Armada takes over Praxis operation

Praxis Technologies, Canada's first Compact Disc manufacturing facility, has announced "strategic management and shareholder restructuring."

Michael G. Sifton has assumed the position of President, with control and all shareholdings reverting to Armada Enterprises Ltd.

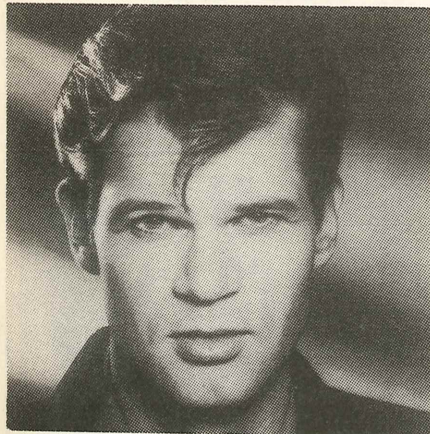

Armada is involved in broadcasting, publishing, aviation, and property development, to name just a few of its activities.

Sifton expects the new plant will be operational the end of April. Says Sifton, "Like any new operation, we expect this facility to take a little time to gear up - but we're confident that our plant will meet all our expectations."

Asked if he was apprehensive about

Oolo's HealthWave being shopped in L.A.

At the height of the "wives" prominence in today's music, Dr Allan Oolo, noted Toronto-area musician and practicing chiropractor, has decided to take his HealthWave concept to Los Angeles.

Oolo says his HealthWave music is designed "to create a counterbalance to the much-publicized and mentally-regressive rock music of today." He stresses the it does not "condone anything other than overindulgence" and "it is also not preaching in any way."

His music emphasizes "conscious moderation" and the movie (starring Dr O.) depicts how rock stars tend to deviate from "ConMod." The soundtrack he has developed and recorded, with back-up band The Features, was completed in his own studio: Dr Sound.

Currently shopping Oolo's idea (Dr O. - The Movie and Soundtrack) is lawyer Clark Miller. However, Oolo sees a deal "as just another means to an end...I want to be a rock 'n' roll star. Hopefully they'll choose me for the lead role."

Dr. Oolo mentions that he will be appearing in the forthcoming Variety Club video that has been scheduled for an international release (May 24). I Am Your Child, which was written by Barry Manilow, is also reported to feature Honeymoon Suite, Belinda Metz, Lee Aaron, and Kim Mitchell.

compact disc manufacturing, in view of its reported high rejection rate, Sifton noted, "It's not like we've entered into a completely new method of manufacturing compact discs. There has been much accomplished over the short haul since the introduction of CDs. It's like jumping into the game after the pioneers have opened the way." He continues with "Like any operation it all comes down to people, and we've got an exceptional team of professionals on board."

Besides Sifton, the other members of the management team are Al Alias, Senior Vice President, Sales & Marketing; Trevor Johnson, Vice President, Operations; and Gregory Hill, Vice President, Systems.

Prior to the official opening of the Praxis plant, an "on-site" press reception will be held - the date to be announced shortly.

WEA Canada focuses in on campus/retail power

In view of the ever increasing power of the campus media, WEA Canada has stepped up its communication with campus radio and press. They now provide information and promotional material to campus media through The Only Alternative, a bi-monthly publication, as well as regular mailings.

With an increase in touring artists to Canada this year, WEA is quite aware of the swing by some of these acts to what they describe as "mainstream attention," pointing out that others "are the darlings of an ever improving system of campus media which is more and more capable of creating its own stars."

In March alone of this year, Canada has seen tours by The Jesus & Mary Chain, Jonathan Richman, Violent Femmes, Lloyd Cole & The Commotions, Simply Red, The Church, and The Replacements to name a few. As an example of WEA's "stepped up coverage," The Violent Femmes played to sold out crowds in Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver, and stayed over in Toronto for a 2-day media blitz and in-store autograph session. Obviously the accessibility of this band, and others, increased interest at retail and at the campus level. WEA held a special Campus Press Conference with The Violent Femmes in Toronto, prior to their concert. There were more than 30 campus press and radio people on hand to talk with the band about their tour and new album, The Blind Leading The Naked.

Traditionally, underground bands have more often offended the media with their lack of cooperation, which has somewhat been reversed. Many of these bands are now making extra efforts to meet with press and retail, and as a WEA spokesperson points out: "Dream Academy is gold in Canada, INXS has just gone gold and the latest Cure album is not far off the mark, proving that cross over and large sales are possible from any of these 'so-called' alternative bands."

CARAS places emphasis on artists for Board

CARAS President Peter Steinmetz has announced changes in its 16-member Board of Directors, including adding Vancouver artist/songwriter/producer Bill Henderson of Chilliwack. The election of Henderson brings the total artist representation to 3 on the Board. Other recording artists currently serving as Directors are Gil Moore of Triumph and singer/songwriter Ian Thomas. Moore is also Chairman of the Juno Talent Committee.

Steinmetz points up the importance of artists becoming actively involved in CARAS, noting that "the addition of artists to the Board in the last 2 years has brought a fresh, creative perspective to the Board in dealing with such areas of responsibility as show production, talent acquisition, nominating and voting procedures and membership services." He continues with "By no means are artists serving as token figures on the Board. They are taking a direct, hands-on involvement in all of these areas."

Also elected to the Board are Don Kollar, General Manager RCA/Ariola; Gerry Lacoursiere, President, A&M Records Canada; and Donald Tarlton of Donald K. Donald Productions, Montreal. Lacoursiere will also serve as Chairman of the Juno Nominating & Voting Committee.

Retiring from the Board are Stan Kulin, President WEA Music Canada; Norm Perry, Vice President Concert Productions International; Joe Summers, Senior Vice President A&M Records Canada; and John Watt, Director of Film, Sound Recording & Publishing Policy Division for the federal Department of Communications. The latter will continue his CARAS involvement as a member of the Advisory Board.

Outgoing Directors were presented with mini-Junos at a special luncheon (Apr. 7).

Trebas sets May 10-11 for Vancouver/L.A. meet

Canada's Trebas Institute has planned for Vancouver's industry professionals to meet their Los Angeles counterparts in a 2-day seminar to be held in Vancouver May 10th and 11th. Musicians from both centres are being invited to participate.

Being billed as The Vancouver/Los Angeles Connection, the meet will be held at Vancouver's York Theatre. Speakers will include publisher Jim O'Loughlin; the founders of the BMI-sponsored L.A. Songwriters Showcase, Len Chandler and John Braheny; Billboard's Tom Noonan; Arista's Rich Esra; and Neil Portnow of EMI-America.

Alexandra Franklen, who is producing the event for Trebas, explains, "We want to give our local talent more exposure to the L.A. music industry." The seminar will cover the songwriting craft and music business topics.

Factor/CTL amendment for new talent funding

Changes made known by the Factor/CTL board has resulted in the decision that no longer will aspiring Canadian musicians receive cash awards to assist with the production of their demo tapes. The decision apparently came about because of criticism raised from within the music community, concerned with the quality of previous product.

The New Talent Award now consists of contracted studio time. "What was happening in the past," explains CIRPA's Julie Thorburn, "is that groups would take the lump sum payment ($2,500) and instead of producing a high quality demo tape, they would have a poor quality record manufactured."

CIRPA President Earl Rosen agrees, adding, "We don't mind funding albums, but these bands deserve a decent shot, and that takes more money." He continues with "The money we would have channelled into the award system will be made available through loans."

Hopefully alleviating this mis-use of appropriated funds and "making better use of the resources," continues Thorburn. "We have contacted about 40 studios across Canada, and they have provided blocks of time enabling a band to produce at least 3 or 4 songs."

Those studios participating, stretch from Vancouver to Halifax, but not Quebec where musicians are currently working with the MusicAction program. "Previously," suggests Rosen, "funds were obtained from broadcasters and repaid loans however, this presents the opportunity for the studios to share in the development of talent as well."

Having received approval for an award, a group is then "designated" a studio by CIRPA, who administer the fund. The only

Sold Out date for Chubby Checker at RYH

No sooner had it been announced that Chubby Checker and Gary U.S. Bonds would be appearing at the Imperial Room of Toronto's Royal York Hotel, the switchboard was flooded with calls. The result has been one Sold Out date (Apr. 28), and several more on the way to being sold out.

The nostalgic package will be playing the prestigious room from Apr. 28 through May 3.

Checker, who was born Ernest Evans, got his name from Dick Clark's wife, and it was shortly after this name change when he hit with The Twist, the only record in history to become No. 1 in 2 different years. Checker has released 22 albums and 40 singles in his career, his latest being the 1982 release of The Change Has Come. There is no information as to who carries his product in Canada.

Gary U.S. Bonds was born Gary Anderson. He changed his name after the impact of his first single, whose sleeve sent out the message "Buy U.S. Bonds."

cash outlay being provided for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the studio are for tapes and engineering costs. "Groups can now record their demos in a Manta Sound or a Little Mountain studio as opposed to someone's basement," says Thorburn.

Projects intended for commercial release are ineligible for the New Talent Award, yet the loan system is "quite successful," says Rosen. Perhaps the best example of how successful the program is, would be Kim Mitchell's last release, akimbo alogo. After repaying the original loan, the Factor/CTL fund is continually and substantially bolstered with each album's subsequent sale. Kim Mitchell is actually contributing to the development of further Canadian talent.

Cats Can Fly and Epic pact deal for U.S.

CBS Canada has announced that Cats Can Fly have been signed to the Epic label in the U.S. Their self-titled album is slated for release in the U.S. this summer.

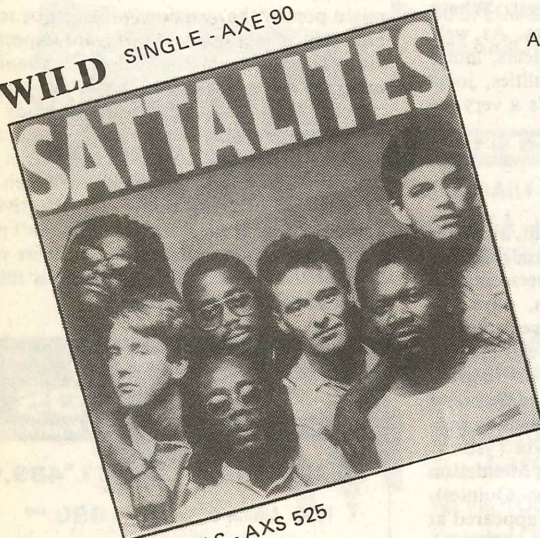

"I love the songs," says Frank Rand, Vice President A&R for Epic. "They are a great live band, and we really hope to have success with them in the U.S."

Also on tap for the Cats are several dates as openers for Level 42. Canadian dates include Montreal (Apr. 20), London (22), and Toronto (23 through 25).

Following these dates they will warm the stage for the Beach Boys: Halifax (May 3), Moncton (4), and Fredericton (5).

Dead end for a Task Force . . ??

I hear from The Hill that THAT Task Force on Broadcasting, which cost a hundred thousand or more, won't be issuing a policy statement, which everyone was expecting. Instead, they are expected to publish all the research material they received, which will be made available this summer. The powers that be have put a hold on what was supposed to have been a very important study into broadcasting, and which will also effect the recording industry. Chances are you won't hear anything more about this for 2 years (EC: Somehow I have the feeling there will be an election in 2 years!!!) This looks like another irresponsible move toward industry chaos. I'd hate to think we might have to revert back to "those bad old days" of the late '60s. By the way, the directive for the hold on the policy statement, apparently came from MM's office . . . in French only!!

She was down to her undies . . ??

Who was that country queen seen in her undies at the airport in Belfast just recently?? (EC: Can't you even mention an initial, which would make J.S. very happy??) I wouldn't even mention her initials, but one thing for sure . . . I've crossed Belfast off my tour card. (EC: Is that because you don't wear any . . . underwear??) According to one

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

How cum . . . ??

We've heard about the cutbacks at CBC, but give us a break. During the well advertised 10th anniversary celebrations of Stony Plain at 2 Toronto clubs - The Horseshoe and Bam-Boo, there was no interest from the CBC. When it was learned that 3 American acts would be appearing at the clubs, the CBC managed to find the funds, cameras, and staff to do some rather extensive taping of these foreign acts. Of course, the producer/director can add to his portfolio, and he looks good in the U.S.

On being TOO successful . . !!

We can always tell when we are being too successful at RPM because the hype-artists start to phone and complain that their records should be ONE point higher on the charts. (EC: Some say they will kill to have a hit!) Right! So we have what we call the BF principle at RPM, which says . . . these are the rules that apply this week because they make my record look good, but next week we resort to the original rules if that makes my record look good! (EC: Not to be confused with RPM's old ugly baby principle!) After 22 years, we've heard EVERYTHING! (EC: The cheque is in the mail!!)

Opportunities . . . you say??

If you're looking for talent, or have talent to sell . . . look no further. Page 15 this week looks very interesting. I'm particularly interested in the outcome of that Limited Edition insert. Now . . . there's a copywriter with a lot of creativity . . . and how about your own recording studio, complete with living quarters? If you're a musician, talented at the piano, bass, rhythm or lead guitars, you might be surprised at what lies in store for you under Theatre Production Needs. What a way to break into showbusiness. As well, there are opportunities for producers, morning and afternoon drive personalities, jocks and newsmen . . . and there's a very ag-

Stony Plain's 10th a week of success

With 97 album releases to his credit, all on his own Stony Plain label, Edmonton's Holger Peterson, who was in Toronto overseeing the week's anniversary celebrations, says the week was "without a doubt, a huge success."

Peterson is looking ahead to this upcoming year with what he describes as "a great deal of optimism, yet with a learned degree of realism." Forthcoming releases include product from Colin Linden and Sylvia Tyson.

Stony Plain recording artists, Mendelson Joe, Doug Sahm (Sir Douglas Quintet), Amos Garrett and Gene Taylor, appeared at Toronto's Horseshoe and Bam Boo clubs for the week-long birthday project. "Unfortunately," says Peterson, "Maria Muldaur, due to contractual obligations, was unable to come down, even though she had been booked."

A double album, Stony Plain compilation package was recently released and traverses the label's "roots oriented" musical history.

The inside dope . . . !!

While the reporters were running all over the place, trying to figure out what was going on in Marcos' palace, back here in Canada, GS could have given them some choice morsels about Marcos and his wife. Wasn't he a house guest at the palace during the heyday of the Marcos regime . . . and his foray into the record (???) business . . . ??

What's going to be hot . . . ??

Let's take a break from rock and HM for a bit, and give a listen to Roger Whittaker's new single, The Genius Of Love. This is going to be a very hot item over the next few weeks. Ed Preston used a unique tack for retail with a cassetted message, spoken by CFRB's John Donabie, which he tagged The Greatest Sound Around. The sound, of course, is a noisy cash register, plus clips from Roger's new album. Back to the rock and real world we go and hold onto your hat, there's a couple of Cancon singles that should be instant adds. They are MPM's Song In My Head, and The Key by Erroll Starr. Albums almost guaranteed to garner a lot of attention are Billy Newton-Davis' Love Is A Contact Sport, Innocent Eyes by Graham Nash, and Laurie Anderson's Home Of The Brave. Jean Michel Jarre will also jar a few ears with his new Rendezvous album.

Waltzmoosin (one-liners)

CP doesn't like his penthouse in Europe because of the Casino across the street and the young kids on motorcycles burning up the road. . . . Has the new Seasons dining room at the Inn on the Park in Toronto become so popular they're even turning record industry celebrities away from the door? Wait til DK discovers their wine cellar! . . . If you are lucky enough to be at the very posh Big Country Awards on Sunday May 4th, you might ponder the question 'will there be some big stars in attendance?' We are expecting visitors from down south!!! (EC: Should I bring my autograph book??) You've heard of "Ticket Traumas"? Should we get ready for an "Awards War"? My inside contact at THAT daily, says . . . YES!!!! Funding is fun . . . but a lack of success is no fun when the funding is not being done . . . effectively! From Ottawa: If the Cancon ruling can't produce more and better records . . . there may be a better answer! (EC: Someone is thinking, and in both languages!!!)

COVER STORY

Times have been lean for Mental As Anything

Having achieved considerable success in Australia and yet only marginal success elsewhere, Mental As Anything have continued recording - and they have persevered. Since their 1981 release, Cats And Dogs, from which the hit single, If You Leave Can I Come, was culled, times have been lean.

The band signed to CBS International this past November, and now have an album, titled Fundamental, which was released worldwide, simultaneously. As the title implies, and which Andrew "Greedy" Smith agrees, their approach to making music is "to have fun while doing so."

For this reason, Richard Gotterer was employed to handle the production duties. He had previously produced the Go Go's, Blondie, and Joan Armatrading. He was chosen for his "simple" touch.

"Our last album was too hard to play live," complains Smith, "so this time we set out to make an album that was really easy to play." The first single released is Smith's own Live It Up, which the keyboardist admits "isn't doing too well in North America."

However, in Australia, that track last year, "was the 3rd most popular song at year end," Smith points out, continuing with "The only records to beat it were Madonna's 'AA' side, and the We Are The World single." Therefore, he is understandably perplexed as to "why the record isn't doing well here."

Yet, chartnumbers and sales figures don't seem to bother the rather flippant musician. "It's an attitude thing for us," Smith asserts. "A lot of people say we're wacky and zany. Well, it's not that we're that serious, I guess it's just that we don't take ourselves that seriously."

Smith continues with, "We started off playing for friends in pubs, and getting signed to a label was really an afterthought. Someone wanted to start up a record company and use us as a guinea pig - so we did it for a laugh. We really had no ambitions of being a recording band."

Fortunately they did - and over the duration of 5 albums, none of which have sold through outside of Australia, they have managed to maintain a sense of humour. "Because you've got to enjoy what you're doing," he suggests, and cites touring as an example. "It's really a working vacation for us - we don't make any money - but we have lots of fun."

Mental As Anything are currently touring with Robert Palmer, yet Smith remarks, "Laziness is an important part of having fun," explaining that this lends itself easily to their live shows. "It means that everybody is singing different songs and that means everybody doesn't do too much singing either."

He points up "That's how we do things in the studios too. We all take turns. It's like 'right, I've done mine, now it's your turn,' and we all have fun writing songs. Then we do our video and we must hold the world's record for the most videos - we have at least 25. We get a lot of friends of ours to do them and it works out well - not to mention it's cheap too. At least we get different senses of humour into them - the videos."

By taking such a laissez-faire attitude, Smith was asked how that would affect the attitudes at the record company level. "Well, if their smart, they'll ignore us," replies Smith. "It's just that these days, if you're not that serious, it's like people can't handle it. I know that might make it hard for our record company, CBS, but I think they're doing a great job for us."

Smith continues with "It's funny how bands in Australia aren't about to throw themselves under trucks if they 'don't make it'. Take England, no Australian band is going to 'make it' there. Sometimes it's not worth the trouble." he contends. "It's harder to make records today - it's difficult to sound competitive or whatever. We went

RECORDS TO RADIO

Duke Street artist activity heating up for summer

by Adrian Heaps

Vice President, Duke Street Records

Well, the hard work for Jane Siberry has finally paid off, in more ways than one. In addition to the recent gold certification here, the Windham Hill/A&M connection is kicking in next week with a full marketing plan very similar to Sting's Dream Of The Blue Turtles, which domestically should push the album to platinum status. On a broader note, the upcoming months are going to be busy and exciting for Duke Street, with 4 acts constituting our priorities: Chalk Circle, Eye Eye, Manteca, and Scott Merritt.

April Fool, Chalk Circle's debut single was a Top 3 add at CHR last week, and the No. 1 AOR add across the country. This action, although expected, is very exciting and provides an excellent barometer for the forthcoming months. The band are absolutely "killer" live, and must be seen. They are currently touring Quebec and should be moving out nationally soon.

They were caught last year opening for Aztec Camera, Corey Hart, and The Waterboys. Their video is in rotation at MuchMusic, and we're looking for a very strong reaction. Expect The Great Lake, their mini-LP by May 5.

Next: Eye Eye. They have already generated a strong buzz on the street through through a lot more trouble on this album - it was harder getting it to sound easier, but that's the name of the game."

In the course of discussing the Australian music scene, Smith reveals, that "It's not that tough to break down there. The big thing is that bands can work - in the pubs, and everybody's out in the pubs looking at bands."

"That's were bands get their start," he explains, and his simple theory for maintaining an exciting and thriving music scene is to have "more pubs". There is a degree of logic to his assertion that the more pubs there are (hiring bands), the more bands will be needed and the more exposure a band receives (due to their popularity) then better are the chances of getting signed.

An interesting similarity was found: Australia's government has imposed content quotas on radio stations. Smith assures that these are however, easily met. "Quotas aren't that high - 25 or 30 percent - and in the past 5 years Australian bands haven't had much trouble making it into the Top 40. In any given week there are at least 3 or 4 songs in the Top 10. But that's not because of the quotas," says Smith. "Radio stations are playing more than the quota because they are the most popular songs - which goes to show it can be done."

their association with John Oates. Their album, titled Just In Time To Be Late, will be shipped to radio May 26 and to retail one week later. Produced by Terry Brown (Rush), the LP's first single, Out On A Limb, will be shipping Apr. 28.

The accompanying video was directed by Champagne Pictures and was shot at the Casa Loma in Toronto. These Q107 Homegrown winners, with solid management behind them, are going to do well, and we are hoping for a lot of support.

Another project, certain to keep us on our toes, is the new Manteca album, No Heroes. Despite the adversity surrounding instrumental tracks, we feel we have a good crack with Danceteria. The band has strong core support, and we'll build onto that base. Key will be to generate a huge response at club level, to follow with plenty of retail action.

Last but not least: Scott Merritt. His new album, as yet untitled, is the most exciting record to come out on Duke Street since Jane Siberry. The man has the depth, the quality material, and a very strong audio-visual presence - all key assets with our artists.

Scott is managed by Steve Berkowitz (tour manager for The Cars and Tom Petty), who is based in Boston. Since hearing Serious Interference, he was willing to commit himself. Scott, like Jane Siberry, is going to demand that same commitment and intensive promotion.

Yes, Scott Merritt will crack it . . .

AN ANNUAL REPORT TO MEMBERS AND TO THE CANADIAN MUSIC INDUSTRY

Every year, CAPAC publishes the figures relating to its operations on behalf of over 15,000 members, and the members of other performing rights societies with which we have reciprocal agreements.

The overall picture for 1985 is a mixed one. The decision of the Copyright Appeal Board to approve a commercial television tariff which effectively "froze" CAPAC's 1985 fees at the 1984 level was a costly one for composers, notwithstanding the continued growth of the television industry, of which copyright music forms an important part.

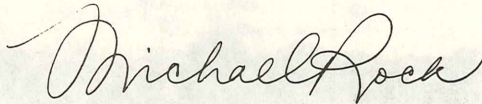

Had the Copyright Appeal Board reapproved the tariff rate in effect for many years, it's estimated that the composers, lyricists, songwriters and publishers of music in CAPAC's repertoire used on Canadian commercial television in 1985 would have earned some $1,000,000 more than they did.

Overall, CAPAC income from licence fees (and interest earned prior to the distribution of income to members and affiliates) increased from $27.1 million to $28.2 million. Especially notable was the increased use of CAPAC members' music abroad - for the first time, foreign income exceeded $3 million, for a total of $3,005,194 (up from $2,466,188 in 1984).

CAPAC's membership continued to grow; 1985 saw almost 1,000 new writers and publishing companies join our organization, and this additional repertoire adds to the wide range of music the society represents.

In 1986, there are continuing pressures on CAPAC from segments of the entertainment industry which seek to limit, or even reduce, the income earned by those who create and market music, the most universal and most popular of all the arts.

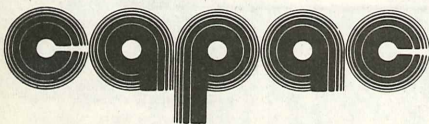

And CAPAC, needless to say, will continue to oppose these pressures, and continue to seek a fair and equitable financial return for composers and publishers whose music plays such an important part in Canadian life.

CAPAC issues these summaries each year because we feel that everyone involved in Canadian music - and especially our own members - should know how we are performing on their behalf. If you have any questions, or would like to know more, please call your nearest CAPAC office. We'll be pleased to help in any way.

① CAPAC licence fees and interest (a)

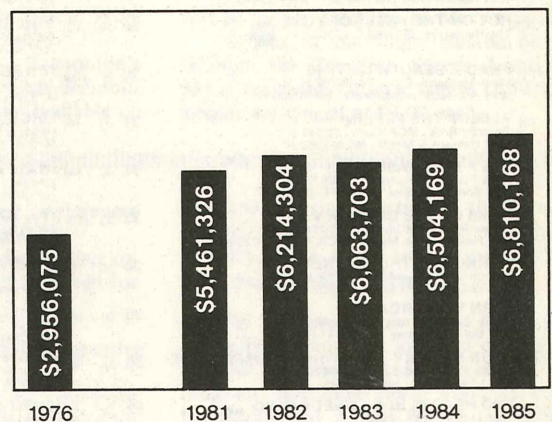

② Foreign income for CAPAC members

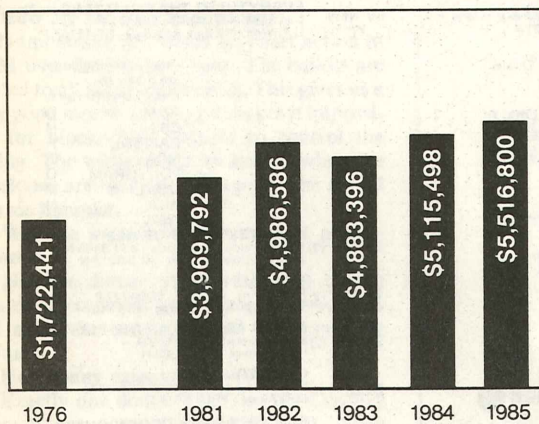

③ Totals distributed to foreign affiliates

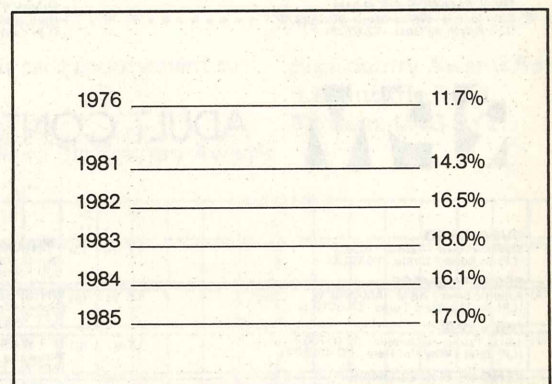

④ Totals distributed to CAPAC publishers (b)

⑤ Totals distributed to CAPAC writers

⑥ CAPAC's overhead (as % of receipts)

(a) Interest is the income earned by the investment of CAPAC receipts. In 1985, this totalled $2,218,613, compared to $2,135,514 in 1984.

(b) These figures include payments for CAPAC publishers who act as agents for foreign publishers.

Prophet and Carriere team with Family Brown

An experimental coupling of Ronnie Prophet, Glory-Anne Carriere, and The Family Brown, has proven to be highly successful. The country package is designed to play smaller locations through service clubs. These will include fairs and halls with a reasonable enough ticket price to attract a rural audience.

Several dates have already pulled good houses, all in Ontario, and these will be followed by Glencoe (May 9), Beaverton (10), Oakwood (16), Renfrew (17), Vankleek Hill (18), Metcalfe (23), Powasson (25), Chesley (30), and Spencerville (31). They will also be playing the Ottawa Telethon (June 1).

Instrumental backing is supplied by Al Bragg (steel), Jon Park-Wheeler (lead guitar), Randall Prescott (bass and harmonica), and Bill Carruthers (drums).

Carriere and Prophet were recently in Toronto where they opened Norman's Place, a new country showplace, on Rivaldo Road in Weston. The owner of the club, a Frenchman (France), is a longtime fan of Prophet's, and spent over $300,000 in renovating the old club.

Carriere is currently on release with her RCA single, Changes, which was written and produced in Nashville by Ray Griff. Prophet is making chart progress with his RCA single, Stealer Of Hearts, which was written by Tim Nichols and Gilles Godard, and produced in Nashville by the latter.

The Family Brown's chart entry, What If It's Right, a Barry Brown original also released on RCA, is the title track from their current album, the second single taken from the album. The Family Brown are also experiencing impressive U.S. action, where What If It's Right has scored good numbers on trade charts. They open their U.S. tour with a May 4 date at Buffalo's Utica Club.

Sons of Andrew boost March To Mexico

Canada's World Cup soccer team recently qualified for the third and final round leading to this year's big summer event to be hosted by Mexico. In view of this standing, the Canadian Soccer Association, which represents a membership of a quarter million, have launched a national appeal program billed as Marching To Mexico.

Alan Clark and Bob McCue, an Edmonton duo, better known as Son's Of Andrew, moved quickly to add a little song and verse to the movement, penning (O Canada) We'll Proudly Play For You.

The pair booked into Edmonton's Damon Studio with producer Van Wilmott, and taped a session that is now available on the Edmonton-based Juniper label. The flip, Is There No Need For The Child, was also written by the Clark and McCue team.

Providing instrumental backing for the session were Wilmott (keyboards), Greg Dunstan (bass), Louis Sedmak (guitar), Clark (acoustic guitar and lead vocals), and McCue, lead vocals and background vocals). As well, Kim Kinrade provided backing vocals.

The proceeds from the sale of the record will go to the Marching To Mexico program.

Copies of the single can be obtained through the Canadian Soccer Association, 333 River Road, Ottawa, Ont. K1L 8H9. The singles are tagged at $3.00 each.

BIG COUNTRY AWARDS BANQUET

SUNDAY - MAY 4TH, 1986
CENTENNIAL BALLROOM
INN ON THE PARK
TORONTO

Q: Will there be meetings and conferences tied into this event in the future?

A: No, we feel there is a great deal of that going on now, and there's no further need for additional conferences.

Q: Isn't $100 per person a little too expensive for a banquet?

A: Actually it isn't. That price is all-inclusive. Once you pay the $100 you have paid it all. There are no other charges: for parking, coat check, drinks, or dinner wine. Everything is included. The evening will be a very posh affair in a very elegant setting - something designed to bring prestige to the Canadian country music industry. It's an event for the industry. Once a year we get together for a very special industry evening.

Q: Will it be possible to pay at the door?

A: Definitely not. For an event of this kind, advance planning makes it impossible to arrange any additional meals. You must be confirmed at least 2 days before the banquet. After 4 pm on May 2nd - if you don't have a confirmation number, you can forget the banquet until next year.

Q: How are the nominees picked?

A: Nominations are based on chart action in RPM over the previous year. The ballots are mailed to all RPM subscribers. This gives us a very good mix of voters and makes it impossible for blocks and pockets to control the voting. The winners will be known when the envelopes are opened, onstage, at the actual awards banquet.

Q: Will the awards feature musical performances?

A: No, the dinner will be followed by the awards ceremony at which time the presenters will open the envelopes and announce the winners.

Q: How many categories are there?

A: Exactly one dozen (12). The Big Country Awards are a very coveted award. They aren't given out in large numbers. They carry a great deal of esteem and are part of a very prestigious event. We purposely limit the attendance so as to keep it on a high plain.

Q: Is it possible to reserve a table?

A: Yes, tables of 8, 9 or 10 can be reserved ahead, if you get a group together and arrange that they all pay prior to 4 pm May 2nd - or mail all the payments in the same envelope. We must have all the names in advance.

COUNTRY

Golden Eagle release for Winters

John Winters is on release with his new Golden Eagle single, The Chill Of Early Fall, a song he co-wrote with his producer Don Grashey. Don describes the new release as "a story song." He goes on to explain that the lyrics point up "a problem that's as old as the hills. It happens every day, probably in every country in the world. Though the problem is old, we think this lyric tells it in a new way. When your listeners hear it, maybe they will recognize it and put their relationship back on track." He concludes with "Like the song, maybe they too will have a happy ending." Don would also appreciate any comments on the above.

Shotgun's Thompson on tour.

Shotgun recording artist Danny Thompson, who has just had his Rockin' Myself To Sleep single released in the U.K. and Canada, is currently on a tour of Western Canada. The single is the title track from his new album, which is to be released to A/C and country stations. The album was produced by Charles Cozen's at Solid State Studio in Brantford.

Chuck Micallef label shopping

Chuck Micallef has just completed 3 sides at Round Sound Studios in Toronto. The session was produced by Ron Dann. Three sides, all Micallef originals, were put in the can. They are English Style Lovin', Lovin' You, and A Pretty Sight. Bob Federer was engineer on the session. Session people included Mike Francis, Bruce Lea, Kim Brandt, Barry Keane, Chris Whiteley, Sheree Jeacocke, David Blamires, Ron Dann, and himself. Chuck is currently shopping for an established label and publisher. He can be reached in Toronto at 416-769-5259.

Cancon/U.K. connection??

Almost everywhere we went in the U.K., broadcasters constantly complained about the lack of information about Canadian country performers and their activities. They are always on top of the U.S.A. (Nashville) artists, with info from the record companies and the artists personally, but see very little from Canadian artists.

There is definitely a move to put country "up front" in the U.K. and Canadian country artists should be advised to think of the U.K. as a potential market for their music.

If ACME does not have an overseas list of country programmers, I'm sure the artists could acquire one from the CMA office in London.

President
Tembo Music Canada

(Ron Irving, of Vancouver's Bootleg, has already been in touch with CMA's London office and advises that they should address their enquiries to Cynthia Lue, CMA London, Suite 3, 52 Haymarket, London. SW1 Y4RP. Telephone 01-930-2445 - Telex 25833)

CHOO's Chili date is international

This year's CHOO Chili Cook-Off is going international. The Ajax, Ont. radio station is expanding its yearly fund raiser for physically handicapped children by introducing the CHOO Chili Cook-Off International. Through a unique Adopt-A-Yank / Adopt-A-Beaver program, Canadian chili cooking teams will provide accommodations for American teams competing in the Cook-Off while Americans would reciprocate for Canadian teams competing in a U.S. based cooking competition. Goodwill ambassadors in Texas and Tennessee are already coordinating chartered airplane flights for CHOO's big date which runs from May 23 through the 25. The setting will be Whitby's Heydenshore-On-The Lake.

Marion/Rarebreed Country single

Released on the Citation label is a new single, Dreamy Sunday, by Marion & Rarebreed Country. The single, which was written by Nancy Horn, was produced by Rene Comeau and Brian Bulmer. Citation has offices in Thunder Bay, Ont.

C-Weed Band celebrates 10th year

Winnipeg's C-Weed Band are celebrating their 10th year in the business. Their latest RCA single, Loving You, written by Errol Ranville, was taken from their Live At Ma's album. The single was produced by Craig Fotheringham. The C-Weed Band now have a business administration agreement with the Henning family of the Downs Motor Inn in Winnipeg. The band has also formed their

These will include Metis Days '86 in Winnipeg, Klondike Days in Morrinville, the Calgary Stampede, and Expo '86 from July 14 through the 19th as well as The Big Valley Music Festival in Craven. The Breeze Band from Six Nations, Ont. is the support act for the entire tour.

Weber & Ashby off on GNAP

New from the Dundas, Ont.-based Great North American Phonodisc label are a couple of interesting singles - one from Kate Ashby, the other from Paul Weber. This is Kate's first single, titled Lovin' Dangerously, which was produced by label owner Dallas Harms and qualifies as 2-parts Cancon. Kate was the winner of the CHFX (Halifax) Talent Search, for which she received a recording contract and an invitation to perform on the National Talent Search Finals in Moncton, during Canadian Country Music Week '85. Paul Weber, of course, is a veteran of Cancon country and his single, Whiskey Tears, a Weber original, was produced by Dallas Harms and Mike Francis.
