Geldof signs to Intersong & releases new solo album

Bob Geldof, who once fronted The Boomtown Rats and more recently organized the Band Aid/Live Aid relief efforts, was in Toronto this past week to drum up support for his latest release - a solo album titled Deep In The Heart Of Nowhere, "which," he says, "gives a sense of being lost but it's not what the album is about."

At a press conference, held while Geldof was in Toronto, the singer alluded that although grateful to be once again nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize, he was indeed "relieved to be back making music again. It's announcement Freddy Bienstock, the president of the Chappell and Intersong Group, offers "He is a truly original and gifted artist, and we look forward to a long and successful relationship with him."

However, even Geldof admits if this record isn't "a hit" then the record companies involved won't carry through with his option. He is signed to the Atlantic label in Canada/U.S. and to Phonogram for the remainder of the territories.

He also explained why, in fact, there are no songs about Africa or his efforts there, on his album. "Because that would be exploitive. I record music not for vanity or money but as a form of expression and communication . . . and this record would've been made even if it weren't for Band Aid."

"I'm not one of those people like Elvis Costello who goes to the toilet and come back

Strange Advance begin work on third album

With recording expected to be completed in early February, the Vancouver-based duo Strange Advance have entered the Little Mountain Studios to complete work on their 3rd - as yet untitled - album.

The band is now signed to Gerry Young's Current Records, following the release of World's Away and 2W0 on the Capitol label.

Young says the new album is "an aggressive new approach for the band which contains more hits than their past two albums combined." The band's debut was certified gold and their follow-up achieved platinum status - which earned them a Juno nomination for Group of the Year.

Strange Advance, Drew Arnott and Daryl Kromm, began recording November 18 and the new album, informs Young, will feature such songs as Hold You, Crying In The Ocean, Endless Nights and Turn Away. A release date has been slated for the spring of next year.

Before releasing the LP, Geldof signed an exclusive worldwide publishing agreement with Intersong International. In making that

Rhino responding to 'oldie goldie' formats

Apparently there is gold to be found in today's "gold" formats. Santa Monica, California, based Rhino Records - who have recently released their Golden Archive Series and The Best Of The Kingsmen - are basically responding to the popularity of the "oldie" format, according to Rhino's Associate Director Stan Becker.

"This is an era (of music) that will never die," he states, "an era that produced artistic output that is still gaining in popularity. Just look at how many recent hit movies are titled after and based around the music from this period."

He furthers that as the years pass, "the original rock generations have more of an appreciation for the intrinsic honesty of this music; and as each new generation discovers itself they too seek out the music's that is unencumbered and driving."

Hoping to capitalize therefore, Rhino has released albums from: The Beau Brummels, The Spencer Davis Group, The Everly Brothers, The Bobby Fuller Four, Love, The Standells, The Turtles and Ritchie Valens; all of which comprise the "Archive" series.

As well, following Richard Berry's recovery of his royalty rights to Louie Louie, the label has released The Best Of The Kingsmen. Also, Becker informs Rhino has made available The Best Of Louie Louie, which includes Berry's rendition of the song, the Kingsmen's (12 million selling) 1963 version, a cover by a punk-rock group and the Rice University Marching Band.

"Aside from the excellent songwriting," concludes Becker, "these recordings represent all of the excitement, innocence and spontaneous passion of a generation dedicated to self discovery and self expression."

Rhino Records have also released the Billy & The Beaters track, At This Moment, which was featured on the NBC series Family Ties. The song is charting stateside and Martha Hanrahan (of NBC) reports the response has been overwhelming. "We've had so much more reesponse than the Phil Collins tune recieved when it was on Miami Vice and that tune went on to the Top 10."

with a triple album," he quips, while adding the actual album is the cassette/CD format with their 14 tracks. The LP has 11.

Geldof, who made his film debut in The Wall, also released his autobiography Is That It? this past year, which is currently a bestseller around the world.

Think Visual represents MCA's first Kinks album

Rock 'n' Roll Cities is the title of the first single from MCA Records' first album from the veteran British rock group The Kinks, entitled Think Visual.

Not only is it the first Kinks album on MCA, but Think Visual marks the first new studio LP from the hard rock unit in 2 years. The Kinks, who first recorded for the Pye label, last recorded for Arista before signing with MCA.

The Kinks last studio project, Word Of Mouth, was issued in 1984 and also came on Arista. Like recent Kinks LPs released during the last few years, Think Visual is produced by group leader, main songwriter and guitarist Ray Davies.

Rock 'n' Roll Cities is being supported by video product and the flip side carries the track Welcome To Sleazy Town. Altogether, the new album contains 11 cuts and is reported to be the 25th album in the long history of The Kinks.

Still in the band are Dave Davies, drummer Mick Avory, bassist Jim Rodford and keyboardist Ian Gibbon. However, the band's touring drummer is Bob Henrit. MCA Records Canada is backing their first Kinks project with a full marketing campaign.

Many rock historians credit The Kinks as the first hard rock group. With Ray Davies penning the songs and combined with his brother's biting guitar work, the band scored in late 1964 with the song You Really Got Me.

They followed up with several other hits throughout their career, including Other Day And All Of The Night, Tired Of Waiting For You, A Well Respected Man, Sunny Afternoon, Deadend Street, Victoria, Lola and Come Dancing. At the same time, Ray Davies became one of rock's most respected writers over the years.

WALT SAYS

Another oldie . . . !

Since I mentioned the fact that I've been in this business for such a long time, people have been informing me that I'm not old at all. It seems there's a 40th anniversary soon to be celebrated. Toronto's Horseshoe Tavern will celebrate its 40th year of operation in December 1987. They are requesting, from across Canada, anyone who has any memorabilia from its past to contact either Norah Gibbs or Carol Marks-George at (416) 598-4753.

It's a lot easier . . . !

I must be out of practice . . . although it's the Christmas season, there's really not a helluva lot happening out there . . . and I've grown accustomed to just putting my two cents worth in over the past few years. Yet it seems things really haven't changed much since the old days. I was reminiscing through some of the RPM archives and . . .

It's interesting to note that . . .

. . . with Corey Hart's single I Am By Your Side slipping out of the Top 30 and The Parachute Club's new one just edging in, and The Partlands not quite there yet . . . well,

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

when was the last time we had this many Cancon singles bulleting into the Top 30?

. . . of the 21 Cancon singles listed on last week's chart only 4 had bullets . . . and 2 were new entries: Corey Hart and Glass Tiger. The Partland Brothers and Nancy Martinez scored the others.

. . . at this time 2 years ago, there were only 13 Cancon singles charting . . . In 1976, there were 16, and in 1966 . . . 16 ! ! !

. . . in November 1966, The Monkees' Last Train To Clarksville was in the top spot. . . while Gordon Lightfoot's Spin Spin was bulleting into the Top 10, challenging not only The Monkees but also Herman's Hermits, ? & The Mysterions, Count Five, Tommy Roe, Johnny Rivers, Eric Burdon, Tempo, Left Banke, Carla Thomas, The Four Tops and The Rolling Stones. . .

. . . Columbia Records released - in 1966 - a total of 41 records by Canadian artists . . . and that includes one from Andre Gagnon too.

A blast from the past . . .

I know I'm supposed to take Walt's place, but the similarities in the business today and 22 years ago . . . let's go back and see what Walt was saying back then . . . about getting a Canadian record off the ground.

. . . the very first Walt Says (in the Sept. 1, 1964 issue) asked: "What's wrong with our record industry? Why can't Canadian records get off the ground?"

. . . some of the answers to those preceding questions are still very valid today:

. . . "For instance already on file we have complaints against the Musicians Union, artists, groups, the BBG and record companies. Along with these complaints come solutions to the problems. . . Record producers have a habit to yell bloody murder when their first record doesn't make it. We know one independent producer in the U.S. who admits to bombs amounting to 80 per cent per year, yet he keeps plugging on and on; and when he does make a hit you can be sure it's a big one, enough to compensate him for another two dozen flops.

. . . "We receive letters from artists who believe they are being cheated out of their God given talent because the radio stations won't play their record. Groups who play to and thrill many audiences can't understand why this same ogling public won't support them by buying records. There is a reason and in most cases it's not because the Program Director is anti-Canadian.

. . . "This is a very fresh and new market for Canadian talent and it is going to take a few more years for our industry to come of age.

. . . "It's happening. I've seen examples of it already. One young Canadian producer who took advantage of the knowledge available in the U.S., recently amazed a group of musicians by producing the American way, that is, having the American sound. I am aware of yet another producer fairly new on the scene who is willing to experiment and feels he has now come up with the sound everyone is looking for. Time will tell, but if at first you do not succeed. . . "

. . . two weeks later (following 2 cover stories featuring The Beatles after their first visit to Canada) there was quite a response from a variety of producers, but it was concluded - in Walt Says: "The fact it is a great sound or a smash should be established first and the origin secondly (if at all). Perhaps a great deal of our difficulty in mushrooming a Canadian hit lies in the fact the 'It's Canadian' was shoved down our throats first."

Watch for . . .

Have you received your copy of I'm An Adult Now by Pursuit Of Happiness? It's a real hot one ! ! ! And new Cancon signings coming soon. And is Boomtown about to explode? Actually, speaking of Boomtown . . .

What's this ? ? ?

When we reviewed The Bangles album a way back when the song we noted . . . Walk Like An Egyptian . . . has prompted that groups' album back onto the charts ! ! !

What the experts say . . . ?

While in town, the rather outspoken Sir Bob said the best album released this past year was Van Morrison's No Guru, No Method, No Teacher. But then did not have too kind words for the fellow native . . .

Speaking of solos . . . !

Keith Richards is evidently recording a solo album as well in London with Ron Wood, enlisting songwriter Bobby Womack to help out.

Until then . . .

Walt will be back next week . . . so, I hoped you've enjoyed my comments but I'm sure you await his return with baited breath . . .

COVER STORY

The Parachute Club - breaking internationally

Of the three albums The Parachute Club have released, their latest Small Victories is by far the best - and by January the rest of the world will be able to hear it as well. The band's awards and accolades have been mounting at a pace of increasing frequency since their Daniel Lanois produced debut, which contained Rise Up, and the group's not really slowing down to take notice of them either.

This past year, while preparing and recording the Small Victories material, the various bandmembers were working on individual projects. For example: drummer Billy Bryans produced (Juno winner) Lillian Allen's Revolutionary Tea Party album and keyboardist Laurie Conger scored the soundtrack for the National Film Board's Dark Lullabies feature documentary.

Following their 1984 At The Feet Of The Moon release, The Parachute Club went on to win a Juno for Group of the Year. Now, a couple of years older - and wiser - the group feels prepared to take on the world that awaits.

"The first album came about because we had no idea what we were doing at the time," explains leadvocalist Lorraine Segato. "The Parachute Club was a project that was on the lark."

"Billy and I were interested in a certain kind of music and a certain kind of politic," she continues. "We were signed to a record contract and we had to come up with material . . . and that was really the beginning of The Parachute Club."

Bryans adds that by the time had come to record their second record, "the novelty had worn off." With Michael Beinhorn at the helm, and although the band was "more unified", that effort has its "bad parts", admits Bryans but "there is some good material on that album."

Even though Beinhorn's album surpassed platinum in sales, he was not asked to come back and record Small Victories. Through a series of "happy coincidences and circumstances," informs Bryans, John Oates made himself available and produced 4 tracks, as well as sharing the lead vocal on the first single, Love Is Fire.

After a few weeks, Small Victories has already surpassed the gold plateau, yet Love Is Fire unfortunately isn't doing as well after its initial push.

Segato suggests the label asked for "music that could be played on radio. I think, in their hearts, they want a hit and to be honest Parachute Club has been 'this shy' of becoming huge in this country."

"Because our songs have gotten on the radio but they're not No. 1 singles. . . we've always gotten in the Top 10 but never No. 1," she laments. "Not that it really matters to us, but in the scheme of business it's important for the record company - and their profile - with the way they perceive their artists as being successful."

Segato relates the band couldn't be pressured into recording a "commercial" album anyway. "That's not really a demand they can place on The Parachute Club because if they demanded it we would have had to look the other way. We're not premeditated people. We don't write music for those reasons. We write music because we want to write good songs."

"Of course, in that, we want to hopefully write good enough songs that are accessible on radio and serve the purpose for other people as well. But for us it's a process of finding what is the most important songs for us to be singing or playing at that time."

Both Segato and Bryans affirm Oates participation on the project will benefit their efforts to break this release in the U.S. "But really," says Segato, "when all is said and

RECORDS TO RADIO

It's "time to eat" at Chrysalis

by Stephen Tennant - Chrysalis Records

During the artist rebuilding program at Chrysalis N.Y. over the past several years, the label has developed a feast or famine syndrome and now . . . it's time to eat!

We'll start with the hor d'oeuvres, just to whet the appetite. World Party is the name of the new band conceived by Karl Wallinger. Karl is the former Waterboys' keyboardist who also co-wrote, produced and engineered A Pagan Place. The World Party debut album, Private Revolution, does not sound like the Waterboys, but compares with the latter group's works in that it melds passionate, intelligent lyrics with infectious melodies, all wrapped up in a rich textured production. The track, Ship Of Fools, is already finding support on KIK-FM, LA-107, KX96, KIS-FM, Q-107, CFNY-FM, FM96, HTZ-FM, Q-104 and the title track has its own believers, among them CHEZ-FM.

Like so many other developing acts, World Party is competing for radio and retail support with established superstars during done, John's reputation alone can't make The Parachute Club. Because The Parachute Club is the one who goes out and works the record and sings live to the people."

While Bryan maintains "If the record is successful, some people are going to say it's because of John Oates. If it's not successful, it'll be because of John Oates. People are going to find reasons to blame it on him or give him all the credit."

"I'm not worried," he concludes. "This is our 3rd album and we're mature enough to take the opportunities that come our way, which in this case was to work with a man as gifted as John Oates. And if that helps us be successful and better at our craft than that's fine. If some people think that's bad. . . then that's the risk you take."

the Christmas rush. World Party's Private Revolution will survive the madness and you can look for a single release in January on the most obvious Top 40 track, All Come True.

Next, we serve up the sizzling Vinnie Vincent, ex-of Kiss and now on his own, currently touring with Alice Cooper and soon to be jumping onto the Iron Maiden dates. No French sauces here, just meat [raw] and potatoes [raw] and rack & roll [raw]. Robert Fleischman's soaring vocals are a close match for Vinnie's renowned guitar work, as Vincent's debut album, Invasion, assaults your senses.

Canadian tour dates are possible early in 1987. Until then, you'll have to be satisfied with the video of Boyz Are Gonna Rock featured on Much Music.

After Vinnie, you're ready for something to settle your stomach, cool your palate. So help yourself to the new Ultravox collection, U-VOX, we're serving this week.

Cosford slams U.S. radio syndication programs . . .

by Warren Cosford
Special Projects
The CHUM Group - Toronto

I got a phone call the other day from the Program Director of a radio station in Florida. They wanted to know if it would be okay to broadcast CHUM's story of the Beatles.

It's the fifth call of its kind that I've received this year.

The remarkable thing about it is that they all want to broadcast a program that is sixteen years old.

It reminded me that (once again) Canadians have 'dropped the ball'.

Today, most of the programs called "Syndicated Radio Specials" are produced in Los Angeles or New York by companies called Westwood One, United Stations and of course CBS, NBC and ABC.

As little as 10 years ago most "Radio Specials" were produced by Canadians.

The Story of the Beatles was the first to be actually syndicated. Kind of. You see, we had no idea what we were doing. "We" were J. Robert Wood, Bill McDonald, Doug Thompson, Doug Rawlinson and Chuck Hanks. The original script had been written by Larry Solway. Bill McDonald was rewriting it. Doug Thompson and I were producing, Chuck was narrating, Rawlinson was doing a little of everything and Bob Wood was making us want to do it.

Bob was very good at his job.

We had no sooner produced two hours of it than he put it on the air at an hour per day.

By doing this, Bob was making sure that we had a very clear idea as to what our deadlines were. Doug and I learned how to be "well rested" on four hours a night.

In 1970 The Production Studios at CHUM were known as The Museums. A term of endearment that referred to the equipment. The studio that Doug Thompson worked in was not equipped with remote buttons for the machines, so he had to stand up when producing.

A week later he was in the hospital. . . his left leg swollen to twice its normal size.

But we never missed a deadline.

Once the program was completed, CHUM gave it away to radio all over the world. I'm told it's one of the reasons why radio all over the world knows what CHUM is.

Six years later we produced a 12 hour documentary on Elvis Presley. "They" said that the "Memphis Mafia" would probably try to stop us, however, every phone call I made to the Presley people was returned. . . and every one of them talked to us.

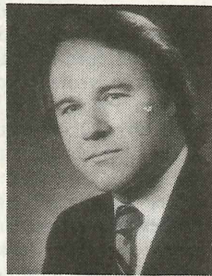

Gordon Stoker of The Jordanares told me that we were getting co-operation because "Elvis heard your Beatle program." It was the proudest moment of my life.

Today. . . that very same Elvis Presley program is being syndicated throughout the world by an American company calling themselves The Programming Consultants. They now call the program The Presley Years.

Since then I've worked with some very talented Canadians producing The Evolution of Rock, The Producers, Superstar Countdown, Supertramp: Self Portrait and hours and hours of The Top 100 Of The Year. Most of it syndicated throughout the world. Some of it even translated into other languages. In fact The Evolution Of Rock was Billboard Magazine's Documentary Of The Year.

"I asked the guy in Florida why he wanted to run our Beatle show."

Warren Cosford

Meanwhile, my friend and occasional partner Douglas Thompson has often shown the Americans how to do it by producing specials on Lennon for NBC, and Ringo for ABC, while David Pritchard's Sonic Workshop has produced some outstanding programs on The Beatles and The Stones and sold them to TM and Mutual.

Many of the Canadian produced programs were syndicated by Len and Paul at Telemedia who could have just bought the cheaper American shows, but understood that we did them better. Most of the successful "Specials" syndication in Canada in recent history has been because of them.

But that was Yesteryear.

Syndication is Big Business in America now. America's got The Clout. Even Canadian performers are more likely to do an interview with The Americans than they are a Canadian.

. . . And that's why Canada won't be producing much syndication anymore and why most syndicated programming will come from America.

Too bad.

Because Canadian shows are usually quite different from American shows. For one thing, because we need to sell them abroad, they are created from an International perspective. American shows are created for America and then, as an afterthought, sold elsewhere.

But that's not all.

Most of the Canadian shows are really done for Radio. In The Beatles, we recreated their first flight to New York, in Presley his first public appearance, in The Evolution Kennedy's assassination, in Supertramp the birth of Roger Hodgson's child backstage. A magic moment in Sonic's Stones' show has Mick and Keith meeting for the first time on a train. The sound effects are from the actual train.

It was Stan Freberg who pointed out that ONLY IN RADIO could you fly the Royal Air Force over Lake Michigan and drop a Maraschino Cherry into a Mountain Of Whipped Cream to the cheering of Twenty Thousand Screaming Extras.

The shows produced in America that I hear today are usually interviews followed by music, followed by interviews. The writing (what there is of it) is for The Eye rather than The Ear.

American Radio Syndication is like McDonald's Hamburgers.

Now maybe we don't need A Real Canadian Hamburger, but we do need A Real Canadian Culture. Casey Kasem declaring the No. 1 song in America to the people in Brandon doesn't cut it.

This isn't "sour grapes." If I wanted to produce syndication in America that's where I'd be. But I don't and I'm not.

It's just that, as we move once again into an era of networking, and a culture crisis in Canadian radio, it's important to note that Canada produced the best programming on Rock History, The Beatles, Elvis and The Stones. . . and that now, famous syndication announcers Charlie Van Dyke and Chuck Hanks got their first opportunities from Canadian programming.

We've got The Clout too if we have the imagination to use it.

I asked the guy in Florida why he wanted to run our Beatle show. . . afterall, it's been done many times since, and in stereo.

He said it was because it was The Best. Thanks for remembering, Florida.

New single for Cameron comes on db record label

Toronto-based singer-songwriter Doug Cameron, the guitarist who made his mark with the controversial single and LP of the same name called Mona With The Children, has just released his long-awaited new single, One Moment Of Love.

With the True North label now solely concentrating on Bruce Cockburn, Cameron's new single comes on the label headed by producer Jack Lenz called db, which also cover the music publishing company Don't Blink Music.

Lenz produced the new single with co-production by Cameron. One Moment Of Love is also being backed by a video produced by Lenz and Marc Jacomelli.

Cameron, who recently completed a month of dates, says he may embark on a promo tour to back the single. He hopes to have his next album - yet untitled - out in the market sometime in February.

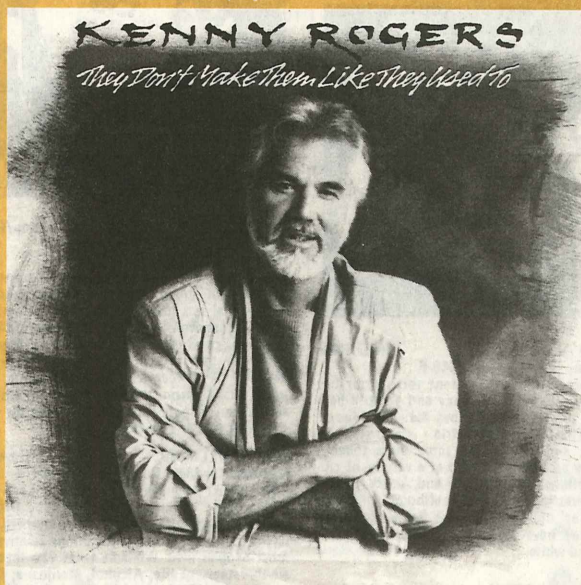

"The material I've been working on is much more directed at a mainstream audience," says the Oakville-born artist. "The material is more commercially accessible. It will be interesting to see how it's received."

The singer admits that when he wrote the material for his first LP, he didn't think it was the type of material which would have commercial success. "Obviously, it did," he adds.

"There's a variety of styles in the new material. Some songs are a bit softer. I think what I do falls into the adult category, but they are pop songs," Cameron states.

Cameron was nominated for a 1986 Juno award in the Most Promising Male Vocalist category but lost out to CBS' Billy Newton-Davis. Ironically, Cameron's previous material has only now been released in Australia and New Zealand. He is confident the product will do well.

ALBUMS

ERIC CLAPTON - Pop
August - Warner Bros. 92-54761-P
Although Phil Collins touch is far from invisible on this set, the guitarist's virtuosity is left alone on many tracks. There is a good depth with inclusion of Tina Turner on backing vocals (Tearing Us Apart and Hold On), the latter precedes Miss You - and all 3 are standouts. The lead track, It's In The Way That You Use It, is featured in The Color Of Money and is certain to give this effort a considerable boost. An excellent follow-up to Behind The Sun and the addition of a horn section gives an almost Genesis-y feel but in this case, all tracks are key.

LATITUDE - New Age
Self Titled - Lifestyle - LSR-6004
Cross a breezy guitar with a fairlight and this LP is what results. Fairly lengthy pieces, written by the duo - Ben Verdery and Craig Peyton. A very interesting and almost hypnotic set. Some of the guitar tracks have an Eastern feel (not PEI), yet all blend well and would make an excellent addition to the many 'new age' radio programs now blossoming.

THILO VON WESTERNHAGEN - New Age
Pleasureland - Lifestyle - LSR-6002
Recorded in 1983, the LP focuses on the piano talents of Von Westernhagen combined with the sax of Herb Geller, which follows closely along the jazz line. A well-rounded effort, and a direct metal-mastered recording.

FRANK SINATRA - Pop
The Voice - The Columbia Years 1943-1952
Columbia - C6X-40343-H
Each record is thematically divided: Saloon Songs, Standards, Screen, Love Songs, Swings and Stage. All the "monoaural" songs have been digitally remastered, which should please the fans - and evidently there are quite a few left. This set included 72 tracks.

DURAN DURAN - Rock/R&B
Notorious - Capitol - PJ-12540-F
Nile Rogers' touch is evident throughout but this album has a consistency and a depth beyond the pop realm, far above their previous releases. The band - now a trio - is also stronger lyrically and have added some brass touches this time around. Recorded at a variety of studio locations (including Air and Abbey Road), it is interesting to note that although musically the 'color' of the group was fleshed out very well, they have decided to appear visually in black and white.

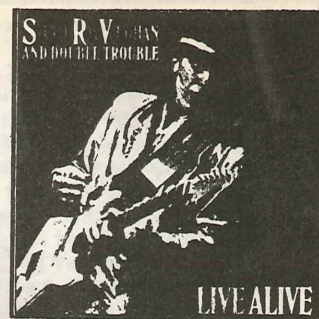

NEW MODEL ARMY - Rock
The Ghost Of Cain - Capitol - ST-12527-F
Pure and simple, one of the best rock 'n' roll records to come from the U.K. this year. Whatever Glyn Johns gives to groups he works with, and these include: The Stones, The Who, Led Zeppelin, The Clash and The Eagles; he has also given to NMA. Hopefully the band will be allowed to tour - to support this release, at least in Canada anyway.

BOB GELDOF - Pop/Rock
Deep In The Heart Of Nowhere
Atlantic - 78-16871-P
Leaving the Rats far behind, Geldof steps out on his own and delivers one of the strongest commercial sets this year. Actually the amount of assists are even to numerous to mention here. Given his current stature, this will be a very hot album in the forthcoming months. All tracks are key. A deliberately poignant album that pours straight from the biggest heart in rock 'n' roll today. Rupert Hine produced the set with the exception of 2 tracks.

ROBIN WILLIAMS - Comedy
Night At The Met - Columbia - FC4054-H
This explicit language set is a must for any one with a sense of humour. Produced by Brooks Arthur, co-produced by David Steinberg. At last a comedy album with things relative to most peoples lives. Williams takes you through all the stages of life, Alcohol, Marijuana, Cops and Cocaine. The entire LP is funny but Alcohol Marijuana, Cocaine, Regan, Men's Parts . . . deserve a close listen. Recorded live at the Metropolitan Opera, N.Y.C.

STEVE RAY VAUGHAN - Rock
Live Alive - Epic - E2-40511-H
Packaged carefully and extremely well, this double live set will undoubtedly command front racks. Should put Vaughan and his bandmates on the commercial map of music. Contains his own seriously classic tracks, as well as Voodoo Chile (Hendrix) and Superstition (Wonder), the former lasting over 9 minutes. Produced by the band at 3 dates: Montreaux, Dallas and Austin. Truly, a definitive set.

VARIOUS ARTIST - Pop
Miami Vice II - Soundtrack
MCA-6192-J
At last another Miami Vice soundtrack, it seems like a weak follow-up to the first LP. Although I'd imagine if you followed the show the music might have some 'sentimental' meaning, but then again Mr Sentimental has his own LP now. Executive producer is Michael Mann. Take Me Home by Phil Collins is included on this set, so it may give it some what of a boost.

KATE BUSH - Pop/Rock
The Whole Story - Capitol - PWAS-17242-F
Some of the tracks have been re-mixed on this 'best of set', from one of the pioneers in the music industry. Contains many of her U.K. hits: Wuthering Heights, The Man With The Child In Her Eyes and Wow; and of course the finest tracks from her last effort. The previously unreleased Experiment IV is the first single. Double gatefold package.

CHOM celebrates 15 years

This past November Montreal's CHOM celebrated its 15 years of broadcasting using those call letters. On November 19, the day CGKM became CHOM back in 1971, the station "recreated" the sounds of that year by inviting back DJ alumni Angus MacKay, Doug Pringle, Live Earl Jive and Doug Markus to participate in the anniversary.

"We're sure that our listeners, both the newcomers, and those who remember the CHOM of 1971," notes GM Lee Hambleton, "will find this special day of programming entertaining." CHOM is Quebec's largest english-language broadcaster.

KX96 sends winner to Mexico

Promotions Director Dave Farough, of KX96 Manitoba, asks "Have you ever spent an icy winter in Manitoba?" And continues "If so, you'll know why Kim Sheppert of Brandon was 'ecstatic' to win Manuel's Mexican Stand-Off." The contest, one of the stations most successful "a form of Russian Roulette", had callers gambling their prizes for a bigger and better "shot" at a chance of having their name entered into the Grand Prize draw. . . a week in Mazatlan, Mexico and $500 cash.

CFGO's Win A Trip To The Junos contest winners are seen here with PD Trudy Chamberlain and WEA recording artists Gordon Lightfoot and David Foster.

CFGO boosts Breakfast Club

Veteran broadcaster Dave Thomas joins Abby Hagyard in the morning at Ottawa's CFGO, reports Promotion Manager Jennifer Morden. As well as his 15 years of expertise in broadcasting, Thomas has also worked as a writer, producer, announcer and director on a series of instructional hockey tapes for minor leaguers. With his addition, informs Morden, his "zany sense of humour keeps everyone wondering what will happen next on The Breakfast Club; CFGO's answer to The Zoo Crew."

AM96 gives away Firebird

Cambridge's AM96 recently finished their fall promotional contest, The AM96/Pepsi Payoff. Jeff Brown, Promotions Manager, informs "We were giving away albums, compact disc players, Pepsi and Burger King's food, as we gathered up 96 qualifiers for our Grand Prize - a 1986 Pontiac Firebird." In total the station gave away $178,000 in prizes.

"Koats For Kids" underway at BX-93

The 5th annual "Koats For Kids For Christmas", co-sponsored by London's Mission Services, Sketchly Cleaners and BX-93, this November began their drive to have area residents donate used winter coats for distribution to those less fortunate. Sandi Vickerman says last year over 7,000 coats were donated and the campaign "has proven to be an inexpensive way for everyone to share the warmth of the holiday season."

CFMO kick-off Christmas Exchange

For the 9th consecutive year the CFMO/Citizen Exchange Broadcast, on December 7, will launch the annual Ottawa-area Christmas Exchange, a community fundraiser that assists needy families over the holiday season. The station's Linda Spalding reports last year's show raised "better than half" the total for the Exchange, "and we would like to do so again this year."

Rondell's Forever In Your Love to hit A/C

Roto Noto recording artist Frank Rondell, who is currently enjoying tremendous success on A/C charts with Hey There Girl, has teamed up with the same successful combination for his up-coming single.

The new single is a powerful ballad with enough edge to be a hit on both A/C and Pop Charts.

New A/C & MOR effort for Debbie Johnson

According to Sklar 1986 has been "A great year," continuing with, "The Calgary Stampede and Klondike Days were a huge success. So were the many other smaller fairs and exhibitions that we had the privilege of performing for."

"Our time at Expo was both a pleasure and a great performing experience, as were our visits to Las Vegas and Los Angeles." The band has completed 16 of their first 26 Number One West Shows. Which Sklar explains, "Will start airing early in 1987. We performed on telethons, at rodeo dances and auditorium shows."

Upcoming dates for the band include Crossroads, Calgary (December 8 - 13), Bar-K, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan (15-20) and the Maxim Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada (April 13 to May 9th) of 1987.

After what appears to have been a successful year Sklar concludes, "Now it's Christmas, and, instead of a card were sending a copy of our Christmas single."

Roto Noto's 3:09 minute work out

Well at least that's what you'd expect to hear on Terry Dixon's, The Physical Fitness Song. The Randall Cousins production guests Pat Mooney, Mark Miwerdz, Linda McHattie, Carl Horton, Wayne Heimbecker, Tia Hofgraff, Wille Jarvis and Bob Wingrove. The song is a testimonial to the perils of over-indulgence and closely examines the infamous quote "No Pain No Gain." Roto Noto feels that the single is receiving an incredible amount of adds, but admits that it is the kind of song that you either love or hate.

Cancon invading Country Chart

The RPM Country 60 for the week of December 6th consists of more than 33 percent Canadian content with Top 10 singles Ordinary People by Bootleg and Anne Lord's I'll Never Get Over You. Also making impressive gains are Savannah recording artists Terry Sumsion and Terry Carrisse, B&C's The Haggertys, RCA's Ronnie Prophet, Little Devil's The Stoker Brothers and Tembo's Carroll Baker. Recent Cancon additions to the chart are Colleen Peterson's What A Fool I'd Be and a second time around for J.K. Gulley and Wendy Davis' Sweet Dreams.

Lord brings first Cancon Christmas single for label

Juno nominee, for Best Female Country Vocalist, Anne Lord has just released her first Christmas single as well as the first Christmas single to cross the border for the Comstock label.

The unusual titled Snow White Prairie single was co-written by Lord and her husband Roger. According to Comstock President, Frank Fara. "Anne took a 'unique approach' at this single." With all the Christmas product being released Fara asserts "it's really hard to put out a good Christmas song, but I think Anne's done it. The up tempo single is a reminder to those who use to be involved in the real Christmas spirit, with the sleigh riding and other family traditions." As well as "including the sleigh bells in the song."

Lord is currently enjoying tremonous chart action with I'll Never Get Over You, which is currently No. 6 on the RPM Country 60. Fara's reaction to the success of Lord's single was "I'll Never Get Over You, is a solid single for us, it has crossed-over at most dual format stations and phone requests are perhaps her best ever. It's been 3 years building up to this one."

distributed Curb label, latest single release is Cowboy Man. Lovett wrote the tune as well as co-producing it with Tony Brown. The single was taken from the Lyle Lovett album.

Statler's add Senior Citizens

The Statler Brothers add Senoir Citizen Organizations to their label, which brings their mailings up to 90,000. The Grammy Award winning group have one of the largest private mailing lists in show business history. They use their list 6 times a year, sending newsletters, tour schedules and other tidbits including personal Christmas cards to each of their fans. It's interesting to point out that all of the fans receiving the above don't have to pay anything. It's free.

Travis, who is currently on release with his fast rising single, No Place Like Home, a follow-up to his recent No. 1 single Diggin Up Bones, has also released White Christmas Makes Me Blue. Plank [Vienna], U-VOX combines the Ultravox sound with a brighter, crisper production and, of course, Midge Ure's vocals, now pushed to the forefront. The first single, The Same Old Story, shipped this week and combines the Ultravox techno-pop with the rock/R&B feel. You'll eat it up.

The main course? A double entree of two world-wide superstar acts - Huey Lewis and the News and Billy Idol.

Fore! is the fourth album from the News and now four times platinum. Recently No. 1 in Canada and sure to regain that position soon, Fore! currently features Hip To Be Square, the seventh consecutive Top 20 single from Huey & Co. with more to come including the next 7 inch release, Jacob's Ladder. The world-wide tour continues with the band covering North America [including Vancouver on Dec. 21st] and The Far East over the next six months.

For something tougher but still easy to digest is Whiplash Smile, the brilliant follow up to the 5 times platinum Rebel Yell. The controversial, uncompromising Billy Idol, together again with Steve Stevens and Keith Forsey, deliver an array of new tracks sure to puzzle all those who had Billy figured out. From the sensitive Sweet Sixteen to the gospel-tinged To Be A Lover to the familiar snarl on Don't Need A Gun, Whiplash Smile covers the gammut of Billy's vocal and song-writing versatility. Look for an Idol Canadian tour in early 1987.

And for Dessert we've got a new Go West for you in January.

Hope you've enjoyed your Chrysalis buffet. And don't worry...you'll never be hungry again. Thank you for your on-going support and from all of us at MCA we wish you all a happy holiday and a healthy and prosperous new year.

Toronto-based CeeDees release on Freedom label

New to Scott Richards' Freedom Records label is a 5-song mini album from local Toronto poet Curtis Driedger. The album represents what is basically a "best of" collection, says Richards, all songs being written between the past 6 years.

Driedger enlisted the production talents of Steve Webster for this recording - after Webster had returned from a year of touring with Billy Idol; while retaining drummer Nick Kent and bassist Merrie-Ellen Wilcox to record the tracks.

The CeeDees, originally from Peterborough, have featured in their past: Doug Cameron (see p. 8), Billy Bryans, Bucky Berger and Terry Wilkins. In 1981, the band were filmed in performance with Allen Ginsberg, a segment of which is used in the movie Poetry In Motion.

Ginsberg was later quoted as saying the band was better to play with than The Clash.

Their present lineup (Driedger, Kent and Wilcox) are currently touring to promote this latest release, which features the popular rocker Eskimo Lullaby.

Frank Sinatra is the greatest singer in the history of popular music.

Now, at last, his 72 reputation-making 1943-1952 Columbia recordings have been digitally remastered and, for the first time, packaged together.

Gift boxed with photo book and extensive notes, this is one collection you'll be proud to give, and even prouder to own.
