"We're clean - payola doesn't exist" - Dawe

Linda Dawe, who founded her own record promotion company 6 years ago, was one of the first to get into the independent promotion business. Linda Dawe Associates (LDA) is now a fully computerized, national independent record promoter.

"We're as clean as God, mother and apple pie," says Dawe, "and it's really hard to work a record based on your personality. It makes it a lot tougher." Since the days of working from her coffee table to where she is now, Dawe has worked a large number of records, and successfully, without having to rely on cash or drugs.

Dawe quotes Derek Sutton (ex-Styx and now Glass Tiger Manager), who said "In the U.S., there are good guys and there are bad guys." Elaborating, she says, "One delivers based on the merit of the product and the other delivers on cash. In Canada, payola, in the true sense of the word does not exist."

Although none of Canada's major labels will employ her services, LDA is often approached by her U.S. counterparts. "The problem with working records in Canada for U.S. indies," explains Dawe, "is that in most cases, the labels they are working for, release the records 6 to 8 weeks in advance of Canada."

"I believe this is a symbiotic industry, and I think there is a certain element here in living with your fellow man - the record companies. So, far be it for me to have them annoyed with me. I really don't want that. I would rather live with them."

When working records, Dawe explains that with the exception of the Toronto market, she works "the rest of the country by phone." LDA tracks and monitors 150 radio stations each week, as well as distributors, the trades, and the consultants for their clients.

Dawe points up that "If the major labels could ever support the situation, it would make for a really healthy industry, because we do our job here, on the straight and narrow. But their main fear is the U.S. situation - they don't want to recreate that in Canada, and I've always lived within those boundaries - and their wishes."

Dawe concludes with, "It's important to create your own team - outside of your record company - and the independent record promoter is an integral part of this team."

Corey Hart tops February list of certifications

Corey Hart's Boy In The Box heads the list of metal certifications by CRIA for February with a diamond award. The award signifies the sale of one million units of his Aquarius album.

Certified as 9-times platinum is Brothers In Arms by Dire Straits, with double platinum awards going to Arcadia (So Red The Rose), and the self-titled Whitney Houston album. Rush scored platinum for their Power Windows album. A platinum single award went to Lionel Richie for his Say You, Say Me release.

Gold certifications went to Rush (Power Windows), Offenbach (En Fusion), Passe-Partout (Le Noel De Pruneau Et De Cannelle), Howard Jones (Human's Lib), Falco (Falco 3), Cash/Jennings/Nelson/Kristofferson (Highwayman), The Cult (Love), Various Artists (The Wrestling Album), Paul Young (No Parlez), Soundtrack (Rocky IV), and an Educational album (It's OK To Say No).

Gold single certifications were made for Richie's Say You Say Me, Martine St-Clair (Ce Soir L'Amour Est Dans Tes Yeux), Klymaxx (I Miss You), and Miami Sound Machine (Conga).

Grant Fullerton returns with Freedom single Recording veteran Grant Fullerton returns to the business with his debut on the Freedom label, titled Lenny. The plug side was co-written by ex-Trooper members Ra McGuire and Rob Deans. The single was engineered by Keith Stein at Vancouver's Mushroom Studios, while the mix was engineered by Bob Gallo at The Hit Factory in Toronto, and mastered by Peter Norman at McClear Place Mastering Studios in Toronto.

The flip, Gotta Survive, is a Fullerton original, produced, engineered and mixed by Bob Gallo at The Hit Factory.

Freedom is distributed through their Toronto offices.

Jarre composition a tribute to Astronaut

Jean-Michel Jarre's staging of Rendezvous Houston: A City In Concert (Apr. 5) described as "an unprecedented multi-media event" (see RPM Mar. 1/86) was the subject of a major press conference (Mar. 3). Taking part were Houston Mayor Kathryn J. Whitmire as well as representatives from the Houston Chamber of Commerce and the Johnson Space Centre.

The press conference pointed up the importance of Jarre's performance, described as "probably the most spectacular multi-media concert ever held." The concert celebrates both Houston's and the State of Texas' 150th birthdays. The celebration will also commemorate the 25th anniversary of N.A.S.A.'s Johnson Space Centre.

A sad twist to the event was the announcement that Jarre's new album, Rendez-Vous, written specially for the Houston concert, includes a track titled Last Rendez-Vous (Ron's Piece), a composition Jarre wrote for Astronaut Ron McNair before the space shuttle tragedy last month. At the concert announcement in Houston, N.A.S.A. Astronaut Bruce McCandless II said "Ron (McNair) would have realized a personal dream by performing with Jean-Michel at the event and playing saxophone on the recorded composition." The album will be released April 5.

"The 'indie' thing got out of hand" - Dixon

Neil Dixon's music industry career spans 2 decades, and he is currently one of Canada's few independent promoters, and probably the only one who is promoting Cancon product in the U.S.

"I think the 'indie' thing in the U.S. got out of hand," says Dixon. "There's no question about it - it was going to come to an end someday - and that was an opportune time to put an end to it."

He stresses however, "I don't think managers nor groups will sit on the sidelines and say 'Okay, now we'll trust the record companies and do everything perfectly'. I think managers will still hire people they believe are good promoters, to help promote their records. It's as simple as that."

Dixon explains his approach to U.S. radio stations, "I don't go down there with a bag full of money and drugs. I phone and tell them how the record is doing - give them the stats - and do everything a normal promotion person would do."

When asked if the recent press coverage has hurt his business, he replies, "It's not a serious blow. Luckily, most of the people up here are diversified enough. They're into publicity, PR and other things. Nobody up here is going to be knocked out of business, but it's unfortunate that one paintbrush paints everybody the same colour."

Dixon goes on to explain, "In the U.S., most of the record companies are becoming centralized. There are a lot of cities with quite large populations that don't even have regional reps. Those radio stations are phoned from quite a distance anyway. So, phoning from Canada is no different than phoning from New York or L.A."

Dixon believes the independent promoter expose has actually created an opportunity "for those good promoters". But for him, record promotion is only a "small part" of what he does. He doesn't believe there is room for expansion for record promoters in Canada, "Because you've got Cancon. Most Canadian groups don't need a tremendous amount of help in Canada. You've already got the biggest promoter going for you - the Canadian government." He suggests that "The people that need help in Canada are the unknown British or U.S. groups - as opposed to the superstars. Because they are the ones who have to compete with the superstars and Cancon."

It would appear there is still a role for the independent promoter, perhaps not for record promotion, but as Dixon points up "A lot of managers just don't want to take any chances."

WATTS

Excuse me . . . !!

Now . . . this is a shocking revelation. It would appear that the majority of Cancon singles are moving on airplay alone - with very little sales showing. While British and American singles are selling 1,200 to 1,500 copies a week, Cancon singles, enjoying the same chart prominence are struggling through with 50 and 80 copies sold in a week. Here's another interesting situation, a Cancon single that has been on the chart for a few weeks, and isn't really looking that good, sold less than 10 copies last week, yet a major radio station is moving it up like it was a hit. (EC: What are you getting excited about. Isn't that the way it's supposed to be. Now, when the listeners hear the record on the radio, being played like a hit, they'll go out and buy it . . . or they're supposed to . . . that's how the system works!!!)

How about a car made to order?

What record company executive made elaborate plans to rid himself of his land yacht for a BMW 735, only to find his head hit the roof? Rumours have it that his faithful and loyal employees are talking about importing one of those famous Vancouver cabs for him . . . you know, the walk-in kind!!!

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

In defence of the Junos . . . !!

Just in case you weren't aware . . . Canada was one of the early pioneers of modern-day record-type TV award shows. Just for your information, the British didn't get in to this type of awards until last year . . . and the Australians have only been doing it for 2 years. (EC: Howcum . . . the British and the Australians are leaders in the rock and pop business, without the advantage of a TV awards show??) Canada's first televised Juno Award show was held in March of 1975 from the Queen Elizabeth Theatre in Toronto. Paul Anka was the host.

Nice table guests . . . !!

Who was that country artist, in town just recently, with his crappy manager. What a meal that must have been. The hosts should have invited that snotty-nosed record supplier, which would have capped a perfect meal.

Big Country tickets will be scarce!

Tickets for this year's coveted Big Country Awards show will be scarce, and some of those who couldn't get tickets last year have made early reservations. This has obviously been a year for new faces to gain prominence. Take a look at the nominations, and you'll Jimmy Barnes, Geffen/WEA recording artist took time out from his U.S. tour where he is opening for ZZ Top, to film a video for his single, Working Class Man. The clip features footage from the Gung Ho movie directed by Ron Howard (centre) and which stars Michael Keaton (r).

New Collins single should create diamond LP status

WEA Music Canada is confident that the new Phil Collins single, Take Me Home, will nudge his album, No Jacket Required, into diamond status (one million units sold).

The Atlantic album, now on the RPM 100 for more than 50 weeks, also gained an extra boost of publicity when Collins walked away with 3 Grammy Awards. The album is well over the 900,000 mark at press time.

Collins is also reported to be working on what may be the last album with him and his old group Genesis. No release date has been confirmed. There are also reports of plans for a possible Genesis tour.

A little sideline with Collins is his guesting on the forthcoming Howard Jones, No One Is To Blame, a re-recording of this track, which will be included on the Jones mini-album. A release is slated for late March or early April.

see what I mean. Remember, once you pay for your ticket . . . everything is all inclusive, and that means you don't have to pay for drinks, coat check, parking or dinner wine. It's a nice deal in a very posh setting at the Inn On The Park in Toronto. Mark May 4th as a very important date for Canadian country music.

How's that for support . . . !!

During the recent European tour by Honeymoon Suite, the guys were getting a little homesick by the time they reached Amsterdam. As it turned out however, the Amsterdam date was one they will remember for some time. Besides playing to a packed house, who should be in the audience but Stan Kulin, the president of their record company from back home. Stan gave them a little pep talk and told them how well their WEA album and single was doing. Now, that's long-distance support . . . !! By the way, Honeymoon Suite will be autographing their new album at Sam's on Yonge Street on Apr. 4, the first time an autograph party has been allowed here in a long long time. Remember guys, no autographing of the female anatomy.

Bruce Cockburn is big in Germany!

Bruce Cockburn's World Of Wonders album is a very strong item in Europe, particularly in Germany where it bulleted up the national chart to No. 48. Actually, the album is catching fire in practically every country in the world. Bruce will be touring Europe shortly.

Listen to the cash registers . . . !!

Well, the majors have finally come through with some scorches that should bring the customers back into the stores. Watch out for Van Halen's 5150 album to become one of the hottest of the year. Off and already looking like a big winner is Dirty Work by The Rolling Stones, carrying with it a lot of controversy, which helps to sell records anyway. Another very hot album for the spring/summer is Bob Seger's Like A Rock, a mover up the RPM 100 with a bullet at No. 72 first week on. Singles that will be big attractions are The Stones' Harlem Shuffle, Greatest Love Of All by Whitney Houston, and Van Halen's Why Can't This Be Love . . . and by the way, anyone who says Van Halen lost when David Lee Roth went solo, should listen very closely to this new album. Sammy Hagar will bring this group back into prominence very quickly.

COVER STORY

Fine Young Cannibals - it's the song that counts

Fine Young Cannibals comprises vocalist Roland Gift, with guitarists David Steele and Andy Cox. The latter two were formerly with The English Beat. They set out on their own musical destiny when that group disbanded in 1983.

"We try to make things that last a bit longer," Cox explains. "Songs that perhaps you can still listen to in 10 years and it would still say something. We think it's the song that counts, but probably it's image and production these days that seem to count a lot more."

The band's single that is currently bulleting up the charts is Johnny Come Home - their song about runaways. Johnny has appeared as an RPM Hot Single for 4 consecutive weeks. Cox points up the reason for this song. "Kids are moving to London (England), thinking it's going to be really good, but unless they're prepared, it can be really disastrous. Our primary concern is to write songs that have some sort of realistic content - and that's what Johnny has."

He continues with "In England, it's really depressing and frustrating. There's been a fall off in people going to clubs where groups have been showcasing. Now, these people are saving up to go see WHAM or some of the other big names. But, starting out, it's a real problem. New groups are having a hard time finding places to play."

The songwriting chores are handled by Gift, while Cox and Steele both contribute some of the music writing. When asked about the use of synthesizers, he replies "We write with our instruments - there are no synthesizer programs. We experimented, working with a computer, but we didn't get along with it very well."

Cox believes however, that "People have gotten a bit sick of that sort of stuff anyway - the highly produced synth-stuff."

Interestingly enough, Cox had a bit of difficulty explaining his inspiration for songs. "I don't really know - I suppose everything you hear must go in - and then these little tunes pop out, but I don't know how they do, or why they do, or where they come from."

Fine Young Cannibals weren't signed until the independent release of Johnny, which they made a video for. "It took about 2 hours one Saturday morning, but they did a brilliant job of editing it, and that really helped us a lot." Cox carefully elaborates: "People in the industry began taking us seriously - whereas before, they would say 'the guy can't even sing', and that we 'sounded horrible', but once they saw the video they changed their minds."

Actually, not only is the video a demo, but the Johnny track is as well. "We recorded Johnny before we had that deal, and after we signed, we went in, tried to record it again, with a proper producer and a fancy studio. But it didn't work, so we released the demo. It's really pleasing that it did so well, because we had produced it ourselves and again, it's the song that counts."

Included on their self-titled debut is Elvis Presley's Suspicious Minds, and it was recorded after bassist Steele had a dream. "In this dream," maintains Cox, "Elvis told him that this was the track we had to do, so we began playing it at the shows, and it went down really excellent. So then we agreed that we must record the song."

The album (with the exception of Johnny and Blue) was recorded at the Power Plant Studios in 3 weeks - weeks, not months? "Yes," says Cox. "Well, we don't like to hang about in the studio. We try to be prepared before we go in. We took songs into the studio that appear on the album, trying to write in there is just balmy. Those that weren't going to make it, fell by the wayside before we got in. Otherwise, we would have been wasting our time recording . . ."

For their next album, Cox says, "We'll start completely fresh." The band also plans to do things "a little differently," and without divulging privy matters, Cox concludes with "I hope there is some difference. As much as I like this one, it could be a drag if we did it again."

ZZ Top's Rough Boys included in WEA video

WEA has moved quickly to release the music video clip, Rough Boys, by ZZ Top, simultaneously with the single release. The track is one of the most requested from the band's more than 5-times platinum Afterburner album.

There are 13 music clips on WEA's Video Compilation No. 48. The complete list is as follows:

RECORDS TO RADIO

Last winter's acts still breaking big for WEA

by JoAnn Kaeding
Marketing & Publicity Coordinator
WEA Music of Canada

Along with a new spring crop of releases, there are a few of last winter's acts still breaking big. INXS' 5th album, Listen Like Thieves, was released last October. Always a favourite in this office, it's really a pleasure to see this band finally breaking through at radio with the second single, What You Need. They played 3 sold-out shows in Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver with rave reviews, which really kicked the record into gear. Shipping this week is a new AOR track, Listen Like Thieves, which will also be the next single and video. Keep watching as the album closes in on gold - their time has finally come in Canada.

The Call's debut album for Elektra is taking shape quiet nicely. I Still Believe is the hot track in the U.S. - a breaker this week. Half of Canada's AORs are on it with key markets being Calgary (No. 17 at KIK), and Ottawa (led by CHEZ-FM). Watch for the

JoAnn Kaeding

Call on tour this spring with Simple Minds in several Canadian markets. Still to come - a second AOR track, Everywhere I Go, the first single and a video. We have a lot of faith in The Call - do you?

Honeymoon Suite are in Western Canada headlining their first tour with terrific response. Both album and single are Top 10 in U.S. trades Album Network and Radio & Records. Following the western dates, Honeymoon Suite will hit the road in the U.S. with Heart until mid-May. Next, they'll start work on a second video and possibly fit in some Eastern Canada dates. Fans of Honeymoon Suite will have one last chance to see them before they head stateside. Sam The Record Man on Yonge Street, will have the boys on hand for an autograph session on Apr. 4 from 4-6 pm. As a note of interest, this is the first autograph session that Sam's Yonge Street has done in 7 years (the last being The Cars in '79).

Van Halen's 5150 is out now and proving that the band is as great as ever with Sammy Hagar replacing David Lee Roth. Other major releases in the coming weeks include Prince's Parade, Julian Lennon's The Secret Value of Daydreaming, and Sledgehammer, a new 12" from Peter Gabriel's long-awaited album.

All this means we are looking forward to another hot summer, both in releases and touring artists.

 Rolling Stones Records - OC-40250-H
 The album really intrigues through its diversity, yet is so strongly unified by the ever-present powerful drumming of Charlie Watts and those oh-so distinctive vocals that Dirty Work never loses. Just what a Stones' album should be: rough, rude and dirty. The 31st Canadian release for the original "bad boys" of rock, but their first for CBS - and what a package to come out of the gate. The production stretches from vintage Stones' blues riffs to the bouncy reggae beat of Too Rude, and then back through some good old rock 'n' roll. All tracks are key. A highlight are the 2 tracks with Keith Richards on upfront vocals. Guesting on the album are Bobby Womack, Jimmy Cliff, Tom Waits and Jimmy Page, to name just a few. Produced by Steve Lillywhite and The Glimmer Twins. Lillywhite's expertise is clearly evident, particularly with what he has done with Watts.

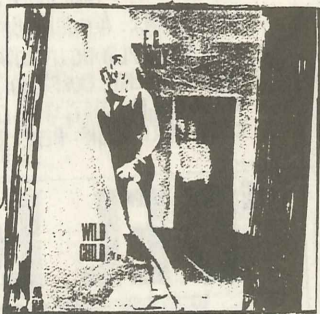

KATRINA AND THE WAVES - Rock/Pop
Waves - Attic - LAT-1221-W
 This is the 4th release for Katrina on Attic and most certainly the one with the most depth. The first single, and quite a noticeable musical departure for the band, is That It, is making extremely impressive gains up the RPM 100 singles chart after entering at No. 89 with a bull's eye (Mar. 22), and bulleting to No. 71 one week later. This in the face of "fierce" competition. Also key are Sun Street, Money Chain, Sleep On My Pillow, and Riding Shotgun. Produced by Katrina And The Waves, Pat Collier, and Scott Litt.

VAN HALEN - Rock
5150 - Warner Bros - 92-53944-P
 Van Halen obviously didn't lose, musically, with the departure of former lead singer, David Lee Roth. Some industry pundits are predicting that this set will be one of the hottest of the year, and it's off to an excellent start, fueled by the out-of-the-gate chart action of Why Can't This Be Love, the first single. Sammy Hagar, now lead vocals, is hot on single and Best Of Both Worlds. Nice balladry touch on Dreams. An early spring tour will bring much attention to this package which should be front-racked. Produced by the band with Mick Jones and Donn Landee.

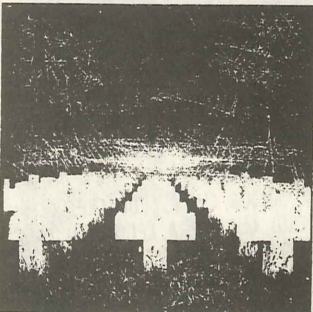

E.G. DAILY - Pop/Rock
Wild Child - A&M - SP-5081-W
 This set shouldn't be overlooked by radio. Daily has a strong vocal styling that is brought into prominence by such noted producers as Jellybean Benitez, Keith Forsey, Harold Faltermeyer, as well as himself and Rick Ramirez. Contains a key track, Waiting, which appeared on The Breakfast Club soundtrack. Also key are Little Toy, Love In The Shadows, and Say It Say It. The latter has been taken as the first single.

ERASURE - Pop
Wonderland - Sire - 92-53541-P
 Duo consisting of Vince Clarke and Andy Bell. The former was a founding member of Yaz, and is well recognized for his tasteful "synth-pop" arrangements. The album offers no exceptions and includes 2 U.K. hits, Who Needs Love Like That, and Heavenly Action. No single information available at press time.

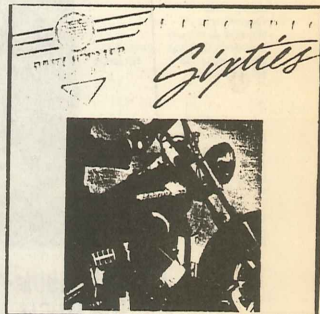

METALLICA - HM
Master Of Puppets - Elektra - 96-04391-P
 Very effective guitar work here. Unfortunately the band likes the term 'heavy metal' because if not pigeonholed as such, this album has potential for heavy airplay. This is the band's 2nd album for Elektra, and a much more diverse production than their first.

MISSION - Rock
When Thunder Comes
 Frantic/World Records - WRA1-202
 Baltimore-based band, formed in 1983, displays much confidence with this Colin Michaels production. He also produced their debut, The Last Detail, which garnered considerable airplay from radio stations south of the border. Very impressive melding of the rock sounds of the '60s with the high-tech experimenting of the '80s. Key are the title track, River, and Lost Religion. Trio, comprised of David Jon Cawkwell (vocals and guitars), Colin Michaels (drums), and Harrison Tate (keyboards) has gained much experience touring with The Lords Of The New Church, 999, Hot Tuna and The Ventures.

JOE COCKER - Rock
Cocker - Capitol ST-12394-F
 Interesting assists: Bob Ezrin handled arrangements and mixing on Don't You Love Me Anymore, Ritchie Zito plays guitar on You Can Leave Your Hat On (written by Randy Newman), and the Fairlight Programming credits go to Carl Marsh - who was most recently with Shriekback. There were 5 top producers involved: Terry Manning, Ron Nevison, Bernard Edwards, Albert Hammond, and Zito. First single is Shelter Me, also included is a Marvin Gaye penning of Inner City Blues.

ELECTRIC SIXTIES - Rock
Baby Boomer Classic Series No. 5
 Polydor - BBMC-5-Q
 Best of the bunch - as they say. Contains Born To Be Wild, Fire, Sunshine Of Your Love, Eight Miles High, Evil Ways, Summer-time Blues (Blue Cheer's version), We Ain't Got Nothin' Yet, San Franciscan Nights, Incense And Peppermints, and Time Has Come Today. Another punchy collection in the series is No. 4: Rockin' Sixties, which includes tracks from Mitch Ryder, Sam The Sham, Steam, Sir Douglas Quintet, Every Mother's Son, Lovin' Spoonful, The Box Tops, Blood Sweat & Tears, Pacific Gas & Electric and The Cowsills.

ROCK ANTHEMS - Rock
Compilation - PolyTel - 816-273-1-Q
 20 tracks of top quality material, well researched from chart action. Contains world-renowned Cancon tracks, Steppenwolf's Magic Carpet Ride, and Bachman-Turner Overdrive's You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet. Also includes Layla, After Midnight, Dear Mr. Fantasy, Gimme Some Lovin', Won't Get Fooled Again, Dream On, Do You Feel Like We Do, Cocaine, Gasoline Alley, White Rabbit, All Right Now, Whiter Shade Of Pale, and Black Magic Woman - great stuff for programming.

Changes made in Japan's Song Festival

Japan's annual World Popular Song Festival, sponsored by Yamaha, have scheduled this year's event to be held Oct. 25 & 26 in Tokyo's Budokan Hall. Their previous stipulation that songs entered be unpublished, has been eased.

The Festival Committee advises that "Songs released on or after Aug. 1 are eligible." Another change made this year is the announcement of the lineup of semifinalists, which will be announced one month earlier - July 31, 1986.

In announcing the changes, organizers stressed that "The Festival is open to all artists - aspiring talent, established stars or anyone in between. The song must be attractive all over the world. It must be marketable - and Yamaha promises to do the rest."

Deadline for entry is June 30, 1986. Semifinalists will spend a week in Tokyo between Oct. 21 and 27 - at Yamaha's expense - and perform in the 2 day festival.

The Grand Prize winner will receive $10,000 (U.S.); the Outstanding Song entry winner will be awarded a cash prize of $1,000; and the prize for the Most Outstanding Performance will be $3,000. There will be other prizes, to be announced at a later date.

Enquiries should be sent to: Festival Committee, Yamaha Music Foundation, 3-24-22 Shimomeguro, Meguro-ku, Tokyo, Japan.

Townshend hits platinum - a Canada first

Pete Townshend's 5th solo album, White City, released last November, has surpassed the platinum mark in Canada. A spokesperson at WEA suggests, "We don't sit on an album and follow the U.S. push - we work our albums."

The album, which includes the hit single, Face To Face, was given the added promotional boost of a long form Townshend-directed video, White City - A Novel, and a book, which he wrote, titled The Horse's Neck.

Interestingly enough, the video for Face The Face has been getting heavy rotation on both MuchMusic and CBC's Video Hits, and features Townshend's 16-yr. old daughter Emma on backing vocals.

BOOKS

None Of The Roads Were Paved - Robert H. Hahn - 180 pages - $15.00 - Fitzhenry & Whiteside

The Great Depression means very little to most of today's population, and what has been written about this era has been, for the most part, very depressing. However, author Hahn, a veteran of Canadian music, survived this sad time in our history, and was able to retain a sense of humour. This, mixed with his recollections of growing up in Saskatchewan during the early thirties, makes for fascinating reading. This is the story of the Hahn family - a musical family - which should make it all the more interesting for those in the music business today, who complain about tough times. The rewards were long in coming for the Hahn family, and many of them shortlived, but the accomplishments were outstanding as author Hahn traces the family's activities from the prairies to Broadway.

Music U.S.A. America's Country & Western Tradition - Charles T. Brown - 215 pages - $20.95

This is not a book about country music as much as it is about the influences that created this music form. That, in turn, was responsible for the music revolution of the early '50s. Author Brown writes in his introduction that "Country music should be appreciated for its uniqueness and quality rather than be treated as a lowly popular form." He touches on the origins of country music; Southern folk song; and the development of the blues - before getting into the real meat of country music, its instruments and early practitioners. The latter includes Hank Snow, Wilf Carter, Chet Atkins, Johnny Cash, Kitty Wells, Jimmie Rodgers, Roy Acuff, Jimmy Dean and more. Brown also points out the contributions of

CAB/RBC ask CRTC to adjust commercial time

The Canadian Association of Broadcasters (CAB) and the Radio Bureau of Canada (RBC) have asked the CRTC to "re-regulate time allocated for commercials on AM and FM radio."

In their brief to the Commission the CAB and RBC asked that "in smaller communities where a single-owner controls that community's AM and FM stations, flexibility be permitted to respond to community needs by raising the maximum weekly commercial minutes to 1,750 from 1,500, while maintaining the existing 250-minute daily limit as the average."

The submission proposes that "in competitive markets where private stations are operated by more than one owner, no regulations be set on the number of commercial minutes a radio station may run in a given period."

The brief also pointed up that "in similar circumstances in the U.S., research showed that the free market regulates the amount of commercial time stations run."

Jim McLaughlin, Chairman of the CAB Radio Board, suggests that "Re-regulation will allow more flexibility without adding overall commercial minutes on radio stations."

rock artists to the country music form i.e. Lynyrd Skynyrd, Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane, and Eric Clapton. Must reading for country radio programmers and performers.

Sun City - Artists United Against Apartheid - The Making Of The Record - Dave Marsh - $9.95 - 122 pages - Penguin Books Canada

Many are aware of the Artists United Against Apartheid... and Sun City, the record, that was put together by a group of concerned artists. Unfortunately, to many, Sun City is just a title. Very little has been written about Sun City, the multi-million dollar resort, which has been described by musician Eddie Amoo as "An Afrikaner's paradise in a black man's nightmare." This book gives more substance to the AUAA and what they are hoping to accomplish. Included here are colourful photos of the many artists who have lent their support to the fight against apartheid, peppered with stark, black and white photos of some of the miseries that are a day-to-day happening for South Africa's blacks. Author Marsh makes the message of Sun City, the record, much clearer, with this photo documentary.

Westwood One Canada appoints executive staff

With offices and studios fully operational, Westwood One Canada's Vice President and General Manager, A. John Rourke has announced his executive appointments.

These include: Kerry Biskupski, most recently with CJFI-FM Sarnia, who has accepted the production coordinator's position; Christopher Hedges, formerly with CHOW Welland, joins as sales executive; and Elizabeth Armstrong, who has taken on the position of executive assistant.

Rourke informs RPM that plans "are currently underway for development of Canadian programming which will parallel Westwood One's (U.S.) full complement of radio programs."

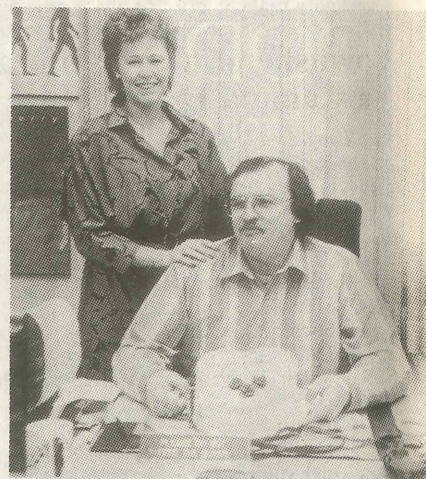

Rourke also indicates there will be "more weekly features and one-time specials, with consideration given to CRTC rules and regulations."

The CHUM chart makes history

The CHUM 30 for the week starting Saturday, March 15, will be CHUM Chart No. 1500, a milestone, that was celebrated on the station during the CHUM 30 Sneak Preview (Mar. 13), and during the Official CHUM 30 countdown (Mar. 15). The station awarded 30 complete record sets to listeners. The sets contain all the music of this historic CHUM 30, and were accompanied by commemorative posters of the actual CHUM Chart itself. The station began publishing their chart on May 27, 1957, the first weekly music chart ever published in Canada.

A few of the programs offered by the Canadian operation include Off The Record, Live From Gilley's, That's Love, and the Superstar Concert Series. Rourke points out that their production facilities enables them "to develop any of our programs into a national syndication for one specific client."

Rourke concludes with "Westwood One offers broadcasters the largest number of nationally sponsored radio programs, concerts and simulcasts."

Big Country nominees busy with chart action

The majority of this year's Big Country Awards nominees are still enjoying chart action. The nominations were based on listings on the RPM country chart from December 1st of 1984 through to January 31st of this year, a total of 14 months.

In the Female Vocalist category, Carroll Baker is charting with her Tembo single, A Star In Momma's Eyes, and Audie Henry has a chart item with her Canyon Creek single, He's My Gentle Man, and Anne Murray is happening with Now And Forever (You And Me). The other nominees, Marie Bottrell and Anne Lord, have just come down off the chart with their singles, Girls Get Lonely Too and Forget About Me respectively.

Male Vocalists currently charting are Joe Aylward with his Panther single It's All Over Now, You're A Country Woman, the Golden Eagle single from George Carone, and Gilles Godard's RCA release, Love Crazy. Murray McLauchlan has just come off the charts with I'm Best At Loving you, and is ready with his True North follow-up of Me And Joey. Jamie Warren scored a Top 10 with his Spin recording of Take Me Home Mississippi, which was followed up by Too Good To Be True.

There were some surprises with the Country Group category and again, some of these still have berths on the chart. RCA's C-Weed Band are happening with Pick Up Truck Cowboy, and The Mercey Brothers are charting with their MBS single, Take A Little Chance On Love. The Stoker Brothers had a sizeable hit with their Little Devil single, She Saves Her Love For Me, and Whiskey Jack had the same with their Fiddlin' Man single, released on the Master Disc label. The Ellis Family Band made an impression with their A.M.I. single, Don't Tease Me, which they have followed up with Why Am I Still Crying.

In The Outstanding New Artist(s) category, The Haggertys, have moved up the chart with their current B&C single, Hot On The Heels Of Love. MBS recording artist Jules is currently picking up national play with his single, Two Hearts In A Lonely Mind. Rhonda Hart did well with her Downs release of For Tonight, which was followed by a Christmas novelty, Santa Said He'd Be Home For Christmas. Robbie MacNeil made an impression with his debut for the Summer-Salt single, Once We Had Love, which was followed up with Take All The Time You Need. Ebony recording artist Kevin Simpson, now releasing on the Book Shop label, scored well with his single, Let's Not Be Strangers, and has been receiving good exposure with his novelty release of Magnum P.I.

In The Best Country Single category, all the nominees, Carroll Baker, Gilles Godard, The Mercey Brothers, and Anne Murray are represented on the chart.

The Top Country Composer(s) category shows Godard charting with Love Crazy, however, his nomination was for We Won't Ever Say Goodbye, which he co-wrote with Rich Grissom. George Carone was nominated for his penning of We Can Only Pretend, and he's back on the charts with his follow-up, You're A Country Woman. Terry Carisse and Bruce Rawlins, were nominated for Counting The I Love Yous, performed by Terry, which was followed by Sweet Blue, also co-written by the pair. Ronnie Prophet, currently charting with a Gilles Godard/Tim Nichols penning of Stealer Of Hearts, was nominated for I'm Glad We're Bad At Something, which he co-wrote with Cyril Rawson and which was a duet with Glory-Anne Carriere. Jamie Warren was nominated for his hit Take Me Home Mississippi.

Nominated in the Country Producer(s) category, Mike Francis, who was nominated for his production of Carroll Baker's single, It Always Hurts Like The First Time, is currently represented on the chart with his production of Carroll Baker's Tembo single, A

Singing Machine popular at Toronto country club

The Singing Machine has become a popular feature at Misty's, a country club on the Airport Strip, just west of Toronto. The system has also become a hit item at other clubs. Customers are invited to sing along with professionally-produced tapes of old and new hits, in the country, rock, and pop music forms.

CFGM had so much success with a country contest at Misty's they are having another one, with the grand prize, a trip to Nashville.

The CFGM contest will run from Apr. 17 through May 8. Competitors have the choice of singing along with their favourite country song, after which they will receive a free recording of their performance, and qualify for the Nashville trip.

The Singing Machine company is located in downtown Toronto, but recently opened a new store in Brampton.

New country cassettes just released are What's Forever For, Only One You, Cryin Again, and Somebody's Gonna Love You.

And the Nominees are

Q: How are the nominees picked?
A: Nominations are based on chart action in RPM over the previous year. The ballots are mailed to all RPM subscribers. This gives us a very good mix of voters and makes it impossible for blocks and pockets to control the voting. The winners will be known when the envelopes are opened, onstage, at the actual awards banquet.

Q: Will the awards feature mances?
A: No, the dinner will be followed by the awards ceremony at which time the presenters will open the envelopes and announce the winners.

Q: How many categories are there?
A: Exactly one dozen (12). The Big Country Awards are a very coveted award. They aren't given out in large numbers. They carry a great deal of esteem and are part of a very prestigious event. We purposely limit the attendance so as to keep it on a high plain.

Q: Will there be meetings and conferences to this event in the future?

Q: Will there be meetings tied into this event in the future?
A: No, we feel there is a great deal of that going on now, and there's no further need for additional conferences.

Q: Isn't $100 per person a lot for a banquet?
A: Actually it isn't. That price is all-inclusive. Once you pay the $100 you have paid it all. There are no other charges: for parking, coat check, drinks, or dinner wine. Everything is included. The evening will be a very posh affair in a very elegant setting - something designed to bring prestige to the Canadian country music industry. It's an event for the industry. Once a year we get together for a very special industry evening.

Q: Is it possible to reserve a table?
A: Yes, tables of 8, 9 or 10 can be reserved ahead, if you get a group together and arrange that they all pay prior to 4 pm May 2nd - or mail all the payments in the same envelope. We must have all the names in advance.

Q: Will it be possible to pay at the door?
A: Definitely not. For an event of this kind, advance planning makes it impossible to arrange any additional meals. You must be confirmed at least 2 days before the banquet. After 4 pm on May 2nd - if you don't have a confirmation number, you can forget the banquet until next year.

Re-release of Hall's Gift

Suzanne Bristow, of DBC, reports that "due to unprecedented demand, negotiations are presently underway for a cross-Canada re-release of Albert Hall's hit single, The Gift." The re-release is slated for the fall of this year, prior to the 1987 ski season. Suzanne goes on to point out that "The initial pressing of The Gift, has been sold out and radio stations and the Ministry of Fitness and Amateur Sports have been besieged by calls for Albert Hall's latest single."

Vic Follitt to CKGL-FM

Nothing official yet, but it would appear that Vic Follitt is the Operations Manager at Kitchener's CKGL-FM. Vic was formerly with BX-93 in London. The BX-93 Country Chart is now compiled by Music Director Dave Collins.

The Henrys - a new show

Donna and Harvey Henry, both of whom dominated the recent MACA Awards show, have put together a new show which will be billed as The Henrys - Donna & Harvey. The duo will be backed by Paul Kelly (bass guitar and vocals), Gary Brenner (keyboards and vocals), Jim Flett (guitar, fiddle and vocals), Perry Hopkins (drums and vocals), and Art Alyea (pedal steel guitar and banjo). The show will be fronted by Donna and Harvey in both solo and duet performances. The Henrys are booked through Terry O'Reilly, Downs Record Co., in Winnipeg.

Anita Perras and husband Tim Taylor, making moves up the charts with their Tailspin single, Something Good Is Gonna Come Of This, are off on a five-and-a-half week tour of Western Canada. Prophet & Carriere break with solos

Ronnie Prophet and Glory-Anne Carriere, touring with their Free Wheelin' band, are beginning to form a national pattern of acceptance with their new solo singles, released on the RCA label. The Prophet single, Stealer Of Hearts, written by Gilles Godard and Tim Nichols, was produced by Godard and is making good gains up the RPM Country 60. The Carriere single, Changes, written and produced by Ray Griff, is gaining impressive playlist action and should see a national charting within a couple of weeks.

Country crossover for Dodson

The new single from ex-Stamper Rich Dodson, entitled Cruel Emotion, is aimed at both the A/C and country markets. The mid-tempo ballad is Dodson's follow-up to Your Own Kinda Music, which enjoyed a good showing on the RPM A/C chart. The new single was produced by Rich at his own Marigold Studios in Toronto and features Anne Murray's keyboard player, Steve Sexton. It's interesting to note that Rich has also released a compilation album, titled Lookin' Back, which features material recorded and released as singles after he left the

ACME issues policy statement

Determining a permanent site for ACME's country music awards as well as expanding on country talent contests that have become an important part of Country Music Week, are only 2 of the priorities set down by ACME's new Board of Directors. Ma Henning is this year's President of ACME, the first time the organization has had a female president.

ACME is looking to come up with a permanent site for their awards for the 1989-90 show.

Over the past few months, ACME's committees have been restructured and expanded. As well, a new committee on International Development has been formed and is chaired by Ron Solleveld of Sunbury/Dunbar.

As reported earlier in RPM, ACME has secured the services of Jack Feeney as Executive Director. He is in charge of the organization's office in the Toronto area. This office includes secretarial and answering services, and will be operating on a fulltime basis by mid-April.

The Awards' Committee this year is chaired by Nancy Gyokeres of P.R.O. Canada. This committee is responsible for overseeing the tabulation of the awards as well as supervising the awards show. The ballots for this year's awards will be printed in both English and French. Another change is in the Citation Awards which have been changed to plaques and will be presented at the awards dinner.

Brighton Rock in studio with producer Wagener

Brighton Rock, a Toronto-based rock quintet are currently in studios in Toronto, taping an album session with Mike Wagener producing. The album will be their first for WEA, the label they were signed to this past December.

As yet untitled, the album will be released by late spring or early summer. Prior to signing with WEA, the group had issued a 4-track, self-titled EP on their own Flying Fist label, which has now been released on the WEA label.

A number of WEA executives including Bob Roper, Roger Desjardins and Dave Tollington, along with members of Head Office Management, were featured as chant singers for the We Came To Rock track. Says Dave Tollington, National Publicity and Product Manager for WEA "Our part had to be sung 24 times on 24-track in order to capture the impression of a full choir." He concludes with "It's hard keeping down the day job."

Brighton Rock is managed by Head Office Management of Toronto, who also manage fellow WEA recording act, Honey-moon Suite.

Yoko Ono to play Toronto's Copa

Yoko Ono will be playing The Copa in Toronto (Apr. 1). This is a change in location from Massey Hall. She is currently on release with her PolyGram album, Starpoint.

The latter part of March saw the Copa busy with dates by Moev as well as Lloyd Cole & The Commotions. Tommy Keane opened for the latter.

Following the Ono date will be Def Jam recording act, Beastie Boys (8) and FM (10).
