INXS - MOVING UP FROM DOWN UNDER

WEA recording act, INXS, are currently on release with their 5th LP entitled Listen Like Thieves. This album, produced by Chris Thomas, represents a change in direction for the group: they use a lot less synthesizer, with more emphasis on the traditional instruments and the result is an impressive rock'n'roll album. Listen Like Thieves made its debut on the RPM 100 albums chart a month ago, but continues to make "fabulous gains" at AOR, reports WEA Label Manager Kim Cooke. RPM spoke with INXS guitarist Tim Farriss via telephone, in San Francisco, where the band was about to embark on their North American tour.

The band's lineup has remained intact since their inception in 1978 and that, says Farriss, is why "getting songs together now is so much easier. It's becoming second nature for us, we can do it faster and faster - without going through all the hassles. Before, we would take 6 months off at a time, but nowadays, if we take 6 months off it won't be to write."

The impact of veteran producer Thomas (notable for his work with Elton John, Sex Pistols and The Pretenders) helped the band overcome one of their previous problems of reproducing recorded material on stage. Farriss explains: "When we came out of the studio with Swing and tried to play it on stage, we realized it was going to take a little bit longer than we'd bargained for. So, we were sitting backstage in Japan and we said to Chris 'what would you do if you were to produce an INXS album?' and he replied 'I'd like you guys to sound on a record like you sound live'.

"On this album, it's like INXS walked into the studio and performed this record rather than walking into the studio and having it built or made. On most of the songs everything is played at the same time as the written track....so basically it's a live record."

He continues with "A lot of music I listen to on the radio these days, is either by duos or solo artists and there are few actual bands - except for Heavy Metal bands - doing the band thing. A lot of them rely heavily on technology...AMS and delay machines...whereas Chris isn't into that. He's into the real essence of the very instruments, which is why we tended to use the more traditional instruments; like organs, pianos and acoustic guitars. Now, we can just come out and play it straight away. It's great."

Their recordings have often drawn Stones-like comparisons and Listen Like Thieves was no exception but Farriss shrugs off these latest analogies and suggests that, in fact, "there is very little Stones influence in this band, apart from the fact that Andrew (Farriss, keyboards & guitars) likes most

Moffat goes public with plans for FM bid

Randall L. Moffatt, President of Moffat Communications, hosted a Toronto reception for the media where he presented plans for his bid for Toronto's new FM band (97.3). The reception, held at L'Hotel (Oct. 29) attracted more than 100 reps from the media and the advertising community.

Moffat was assisted by the company's Vice President, Radio, James McLaughlin, and National Program Coordinator Chuck McCoy.

The Moffat plan is for a "Beautiful Music radio station", and as McLaughlin told the gathering: "To our knowledge, we are the only radio license applicant that has gone public with its plans - this is a first." He went on to explain, "We are doing so for two very good reasons: We're absolutely certain that Beautiful Music is what Toronto wants, it's what the market will bear, and; Moffat Communications is the best applicant for the job."

Moffat commissioned the firm of Angus

Reid Associates to carry out research in the Toronto market. Their research revealed that "Torontonians in the 35-54 year-old age demographic want the most and have the least access to a Beautiful Music FM

Moffat's Chuck McCoy (r) and Jim McLaughlin at Toronto reception.

MIDEM '86 shaping as biggest event in history

MIDEM '86, the 20th such international record/videomusic event, is shaping up to be the largest attended conference in the festival's history. There is heavy emphasis on videomusic with directors of videomusic departments in recording companies being specially invited to attend. These people represent more than 100 major promoters of recording artists.

MIDEM's press contact, Patrick d'Humieres notes that "With record sales booming once more in the United States, a rebirth of music creation underway in England and other new countries, and a general confirmation everywhere of the strong demand for compact discs, economic indicators for the trade point to renewed musical growth, of which MIDEM '86 will be the symbol."

D'Humieres also reports that Sky Channel and Music Box have confirmed their presence at MIDEM, joining Vogue, Carrere, Conamus, and Chrysalis. As well Australian and Canadian companies have firmed stands along with WEA, who have signed for a 50 square meter stand. WEA are also planning to organize an important European conference during the MIDEM '86 time frame.

station." The research also revealed that this group represents "the largest gap in the marketplace - over 30 percent of the population of Toronto."

There are 5 organizations, including Moffat, applying for an FM license to operate a Beautiful Music station - as well as 15 additional applications before the CRTC for other formats. All applications have been Gazetted.

Platinum Blonde/Arrows to play Toronto benefit

Platinum Blonde, have set Dec. 6 for a benefit concert at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens. They will be joined by The Arrows for the show which will benefit the United Way.

"We are thrilled that Platinum Blonde has decided to donate all their proceeds from the Gardens show, carrying on a tradition established by Rush and other major Toronto acts," noted Ray Danniels, United Way Chairman for Sounds United '85.

The '85 United Way Campaign is running a little behind in public support and it's expected that with only a few weeks to go, the Platinum Blonde/Arrows concert will take the campaign over the top.

The concert will be a combined effort with all parties contributing their services. Continues Danniels, "Everyone's in. Harold Ballard has given the Gardens, Concert Productions International is giving their time, BASS is throwing in the ticket commissions and I.A.T.S.E. members are working the show for free."

Danniels concludes with "Doing a charity concert in Canada's most prestigious hall is a major financial sacrifice for any musical group, and the people of Toronto really appreciate your efforts."

CITY-TV's New Music expands news coverage

One of Canada's original TV music magazine shows, The New Music, will expand what MuchMusic Director of Music Programming John Martin describes as "its musical interests."

Martin goes on to explain that the New Music program "will examine the issues that the pop culture struggles with - such as teenage pregnancy, heroin abuse and high school illiteracy." The show will also feature Video Ga Ga, New Music news, and a retrospective to 5 years ago - a segment entitled The Old Music.

Daniel Richler (assisted by co-hosts Laurie Brown and Jeanne Beker) will anchor and produce the show. Also contributing on a weekly basis will be the MuchMusic news team and their regional correspondents. The show airs Saturdays at 8 pm and Sundays at 10:30 pm.

Brian Allen appointed Attic A&R Manager

Following the recent appointment of Brian Allen, former guitarist and songwriter for the group Toronto, to the position of Professional Manager and A&R Coordinator at Attic Records, RPM spoke to Label president Alexander Mair.

"We are confident that with the addition of Allen our present roster of Canadian acts will benefit greatly from his experience in the industry," explains Mair. He continues with "hopefully he will add that needed 10 percent improvement with his songwriting and recording abilities that some of our current acts lack."

In the near future Attic intends to increase that domestic roster. "Right now, we don't have a mainstream act like Bryan Adams. We're just not represented and we're looking in several areas." He concludes with "we're not going to increase our hard-rock roster...unless they're exceptional."

A&M distrib deal with American Gramophone

A&M Records have announced a distribution deal with American Gramophone Records of Omaha, Nebraska. The label features the classical rock recordings of Mannheim Steamroller.

The 14-album catalogue also comprises titles by keyboardist Jackson Berkey, guitarist Ron Cooley, and string player Eric Hansen. A&M will initially concentrate on the Mannheim Steamroller LP which is titled Christmas.

Canadian releases of the catalogue carry a suggested list of $18.98 for albums and $13.98 for cassettes. Chip Davis, American Gramophone founder explains: "We're using the Teldec compound pressings on 100 percent premium virgin vinyl. We're using a heavier 120 gram weight, because of a special die which creates a thicker than normal pressing that combats warpage. Also, rice paper inner-sleeves and 100-gauge plastic loose wrap."

WAT SAYS

Problems in the industry . . . ??

It's hard to believe that once a week we gave out figures that were used to compile a national chart and we were referred to as one of two TORONTO charts. Well . . . in an industry that at the best of times has a comprehension problem, I had to bring to the attention of these high-priced characters that ours is a NATIONAL chart and after 22 years, we feel that we have a pretty good feeling for the business and the industry does us honour in supporting our efforts. I then had to explain our sampling page. Well, what can I say? (EC: Only in Canada . . . you says!!!)

Company takes LOW profile . . . ??

Did the head of a certain company tell someone that they are doing so badly that they have decided to take a very low profile in the industry? I have news for them - they have next to no image in the industry or with the public - except that of a lame duck (EC: Nobody likes them you know . . . lately!!)

There haven't been too many offsprings of notable record industry people succeed in the business, but there are two I know of who have managed to make their dads proud.

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

A solution for country complainers!

It seems that after every Juno there's a lot of noise in the country camp about the unfairness of the voting procedures. I would like to ask just how many country people are members of CARAS . . . and I'll suggest there aren't too many. The complaint seems to be the $30. membership fee. Well, if you aren't a voting member . . . what do you expect?

It was different at home . . . !!

While the elite of the record industry and a bunch of hangerson were drinking French wines at the HCCC, the peasants at home were watching the Junos on their 14 inch TVs and drinking Kool Aid. I viewed the tape of the Junos and there was a great deal of good things you could say about the production - but let's look at some of the negatives. (EC: Let's Juno-bash!!!) The "smoking set" got a little irritating - even the Canadian Brass stood in a cloud - and the neons became monotonous!!! Can I influence someone at the CBC to design a set that changes, moves, floats, flies and astonishes the audience?? Hey guys, they do things in theatre productions that are unbelievable. You're living in the dark ages. (EC: No more dry ice and neons!!)

They must choke on their words!!

How nice it was to see a couple of the old OLD broadcasters nearly choking on their words as they were forced to heap praise on this year's Juno winners. I remember one of these "fading" voices who once described Canadian artists as "a bunch of parasites". He eventually lost his job. I think the CRTC slapped a couple of wrists. He ended up in television and he has obviously changed his attitude . . . for obvious reasons. These were the guys who always displayed that chip on their shoulder when it came to Cancon and they were the real stumbling blocks to us having a star system in place before now.

The Empire vs The Group!!!

I reported a couple of weeks ago that an

Joni Mitchell delivers first album in 3 years

WEA Music has shipped Dog Eat Dog, the 14th LP from Canadian singer-songwriter Joni Mitchell, her second on the Geffen label and representing her first album in 3 years.

The first single taken from the LP is Good Friends, a duet with Michael McDonald.

Also guesting on the LP which was co-produced by Mitchell, her husband Larry Klein, Thomas Dolby, and Michael Shipley, are Don Henley and James Taylor on background vocals; Dolby and Klein on keyboards and synthesizer programming, and Rod Steiger who does the spoken word part on the Tax Free track.

Mitchell, born in Fort MacLeod, Alberta and raised in Saskatoon, is expected to tour during February and March of next year.

Eastern Broadcasting empire had gone into receivership. Well, that empire consisted of one radio station . . . so be advised that the other GROUP is alive and well!!!

If the Juno don't do . . . !!!

If they don't do anything else they are teaching the CBC Variety people how to do a live awards presentation. All these years, and all the money and talent and finally it is beginning to look like something. We're getting there. (EC: At what cost to our industry??)

Mark my words . . . !!!

Once the Canadian country music awards people get their show on TV . . . if that ever happens . . . the Juno people will gladly get rid of the three country categories. The country people just didn't . . . become part of it!! (EC: Complaining expends a lot of energy!)

Get rid of the politics . . . !!

The Junos should shy away from politics. The show should be entertainment and not a political platform. Politics slow down the show. There are many who feel that David Foster should have accepted that big black award, and the show should have gone on. No more speeches and no more budget cuts to the arts and talk about free trade in the cultural arts! (EC: A lot of big and important noses are out of joint!!!)

Watch for that Siberry star . . . !!

Did you ever get that feeling when you listened to an artist that you believed you were listening to a future star? Well, I have that feeling about Jane Siberry. I'm not a musicologist, but I have a feeling that this young and exceptional talent is going to be one of the big voices in the international field.

New Easton album produced by Rodgers

Do You, Sheena Easton's latest EMI America LP, was produced by Nile Rodgers, who has worked with numerous hit artists. Capitol describes the LP as "Rodgers' craftiest production since David Bowie's album, Let's Dance."

Capitol has preceded the LP with the first single, Do It For Love. Also included on the LP are Kisses, Don't Break My Heart, Young Lions, Jimmy Mack, and When The Lightning Strikes Again.

RECORDS TO RADIO

A letter to Island from Dazed & Confused

by Lee Silversides
Vice-President Promotion
Island Records Of Canada LTD.

Dear Island Records;

I'm confused, as you know Christmas is fast approaching and, as always, I am in a quandary...I will once again be giving the gift of music but there is so much to choose from...could you make my life a little easier by recommending the albums, cassettes or CD's that every self respecting music lover should own.

Thank You
Dazed & Confused

Dear Dazed & Confused;

No problem...it would be my pleasure to present you with my recommendations of a vinyl nature for 1985:

1. The Waterboys This Is The Sea (ISL1058): One of the most musically invigorating albums of the year...Mike Scott and Company keep growing...the first single is: The Whole Of The Moon...this is an album that is a must to own...critically acclaimed from coast to coast.

2. Robert Palmer's Riptide (ISL1066): After his studio stint as the voice of the Power Station, Palmer's subsequent solo is nothing short of a musical masterpiece...newly released, Riptide runs the gamut of moods and emotions...old and new fans alike will be digging Discipline Of Love, Hyperactive, Addicted To Love and Trick Bag.

3. Tom Waits Rain Dogs (ISL1065): Like a fine wine, Tom Waits appeals to an audience with a select taste...he's never sounded better...as well, value for your money...nineteen tracks...almost an hour's worth of classic Waits...guest appearance from Keith Richards.

4. Grace Jones Slave To The Rhythm (STS3021): Whew, this one is hot...Grace...the album...the production...the video...will become an immediate dance classic...radio will follow...produced by Trevor (Frankie Goes To Hollywood) Horn...guaranteed to heat up any gathering of one or more persons under almost any conditions...well, almost any.

5. Durell Coleman (ISL1060): After his victory on NBC-TV star search, Durell released his self-titled debut in 1985...his voice will knock you out...another must own album...new single is: Run To Me...will appeal to all ages...not a weak track on this album.

6. Shriekback Oil & Gold (ISL1044): A powerful hypnotic sound from a group of musicians being touted as a high energy Talking Heads...check out: Fish Below The Ice (also available on 12" remix) and get ready to sweat...also recommend: Nemesis...this was a huge record at alternative radio.

7. Propaganda A Secret Wish (ISL1048): One of the most critically acclaimed new bands of 1985...from London by way of Germany, this synth/rhythm sound earned the band the moniker "Abba From Hell"...are you curious? Singles are: Duel and P-Machinery.

8. U2 Wide Awake In America: Officially sanctioned import from America principally for riveting live version of Bad...other tunes available domestically...catalogue on this band sells like it's Christmas everyday.

Headpins set out on tour
in support of MCA LP

Head Over Heels, the latest LP from Headpins, has gone gold in Canada with an even healthier sales picture in view of their tour dates which will take them across Canada. The MCA band is billed with Capitol recording group Helix and have played to good houses in St. John's, Halifax, Moncton, Fredericton, Rimouski, Victoriaville, Toronto, London, London, Ottawa and Hamilton.

The tour continues west with dates in Sudbury (Nov. 16), followed by Regina (19), Saskatoon (20), Prince George (22), Grand Prairie (23), Edmonton (25), Medicine Hat (27), Kelowna (29), Kamloops (30), Victoria (Dec. 1), and Vancouver (2).

The band's touring lineup consists of Darby Mills, Brian MacLeod, Ab Bryant, Darcy MacDonald and Bernie Aubin.

The first single taken from the LP, Stayin' All Night, has made impressive gains up the RPM 100 singles survey.

At press time, Headpins have been firm-ed to accompany ZZ Top for their Canadian dates which are Toronto (Dec. 2&3), Ottawa (4), Montreal (6), Winnipeg (9), Calgary (11&12), Edmonton (13), and Vancouver (15). It's possible a second date will be added for Vancouver.

9. Long Ryders The State Of Our Union (ISL1072): This record is so new that it's just being released as you read this...American West Coast Byrds - Flying Burrito Brothers influenced country rock at its best...first single: Looking For Lewis & Clark...you could look like a genius in picking this one because they will be big in 1986...you can say I bought that one in '85.

That should help you get through Christmas '85...all these records would love to go home with you, get wrapped up, put under a tree, get unwrapped, make someone very happy.

All the best in the holiday season,

rock'n'roll, which heavily includes the Stones....I mean where would rock'n'roll be without their influence?

"However," he adds, "the people who influenced the Rolling Stones are more of an influence than the Stones themselves. I think the reason that some of the things are written is because Muddy Waters, and people like that, are big influences on Michael (Hutchence, leadsinger), especially in the way he sings and it is because of this similar musical influences that those comparisons are drawn."

On the Listen Like Thieves LP, only one track was written by Farriss, which happens to be the only instrumental song to appear on any INXS album. About Three Sisters, he laments "everywhere else in the world my only song is being credited as a band song, which made me angry. I really wouldn't have minded if I'd written 2 songs but it was the only one I did and it got credited as a band song...except in Canada. And that's great."

Farriss says he was inspired to write the track after a visit with his family to a mountain range near Sydney, "there's a lot of rain forests and bird life up there, it's beautiful. I was thinking of the old classical writers and how they use to write songs or pieces of music to try and describe something. I tried to write something that felt like this - being in this valley, in mountains...it sounds pretty cosmic, I know, but it's not really."

What has been the response to their new material? Farriss replies "The response has been fantastic. We just toured Australia before the album was released and we were playing songs the crowds didn't know, which is what it would be like in other places around the world. The feedback was what we needed and it was pretty exciting, because it went down so well."

After sweeping the Australian music awards earlier this year, the band then toured Europe and Japan. Now their North American tour is in full swing and it's "supposed to end December 22nd with an MTV contest flying us to Lapland in the North Pole on a Concord....and we are all looking forward to that - it sounds like a lot of fun."

If there is a radio station in Canada not receiving RPM each week - we would like to know about it.

CFNY goals and policies are unchanged - Marsden

David Marsden, Director of Operations and Programming for Toronto's CFNY-FM questions why there are those who think the station is playing the same music as other stations in the market.

Marsden, a veteran of Toronto radio who also hosts his own show, stresses that what has happened is other stations have caught up to programming music CFNY had been airing years ago.

"The goals and policies of CFNY have not changed," he said. "If the sound has changed, it's because the music offered, has changed. But 40 percent of the music we play still can't be heard anywhere else, CFNY will always be a mirror reflection of the music being offered."

Marsden pointed to names like Dead Or Alive, Paul Hardcastle and others who CFNY had been playing for 2 years in some cases and which can now be heard on top 40 radio.

"My only question," he continues, "is why did it take them so long to discover these artists? I think listeners tune into CFNY because the other stations play the Top 40 hits over and over. It becomes very tedious. In our case, it's once a day."

Marsden stresses that the station never plays the same record twice in one day. He says CFNY is a station trying to find as much music as it can.

"The other stations are cheating you from hearing that," he continues. "There's a lot of brainwashing going on. If you listen to some other stations, you might think the only music available was what you hear."

Marsden attributed the more dance-oriented music CFNY has been playing recently to the material now being released. He suggests that many of these artists have changed their sound - and points out that CFNY was more dance-oriented a year ago.

"We never made the arbitrary decision that we play dance music," Marsden continues. "It's not that we're changing - we're keeping up with the times. You have to keep expanding. There's not that many artists with genuine punk today."

Despite the image of a "New Music" station, Marsden admits he doesn't like the term, but instead prefers new music for what it generally means.

"We play Michael Oldfield. If he puts out a new record, that's new music. It was the print media that claimed we were a New Music station, and really that's false. Our concentration is on playing new records. I'm fighting categorization. Years ago we took flak for playing punk, and after that for playing new wave."

Marsden continues with "If the industry locked itself into something, it would be like still listening to their Woodstock albums and wearing beads."

Marsden used examples of such names as Japan and David Bowie as acts who have consistently changed over the years, whereas he pointed to Paul McCartney as one who got "stuck".

"I think the people who originally tuned into CFNY wanted a fresh breath of air and to hear more music," says Marsden, concluding with "I think those who still choose to listen to CFNY can make the adjustment to the continually changing musical styles."

Valentine's Day release for Honeymoon Suite LP

WEA's Honeymoon Suite are putting the final touches on their second LP, scheduled for a Valentine's Day release. The band has already laid down 13 tracks at Long Island's Boogie Hotel, of which 9 will be chosen for the LP.

The next stop is Vancouver's Little Mountain Sound for overdubs and then to Farmyard Studios in England for final mixing. The U.K. engineer is Stephen W. Taylor, who is known for his work with Howard Jones and for the first Honeymoon Suite album.

As yet untitled, the new album is being produced by Bruce Fairbairn with Bob Rock from the Payola$ engineering in both New York and Vancouver. Hugh Syme, award winning graphic artist, is designing the album artwork.

All the material on this album was written by Derry Grehan, Johnnie Dee and Ray Coburn, many of which were performed this past summer on the band's concert dates.

The band's self-titled album, which has been on the RPM 100 for 71 weeks, has sold close to 200,000 copies in Canada.

Mix of Cancon with Power label release

The Toronto-based Power label has shipped 4 new releases - the most important being a 12" 4-track EP from German artist Fancy. Tracks include Chinese Eyes, Get Lost Tonight, Don't Know How To Cool It, and L.A.D.Y.O.

Also issued were 3 Cancon releases: a 12" 3-track by Boiling Point containing 3 different versions of Starstruck Lover; a 12" of Take Me Now from Persuasion; and a 12" of Don't Turn Your Love Away by Viva. The latter is not Cancon however, the flip, I Don't Wanna Fall In Love Again, was written by Canadian songwriter/performer Karen Silver.

A&M's Janz preparing for next album session

A&M recording artist Paul Janz, winner of this year's Juno as Most Promising Male Vocalist, is busy writing material for his next album. The Vancouver-based artist made inroads with his recent LP, High Strung, which contained the single Go To Pieces.

Janz, who has just come off a tour, will be taping his new album at Vancouver's Little Mountain Sound. He will be producing the album himself and is hoping for an April release. It's expected that Janz will display a slightly harder edge on the new LP, something that resulted from his live dates.

COUNTRY

Jack Daniels Country for Burke

Veronica Mataseje, who heads up the Nashville-based Acclaim label, reports that Johnny Burke broke into Jack Daniels Country with heavy airplay of his single Still Feels Good. Veronica sent along a little sample of Jack Daniels - the real stuff. The Burke single, written by Ronnie Rogers, was produced in Nashville by Stan Campbell. Sorry, no Cancon here, but give this one a spin, the sound is what you would expect from Burke.

A new country voice from the Soo

One of the newest voices in Cancon country music is 32-yr. old Clayton Abernot, a native of Sault Ste. Marie. Clayton's initial single release is one of his originals titled Got Nobody. Released on the CCA label, the single was produced by Ron Dann who assembled some of the big session names in Canadian music. These included Barry Keane (drums), Kim Brandt (bass), Ron Burrowes (keyboards), Mike 'Pepe' Francis (guitar), and Dann himself on steel.

Cole Younger Band is breaking

Sean Eyre of the Peterborough-based Academy label, has mounted a successful promotion campaign to bring the Cole Younger Band into prominence. Their single, Wild Oats, is not only picking up country play, but is also getting the nod from A/C programmers. Derick Layte, Music Director of CKGA Gander, included the single on his morning show, and he says "we received feedback immediately". He expected to move the single up to his crossover playlist. Dave Nelson, Music Director of Q91 in Calgary, notified the Cole Younger Band that their single was getting airplay 4-5 times per day on all 3 of their stations: Q13 Brooks, Q14 Stettler, and Q91 in Drumheller. Dave also mentioned that these stations are moving "toward a more contemporary sound, replacing much of the older traditional music with new contemporary tunes." That kind of programming has put the band a cut above some of their recording cousins, who maintain that traditional country sound.

New single from R.W. White

R.W. White, now living in Amarillo, Texas, has sent along his latest single release, The Blue Side Of Loving You. Released on his own Lone Star label, the single, a Cyril Rawson original, was produced by Tony Migliore and qualifies as 3-parts Cancon.

Q-Country celebrating 1st birthday

Bruce Krause, Program Director of CJQM-FM in Sault Ste. Marie, sends news that the station will be celebrating its 1st birthday in January of next year. Q-Country is the number one country signal in the market after their first year and they would like to invite country music personalities to send taped greetings, which is preferred, or call the station (705-949-2020) weeknights between 6 and 6:30 with your greeting. No collect calls.

Whiskey Jack scoring with Fiddlin' Man

Whiskey Jack, a Toronto-based country band, are breaking with their latest single, Fiddlin' Man, a Bob McNiven composition. The single was released in late September and has been showing a coast-to-coast acceptance pattern that could exceed the popularity of their previous single release, One In A Million.

Said the band's Duncan Fremlin, "With 25 percent of stations yet to be heard from, the success rate of Fiddlin' Man is running at close to 90 percent."

The single, produced by Chad Irschick, was taken from their self titled album and qualifies as 4-parts Cancon.

Whiskey Jack is heading south to Nashville for a date on TNN's Nashville Now. They will also be taping a segment on Fire On The Mountain, considered North America's "premiere acoustic music television showcase". They are the first Canadian band to appear on Fire On The Mountain.

If you're sending a taped message, direct it to Bruce at CJQM-FM Radio, 111 Elgin St. Suite 201, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. P6A 6L6.

Donna Henry goes solo

The Winnipeg-based Round River label has shipped Donna Henry's solo single, Last Lover's Waltz. This is a follow-up to Donna's duet with Harvey Henry, Mystery Lover, which garnered impressive national play. The new single, written and produced by Byron O'Donnell, is described as "a traditional country ballad", and was taken as the first single from her recently completed album, which will be released in November.

Follow-up for Audie Henry

While still making gains on the RPM Country 60 with Heaven Knows, the Canyon Creek label moves quickly to release Audie Henry's follow-up, Sweet Salvation. This single, produced in Toronto by Bart Barton, qualifies as 2 parts Cancon (AP). The song was written by the team of Don Cook and Chip Hardy, and is included on Henry's album. A major campaign will be launched by Canyon Creek to ensure continued success for this popular new artist.

New single from MacNeill

The SummerSalt label has shipped Robbie MacNeill's latest single, Take All The Time You Need, a MacNeill original. This is the second single taken from his Pieces LP, the follow-up to Once We Had Love, which served to introduce this talented songwriter to both country and A/C programmers. The new single is backed with A Million More, which was one of 6 MacNeill compositions recorded by Anne Murray.

Cancon Country featured on Radio London

Bob Powell, Editor of Country Music People Magazine and host of his own country show on Radio London, recently featured an All Canadian Country segment on his radio show. Powell took advantage of Ed Preston's recent trip to the U.K. to build an entire show highlighting Canada's recorded country music history. Featured were such artists as Wilf Carter, Hank Snow, Hal Lone Pine, Al Cherney, The Mercey Brothers, Canadian Zephyr, Marie Bottrell, Dallas Harms and The Family Brown - all well known to Preston who is President of Tembo Music Canada.

Powell also recapped the 1985 Canadian Country Music Award winners and interviewed both Roger Whittaker and Preston with regard to Tembo's involvement in country music as well as the "new look/new sounding" Carroll Baker. Several tracks from Baker's album were also aired. Powell pointed out that although Baker had not appeared at Wembley since 1979, his show and magazine receives numerous requests for her music and information on her activities on a very regular basis.

Powell also requested that more Canadian country artists send their albums and info/bio-material to him at Country Music Press, 78 Grovelands Road, St. Pauls Cray Orpington Kent BR5 3EE.

Anne Murray and Dave Loggins display their Big Country Award, which they won as Best Country Single for Nobody Loves Me Like You Do.

New from WHISKEY JACK!

A side - Fiddlin' Man - A catchy Bob McNiven tune featuring some fine fiddlin' by Al Cherny who was the inspiration for the song.

B side - Is It Gonna Last - A country love song with a contemporary feel.

"Your new record is one of the best I've heard."

Carl Harris - CIGV Penticton

"Country programmers have gone for this sound in a big way as evidenced by the national pattern of support for One In A Million." - RPM Toronto

Thomas self-promoting latest album release

The latest album release from Ian Thomas is described as "Light-hearted and fun", and a chat with the Anthem recording artist verifies that this veteran of the music business is one of the rare breeds of the industry. "Well, that's where my head's at today," explains the singer/songwriter. He continues with "The approach on this project was a light-hearted one. I wanted to have some fun - take the title and the cover for instance."

Thomas went on to explain that "The original title was From The Water - exploiting the Darwinian theory - but my manager doesn't like anthropologists. I had to change it, and I changed it to Ad Water - from the Latin derivation. My manager thought it was too confusing, so eventually it became Add Water . . ."

Thomas has no qualms about the use of a synthesizer in today's music. As he says, "I like pop music. I've always liked pop music. It's not necessary to use one (synthesizer), but then it's not necessary to use a guitar either - and after drawing inspiration from the sounds of a guitar or a piano for any length of time, you dry up. The synthesizer really expands your creative choices."

Thomas is preparing to head out on a tour to support his newly released LP. "I can hardly wait," he says. "A few years ago, there were a lot of people in the business complaining about the grueling rigours of life on the road. It's just not so. It's a lot of fun." He concludes with. "You meet so many new friends . . . at least it enables you to stay younger that much longer."

Quality improvements for CBC drive programs

There have been moves made by CBC radio to improve programming for certain time segments, particularly drive. "The need to improve the music quality during our drive programs was a real one," explains Anton Leo, Music Director at the CBC's Playlist office in Toronto. He continues with "We found through studies of our morning listening audience that most would not tune in to the afternoon show because they just didn't want the news - they also wanted music."

In an effort to improve programming, the CBC began a concerted effort, over a year ago, to achieve that objective. It was during June of this year when 21 regional stations were supplied with a playlist containing over 1,000 titles. "This is an educational program," explains Leo. "A lot of our managers don't have the budgets to hire a Program Director, and our playlist eliminates the problem of subjectivity in each region."

Leo went on to point out that "The objective is not to increase ratings, because even if we have a program that only has a 1 percent market share, that program will not be dropped - but we can increase the quality for those listeners."

Leo also stressed that "We listen to each piece of music we receive, including work from unsigned or independent artists which we welcome as part of our 'talent search' efforts." He concludes with "If the music meets our criteria and fits our format, then we'll add it to our playlist."

ZZ Top's World Tour will kick off in Canada

ZZ Top, currently setting sales records at WEA, will begin their World Tour in Canada, which is only fitting being that Canada has sold more ZZ Top records per capita than anywhere else in the world.

The trio's newest album, Afterburner, shipped triple platinum (300,000 units sold) in Canada. This is their follow-up to Eliminator, which was released in 1983 and sold over 700,000 copies in Canada.

The tour will kick off in Toronto for 2 dates (Dec. 2-3), followed by Ottawa (4), Montreal (6), Winnipeg (9), Calgary (11-12), Edmonton (13), and Vancouver (15).

Indie Canadian Women to distribute women's discs

Notable Women Records and Tapes has been formed in Guelph, Ont. to distribute independent recordings by Canadian women. The distribution will be organized through an annual mail order catalogue which will be mailed in 1986 to individuals, libraries, record stores, women's centres, and radio stations across Canada.

Interested recording artists can contact the label with samples of their work. Suggestions of any records/tapes by women to be included in the catalogue are also being accepted.

Further information can be obtained from Cindy Butcher: 519-821-3311 or 519-821-2623 or write to Notable Women, 64 Alice St., Guelph, Ont. N1E 2Z8.

CBC Radio looking for soft-cut discs for 50th.

In preparation for CBC Radio's 50th Anniversary to be held all through next year, the Program Archives Division is looking for 16-inch soft-cut transcription discs which may still be in existence.

The CBC, in cooperation with Public Archives of Canada, are appealing to anyone who may still have these discs, to return them. Donors of these transcriptions will receive cassette copies. Contact 416-925-3311, extension 2554.

Seven times platinum to Tina Turner for Private Dancer LP and gold for her single, We Don't Need Another Hero, presented to Tina and her manager Roger Davies by Dave Evans, President Capitol-EMI of Canada.

BOOKS

HAMMER OF THE GODS
The Led Zeppelin Saga
Stephen Davis
$23.50 - 352 Pages (HB)
Gage Distribution Company
Agincourt, Ont.

Author Stephen Davis, who has written for such publications as Rolling Stone, The New York Times and The Boston Globe, is perhaps best known for his self-titled book on the late reggae legend Bob Marley.

It's probably no accident that the author has again chosen to write about an act that's had a deathly mystique surrounding its existence - in this case Led Zeppelin, likely the most powerful group of the '70s.

Hammer Of The Gods is a behind-the-scenes look at this mega-group, as well as their acquaintances, rather than a straightforward history which has been done in the past.

Davis stretches, but succeeds in connecting Zeppelin's bad luck over the years to the band's music and lyrics, beginning with guitarist Jimmy Page's interest in the occult shortly after the breakup of The Yardbirds. Even before the band had experimented with Eastern influenced members. This would continue with Led Zeppelin. Page had been particularly interested in magician Aleister Crowley and even went as far as to buy his house from a Canadian, although this person isn't identified. A very interesting inner-look at Led Zeppelin that should attract their many fans.
