DAVID FOSTER - PRODUCER & PERFORMER

Recently in town for the Tears Are Not Enough Gala, producer David Foster took time out of his hectic schedule to speak with RPM, covering a variety of subjects. Beginning with his early involvement with Ronnie Hawkins to his current LP St Elmo's Fire. The soundtrack is currently No.23 on the RPM 100 albums chart, and Foster's own Love Theme, has reached No.66 on the RPM 100 singles after 6 weeks of charting. Foster also produced Seperate Lives from the White Nights soundtrack, the single is currently No.61 with a bullet.

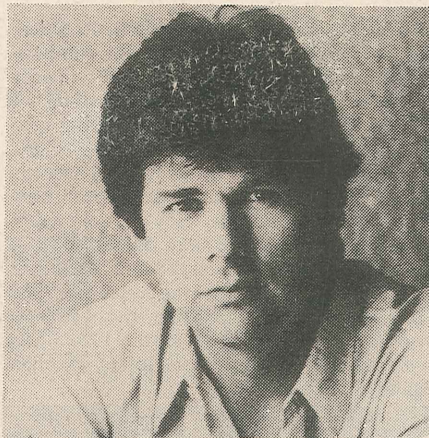

"I think the Love Theme from St Elmo's Fire is the very best I can do as a matter of fact," states Foster, "if I'm going to have a hit with an instrumental piece of music - this is going to be it." As well as this release, among his other hits, Foster points to the Skylark tune Wildflower as a major turning point in his career.

"Before that being with Ronnie Hawkins' band was a turning point and when I was with the Hawk, RPM was the bible!" continues Foster. He suggests other turning points in his career include "doing my first session in about 1975...hooking up with Earth, Wind and Fire and writing After The Love Is Gone. Chicago, 3 years ago, with Chicago 16 and now my latest turning point would be my own record."

In the late 70's Foster was working in L.A. with such performers as Barbra Streisand, Rod Stewart, Ringo Starr and George Harrison. He was also sharing songwriting duties with Carol Bayer Sager, Bernie Taupin, Kenny Loggins and Alice Cooper. During this time he went on to produce Along The Red Ledge and X-Static for Hall & Oates, but cites Cooper's From The Inside LP as one he had the most fun producing.

"Believe it or not," says Foster, "the best time I had in a studio was when I did that album (From The Inside), Alice was a great guy, who entrusted me with the project -maybe that was a mistake, now I think about it, because the album didn't do so well - but it was fun, 3 months of fun."

When asked to compare his work then with his present work, Foster replies: "I'm striving to have hits all the time, I'm tending to design my work towards always being successful. Why not? Having flopped isn't that much fun...and I've had my share. Having great vocals certainly helps though, I like Peter Cetera from Chicago or Maurice White from Earth, Wind and Fire."

After studying classical music at Toronto's Royal Conservatory for 8 years, Foster went on to play in back-up bands for both Chuck Berry and Fats Domino. What spawned the change in styles and where were those influences coming from? "The Beatles. They

Adams & Vallance spark P.R.O. Canada Awards

The highlight of this year's P.R.O. Canada Awards banquet (Oct. 8) was the surprise appearance of A&M superstar Bryan Adams and his songwriting partner Jim Vallance. Both were honoured by the Performing Rights Organization of Canada - receiving the Wm. Harold Moon Award in recognition of their songwriting success. Adams' Reckless album is the largest-selling record in Canadian recording history, having sold 750,000 copies domestically and 6-million worldwide. The Adams/Vallance songs have been broadcast in more than 20 countries.

Awards also went to the writers and publishers of 10 pop, 3 country and 3 French-language songs. Adams and Vallance also received P.R.O. Canada awards for their three hits, The Best Was Yet To Come, Heaven, and Run To You.

Terry Carisse, one of the big winners at this year's CCMA, was also on hand with his co-writer Bruce Rawlins. They received an award for The Closest Thing To You, the title song of his Savannah album, which was named Album of the Year at the CCMA Awards.

Ed Molyski from Surrey, B.C. was another surprise guest at the banquet, picking up 2 country-music awards for songs that became popular by the Midnite Rodeo Band: Rocky Mountain Opry, and Slow Movin'.

Emceeding the awards show were comedienne Maria Lukofsky and a slim-downed

Sun City single to fight Apartheid

In the wake of his 2 visits to South Africa, Steve Van Zandt (aka Little Steven formerly of Bruce Springsteen's E Street Band) has co-produced, with New York's mix-master Arthur Baker, a single titled Sun City. According to Sarah Norris, of Capitol Records the single has been slated for an October 18 release date, with a possible album to follow.

Joining Van Zandt on Sun City are at least 35 other performers, including Bob Geldof, Peter Gabriel, Ringo Starr (and son) Zac Starkey, Daryl Hall, Pete Townshend, Herbie Hancock, Lou Reed, Bobby Womack, Pat Benatar, Peter Wolf, Eddie Kendrick, David Ruffin, Bono (of U2), Bruce Springsteen and Clarence Clemens to name but a few. The song should garner considerable airplay on the strengths and successes of the other benefit packages: We Are The World and Tears Are Not Enough.

"The cultural boycott in South Africa is not a new phenomena but goes back nearly 2 decades," said Joseph N. Garba (Nigeria) Chairman of the Special Committee against Apartheid, before introducing Stevie Wonder to the committee in May of this year. Over the past few years however artists have been lured to South Africa playing at the Sun City resort in the Bophuthatswana homeland. Among those who have played there are Frank Sinatra, Lisa Minelli, Linda Ronstadt, The Beach Boys, Glen Campbell, Queen and Rod Stewart for sums ranging in the 6 to 7 digit figures.

"Just as many of us sung out on behalf of the victims of Africa's famine," says Van Zandt, "we are singing out also for those hungry for freedom."

Tom Rivers (he's lost 65 pounds), host of CFTR's morning drive. They were more than ably assisted by Ronnie Hawkins, who presented 10 of the awards.

Other surprise guests who were honoured with P.R.O. Canada awards included Nick Gilder, who now lives in Los Angeles, and recently released his RCA debut single, Let Me In. He received an award for co-writing The Warrior with Holly Knight. Patty Smyth and Scandal recorded the song which was released by CBS. WEA recording artist Eddie Schwartz, who co-wrote Special Girl with David Tyson, picked up his award for this song which both he and America recorded.

Another coup for the awards' organizers was the attendance of Dr. Lily Munro, Minister of Culture & Citizenship for the Ontario Government, who pledged her government's continued support for music industry projects and opened wider the door for government assistance to the Ontario music community.

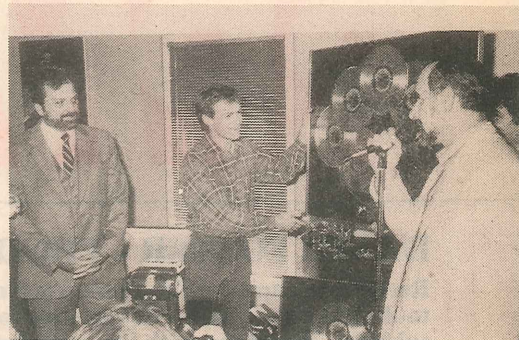

Donald K. Donald hits The Great White Way

Donald K. Donald (Don Tarlton) President of the Montreal-based production company who, for the past 20 years has been primarily involved in the promotion and booking of rock acts, has made a daring move onto the world's biggest stage, New York's Great White Way. He has ventured into a partnership with the internationally-known New York entrepreneur Mel Howard to present Tango Argentino. The show opened (Oct. 9) at Broadway's legendary Mark Hellinger Theatre. The dance revue celebrates the 100-yr. old Buenos Aires "bawdy-house footwork that captures Paris in the 1920's and enraptures North Americans in the persona of Rudolph Valentino".

In commenting on his switch from rock to Broadway, Tarlton noted: "We're known primarily for rock and pop, but we have been exposed to Broadway through joint venture presentations with CPI, bringing such shows as A Chorus Line, La Cage Aux Folles, Evita, Camelot, and Beatlemania to Canada. This endeavour represents a larger commitment to such an established entertainment form." He concludes with "I'd be lying if I didn't say I sleep better at night starting off at Broadway and 51st with a certified smash."

WEA Canada pacts deal with U.K.'s Bonaire label

WEA Canada and Bonaire Records, a newly formed U.K. label spearheaded by Clive Corcoran and Carl Leighton-Pope, have signed a "long term label distribution agreement". The deal was put together by WEA Canada President Stan Kulin and A&R Manager Bob Roper.

Initial release will be 2 debut albums, Forward Your Emotions by One To One, a Canadian group, and the self-titled LP by Strangeways, a band based in the U.K.

It was apparently decided to launch Bonaire separately in Canada because as Corcoran explains, "the marketing of Bonaire's acts within Canada requires the special and individual attention of a Canadian based partner." Corcoran has spent many years in Canada and is quite familiar with the differences between the U.S. and Canadian markets. He went on to explain that "WEA Canada was the obvious choice for the Bonaire label because of the enthusiasm expressed by the WEA team and the feeling that they were very sympathetic to artiste development."

Stan Kulin noted, "We are delighted to be associated with Bonaire Records, especially considering Clive and Carl's extensive experience and the strength of their two new signings." He concludes with "I'm looking forward to a long and profitable relationship."

One To One is a male-female duo from Ottawa - Louise Reny and Leslie Howe.

WALLSAYS

Who will take over who . . . ??

What high ranking record exec is mowing the lawn and trimming the hedges of what other well-known record exec - just in case there is a takeover?

Now, that was a party . . . !!

RCA's Don Kollar rolled out the red carpet for Juice Newton with a cozy little sit-down supper at Devonsleigh Place last Wednesday - and what a party. The creme de la creme of retail, rack and country radio were there, not to mention the trade press (EC: I've already heard about B.F.'s whizbang!) Juice, by the way, and her entourage, was very impressed with the party. RCA has always thrown memorable parties - receptions with class - and that goes back as far as I can remember.

Who will distribute who . . . ??

You read it here months ago. (EC: Just a few weeks after we predicted that Marcel Masse wouldn't last!!) that a certain record company would not be anything more than distributed by . . . and what record companies are already planning to take over the distribution as soon as they figure out how to get a submarine up the St. Lawrence. (EC: Now, could I have the address of the nearest Dale Carnegie course . . . these guys will all be out of work!!)

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

Bullet holes in the jackets . . . !!

A very well-known record exec (EC: Make that least known!!) found a bunch of LPs in a Yonge Street record store that had bullet holes and promo stamps all over them. He asked his flunkies . . . howcum . . . ?? Seems their very good friend, the owner of the store, didn't know either.

Excuse me . . . !!!

Did you happen to read THAT expert's busy little piece on how to get $1,000 worth of promotion for $15,000 . . . ??? and he didn't even crack a smile. How long will his followers follow. Oh well . . . it's not their money anyway.

Speaking of Marcel Masse . . . !!

I gained a new respect for Mr. Masse in his last couple of days as a Cabinet Minister. At least he had the guts to stand up to THOSE arts people, who continually have their hand out for OUR money. I have a gut feeling that Mr. Masse will be back, maybe not with the same portfolio . . . Mr. Smooth wouldn't allow that!!

Donald K. Who . . . ??

Well, last week we thought it was funny, so I wrote a bit about a Montreal promoter who was nothing but a rocker - and he was behind the opening of a very successful Broadway hit! We thought it was just a coincidence that the names were the same. The item didn't get in because of a lack of space. This week a news item appears and it seems it is the same Donald K. Donald. Now to get to NYC and see the show.

PM vs Arts & Entertainment

A number of VIPs in this industry tell they aren't going to attend a very important do, because the leader of our country will be there, and they believe his interests aren't in the arts and entertainment. Mr. Smooth will be there to receive an award . . . but not for his interest in Cancon. (EC: Add my name to that growing list of dissenters!!) Have we no class at all?? I'm glad I went to the P.R.O. Canada banquet on Tuesday instead of the Jays game . . . because there he was . . . Mr. Smooth . . . front and centre . . . and the 45,000 plus fans let him know they weren't too pleased with Tuna-gate!!

Only in Canada . . . you say!!

There he was, wandering around the crowd that filled the foyer of the Four Seasons ballroom. When he first walked in, very few people noticed. He stood and talked, he sat through the presentations - he sat at a table for 10 where he had dinner, and after dinner he was besieged by autograph hunters, including some of the luminaries of the record business. I wonder how many people at the P.R.O. Canada Awards banquet realized how seldom this happens in Canada. What can you do but give credit to a young Cancon artist, not only for his talent, but for his humility. What a great ambassador to have for this business. Bryan Adams - a genuine rarity.

Sorry, try again . . . !!

There's more to selling records and tapes than just opening a record store. A&A, who bill themselves as "Canada's Greatest Record Stores", have been selling product, and lots of it through cross promotions. They are currently into cross promotions with Mark's Work Warehouse, Gulf Oil, and Nabisco (Lowney's), and coming up are promotions with Shoppers Drug Mart, Canada Dry - 'C' Plus, and Swift's Meat Productions. Fred Rich sent me a few of their tasty cross promotion items: Cherry Blossom, Nut Milk, and Eat-More. I thought I was going to win an album or pre-recorded tape, but all I got was the message "Sorry, Try Again", and a bunch of zits. Thanks Fred.

. . . . Forever

While in New York recently, I took a walk over to The Dakota where I stayed for awhile back in the early '60s, and which became famous when John Lennon was shot and killed in the entrance way. I had an opportunity to walk across the street for a look at Strawberry Field, which was just being completed. It brought back a lot of memories. It's worth a stroll to look at a little of rock history . . . next time your in NYC.

RECORDS TO RADIO

Some bright prospects for CBS' Fall Of '85

by Valerie Lapp

Manager, National Press and Publicity
CBS Records, Canada

Some bright prospects show up for CBS' Fall of '85 - new acts from the U.K. and U.S. join with our already strong Canadian roster to ensure a brilliant (and innovative) finish to our year.

Prefab Sprout, the U.K. band whose Swoon album became available here last year, is back again with Two Wheels Good (entitled Steve McQueen in the UK and featuring the great daredevil's own motorcycle on the cover). The first single, When Love Breaks Down is a strong romantic tune that should pick up significant airplay at CHR over the next few weeks.

Adam Ant is back with Vive Le Rock and a single by the same name, a new U.K. band Outfield, close to Men At Work in sound, brings us Say It Isn't So as a single from their debut album Play Deep, and Dead Or Alive's new single Lover Come Back To Me shows the same CHR promise as Spin Me Round.

A great new sound to look forward to is Smash Palace, a band out of Philadelphia, with a self-titled debut album due at radio this week. Livin' On The Border Line will be the first single - and sounds like - no, forget the comparisons - it sounds like a hit. Producing credits go to Tom Treumuth (of Helix and Honeymoon Suite fame) and the album was recorded right here in Canada.

On the Canadian side, Lovin' Every Minute Of It, Loverboy's hard-driving new album is well on its way to platinum and is solidly locked in on all formats with the Lovin' Every Minute Of It single. Rough Trade's compilation LP is doing extremely well at AOR, especially the re-mixed, re-edited, re-markable version of Birds Of A Feather. And look out for Kick-Axe! Welcome To The Club, due next week, will be the band's best effort yet, combining their more traditional hard-edged sounds with brilliant vocals and pop-oriented tracks.

Watch for a new album from Nena (carried aloft a year and a half ago on 99 Red Balloons) entitled All In The Game, the album's English lyrics are all written by Canada's own Dal Bello. The new Aldo Nova album Twitch will be a sure-fire success at all formats, when it hits radio next week, and just a short way down the road, look for a killer soundtrack from Rocky IV, including such artists as Survivor and John Cafferty.

ATV Music to CBS Songs now official - Stewart

Michael Stewart, President CBS Songs, has made it official - ATV Music will be administered by CBS Songs for its new owner, Michael Jackson.

ATV was recently purchased by Jackson for a reported $47.5 million, considered the biggest publishing deal ever made by a single individual.

The plum with ATV's catalogue of over 4,000 active copyrights is the 251 mainly Lennon-McCartney compositions regarded as "the cream of the Beatles music."

CBS Records President Walter Yetnikoff noted: "How fitting that the legacy of the Beatles music is now controlled by one so caring, himself a prolific writer-performer." He continued with "Under Jackson, these copyrights will be nourished and continue to prosper. In short, Mr. Jackson will provide the professional care these properties require."

Stewart who regard's Jackson's ATV ownership as being "very healthy for the music business," stated "For a star of Michael's calibre to invest in copyrights rather than, say real estate, shows that he has a sincere love and respect for music, particularly the legendary copyrights of the Beatles." He continued with "Michael is very emotionally involved with these songs and the involvement is a positive one for himself, for CBS Songs and for the music business in general."

CBS Songs will be adding to their staff to handle the new work load. Stewart has also confirmed that former ATV personnel "meeting our criteria" will be offered positions within the CBS Songs/ATV Music operation.

just hit me like a ton of bricks, I mean I just couldn't believe what I was hearing... and I stayed with them all the way to the bitter end."

Asked whether he could learn from George Martin, Foster answers: "I don't know if I could learn that much from George Martin and I don't mean that egotistically, I just mean that he...his timing was just so beautiful." Perhaps Foster doesn't realize that his timing is also beautiful.

When discussing trends in today's radio, Foster explains that "the radio stations are all changing their formats - from rock to pop/rock, to pop and then to easy listening, but this is good news for me because that's the type of music I make."

"It's a double edged sword...obviously I'm thrilled that I can have a song like Love Theme - which is a really romantic song, piano piece instrumental - become a hit, but as a person in the music business that likes to see everything have a chance, it's a very narrowing and limited advancement and I'm sort of caught." However, Foster continues, "the people make the requests, and radio stations are in the business of making money. Radio has gone where the bread is - and that's their business - ratings! ratings! ratings!."

Obviously flexible, when asked about any backlash effect that might occur, Foster says that he "has always been one to roll with the punches." He realizes his strengths are in MOR-type of music but relates "you would be hard pressed to find somebody that wouldn't say the Tubes did a couple of good records with me and that was certainly on the AOR side of it."

Foster confides that he "was and wasn't" surprised by the success of the St Elmo's Fire track. "I kept telling everybody around me that I could do my piano music, we knew it was the most honest it could be and just persisted." Foster continues, "I was hired to do a job - to score a movie - I scored it to the best of my ability and that's the music that came out."

Originally from British Columbia, Foster concludes with his impressions on the Canadian music scene. "Over the next 5 years Canada is going to come on so strong...and America is going to be so impressed by what were giving them, but it's a little to early for America to look at us yet. I think it's going to be unbelievable and I really mean that."

ALBUMS

ALBERT HALL - Pop/Country
Blue Moon Cafe
Quality - SV-2137-M

No stranger to the charts, Albert Hall makes a strong pitch to programmers/retailers with this exceptional Ray Parker/Ron Dann production, which was recorded at Toronto's Inception Sound. The title track, taken as the first single, has already set a pattern of acceptance with country programmers. Contains very impressive pedal steel inserts by co-producer Dann. Also key are Midnight To Daylight (When You Dream A Lot, Sometimes You're Caught) and The Way I Do (If You Knew Now, As I Know How). Other session people were Mike Frances (guitar/dobro), Parker (keyboards), Barry Keane and Brian Leonard (drums/percussion), Kim Brandt and Peter Cardinali (bass), and background singers David Blamires, Debbie Fleming, Paul Booth and John Rutledge.

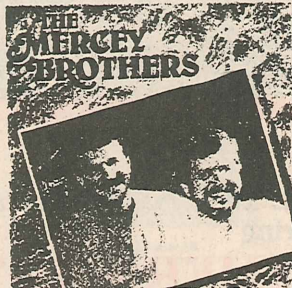

BARBARA MANDRELL - Country
Get To The Heart - MCA - MCA-5619-J
This digitally recorded album was produced by Tom Collins at the Castle Studios, The Oak Ridge Boys (Duane, Joe, Richard and Bill) join Barbara along with their producer Ron Chancey on When You Get To The Heart, a key track. Barbara covers an old Neil Diamond song, I'm A Believer with a great flare. This package is a must for Mandrell's followers. Also contains her current chart item, Angel In Your Arms.

PHANTOM, ROCKER & SLICK - Pop/Rock
Phantom, Rocker & Slick
EMI America - ST-17172-F

This debut album by former Stray Cat members Slim Jim Phantom (drums) and Lee Rocker (vocals and bass) joined by Earl Slick (guitars and backing vocals) offers blues, country, rockabilly, and rock and roll. My Mistake, and No Regrets, add a soft touch to the production. Key is the rockabillyish Runnin' From The Hounds. Produced by Steve Thompson and Michael Barbiero.

THE MERCERY BROTHERS - Country/Pop
Love Is The Reason - MBS - MBS-2008-M
Following on the heels of their successful single, Love Is The Reason, included here, this set should bring brothers Lloyd and Larry back into the mainstream. The album serves as notice of the disbanding of their group. Lloyd and Larry will be forming a new tour group in early 1986. This set was produced by MBS at Elora Sound and Eastern Sound studios. Arrangements were by Gord Heins. Session people included Lenny Solomon (fiddle), Pee Wee Charles (steel and dobro), Gord Heins (lead and acoustic guitar), and Rick Hutt (keyboards). Larry is heard on acoustic guitar, while Lloyd looks after drums. Also key are Take A Little Chance On Love, co-written by Buck Moore and Brian Robinson (AP), and Love At Last Sight, from the team of Shireen Salyer and John Schweers (AP). A/C programmers should give this set a listen. MBS is distributed in Canada by Quality Records.

BLUE IN HEAVEN - Pop
All The Gods' Men
Island - ISL-90285-J

Debut release from this Irish band, although Julie Cries was released as a single in 1984. The band comprises Shane O'Neill (guitars), Eamonn Tynan (keyboards), Declan Jones (bass), and David Clarke (drums). Impressive production with some very interesting lyrics. Key are Like A Child, and Old Ned. Produced by Martin Hannett.

DURELL COLEMAN - Pop
Durell Coleman - Island - ISL-1060-J
First single taken is Somebody Took My Love. Also key are Take Me Back To My Love In China, and One False Move. Various production credits. David Kershenbaum produced the first single as well as I Should

Have known Better, and When A Man Loves A Woman. Coleman has an incredible voice, and with such a variety of tracks, this package will serve as a good introduction.

BLACK AND BLUE - Rock
Without Love - Geffen - XGHS-24075-P
The second album released by Black And Blue and includes several Canadian artists. Produced by Bruce Fairbairn at Vancouver's Little Mountain Sound, Ocean and Mushroom Studios. Mike Reno and Doug Johnson of Loverboy guest on various tracks. Mat Frenette, also of Loverboy and Bob Rock of Payola$ are on the Aerosmith track Same Old Song And Dance. Miss Mystery is the first single taken.

FEELABEELIA - Pop
East To West - Q-West 92-53241-P
Stevie Wonder's harmonica certainly gets around and it appears here on Feel It, the first single. Feelabeelia has enlisted some heavy help with production by Brock Walsh and Glen Ballard (for Quincy Jones Productions) at Jacob's Studio in Surrey, England. Walsh and Ballard produced the Pointer Sisters' Break Out LP, which went platinum, and penned this first single.

PROPAGANDA - Pop
A Secret Wish - Island - ISL-1048-J
Debut LP from this West German band. Lyrics are distinctive and intense. They have already broken into the North American market with the catchy P-machinery. Band was formed by Ralf Dorper and comprises Michael Mertens, Suzanne Freytag and Claudia Brucken. Produced by S.J. Lipson and recorded in London. P-machinery, which has been released as a 12" is key along with Duel.

COUNTRY

Shotgun on release

Double Barrel recording artists, Shotgun, are on release with their debut LP entitled Turning Point. This Oshawa, Ont.-based band recently performed at the Country Music Awards show in Edmonton as well as dates at the Yellow Rose in Cambridge, and the Birchmount in Toronto. The album includes their first single, Early Morning. After Midnight Lover, was penned by Cyril Rawson and Roy Penney who are also featured on guitars. The majority of the album was produced by Tony Migliore at Chelsea Studios in Nashville.

Programmers hot on Rescue

Country programmers are giving immediate playlist action to Rescue's latest Altair single, Love's Cheatin' Line. The plug side, penned by Dan Rogers, was produced at the Altair Studios by Randall Prescott. Bill MacNeil of CKPE-FM Sydney, Nova Scotia, tags the single as a "great follow-up" to the group's What Has Happened, which he describes as "probably the best Canadian group single of this year." Writes Steve Armstrong of CJAX-FM Edmonton, "Another great record - instant add." Carl Harris of CIGV-

FM Penticton says, "Quality sound and definitely country. It is our priority here." As if the above isn't enough endorsement, here's what Wayne Bergman of CISV Morden, Manitoba writes, "Fantastic! No one will have to 'Rescue' this band. Great harmonies! Tight production! Canadian Country lives!"

Handy Atlas for travellers

The 1985 Traveler's Country Music Radio Atlas is now available, and what a handy little booklet it is for the mobile crowd. The Atlas provides information on over 2,500 full-time country music radio stations and is arranged by state and province to help travellers to locate country music stations anywhere in the U.S. or Canada. There are also handy maps which indicate the frequency and call letters of over 900 high-powered AM and FM stations and their location in relation to major highways and towns. The 72-page Atlas carries a price tag of $4.00 (U.S.) and can be obtained by writing to the publisher Henry Studebaker, Hanalej Publishing Company, P.O. Box 1289 San Bruno, California. 94066

Baker & Eastman are charting

Carroll Baker sets a record this week. She is the first country artist to have 3 singles charted on the RPM Country 60. She is currently charting It Always Hurts The First Time (19 weeks), If You Can't Stand The Heat (2 weeks) and this week her duet with Eddie Eastman, How Close Am I To Losing You, enters the chart. The latter is from Eastman's Artisan LP, The Winning Side, which was produced in Nashville by Eastman and Gilles Godard

Fiddlin' Man off by Whiskey Jack

The latest single from Whiskey Jack is Fiddlin' Man, taken from their self-titled album. The single, released on the Master Disc label, was produced by Chad Irschick and qualifies as 4-parts Cancon.

Kemp writing for CBS Songs

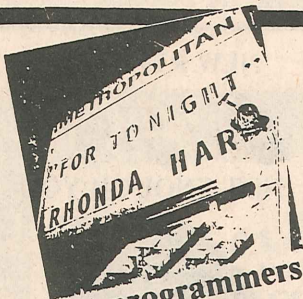

Ian Fletcher Kemp, who broke into the music scene in 1979 with Love Catch Fire, and that same year was nominated as Best New Country Artist, is now living in Nashville. He is writing for CBS Songs Internationally. He has already had 12 of his songs covered, including 4 by B.W. Pawley. CBS Songs Canada recently made available a 7" single of Kemp's Boys Best Company, which was produced by J.J. Stewart.

Capitol's Anne Murray at Toronto's Eastern Sound with producer Jack White (Laura Branigan). She has already cut tracks with David Foster and will be joined by Keith Diamond (Billy Ocean) for January taping.

Ray St. Germain plans to accelerate career

The year 1985 has been hectic for Ray St. Germain, but he is planning to accelerate even more his career activities during the coming year to reach what he describes as "an even wider audience than at present."

The Winnipeg-based singer is already established as a TV favourite. His nationally-syndicated Ray St. Germain Country is back for its 8th season. The first show of the season was televised on the Global Network (Oct. 4) and will be seen in Ontario Friday evenings at 9 pm, and on ATV for the Maritimes and independent stations for the rest of the country. The show is produced by CKND Winnipeg.

This year's show features Sherisse Laurence (formerly of The Circus TV show) who co-hosts with St. Germain. Guesting this year will be Leroy Van Dyke, Stonewall Jackson, Jeannie C. Riley, and Tommy Cash. Talks are underway with the Nashville Network for a U.S. pick-up and plans are underway for the format of next year's show.

With the growing success of his TV show St. Germain has become much sought after on the live concert circuit, particularly in Western Canada. Plans are to take the complete St. Germain Band Show on the road for fairs and one-nighters across Canada, with heavy emphasis on Ontario and the

New Whittaker LP in the works

Roger Whittaker is currently recording a new LP at the Abbey Road Studios, in London. Producing this, as yet, untitled album is Bruce Welch, known for his previous work with Olivia Newton-John. The LP is expected to be released in early 1986.

According to Tembo President Ed Preston, "with the magic of Bruce Welch, we're quite excited about it." He continues with "It's a little more electronic and should get considerable A/C airplay, as well as the easy listening and MOR stations."

After finishing production, Whittaker will complete his tour - playing dates mostly in California from Oct. 17 to Nov. 17. Whittaker recently received quadruple platinum for his Greatest Hits release. Also coming soon, taken from his Take A Little album is its third single Happy Everything, which is expected to push the LP over the gold status in Canada.

Maritimes where his TV show has a loyal following.

St. Germain has also recorded much of the material he performs on this season's TV show and is currently shopping for a label deal.

"My immediate aim is to have an album released that will be promoted by the record company and me," says St. Germain. "I'm prepared to take my live show across the country to get sales and follow up the success of the television show. With the interest from The Nashville Network, the record company

Mercey Brothers shift into new direction

The Mercey Brothers, winners of Group Of The Year at this year's Canadian Country Music Awards, have announced a major change in the direction of their careers. The changes concern both artist performances as well as a change in their business endeavours.

As of Nov. 30/85, the Elmira, Ont.-based group will disband their existing structure. Public performances will be drastically cut to include only one-nighters, fair dates, and special attractions in Canada and the U.S. They will be forming a new tour group early in 1986.

The Mercey Brothers Talent Agency will become active immediately with brothers Lloyd and Larry Mercey and Penny Perkins handling the duties.

The added time will allow them to become more involved in the Mercey Brothers Publishing Company, where they will aggressively pursue the course of supplying more material to recording artists both here in Canada and international markets.

MBS Productions, which has been instrumental in launching the careers of a number of country music performers, will continue to search out talent, produce records, and promote their MBS label, which is distributed in Canada by Quality Records.

Another area in which the Mercey Brothers will lend their expertise is in the music business consulting field.

The Mercey Brothers recently released their new album, titled Love Is The Reason, from which the title track was taken as a single, and which is moving up charts across the country.

will have a great chance to increase sales into the U.S. market."

No stranger to the recording business, St. Germain has released a dozen or so albums, and a string of singles. He has also chalked up impressive honours over the years - he's been named Manitoba Entertainer of The Year, several times and MACAP Top Recording Artist.

Frost to Q-107

Andy Frost moves into Toronto's Q-107 as Music Director from CITI-FM Winnipeg. He will also be doing an air shift. He takes over in about 2 weeks. John Derringer, who looked after the music programming chores for the station, will continue on with his 3 to 7 pm air shift as well as co-hosting the supper-time rock-news segment.

Kelly on board at CKEY

Bill Kelly, formerly of CFGM, Toronto's country giant, moves downtown to join the weekend programming staff of CKEY. He is now with some of the big names in the broadcast business: Keith Rich, Dan Williamson, Lee Marshall, Bob Rice, and Robert Payne.

Changes at Toronto's CFNY

CFNY-FM introduced a new feature: The Top One at One. The station's on-air personalities compile a list of names from their request line, than at 1 am Ron Bruchall announces the Top One at One and the winner has exactly 102 minutes to contact the station to win a trophy plus other prizes as the Number One listener of the day.

New staff at Metro Morning

Lori Stahlbrand joins CBC Radio's Metro Morning, co-hosted by Joe Cote. The popular morning drive show also has a new producer, Sandy Mowat, who replaced John

CFRW's sound investment

Winnipeg's CFRW has come up with a unique promotion that Promotions Director Ian Thompson describes as "The only thing better than cash - is a Canada Savings Bond." Each day the station will announce the Pay Song of the day, and each time they air the song, the 13th caller to the station will win a $100 Canada Savings Bond. Says Thompson: "Invest some of your time in our future, and we'll invest in yours."

Montreal's CHOM-FM releases L'esprit '85

CHOM-FM Montreal has released their fifth local talent album, L'esprit '85. The competition was open to all residents of Quebec and drew more than 225 entrants. "On the strength of the material submitted," says Rob Braide, Program Director of CHOM-FM, "there is certainly an indication that the Quebec music scene is on an upswing."

A panel of music industry judges evaluated the submissions and decided on the finalists based on originality, songwriting ability and musicianship.

This year's top group, Foreign Affairs, received a $5,000 cash bursary and another $5,000 towards the production of a music video.

All net proceeds from the sale of the LP are going to the Tiny Tim Fund of the Montreal Children's Hospital.

The other 9 acts with tracks on the album are Fair Warning, Rio, Flat Planet, Angela Delrae, T-No, The Butler Project, Scott Daniels, Flash Cube, and Hugh Ball & The Martinis.

The album production was coordinated by Robert "Too Tall" Wagenaar.
