UB40 - TAKING A CLASSIC TO THE TOP

UB40 are quickly building the Sonny and Cher classic, I Got You Babe, a smash of the mid-60's into a national hit. The Virgin single entered the RPM 100 singles survey at No. 74 with a bullet (Aug. 31) and has all the earmarks of becoming one of the fastest moving chart items of the year. The single was taken from the mini-album, Little Baggariddim, a North American exclusive, which entered the RPM 100 at No. 83 with a bullet, the week of its release - Aug. 31.

UB40 are a British pop band hailing from the working class communities of south Birmingham in the West Midlands of England. The area being multi-cultural and having a strong reggae influence, provided the group with the background to the music that has now come to dominate their lives.

In 1979, UB40 signed to an independent label - Graduate Records - based in Birmingham. Their first single release on the label took them into the Top 5 in the U.K. Their current release I Got You Babe, recorded with Chrissie Hynde of the Pretenders, is No.1 in the U.K. Their relationship with Hynde goes back to the days when UB40 were playing gigs in London and were spotted by the Pretenders, who asked them to support them on their tour. With this exposure UB40 had 2 more hit singles on Graduate, as well as the debut album Singing Off, which remained on the charts for over a year.

Towards the end of 1980, their contract with Graduate having expired, UB40 formed their own label Dep International and in May of 1981 released Present Arms and its debut single Slow Down. This release garnered tremendous chart action, and as a result UB40 emerged as one of Britain's top new bands for the 80's. They subsequently released One In Ten which joined Slow Down on the charts in November.

Following their Present Arms LP, they spent 1981 and 1982 touring through Britain, U.S., Europe, Australia and New Zealand and released UB44. With a legion of new fans UB40 achieved considerable success with this album which became their first North American release.

Other albums released in this period were UB40 1980-1983, a compilation album released in the U.S. and UB40 Live (recorded during their tour of Ireland in 1982), which was released in both Canada and the U.S. in February of 1983. It was in 1983 when UB40 signed a worldwide distribution and licensing agreement with Virgin Records, followed by the release of the highly successful Labour Of Love LP.

Labour Of Love had been a project of UB40's since their formation. They believed that reggae tunes they had grown up listening to could become pop hits if presented to a

Canadians just want to listen to good music

Chrysalis recording artists, The Adventures, are currently on tour with Tears For Fears and after the recent release of their self-titled LP, RPM spoke with Steve Tennant Production Manager, Chrysalis Records, about that release in Canada. Obviously there are many bands faring much better today in Canada, than in America, and because of this: Are record companies today trying to break a band in Canada first? "Yes, but this is really nothing new" states Tennant, "look back to Supertramp or Genesis, and it's working well for the Adventures early on in their release schedule."

Tennant adds, "Sometimes you have to. There are just some records that fare much better here and Tears For Fears would be a prime example," to which he expands, "I didn't think the U.S. would help us to break the act. In fact, I thought the U.S. would be looking to Canada to take a shot first."

Commenting on the suggestion of a trend, Tennant replies: "It's not so much a trend - it's the uniqueness of the Canadian market. There is a certain overlap of North American sound here but considering the French population and their somewhat unique musical tastes, combined with the English and European populations, our musical needs are just that....unique." He continues with, "I don't think the English Invasion has ever gone away. It's been going on ever since the Beatles arrived! Sure there are peaks and valleys but it's always been here and it's certainly incredibly strong now."

A variety of English groups have had difficulty breaking the tough U.S. market.

MUSEXPO & IMV to hold seminars

MUSEXPO '85 and IMV '85 (International Music Video) festivals are being run concurrently Oct. 16 through 18 at London England's Kensington Exhibition Centre at which will be featured seminars dealing with various music-oriented topics.

The IMV seminar program will include a panel session on Music Video Programming and distribution. This will cover all aspects of cable, satellite and broadcast TV programming and distribution. This will also include the marketing of music video-cassettes to the retail and consumer level. Another seminar, Video Production and Creation, will encompass various aspects from the storyboard to the finished product, including creation, direction, production and new technologies.

A MUSEXPO seminar covering the International Music scene will discuss music, heavy metal, rock promos, as well as artist development. There will also be a second seminar dealing with today's multi-media home entertainment market and licensing aspects. This seminar will work under the title of Home Entertainment: Music, Video, Cable and Satellite.

Further information on MUSEXPO and IMV '85 may be obtained by contacting Ireen Avidan or Cathy Bloom, International Trade & Exhibitions Ltd., 553/579 Harrow Road, London W10 4RH, U.K., or by calling 01-968-4567.

Tennant pointed out that Supertramp wasn't noticed until their Breakfast In America LP and Ultravox never broke in the U.S. although achieving phenomenal success in Canada. But what about Canadian groups influenced by the techno-pop sound? Tennant cited The Spoons as an example, "They haven't had as much success in America but were extra-ordinarily successful in Canada, I don't know what it is...maybe it's our heritage. Maybe it's just the fact that Canada is more willing to accept music from other parts of the world, where the U.S. is a little more chauvinistic in their musical tastes. Whereas Canadians just want to hear good music and they don't care where it's from."

Chrysalis experimented with Cancon earlier this year with the signing of Refugee, a group that quickly established itself on the national scene. "Their latest release ran into a scheduling problem in the U.S.," Tennant explains, "They never got the proper support we thought we'd get. People up here were looking south of the border for something to happen and when it didn't we basically had to run with it alone." He went on to explain, "It was just a matter of incredible amount of superstar product that came out this summer. Between that and the onslaught of outstanding Canadian product, Refugee ran into trouble." Tennant however is optimistic about the group's future. "There aren't too many artists who come out with one album and break big. Tennant concludes with "We see Refugee as a long term commitment - they're an outstanding band and their day is coming very shortly."

Virgin moves to A&M for distribution

Oct. 1st will be A&M Day for the Virgin label which recently pacted a distribution deal for Canada. Virgin was previously distributed by PolyGram.

The move wasn't an easy one for Virgin's Canadian president Bob Muir, who had worked closely with the PolyGram people since becoming president of Virgin's Canadian operation. PolyGram had distributed Virgin product for 7 years and Muir credits much of Virgin's success to the aggressiveness of PolyGram's promotion network which fostered and developed the label over the years.

The move to A&M completed the A&M/Virgin North American connection. A&M in the U.S. handles several of Virgin's top acts: Simple Minds, UB40, OMD and Blue Nile. Key for the official launch (Oct. 1) will be albums by Friction Factory and Philip Oakey and Giorgio Moroder, plus a mid-October release of a Simple Minds LP. Coming up in the New Year will be the release of the long-awaited Culture Club LP.

By the time of the switch to A&M Muir expects UB40 to be on top of the heap. Their single release, I Got You Babe, entered the RPM 100 singles chart at No. 74 with a bullet (Aug. 31) and this week it's expected to top the U.K. charts.

Fanfare's second year boosted with new releases

Fanfare, a production and label house for Cancon classical recordings, celebrates its 2nd year of operation with a flurry of recording activity and releases.

New product being readied for the fall and winter buying season include releases by the Toronto Symphony's Andrew Davis; flautist Jeanne Baxtresser; and contralto Maureen Forrester. These releases will be added to the already scheduled material featuring cellist Ofra Harnoy and the Armin Strings (Beatles II), Conductor Erich Kunzel and the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra (Kunzel On Broadway), and a unique Christmas album featuring Paul Freeman conducting the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, the Chicago Synthesizer ensemble and singer Anne Mortifee entitled The Christmas Connection.

Says Fanfare's Production Coordinator, Mary Secord, "As Fanfare enters into its second year of operation, the basic philosophy of recording established classical artists is unique crossover material as well as in more traditional fare will remain unchanged." She concludes with "As in the past, releases will be issued simultaneously in the U.S. and Canada, with European issuance scheduled shortly thereafter."

Attic readies mini-LP from Body Electric

The new Body Electric LP, Two Worlds, a 5-song mini-LP, was produced by Bill Henderson of Chilliwack with Bob Rock of the Payolas looking after engineering chores. Release date is expected for late September or early October. Do You Think They Can Tell is the expected first single from the LP.

The B.C. group is now 4-piece with drummer Ross Friesen becoming a permanent member. He had laid the drum tracks for the band on their recordings.

Lead vocals for Body Electric are now being handled by David Sinclair, with keyboardist Frank Ludwig, the previous lead singer, still continuing to contribute some vocals. Keyboardist Bob Buckley is the other member of the band.

Canadian dates are in the works to support the album release.

WALT SAYS

It is better to give and receive!!

David Foster is a very talented guy. No one will take that away from him, and when it comes to being honoured for his work on Tears Are Not Enough, David decided that the Prime Minister should receive the award and David would present it to the PM and the people of Canada. Really a good promotion - well thought up. As I said before, he is a very talented guy (EC: And a Canadian to boot!!)

This Evita has heart . . . !!

Having seen Evita, twice in New York, I was more than interested in the road show which opened at Toronto's O'Keefe (Aug. 28). The Globe's Deirdre Kelly found that "This Evita has no heart." From where I was sitting, I found that this Evita did, indeed, have heart. In fact Evita will never die - last night Florence Lacey brought her back to life. Lacey was in excellent form, both vocally and physically and I found that she was a much more believable Evita than her predecessors. R. Michael Baker, who played Che Guevara, the "watchdog" of the Peronista rape of Argentina, was exceptional in this role - exceptionally convincing. The after-the-show party was nice too.

... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership.

An Aussie in a Russian car . . . ?

Did you hear about that record person, Australian by birth, whose initials are P.V., who was caught speeding on the 401 in his Lada (EC: An Australian driving a Russian car . . . ?) When the police checked his driver's permit, which was issued in the Land of Oz, they became suspicious, and when they found the "quarantine" sign on the back of his car . . . they hustled our P.V. off to the hospital. How the "quarantine" sign got on his car is another story, and you'll have to ask A.H. about that one. In the meantime, there's no word about the release of our Australian friend from hospital. The police say a quarantine period could last up to 14 days . . . and what about all those records in his trunk . . . ?

Country music vs Canada

A new paper that is looking into government assistance to the country music industry in Canada is yet another study of the industry by a department that spends all its money internally studying every aspect of the industry. What we need is a study of the people who are doing the studies with a view that more money be put into doing studies on radio, records, country music and industry associations that get handouts. (EC: Let's name some names . . . right here!!)

Dear Walt Dept.

Every so often, I would like to answer one of the letters I get from my many readers (And fans) and this week, I offer this: Dear Walt, I have just released another single and I hear in the business that it helps to get a chart listing in RPM if you buy an ad. Is it true? (signed) Confused country artist. Dear Confused, It is true that it helps to let the trade know that you have a record released and what better place to make it known than a weekly that goes to every radio station in Canada and is probably one of the strongest forces in getting to programmers in Canada. You are wise to realize that - and obviously with a good promotion campaign - your record will get on the chart in RPM. Where else would you advertise (signed) "I can't be bought Walt" P.S. A bad record won't get you airplay or chart listings even if you buy 20 pages in RPM!

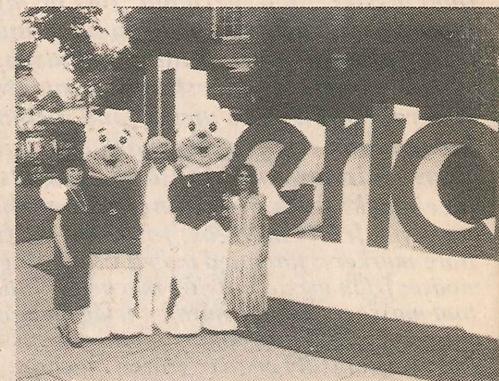

Copa celebrates anniversary!!

What a contrast - one year later - when the Copa got its . . . affairs together to throw an anniversary party. One year ago, the place would rate on a scale of 10 as unrateable. Now they have made some sharp moves and as far as promotion and panache is concerned they rate very high. Sorry I couldn't stay for more of the celebration, but as a national gossip writer I had to go on to other things. I pushed past John Burgess (EC: John who?) and on to 2 other parties. What a life!!

Now that's a real mayor!!!

Speaking of the Copa, a trendy, yuppie-type dance emporium located in or near the heart of Toronto - a group of concerned (the older type) citizens banded together in an attempt to rid "Toronto the good" of this "noise factory". City Council was more than interested because, after all, wasn't Toronto the city of churches and morally-perfect citizens? After heated arguments at council meetings, Art Eggleton "the mayor of all the people" (in Toronto that is). The mayor has appealed to Copa's patrons to "live and let live" continuing with "if patrons leaving the Copa don't yell and shout and do things that wake up and irritate the neighbours, they aren't going to be agitated at the club." Just to make sure the Copa patrons take the mayor's suggestion seriously, there's a couple of well-placed cruisers in the area - and if they hear screeching tires . . . they come running with their breathalyzer kits.

We have been told that the CBC DIDN'T take a pass on televising the country awards in Edmonton, as reported in a recent column. Al Kates and Sylvia Tyson write to tell me that I was "dead wrong". They claim it was Telefilm Canada who scuttled the project. Obviously, without the financing of this fund, CBC wasn't anxious to go it alone, and took a pass on the awards show. It's good to know when you're wrong. The awards will not be televised! (EC: Who can you believe anymore???)

RECORDS TO RADIO

The audience outshines experts

by Lesley Soldat
National Promotion Manager
- MCA Records Canada

On Monday August 19, New Edition performed at Kingswood Theatre at Canada's Wonderland. Although Mr Telephone Man and Cool It Now were huge hits in the U.S., Canadian radio had really been cool towards towards their music, playing it only when they had achieved Top 5 crossover status in the U.S. Comments were always "We're playing it, but it sounds horrible" and it soon dropped off their charts.

Meanwhile, TV played their videos quite a bit and reported that there were always good calls and the videos were like a breath of fresh air.

We sold 30,000 albums and felt that considering the lack of airplay and lack of a large black population in Canada we had done a good job.

To our delight, we found out that Kingswood had sold all their reserved seats (5,000 - 6,000) a few weeks before the show, and with a little luck, walk up would be good and it would be a very respectable show.

So the 19th arrives, the band does interviews with City-TV, CBC-TV and CTV. I get to the show at 8:00 P.M. and notice that the place is filling up nicely. I go backstage and hang around until the band goes on. At 9:00 P.M. I walk up front and, wow my head was ripped from my shoulders by one of the most deafening and frenzied crowd roars I have ever heard. Low and behold the place is jammed, and when I say jammed, I mean two people to each seat and someone sitting on their shoulders.

I looked around thinking that every black person in Toronto must be attending this show - Wrong Again - 70 percent were white and 30 percent black ranging from 5 to 35 years old. The audience sang along with every song and outshouted any audience I have ever seen including Tina, Duran Duran, etc.

I walked around to find that Kingswood was sold to capacity and were turning people away at the gate.

I can only conclude that although we don't have a large black population in Canada, and we don't have any black radio stations, there is a huge and very active audience lusting after black music in Canada. I'm thrilled to report that 15,000 people turned up to watch this band. Needless to say, these are impressive numbers, but more important than that, this show confirmed my belief that New Edition has a very special magic that Canadians react very strongly to. Radio should take this into consideration when it comes to playing black music - your audience loves it.

Which brings me to my second point. Ready For The World is a new black act on MCA Records that we are currently working. Their single, Oh Sheila has crossed from Black to CHR charts. We have adds out of the box on CHED, CKOI, CKGM, CHOI, CJMF and CKMF-FM. Radio reports Oh Sheila lights up the phones immediately. It's a must for CHR radio.

Tina Turner single fuels success for Mad Max

The Mad Max Beyond Thunderdome soundtrack is rocketing up the RPM 100 on the strength of the enormous comeback of soul singer Tina Turner. Her latest single, We Don't Need Another Hero, which was produced by Terry Britten, has quickly moved to the top of the RPM singles chart (Aug. 31) after only 8 weeks of charting.

The Hero track is one of 2 Turner cuts on the 6-track set. The other, One Of The Living, produced by Mike Chapman, may be issued as the second single from the album. No decision has been made at time of writing.

Tina herself co-stars in the motion picture alongside Mel Gibson who has been fronting the Mad Max series of movies. Turner's appearance in the film has further boosted the singer's profile.

Meanwhile, Turner's comeback album, Private Dancer, from which several hit singles were taken, is now nearing the 7 times platinum mark in Canada (700,000 units sold). The LP has been on the RPM 100 for 65 weeks.

wider audience. The first single was Red Red Wine (previously released by Neil Diamond) which was a worldwide success and topped the RPM 100 singles chart on February 18th, 1984. The single sold in excess of 50,000 which gave it gold status, as a result of the success of the single their debut LP for the label went platinum (excess of 100,000 units).

Geoffrey Morgan, their second Virgin LP was recorded at their own Abattoir Studios in Birmingham in 1984. The album contained all new material, and led to another extensive tour across North America and Europe.

UB40 is currently on release with Little Baggariddim with the smash multi-format hit I Got You Babe accompanied with a video directed by Jonathan Demme (of Talking Heads, Stop Making Sense). The LP was produced by 'Pablo' Falconer and was also recorded at the band's Abattoir Studio.

Although UB40 just recently finished dates at the Kingswood Theatre, Virgin's Merck Mercuriadis explains "there are more Canadian dates tentatively scheduled for the fall".

Mercuriadis also describes the initial reaction to I Got You Babe as: "Fantastic - it's been added everywhere across the board... it's going to be a big smash." The album also includes a newly arranged and recorded version of One In Ten, as well as two new songs Hip Hop Lyrical Robot, and Mi Spliff.

Orbison cancels Imperial Room date

What was expected to be one of the highlights of the year for the Royal York's Imperial Room (Toronto) has turned into a big disappointment. The Roy Orbison date of October 9th through 19th has been cancelled. "These things happen," says Gino Empry, one of North America's most powerful promoter/publicists. "We don't know for sure whether Orbison has extended his Australia date or is going into the studio for a recording session. All that matters, of course, is the fact that he has cancelled."

Gino Empry

Orbison is currently on release with Wild Hearts, which he co-wrote with Will Jennings, and which was co-produced by Jennings and Dave Briggs. The single was released on the Island label and his Toronto date would have been important promotion for this release. Empry was quick to fill in the Or-

Major RCA push for Live Hall & Oates

The much-awaited Daryl Hall & John Oates' Live At The Apollo, expected to be released sometime early next month, is to be backed by an extensive national marketing campaign by RCA.

The album was recorded in May of this year to celebrate the re-opening of the legendary Apollo Theatre, which had traditionally featured many of the most popular black acts in the business over the years. The album was produced by Hall & Oates and Bob Clearmountain.

The first single taken from the album, is a medley of The Way You Do The Things You Do, and My Girl. Former Temptation members David Ruffin and Eddie Kendrick guest on this session. An interesting side note is the concert date for Kendrick and Ruffin at bison dates with Brenda Lee from October 7 through the 12th and King Creole & The Coconuts, from Oct. 14 through 19th. The latter are currently on release with their Endicott single on the Sire label distributed by WEA. The single was taken from their album, In Praise Of Older Woman And Other Chimes, both of which are expected to become hot chart items over the next couple of weeks.

"I book groups into the Imperial Room on instinct, and I believe I have a pretty good one," says Gino Empry. His instinct has resulted in capacity houses for the internationally-known Imperial Room, which has, over the years, changed their music policy through Empry's insistence - and brought a new crowd of young dinner club enthusiasts to the room. "I talk to people from around the world practically every day," says Empry. "They supply me with leads, which I follow up with my contacts in the North American record industry. There are sometimes when even I question my decision about a certain act, but I go for it and my instinct has paid off more often than Toronto's Copa on Sept. 10 - a CPI Production.

The 12" version contains the additional tracks of Get Ready and Ain't Too Proud To Beg. A video is also being readied for release.

RCA's marketing push will be timed with the release of the concert special which was filmed as well as recorded. The special is set to air Sept. 15 on MuchMusic.

Other tracks included on the album are Possession Obsession, Adult Education, One On One, I Can't Go For That, When Something Is Wrong With My Baby, plus Everytime You Go Away. The latter was written by Daryl Hall and recently became a hit for Paul Young.

Live At The Apollo marks the second live LP from the duo.

Empry's fall lineup for the Imperial Room is a mix of nostalgia which should keep the big room on top of the heap as a world class entertainment draw.

Toni Tennille kicks off the fall schedule from Sept. 16 to the 21st, followed by the McGuire sisters (24 to 28), Pia Zadora (Sept. 30 to Oct. 5), Brenda Lee (7 to 12), King Creole & The Coconuts (14 - 19), Lola Falana (Oct. 23 - Nov. 2nd), Peggy Lee (4 - 9), Peter Noone with guest star Leslie Gore (11 - 16), The Lettermen (18 - 23) and B.J. Thomas (25 - 30).

Peter Noone, one of the big stars of the British Invasion during the 60's as leader of Herman's Hermits, will be in Canada on a promotion tour a month before his Imperial room date.

BOOKS

THE BEACH BOYS SILVER ANNIVERSARY John Milward $19.95 (PA) - $46.95 (HB) Doubleday Canada - Toronto

Not unlike a marriage, the silver anniversary of The Beach Boys is one of euphoria, celebration, complexities, and tragedy. And, like many marriages, life somehow struggles on. It was in December of 1961 when The Beach Boys - brothers Brian, Dennis and Carl Wilson, Mike Love and Al Jardine, first brought the real meaning of "fun, fun, fun - in the California sun" to what would be millions who would eventually catapult them into stardom. Their vehicle was Surfin' - the beginning of a shaky, and sometimes fun existence. Author Milward takes his readers from that time era through to the dumping of U.S. Secretary of the Interior James Watt, who claimed in 1984, that 'The Beach Boys would attract an 'undesirable element' to the 4th of July festivities on the Washington D.C. Mall.' Out of it came a political foothold for the Beach Boys through fellow Californians, Ronnie and Nancy Reagan - the following year - the same year that Dennis died tragically.

Surviving 25 years in the business without a hit song since the 1966 release of Good Vibrations is, to say the least, incredible. The Beach Boys, of course, was Brian Wilson, who tapped the "madrigal-church music of the Middle Ages - music written for three or more voices, usually without instrumental accompaniment." Drugs however, entered the picture and the big loser was really Brian. Said producer Phil Spector: "I think he (Brian) got caught in a trap with 'Good Vibrations'. He became a prisoner instead of a poet!"

There is also the folly of the different record companies who released product by the Beach Boys. Shocking to discover that some of their product is not available - and Milward explains why.

A timely release for the Silver Anniversary as the Beach Boys score with their recently released Getcha Back single, released on the Caribou label.

his latest LP release, Boy In The Box. The LP is presently in the Top 20 of U.S. trade charts, with his Never Surrender single vying for the top slot. After wrapping up his current Canadian tour, Hart is expected to begin an extensive U.S. tour this fall and on its completion will be shooting the video for his newest single, Boy In The Box, in England. He will then tour Europe and Japan.

Cassettes show increase again

Comparison sales figures for 1984 and 1985, up to and including June, were released by CRIA. Although these figures indicate a decline in the net value of sales for records of 10 percent, from $65,394,083 to $58,907,211; they alternately indicate that the sales of cassettes rose from $56,510,232 to $62,694,253, an increase of 11 percent.

Helix tour dates set

Helix, Capitol recording act, whose most recent LP release, Long Way To Heaven, shipped gold (May 27), is now on a short tour of Canada which will be followed by a more ex-

We'll show no album before its time - Zayac

Paul Young, Bruce Springsteen, Platinum Blonde, WHAM, Gowan and Bob Dylan: what do these successful recording acts have in common, besides enjoying RPM Top 30 status? They're all signed to CBS - which is just the tip of the iceberg. Add to this The Rolling Stones, Mick Jagger, Loverboy, Michael Jackson, Men At Work and The USA For Africa project - to name just a few more.

The lobby walls of the CBS offices are a myriad of gold, platinum and diamond, reflecting the sales power of the above acts. Kim Zayac, Manager of National Promotion for CBS, when asked what makes a million seller, quoted the renowned pundit, Steve Martin. "When he was asked how to get a million dollars and pay no taxes - his answer was 'First you have to have the million dollars'." And Zayac's answer to what makes a hit? "A Hit, is a hit, is a hit."

Changes in radio formats have stirred interesting debates lately. Says Zayac, "Take the A/C stations . . . there are actually 2 types now. First there is the A/C station that plays beautiful music - and there's the A/C station playing Top 40 and gold." He continues with "The yuppie-ization of AOR will burn itself out in 6 to 8 months. There really aren't a lot of young, urban professionals driving around in their Porsches - or drinking wine with their wives or mistresses by their jacuzzis in their 9,000 sq. ft. houses. But there are a lot of people who do have jobs - who work in factories - or even salesmen - who go home, crack a beer and watch the game."

Continuing, Zayac says "Long gone are the days when you'd invite the guys over to your place to listen to the new Mott The Hoo-ple LP. Now, it's 'C'mon over and let's watch videos.' The AOR stations will have to revert back to their hardened stance and try to re-tap that lost market of baby boomers."

With such successful acts as Platinum Blonde, Gowan, and the newly released Loverboy LP, Zayac was asked what he attributed this immediate success to. "Talent, tensive coast to coast tour of both Canada and the U.S. in November. They are scheduled for the Winnipeg Arena (Aug. 26), followed by Thunder Bay's Fort Williams Gardens (27), Memorial Gardens in Sault Ste. Marie (28), North Bay's Memorial Arena (29), Montreal's Pierre Fond Arena (30), and the CNE Grandstand in Toronto (31). Coming up is their video, The Kids Are All Shakin', directed by Rob Quartly of Champagne Pictures.

Toronto's Diamond Club recently unveiled its Licensed Establishments Against Drinking and Driving program. Among the invited guests were many teenagers - potential offenders - whom the Diamond hoped they could get the message across to. As well as the various speakers, Honeymoon Suite and Red Letter provided the musical entertainment. The program also included installing a breathalyser machine in the lobby and the launching of the Designated Driver program, sponsored by the Hiram Walker distillery.

timing and luck," was his answer. Timing is essential, according to Zayac who reveals that "We held onto Gowan for 4 months and Platinum Blonde for 2 - even with a tour pending - before releasing product. We said 'sure you could sell out a few venues on the strength of your debut', but we asked whether they really wanted to waste the LP."

Success is obviously relative as Zayac explains, "Til Tuesday and Mi Sex were successful, maybe not commercially, but certainly for us. They had good debut LPs that served as introductions to the industry. However, a Madonna song is like a beer - finish one and 'hey, want another?' But if I were at Warner Bros, I'd appreciate it. Sure, we have our breadwinners like Bruce Springsteen and REO Speedwagon who are constantly able to pump out the hits. However, we do have 119 other acts that we work equally hard on over the year."

With times and radio formats changing Zayac was asked how CBS adjusts - or does radio adjust CBS? "Well, for example," explains Zayac, "a few years ago, just after Boston released their debut LP and radio said 'this is it', every A&R man went out and signed at least 3 Boston-clone bands because that's what would sell. We feel that radio no longer dictates what a hit is."

"We're the ones who sit in a bar, listening to a band and say 'hey, they're good'. Then we're the ones who spend the money to produce that group's first LP, and we're the ones who spend the money marketing that LP. We hit the streets, we approach retail and radio with new material . . . but if they want to say 'we broke so and so' then that's really okay because my purpose has already been served."

With Springsteen recently going diamond; Gowan releasing his 3rd single and Platinum Blonde quickly approaching No. 1 status, Zayac concludes, "You can paint any album and spray it with perfume, but eventually the perfume will wear off and the paint will dull. Put a piece of shit on the shelf and it'll sit there and stink."

Young increases stature with label involvement

by Gerry Young
President and Chief Operating Officer
Current Records

The Current Entertainment Corporation has a variety of interests in the entertainment industry. Current Records, our flagship operation formed in 1983, now has signed to the roster M²M, with a new album The World Is A Ball out in mid-September, along with Juno and CASBY award-winners, The Parachute Club, and a new band, Double Dare, featuring Andy McLean (formerly of the Tenants) and newcomer, Wendy Lands, which is slated to begin recording in late September in Toronto. Chris Barbosa and Mark Ligget (Shannon) will handle the production chores.

Current Sounds, our publishing division headed by entertainment lawyer, Joseph Fodor, handles such artist repertoire as The Parachute Club, Double Dare and the soundtrack from Yuppies, The Musical.

We have recently moved into video production, being actively involved with videos by the Parachute Club (Sexual Intelligence and the U.S. version of Rise Up) This involvement with our band's videos will continue to increase.

Gerry Young

Also in the works is a new management arm, Current Management, headed by myself to cope with the growing need for professional and personal management in this country as well as in the world marketplace. Already on board are M²M, The Parachute Club and Double Dare, and I'm actively looking at two or three new acts including Toronto's still unsigned Alta Moda, led by Molly Johnson and Norma Orenstein.

Current does not have any "label deal" as such with any particular distributor as witnessed by the fact that M²M and The Parachute Club are distributed by RCA, while Double Dare will be distributed by PolyGram upon release in the new year. At the same time, Sandi and the Sunsetz, a band from Japan that I am now repping to record companies, is close to signing with yet another distributor. This kind of "freedom of placement" ensures each band separate attention based on "their records," not some conglomerate deal between their indie label and distributor over a range of product.

Recently, I was signed by Peter Erdmann, President of PolyGram (Canada) to be A & R Consultant with the company, in which I hope to bring to them new acts in the coming months. The first act, under this arrangement is, of course, Double Dare. PolyGram and I hope and believe that my background of personal involvement with bands and their managements' problems will make me more accessible and credible to the acts and their representatives, compared to the A & R Directors from other companies.

On that note, it is important that I state a concern for future product coming out of Canada with regards to budgets. If we are truly looking to break a record internationally and compete on that level, it is imperative that we would provide big enough budgets for the album (producer fee, studio cost, extra technical facilities, enough time) or we are going to continually be shot down "the black hole" of anonymity on the international market. Too many albums in this country are being under-financed by record companies to ever have a hope of breaking internationally and therefore leads one to question why the act was signed in the first place - for Canadian content only? There are exceptions, of course, but I'm sure you radio programmers get the drift and probably agree. I know my mandate with PolyGram (and this has always been true with regards to Current Records) is to sign acts that will be commercially competitive in the international market place, and provide them with the tools to do so. Of course this must be followed up by strong marketing.

On a final positive note, Canadian acts are being taken a lot more seriously in the U.S. and Europe due to the recent foreign successes like Bryan Adams and Corey Hart in the U.S. and Lee Aaron, Bruce Cockburn and M²M in Europe.

If we act accordingly and stop thinking small, we can conquer the world - we have the talent to do it!

CJCL set to increase its coverage in October

Jim Kidd, Program Director for Toronto station CJCL, reports that the station will quadruple their signal coverage with the installation of a new tower on Toronto Island (Oct. 1). The station has been successfully increasing its listenership since adopting a Music Of Your Life format which took place in Sept. of 1983. Previous to that the station had an all-talk format and prior to that, carrying the call letters of CKFH, experimented with country and rock.

CJCL is now owned by Telemedia Ontario. Kidd, who was previously Program Director for CKEY Toronto, joined CJCL in February of last year.

"The decision to go to the Music Of Your Life format was based on marketing research," Kidd explains. "The station commissioned a research project which determined there was an opportunity for a format of this type. Originally, we were going to go country."

Kidd pointed up that the station's coverage of hockey and in particular baseball, with the success of the Toronto Blue Jays, has been a major contributor to the station's growing popularity. Music, of course, and their method of presenting it is what Kidd believes made the big difference.

"We're the only station in Toronto playing this kind of music," Kidd continues. "We look at these artists as the classic music of the '20s, not old music, but classic music. We've got the highest share of a Music Of Your Life station. We're really 2 stations - music and sports.

"We've got an audience all to ourselves these days," said Kidd, who noted that this happened when other local easy-listening stations made adjustments to their formats to more contemporary sounds.

Kidd also pointed up that the majority of CJCL's listeners are in the 35 to 64 age bracket. He would like to make it 30 and over. He acknowledges that some of the station's listeners are not those who grew up with the music, but who were introduced to it through their parents or the revival.

CJCL has commissioned a new study to find out just what percentage of their audience are new to this type of music, and how many grew up listening to the songs of that era. He admits that there will have to be adjustments made with their sound in the coming years with their current audience moving on.

"I see us moving in 3 to 5 year progressions whereby we'll be chopping off at the bottom end," he said. "There's going to have to be some tough decisions made."

CJCL listeners shouldn't be surprised in future to hear the early rock or pop of the late '50s and early '60s as the next Music Of Your Life.

CFOK boost local Rotary

On June 15, 1370 CFOK Radio (Westlock, Alta.) turned over their mikes to the local Rotary Club for 9 hours. The club's members manned the mikes, hosted the programs, played music and other various on-air activities, including selling the advertising for "their" day. Bob Berg, PD at CFOK explains that "There is a big push for a local recreational complex and indoor swimming pool, and with the funds raised designated towards that end, the Rotary Club, with the help of CFOK, took to the airwaves. After the day's smoke had cleared almost $10,000 had been raised - and all towards the new complex. That's quite an accomplishment, and we're overjoyed."

Radio 98 summer sounds

Radio 98, London, Ontario held various promotions this past summer which included broadcasting from the front of their building, hosted by morning man Peter Garland (that caused a minor traffic jam) holding conversations with Jim Weir who was flying overhead in a hot air balloon. Radio 98 also conducted a show from the Briarwood Inn that was the culmination of a contest and featured special guest, astrologer Robin Armstrong. Prizes given away throughout the night included a grand prize of a trip to London, England - which was won by Rosina Sutter - courtesy of Radio 98 and First Choice/Super Channel.

JOHN WAITE - Pop
Mask Of Smiles
Capitol - ST-17164-F

Waite's follow-up to his Capitol debut, No Brakes, should bring him chart action. Every Step Of The Way, taken as the first single, is making good moves up the RPM 100 singles survey. Produced by Waite and Stephen Galfas. Instrumental backing supplied by the No Brakes Band: John McCurry (lead guitar), Tommy Mandel (keyboards & synthesizers), Frank Larocca (drums), and Joey Vasta (bass). Background vocals on Ain't That Peculiar by Melanie X - a key track.

JOE STAMPLEY - Country
Still Be Loving You
Epic - FE-39960-H

Produced by Stampley and Jerry Kennedy, a veteran of 20 years in the business, Stampley takes a flyer with the Sam & Dave classic, When Something Is Wrong With My Baby, and comes up with what sounds like a hit. This will be the first single taken from the album. Also key are Earl Thomas Conley's When You Were Blue And I Was Green, and Lynn Anderson's If She Were Mine. All tracks are reminiscent of Stampley's big hit of the '60s, All These Things.

PAPA DOO RUN RUN - Pop
California Project
PolyGram - DG-20501-Q

Contains 15 Beach Boys covers, digitally recorded on a 32-track recorder by Papa Doo Run Run. Includes I Get Around, California Girls, and Surfin' USA. A major plus is the background vocals, supplied by Dean Torrence of Jan & Dean, and Mike Love of The Beach Boys - 2 original surfers and sound mechanics from the early '60s. Not much here really, unless you like nostalgic covers of the Beach Boys.

LAID BACK - Pop
Play It Straight
Sire - 92-52881-P

A unique talent from Denmark, this duo's debut for the Sire label is a follow-up to their self-titled LP which served to bring this pair to the attention of this major label. Laid back are Tim Stahl (vocals and keyboards), and John Guldberg (vocals, guitar). They produced at their own 24-track studio in Denmark guesting noted Danish musicians Frank Marstock (drums), and Jens Haack (sax). Mainly dance tracks, but original and innovative. Key are the title track and Ice Cream Baby, both written by Stahl and Guldberg.

THE ADVENTURES - Pop
The Adventures
Chrysalis - CHS-41488-J

An excellent production by Bob Sergeant, Steve Hargey and Garry Bell, of this U.K. band, based in London. Send My Heart has been taken as the first single. The band is currently on tour with Tears For Fears. Key are Love In Chains, and Feel The Raindrops.

RICK WAKEMAN - Pop
Silent Nights
President Records - P-7551-M

Wakeman's return to the studio late last year resulted in this package which features Rick Fenn on guitar. Impressive lead vocals by Gordon Neville, backed by Wakeman on keyboards, bassist Chas Cronk, and drummer Tony Fernandez. Sax on The Opera And The Dancer, a key track, provided by Bimbo Acock. Glory Boys, also key, has been taken as the first single. No graphic available.

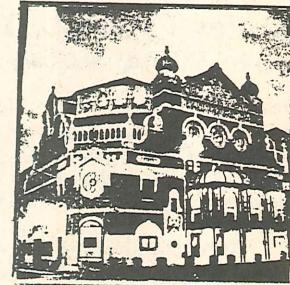

PROFESSOR LONGIAIR - Jazz/Blues
Rock 'n' Roll Gumbo
Dancing Cat Records - DC-3006-W

New Orleans R&B by Henry Roeland Byrd, considered a "key formative influence on classic '50s rock 'n' roll", and who died in 1980 at the age of 61. Contains 14 tracks, including an extra 2 and is an exceptionally fine tribute to this great talent. Original producer Phillippe Rault supervised the entire remix, pulling Fess' (as Mr. Byrd was known) piano talent front and centre. Promo-only singles of Meet Me Tomorrow Night, and Mardi Gras In New Orleans, have been serviced to dance clubs. Guest appearances by Texas bluesman Gate mouth Brown and New Orleans natives Jerry Jumonville and Steve Madao adds to the entertainment value in this package. Distributed by A&M.

MORAL SUPPORT - Pop
Insanity - T.G.O. - TGLP-002-N
Montreal-based Moral Support should make an impression with this 100% Cancon production by Moral Support's Sandro Durante and Richard Cranford. Key are Durante and Cranford's penning of Insanity and Chasing Rainbows. Not too much information on the group. Tour dates, including Toronto, are being pencilled in.

VAN MORRISON - Pop
Live At The Opera House In Belfast
Mercury - SRM-4116-Q
A live compilation LP recorded in March of 1983. Produced and directed by Morrison. Contains some of his finer works, including Beautiful Vision, Cleaning Windows and It's All In The Game.

Shotgun recording artists Linda Lee and G.W. Gator are currently on tour in the Maritimes promoting their latest single Your Memories On The Loose. Stops include St. John and Chatham New Brunswick, and then one week in Charlottetown before returning to Ontario for a stint in North Bay. Gator Records, a division of Shotgun, have announced the signing of Collingwood native Fred Higenell - more affectionately known as the Singing Sailor - and will release his single Sally Have A Heart this fall. Also veteran performer Wayne Mack will return to the studios this fall to begin work on his latest LP and will soon release a single The Heart Of Dixie. Mack and the Silver Handle Band are now touring Ontario and have scheduled a Western tour later this fall.

Laura Vinson and Red Wyng, her back-up band have released Good-Bye, a Vinson original on the Edmonton-based Royalty label. The session was produced by Red Wyng and R. Harlan Smith. Laura and her band have just come off a series of dates in Alberta and are now performing at the Alberta Pavilion at Toronto's CNE. Garry Baker has released one of his originals, Where The Humans Used To Live, on the Red Sun label. The session was produced by Norman Wm. Corbett but there is no studio information available. The single carries a full MAPL logo.

Young duets with Nelson

Willie Nelson must be the most called-on country artist in the business to do duets. His latest is Are There Any More Real Cowboys, a duet with Neil Young. This single was released on the Columbia label, and qualifies as 3-parts Cancon. Young, who at last report was still a Canadian, wrote the plug side, and of course he's a featured performer. The single is included on Young's Geffen LP, titled Old Ways, and is on Nelson's Columbia LP, Half Nelson.

Song material wanted

The Dallas-based Canyon Creek label is looking for song material, suitable for Audie Henry. Audie is currently moving up the RPM Country 60 with her Cancon single, Heaven Knows, which was produced at Toronto's Manta Sound by Canyon Creek's Bart Barton. Those songwriters who might have something of interest for Audie or Bart should send along a cassette to Bart Barton, Canyon Creek Records, P.O. Box 31351, Dallas, Texas. 75231.

New shows for Nashville Network

The latest acquisition by the Nashville Network (TNN) is a 1-hr. concert featuring Willie Nelson and Ray Charles. The special was taped before a live audience at the Austin Opera House, Nelson's own nightclub and marks the first time Nelson and Charles have shared the stage together. Featured will be the pair's only live performance of Seven Spanish Angels, which is included on Charles' Friendship album. There's no air date at time of writing, but it's expected the special will air as part of TNN's Homecoming celebration during Country Music Month in October.
