Talks on mechanical rates scuttled by Ottawa body

The Canadian recording and publishing industries, as well as composers and authors have been dealt a "low blow" by the investigation branch of the Consumer and Corporate Affairs Department. The Canadian Musical Reproduction Rights Agency (CMRRA), the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA), and the Society for Reproduction Rights of Authors and Publishers (SODRAC), have been advised that the negotiations they had entered into for a revision of the 2 cents per song rate would be subject to prosecution under the Combines Act. The negotiating parties were obviously shocked with this decision, in view of the fact they had been encouraged to enter into negotiations by the Department of Communications and by people in the Consumer & Corporate Affairs department.

"It's a ridiculous situation," says CRIA's president Brian Robertson, "because the new Copyright Act recommendations actually encourages this type of activity - they encourage the creation of collective to

New Island appointments brings label into focus

Lee Silversides has been appointed President and Director of Island Records Canada, effective immediately. The above announcement was made by Chris Blackwell, owner and C.E.O. of Island Records.

Silversides has been with the company for 2 years where he served as Vice President, Promotion. His career spans 20 years in both the record and broadcast industries in Canada.

With the announcement of his new role with Island, Silversides moved to shore up other vacancies within the company. He announced the appointment of Carol Wright to the newly created position of Manager, Financial Affairs. She will also continue in her role as Director of Publicity for the company. Wright has been associated with Island for the past year, however her previous music industry experience covers over 10 years.

Silversides also announced the appointment of Bill Meehan to the newly created position of Vice President Sales & Marketing. This new role is assumed after 2 years with the label as Vice President, Sales. Meehan's record industry experience goes back more than 20 years in both Canada and the U.S.

Fanfare is first with Canadian manufactured Compact Disc - the label's Julian Rice (l) presents Toronto Symphony Music Director Andrew Davis with the very first 2 Fanfare CDs - Davis's Pachelbel Canon and Gershwin Connection albums.

negotiate such agreements. It's a classic product of bureaucracy, in terms of the maze that's up there (Ottawa)."

Robertson continues with "Our only option now is to go back to (Marcel) Masse, and (Michel) Cote (Ministers of Department of Communications and Consumer & Corporate Affairs respectively) and point out the discrepancies in the opinions and views."

As CMRRA's Paul Berry explains, the real ramifications of this directive by the Consumer and Corporate Affairs Department are that "where the music publishers and record companies would have agreed to an increase in the mechanical royalty rate, that would have been effected from April, the effect of the threat of prosecution by the Department of Consumer & Corporate Affairs, means that the music publishing industry and the composers and authors will lose several million dollars this year."

He continues, "In the broader context, it means that something will have to be done, legislatively, that will permit the negotiations that have been recommended in both the White Paper and the Charter Of Rights For Creators."

It was actually Berry, who twigged the Department of Consumer & Corporate Affairs to possible problems. "We knew there could be an issue," Berry explains, "and before we would go ahead and enter into any agreement, we wanted their clearance. We didn't want to put something into place and have them blow it up half a year later. We didn't want people going to jail or being threatened with jail, because of the nonsense of the Department of Consumer & Corporate Affairs."

The White Paper, which was issued some time ago, recommends that negotiations occur on a collection basis between the record industry and the publishing industry and composers and authors - as it is done in Europe. This is bolstered by the Charter of Rights For Creators, which recommends the abolition of the compulsory licence, which is consistent with the White Paper. "Then you get us in the third stage," says Berry, "saying 'Okay, let's start negotiating, and put something in place here, so there's not a big shock to the industry,' and you get the Department of Consumer & Corporate Affairs stepping in and saying if you do that, we're going to prosecute you."

Continuing, Berry suggests "I think they (The Department of Consumer & Corporate Affairs) are trying to scuttle the policy of the Department of Communications. They are trying to obstruct any forward movement in copyright in this area, and they are doing it to the detriment of, not only the publishers, but of the composers and authors, because they would have benefitted from this as well."

There are apparently 2 avenues in which the 3 negotiating parties can move - one is asking for an amendment to the Copyright Act on this specific problem, "or get something in place," says Berry, "where we can negotiate without breaking the law."

R.O.W. purchases Rhythms/DJ&B

Consolidating their position as one of Canada's largest retail operations, Vito and Don Ierullo, who head up Records On Wheels (R.O.W.) have jointly announced the purchase by R.O.W. of Rhythms/DJ&B, a Toronto-area one-stop.

With the acquisition, R.O.W. president Vito Ierullo indicates that Records On Wheels has now doubled the number of their accounts - and the increased business was apparently felt immediately after the deal was pacted on Friday, June 20/86.

"I guess we were the biggest one-stop in the country," he continues. "Now, we're the biggest, plus." The amalgamation has R.O.W. supplying 7 configurations to their stores: 7", 12", LP's CD's, cassettes, music videos and movies.

"We truly have everything now under one

"It's business as usual" says Zgarka's Kaye

Cyril Kaye has announced that "it's business as usual" at Zgarka Music Distribution. He explains, "We have sold the one-stop portion of our business to Records On Wheels, along with the name Rhythms/DJ&B, therefore we will have to change our name from Rhythms Distribution to an, as yet, unannounced new name."

In the meantime, the distribution company is apparently continuing to work on what Kaye describes as "predominantly dance-oriented products, along with it's fair roster of eclectic and classical based labels."

roof," he continues. "So now our actual costs of doing business are much less."

A little business acumen is offered by Ierullo: "When you're in business, you're in business to make money - you're not a charity. You're supposed to make money on accounts. But if you put out $25 to make $20, well, you're not going to get rich."

Ierullo firmly believes there still is a large market for singles. "A few years back, I thought the singles market was dead, but it's not. There is life in the little ones."

He continues with "We used to carry 45's as a kind of a jackass situation. We'd do maybe 10 to 15 thousand a month, but now we're doing some serious business - and with the new accounts - I'm hoping to double that figure."

Dominique Zgarka, while retaining ownership of the distribution division of Zgarka Music, has been hired on a consultancy basis "to supervise the smooth amalgamation of the customer bases."

Records On Wheels has hired "key" one-stop staff. "We gained some good staff," says Ierullo, "which is a plus, also. Everything seems to be adding up as one big plus."

The Rhythms one-stop operation will be merged into R.O.W.'s head office immediately.

The Ahed saga continues . . . !!

Although many in the industry know about Arc Records, Precision Pressing and Ahed Corporation, some of you probably don't read the financial news, and it might be an idea to bring you up to date. Ahed Corp has traded on the TSE for as low as 17 cents in the last 12 months. Ahed was valued at about 20 cents a share as recently as February of this year ($87,000). On June 25th, the stock had hit $34 per share. According to the Globe and Mail, "In trading of 91,642, or more than 10 percent of the total outstanding, the market revalued Mr. (Phil) Anderson's holding upward by $4.1-million to $13.9-million." The Globe also revealed that "Ahed used to be in the music business, and went broke. As of May 29, management estimated its liquidation value at $390,000, but debts were $465,000." Anderson has taken over the music part of Ahed, but the firm will go on to invest in other small to medium businesses, not related to the music business at all. Just another Canadian music industry success story. (EC: A couple of majors haven't done that well this month!!!)

Excuse me . . . !!

I had just talked to Lily Munro, Minister of Citizenship and Culture at Johnny Lombard-di's media reception for the 20th Anniversary of his CHIN Picnic (July 1), and when I arrived back at the office, I found a news release from her office. It was headed "Dynamic Ontario Arts initiative doubles the money." Her department has launched "a bold new $10 million program," which will benefit what they describe as "more than 200 Ontario arts organizations." I don't know who dreams up these programs, or who they talk to, but on the basis of Lily's own words, "Many people do not realize that the cultural sector is Canada's 11th largest manufacturing industry and is the 6th largest employer." Well, Lily . . . that's a lot to do about very little really. Why don't you take a real hard look at the recording industry, where you would at least stand the chance of recovering some of the taxpayer's money. That cultural barrel, designed to service the "select . . . and helpless few", appears to be bottomless. The money just keeps pouring in, and pouring out....!

The old boys & Shirley!!!

Shirley Harrison, a classy lady who has been a friend of the record industry for the past 32 years, is retiring from Eaton's. Charlie Camilleri and Eddy Colero got together a bunch of the "old guys", along with the "youngsters" in the business, to pay tribute to Shirley (June 25) at the Variety Club club rooms in the Westbury Hotel. Talk about "old guys", I didn't think so many had survived, and they all looked great, without exception. Kenny McGregor, Billy Kearns, Joe Pariselli, Bill Bannon, Bud Farquharson, Dick Bibby, Shelley Rosenberg, Herb Bradley, Ross Reynolds, Bob Kerr, Ross Ferris, Joe Summers, Bert Dunseith, Stan Klees . . . and more. It was also nice to see Dave Evans and Ron Newman show up - and both are looking just "mauuuvelous". What a night - and what a load of prizes Shirley received. CBS had just redone their sound room, so they had no more use for their wind-up phonograph player, which they gave to Shirley, and then Al Fletcher presented her with a CD player and a bunch of compact discs, on behalf of all the people who attended. One of the surprises for Shirley was that her family was there. She thought she had left them at home. Of course the evening wouldn't have been complete without a few words from Bud Farquharson, who is currently enjoying life on his yacht.

The unsponsored hole . . . ??

Topic of conversation at the Shirley Harrison tribute was about the company that's not sponsoring a hole at this year's golf tournament. Should we name names . . . ?? Not yet . . . there's still time to change their mind. By the way the golf tournament is sold out (EC: See what a small mention in this column can do!!) There's still tickets available for the dinner, but move quickly, because they're going fast.

Is the dynasty over . . . ??

The "fabulous" WEA Wackers lost their ballgame with MCA 17 to 13 . . . and Herb Forgie had to be carried off the field. His injuries were so great . . . he's going to be off for the season. Can you imagine WEA losing . . . actually being second to someone else?? That must really hurt. Says Garry Newman, rather coyly, "It had nothing to do with the fact that 5 of our regular players weren't there." (Well . . . any excuse will do!!) The following week's battle was a squeaker for WEA as they squeezed out one run to beat Roblan 12 to 11.

The press vs the record industry!!

I've been telling the record industry for years, that their greatest enemy is the press, particularly the daily variety. Case in point, Craig MacInnis, who I thought was beginning to show merit, in his Club Notes column in the Toronto Star dated June 24/86, writes: "Pop Goes The Weasel: Everyone knows the entertainment industry is overrun by sniveling little weasels - PR flacks, media moochers and shameless shills whose job is to whine until someone notices." He goes on to reveal an ally of his - Gareth Brown, manager of Rock 'n' Roll Heaven, a Toronto club, who is apparently introducing a 7-ft plaster of paris weasel, "in recognition of the species' contribution to the music industry," he's quoted by MacInnis. Brown continues with "We're going to change the weasel's shirt each month so he can represent a different record company." Well . . . stand down and take a bow, record industry. What a dull life it would be for entertainment writers . . . and club owners, if they didn't have record companies from which they could WEASEL free records, free trips, free parties, free tickets, FREE FREE FREE. These people have to be the biggest moochers in the business . . . !!

Who really was FIRST??

Well . . . CHUM-AM apparently wasn't the first radio station in Canada to adopt their present Favourites of Yesterday and Today, and Neil H. MacMullen, President of Annapolis Valley Radio, takes us to task. "Come on, get out of Toronto. You would be surprised what wonderful programming and talent is going on outside of the major markets," and, having just returned from Thunder Bay where I was able to sample some of this "outside of the major markets" sound, I couldn't agree more. Neil points out that "CHTN Charlottetown, adopted this format (Favourites of Yesterday and Today), in the fall of 1985, and CFDR Dartmouth, has basically had this format for years, ever since they signed on." He closed with "Don't give me this crap about the first in Canada. I can provide you with a list of firsts that I have instituted in radio, but I doubt if you are interested." (EC: Right on Neil!!) But I am!!

RECORDS TO RADIO

The Gospel according to Motown

by Cam Carpenter
Motown Label Manager

In the beginning, God created the heaven, the earth and Motown. On the seventh day God said "Let's Dance", and he did, and it was cool. And while God danced, he thought about harmony, and he invented The Temptations. He said, "I'll make 1986 their 25th Anniversary," and so it came to pass. And they will be busy, and they were.

They helped out a movie soundtrack, A Fine Mess, released a double 25th Anniversary album, and a new studio album called To Be Continued. God was pleased. And then God remembered it was The Supremes' 25th Anniversary, and he let them have a triple album. God was even more pleased.

Lightfoot &amp; Roth LPs being readied by WEA

WEA has scheduled a July 8th release date for album product by Gordon Lightfoot and David Lee Roth - 2 albums that will no doubt be well received by both radio and retail.

The Lightfoot album, East Of Midnight, was produced in Toronto by Lightfoot and David Foster. Anything For Love has been taken as the first single. This is the first album from Lightfoot in almost 3 years and follows Salute, an album that did reasonably well.

The Roth album, Eat 'Em And Smile, is his first solo LP, and follows his Crazy From The Heat EP, which surpassed the triple platinum mark in Canada.

Cam Carpenter

And then God decided 1986 would be the year he sent us to El. And he asked Who's Johnny, but he didn't know, so he came up with another single, Love Always.

While God danced alone, he realized he needed a partner, and he invented women. They danced real good, and God said "can you sing?" And they said "just listen, bub."

And Vanity sang Animals, and God was pleased. And Pal sang Talk We Don't, and God said "Yeah!" And Fizzy Quick sang Hangin' Out, and God said "Fresh!" And the Mary Jane Girls sang Walk Like A Man, and God didn't understand, but kept dancing.

It suddenly dawned on God that he had some nasty women singers, and needed some

COVER STORY

The Art Of Noise - an invisible silence

The Art Of Noise recently gained prominence in the international field with In Visible Silence, their debut for the Chrysalis label. The album has spawned the hit single, Peter Gunn, and as keyboardist J.J. Jeczalik explains, that cover was actually, "a one in a hundred shot."

He continues: "Anne (Dudley) and I were in the studio writing a bass riff in F. We were working on it for a couple of days and someone came in and said, 'you know what that is, don't you? You've just written Peter Gunn'."

"So we listened to Duane Eddy's version, and sure enough, it was damn near the same, but we certainly weren't aware of that, at the time. I mean . . . there are only so many notes in a scale."

"We decided, instead of getting stuck in a lawsuit, to call it Peter Gunn by Henry Mancini. It made life a lot easier, and then we thought we should take it one step further nasty men, so he invented Rick James. And he was baaaaa! And he roamed the country with his Freak Flag, and sang about a Sweet & Sexy Thing. And God was so pleased with Rick, he invented another little rock 'n' roller by the name of Rockwell. And he gave him a new album called The Genie, and a single called Carme. God was so pleased with all these new singers, he decided that people should see them in concert.

So God called his main man Stevie, and said "Stevie, won't you come out and play?" And Stevie said "Sure God" and packed his bags and headed towards 68 different cities.

God stood back and looked around and was pretty pleased with himself. He had hit singles, solid albums and bands touring all over the place. There was only one thing left that God didn't have - so he thought about Lionel, and thought, and thought, and thought . . .

and hook up with Duane . . . "

It was in 1983 when The Art Of Noise released Into The Battle - the first for Trevor Horn's ZTT label - and although critically acclaimed, that album was overshadowed by Two Tribes, the Frankie Goes To Hollywood LP.

Jeczalik admits this situation led to their split with ZTT and eventual signing with Chrysalis. "At the time when we started making music, there was a great passion in England for signing groups that had no talent, but had haircuts."

He continues with, "We decided to form this group that had no real image. But it turned out that we were doing all the real work while Trevor Horn and Paul Morley were copping all the credit. As Frankie took off, unfortunately, Trevor had less and less time to spend with us. It got to a point where it became an untenable situation."

All 3 of Art Of Noise band members got their respective musical "starts" with Horn and his "School of Music Production." Jeczalik is therefore quick to point out, "We haven't come out here to slag him off, because without him, we wouldn't be here."

Jeczalik refers to himself as a "musical entrepreneur", not a musician. "I mainly used the Fairlight and did a bit of mixing on this album," he quips.

This fact should lend itself to a very "interesting" live show, Jeczalik suggests. Their first live performance was for a British TV show, The Tube, last winter.

"They insist on doing the thing live," he relates. "We didn't want to get into bringing in a bunch of tapes, so The Tube started it off because we hadn't played live before. We're not a live gig."

Jeczalik maintains the group will use no tapes when performing in concert, and hopes Duane Eddy will be able to give special appearances. "There's no point in getting a tape player and pushing a button - it's boring," he adds.

The reasoning for the band's anonymity is simple, as Jeczalik explains, "We just think people should listen to the music, and not worry about who's doing it and why."

MUSIC OF CANADA LTD.

FROM THE FORTHCOMING ALBUM "EAST OF MIDNIGHT" — JULY 8/86 RELEASE

Virgin pacts licensing deal with Sony Video

The Sony Video Software Company has announced a U.S. licensing deal with Virgin Music Video, which will give the largest distributor of music software, access to such titles as Genesis, Culture Club, David Bowie, and Paul McCartney.

With the first releases, not scheduled until August, Sony Canada expects a similar deal to be reached shortly. Those videos comprise: Crush The Movie (Orchestral Manoeuvres In The Dark), Live In London (James Brown), Gasoline In Your Eye (Cabaret Voltaire), and a compilation entitled Now That's What I Call Music.

Although Virgin Music Video acquires the majority of product through Virgin Records, the company also has third party

CASBY Awards set for Canada's Wonderland

After a couple of delays, the 1986 CASBY Awards have been scheduled to be presented at the Kingswood Music Theatre of Canada's Wonderland (Aug 15/86). The awards presentation will be seen nationally on CBC Television at 11:30 pm that same date.

David Marsden, CFNY-FM Director of Operations and Programming, explains, "One of our major objectives was to hold the show in a theatre allowing as many people as possible to attend. The Kingswood Music Theatre can hold a lot of people." He continues with "We've priced tickets so the audience can afford them. It's truly a people's show."

The tickets include admission to the grounds, which allows for a "full day at Canada's Wonderland. Shuttle buses will be provided from 2 Toronto subway stations.

The CASBYs will be held in 2 segments this year. In addition to the awards evening, there will be a reception, the location of which will be announced at a later date, on Aug. 14, the day prior to the awards presentation.

The 14 categories include Album, Single and Group of The Year, Best Female, and Male Vocalist, Most Promising Group, Male and Female Artist, Engineer/Producer, Best Video, Album Art, Independent Artist and Non-Recording Artist, and Best International Album. The ballot supplies 5 suggestions for each category, but allows for a "write-in" choice as well.

licensing arrangements with RCA Video, Arista, and Mute Records.

Mike Watts, Managing Director of Virgin Music Video, notes, "We spent nearly a year researching the market, and indeed, postponed the licensing of some of our premiere titles until we could find a company

New licensing structure for background music

The Canadian record industry has taken steps to curb what it describes as "widespread illegal exploitation" of its product. Brian Robertson, President of the Video Music Licensing Agency (VLA) has introduced a video licensing program for the use of pre-recorded music in background music systems.

The new license will become effective July 1, 1986, and says Robertson, "any unlicensed users after that date will be infringing copyrights contained in the recording."

VLA was created in 1984, at which time, Robertson points out "80 percent of music videos that were being exhibited were illegally duplicated. That figure is now less than 20 percent."

Robertson goes on to explain that "With few exceptions, the vast majority of music that you hear in retail stores, restaurants, shopping centres and other commercial establishments is also illegally obtained, and it is important that, through the new licensing procedure, the record companies be given the opportunity of protecting their copyrights."

Robertson concludes with "We have been communicating with the major suppliers of background music in Canada for some months now, and we hope to have a substantial portion of the licensing framework in place by the July 1st deadline."

Molson funds secure top talent for Summerfest

Toronto's Harbourfront facilities, which include the Shipdeck Stage, the Water's Edge Cafe, and the Brigantine Room, will feature a variety of international and top Canadian performers this summer.

Following the annual Canada Day weekend festivities, 4 thematic weekends of entertainment have been scheduled, highlighting: new country, jazz, rock 'n' roll, and Soul 'n' blues.

The new country weekend (July 4-6) will showcase Johnny MacLeod, Prairie Oyster, Joanne Mackell, Colleen Peterson, Blue Rodeo, Murray McLauchlin, and The Handsome Neds.

The 8th Annual Molson Lite Great Jazz on The Lake Festival (11-13), the longest running jazz festival in the country, has scheduled 17 Dixieland bands and features Jim Galloway's American All Stars. Soprano saxman Galloway will bring with him trumpeter "Wild Bill" Davidson, bassist Milt Hilton, guitarist Marty Gross, pianist Keith Ingham, and trombonist Dan Barrett.

That same weekend, at other locations, will see various modern jazz artists performing. David Caplan, Program Coordinator explains, "Modern jazz is constantly changing with which we could enjoy the right sort of partnership.

"It was soon clear," he continues, "that not only was Sony the company most clearly committed to the deal but, due to its unique arrangement with Capitol Records, it would also guarantee us the greatest possible access to both video and record stores."

Sony is anticipating a minimum of 4 Virgin lead titles each quarter, which will substantially build Virgin's share of the music video market.

This pact marks the first time a U.K. music video label will have its own identity in North America.

Eurythmics have Revenge on new RCA album

The latest album from Eurythmics, titled Revenge, has been scheduled for a July 7th release. Missionary Man, has been taken as the first single, for Canada and the U.S., preceded by a radio-only 12". When Tomorrow Comes is the designated single for other countries.

The album was produced in Germany and France, with mixing in France.

A world tour by the duo and band is now in place beginning in the U.S. in July. Canadian dates include Expo '86 in Vancouver from July 28 through 30, followed by the Kingswood Music Theatre at Canada's Wonderland near Toronto (Aug 23).

Eurythmics comprises writer-producer Dave Stewart and singer-writer Annie Lennox. They are backed by drummer Clem Burke, harmonica player Jimmy "Z" Zavala, keyboardist Patrick Seymour, bassist Chucio Merchan, and backing vocalist Joniece Jamison - all of whom will be included on the world tour.

During the recent Montreux TV Festival, Eurythmics previewed 3 tracks from the album: Thorn In My Side, When Tomorrow Comes, and Last Time.

from day to day . . . because of its free improvisational pattern, creating new voicings and solos never being played twice the same way."

Caplan has scheduled over 20 bands and he points out "the concerts are co-funded by the Music Performance Trust Fund with the assistance of the Toronto Musicians' Association."

The weekend of July 18-19 features 3 local rock 'n' roll acts: the Toronto Rockabilly All Stars (Johnny Dee Fury and Jack DeKeyser) Paul James and Professor Piano with the Rockin' Deltoids, as well as Roy Buchanan.

The final weekend "is Canada's only festival dedicated solely to the blues," says Derek Andrews, who is organizing the event. He adds, the festival is Toronto's first since the 1974 Olympic Island Festival.

The Molson Soul 'n' blues weekend will feature "3 debuts, 2 of Toronto's best and 4 artists we see all too little of," says Andrews. Appearing are Jack DeKeyser, Bobby Bland, Rory Block, Jimmy Johnson, Margie Evans, Lowell Fulson, Eddie Cleanhead Vinson, Otis Rush, Downchild Blues Band, and Robert Junior Lockwood.

Country Week

Yes, there's lots of Cancon!!

For those who were doubting the quality and quantity of Cancon country product - good Cancon country product - forget it. There has been so many great releases, the only problem country programmers are finding is the time to audition this product and the playlist and chart room. Says Mike Ried of CJFW-FM in Terrace, B.C. "Seems to be an increase in the number of Canadian artists recording - and so much of it is good material. It's too bad the days were not longer, so we could give them all equal airplay." While we're with Mike, he reports that the Mercey Brothers packed the R.E.M. Lee Theatre's 700 seats for their concert of what Mike describes as "country, from the traditional to today's crossover material." Mike was also impressed with the time the Mercey Brothers spent with their fans, signing autographs and talking to the people, which gave them the advantage of being a little closer to their fans.

Honky Tonk Heroes . . . wheww!!

That's real high octane country from Calgary's Honky Tonk Heroes Band. Their latest single, Magic In The Moon, was produced by Wayne Saunders at Edmonton's Zone Five Studios and released on the High Octane label, and should break the band out of the confines of Alberta. They've become almost an institution within the province, having toured for the past 5 years during which time they released 5 singles. The band's steelman, Tim Jeffery, who doubles on acoustic and bass guitars, wrote and performed the new single. The other members of the band are Bruce (Dalton) Rohn (fiddle, banjo, guitar), Kelly LarocQue (banjo, mandolin, harp, guitar), Charles Holley (guitar, bass, banjo), and Craig Sullivan (drums). There's a solid mix of slick bluegrass, country rock, and pure country with this band.

Boehme & Banks perform as duo

The latest from Kingston, Ontario's Flyin' High label is a duet by Dieter Boehme and Anne Banks, titled It's Not Cheating Yet. The plug side of the single was penned by Anne, who has been singing professionally for the past 4 years. She will be releasing a solo single, written by Dieter, later on this year. The session for the duet was produced by Cam Shillington at Nashville's Reflections Studios. Instrumental back-up was supplied by Gary Prim, Greg Galbraith, Sonny Garriish, Jerry Kroon, Jack Ross, and Bruce Watkins. The Tennessee Express provided background vocals.

New releases from Book Shop

Susan Candy, who looks after Artist & Repertoire for the Cornwall, Ont.-based Book Shop label, reports the release of single product by The Double Eagle Band, and Gilles Godard. The former are off with Homegrown, which was written by Dan Mitchell and Murry Kellum. The single was produced by Declan O'Doherty. The flip of the single is rather unique, an interview with the band, who were voted Newcomer of The Year by the Manitoba Association of Country Acts. An album will be released in August. The latest from Gilles is titled It's A Fine Line, which he produced himself in Nashville, and co-wrote with Tim Nichols.

European release for St. Germain

Denise Mott of Comstock Records, passes along information that their release of No More On The Outside, by Ray St. Germain is having much success in Europe. The single was released to the U.K. and 7 other countries including France, West Germany, Switzerland, Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg, and The Netherlands. Says Denise, "The vote seems to be unanimous in central Europe that Ray St. Germain and his music fit in very nicely with European programming. By the way, Ray will be emceeing the National Talent Contest (Sept. 10) during Country Music Week in Winnipeg.

The Stokers are touring

The Stoker Brothers have had a full month of June touring, during which time they spent a few days in the recording studio. Coming up is a date at the Canadian Open Country Singing Contest Finals in Simcoe (July 6). Following this they are at the Point After in St. Thomas (7-12), and then will be sharing the bill with John Conlee, David Frizzell, The Kendalls, and Tommy Hunter at Burwash (19), the Old Smokey Truck Pull in Cookstown (20), and they cap the month at the Red Onion in Brantford (21 to 26). The month of August is also filling in nicely with an Aug 8th date at the C-HOW Radio Family Day at Sherkston Beach, their own Fan Club Concert at the Simcoe Arena (9), Dixie Lily's in Kitchener (12 to 17), Jessie's in Stratford (18 to 23), and J.R.'s in London (25 to 30). Their new Little Devil single, You Can't Hide From Love, is beginning to chart and playlist across the country.

Eddie Eastman to Book Shop

Eddie Eastman has signed with Book Shop and will be in the studio this fall with Gilles Godard to work on a Greatest Hits package. In the meantime, he is on release with his new Book Shop single, Don't Hold Back, which was co-written by John Gulley and Cyril Rawson. The single was produced by Eddie and Gilles in Nashville and qualifies as 3-parts Cancon.

Downs release for Jerry Ness

Jerry Ness, the national Talent Contest winner in Edmonton last September, debuts with his Downs single, He's All Over You (Now That You're All Over Me). Byron O'Donnell produced.

PROCAN handbook available to industry

The PROCAN Handbook - a guide for composers and lyricists, described as "a layman's guide to copyright and performing rights," is being made available to the industry.

"It's time the whole music industry knew what we're about," says Jan Matejcek, President of the Performing Rights Organization of Canada (PROCAN), "and that's what we intend to do with the free distribution of the Handbook."

Matejcek goes on to explain, "Although PROCAN was formed in 1940, this year marks the 10th anniversary of the company as a Canadian-owned and operated performing rights society - and the Handbook is published to mark this anniversary."

The Handbook, available free from PROCAN offices, covers copyright, performing rights generally, and in particular the operation of PROCAN, music publishing and reproduction rights.

Matejcek concludes with "The Handbook is suggested reading, not only for composers and publishers, but also for all involved in music who desire a better knowledge of performing rights."

Funk/jazz/country/HM on Sony software list

Sony's Software Operations has announced a July release of videos that covers the heavy metal, funk, pop, rock and country music forms. One of the more interesting releases is that by Jim Hendrix, a 26-min. (BETA/VHS) video titled Johnny B. Goode. Besides the title track, the late guitarist is seen performing Are You Experienced, All Along The Watchtower, Art Attack, The Star Spangled Banner, and Voodoo Child. Suggested list $22.95.

FAX Awards honour citizens

Victoria's C-FAX recently honoured 24 of the city's leading citizens through their annual FAX Awards. The winners were announced at a special awards luncheon, carried live on the station and in a FAX Awards tabloid newspaper distributed to 103,000 homes in the Greater Victoria area. C-FAX President Mel Cooper said, "Victoria is blessed with many, many people who devote their time and skills to make this a better place to live. It's an honour for C-FAX to be able to play a part in recognizing their contributions.

KX96 announces changes

KX96 FM Brandon has announced changes in their programming staff. Murray Redman has been moved up to Program Director. He was previously Music Director at the station along with handling the PM Drive. As well as programming duties he will take over the midday show. Paul Ward has been upped to Music Director. He will also fill the PM Drive slot. Dave Farough is the station's new Promotions Director.

Everest takes Q107's Homegrown top prize

Winner of the "grand prize" in Q107's (Toronto) 8th annual Homegrown contest were Everest. Their track, You're The Only One, won over 650 other entries in this year's competition - one of the best in recent memory.

In the setting of Toronto's Rock 'N' Roll Heaven (formerly Heaven), Everest was awarded a $12,000 "shopping spree" at Steve's Music Store, co-sponsored by Peavey Equipment, plus $1,000 cash.

As well, the band will record a single at Toronto's Manta Sound with distribution by MCA. Also included in the winning package is a video, to be completed at Tube Productions and directed by Bob Connolly.

Jim McLellan, band spokesman for Everest, attributes "a lot of hard work and dedication," to winning the contest, particularly since their lead singer only joined the band "9 short months ago."

The second prize went to Red Letter for their entry of Just Surviving. They received $5,000 worth of stage clothes from Tiamo, $1,000 in cash, plus image consulting by U-International.

Third place was a tie between Simon Chase and The Jitters. The prize was 50 hours studio time at Certain Circle Studio, plus $1,000 in cash.

The Saskatchewan Reunion at Expo brings together former Saskatchewan programmer Barry Bowan (l) now morning man at Victoria's C-FAX, CFQC morning man Denny Carr (centre) and Expo Chairman Jimmy Pattison. The latter grew up in Luseland. The 2-hr broadcast was carried via satellite to both stations.

ARIA touting second
INFOFAIR '86

The Alberta Recording Industry Association (ARIA) is currently promoting the province's second INFOFAIR, which is being held in Edmonton Sept. 6 & 7 at the Edmonton Inn

The first INFOFAIR was held in Calgary a few months ago, and because of its success, prompted plans for the Edmonton event

The Calgary meet attracted participants from all segments of the entertainment industry including manufacturers, studios, musicians, music stores, services and record companies as well as drum clinics, PROCAN and CAPAC seminars, workshops, demonstrations of new computer technology, plus giveaways and showcases.

Says Juliette Charney, a Director of ARIA, "Booth space is available at reasonable rates. There's an opportunity for companies to demonstrate their latest products, a chance to offer incentives to potential customers or clients. As well, there's the opportunity to sell their merchandise to the public, preview their clients through the use of video, and lots of space to meet other people in the industry."

There will also be time allotted for 4 clinics/workshops/seminars/demonstrations each day, to a maximum of 1 hour each.
