SUN CITY - A MESSAGE OF IMPORTANCE

Steven Van Zandt's conceptual Sun City project has evolved into an album that will have a far-reaching impact on the global community. There were more than 50 performers/musicians, from all fields taking part - from rock to rap, from jazz to blues and from folk to reggae. They performed voluntarily at studios in New York, London, Boston and Los Angeles - and their royalties are being donated to the Africa Fund. The album and a video will be available shortly through the New York-based Manhattan label (distributed by Capitol). Last week RPM spoke with Van Zandt in New York. He wrote Sun City and co-produced the session with Arthur Baker.

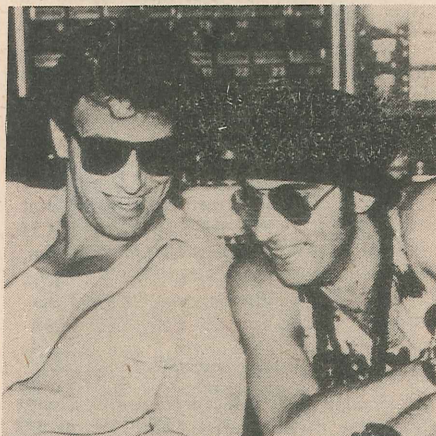

"Putting the album together was a natural occurrence," says Van Zandt, "after a few weeks we had such a wealth of stuff, and a lot different than the single. Different songs just started forming, like the rap version and the jazz piece; they told their own story. They had to be included."

Originally, Van Zandt wrote the words and the music for Sun City intending to release only a single, however, the number of participating musicians and the variety of music grew so quickly that Van Zandt had enough material for an album. "The first sessions were about 4 months ago and the most recent were last Sunday (Oct 13)," he continues, "Bono (U2) recorded a country/blues song with Keith Richards and Ron Wood. We've already printed the album jacket though, so it's not listed and it'll be a nice surprise when people listen to the record for the first time."

The Africa Fund will distribute funds (artist royalties) to various groups aiding South Africa's political prisoners and exiles, Van Zandt adds: "Everybody who came in was very informed. At the time there was no record label - they didn't even know if it was going to be released but they kept coming forward and I just kept the lyrics flexible enough to allow for that much more emotion."

Van Zandt signed a deal with Manhattan Records including "more than the usual amount of money for promotion and marketing." Even though as Van Zandt admits: "I am a bit of a renegade and the lyrics are a bit controversial. They say that rock 'n' roll and politics don't mix - yes, we really had a fight with that one. But, sure, Manhattan and the record stores will make their profit

Steven Van Zandt (r), the main thrust behind Sun City, with Bruce Springsteen.

-that's only realistic and I really don't care, just as long as Sun City gets played. What's important is getting the message across."

The album, with its tentative release date of October 25, contains versions of the Sun City single, excerpts of speeches from Bishop Desmond Tutu and Nelson Mandela.

Roblan gears for busy fall season

Among the thousands upon thousands of records, tapes and CD's stacked high in the Toronto warehouse of Roblan, is the small congenial office of Jason Sniderman, who was more than willing to discuss the present state of the Canadian music business.

Besides the obvious trend towards stocking more CD's, Sniderman suggests that the current "decline in album sales will be offset by the increased sales of cassettes, which," he adds, "haven't even peaked yet."

Sniderman finds that 45's continue to sell: "there are still a lot of young people who buy the cases that hold singles."

When asked what he thought would happen to the domestic recording industry if the

Moffat purchases Toronto's Mutuelcom

Mutuelcom, the national radio representative company located in Toronto, has been purchased by the Moffat Communications Group. In making the announcement of purchase, Moffat Vice President James McLaughlin noted: "This move is the first in a series that will increase our Toronto presence in a way that is meaningful to our customers."

Mutuelcom President, Terence Williams commented: "The purchase will allow us to better serve our station clients as well as our agency and advertising customers, through expansion at our resource base in the research and promotion planning areas." He concluded with "We don't expect any change in our client list; and in fact, we hope to expand it."

Mutuelcom represents a broad group of stations throughout Canada.

RTA distribution rights for Bowie/Jagger video

Dancing In The Streets, a video by David Bowie and Mick Jagger is currently showing at Famous Players movie theatres across Canada before the feature film. The showing is sponsored by Kodak to benefit the Live Aid and provided by Reciprocal Trade Associates (RTA). Dale Baker, Executive Producer of RTA says "The response has been tremendous and it's a great vehicle for our clients to tap today's youth market."

Although the videos are sponsored by companies such as Kodak and Sony. "The main benefactors should be record companies," suggests Baker. "After all," he continues, "these videos will sell records."

RTA has a roster of ten videos and an exclusive agreement with the Famous Players. This roster includes Barbara Streisand, Carly Simon and Rick Springfield, among others. Baker also revealed, "We're working on getting the new a-ha video a follow-up to their Take On Me. Also, we're trying to tie up an agreement with Yoko Ono for the new John Lennon footage she found and is compiling but that probably won't be until after Christmas."

These videos, or music film shorts are, according to Baker, "taking over the spot once occupied by cartoons at the theatres and quite successfully."

CRTC dropped the 30 percent ruling, he replied, "If I were an artist, I'd like to think that I was being played, not because it was the law, but because I had a good album." He also wondered whether any Canadian group "would suffer - if indeed the ruling was dropped."

Finally, as we head towards the heavy holiday buying season, Sniderman was asked if he had any preference towards any particular artist or group. "We will front rack what we think will sell - whether it's American or Canadian," he replied, continuing with "It's a spontaneous decision. Given a choice between Bruce Springsteen or Bryan Adams - I'd pick Adams. I think he's got stronger legs." He concludes with "The Turner duet with Adams is the strongest track on the album."

Countdown to the Junos aired across Canada

Q-107's (Toronto) Bob Mackowycz is set to host a live 2-hr. phone-in radio special via satellite (Oct. 27) from 10 pm to 12 Midnight.

Special guests for the special include Bryan Adams (live from Japan), Corey Hart (live from Boston), Honeymoon Suite (live from Vancouver), Triumph (live from Toronto), and Lee Aaron (live from Toronto) plus surprise drop-ins.

Those stations firm to participate at press time include Q-107 Toronto, CJCH Halifax, CFRA Ottawa, CKLC Kingston, Z99 Regina, K97 Edmonton, CITI Winnipeg, CKIK Calgary, CJBK London, CKPT, Peterborough, CJSD Thunder Bay, C95 Saskatoon, CFOX Vancouver, and CHIM Kelowna. Other cities are expected to join in.

The special is being produced by Doug Thompson in association with Telemedia Broadcast Systems.

Daltrey's solo album contains Cancon tracks

The recently released Atlantic solo album by Roger Daltrey contains 2 Cancon tracks, both written by the team of Bryan Adams and Jim Vallance. The tracks on the LP titled Under A Raging Moon, are Let Me Down Easy, and Rebel.

Although After The Fire has been taken as the first single, WEA expects FM rock radio in Canada will be airing the Adams/Vallance tracks, which may also be released as singles.

The title track of the LP was co-written by John Parr and is a tribute to the late Who drummer Keith Moon. After The Fire was penned by former Who guitarist Peter Dinklage. All royalties raised through the sales of this single are to be donated to the Band-Aid Trust.

Townshend is expected to be on release with his new solo album on the Atco label, distributed by WEA. Entitled White City, the album will be a soundtrack of original material.

ZZ Top ships platinum for Afterburner release

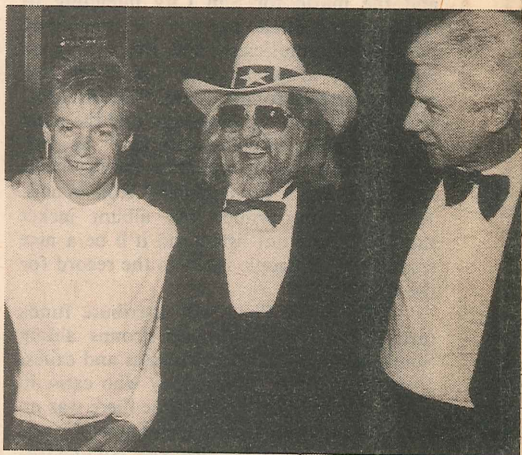

ZZ Top's Afterburner LP has shipped triple platinum (300,000 units) on release - the first time this year WEA has shipped an LP at this level.

Afterburner is the first LP from the Texas blues-rock trio in almost 2 years, and follows Eliminator, which surpassed the 800,000 units sold mark in Canada. The LP remained on the RPM 100 for more than 100 weeks.

WEA's Bill Johnston says, "Based on the single alone (Sleeping Bag), what ZZ Top has done on Afterburner is a continuation of Eliminator and retailers are confident that the new release will duplicate the success of Eliminator."

Johnston went on to explain, "There's nobody else recording who sound like ZZ Top and they've had no personnel changes in their 15 years. They don't change their sound radically, but deliver continuity and consistency. They're in a class themselves."

WEA expects to hit the million mark with Afterburner and is even expecting some cross-over action with the LP. There is no confirmation of a tour at press time.

Excuse me!!!

Well, the dailies are certainly getting their shoulders under this year's Junos - a far cry from when they were first introduced. The Star's cub reporter was so anxious in reporting that Bryan Adams and Tina Turner were doing a duet . . . it sounded like he had a scoop. Well, you read about that coupling, right here, more than a few weeks ago. This year's show is going to be one of the best. Andrea Martin and Martin Short will be emceeing and the lineup of performing artists is astounding. Besides Adams and Turner there will be Luba, Liberty Silver, K.D. Lang, Canadian Brass and Kim Mitchell. The Hall Of Fame Award will be presented to Wilf Carter, and a Special Juno Award will be presented to David Foster, who will then present it to Prime Minister Brian Mulroney.

A sign of the times???

Who would have ever thought that a radio station empire would go into receivership? It's often been said that broadcasters "have a licence to make money" . . . well, tell that to Eastern Broadcasters. Touche Ross Limited was appointed Receiver/Manager of the property and assets of Eastern Broadcasters Limited upon default under the terms of a debenture. The Receiver is currently arranging for what they call "the orderly liquidation of the company's assets". And . . . in the same neck of the woods . . . the CBC threatened to close down their AM operation in Halifax, and discovered they had more listeners than they thought. So . . . that ill-conceived plan has been shelved!!

Ribeiro's is a much better name!

Bob Rowe tells me that the Celebrity Dining Lounge is no more . . . the name has been changed to Ribeiro's . . . which rids the place of the stigma that went along with the old Celebrity (EC: You mean that crowd across the street . . . ???) Since the name change, business has been good and they're now having luncheons. Bob will take 10 percent in free goods for garlic and cheese bread. It's a very elegant place to eat . . . and now they have parking. Give Bob a call at 416-926-0156 . . . before the joint becomes too popular.

Gossage tells all . . . ??

Patrick Gossage, former press secretary to Pierre Trudeau, is writing a book about what happened over those years. Will he tell all . . . ??? Not damn likely. If he did, the book would be a runaway success. On the other hand, Patrick used to tell me some pretty astounding things about the Ottawa "clique" . . . all in confidence of course . . . and would I betray a trust . . . ??

There might be hope yet!!!

That very large international outfit that was on the block . . . apparently couldn't find a buyer. So, they've hired one of the most successful record people in the business to run their U.S. operation in an attempt to bring the losing proposition into a winning one. Rumours have it, and I got this one from London, that he might be taking over the whole North American operation

MUSEXPO tries London . . . !!!

In the great and wonderful game of record and music markets . . . MUSEXPO moved to London this year after Las Vegas, Miami, Fort Lauderdale and Acapulco. If nothing else, Roddy Shashoua is making many of us in the music industry, world travellers. They aren't the same people you see at MIDEM, and perhaps there should be an alternative, and London is one of the best places to get together. Many of those who attended mentioned that they did business in London, and it was rewarding to meet there. The seminars were very informative . . . a couple even came close to a "punch up" . . . as the English say!!!

But you'll love Bounty . . . !!

It was about 10 years ago when you read about David Essex in RPM, and only last week in London, I saw him starring in Mutiny in the West End - a show that he also wrote. The critics weren't too kind to the work, but I was absolutely fascinated by Bounty. The ship creates itself on stage and suddenly pitches and yaws (EC: Yaws . . . I don't believe it!!!) swings and bobs, and makes the show a staging and engineering feat. Essex appears too often - sounds the same - and the storyline never quite establishes itself to make you feel that the musical is going anywhere . . . but you'll fall in love with the Bounty.

London version disappointing!!

They told me before I left for London that I would love the engineering and stage effects in Starlight Express. They were right! The music was drab and sounded at times like Evita. The words weren't T.S. Eliot and the skating was slower than I'm used to!!! But the huge bridge on stage that swung out and around, and the skating, stole the show. Well worth the money, and much less expensive than Broadway . . . if and when it opens.

What's a Metal Queen??

I'm told that Canada's resident Metal Queen, Lee Aaron, doesn't live up to her image when she's off stage. Her apartment looks like a Pascal showroom, but she does have a lot of brass fittings in her bathroom.

Who's behind those beards??

It seems that every media reception I've been going to lately, the bearded ones resemble the Toronto Sun's Gary Dunford or Claire Hoy - not to mention the bearded ladies. However, the real Dunford was at the recent CBC Radio bash - one of those cheese and grape parties. Dunford is now getting off on CBC air, every Saturday night at 10:08 pm (EC: Later in Newfoundland of course!!!) His Parka Patrol will give us "an hour of wit, wisdom and favourite music" . . . that's what the press release says.

Still with CBC radio . . . !!

Nice to see Vicki Gabereau is still going to be the heavyweight through her Variety Tonight show, although she's been cut back a bit. There was always one dull guest on her show, who should have taken a hike long ago - and it looks there HAS been a change. Vicki wasn't at the party, she was in England recording conversations with what Linda Litwack describes as "a colossal clutch of English celebrities", which sounds like something Gabereau would say. Just prior to the Gabereau fest is a new magazine-type sports show, The Inside Track, hosted by Mark Lee. Now, there's a face that should be on television. What an opportunity - prime time on CBC radio - and there's a million sports nuts out there who could listen - if the proper promotion is put into place.

RECORDS TO RADIO

A very busy Christmas for Capitol

by Rhonda Ross

national artist and media relations manager
Capitol Records

The pre-Christmas season is going to be a very busy, profitable, and 'winning' time of the year for us at Capitol-EMI. One of the projects that we're really excited about is Helix. The band has never neglected to tour

Canada but right now they are planning their first national tour, starting

November 1st in St Johns (Nfld.), and carrying through until December when they'll be in B.C. They'll be playing over 20 cities. Their current single (and video) The Kids Are All Shakin from Long Way To Heaven continues to gain momentum. David Wilcox will be heading to Western Canada in support of his latest release, The Best Of David Wilcox.

On the topic of Canadian acts, we feel that Rational Youth's Bang On single is extremely commercial/accessible and is tailor made for radio. We've just released Running Away by Strange Advance (who will have Western dates in the near future), and Miles

Rhonda Ross

In My Mind by Bamboo. Frank Mills is also planning to tour Canada with dates in the Maritimes confirmed. More will follow. Luba is now en route to Japan as a finalist in the World Popular Song Festival.

New releases by our U.K. acts are doing very well. The Hounds Of Love album by Kate Bush turned gold within 4 weeks of release and the single Running Up That Hill is going strong at both CHR and AOR radio. We're really happy about the CHR play to date, and hope to close in on some of the Western markets in the near future. The debut single Election Day by Arcadia was an immediate add to most stations right out of the box. The album So Red The Rose will be released in November. Both of these acts are being supported by strong marketing campaigns. Sheena Easton's latest titled Do You was produced by Nile Rodgers. The single will be Do It For Love.

Hearts' latest single Never follows the Top 10 success of the gold single What About Love. The Heart album has just closed in on platinum and continues to sell well. A live date for Toronto marked on Nov. 12 has just been announced. The Motels are currently on tour in Canada as Special Guests to Supertramp. We've just released Shock, the second single. It should do well at not only radio, but dance clubs too. Tina Turner's latest One Of The Living from Mad Max III Soundtrack is another hit right out of the box. It's expected that she'll be making an appearance at the

Juno Award show.

Three heavier sounding acts that we're currently working are Phantom, Rocker & Slick, Wasp, and Iron Maiden. P,R&S are Slim Jim Phantom, Lee Rocker (both from Stray Cats), and Early Slick. The first single from their debut album is called Men Without Shame. As well as Slick's extraordinary guitar work, the record also features Keith Richards. Wasp's second album The Last Command includes the track Blind In Texas. An incredible, and humorous video has been done to support this song. We're hoping for a Canadian tour in February. Live After Death is the new double-live album by Iron Maiden. This record, featuring 18 live tracks recorded on their '84/85 World Slavery Tour, comes complete with an 8 page colour booklet.

Robotman is a children's project that we're really excited about. Conceived and produced by Peter Shelly, Robotman is already a syndicated cartoon, and television show.

The surprise of the season could be Tarkan Boy from a newcomer, Baltimore. This song has already made it to the Top 5 in all major European territories, and is now poised to take North America by storm. A definite hit! There's also Little Steven's Sun City (Artists United Against Apartheid) that should do extremely well.

From our distribution labels, Anthem has just released Power Windows by Rush. This album, which features the single Big Money is already roaring up the charts in the U.S. Ian Thomas is continuing to make gains with his latest Add Water album which includes the single Harmony. Aquarius has just released Love Has Remembered, the latest single from April Wine's Walking Thru Fire album. Corey Hart's Boy In The Box single hit the Top 10 on stations right across the country, and in some cases, again achieved the Number One position.

Also included is the Bono track as well as an improvisation of Peter Gabriel. Says Van Zandt: "Peter just sang a few tracks against an African log drum, then we put the music to it, certainly capturing his emotion...it's a fantastic song."

Through the Sun City release Van Zandt hopes to accomplish 3 things "We're trying to educate the musicians, the sports people, the actors - those who would consider going to Sun City - and putting to rest the ignorance about it." He continues, "It's a suggestion of solidarity for South Africa's blacks. They don't get much support, especially from our governments. And we want to re-focus on racism in general by writing about South Africa with their exaggerated form of racism."

When asked about the toughest part of the project, Van Zandt replied, "The remixing took quite a bit of work...yes, finding out who sang what line the best was the hardest thing to do." And what has been the initial response from radio? "It's receiving across the board acceptance. I think they feel it stretches their format without going against what they normally play because we're speaking to a wide and varied group of listeners out there."

COUNTRY

Baker touting new single

Garry Baker is making a pitch for the charts with his latest Red Sun single, Where The Humans Used To Live, a Baker original produced by Norman Corbett. This single is brand new and wasn't taken from his Jaded In Between LP. The Red Sun label is based in Agincourt, Ont.

New duet from Damron/Mitchell

Dick Damron and Ginny Mitchell follow their successful duet of Falling In And Falling Out Of Love, with a new RCA single, Rise Against The Wind. The Damron original was produced by Mark Shatz at Nashville's Glasser Bros. Studio and Live Oak Studios in Berkley, California. Upcoming dates for the pair include Lethbridge (Oct. 28 through Nov. 2), a short tour of West Germany from Nov. 3 through the 9th, followed by Edmonton Cook Country (11-16) during the Canadian Finals Rodeo, and Calgary Country Roads (18-23).

Lord to showcase at Expo '86

Anne Lord has received word from Peggy Burns of MPB Promotions that she has been confirmed for her own Anne Lord Show at Expo '86 in Vancouver. Anne signed with the Comstock label almost 3 years ago and that same year she was nominated for a Juno in the Female Country Vocalist category. Says Comstock's Frank Fara, "The most important story in Anne's career, and one that should encourage other acts is that Yes, you can still make things happen from ground zero in today's country music markets." The latest Lord single is Forget About Me, which has just shipped. Besides Canada, Anne Lord product is available in the U.S. U.K., France, Germany, The Netherlands, Switzerland, Norway, Belgium, and Luxembourg.

Country Gold push for Bailey

Country Gold, a Toronto-based label (Scarborough) is currently promoting the release of a Jack Bailey single, I Remember You Baby. The plug side was penned by Ray Griff and carries a 3-part MAPL logo (MAL), although there is no information as to where the side was produced. The flip, Thirty Miles Ahead, is a Bailey original and carries a 4-part MAPL logo, but no studio or producer information. Bailey is currently appearing at the Country Gold Club in Toronto and has upcoming dates at The Rodeo Roadhouse in Kingston, Oshawa's Corral and recently signed to play the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto this fall.

Eastman touting new album

Eddie Eastman is currently giving a promotion boost to his new Artisan album, The Winning Side. How Close Am I To Losing You, a duet with Carroll Baker, taken from his album, is showing good progress with country programmers. Eddie has just completed a tour of Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and his native Newfoundland and will concentrate on Western Canada during November.

Donn Reynolds makes Ripley's

Donn Reynolds, billed as "King of the Yodellers" and one of the veterans of Canadian country music, has made it to Ripley's Believe It Or Not. He was featured in the syndicated cartoon, which is carried by more than 300 newspapers around the world, as having set the world's longest yodel. That was in 1976 when the Brampton, Ont. native yodelled for 7 hours and 29 minutes. In 1980, high atop the CN Tower in Toronto, he performed the world's highest yodel (1,822 ft. 1 in.). Always one to attempt firsts, Donn scored another as the world's fastest yodeller, when in 1984 he let go all 5 tones in 1.9 seconds. Now, Donn has put his yodelling, once again, on disc with the release of his own EP.

What programmers

Add Water - Anthem - ANR1-1047-F
 All but 2 tracks were produced by Thomas, at ITP Studios in Winona, Ont, except As Days Go By and The Same Colour Eyes which were recorded at Manta. Joining Thomas are Rob Yale on the Fairlight, Jorn Anderson (drums), Tim Ryan and Alfie Zappacosta (back-up vocals), Kerry Crawford, Tim White, Kim Mitchell, Dave Cooper and Thomas on guitars. ZZ TOP - Blues/Rock
Afterburner - Warner Bros. - 92-53421-P Produced by Bill Ham, this package could well become the trio's biggest seller - with an initial shipping of 300,000 units, they are well on their way to shadowing Eliminator which was released almost 2 years ago and remained on the RPM 100 for 100 weeks. All material written by Billy Gibbons, Dusty Hill and Frank Beard, who are the members of this Texas blues band. Also key are Rough Boy, Can't Stop Rockin', and I Got The Message. Should have a long run on the charts.

NENA - Pop
It's All In The Game
 Epic - FE-40144-H
 Latest release from German singer Nena (99 Luft Ballons) Kerner. All lyrics re-written in English by Lisa Del Bello, who also supplies background vocals. Title track taken as the first single, a good choice considering the lush strings of Deutsche Oper. David Sanborn offers sax on Utopia and You Don't Know What Love Is, both key tracks.

EDDIE MURPHY - Pop
How Could It Be
 Columbia - FC-39952-H
 Murphy's debut, all-music album, presents another side of this exceptional talent. Party All The Time, the first single taken, was produced by Rick James. Also of note is Coming Up Roses, produced by Stevie Wonder. The remainder of the set was produced by Aquil Fudge. Murphy shows had at writing and is not lyrically shy, but was he ever? Check verse 2 on My God Is Color Blind. No graphic available.

JAKI GRAHAM - Soul/Pop
Heaven Knows - Capitol - ST-12356-F
 Debut for Graham, produced by Derek Bramble, who also penned 8 of the 10 tracks. Bramble also co-produced Bowie's Tonight LP. Round And Around released as the first single. Recorded at EMI Studios in London, and Atlantic Studios in New York. No graphic available.

JOHN PAUL JONES - Pop
Scream For Help/Soundtrack
 Atlantic - 78-01901-P
 Ex Zep mate Jimmy Page lends a few guitar licks on 2 tracks: Spaghetti Junction and Crackback, both key tracks. Also key is Silver Train featuring vocals by ex-Yes singer Jon Anderson. LP was produced and arranged by John Paul Jones at Sunday School in U.K. No graphic available.

JANE WIEDLIN - Pop
Jane Wiedlin - IRS - IRS-5638-J
 Ex-Go-Go founder and songwriter Jane Wiedlin's solo debut contains Blue Kiss, the first single. There were 4 producers contributing to this set, including ex-Fur member Vince Ely as well as Russ Kunkel, George Massenburg, and Bill Payne. Key are Goodbye Cruel World, East Meets West, and Modern Romance. David Lindley and Billy Zoom, guest on guitars.

UNDER A RAGING MOON ■ ROGER DALTREY

ROGER DALTREY - Pop/Rock
Under A Raging Moon
 Atlantic - 78-12691-P

After The Fire, written by Pete Townshend, has been taken as the first single with all royalties donated to Live Aid. The title track was written by John Parr and Julia Downs. Produced by Alan Shacklock.

THE WATERBOYS - Pop
This Is The Sea - Island - ISL-1058-J
 Scottish group, fronted by Mike Scott who also produced this set. Other band members are Anthony Thistlewaite (sax), and Karl Allinger (bass, keyboards). Recorded in England earlier this year. Many key tracks including title cut as well as The Whole Of The Moon, and The Pan Within. 12" of The Whole Of The Moon, and Don't Bang The Drum, previously released.
