AC/DC ROCK WITH NEW FLY LP

Atlantic recording act AC/DC are on release with Fly On The Wall, their first studio LP since 1983's Flick Of The Switch. Fly On The Wall was produced at Mountain Studios in Montreux by AC/DC guitarists Angus and Malcolm Young. Danger has been taken as a single. The 10 tracks were penned by the brothers Young with vocalist Brian Johnson. 1985 represents the 10th anniversary of the Australian release of the debut AC/DC LP.

Fueled by the on-stage antics of lead guitarist Angus Young, AC/DC is now 2/5 Australian, the Sydney contingent represented by Angus and Malcolm Young. The original lineup included vocalist Bon Scott, who died in 1980, drummer Phil Rudd, and bassist Mark Evans.

Evans was replaced by British bassist Cliff Williams in 1977, Scott by Brian Johnson in 1980, and Rudd by Simon Wright in 1983.

AC/DC began in Sydney, Australia in 1974. Angus and Malcolm are brothers of George Young, renowned as a member of The Easybeats (Friday On My Mind) and Flash And In The Pan. AC/DC's debut Australian release was High Voltage, produced by Young and his production partner Harry Vanda.

On the band signing an international deal with Atlantic in 1976, High Voltage and its follow-up, T.N.T., were compiled to produce an extra-Australian debut LP, High Voltage.

AC/DC's debut U.S. tour came in 1977, by which times bassist Williams had joined the band. This was visually compelling hard-rock incarnate. Vocalist Bon Scott, blessed with a valkyrian scream, was known to drag recalcitrant bagpipes through the concert fray, while Angus, an innocuous looking imp, leaped about the stage wagging his SG, driving hordes of young rock and roll enthusiasts wild.

In February of 1980, Bon Scott, only 30, was found in his car in London, apparently dead of alcohol poisoning. The band regrouped, entering the studio 3 days later to begin work, in tribute, on the appropriately titled Back In Black.

This remains arguably their best work to

Business is booming for R.O.W. Entertainment

Paul Herzog, Distribution Manager for Records On Wheels, reports business has picked up significantly in the first half of this year. The company also had a very profitable first quarter as well. He revealed that the company has received several enquiries regarding franchise operations with the running of the feature story about Wheels in the business section of the Toronto Star just recently.

"Each week there's at least one person who wants to open a store," he said. "And we get 1 or 2 people phoning each week looking for a new distributor. Business is up anywhere from 15 to 30 percent. We have other franchises in the works and we could have 10 by the end of the year."

Herzog also reports that compact discs are picking up very rapidly and they're hoping CDs will cover 15 percent of their business next year. He also believes the CD is going to take some of the sales percentage away from the LP, noting that there has already been a drop in album sales.

"The one problem that keeps coming up is the availability of CDs," he explains. "It's just terrible. The selection is minimal and there's a great demand for them. We can only fill about 20 to 30 percent of the demand at present. The CD industry is one that's really going to take off."

Herzog also pointed to the recent rise in popularity of heavy metal product.

"It's sort of a comeback," he explains. "With so many metal bands, the market has become saturated. I must admit that metal did well for us in the first quarter. But I can't see this lasting. There's just so many. In one week alone there were 10 metal releases that I've never heard of, and I can't see any of them becoming as big as Led Zeppelin IV or a Dark Side Of The Moon."

Herzog has found that 12" singles have picked up in sales despite the fact that the consumer may only be getting 2 songs for a list price of about $6.98 or possibly $5.98.

Herzog has also noticed a trend by manufacturers in charging anywhere from 50 cents to $1 more for albums which in turn gets passed on to the consumer, translating into a price of $11.98 for an album. He feels this trend will continue slowly until all are charging this price.

Randal-English to rep Drake-Chenault - Canada

Randal-English Radio Enterprises (RERE), based in Newmarket, Ontario, have been named exclusive representatives of Drake-Chenault in Canada. "Canada needs the Drake-Chenault quality and programming expertise, using Canadian standards while conforming to CRTC regulations," said Ted Randal, a veteran of 37 years in broadcasting in both Canada and the U.S. He continues with "Drake-Chenault's clients have the highest ratings in America."

RERE's Howard English notes: "This is the first time that formats from the United States entering Canada will meet, in all ways, CRTC regulations so that Canadian broadcasters need not be concerned about that aspect of their programming."

The decision to select Randal and English was based largely "on the pair's broadcast experience and expertise," said Denny Adkins, President of Drake-Chenault. He continued with "Ted Randal really is one of the pioneers of the radio consulting business. He has consulted more than 200 radio stations including 50 'hands on'."

English is an 18-yr. veteran of Canadian radio which included stints as News Director at CKEY Toronto and as Program Director of the CKO Radio Network.

Drake-Chenault currently consults Canadian radio stations in Saint John and Fort McMurray.

A couple of Grammy Award winners, Anne Murray and David Foster were recently at Eastern Sound Studios (Toronto) where Foster produced 2 tracks for Murray's upcoming album. Her Heart Over Mind LP has been certified gold in the U.S. - her 9th U.S. gold. The LP is already gold in Canada.

Sandy Hoyt tribute set for Toronto's Sheraton

Sandy Hoyt wanted his listeners to think of him as "that nice man on the radio - a friend you can wake up and start your day with". The 45-year old Hoyt has been doing that at more than a dozen stations stretching from Charlottetown to Kitchener - and continuing at CHFI-FM in Toronto since 1972. Well, "that nice man on the radio" will host his last show on Thursday August 1st from 5:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. in the Civic Ballroom, 2nd floor of Toronto's Sheraton Centre.

Sandy Hoyt

Says Charlene Roycht, Promotions Manager for CHFI: "Sandy will be hosting his last morning show while he transcends into other on-air assignments and into being the Director of Community Relations. Let us experience this in a festive manner - a true celebration."

Community Relations is really something Hoyt has been involved in for years - one of his pet projects is working with the Canadian Diabetes Association. Hoyt is an insulin dependent diabetic himself. He was also involved with the 1985 Variety Club Telethon, acting as one of its hosts. He was the recipient of the 1983 Canadian Diabetes Association Media Award and in 1984 was honoured with the Fred Sgambati Award for "an outstanding record of public service by a broadcaster."

Hoyt's secret to becoming one of the most popular morning personalities on Toronto radio: "I try to communicate warmth, humour and honesty," he says. "It's gratifying to think that this has an effect on my listeners."

Jay Nelson, who recently moved over to CHFI from CKFM, will take over Hoyt's "morning desk" on Aug. 6.

Comtix Tickets profits from small orders

Karl Brdlik reports that he is "meeting all expectations" in the operation of Comtix Tickets Inc., a firm he established this spring. Based in Agincourt, Ont. Brdlik spent 5 years, one of them as General Manager, with a major Canadian ticketing firm. He offers a number of incentives to the market, including a low minimum charge for small orders, 8 different print styles, and the option of telephone/credit card ordering.

"I feel that by being efficient, you can produce small orders and still make a profit," Brdlik explains. "I use up-to-date computer equipment and software that I designed myself. This helps to keep my overhead down."

Brdlik's present accounts include restaurants, hotels, theatres, and community dances, as well as promoters.

Home taping creates 'flagrant losses' - Evans

Dave Evans, President of Capitol Records, believes home taping to be "even more extensive than we imagined". Evans' statement, released through his office, came in response to RPM's recent coverage of an address on home taping given to an industry seminar in Germany by Robert Summer, President of RCA Records in the U.S.

"Unfortunately, home taping is not an act we have been capable of quantifying," says Evans. "We can determine the amount of blank tapes sold to consumers so that we can roughly approximate that market. However, we do not know the re-use factor for tape, and therefore we must conclude that home taping is even more extensive than we imagined. The problem is being severely exacerbated by the proliferation of double cavity tape decks providing high speed dubbing facilities. If the consumer is not being exhorted to steal music, the suggestion that high speed duplication is condoned is being seductively made in commercials and advertisements."

He concludes, "The Canadian recording industry, to date in 1985, is facing a decline in unit sales. How much of this decline can be attributed to product releases and how much attributable home taping is virtually impossible to determine. Quite frankly, I am almost afraid to find out the truth. Hopefully sooner, rather than later, some sense of sanity must prevail and Canada too will provide the opportunities to compensate both artists and companies for these flagrant losses."

Communication is the key - Desjardins

"I try to get the artist to tour right across the country," says WEA Music's Roger Desjardins. "That's the ideal situation."

Desjardins is currently head of National Artist Relations for the label. "The position is hard to define, but then really isn't hard to define," Desjardins points out. "Basically, I relate to the artist, help them set strategy and publicity, and deal with aspects of touring - working with promoters, discussing logical venues."

Desjardins indicates that the challenge lies in promoting new acts, and finding suitable places for them to play. "It's easy to promote a Led Zeppelin or a Rod Stewart," he chuckles.

Desjardins' first exposure to the record business came as stage manager in a Montreal nightclub, dealing at close range with people like soul icon Sam Cooke and legendary chanteuse Edith Piaf.

The experience was apparently not lost on him. "I learned how to communicate," Desjardins recalls. "When you're working with artists like Piaf, Milton Berle, and Jimmy Durante... you can imagine that kind of experience for a young man."

His current position at WEA follows promotional stints both at WEA and Capitol, as well as experience in rack-jobbing, "where

I learned the distribution part of it."

Desjardins continues: "It varies often. When Loudness came here, they were introduced to each market. They slept on their bus, only going to a hotel to freshen up before shows. The tour support money is there, but from a financial point of view, it's always better if an act can somehow do it on their own." His fondest memories?

"I would think of 2 situations," he replies. "Being a part of the Genesis situation when they were just getting started - when Peter Gabriel was still with them - was very satisfying. Seeing Phil Collins experiencing success like he is reminds me of how proud I am to have worked with the band in the early days. The other would be Queen - when we had them. No one knew these people. It's satisfying to think that I was there in the early going."

And your relationship with Pete Townsend of The Who? "Magical," Desjardins responds. "It happened immediately!"

Cancon single puts Heart back on charts

Heart has resurfaced and grabbed instant chart and playlist adds thanks to the Cancon writing team of Jim Vallance, Sheryl Crow, and Brian Allen. The trio penned What About Love, taken as the first single from Heart's new self-titled Capitol album. The single is already nudging the Top 20 of the RPM 100 singles chart after 8 weeks of charting.

Vallance has had much success in the past as a writing partner with Bryan Adams, his latest being Adams' Heaven single, which topped the U.S. trades this week. Allen and Crow are former members of Toronto, a group that recorded for the now defunct Solid Gold label.

Heart originally made their Canadian impact after signing to the Vancouver-based Mushroom label in 1975, switching to the CBS-distributed Portrait label in 1977.

Recently signed to Capitol, Heart is still fronted by the Wilson sisters, Ann on vocals, and Nancy on guitar. The other members of the group are Howard Leese (lead guitars and keyboards), Mark Andes (bass), and Denny Carmeen (drums). Guesting on the What About Love track are Peter Wolf on keyboards and Grace Slick and Mickey Thomas of the Jefferson Starship on background vocals. The single is also supported by a video.

Sarah Norris, National Press & Publicity Manager for Capitol was asked if the Canadian composition was the determining factor in lifting the band's profile again.

"No, the Americans were very hot on this record too," she said. "Maybe in Canada it helped initially, but overall I'd say no. If it wasn't Cancon they (radio) just might not have been as quick to go on it."

Norris added that the video also had a major impact.

Canadian dates are in the works for September and will be announced shortly.

PMI & Sony Video pact agreement

Picture Music International (PMI) and Sony Video Software Operations (U.S.) have announced an exclusive "music video agreement" under which VSO will manufacture all PMI pre-recorded music video tape products.

Capitol Records' Group Services will serve as the major distributor of that product into record-oriented outlets. Initial product slated under the new agreement will include 3 major releases: Tina Turner "Live" - The Private Dancer Tour '85, filmed in England earlier this year; One Night With Blue Note, 2 one-hour volumes of jazz performances filmed at New York's Town Hall; and The Best Of Motown, a 1-hr. compilation from the '60s pop series Ready Steady Go, featuring artists like Stevie Wonder, The Temptations, and Marvin Gaye.

The agreement does not directly affect Capitol in Canada, as the label here has no video arm per se, and Sony dealerships will handle Canadian distribution of the product.

MUSEXPO '85 boasts best outlook in 10 yrs

Scheduled U.K. and European participation at this year's MUSEXPO '85 in London (Oct. 16-18) is topping all previous attendance records, according to the event's Chairman and founder Roddy S. Shashoua. 1985 marks the tenth anniversary for MUSEXPO, the International Record And Music Industry Market.

Over 300 record labels, producers, and service companies have registered to date, with U.K. participants including The Chrysalis Group, BBC Records, K-Tel International, and Rough Trade. Pool Musik (West Germany), Veronica Broadcasting (Netherlands), and Netto Music (Denmark) are but 3 of the European participants firm-ed.

Shashoua also announced a series of artist showcases to occur in locales such as Hammersmith Palais, Camden Palace, Heaven, The Gardens Brixton Academy, and The Marquee. The showcases are being co-ordinated by prominent London concert promoter Harvey Goldsmith.

Wave Babies, the 4th single from Honeymoon Suite's platinum debut, gets a promo boost from WEA's Herb Forgie, Randy Sharrard and Bruce Mactavish who squired Wave Babies video stars, Charlene Richards and Rebecca Karns to radio station. Above they meet CHUM's Brad Jones and Jim Waters and CHUM-FM's Wayne Webster.

CAB Chief questions Copyright Act changes

Michel Arpin, President of the Canadian association of Broadcasters (CAB) recently told the House of Commons Sub-Committee studying the Copyright Act that broadcasters - as both owners and users of copyright material - are anxious to see Canada's Copyright Act amended to reflect the changes brought about by new technology.

In his presentation, Arpin also noted that Canadian private broadcasters support that Canadian private broadcasters support the concept that fair copyright payments should be made by anyone who earns revenue from the use of intellectual property owned by others.

In order that Broadcasters can control transmission of their signals by others and restrict the importation of identical programming in their licensed markets, Arpin proposed that all broadcast material be "presumed protected by copyright".

Among other things, the CAB's brief also recommended that all parties "respect the copyright in a product being used". and the establishment of a permanent Copyright Appeal Board with broader powers and jurisdiction, and the inclusion of an ephemeral recording right in the Copyright Act - as recommended in the government's White Paper.

WATT SAYS

An overflow of golfers . . . ???

It just goes to show how effective an ad in RPM can be . . . this year's Ontario Music Industry's 12th Annual Golf Tournament, has been way overlooked. Oh well . . . the trials and tribulations of the organizing committee . . . and that's only part of what they go through. You really got to hand it to these committee members. First they have to arrange a golf club that's big enough to accommodate 250 golfers . . . and feed them as well. Then there's the prizes . . . and the complaints . . . and that's what really hurts. Some of these complainers should try their hand at being a committee member . . . it's no picnic. Anyway, I'll see you there next week . . . and let's hope there aren't any tasteless one-liners.

A little lobbying could help. . . !!

Well, I've discovered that with the change in government there's a few new faces that will make changes in favour of the recording industry . . . down the road. I can't understand why the heavies in the record industry go out of their way to avoid talking to government people. I've found an open-door to a couple of very influential government people . . . and they would like to learn more about the industry and the problems they have with . . . you know who. Why not invite a Cabinet Minister to your next reception . . . or even a plain member of parliament. You just might be influencing the next Secretary of State.

There could be some major changes!!

There's a buzz on "the Hill" that there will be a couple of very major changes in the Cabinet. One was a bad choice to begin with . . . and a change will make a lot of broadcasters . . . and record people breathe a little easier.

Programmers attitude stirs CRTC . . . ??

Confirm or deny that . . . right at the top . . . the CRTC is not happy with programmers' attitude with regard to Canadian content. You read it here FIRST . . . that something drastic will have to be done. What does that mean? Just asking (EC: We know you know!!)

Overshadowing a star . . . ??

Quite often . . . and there are a dozen show-biz books that tell the same story over and over again . . . a very successful star can be destroyed by being talked into a situation they have no control over. Even stars can be mesmerized by someone else's success . . . and POW! Sometimes it can be a long, long time between hits!!

Surrender in the paper war!!!

Opening the mail recently, I became aware that quite often we get press releases in huge numbers. One to everyone in our masthead.

CMC names winners for Grand Prix awards

The Canadian Music Council has announced the results of its 6th Grand Prix du Disque-Canada Competition. Founded in 1978 to "encourage and promote the Canadian recording industry in the serious music field as well as jazz and traditional folklore", the competition is held every 3 years and remains the only one of its kind in Canada.

For 1985, 50 recordings were entered in 8 categories and 6 Grand Prix were awarded. This year's recipients are the Tafelmusik Baroque Orchestra, violist Rivka Golani, the Elmer Iseler Singers, the Netherlands Chamber Choir, the Ensemble of the SMCQ, pianist Anton Kuerti, and the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra.

No prize was given in the jazz or folklore categories. The awards will be presented July 21 at Montreal's Musee d'Art contemporain.

If your PR is to be really professional, you should stop wasting money on our elite post office and address one press release to National News at RPM's address. It's best NOT to send press releases to individuals. All mail is opened centrally, and only letters of a personal nature are sent on to the individuals concerned. Press releases are re-routed to whoever writes on that subject. Read on . . . it gets more interesting!!

Keeping the couriers in business!!

RPM is a weekly . . . and the last thing we can do is scoop the dailies. It's therefore amazing how much money is spent on couriers and other special and expensive modes of delivery to send things that really aren't that urgent to a weekly. One of the most neglected attention-getters is the Telex. News items and press releases that are Telexed get attention almost immediately - and makes more sense than the 1 to 20 couriers who deliver that new record or press release. We like news and we want news, but don't waste time and money.

The award show that grows . . . !!

One of our early concerns with the Juno Awards was the politics that cause new awards to be established. More isn't better. Finally, the awards become so numerous that they fail to have any meaning. Our rule was to kill one award anytime a new one was established. At the rate the Junos are going . . . in 15 years, Andy Warhol will have been right. We'll all get one! (EC: I won't want one!) Every changing regime makes its contribution. It does get bigger, but is it better??

Consulting! Consulting! Consulting!

What's going on . . . ?? What's happening to the radio consulting business?? I thought the advertising business was bad, but watch out for some very interesting and major changes in the consulting business. Those well-spoken, very fluid and flowery dispensers of statistics can often become BORRRING, not to mention repetitious and redundant . . . and that's when the new kid moves in.

Bring a VHS tape . . . !!

Promo people who come into RPM dragging a VCR should make note that RPM has a VHS set up to play their promo tapes. No need to bring your own machine. (EC: Just send the tape!!!)

More summer sounds from WEA

by JoAnn Kaeding
Marketing & Publicity Coordinator
WEA Music of Canada

WEA's summer sounds are as diverse as the weather these days, but a lot more dependable. There's something for every taste and format. Established artists and new acts figure prominently in our priorities as radio begins to nibble at a whole new crop of releases.

First, the very heavy triumvirate of AC/DC, Motley Crue and Ratt are making metal fans happy everywhere. While I realize radio's affection for hard rock has dwindled somewhat, Ratt's melodic Lay It Down should easily find its niche at AOR. K97, CHED, and Q107 have started things off as Invasion Of Your Privacy screams past gold on its way to platinum. With over a million copies sold in 2 weeks statewide, Ratt's only real competition comes from their old pals Motley Crue.

The Crue are just out with Theatre Of Pain, also gold in Canada and monstrous in the U.S. A U.S. trade chart jump from 90B to 18B in 1 week is a pretty good indication of where this one's headed - straight to the top. The first single is a cover of Brownsville Station's Smokin' In The Boy's Room, which CKOC flipped over and charted immediately (after Nevin Grant picked himself up off the floor). Smokin' has every chance to be Motley Crue's first CHR hit. Last year's Shout At The Devil went double platinum setting the stage for Theatre Of Pain to really bring the house down.

AC/DC is celebrating their 10th anniversary with the release of Fly On The Wall and first single Danger. Everyone agrees that this is the best AC/DC since the classic Back In Black. It may be a tad heavy for your format but do not underestimate the hardcore following this band has. Over their career, AC/DC has sold over 1.7 million records in Canada and their live show can't be beat. Pretenders to the heavy metal throne may come and go but after the dust settles, AC/DC still comes out on top. At present I have no confirmed concert info on these bands but we're hoping for fall tours from all 3.

a-ha! It's the internationally recognized expression of revelation, discovery and surprised delight. a-ha is also the name of a young trio from Oslo, Norway who make melodic, crisp and decidedly danceable new music. The 3 lads are not new to Canada, having already visited Toronto twice prior to the release of their debut album, Hunting High And Low. a-ha are most determined to break in Canada and judging from response to their first single, Take On Me, this should be no problem. Adds are in from CFTR, CKGM, CKRA, and, CKOC charts the single at No. 39. The video for Take On Me has become a staple at MUCH and Video Hits thanks in part to earlier interviews a-ha did with these shows. Much in the style of Duran Duran, a-ha are not too tough to look at either. One Toronto journalist noted that "guys should not be allowed to look this good", but obviously the girls don't mind as I'm already receiving fan mail for them. However, a-ha is not just another collection of pretty faces. Hunting High And Low features 10 very original and well performed tunes that grab and hold from the first listen. a-ha will soon be much more than an expression - perhaps even a phenomenon!

Vancouver's Idle Eyes have a U.S.

release through Mirage Records distributed by Atlantic. The LP and re-mixed version of Tokyo Rose are due out very shortly. In Canada, single number 2 is All Day, a perfect, light summer anthem. I count over 35 major playlists including CHUM, CFTR, CKFM, and CKGM - don't miss the boat on this one. The band is currently doing club dates in Vancouver to keep in practise for the second leg of the Tears For Fears tour which will take them statewide just in time for the LP's release there.

Incidentally, for anyone who hasn't figured this out yet, Madonna's latest hit, Into The Groove, can only be found on the B-side of the 12" for Angel. This 12" single has just been released on a specially-priced cassette. Into The Groove will not be released as a 7" and isn't available on any album. At this writing, Like A Virgin has sold in excess of half a million copies in Canada with no signs of slowing down. The nude photo scandal has only helped Madonna, who professes no guilt for her past exploits.

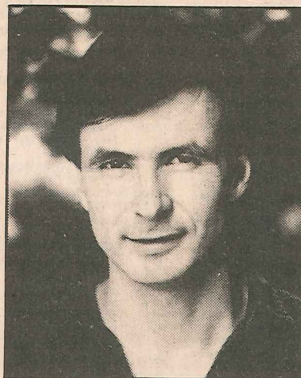

WEA reps Randy Sharrard, Charlene Richards, Rebecca Karns, Bruce Mactavish and Herb Forgie promoting Platinum Blonde's new single, Wave Babies with the video models. Looking on are Bob Mackowycz (Q-PD), Gary Slight (Q-Station Mgr.) and John Derringer (Q-MD).

date - cleanly produced by Mutt Lange, revealing a band renewed and invigorated despite the death of a colleague and friend. The new singer, ex-Geordie vocalist Brian Johnson, was apparently cited by Angus Young as the only rock singer the late Bon Scott ever admired.

Flick Of The Switch, AC/DC's first self-produced effort, appeared in 1983, the last LP for drummer Phil Rudd.

Fly On The Wall is vintage AC/DC; howling guitar licks from Angus, and Brian Johnson's by now trademark vocal pounding out 10 tunes like there's no tomorrow.

The tracks are Shake Your Foundations, First Blood, Danger, Sink The Pink, Playing With Girls, Stand By, Hell Or High Water, Back In Business, Send For The Man, and the title track. At this writing, no tour has been firmed, but it's only a matter of time.

The Danger single is supported by a video, with Fly On The Wall breaking into the RPM 100 at No. 63 with a bullet.

CBS continues with Platinum Blonde campaign

Crying Over You, the pre-released single from Columbia recording act Platinum Blonde's 2nd LP, Alien Shores, is experiencing "an outstanding reaction", according to Art Graham, Director of Marketing (Pop Product) for CBS Records.

Arthur Graham

Platinum Blonde's debut LP, Standing In The Dark, is on its way to double platinum status - sales of 200,000 units or more - in Canada. The band's current lineup is Mark Holmes (vocals), Kenny Maclean (bass), Sergio Galli (guitar), and Chris Steffler (drums). Both Holmes and Maclean - who joined last year - play guitar and keyboards as well.

Alien Shores was produced by Eddy Offord, renowned for his work with 10CC and Yes.

The Crying Over You single comes in a vibrant picture sleeve, and contains a limited edition poster of the band. Graham says that the label's objective in the use of the picture sleeve was to generate immediate sales prior to any airplay. "We wanted to get radio charts prior to the LP coming out," he adds.

The Alien Shores LP reaches radio July 22, and retail 3 days later. Crying Over You, after only 3 weeks of charting, is vaulting rapidly up the RPM 100 singles chart.

Stateside, CBS is apparently "excited" over Alien Shores, with the U.S. company moving the LP up their release schedule from mid-fall to late summer/early fall.

Graham is very confident as to the new LP's depth, prodding R PM to "pick a track, any track" in a recent preview at CBS. The material and arrangements are definitely stronger this time out, with Offord's big-beat, high-gloss production giving the tracks an international feel.

The video clip for Crying Over You, directed by Rob Quartly of Champagne Pictures, is arguably the best video for the band to date. Shot over 3 days in and around Toronto, Crying Over You not only introduces "new boy" Maclean, but eminently succeeds in bringing Mark Holmes' undeniable charisma into stark focus.

Michael Rosen of Champagne is pleased as well. "We're still concentrating on the look with this video," he affirms after a screening for RPM at Champagne's Lombard St. location. "The Platinum Blonde videos (Standing In The Dark, and Doesn't Really Matter, also produced by Champagne) have never been very literal to the lyric. I think that this tends to lend them a somewhat timeless quality. We're very pleased with this one."

Refugee & Go West priorities at Chrysalis

Stephen Tennant, Marketing Manager for Chrysalis Records, cites Canadian band Refugee and British pop duo Go West as 2 current priorities for the label, distributed in Canada by MCA Records.

"We're seeing a better response at radio with Refugee's 2nd single, Here We Go Again," says Tennant. "Some stations that are on Exiles In The Dark (the debut single) will be switching over to Here We Go Again. Right now, the band is touring in the Maritimes with Honeymoon Suite, and they'll be returning to Ontario to do dates in markets such as London and Sarnia. As far as we're concerned this album isn't over."

Huey Lewis is on a "mini tour" currently, according to Tennant, one that brings him to Toronto's CNE Stadium (July 20). The Power Of Love, currently a Top 30 entry on the RPM singles chart, has been released in a 12" version, remixed by Jellybean. Lewis is expected to enter the studio with his band The News in September for an LP pencilled in, at this writing, for a January release.

Pat Benatar has gone "back to rock 'n' roll after her Tropic LP," says Tennant. Invincible, released in 7" and 12" formats, is currently climbing the charts, with Benatar expected to release an LP in late September. A Canadian tour is expected before Christmas.

"Billy Idol has completed 5 tracks for an LP with the working title of Whiplash Smile," Tennant continues, "He's writing with guitarist Steve Stevens and we should see an early October release. Billy should be touring before Christmas." Keith Forsey (Rebel Yell) is producing.

"Paul Hardcastle's '19' is a huge international hit," Tennant points out. "An LP is apparently under consideration, with Paul making international versions of the song right now for markets like Italy and Japan." 19 is a Top item on the RPM 100 singles chart after under 2 months of charting.

Pointer Sisters break with RCA debut LP

RCA Records Canada is readying a full national marketing push to back the new Pointer Sisters Contact LP, their debut for the label. The previously released on the RCA-distributed Planet label. Dare Me has been issued as the first single from the Richard Perry-produced LP. The single entered the RPM Singles chart at No.91 with a bullet (July 20).

The Pointers previous LP, Break Out, from which several hits singles were taken, is now nearing the quadruple platinum mark in Canada and continues to sell consistently. The album has been on the RPM 100 chart for 59 weeks.

Jim Campbell, Manager of Product & Artist Development for RCA Canada, was asked how the new album compares to Break Out.

"It doesn't differ so much that the new LP has more intensity performance-wise," he noted. "It continues with the high-tech R&B, but is more highly crafted. Dare Me isn't even the strongest song on the album."

Ultravox guitarist Midge Ure will release a solo LP in September, with an Ultravox LP expected in early 1986.

Tennant refers to Ireland's The Adventures as "a personal favourite". The 5-pc. band's debut single, Send My Heart, ships next week. Tennant, when pressed, characterizes them as a Eurogliders-meets-Jon Anderson type of act. "We're going to low-key this one", Tennant explains, concluding with "We'll go to radio first before making a lot of noise at retail. This is one of those groups that could come out of Canada very strongly."

Regulatory Agenda available - CRTC

The May issue of the CRTC Regulatory Agenda, a 24-pg. publication intended to complement the CRTC's public information and consultation process, is currently available.

According to the Commission's release, "the broad purpose of the CRTC Regulatory Agenda is to inform, and it should not be considered a promise for regulation or action."

The agenda provides information on broadcasting and telecommunications issues and initiatives for the next 6 months, and provides a summary of issues recently completed or under current consideration by the CRTC.

In related news, CRTC broadcasting and telecommunications decisions issued during the first half of the fiscal year 1984-85 have been published in a 562-pg book. Copies are $17 each, and are available from bookstores selling Canadian government publications as well as Supply and Services Canada, Canadian Government Publishing Centre, Ottawa, Ontario. MIDEM to celebrate 20th anniversary

For its 20th anniversary next year, MIDEM, the international record and music publishing marketplace, has planned several commemorative events. The 1986 event, slated at this writing for Jan.27-31, will include 4 Eurovision broadcasts and an inauguration ceremony celebrating the 20th anniversary. MIDEM's locale has traditionally been Cannes, France.

MIDEM currently includes 5 event "segments": MIDEM Variete (The International Record and Music Publishing Market); MIDEM Videoclip (The International Music Video Market); MIDEM Classique (The International Market For Classic Music); MIDEM/MIP-Radio (The International Radio Program Market); and MIDEM Equipment (The International Hardware Market).

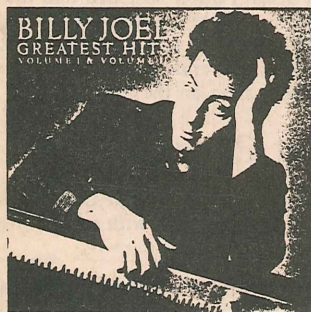

The "commemorative events" for the next year apparently include 4 Eurovision broadcasts - a classical music concert, a videoclip awards ceremony, an awards ceremony for 1985's "new discoveries" given by the artists themselves, and Rockpalast, the West German live concert program set to originate in January from the Palais des Festivals in Cannes.

ALBUMS

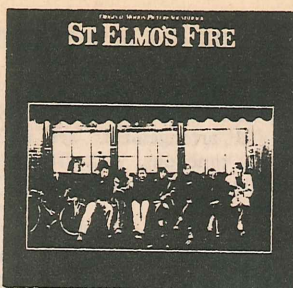

THE COMSAT ANGELS 7 Day Weekend - Jive - JV-6621-M

BILLY JOEL Greatest Hits - Volume 1 & 2 Columbia - C2-40121-H

Joel has been a staple on the American music scene since 1973 and the release of Piano Man, generally avoiding the slings and arrows critics have reserved for Manilow and Sedaka. This set includes the expected (New York State Of Mind), the tepid (Tell Her About It), and the brand-new (You're Only Human and The Night Is Still Young). The first of the latter two is rapidly climbing the RPM 100 singles chart - a good sales tool on this package. All tracks produced by Phil Ramone.

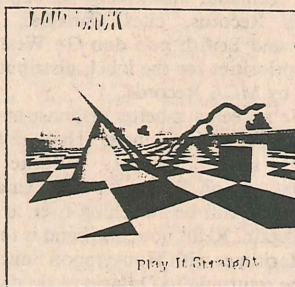

ST. ELMO'S FIRE Original Film Soundtrack Atlantic - 78-12611-P

Soundtrack to the "Little Chill". Produced and arranged by David Foster - where he found the time would be interesting to know - with assists from several members of Toto and Billy Squier, to name a few. Key track: St. Elmo's Fire (Man In Motion), penned by Foster and John Parr. Four tracks contain partial Cancon properties.

DOUG CAMERON Mona With The Children True North - TN-63-H

This harbours some interesting pop arrangements and good singing, but the important track is the title - a chilling account of religious persecution vividly depicted in the song's compelling video. Also key: For Love and People In The Rain. Produced by Jack Lenz and Tim MacCauley. Cancon.

LAID BACK Play It Straight - Sire - 92-52881-P

Latest from Danish popsters Tim Stahl and John Guldberg. Key are Ice Cream Baby, and Don't Run From Your Shadow.

Produced by Laid Back and The Dwarfs. Inner sleeve.

SCRITTI POLITTI Cupid & Psyche 85 Warner Bros - 92-5302-P

Various producer credits. Green & Co., obviously enamoured of American sweet-soul sounds, crank out a packet of lightweight pop/funk. Key here are The Word Girl, Absolute, and Wood Beez (Pray Like Aretha Franklin). Superb jacket graphic. Inner sleeve with libretto.

COCOON Original Film Soundtrack Polydor - PDS-16418-P

Ron Howard's film has apparently clicked with both fans and critics so front racking should help this one. Key track: Michael Sembello's Gravity. Various producer credits.

HAGOOD HARDY Night Magic - Duke Street - DSR 31014-P

Good material here for A/C programmers. Key: the title track and A Sometime Lover. Produced by Hardy and Andrew Hermant. Three parts Cancon(MAP).

Brenden Gillam Releases single

Brenden Gillam gets a bio plug from Tom Gentry with the release of his new single, Love You've Got A Hold On Me, a Gillam original. The young Newfoundlander produced the single himself at Brampton's (Ontario) Orchard Studio. Writes Gentry: "With a name like Brenden, you'd probably guess there's some 'Down East' blood in him, and you'd be right, but there's also a chunk of 'The West' about him, well actually Western Newfoundland." Gentry goes on to explain: "Just as Ontario sees anything past Thunder Bay as being 'Out West' so too does Newfoundland see that part of 'The Rock' out past Gander, as the west. And Corner Brook, Brenden's home town, is about as far west as you can get, at least as far as the Newfie Bullet use to fly." Well now, with that glowing tribute - where do we put Gillam's music? His initial release, Here We Are, found favour with country programmers, and this follow-up should do the same but the crossover possibilities are there as well. The GBM label is based in Streetsville, Ontario.

New single from Albert Hall

Coming up from Albert Hall is a new album titled Blue Moon Cafe. The title track will be taken as the first single. Albert is set for the Yellow Rose in Cambridge, Ontario from Aug. 8 through the 10, followed by CFGM Summer Country at Molson's Park in Barrie, Ont. (11), the CNE (18), and CFGM's Opry North (25). Just in case you're wondering if that was Albert Hall on the new CNE commercials - yes it is. Albert, who Chris Hughes of the agency world created, wrote and produced the new multi-media campaign for the "X".

Quality to distribute MBS

Love Is The Reason will be the latest single from the Mercy Brothers, their follow-up You Lifted Me High Enough. The single is the title track from their new LP, to be distributed by Quality Records.

Wilf Carter on tour

Brian Edwards has been squiring the legendary Wilf Carter around on his 11 date tour of Ontario, and it has been quite hectic for the 76 yr. old performer. "I've seen more radio stations in the last 2 days than I've seen in the past 25 years," says Carter, who dropped by the RPM offices to say hello. Country radio programmers have been anxious to do interviews with Carter, most of the interviews have been averaging 40 minutes. Accompanying him on his dates are Kitty Wells, Johnny Wright and his son Bobby. Joe Alyward and Yellerton Express are also lending a hand in backing Carter.

Opry North plays Picton

Gary O'Brien, producer of CFGM's Opry North called to pass on the news that Opry North will be playing Picton Arena on July 28. The lineup is quite impressive and includes Valdy, Cliff Edwards, Anita Perras, Tim Taylor, Gerry Allard, Bruce Golden, Terry Kelly, Marie Bottrell and the Opry North Band. The date is in conjunction with Quinte Summer Music.

Gale & Kerr on the road

Country singer Norma Gale decided on her 40th birthday that she was fed up with playing the bar circuit and that it was time to hit the road. The Moncton native, who had become popular on the Toronto bar circuit set out on June 2nd to walk from Toronto to Nashville. She is being accompanied by 55-yr. old Ben Kerr, no stranger to the country music field, nor to marathon walking. Kerr made a trip from Toronto to Nashville in 1981, touting the Clean Air For Offices movement - he's against smokers. He gave an extra clout to his walk by releasing a single, Fire On One End (A Fool On The Other), on the Emphysema label. So successful was Kerr's walk - which took him into the heart of U.S. tobacco country, he continued to Los Angeles.

Besides curious onlookers the Gale/Kerr walk has attracted wide-ranging interest from the media - more TV/radio and newspaper interviews than Gale has experienced in her 25 years in the business.

Gale and Kerr expect to arrive in Nashville (950 miles from Toronto) on July 25.

MacLaren tribute to Steve Fonyo

Artie MacLaren recently spent some time in and around Vancouver working his show at the Sandman Inn and recording his song, He Runs For Love, a tribute to Steve Fonyo's Journey For Lives. The project was completed through the support of John Keegan of the International Academy of Music Society (I.A.M. Society), Bullfrog Recording Studio, and Rana Records of Vancouver. All rights to the project have been assigned the Canadian Cancer Society.

The single was written and produced by MacLaren. Lance Jackson, who looked after the acoustic and electric lead guitar work, brought in a number of West Coast session musicians, who all gave freely of their time and support for the project. Additional vocals were supplied by Anne Lord, Gary Fjellgaard, Peter Chipman, Tom Destry, J.R. Goodwin, Dez Bailey and Gerry Massop.

MacLaren had the honour of performing the song at the Cloverdale, B.C. reception for Fonyo (May 25).

Studio time for the single was donated by Bullfrog Studios. Engineering chores were shared by Bob Loud and Al Rempel. The single will be released on the Rana Label.

Coral single for McTaggart

Stew and The Country Crew have a new single on the Coral label - Sex Is For Saturday Night. According to the release, the song "represents the voice of a working man in his struggle for a place in the new world of liberated and very demanding woman." Stew (Stew McTaggart) is the owner of Plaza Amusements, booking spots Ontario-wide for his carnival and amusement rides. In the fall, he plans to incorporate a live country show on an enclosed trailer. The single qualifies as 4 parts Cancon.

Sean Eyre to CKQM Country

"Sunshine" Sean Eyre, a veteran of 27 years in country music, has moved to CKQM Country 105 in Peterborough from CKLY Linsay. Sean was; 16 years at CHEX in Peterborough and 8 years at CKLY. His move back to Peterborough took place July 12. Might be nice to drop a line of congratulations at P.O. Box 177, Peterborough, K9J 7H5. He'd love to hear from everyone.

New Trainor single from Oasis

Frank Trainor is on release with his debut Oasis single, You Sure Didn't Waste Any Time. The song was penned by Trainor and PRO affiliate Bruce Fiddament. Trainor recently learned that another of his songs has been published in Nashville by Ensign Music/BMI through producer Nelson Larkin. Apparently 5 more Trainor compositions are under consideration. Promo on You Sure Didn't Waste Any Time is being handled by Marigold Productions.

Rocky Mountain Inn scores internationally

Rocky Mountain Inn, jointly produced by the Calgary Television Centre and YNG of Nashville represents the first time a country music series has attained international syndication in the first year of production.

Distribution for 26 half-hour episodes hosted by Ronnie Prophet has been firmed through the Calgary Television Centre (Canada), Nashville's Eagle Media (U.S.) and London's Thames Television International (all other markets).

Says YNG's Chuck Glaser: "I'm very excited about Rocky Mountain Inn because it is moving in an innovative direction for country music and music programming in general. We've combined live performances, exclusive interviews, and world premiere concert videos in an imaginative half-hour format. Country music is going through a recession with record and concert ticket sales down, while rock 'n' roll is enjoying a renaissance credited largely to conceptual videos." He concludes with "I see Rocky Mountain Inn as one long conceptual video which will satisfy current country music fans as well as exposing a new, younger audience to today's country music."

The series is set in "a rustic hunting lodge nestled in the Canadian Rockies" which has been converted into a thriving country music club. Pre-production for the 1986-7 season has begun, with production slated to begin this fall.

BOOKS

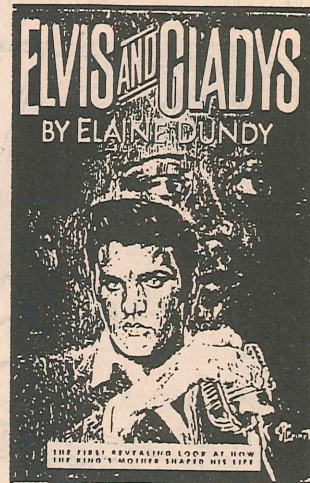

ELVIS AND GLADYS

Elaine Dundy

350 Pages - $26.95 (HB)

Collier MacMillan Canada - Toronto

Not another book on Elvis Presley, whose life must now have been booked to death? Yes, but authoress Dundy has taken a completely different approach - Presley's maternal line. Dundy has researched the lines of both Presley's parents, perhaps too far back because the players become legion, and unless you are a student of the U.S. Revolution or Civil War... or following the lives of "Southern white trash" you might find the first part a little hard to take, however important it is to the beginning of Elvis Presley.

Never a fan of Elvis Presley I found delight in Dundy's discovering that one of the first so-called country professionals that figured Presley as a "no talent" was Presley's hero, Carvel Lee Ausborn (Mississippi Slim), who was quoted as saying "The kid (Presley) can't keep time". Presley was 8 at the time and Mississippi Slim may have been guilty of professional jealousy.

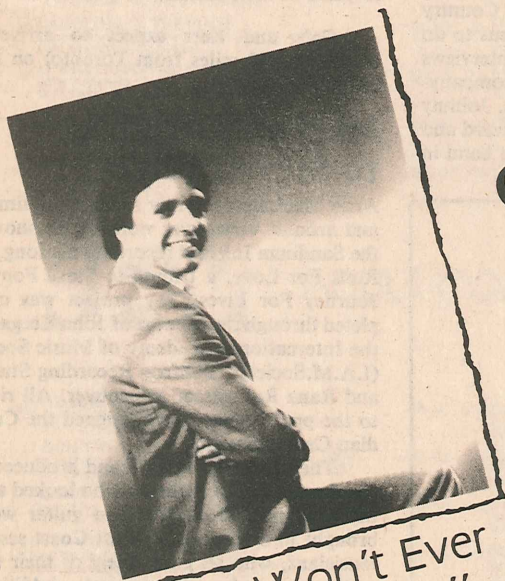

There's a lot of meaty stuff here. Elvis making his first buck ($5.00) winning 2nd prize at the Mississippi-Alabama Fair and Dairy Show in September of 1945; discovering that his first instrument was the piano; his early vocal teachings through the "sol-fa" (sometimes called fa-sol) system. Elvis preferred to work with "ear musicians, not sheet musicians" in his recording sessions.

Gladys was a great influence on her son Elvis and kept him on the straight and narrow until Colonel Tom Parker entered the picture. Dundy appears to revel in the fact that Parker's first claim to fame was that of "The Dogcatcher of Tampa". Parker (real name Andreas Cornelius van Juijk) entered the U.S. illegally in 1929, but somehow, managed to avoid any difficulty and assumed the name Tom Parker. He was later given the honorary "Colonel" title by Louisiana Governor Jimmy Davis. The intrigue here is deadly. There is also the Canadian connection with Hank Snow claiming to be the first to introduce Elvis to RCA, through a partnership he had with Parker - and it sounds pretty legitimate.

It's sad to learn that Elvis' mother never really enjoyed the perks that came with having a son who became a phenomenon of the century. The millions just created a misery for her that must have been unbearable. "Oh, God, why can't we be poor again?" she pleaded.

Dundy also touches on Presley's near encounter with Sam Phillips (Sun Records) and the final realization by Phillips that he was face to face with what he was looking for "a white boy who had the Negro sound and the Negro feel" - and that was the beginning of Elvis Presley.
