Nathan tags 1st IM&MC "a huge success"

There was a capacity audience of more than 3,000 at the Montreux Casino on the shores of Lake Geneva for the live telecast of the awards gala which marked the close of the 1st International Music & Media Conference (May 10). The show was carried live by the BBC and Music Box, and taped for presentation on MuchMusic in Canada and MTV in the U.S. Other networks slated to carry the show on a delayed basis are DR Denmark, Videomusic Italy, and Greek Television. Additional broadcasts are pending.

John Nathan, who heads up IMMC U.S., a major organizer of the conference, described the 3-day music/media meet "a huge success", which drew over 400 delegates to the well-attended series of seminars. The seminars covered topics spanning the television, radio, and music video areas as well as the impact of new technologies on home entertainment. "Substantial activity was evident in the exhibit booth area," Nathan points out, "indicating that the marketplace aspect of the conference was proving to be a success."

Conference delegates were also able to attend the concerts being taped for the BBC/SSR/TEN Golden Rose Rock Festival as well as the IM&MC closing gala.

Artists appearing on the gala included Chris Rea, Blow Monkeys, Billy Ocean, Animation, Double, Simply Red, Ready For The World, Sandra, INXS, Belouis Some,

Music industry presses government on copyright

In a rare "collective" move, several industry organizations have banded together and submitted to Marcel Masse, the Federal Minister of Communications, a letter stressing "the urgency of copyright reform," dated Apr. 14/86.

The motivation for the submission has been what the group say is "the lack of growth throughout the music industry . . . that can be directly attributable to the country's antiquated copyright laws."

Jointly signing the letter were the respective presidents of CIRPA, CRIA, CMPA, CMRRA, PROCAN, SODRAC, ACME, and the AF of M.

The industry members singled out areas for immediate attention that include home taping, rental rights, penalties for record (tape) piracy, performing rights in sound recordings, and an appropriate rights and compensation package - for the use of music by the cable industry and by producers in the industry.

The letter indicates the members endorse current government proposals that allow home copying to be permitted "under revised law, subject to royalty payments to composers, performers, and producers."

They also point out that "there is no need for delay in this area as collection and distribution systems are already in place."

A recent government sub-committee recommendation to combat music piracy, suggests increasing penalties to a maximum of $1 million, compared with the $200 today, which the above industry members support.

Cock Robin, Sam Harris, Marilyn Martin, and Frankie Goes To Hollywood. The latter presented the world premiere of their new single.

94 FM and CLE sponsors unique Battle Of Bands

Thunder Bay's Canadian Lakehead Exhibition (CLE) is searching for a local band to open the Glass Tiger concert June 26. The CLE, in conjunction with 94 FM Radio in Thunder Bay, are looking for what the station's Mike Thurnell describes as "an energetic band with today's sound."

The winning band will be determined through the station's Battle of The Bands contest which is scheduled for the CLE Coliseum.

Thurnell explains that "The contest will take an amateur band, playing original music, and give them their first break." He continues with, "Aside from the chance to open for Glass Tiger, the winning band will also receive a $1,000 performance contract for an upcoming concert on the CLE grounds, plus a chance to represent 94 FM Radio throughout Northwestern Ontario over the next year."

As well, the Battle of The Bands concert will be aired as a feature presentation on 94 FM as will the band's performance before the Glass Tiger show.

Those bands interested in the Battle of The Bands contest, should contact Mike Thurnell at 807-344-3526 where he will advise them on how to obtain a contest entry form. Deadline to submit entry forms is June 6, 1986 at 5 pm.

Crete won in the Best Long Form and Special Effects categories for History Mix, while Tina Turner's Private Dancer won her a Best Performance award and David Mallet a Best Direction award. As well, the Best Story Line award went to Russell Mulcahy and Duran Duran for Arena. The Best Documentary award was won by Patrick Montgomery and Pamela Page for British Rock: The First Wave.

The Children of The World Pop Video Award, which was voted on by a special international jury of 10 teenagers, went to Billy Ocean's When The Going Gets Tough.

Nathan concludes with "In view of the overwhelming favourable reaction to this first-year event, the 2nd International Music & Media Conference is being planned for May, 1987."

PolyGram scores a first with Style Council release

PolyGram has released Showbiz: The Style Council Live - Home And Abroad, a video, and Home And Abroad, an LP, cassette, and a Compact Disc by Style Council - all available simultaneously at retail, a first for Canada.

The 55-min. Showbiz Beta/VHS video is priced at approximately $29.95, and features the same packaging concept (12" x 12" box with color graphics) that allows for display in standard record racks - or front racking. The video will also be initially available exclusively through full-line record outlets, as opposed to video rental/retail stores.

The video was filmed over 2 of the band's 3-day engagement at Wembley Arena during Christmas of '85 by directors Vaughan Arnell and Anthea Benton.

Simultaneous with the release of the video is the Home & Abroad album/cassette/compact disc, a live album recorded at various dates in Japan, Australia, Europe and the U.K. on the 1985 tour. These configurations contain 3 tracks not found on the video, namely The Lodgers, The Whole Point Of No Return, and My Ever Changing Moods, the title track from their first full-length album. There's a bonus on the video as well with several songs not included on the album/cassette/compact disc release. These are Long Hot Summer, A Stone's Throw Away, and Soul Deep.

The band is currently recording their 3rd studio album, scheduled for a September release.

Julian Lennon spent a couple of days in Toronto to promote his latest album, The Secret Value Of Daydreaming and dropped off at WEA's head office where he met Stan Kulin and Garry Newman.

Meyer speaker system installed at Ontario Place

Following the installation of a new speaker system at The Forum of Ontario Place, the 15-yr. old Toronto lakeside entertainment facility now boasts "A 100 percent sound quality improvement," says Production Manager Brian Bailey.

Gerr Electro Acoustics, together with the speaker's inventor John Meyer, designed and installed the 22,400 watt system specifically for Ontario Place.

The $300,000 system was purchased after the corporation obtained a capital grant from the Ontario government. "It just wasn't practical for us to continue paying the production fee, on top of the artist's fee," Bailey explains.

"We needed a speaker that wasn't made for just one format of music, and this system is ideal for both the classical performances as well as the rock 'n' rollers."

Although rock music was banned at the Forum, in wake of the infamous Teenage Head riots of 1980, Bailey points up that "we now program acts that won't attract such an unruly crowd."

Scheduled for this season are Parachute Club, Luba, Jane Siberry and Strange Advance. International acts firmed include Chaka Khan, B.B. King, Wynton Marsalis, Henry Mancini, and John Cafferty, to name just a few.

The installation of the speaker system was completed May 14, with Burton Cummings the first "major" performer to use the Meyer sound system. "He loved it," says Bailey, stressing "The old 6,000 watt system was nearly 10 years old - it was outdated."

The new system features a "4-way" speaker hook-up under the roof, and a "3-way" facing the lawns, with Bryston amps providing the power for what Bailey describes as Meyer's "Magic Boxes."

Idle Eyes won 5 West Coast Music Awards for Group, Best Song (Tokyo Rose), Best Video (Tokyo Rose), Album (Idle Eyes), and the Songwriter's Award. Cliff Jones, the band's manager (l) and Tad Campbell show off their awards.

No Surrender adds to Youth Network's thrust

Toronto's music community, through the organization of Steve Thomson, President of Backstage Productions International, will provide a major thrust in creating awareness of Youth Network, a Toronto-based organization looking to provide 25,000 summer jobs in Toronto and surrounding area.

Thomson put together No Surrender, a 6-piece band, in just 3 weeks. The band was presented, in concert, at Toronto's Copa for 2 shows on May 22. Comprising Allan Wells (lead vocalist), Chas Sanders (guitar), John McCarthy (saxophone), Laird Coady (keyboards), Brian Beggs (bass), and Steve Lederman (bass), No Surrender will be playing dates in and around Toronto, letting young people know about the Youth Network and to encourage them to phone the organization for a summer job.

Dennis Mills, Campaign Chairman of Youth Network, explains "No Surrender will be a key instrument in communicating to the youth of this city the fact that the job market is not hopeless."

CFNY's Pete 'N Geets celebrates 25th year

Celebrating 25 years of broadcasting, primarily in the Toronto area, radio veterans Pete Griffin and David Haydu (aka Geets Romo) will be hosting a live radio show (May 30) from Splendeurs Restaurant in downtown Toronto.

May 30 marks the date the duo will be inaugurated into the Canadian Broadcasters Quarter Century Club.

Griffin's career began at CJOH Ottawa, while Haydu launched his career at Hamilton's CHML.

The pair actually met at CHUM-FM in 1970 where Griffin was the morning show host and Haydu the engineer. The latter developed such personalities as McTavish McRomo, Ugandi Geets, Beans Rotash and Big Red Romo.

Geets was fired from CHUM in 1976 and joined Q107 where he quickly established a couple of new characters, Lardette and Santa Geets. He engineered the morning show with Ted Woloshyn and later Scruff Connors. Pete hung on at CHUM-FM until 1980 when the team was finally reunited at CFNY, where they have remained. It was in 1983 when Pete 'N Geets won the hearts of Toronto and their morning drive was voted Best Morning Show.

Bowie and new format to debut on CJAX-FM

Edmonton's CJAX-FM has announced that Bruce Bowie, "long time morning ratings leader, will be joining the new 92.5 FM to anchor what will be Alberta's most exciting morning show."

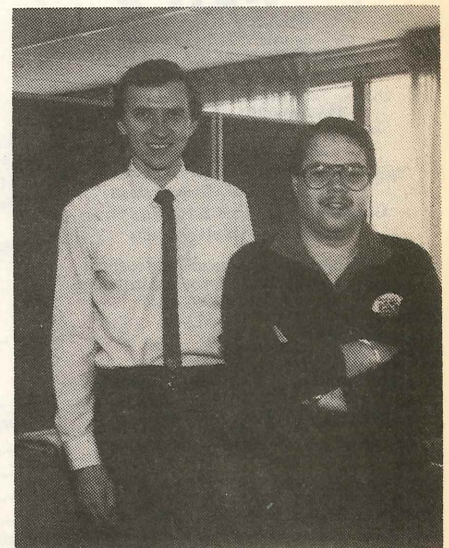

The station's General Manager, Dave Lyman, goes on to explain that Bowie will be joined by his current co-host at CHED, Jim "The Coach" Herbison. "Bruce and Jim will bring the zaniness, great humour, excitement and information for which they have become so well known, to the new 92.5," says Lyman.

The station is also bowing a new format "The music format we're introducing has never before been available on FM radio in Alberta, explains Lyman. "It's the result of 2 years of research into the radio needs and wants of Edmontonians."

Lyman points up the importance of on-air people for the new format, "Our personalities, including Bruce Bowie and Jim Herbison, have been hand-picked to complement our music sound and provide a level of entertainment that's unique in the market."

The new format for CJAX is Adult Contemporary "Blending a strong mix of '80s, '70s and late '60s music, listeners will finally be able to hear their favourite hits all the time and in FM stereo," explains the station's Program Director, Dan Roman. Lyman adds, "the station we're about to introduce will compare favourably with anything in North America."

It's interesting to note that as co-hosts of "Alberta's and the Prairie Provinces most listened to morning show," Bruce and "The Coach" "wake up some quarter of a million listeners each week. Their average quarter-hour audience is some 50,000 strong. That's 50,000 every 15 minutes of every hour. (1986 Winter BBM)."

And the hearings do go on!!

Since Pierre Juneau left . . . the CRTC has been like a rudderless ship (EC: Like the blind leading the blind . . . ?) The hearings now going on in Ottawa have been described as "a circus." It's like "déjà vu". The same questions . . . and the same answers reminiscent from the FM hearings of a decade ago. Overheard at the hearings . . . or was it intentional . . . that radio can make money without an audience . . . ??

While we're on the hill . . . !

Who is that person from the CRTC bad-mouthing the commission everytime there is a personal meeting with broadcasters? Could he be looking for a job in the private sector? Rumours have it he tried to get into the private sector years ago but, for obvious reasons, he was unsuccessful . . . now he's trying again.

Country has a lot of surprises!

For those "experts" in the broadcast and recording industries who poo-poo country and Gospel music, take note. Carroll Baker's Hymns Of Gold, which was released by the Special Products Division of Quality Records, has gone well over the platinum mark. Quality's Bob Morrow made a surprise presentation to Carroll at her autograph session at the Super Centre Store in Pickering,

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

A new record mandarin . . . ??

There's a new wave of retailer on the horizon, which can only be good for business. One in particular is Jason Sniderman - son of "Sammy". Jason is one of the major thrusts behind the Roblan organization and the Sam's stores, and after realizing a couple of personal goals, is now settled into performing like a chip off the old block. Well . . . not exactly. Jason has his own ideas, and if you've seen Sam's West Edmonton Mall store, you'll know what I mean. Jason lent his architectural expertise to what must be one of the best designed record/video stores in North America . . . and there's more coming. Of course, Sammy still calls the shots . . . even sometimes after Jason has executed them.

When it comes to promo people!!

If I had to compile a list of my favourite promotion people (EC: Be careful now . . . !!) it would be much easier today than it was a few years ago. Of course, I couldn't make it a Top 10 . . . there are still a few lost souls out there, whose obvious function is to deliver records . . . and be nice to their boss . . . who never knows what kind of "clunkers" he has working for him. On the whole however, the Canadian recording industry should be proud of their representatives in the field.

A sign of the times . . . ??

The Masse millions were apparently too late to bail out Quebec's distribution setup. Rumours have it that two . . . yes 2 major distributors in Quebec are merging.

About that CRIA luncheon . . . !!

Congratulations to Brian Robertson (EC: And Pat Fox . . . !!) for an excellent CRIA luncheon at Toronto's Westin Hotel's International Suite. The company was exceptional . . . too many to mention here, but including the lone wolf from Quebec . . . and how nice to renew acquaintances with a lot of "good old buddies," and what a lot of great gossip, some of which, if there's room, I can squeeze in here.

Did you hear the one about . . . ??

SK (EC: Can't you be more explicit??) tells me about how just recently he bought SS a hotdog (EC: A hot dog . . . ? Now I know who SK is . . . cheap, cheap!!) and he paid for it with a new $5.00 Canadian bill, which he pointed out to SS . . . and to which SS enquired, 'yes, but who's that lady on the front of the bill?' which indicates what SS has been doing with his money since Queen Victoria left the scene.

Wardair is the only way to fly!!

The topic of conversation during the above CRIA luncheon (EC: You have to hope the item got in!!) was air travel in Canada and internationally. Well, it seems . . . and confirms my own feelings . . . that Wardair is one of the finest airlines in the business. I know of one record company president who has instructed his travelling people to use only Wardair . . . and that's a yearly travelling budget of close to $1 million. Just to add my editorial clout to this discussion . . . my experiences with Wardair have been exceptional . . . and I'll go out of my way . . . yes and even put off flights on the other carriers, just to fly Wardair. Can you imagine the millions of dollars spent each year on air travel by the recording industry? I understand there are some U.S. record executives who spend the extra bucks to fly into Toronto or Montreal so they can catch Wardair to Europe.

Nothing like a "low profile"

Now . . . what do you think LK is up to? He's been too quiet lately . . . and when he's too quiet, look out for a blockbuster. I saw him in a huddle recently with a very important industry heavy who has enough profile to accommodate the both of them. Watch this space for what could be the big news of the year!!

Shakeup in the ivory tower . . . !!

Seems that all that recent in-fighting has led to a closed-door confrontation that wasn't quite the coup it was supposed to be. Everything has quieted down now . . . but only for the time being!! (EC: Round 2 - any minute!!)

Tell us more . . . !!

Apparently my predictions have been so good over the past few years that when I haven't got the room to . . . predict . . . I disappoint a few people. So . . . here we go with some summer hits . . . hits that should make the cash registers ring. On the singles front . . . WOW . . . have you ever seen such a choice of "fun in the sun" winners. I really believe that Cats Can Fly will really fly . . . and with a bit more of a nudge, Lies Are Gonna Get Ya, should begin to make moves . . . and how about Van Halen's Dreams . . . now there's a summer hit if I ever heard one. While we're looking at the superstars, let's not overlook, the Rolling Stones and they should bring even more attention to their Dirty Work album with One Hit (To The Body) . . . and, I'm sure Lesley would tell people how old I really am, if I didn't mention Secret Separation by The Fixx which will be a sizzler! The album releases are just too much . . . and I have only a few inches (EC: Try not to brag!!) left to get in my favourites. I would suggest that retailers stock heavy on Patti Labelle's Winner In You . . . which will be a big winner this summer . . . and Neil Diamond's Headed For The Future . . . a surprise hit album from this oldster. There's a couple of Cancon albums that shouldn't be overlooked, and they are Chalk Circle's The Great Lake, and Between The Earth And The Sky by Luba . . . and gosh all 'a mighty, don't forget The World Is A Ball by M'M.

RECORDS TO RADIO

MCA looking for a great summer season

by Dave Watt

Artist Relations/National Publicity Manager
MCA Records, Canada

As we head into late spring and summer, MCA is in the fortunate position of working new releases by established artists and newcomers alike. This, combined with a busy schedule of shows should make for an exciting, albeit busy season. In early May, radio was serviced with the new single by The Fixx titled Secret Separation. It received immediate critical acclaim, garnering the top AOR add position across the country. Prior to the May 14 servicing of the Walkabout album, we were fortunate to have 2 members from the band (Cy Curnin and Adam Woods) in Toronto for a couple of days of pre-release promotion and publicity. Canadians have always been big Fixx fans and initial orders for the commercial shipping of the album the week of May 20 indicate the support continues. Concert-goers will be treated to their live show as they open for The Moody Blues in Quebec (June 25), Ottawa (26), Montreal (27), and Toronto (28). Following this 28 date North American tour, there's a strong possibility of their own headlining tour which should include Western Canadian cities.

Charlie Sexton has been MCA's pet project the last several months and the hard work is indeed paying off. Although airplay had been somewhat scattered, the current single, Impressed, is making in-roads at stations across the country, picking up new believers each week. Already in excess of 40,000 units on the album, we are confident that Pictures For Pleasure will surpass the gold plateau very soon and be on its way to platinum. A special run of the album including a bonus, full colour picture of Charlie is being prepared and should be available the first week of June. As far as Canadian dates go, Sexton will be in Vancouver June 22, and there's a good chance of more shows in the summer, although none are fully confirmed at this point.

Newcomers to the roster, FM, are currently on tour in Western Canada until the end of May. Although the Con-Test album has been available for some time, initially through Quality, MCA and the band are treating this as a new start. We're hoping that radio and retail alike can view it the same way. The new single, Why Don't You Take It, is making an impact at both CHR and AOR.

COVER STORY

Billy Newton-Davis - "the image is pop music"

Love Is A Contact Sport is the title to Billy Newton-Davis' debut album. The session was produced by CBS A&R Director David Bendeth, who also wrote the title track and co-wrote I Jus Wanna No U.

Other writers were Michael Bolton, Doug James, Paul Bliss, Joel Feeney, Tim Thorney, Nona Hendryx, Dan Hartman, Patrick Henderson, Ian Prince, Lou Pomanti and Gary O'Connor.

Newton-Davis is credited with co-writing 4 of the songs. "This is my record," he exclaims. "I chose all this material - so it is mine," he continues, suggesting the variety enables him to "bounce around" different genres and styles of music.

"It's a mixture of sounds, of different feelings and of different emotions," he explains. "Yet I don't consider the album funk or R&B. . . I think the image of this album is pop music."

Responding to allegations that the first single, Deeper, was considered "too black," Newton-Davis says, "Looking beyond Canada, possibly Deeper could have been released in the U.S. or London and been a hit.

"With this project, we're trying to prove a point, and yet we're not trying to prove a point because I like it and if you don't like it, that's cool. I'm doing something I think most everyone will like."

Newton-Davis was signed to CBS after completing a demo originally intended for a "pop musical" he was producing. He explains that on hearing the material Wayne Patton of CBS Songs said, "We can do something with this stuff."

Triumph is now back in Toronto at their Metalworks studio, completing overdubs and vocals for their upcoming album, tentatively titled The Sport Of Kings. Ron Nevison, whose credits include the latest Ozzy Osbourne and Heart albums, was at the helm for the bedtracks in L.A., and Michael Clink is handling duties in Toronto. Scheduled for late July, The Sport Of Kings is a much anticipated release, following the gold-plus double live album, Stages. Tour plans for Triumph are currently in the works.

One of the hottest singles MCA has at this point is the beautiful ballad featuring Patti LaBelle and Michael McDonald. While initially gaining the most attention at A/C radio, the record has crossed over to CHR and is racing up the charts. Interestingly enough, LaBelle and McDonald only met each other a couple of weeks ago, when they were preparing to make an appearance on The Tonight Show. When the record was being recorded, Patti said that she would love to have McDonald do the male vocals, so after he was contacted and agreed, he laid down his part, but they never actually met. The single has proven to be a great kick-off to her new album. Winner In You.

All in all, things are shaping up for a great season. In addition, major releases to come by some of our distributed label's artists such as Lionel Richie, Billy Idol, Huey Lewis, and the like will make this one of the hottest summers ever.

Glass Tiger back home to launch Canadian tour

Capitol's Glass Tiger have returned from England, where footage for their latest video was completed. They are now off on a short Canadian tour.

The band's last single, Don't Forget Me, climbed to the No. 1 spot on the RPM 100 singles chart (Mar. 29/86), a position it held for 2 weeks - after only 8 weeks of release.

Their current single, the title track from The Thin Red Line album, has already made impressive initial chart gains and has just been released in the U.S. on the Manhattan label. The video for this single was shot at the historic Belvoir Castle and on the fields of Knebworth.

Directing the video was Storm Thorgeron, who is known for his film work with Yes, Belouis Some, and Nik Kershaw. The video depicts lead vocalist Alan Frew's daydreams of past battles and is interspersed with band performances.

According to Frew, who wrote The Thin Red Line, "The song was inspired from my readings of the 93rd Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, who fought at The Battle of Balaclava." The Thin Red Line refers to the advancing soldiers of the British army.

On finishing up dates in the Maritimes, Glass Tiger's June concerts include Guelph (7), Welland (15), Toronto (17-19), Thunder Bay (26), and Winnipeg (27).

After deciding where the music was "heading", Newton-Davis discovered that "within the music - I wanted guitar sounds. I felt the guitar would give it an edge. David knew it would - but I was all for it."

"It's true, I'm a romantic singer, but I like that rock edge. I'm a romantic, but I didn't want to present myself that way. I like to rock 'n' roll too, but I didn't want a consistent sound like that, and I didn't want my image to fall into that category."

Newton-Davis hopes his album will "reach the world" and that one day he will be propelled into the same spotlight as Prince or Phil Collins. "I'm an artist - and this is what I do: I write and I come up with ideas for the stage." He continues with "It's my life and there's nothing else I know how to do. It's like this is what I do and I've given myself no other choice but to do that."

He concludes with "I just can't sing a song . . . either I've experienced it or I know somebody who did or I want to experience it. That's how I get into the music - or that it touches me so much that I can cry over it, which is the difference of respecting artists and doing their material, and merely doing a rendition."

HOW YOU CAN MAKE $30,000 A YEAR AS A MUSICIAN WITHOUT A RECORD CONTRACT - OR MORE - James Gibson 197 pages - paperback - $14.95 - Prentice-Hall Canada. The title of this book will immediately attract the hard-pressed musicians, a group of people, probably representing 80 percent or more of the music community, who are coping on less than the minimum wage. You must remember, of course, that author Gibson is talking about the U.S. where there are far greater opportunities for work than in Canada. However, a musician is a musician, whether he is in New York, London, Toronto or Vancouver, and as Gibson suggests, "If you know how to book and play low-visibility, high-profit engagements, you'll maximize your profits. The hardest part is finding jobs that need your music." A freelance keyboardist, who has been playing the U.S. club circuit for the past 10 years, Gibson punches home the fact that "Music, like soap, is a product. It is produced, marketed and sold, and you should understand this process if you want to make money with your music." Very interesting reading, and it puts a different light on music as a profession.

LIKE PUNK NEVER HAPPENED - CULTURE CLUB AND THE NEW POP - Dave Rimmer - 190 pages - Paperback - $12.95 - Penguin Books, Canada. With Boy George and Culture Club now struggling to return to the charts, this book is timely. One might even read between the lines of this cleverly written odyssey of an era in the music industry that had to be written about. Did Boy George peak when he became too accessible to the press? Author Rimmer points out what could have been Boy George's "first big mistake with the media." In 1984 the band was voted Best Newcomers in the Grammy Awards. Boy George and his band were in London and were set up to accept the award via satellite connection. The Grammy people only wanted Boy George to accept but he insisted that all the members of the band appear, which they did and after thanking America, Boy George left his television audience with "You have taste, style and you know a good drag queen when you see one." There are a lot of "questionable" types who make it in the music business, but being a "liberated recording star," is offensive to the majority. A very entertaining and well-written musical adventure.

Molson's diversifies with 'Golden Gala' series

Offering the "Best of Broadway," Molson Breweries have announced that they, in association with "two of Canada's leading promoters, CPI and the O'Keefe Centre" will present the Molson Gala series this summer.

According to a Molson spokesperson, "The series is a result of successful corporate sponsorship in other theatrical ventures such as Evita, La Cage Aux Folles, and Camelot, and signifies a diversification in the marketing orientation for Molson's into the theatrical field."

The promoters are offering Dreamgirls, Evita, and A Chorus Line in Series 1, with Dreamgirls, South Pacific and Singin' In The Rain as Series 2. Although tickets will be made available, each series will be priced at $99, $81, and $59.

Dreamgirls, the 6-time Tony Award winner, opens the series July 1 and closes with Singin' In The Rain Aug. 31.

C-FAX morning man host Barry Bowman (l) delivers fresh flowers from Victoria Gardens to the staff and patients at the Victoria Children's Hospital, one of the many stops to deliver flowers donated on the first day of spring.

PROCAN presents 1st Jazz Award

The first PROCAN Jazz Composers' Award, which the performance rights organization hopes will become an annual event, was presented to Les Sabina (May 18) at the Canadian Stage Band Finals at Expo '86 in Vancouver.

Sabina's winning work, titled Piledriver, was written for an 18-piece ensemble. The competition, co-sponsored by the Canadian Stage Band Festival, attracts only works written for a big band jazz ensemble and carries a $2,000 cash prize.

Sabina is a graduate of the University of Toronto in Music Performance and has a Master's Degree from the University of Miami in Studio Jazz Writing. He currently teaches saxophone at the University of Windsor.

Judges for the competition were composer/performers Phil Nimmons and Ian McDougall, who were impressed with Sabina's "original melody lines within a traditional jazz concept."

7-11:00 PM

PETER GABRIEL - Pop/Rock
So - Geffen - XGHS-24088-P
With the R&B influenced Sledgehammer, giving the way, So will be an instant retail success. Also offering radio much to choose from. Guests include Kate Bush, Stewart Copeland, Jim Kerr and Shankar on this excellently produced set. Gabriel's producer, Canadian Lanois, offers his guitar touch on 4 tracks, well, guitarist David Rhodes co-wrote 'The Voice Again', with Gabriel - who is credited with the remainder. All tracks are key. Duet with Bush, 'Don't Give Up', a standout.

TRANSLATOR - Pop/Rock
Evening Of The Harvest
Columbia - FC-40296-H
Produced by Ed Stasium, this package is a pleasant surprise and merits a close listen. From the explosive Standing In Line, to the melodic ballads Crazy Every Day, and Winter Crying - all tracks are key.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC - Country
Killbilly Hill - Warner Bros - 92-54091-P
Ex-members of the Doobie Bros and Creedence Clearwater Revival, Stu Cook, Tim Goodman, Kent Howell, Keith Knudsen, and John McFee continue to maintain a foot in the door of contemporary country. They are currently on the charts with Reno Bound, not included here, and should keep a high chart visibility with the items put together here and produced by themselves and Jim Ed Norman. From a ballad standpoint, 'Don't Let Go Of My Heart' is a strong singles contender, as is Road Song and Pink Cadillac. The latter was written by Bruce Springsteen, and features Goodman on vocals.

LAURA VINSON - Country
Many Moons Ago
Royalty - RP-200-8602
One of the most underrated country singers in the business. Laura Vinson, backed by Red Wyng, puts her years of single activity into a high-powered package of entertainment. Produced by R. Harlan Smith, this set includes Laura's duet with Chris Nielsen, titled Blondes, which she co-wrote with Nielsen and the team of Sonmor and Charney. Also included is her single release of R. Harlan Smith's penning of Momma's Voice. Red Wyng are Mike Musson (fiddle, pedal steel, electric guitars and vocals), Frank Walls (lead, slide acoustic, pedal steel, keyboards, harmonica, and vocals), George Hauser (bass, vocals and guitar), and Randy Cross (drums and vocals). Other key tracks are Long Distance Love Affair, and Last Cowboy's Ride. Cancon.

THE FIXX - Pop/Rock
Walkabout - MCA - MCA-5705-J
Secret Separation called as first single and should garner as much attention as their previous hits. This track was penned by Jeannette Obstoj, who is credited with co-writing Tina Turner's Might Have Been Queen, from her Private Dancer LP. Remainder of material penned by Cy Curnin with the exception of Chase The Fire, which was written by drummer Adam Woods. Key are the title track, Read Between The Lines, and Sense The Adventure. Produced by Rupert Hine.

BOX OF FROGS - Pop/Rock
Strange Land - Epic - FE-39923-H
The Get It While You Can track was penned by Gary O'Connor, which should give it a MAPL logo (ML), and everything helps. Impressive list of musicians on this session. Includes a creative rendition of Gouldman's classic Yardbirds hit Heart Full Of Soul. Jimmy Page provides guitars on Asylum, Steve Hackett on Trouble and Average - which offers Ian Dury's vocal talents. Rory Gallagher provides sitar on Hanging From The Wreckage and guitars on You Mix Me Up and House On Fire. Produced by Paul Samwell-Smith. Lots of potential singles here.

HOWARD JONES - Pop
Action Replay - WEA - 96-04661-P
Contains remixed versions of current hit, No

One Is To Blame and Look Mama. Also includes previously unreleased Always Asking Questions. Phil Collins produced No One Is To Blame, and Rupert Hine produced Look Mama, remixed by Jason Corsaro.

A RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN - Broadway
FESTIVAL - The Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra - Chorus and Soloists, Erich Kunzel conducting - Fanfare - DFL-9022X
This is Erich Kunzel's second release on Fanfare, featuring music from Rodgers and Hammerstein including Oklahoma, Carousel, The King And I, and South Pacific to name just a few. These exceptional tracks, all recorded live digitally, features performances by soprano Deborah Milson, tenor Mark Dubois, and baritone Mark Pedrotti. Cancon.

RY COODER - Pop
Blue City - Warner Bros - 92-53861-P
Cooder penned all but 2 of the tracks and offers vocals on Blue City Down and Johnny Cash's Don't Take Your Guns To Town. Guesting musicians include organist Benmont Tench, David Paich and Steve Porcaro. Cooder also produced the set except for Marianne, which was produced by Jim Dickinson and performed by True Believers.

TOP GUN - Multi-format
Soundtrack - Columbia - SC-40323-H
Danger Zone taken as first single, performed by Kenny Loggins. Should set the pace for 1984 follow-up to Footloose. Also a strong contender is Loverboy's Heaven In Your Eyes. Other tracks supplied by Cheap Trick, Berlin, Harold Faltermeyer & Steve Stevens.

Teena Marie, Marietta and Larry Greene, Miami Sound Machine's Hot Summer Nights could be the big hit off this package.

THE POGUES - Rock
Rum, Sodomy & The Lash
MCA - MCA-5744-J
Signed to the Stiff label in the U.K., this band plays traditional Irish instruments and sings traditional Irish folk music, coupled with some of their own penning. Alternative music destined for popularity at the street level. Produced by Elvis Costello at London's Elephant Studios. Includes 3 U.K. hits, A Pair Of Brown Eyes, Sally MacLennane, and Dirty Old Town. Watch this band.

RED GUITARS - Pop/Rock
Tales Of The Expected - Virgin - VL-2373-W
Produced by Howard Gray and the band at U.K.'s Parkgates and Townhouse studios. An excellent offering from this new quintet. National Avenue and House Of Love were previously released on a 12", with the former being key. Also key are Suspicion And Fear, Be With Me, Trains On Time, and Love And Understanding.

PATTI LABELLE - Pop
Winner In You - MCA - MCA-5737-J
LaBelle acted as executive producer on this, her finest release to date. Includes first single, On My Own - a duet with Michael McDonald, currently bulleting up the RPM 100 singles chart. Variety of producers including Burt Bacharach and Carole Bayer Sager (who also wrote On My Own, and Sleep With Me Tonight). All tracks are key.

Country on upward swing despite station decline

There has been concern expressed by members of the Canadian country music field over the switch by some radio stations from country to pop and rock. However, it would appear that country, both traditional and contemporary, is on an upswing in popularity.

Case in point is the soaring popularity of CHAM (820 Country AM Stereo) in Hamilton, Ont. A massive campaign over the last year has provided the station with a status, rare in the country field. Besides a higher than usual profile in the "Steeltown" area, for a country station, they are enjoying an exceptional reach that covers the "golden horseshoe" as well as eastward to Whitby and Oshawa.

CHAM's Program Director Kevin McKanna attributes their new signal and increase in power to their success, but stresses that "It's the people here who have really brought the station into prominence. We have a great staff. It's the kind of thing that comes around once in a lifetime - where they all work well together. It's the people... yes, and the format." He continues with "We have a very strong parent company in Moffat Communications. They went after the increase in power and change in signal. They were willing to spend money on the country music format."

Although some country FM programmers have complained about Canadian country product, McKanna hasn't had any problems. "In fact," says McKanna, Canadian country recordings are getting better, particularly in the production end. We went country in '83 and I think the production value in Canadian country since then is twice as good. And, of course, being in the area where the majority of Canadian country artists live, we've had the chance to garner a good relationship with them. We have an open door policy. Country artists are far more promotion-minded than the pop and rock people. I've programmed Contemporary Hit Radio and I found that format has more of a problem with Canadian artists than we do. Country artists aren't above coming into the station and having a good time on the air with our people. That's why we call ourselves, The Station of The Stars."

Terry Trojek, chief buyer and chart compiler for Saturn Distributors, a major supplier/one stop for country product has noticed an increase in the popularity of country product, and he credits CHAM with adding to this popularity in the Hamilton and Toronto area. Trojek also sees an increase in country music popularity with juke boxes. "I think juke boxes are making a comeback," says Trojek "now with the video game craze petering out." Trojek however, faults Canadian country, "which needs some sort of cohesion," he says. "Take for example, Bootleg from the West Coast. Ron Irving phones me practically every day. He's an independent and he's selling records from away out in Vancouver. That's the problem, Canadian country people aren't very coordinated."

From a major record company, Charlie Camilleri, who looks after country at CBS, reports "We've improved in country sales over the last few years." He continues with, "About 5 years ago, we were sitting at about 3 percent of the U.S. country figures - now, we're up to 9.5 percent. That's healthy. We'll take that anytime."

Canadian country is also much more visible on charts and playlists across Canada, with some radio stations boasting 10, 12 and up to 15 percent Cancon on their charts, and even more on their playlists.

Recently licensed is JR Country in Vancouver. The owners researched the market and found a need for "contemporary country", and they are maintaining an open door policy with country artists, which should bring this station into prominence over the next few months.

Ronnie Hawkins on the road

Ronnie Hawkins has just completed his annual 2-week engagement at Montreal's Bonaventure Hotel, where "he tore the place up," said one observer. Ronnie introduced new members of his band while in Montreal. They're old buddies of his actually, Terry Danko (bass), and Jim Atkinson (guitar). Also on board is Don Griffith (keyboards), Jerry Baird (drums), and Ronnie's son Robin (rhythm guitar). Next up is a date at Lulu's in Kitchener (May 28-31), and they'll be at Ontario Place on June 12. Watch for a new Columbia single, taken from Ronnie's album. No title yet - we'll let you know.

Horseshoe setting for Oyster Tracks

We got this information a bit late, but Prairie Oyster had a party at Toronto's Horseshoe Tavern (May 21) to celebrate the release of Oyster Tracks, their new album on the Stony Plain label. Also on hand for the party were the Rev. Ken (from the Church of the Open Bottle), who gave the blessing, and Stan Dueck, the Mick Jagger of square dance callers, who led the audience in "terpischorean" celebrations. Stony Plain is distributed in Canada by RCA.

K.D. Lang taping album in U.K.

K.D. Lang and the Reclines were in England for their production session with Dave Edmunds. Her album is to be released on the Sire label. While in London they played the Maison Rouge. They will be playing Expo '86 on Canada Day and return overseas for more dates in the U.K. The Reclines have a new drummer named Miche Pouliot, who was previously associated with Bruce Cockburn, and Ben Mink on fiddle, who was formerly with FM. Ben, by the way, wrote quite a bit of material for the new album.
