Molsons and Mandel to star at Junos

This year's Juno Awards, to be held at the Toronto Hilton Harbour Castle Convention Centre (Nov. 10) will be hosted by comedian Howie Mandel. This will also mark the first year the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (CARAS) will have a patron and corporate sponsor - Molson Breweries.

Tickets for the event are available through CARAS at $170 for non-members and $135 for CARAS members. This will include a champagne reception, a pre-show awards presentation, the nationally-televised awards show, and a gala dinner.

Springsteen's wife/OMD among Sony releases

Sony's September releases from their Software Operations features a potpourri of music and drama, all in VHS and Beta form.

Of particular interest is Summer Fantasy, a 96-min. feature film starring Julianne Phillips, wife of Bruce Springsteen and Knot's Landing star Ted Schackelford.

In the Musical Documentary category there is a 70-min film on Orchestral Manoeuvres In The Dark titled Bloc Bloc Bloc, featuring The Native, Daughters Of The Golden West, So In Love, 88 Seconds in Greensboro, and Hold You. Also in this category is a 77-min film titled Now That's What I Call Music. Featured are hot videos by Tina Turner & Bryan Adams, UB40, Chrissie Hynde, Thompson Twins, Feargal Sharkey and more.

Cabaret Voltaire, an 82-min film in the Pop/Rock category showcases Crackdown, Diffusion, Sleepwalking, and Slow Boat To Thassos.

James Brown Live In London, a 56-min film in the Rock/Soul category features some of the best from this soul great including Give It Up Or Turn It Loose, It's Too Funky In Here, It's A Man's Man's Man's World, and Please, Please, Please.

In the Reggae category is a 60-min film by Black Uhuru with Steel Pulse titled A Tribute To Bob Marley. The band is seen performing Soldiers, Shine Eye Girl, Puff She Puff, and Sponji Reggae. Steel Pulse is seen performing Smile Jamaica, Prodigal Son, and Blue Mountain Music.

For jazz buffs, there's a Getz, Stan and Cole, Richie 60-min film featuring Cole on Confirmation, Cole's Nocturne, and Strange Groove, and Getz on Dolphin, Night has 1000 Eyes, and A Time For Love.

Los Angeles pop group The Bangles found their Monday not so manic after all as they accept gold singles for Manic Monday and gold albums for Different Light from Don Oates (Vice Pres. Sales & Marketing - CBS).

Peter Steinmetz, President of CARAS, hosted a launch party at Toronto's Diamond Club (Sept. 8) where he announced this year's Juno nominees, which has grown to 25 categories.

The Junos are now the most popular variety cum awards show presented on Canadian television. Last year the telecast attracted what is described as "a record quarter hour audience," of 2,308,000 viewers - the highest quarter hour audience rating for any Canadian awards show.

In commenting on last year's awards presentation, Steinmetz pointed out that "This was the year when the artists and the industry got behind their show. Cooperation became the byword and the results speak for themselves. Everyone associated with CARAS and the production of the show are to be congratulated."

He concludes with: "It will be hard to surpass the creative standards and the excitement generated by last year's show. Nevertheless, CARAS and the CBC promised it would try, and we now believe we can do it."

Corey Hart insists on Canadian video shoot

Aquarius recording star Corey Hart had several locations in mind for the video shoot of I Am By Your Side, the first single taken from his new album, Fields Of Fire. His choice was Calgary, where he has been shooting at a variety of locations including the Houdoo's, Banff, East Coolee, Carstairs, and Calgary's Heritage Park.

"Los Angeles is always suggested as a good place to do film work," says Hart, "but I believe the same is true of Canada. We've got everything we need right here - from equipment to technicians to the talent on-camera. The actors we've hired here in Alberta are working out great - and I don't think we could find better locations anywhere."

The new video is being directed by Michael Oblowitz, and is considered to be "the most elaborate rock clip ever produced in Canada." The project features dialogue, which is unusual in a music video. There were 6 days scheduled for the actual shooting and producer Bruce Braut reports "the project is on schedule."

Hart has headlined twice in Calgary as well as making several other visits to the city and other parts of the West where he discovered a new perspective on the West. "In the past I've been on a tight schedule from the hotel to the Saddledome," Hart explains, "with nothing much else in between. Making this video has given me a truer appreciation of Western Canada."

The new album is being scheduled for a Sept. 19 release. This follows his 1985 release of Boy In The Box, which certified as a diamond award (1 million units sold) in February of this year. Hart's previous album, First Offense, also a major seller, enjoyed 67 weeks of action on the RPM 100.

The new album was produced by Hart and Phil Chapman at Le Studio in Morin Heights.

Martin partners Kierans for Promotionally Yours

Donald Martin, president and founder of Promotionally Yours . . . Donald Martin, has announced a slight name change "in order to reflect the addition of Genevieve Kierans as a new partner to the firm," explains Martin. The official name of the company, effective immediately, is now Promotionally Yours . . . Martin/Kierans.

The Toronto-based company was formed by Martin in November of 1984, becoming highly visible in live theatre, television and films, and recently opened a music division, headed by Jonathan Holiff.

Kierans, formerly the company manager, is now a partner in the firm and takes on the title of Vice President.

"I see this as a natural progression for one who has been so committed, and who has worked so hard for my company," continues Martin. "I am proud to have her as my partner. Since she joined my firm in March of 1985, she has played a very active role in bringing the firm to where it is today. Now, I am pleased to say that it is 'our' firm."

Honeymoon Suite to rep Canada at Yamaha fest

Honeymoon Suite has been asked to perform Those Were The Days, written by band member Ray Coburn, at this year's World Popular Song Festival to be held in Tokyo (Oct. 26/86). The song was picked from a record number of entries (2,072) from 58 countries, as one of the 12 finalists representing 10 nations.

There have been several changes made in the awards system, which includes changing the Most Outstanding Performance Award to Best Singer Award (carrying a $3,000 prize), and the establishing of 3 new awards. These are The Golden Award, of which 2 or 3 will be given, each with a prize of $3,000; The Press Award, given by the foreign and domestic press, with the prize of Yamaha product; and The Audience First Choice Award, which also supplies Yamaha product as the prize.

The 2 Grand Prizes, 1 international and 1 domestic, will remain the same with their $10,000 awards; as will the Kawakami Award (a $1,000 prize), which is given by the Yamaha Music Foundation's president and founder Gen 'ichi Kawakami.

Of particular interest this year is the winning entry from the Peoples Republic of China, Praying For World Peace, written by Xie Cheng Quiang and Liu Zhi Weh. This song will be performed by Liu Xin Lu. There were 2 entries chosen from the U.K.: Live Dangerously, written by Ben Findon and A. Antony, to be performed by Simone, and Angels Fall Down, written by Alan Savage, with a performance by The Flaming Mussolinis.

There were also 2 entries that were selected from the U.S.: Longshot, written by Alan Scott and Gary Pickus and performed by Stacy Lattisaw, and '57 Chevy, which was penned by Taylor Rhodes and Tom Deluca, with the latter doing the performing honours.

The remaining countries represented this year are Belgium, Brazil, France, Italy, Mexico, Norway, and Indonesia.

The Yamaha World Popular Song Festival, now in its 17th year, is sponsored by the Yamaha Music Foundation.

Whitney Houston leads August certifications

Whitney Houston's self-titled RCA album leads the CIRA certifications for the month of August with a 7-times platinum award. This award represents sales of over 700,000 units. The album is now approaching the 800,000 mark.

Bob Seger was next with his Like A Rock scoring double platinum, plus platinum and gold.

Also certifying for platinum were The Judds' Why Not Me, a rarity for a country release, and WHAM's Music From The Edge Of Heaven. The latter also certified gold.

Besides Seger, gold certifications were for GTR, Francis Cabrel for 2 LPs (Cabrel Public and Photos De Voyages). Tom Cochrane & Red Rider, and Herbert Leonard (Album D'or).

A gold single was certified for El Debarge's Who's Johnny.

Canadian Aces get nod from A/C programmers

The Canadian Aces have what might be considered a "hit out of the box" with the release of their Axe single, Modern Primitive. The single has been tagged "camp", "clever", a perfect blend of '40s nostalgia, and on and on. The single, most powerful ingredient in this production is its "unusual" approach to today's "musically imperfect" market. It leaves a lot to the imagination.

The Canadian Aces feature Professor Piano (Scott Cushnie), and Marian and Eileen - the Tobin Sisters. Backup is supplied by Mitch Lewis (guitar), Bucky Berger (drums), Terry Wilkins (bass), Chris Whiteley (horn and guitar), Jody Golick (sax), and Wayne Mills (sax), and, of course, Cushnie on keyboards.

Says Berger, "The Aces bring a modern attitude to the music of the '30s and '40s, which would please any of the original songwriters." He continues with "To the lay-listener, it wouldn't make much difference whether they called this jazz or the roots of rock and roll. Most people wouldn't even know there's a difference between small band 'swing' jazz and big band jazz. The 'swing' in little '30s and '40s jazz bands turned into rock and roll - the same place these sometimes rock musicians come from."

What a "glamorous" week!!

The word for the week is "glamour" and it was. From the glamorous Juno launch party to all the glamorous people at the glamorous Diamond Club (EC: I haven't seen such opulence since CPI showed us the "star's" trailers backstage at the CNE) to the glamorous lineup for food and the glamorous beer and wine (free) or any drink (pay bar) and . . . I can't comment on the food because I understand that just as we would have reached the front of the line . . . they glamorously announced "No more food!" (EC: That was glamorous!!) I was standing next to a record exec at the bar and he ordered an orange juice . . . and I heard him explode, "2 bucks for an orange juice?" Chalk up another Juno dissenter.

Now . . . that's panache!!

The Sun's John Burgess was the emcee for this year's Variety Club Salute to the Festival of Festivals . . . and what a great job he did. If that head table gets any longer, we'll all suffer nosebleeds (EC: Who were all those people?) John named all the people at the head table in record time . . . with cute one-liners where appropriate. I noticed one of the head table guests wasn't too sure where he was (EC: His mind was on one of his past gigs, no doubt!!) One thing that struck me about the film crowd . . . for the most part they are very humble and quite appreciative of any recognition. Julie Andrews and Blake Edwards were exceptional. Now . . . at $20 a head, and the meal wasn't bad . . . why can't the Juno people throw a Juno launch along the same lines. I would be quite willing to pay $20 or $30 to sit down to lunch in comfort and watch the Juno nominees flashed up on a video screen. If there was a charge, there might be better control on the "crashers".

No strip joints . . . ??

At a recent WEA meeting, the group was talking up the recent Anita Baker single release, Sweet Love, and how it should be broken at the dance clubs. Brian Eakin, a field sales rep was heard to say "Dance clubs, we don't even have strip joints in Saskatchewan."

Up, up and away . . . !!

Well . . . the summer is over and the best way to tell is the heavy ordering that's going on at retail. This stuff is hot and getting hotter. Cyndi Lauper's new album, True Colors, made the biggest impact on the RPM 100 grabbing a berth at No. 74 the first week on. This album shipped 150,000 units initially. Paul Simon's Graceland is off to a good start moving up to No. 66 from 83, and Triumph's Sport Of Kings, could be a big one for them, moving up to No. 68 from No. 81. Don't overlook Liona Boyd's latest album, Persona, an instrumental package guesting Eric Clapton and David Gilmour.

Bananarama takes lead on MuchMusic's Top 30

Bananarama moves into the No. 1 berth on the MuchMusic Top 30 (Sept. 12) with their Venus music clip, followed closely by Stuck With You by Huey Lewis & The News - up to No. 2 from No. 4.

Significant upward moves were made by Daryl Hall's Dreamtime to 8 from 11, Dancing On The Ceiling by Lionel Richie up to 12 from 19, Luba's Innocent to 17 from 20, True Colors by Cyndi Lauper up from 21 to 18, and Haywire's Standin In Line, moving to 21 from 25.

Platinum Blonde tour attracts large turnouts

Platinum Blonde's tour dates which takes them into Quebec and the Maritimes, have attracted huge crowds including a traffic-stopper at Archambault/Montreal for an in-store signing session. The band was mobbed by a crowd inside the store, estimated at in excess of 2,000. Extra police had to be called to hold back the hundreds more that were spilling out onto the roadway.

The autograph session was followed by their date at the Miller Rockfest in Montreal, where they played to an audience of over 20,000 - the third largest show of the festival. They capped off their Montreal trip with an impromptu appearance at the Musique Plusse grand opening festivals.

The band moves east to play St. John's (Sept. 15), Sydney (17), Halifax (18), Moncton (18), and Fredericton (20).

Fair is Fair . . . !!

While the talk at the Juno launch was not so much who the nominees were, as would there be an open bar . . . one of the board members did say "it's only once a year - so it should be the most glamorous event of the year!" (EC: Yes it should!!) That's the least we can expect.

Now . . . that's offensive!!

Guess who got a "skunky" beer at a recent "brewery presents" event . . . ? The president of a major label. One brewery official told me there's such a demand on beer since they got into the rock business . . . they've been troubled with "quality control". So watch out for more "skunky" beer. (EC: Is there no limit to all these "brewery" presentations??)

History repeats itself . . . !!

The ACME Awards, held in Winnipeg this weekend, are to be televised by Global and shown nationally on a number of stations. Is this the same Global that televised the country awards in Regina in 1978? (EC: I have the video tape of that one in the vault - under lock and key!!)

Proceeds to help the kids!!

Even if you don't go to the Junos, don't forget that the Variety Club luncheon, honouring the Junos, will be held on Friday Nov. 7th. Book your tickets way ahead - it's always a sellout (EC: And the proceeds go to needy children!!)

Lori the "legend" returns!!

Many of you will remember Lori Bruner from her days at RPM - and more of you will remember her when she was doing promo with Polydor. Lori, who has often been referred to as "a legend" is now the owner of The Book Cellar in Yorkville (Toronto) - and has many music industry types as steady customers. She stocks all the music industry periodicals as well as books on the industry - and you can buy RPM there every Friday afternoon - and get a jump on the industry.

What can we tell you??

The glamorous price per person for the Junos is $170. When asked if this wasn't a bit steep, a spokesman for the Junos said "As in the past years, if people in the industry can't afford it, there are a lot of people outside the industry who want to be there." (EC: If 2,000 people paid that $170 to get in - that would add up to $340,000.00 - but of course, everyone doesn't pay!)

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

- Pierre Juneau

COVER STORY

John Eddie: his priority is rock 'n' roll . . . !!

No one ever said rock 'n' roll was a bowlful of cherries - as a matter of fact - it has been said that rock 'n' roll is a vicious game. John Eddie's now former bandmates would certainly attest to the latter.

According to the liner notes on Eddie's debut album for Columbia, his band now comprises Joe Sweeney, Max Weinberg, Phil Chen, Mike Landau, Ian MacLagen, and Mitchell Froom. There are guest appearances by Nils Lofgren, Jeff Silverman, David Lindley, Greg Phillinganes, and Mark Fischer.

"When the record companies first approached," Eddie explains, "I had just read an article about Rod Stewart - and this particular producer told him that he couldn't use his own band members if he wanted him to produce it because they weren't good enough.

"I remember saying, 'Wow . . . if a producer can say that to Rod Stewart, then they can walk all over me' . . . so I got the band together and told them what I had read. I told them 'if it comes up that you guys aren't good enough to play on the record - then I'm not going to not make the record.' I'd been waiting too long."

Eddie goes on to stress, "the most important thing to me is the song." The New Jerseyite singer/songwriter continues with "So, I told them 'if you guys ain't making the record sound good - then I'm going to use other people.' They knew they had it coming. I mean . . . I told everybody to start taking their instruments home . . . and rehearsing, but the only guy who took my advice was the guitar player (Sweeney), who got 100 times better, whereas everybody else didn't take that time."

The album was produced by Bill Drescher, noted for his work with Rick Springfield, who obviously didn't feel Eddie was "good enough" as a guitar player. "I used to play guitar, but I didn't play on the record because I know I'm not good enough," says Eddie. "It goes both ways - if I couldn't sing, I'd just be a songwriter - and we'd get somebody else to sing my songs.

"I'm not going to let somebody hurt the songs, just because they happen to have been in my band for a year. It has to be the best thing for the songs." Those songs include his first single, Jungle Boy, and the latest,

RECORDS TO RADIO

"We're into one of our most exciting quarters"

Dave Watt - MCA Records (Canada)

This fall is shaping up to be one of the busiest and most successful seasons in MCA's history. The combination of releases by major artists, developing acts, and what one might refer to as "rejuvenated" artists points towards an exciting fourth quarter.

We would like to extend a warm welcome to Duke Street Records and their roster of fine Canadian artists. The new distribution deal became effective the end of August and we're all looking forward to a long and prosperous relationship. Undoubtedly one of the premiere independent labels in the country, the quality of their artists is reflected in part by the Juno nominations they received: 6 in all including Jane Siberry (Female Vocalist), Moe Koffman (Instrumental Artist), Scott Merritt (Most Promising Male Vocalist), Chalk Circle and Eye Stranded, which has met with impressive initial response.

To Eddie, the album has met his expectations. "I wanted the album to be the best record I could make - and I did that. I've never liked anything I've made before - as far as demo tapes - and I don't even know if I'll sell any copies of the record ever. But I did the best job I could . . . and I'm proud of it. At least I can go to sleep at night, thinking it was a year of hard work . . . and it's not a bad little record." He concludes with "My record isn't going to change the world - I don't think I have that in me - if I could change my sheets, I'd be fine - but you can dance to it."

Eye (both up for Most Promising Group), and Terry Brown (Producer of The Year) for their Eye Eye album, Just In Time To Be Late.

Off to incredible starts are the latest, much anticipated albums from Lionel Richie, and Huey Lewis. Dancing On The Ceiling is approaching triple platinum status, and Fore is now at the double platinum level. In addition to the great reaction to the album, Huey just completed a very successful Canadian tour which started in St. John's, Newfoundland (for 3 sold-out nights) and finished in Edmonton on Sept. 3, marking his first visit to the Western provinces. And speaking of tours, several Canadian major markets will be treated to Stevie Wonder's show during the month of October.

Triumph just recently released The Sport Of Kings, which is proving to be their fastest-selling album to date. Somebody's Out There, the first single from the LP, is enjoying widespread CHR play, supplementing the already strong AOR activity. The band is now embarking on a U.S. tour which should see them through the fall and then into Canada in the new year. Once again, they have been nominated for a Juno in the Group of The Year category.

IRS Records continues to enjoy the success of several artists, most notably Fine Young Cannibals and Belinda Carlisle. The album and first single from both acts have surpassed the gold plateau in Canada. Also hot on the roster is Doctor And The Medics with the cover of Spirit In The Sky, as well as R.E.M. with their new album, Life's Rich Pageant.

So . . . what's new for the fall season. Well, yes Virginia, there is a Billy Idol coming and the single titled To Be A Lover, is anticipated around Sept. 24. The Kinks have finished recording and mixing and are

King City's Florio added to Whittaker tour

A new addition to the Tembo roster, Louisa Florio from King City, Ontario, has been added to Roger Whittaker's cross-Canada tour. In making the announcement, Tembo Canada President Ed Preston noted: "Louisa stepped out of school and into the studio this year, and the results of her initial session for Tembo Records impressed Roger (Whittaker) so much, he immediately added her to the tour. The tour will be an important promotion vehicle in the launch of Florio's new single, Deeper In Debt, scheduled for a Sept. 12 release. The single will be followed by an album later in the fall.

As always, the Whittaker tour, both in Canada and the U.S. employs Canadian musicians under the direction of Brian Knowles, Whittaker's British conductor. The band comprises Earl Marek, Buff Allen, Stacey Hersh, and Lewis Mele. Joining the tour this year on sax is Toronto's Rick Morrison. His latest Tembo single, Don't Cry For Me Argentina, is also being featured in the show.

The Canadian tour kicked off at Ottawa's National Arts Centre, where he played 3 shows (Sept. 5 through 7). This was followed by Hamilton Place (8-9), Kitchener's Centre In The Square (10, 11, 12), Toronto's Roy Thomson Hall (13-14), Thunder Bay's Community Arena (15), the Centennial Concert Hall in Winnipeg (16), the Centennial Auditorium in Saskatoon (17-18), Regina's Centennial Theatre (19-20), Calgary's Jubilee (21-22), Edmonton's Jubilee (23-24), Memorial Arena in Kelowna (25), Vancouver's Orpheum Theatre (26-27), the Royal Theatre in Victoria, and the Beban Park Recreation Centre Arena in Nanaimo (30).

Hawkins steps up activity in films and club dates

Ronnie "The Hawk" Hawkins has had a full platter of film, recording and club goodies tossed his way over the last couple of months. He has been signed for a major dramatic role, as Smiling Jack, in Louis Del Grande's Seeing Things, and is also playing the role of the leader of a motorcycle gang in the feature film The Haunting Of Hamilton High, now in production. This film's soundtrack features Hawkins' hit of the early '60s, Mary Lou, which will be released as a single and accompanied by a video.

Hawkins made a guest appearance on the CBC-TV series Night Heat (Aug. 9) where he played himself and performed Making It Again, the title track from his most recent CBS album. It's expected he will be appearing on the series in a more serious role in the weeks to come.

Currently on tour, playing dates in both Canada and the U.S. Hawkins' management firm, Backstage Productions, is having talks with U.S. promoters which could see him opening for Mel Tillis in the main rooms of top-rated casinos in Las Vegas and Reno, as well as a date at Lake Tahoe.

Duke Street's Marsh taping new album

Violinist Hugh Marsh, having completed a 6-month worldwide tour with Bruce Cockburn, has re-entered Toronto's Manta Sound Studios to begin recording his new album. The Duke Street package is expected to be ready by this January.

Apparently several "name" musicians have expressed an interest in appearing on the album, which is to be produced by Jonathan Goldsmith and Kerry Crawford.

Marsh's previous solo effort, The Bear Walks, released in 1984, was received with critical acclaim in Western Europe and was subsequently released on the VeraBra label in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland.

preparing to master. Title and release date are T.B.A. Expected in late October or early November is the new offering by Kansas who are in the re-mix stage of the as yet untitled debut MCA album. The month of October will also see album releases by Frankie Goes To Hollywood (titled Liverpool), Boston (Third Stage), Shriekback (Big Night Music), and a new Chrysalis act called The City. Their album, titled Foundation, was produced by Peter McLan, whose credits include the first Men At Work album.

All in all, things are shaping up to be a full season for MCA and the distributed labels. We've got the product, the tours, and the people to make this the best year-end ever.

ALBUMS

LIONA BOYD - Classic/Rock Persona - CBS Masterworks FM42120-H

The tracks on which David Gilmour and Eric Clapton appear, are standouts, giving the album its rock edge. Producer Michael Kaman (Pink Floyd, Eurythmics and David Bowie) also appears on each track, adding to the depth. Bass was provided by Dean Garcia, percussion by Ray Cooper and drums by Andy Newmark, all of whom have worked with various rock artists. However, Boyd's and Kaman's compositions display the "first lady of the classical guitar's" exceptional work without being overshadowed, with the possible exception of the title track where a Gilmour guitar solo is clearly a highlight.

DARYL HALL - Rock/Pop Three Hearts In The Happy Ending Machine RCA - AJL1-7196-N

Another example of the "edge" being put into today's music that can't be overlooked. Hall has done exceedingly well with this album, with notable help from David Stewart and an interesting assortment of instruments. Guesting musicians include: Jamie West-Oram, Bob Geldof and Joni Mitchell. All tracks are key and standout cuts features are (besides the first single, Dreamtime), Right As Rain, What's Gonna Happen To Us, and Someone Like You.

IDLE EYES - Pop/Rock
Love's Imperfection - WEA 25-30811-P
With a simultaneous release in the U.S., coupled with excellent production from Michael Beinhorn (Herbie Hancock, Parachute Club), this set will easily eclipse the Vancouver-based group's debut achievements, for which they were awarded a Juno last year. Key are Power Game, Lonely House, Falling, and In Your Room. The first single, Sandra, is already receiving instant adds. The session was produced at Vancouver's Ocean Sound, and the mix completed at Little Mountain, Cancun.

MICHAEL MANNING - New Age
Unusual Weather - Windham Hill WH1044-W
An extremely impressive set from bass pioneer Manning, who uses standard and alternatively tuned fretless basses, creating both a unique and texturally innovative sound; aurally and aesthetically pleasing. Accompanying the solo bassist are Bob Read, Steve Bloom, Bruce Martin, and Kurt Wortma.

DON JOHNSON - Rock/Pop
Heartbeat - Epic 0E40366-H
Obviously with this offering Johnson deserves much more credit for his intelligence than previously given. No doubt this album will compile extremely impressive stats at retail and the first single, the title track, has already made gains up the charts. However, the best is yet to come. Love Roulette features guitarists Stevie Ray Vaughan, Ron Wood, and Dickie Betts. Vaughan also plays lead on Heartache Away, with Bonnie Raitt providing harmonies, as well as on Lost In Your Eyes, which was penned by Tom Petty. Also slated for a healthy run up the charts as a single is the Bob Seger penning of Star Tonight, which features Willie Nelson on guitar and vocals. These guest appearances are worth the self-indulgent vocals of Johnson, Gatefold package a bonus for his fans.

LEO KOTTKE - New Age
A Shout Toward Noon
Private Music - 20071-P
Guitarist and Hall of Famer Kottke's debut on this label (his 15th overall) contains a cover of Duane Allman's Little Martha, as well as 2 of his older tunes: Easter, and Air Proofing. Delightfully instrumentally spare.

MAX LASSER'S ARK - New Age
Into The Rainbow - Relativity - EMC8058
Swiss folk-rocker, who tours and records with fellow countryman Andreas Vollenweider, has his first working with the Ark. Featured are bassist Joel Reiff, keyboardist Christoph Steifel and percussionists Walter Keiser and Pedro Haldemann.

ROBERT FRIPP & THE LEAGUE OF CRAFTY GUITARISTS - Live
Editions E.G. - EGED43-W
Instrumental recordings here are the result of a series of challenges made by Fripp (King Crimson) to his students at West Virginia's Claymont Court, Guitar Craft IX. A "companion" album has also been released, titled The Lady Or The Tiger, which features the readings of Frank Stockton by Toyah Willcox, with music by Fripp and the "league". Claymont Court is where the classes are held and was Stockton's home, until the property (colonial mansion) was acquired by the American Society For Continuous Education in 1974.

LEE GREENWOOD - Country
Love Will Find It's Way To You
MCA - MCA5770-J
Produced in Nashville by Jerry Crutchfield, this set is already gaining popularity through the release of Didn't We, the first single. This track was co-written by Graham Lyle and Troy Seals, who wrote Lost In The Fifties, and We Had It All. Also key are Dave Loggins' penning of Just Another Somebody's Body and Little Red Caboose with Steve Gibson teaming with Loggins.

THE GOOD BROTHERS - Pop/Country Delivering The Goods Savannah - SRL9828-N

Although they've been off the chart scene for a couple of years, the Goods have been active on the tour circuit, and this release should satisfy their legion of fans. Produced in Toronto by Stacy Heydon, Brian and Bruce Good, are still front and centre with their writing talents, but have also scored points by using other writer's material. Key from these are the Bogard/Giles penning of It's A Rodeo, the Bourke/Tweel writing of High Rollin' Heart and LaBarge's You Won't Fool This Fool This Time. This Could Be Serious, taken as the first single, brought the Goods back into chart prominence. Video Stars and 'A Tom Bomb, from Brian and Bruce are also key. Cancun.

TERRY CARISSE - Country None Of The Feeling Is Gone Savannah - SRL9827-N

Produced by Mike Francis at Toronto's McClellan Place, Terry Carisse is now moving back into the popularity spotlight he once enjoyed, much of this due to the professional approach displayed by the Savannah label. All the material was written by the Big Country winning composers, Carisse and Bruce Rawlins, with the exception of Give In, which has Wendy LaPorte teaming with Carisse. Also key are the title track, Old Photographs, and Starting All Over Again. Crisp, well projected delivery with exceptional instrumental and background vocals that enhance the Carisse vocal power.

CRYSTAL GAYLE - Pop/Country Straight To The Heart Warner Bros. - 92-54051-P

Produced by Jim Ed Norman, this package has already spawned another country hit for Gayle with the release of Cry, a Churchill Kohlman penning. The LP is labelled Pop/Country because that's what it is, and A/C programmers, the easy listening kind, should pick up on Cry as well as Nobody Should Have To Love This Way. The latter was co-written by Rory Bourke, Charlie Black and Tommy Rocco. Also key are A Little Bit Closer and the title track.

THE RAUNCH HANDS - Rock Learn To Whap-A-Dang With The ... Relativity - EMC-8094

Key cuts throughout, but strictly for the college and underground crowd ... radio audiences today wouldn't be too pleased hearing Chicken Scratch, Kangaroo Juice, or Chicken Of The Sea. But then again, maybe they would. An exciting and carefree recording, with jacket providing an interesting insight into the Whap-A-Dang dance.

GARY FJELLGAARD - Country No Time To Lose - Savannah SRL9826-N

One of the most popular of Western Canada's country vocalists, Gary Fjellgaard should pick up heavy play on several of these tracks. Dancing In The Ring, scored well, and just recently came down off the charts. The title track will be the next single. All the material was written by Fjellgaard with the exception of Bless You Jess, which was written by producer Howie Vickers. Produced at Vancouver's Ocean Sound Studios. Also key are Tears On Mainstreet, and As Rivers Run (Saskatchewan).

DINO & FRIENDS - Country/Pop Something Special Sound Ventures - SVC005

Produced by George Brothers at Charlottetown's Sound Ventures Studios, this is an impressive package of entertainment featuring the material of top writers from the Island. The writers were chosen through a contest and 5 of them strut their songwriting talents here. Key are When I'm Close To You (Ian Wallis), Sandcastles (Barry Gilmour), and a couple by producer Brothers: When Rock And Roll Was Fun, and Natural Act. Nicely interpreted by Dino Dunsford, who will be moving out on a promo tour shortly.

BARBARA MANDRELL - Country Moments - MCA - MCA5769-J

No One Mends A Broken Heart Like You, written by John Schweers, and taken as a single from this album, is already making impressive moves up the charts across Canada. Also key are Jeff Pearson's writing of (You're Still My) Hand Holder, and the title track which was co-written by Jim Daddario and Don Pfrimmer. Produced by Tom Collins.

Country Christmas early at MCA

The recent frosty September mornings must have been an influence on the release folks at MCA, who have seen fit to hurry the Christmas season with a couple of reminders. The Oak Ridge Boys are off with their Christmas Alone album, produced by Ron Chancey, along with George Strait's seasonal album appropriately titled Merry Christmas Strait To You. George's album was produced by himself and Jimmy Bowen. On the straight side of releases MCA moves quickly with John Schneider's latest album, Take The Long Way Home. This package, which he produced with Jimmy Bowen, contains his latest chartburner, At The Sound Of The Tone. Mac Davis should make chart moves with his latest album, Somewhere In America, which was produced by the very busy Jimmy Bowen.

Aggressive promo attack pays off for Savannah

Brian Ferriman, president of Savannah Records, has moved his label into coast-to-coast prominence with an aggressive promotion assault spearheaded by personal visits to radio and retail. "I have made a point of talking to and visiting with as many country programmers and retailers as possible," says Ferriman, "and this has resulted in a better understanding by these people, of our label and our artists."

Savannah artists have chalked up very impressive concert dates, which tied-in nicely with the release of their product. A house record was set at the Quebec Coliseum (Aug 16), when Bobby LaLonde joined the lineup on the Kenny Rogers show. At $22.00 per ticket, and with 16,000 tickets sold, this resulted in the largest gross ever for the Coliseum. As well, LaLonde, who is bilingual, received rave reviews. A new album is on the way.

The following evening in Moncton (17), Terry Carisse joined Rogers and Dolly Parton, and again the largest gross ever was scored for their date at the Moncton Coliseum. Halifax was the next date (18), but because of the ticket demand at the Metro Centre, a second date was arranged. Carisse is now one of the top grossing country acts in Canada, and with the release of his new album, None Of The Feeling Is Gone, it's expected his concert circuit will be expanded. He is currently making giant strides up the RPM Country 60 with his latest single, Love Sweet Love, up to No. 20 this week from No. 37.

Stan Campbell returns to radio

Stan Campbell has resigned as Vice President of Acclaim Records in Canada and the U.S. Stan has returned to radio and is currently working on a radio satellite network. This information comes from Veronica Mataseje, who is President and General Manager of the label with offices in both Nashville and Scarborough, Ont.

Bryant & Cox off on Boot

Boot Records is giving a major push to a couple of new album releases: Wiz Bryant's Spirit Of The North, and Out Behind The Barn by C.J. Cox. The Bryant album was produced at Toronto's Emmanuel Studios. The majority of the tracks were produced by Morley Halsmith with production credits for Our Town going to Rene Brossard, and Ontario to Howard Baer. Wiz wrote all the material, with the exception of Our Town, which was co-written by Conrad Beaubien and Rene Brossard. C.J. Cox is from New-

Gary Fjellgaard is currently on release with his new album, No Time To Love, from which Dancing In The Ring was taken as a single. The follow-up will be the title track of the album. Fjellgaard will be appearing in concert with Ray Charles in Thunder Bay (Sept. 12).

Minglewood, will be touring Atlantic Canada beginning Sept. 10, followed by festival and fair dates in Ontario and the West. Ready for release is a new single, Far Side Of Town, taken from the Me & The Boys album.

"This past spring and summer have been very busy for us," says Ferriman, "and with the addition of Debbie Wood as Director of Promotion and Publicity, we can now concentrate on more markets across Canada as well as making a major thrust into retail."

Savannah is also a major player in this year's Canadian Country Music Awards where their complete roster of 7 recording acts were nominated in 9 categories. These were Terry Carisse (Male Vocalist and Song of The Year - Sweet Blue), Gary Fjellgaard (Male Vocalist), The Bobby LaLonde Band (Group), Matt Minglewood (Album of The Year - Me & The Boys), Anita Perras (Female Vocalist and Song of The Year - Mutual Acquaintance), Anita Perras and Tim Taylor (Duo), and Michelle Wright (Vista - Rising Star). As well, Perras, Taylor and Carisse will all appear on the Global telecast of the awards show.

foundland and his "down-to-earth country music" should attract his fellow Newfoundlanders with Newfie Blues, and Toast To An Island.

Henry single mixed at Cherry Beach

Audie Henry's latest Canyon Creek single, Being A Fool Again, which is included on her Gentle Man album, was redone at Toronto's Cherry Beach Sound. Audie's producer Bart Barton says "I think the sound we got at Cherry Beach is much better than we had on the album." He goes on to say, "In fact, with

ACME awards show to be televised

Jack Feeney, Executive Director of the Academy of Country Music Entertainment, reports that this year's awards show, which is being held in Winnipeg (Sept. 13), will be televised on a network of stations. These stations include the Global Network in Ontario, the Atlantic Satellite Network (ASN) in the Maritimes, CHFD-TV Thunder Bay, CBKT-TV Regina, CBKT Saskatoon, CFAC-TV Calgary, CITV Edmonton, CKVU-TV Vancouver, and Winnipeg's CKND-TV.

The 90-min show, which will take place at Winnipeg's Centennial Concert Hall, will be co-hosted by Tembo recording star Carroll Baker, and American country recording artist John Conlee.

There will be 11 awards presented during the TV portion of the show, as well as performances by a number of Canadian country acts. There will also be a special performance by the Royal Winnipeg Ballet.

The single is released on the Harvestholm label, with offices in Nobel, Ont. This is the title track of Terry's upcoming album. A video has also been released.

New single from John Winters

New from Thunder Bay's Golden Eagle label is the John Winters release, Broken Lovers. The single was produced by Don Grashey and written by Fay Walker. Don is making a major push on this single in both Canada and the U.S.

Gulley & Davis cut duet

J.K. Gulley and Wendy Davis, both highly successful as solo artists for RCA, have teamed for a duet of Sweet Dreams. The flip, Taking The Chance, is also a duet, and both sides were written by Graham Russell. The single, which qualifies as 2-parts Cancon (AP) was produced by Gulley.

Terry Carisse is a Pick at CFNI

Mike Nikolic, Music Director at CFNI Radio, Port Hardy, B.C. reports that Love Sweet Love by Terry Carisse is his Pick Hit for this week. The North Island Radio station's format is 75 percent country with the balance being A/C and middle of the road.

Not bad for a Cancon country girl

Carroll Baker, who co-hosted this year's Canadian Country Music Awards show in Winnipeg with John Conlee, received good news from England. The Tembo recording artist came in third in the Country Music Roundup Awards. First was Janie Fricke, and second was Reba McEntire. Carroll beat out Lacy J. Dalton, Tammy Wynette, and Dolly Parton.

Griff moves back into "swing of things"

Ray Griff, a native of Calgary, and now living in Nashville, has launched a personal campaign to "get back into the swing of things again." It was in 1979 when he took what he describes as "a 6-yr. sabbatical from the Nashville music scene - when I was quite hot as an artist, writer and producer."

He goes on to explain, "For the next 5 years (1980-1985), I pretty much wrote and recorded songs about my love for Canada, and songs that I felt were better suited to the Canadian market place. I did little, if anything, to promote my image and my music in the U.S. This was by my own choice."

Earlier this year, Griff, who is signed to RCA in Canada, was on release with a single and video of What My Woman Does To Me, "both of which spilled over into the U.S. and generated a great deal of interest and chart activity," Griff points out. "Although the record was not available in the U.S., it came into the trades with a bullet at a very high number, and the video reached the Top 10 in country videos. Unfortunately neither the record nor the video were available for purchase here, and both had no chance to continue moving up their respective charts."

Encouraged by radio and his U.S. fans, Griff went into studios in Nashville and, together with Johnny Morris, produced 2 sides, Reelin' Rockin' Rollin', and Candy Apple World, both Griff originals. Says Griff, "I played the material for Evergreen Records, the hottest independent in town, and they got very excited. To my delight, they requested that we make a deal - and the decision to release my first U.S. single in 6 years was made."

Griff is currently on release in Canada with his RCA single It Don't Make A House A Home. It's not known at press time if there will be a Canadian release of Reelin' Rockin' Rollin. However, it should be noted that Griff is still signed to RCA in Canada.
