run. At the very least, Buffett hasn't lost his sense of humour. Produced by Jimmy Bowen.

Canyon Creek release for Henry

Canyon Creek, a Dallas, Texas label, has signed Audie Henry to a recording contract, the first Canadian signing to the company. Initial release is a Bart Barton (owner of the label) production, titled Heaven Knows, written by Raleigh Squires, Billy Williams and Jimmy Darrel. The single was produced at Toronto's Manta Sound and qualifies as 2 parts Cancon (AP). Born in Brazil, Audie moved to Toronto where she completed her formative education. It was while working in a Toronto record store when she met Gord Henry, a veteran of country music. They eventually married and toured the country, and released an album, By Request, a cooperative project by the pair. Audie's next record venture was on the Broadland label, a single titled True Western Movie, which opened many doors for the young talent. She went on to make TV and club appearances and now lives in Bedford, Texas. Audie and Bart will be at the International Fan Club booth at Nashville's Fan Fair (June 10-15) from where she and her husband will fly to Grand Valley, Ontario for a performance at the local Community Complex (June 15).

Country record to aid hungry

A large group of country recording artists, billed as Heart Of Nashville, have donated their talent for a single titled One Big Family, the proceeds of which will go to "benefit the hungry in both America and the world". Besides McDowell the performers include Roy Acuff, Rex Allen Jr., Lynn Anderson, Chet Atkins, Eddy Arnold, Bobby Bare, George Jones, The Kendalls, Colleen Peterson, Jerry Reed, Jeannie C. Riley, Tanya Tucker, and Faron Young, to name just a few.

Rocky Mtn. Jamboree firmed for August

The Calgary-based Applebuck Productions will be presenting the Rocky Mountain Country Jamboree (Aug. 2nd through the 4th) near Brooks, which is approximately 100 miles east of Calgary. The jamboree is being billed as "the largest country music festival in Alberta's history".

CFGM airs Supertramp during on-air benefit

Toronto country station CFGM, in the course of an on-air benefit (June 1) for victims of the recent tornado that swept through Barrie, Ont., broke from format to play Dreamer, a song by A&M recording act Supertramp.

Said Greg Slaught, the station's Vice President and General Manager, "We offered to play requests in return for a pledge to the fund, and when a listener offered a $100 pledge if we'd play Dreamer by Supertramp, I figured why not?"

By the morning of the 4th, listeners' pledges had exceeded $100,000. With a promise from the Ontario government to provide an additional $3.00 in grants for every $1.00 raised privately, CFGM's contribution could result in $400,000 raised for the tornado's victims.

Audie's initial single release for the label, Heaven Knows, is 2 parts Cancon, having been produced by Barton at Toronto's Manta Sound. Audie's self-titled follow-up album has also been mailed to country programmers in both the U.S. and Canada. A listing for the single is expected in next week's R&R.

Rae Hauser opens Cambridge club

Rae Hauser's dream has now become reality with the opening of his Yellow Rose Ranch House, regarded as "one of the finest outlets for country music in Canada."

Situated in Cambridge, Ont., a short drive northwest of Toronto, the 800-seat room, which opened June 13, will feature top entertainment from both Canada and the U.S.

Most weeks will feature a double-billing as in the case with Terry Sumsion/Stagecoach and Valdy. Valdy will appear on July 5th only. Entertainment will run from Wednesday through Saturday with special events on Sundays.

The General Manager of the room is Greg Chipman, who used to work with the Holiday Inn chain and was, most recently, the manager of the country room in Burlington, Ont.

"There isn't a bad seat in the entire room", says David Peever. "The room is geared to being the best in Canada and will compete with many of the top rooms in the U.S."

Children's events are being planned for Sundays over the summer months, most of which will be held outdoors, weather permitting. There is parking for more than 600 vehicles at the Rose.

Name acts firmed for dates include: Eddie Eastman, Whiskey Jack, Dallas Harms, Paul Weber, Bobby LaLonde, Johnny Burke/Eastwind, Albert Hall, The Mercey Brothers, Terry Sumsion, Prairie Oyster, Shotgun, Ellis Family Brown, to name just a few.

George, Dave Marsh, and Charles M. Young. Says Nolan: "For the past 30 years or so, our record reviews have gone unsigned, affording those who wrote them a certain comfortable immunity from nasty gossip, wrathful guitarists, and, for all I know, prosecution. In recent months, we've reconsidered this policy."
