Corporate changes at Morning Music Group

The Board of Directors of Morning Music has appointed Mark Altman to the position of Executive Vice-President. The above announcement was made by Tom Connors, newly elected President of the Corporation.

CIRPA releases first issue of Ontario study

The Canadian Independent Record Producers Association (CIRPA) has released their study on the record industry in Ontario, entitled Sound Investments - The Record Industry In Ontario. The study was prepared under contract from the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture, and was authored by Earl Rosen, CIRPA's Executive Director, Stephen Stohn, an entertainment lawyer, and Donna Murphy, Editor of the Canadian Record Catalogue database.

Research for the report included a survey of more than 400 small and medium-sized record labels, as well as interviews with many involved in the industry. There are also detailed case studies of children's, ethnic, jazz, country, and Franco-Ontarian music.

The report calls for strong federal and provincial action "to ensure that Canadian musicians, songwriters, publishers, and record labels are compensated for the losses caused by home-taping." Also included are recommendations on ways the Ontario Government "can strengthen both the domestic and international marketing and turing cell, giving them a combined total capacity to manufacture 9 million discs annually.

Sifton points out that "approximately 75 percent of all Praxis product is exported." Its client base includes Capitol-EMI International, Gusto Records, Sheffield Lab, Fanfare Records, Fifth Continent, Alert Records, and PolyGram.

Palmer PR expertise added to Balmur team

Marlene Palmer has been appointed executive assistant to Leonard T. Rambeau, President of Balmur Ltd. Palmer's chief responsibility will be in the area of artist and public relations.

Prior to joining Balmur, Palmer was assistant to the CBC's area head of variety in Toronto, and prior to that, spent 5 years in various artist and public relations capacities with the Bruce Allen Talent Organization of Vancouver. During this time she worked with such artists as Bryan Adams, Loverboy, Powder Blues Band, Red Rider, and Susan Jacks.

Balmur Ltd. is the management company, representing Anne Murray, Frank Mills, and Bruce Murray.

There are, reportedly, "more than one hundred exhibitors," who will take part in the 5-day showing, considered one of the most important exhibitions of its type in Canada.

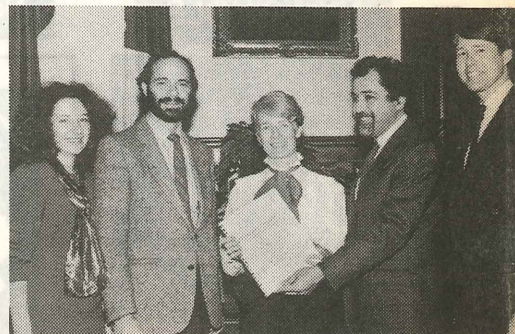

Besides continuous showings on giant video screens of video clips, films and concerts and documentaries, there will be live performances by jazz-rock bands, as well as classical orchestras.

1986 a banner year for the industry

Part One of a series

The dawning of the eighties wasn't greeted with too much optimism, with the bottom, literally falling out of the industry in the late '70s and into 1980. However, that optimism turned into very positive thinking, as year after year, the industry began experiencing "the best quarter" or the "best month" and, of course, "the best year".

There was no place to go but up, in the early years of the eighties, and as the record companies trimmed the fat and introduced new marketing, sales and promotion ideas, the upturn was obvious. Double, triple, quadruple platinum plus diamond certifications were quite common over the past year, and two of those diamond awards were for Cancon album releases: Bryan Adams' Reckless, although much of it did happen in the latter part of 1985, and Corey Hart's Boy In The Box.

Cancon perhaps, enjoyed its best year in 1986, with acts scoring multi-platinum and gold certifications. As the year came to a close, Cancon certifications for December were quite impressive, led by Capitol's Glass Tiger, with triple platinum (300,000 units sold) for their The Thin Red Line album, followed by a double platinum for Corey Hart's Fields Of Fire, plus a single platinum and gold for Hart for the same album; a double platinum for Raffi's More Singable Songs; platinum for Liona Boyd's A Guitar For Christmas and Patrick Norman's Quand on est en amour; and gold for Parachute Club's Small Victories, Alain Morisod's Sweet People, and Edith Butler's Et le party continue.

The year 1986 also saw a further falling off in popularity of the album configuration, with cassettes taking the lead, although it wouldn't be fair to count the LP out yet. There are still an estimated 15 million turntables in Canadian homes. However, with compact disc hardware now available for under $300, and a growing availability of CD product, it's expected that 1987 could see this configuration becoming priority, in spite of it being a high ticket item.

The consensus of opinion from the majors was that 1986 was the best year most have experienced in their history. Independents fared not too bad, but certainly didn't measure up to what had been expected. The Canadian independent recording industry is still in trouble from a distribution standpoint, and their difficulty in getting through to the broadcasters. In spite of these hardships, the outlook for 1987 is "bright" for the independents and even "brighter" for the majors.

We canvassed executives from both the majors and independent labels, and beginning this week, we will publish their reflections on the past year and hopes for the new year.

1987 will be a year for Cancon

Richard Lyttelton,
President, Chief Operating Officer,
Capitol Records-EMI Canada

The year 1986 for Capitol Records-EMI of Canada Limited, was Canadian repertoire. The paradox is that it is sometimes easier for an "outsider" to appreciate its true worth.

Capitol's task for 1987 is not only to further develop its Canadian artist roster, but to open the eyes and ears of the larger and more important international markets. Glass Tiger will be supporting the massive Tina Turner

European tour this spring and then on to a headline tour of Japan - showing that Capitol means business, and that the company is aggressively seeking the world stage which it believes Canadian talent merits.

1986 was one of our better years

Stan Kulin
WEA Canada Managing Director

1986 looks like it was a banner year for the Canadian music business. Certainly WEA Canada had one of its better years, and our sales were significantly higher than in the previous years. While we benefited from the excellent product provided by our U.S. labels, we also enjoyed a good year with our domestic acts, such as One To One, Idle Eyes, and Honeymoon Suite. Also, lost in the furor over Madonna, Genesis, Peter Gabriel, Paul Simon, et al, was the development of new acts such as Simply Red, a-ha, Mike and The Mechanics, Anita Baker, Dream Academy, The Cure, and many more that achieved gold, platinum, and double platinum status.

1987 should be even better for us, as we will finally be in a position to supply CD's to the Canadian consumer for the best catalogue in the business. Hopefully, the long overdue new copyright act will be enacted and will provide our artists, composers and record companies some protection from the ravages of home taping, piracy and rental.

My final wish would be to see the federal sales tax eliminated on records so that we are treated as any other cultural item.

Certifying for triple platinum status were Boston (Third Stage), Glass Tiger (The Thin Red Line), and Bon Jovi (Slippery When Wet). The latter also certified as double platinum.

Double platinum certifications were registered for Corey Hart (Fields Of Fire), Eurythmics (Sweet Dreams), Boston (Third Stage), Placido Domingo (Perhaps Love), Raffi (More Singable Songs), and Eurythmics (Revenge). Hart's Fields of Fire was also certified as platinum and gold, as was Boston's Third Stage.

Single platinum certifications were for Patrick Norman (Quand on est en amour), Bruce Hornsby And The Range (The Way It Is), Liona Boyd (A Guitar For Christmas), and Bangles (Different Light).

WHAT SAYS

End of the year news . . . !!

We received news of changes at Capitol Industries-EMI Inc. just after we published our last issue of the year, but the news was so important, I've made it priority here. Joe Smith and David Berman have moved from WEA to Capitol. Joe has been appointed Vice-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and David comes in as President of Capitol Industries-EMI Inc.

I told you so . . . !!

"Our Association represents the 'artist' and the 'broadcaster', so we are reluctant to take a stand in the matter." This quote came to me in the mail, and it should echo throughout the whole industry. It's a message that should be of concern to the members of the "Association", who haven't bothered to look around to see who they are in bed with. With the current country music crisis in Canada, I guess I could be smug and say "I told you so" and remind a number of people out there about a meeting in the Premiere Suite at the Inn On The Park in Toronto when I started ACME with the money collected from CACMA . . . September of '75 wasn't it? The warning then was loud and clear, and perhaps that's why the industry is in the state it is in today. Good luck!!

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

Last Monday morning, while dial turning, which has become a habit with Toronto radio, I punched in CFRB and I had to check the dial to see if it was really CFRB. The "holier-than-thou" sports expert, Bill Stephenson was in a nose-to-nose battle with Toronto Star sportswriter John Robertson and talk show host Andy Barrie. Stephenson took objection to Robertson's "bleeding heart" objections to the Canada/Soviet hockey brawl. Stephenson had to admit he hadn't even seen the game. I happen to agree with Stephenson . . . and I saw the game, but to throw a tantrum on-air was not in keeping with his "profession". I caught quite a few other stations, and, for the most part, they handled the situation quite well.

Now . . . I love New York!!

More about my trip to NYC over the Christmas break . . . I was impressed by the large number of police officers on foot, patrolling the Time Square and midtown area. Finally, New York got the message under Mayor Koch, and I can tell you that many of the tourists I talked to felt a lot better about New York.

Corey Hart and Joan Rivers . . . ??

When I heard that Corey Hart would be on the Joan Rivers show . . . and as his show-time got closer . . . I began getting nervous. How would she treat this genuine Canadian superstar . . . and how would he come off, if she got too personal about his sex life? After he performed Can't Help Falling In Love, he braced himself for Rivers . . . and he came off very well, in spite of his fidgeting, which he admitted to. Even Rivers backed off, when she saw she was talking to an artist with that "kid next door" demeanour. He has a nice way of referring to himself as Canadian, which made me feel very proud.

Talking Canadian, as we often!!

On my recent visit to New York City, I was interested in the progress that was being made on the huge skating rink in Central Park. The city's Mayor, Ed Koch, had approved millions of dollars, but American engineers apparently couldn't come up with a way to keep the large surface frozen. Donald Trump, one of the leaders in U.S. business, had been following the progress . . . or lack of, in the ice-making comedy of errors, suggested that Koch contact his neighbours to the north, and voila . . . Canadian ice-makers (CIMCO of Toronto) were brought in and the whole project was completed under budget and five weeks under schedule. So, as I took a swing around the rink, needless to say, I felt warm inside . . . even if it did cost me $4.50 (U.S.).

A first for RPM . . . !!

Over the years we have been able to display a colourful wall of gold, platinum, and diamond awards, but never have we had a gold single award. Just before Christmas, A&M's J.P. Guilbert and Randy Wells presented us with a gold single, suitably emblazoned with our logo and the message: "in appreciation of support for Chris deBurgh's Lady In Red achieving gold status in Canada. You made it happen." . . . Merci!!

An educated guess . . . !!

How about that Toronto music scribe, who dropped the word MIDEM into one of his columns as if he knew what it was. Someone should tell him it's not the film festival. (EC: Is that like tunnel vision??)

Speaking of awards . . . !!!

Capitol came up with a novel and unique way of showing their appreciation to RPM for assisting in the success of Glass Tiger's The Thin Red Line album. We were presented with a beautifully-engraved wood-grained plaque, displaying the album jacket artwork, with the inscription: "Presented to RPM to commemorate the multi-platinum Capitol album 'The Thin Red Line' - 1986 - The Year Of The Tiger." Very nice.

Just a reminder about MIDEM!

If you haven't booked your flight to MIDEM this year yet . . . it may be time to try and take advantage of the better fares for booking early. (EC: Unless you don't care, because you aren't paying for it anyway!!) As always, I can recommend Pilar Travel International because they look after a lot of people going to the television and film festivals in Cannes and they know the ropes. That phone number is 416-960-3800.

Now you need a visa for France

If you are going to MIDEM, just a reminder that you need a visa to go to France, and your travel agent can get you the details. It takes 24 hours at the Consulate in Toronto, or mail your information into the French Embassy in Ottawa. You require a passport type photo, and the cost is $13.00. You won't be allowed into France without it.

From CACMA to ACME to CCMA!

A little trivia (EC: Sad but true!) when CACMA was changed to ACME, one of the first names REJECTED by me was Canadian Country Music Association, because it was an attempt by Canadians to hang onto the coattails of Nashville and the Country Music Association. It would have also been a veiled attempt to pass the association off as being a branch of the Nashville CMA, which had indicated that it would not be pleased. The name ACME was chosen because it stood for the high point of perfection. (EC: The definition for misnomer is "a name or epithet wrongly applied," or "an error in naming a person, place or thing.") Maybe they made the right move in changing it!!

Music Directors give nod to Cancon's improvement

Wayne Webster, Music Director for Toronto's CHUM-FM reports that during the course of this past year, the quality of Cancon recordings has improved significantly, while the quantity also appears to have increased with much more independent material.

"Overall, the year was very good," said Webster. "I think it was the best year ever. The quality of Cancon is getting much better and the production is much improved."

He went on to point out that with the Junos this year, "more bands are getting recognized. We're getting a lot more independent material. There hasn't been a lot of acts signed - and some of these small independents are releasing product themselves."

In terms of meeting their Cancon quota, Webster believes that 1986 was the easiest year. "There were times when it was a case of playing product we didn't want to. There were times through the year when we added so much Cancon, we had to let up."

Henry Van Den Hoogen, Assistant Music Director for Toronto's CFTR, was also impressed with the improvement of Cancon material. "The songwriting has gotten better," he said. "Production is better, and it seems that more money is being spent on production and promotion. There was a genuine excitement about Glass Tiger. There's much more support behind homegrown talent."

Comparing Cancon product released in past years, Van Den Hoogen believes more time is being spent in the producing and packaging as well as getting a good overall sound.

"I think the attitude towards Cancon has improved," he continues. "Radio listeners are buying Corey Hart, just like they would a Robert Palmer."

Van Den Hoogen agrees there has been enough Cancon material to meet their 30 percent quota, but noted there were periods which he described as "dry from a radio standpoint," and suggested that Cancon releases be issued on an even basis throughout the year, which would overcome the slow periods.

He also believes the amount of Cancon releases during 1986 was up, compared to recent years.

"I think the number of releases are increasing again," he says. "I've also got a pile of independent material - and that's been improving as well."

Van Den Hoogen concludes with "There are a lot of new names out there - and more to play with, which wasn't the case a year or so ago, when we went through a period when there were just a couple of superstars."

L'Etranger's Cash sets solo course

Andrew Cash, guitarist, vocalist with L'Etranger for the past 5 years, has gone solo and debuts on the Fringe label with a 4-song EP entitled Sticks And Stones.

The Toronto-based Music Brokers, who are touting the Cash release describes the EP as Cash's "strongest to date," pointing out that "everycut is full of rough rhythms, wide-eyed lyrics, and some of the most unforgettable melodies."

Major coverage given plight of songwriters

As reported in the Dec. 27/86 issue of RPM, Canada's songwriters are mounting a media blitz to bring attention to the outdated copyright act that allows only "2 cents for each recorded use." It's the hope of several associations representing music publishers and songwriters, to have the outdated Section 19 of the Copyright Act abolished.

Mel Shaw, a spokesman for the Canadian Music Publishers Association (CMPA) has been successful in gaining excellent coverage of the association's goal in many of Canada's major dailies, including Toronto's Globe and Mail, The Hamilton Spectator, Regina's Leader Post, The Ottawa Citizen, Calgary Herald, and the Winnipeg Free Press, to name just a few.

"These past few weeks have been very encouraging," says Shaw. "We found that even some members of the Department of Communications (DOC) were not aware of the full ramifications of 2 cent royalty."

The Black Music Association Canada (BMAC) through its President Daniel Caudeiron has also lent support to the campaign to increase the mechanical royalty rate for composers and publishers. "At a time when Canadian Black Music is on the move," says Caudeiron, "as evidenced by the superior showing of R&B and soul performers at the 1986 Juno Awards, we feel it is even more important that this obstacle to the development of our creative spirit be removed." He continues with "Not only for the ultimate benefit of a new crop of composers and publishers but for the large body of Canadian talent that is already internationally renowned. To think that in 1986 the enlightened country that is Canada should have the lowest royalty rate in the world is a disgrace."

The powerful Toronto Musicians' Association (Local 149) has also come out in support of the copyright battle. Bobby Herriot, President of the Local, points out that "The days of artists (of any description) starving in garrets in order to pursue their goal in life, should have vanished long ago." He continues with "Unfortunately, our present copyright laws in their archaic form contribute directly to this picture being maintained."

Herriot stresses that the share of royalties for music publishers and writers, "has not kept pace with the advancing price of records and does not afford any encouragement to these artists."

He concludes with "It costs the same to feed, clothe and house an artist as it does a bureaucrat, and certainly their share of the pie has improved since 1922; not so the artist."

The best yet . . .

COVER STORY

The Cars' Ben Orr goes solo "just for fun"

In the time following The Cars' Heartbreak City tour and before they re-enter the studio to record their next album (this February), both Ric Ocasek and Benjamin Orr have written, recorded and released solo albums. Orr's is titled The Lace and although he says he "didn't have a clue" what it would sound like when finished, it would seem he wrote a hit - his first single - Stay The Night.

He also says it was his first attempt at writing, not having written any of The Cars' material, and he was very conscious not to "plagiarize" Ocasek's style. "It was just meant to be fun," replies Orr, when asked what he expects the album to achieve.

"It was just something else to do. When Elektra asked me to do it, I said 'Sure, I'd give it a try.' They didn't even know what I was going to be doing. I could have either done cover songs or have 9 songs that somebody else wrote but I chose to write them all and take my chances."

CRTC to streamline networking/syndication

The CRTC is currently looking into ways of streamlining its policies on supervising radio and television networking, radio syndication and related issues.

"Networked radio and television programming delivered by satellite offers a number of potential benefits for radio and television broadcasters by allowing them access to higher quality and more distinctive programming than could be managed within local station budgets," noted CRTC Chairman Andre Bureau. He continues with "It also provides local stations with a variety of programming which otherwise would not be available."

Bureau went on to point out that "At the same time, new technologies also present significant new challenges to the structure of broadcasting and to the Commission's current regulation of network and syndication activity, and to the development of new programming services."

Bureau stressed that the main purpose of the review will be "to provide a clearer, more cohesive and equitable regulatory approach and to ensure that Canadian broadcasting remains capable of producing varied popular programming of high quality."

The Commission is requesting comments on several issues, including the interpretation of what constitutes radio and television networks, the role of networks, licensing procedures, radio syndication, and new audio services.

Comments must be submitted by Feb. 20, 1987. A public hearing will be held in Hull, Quebec on Apr. 13, 1987.

After taking, what Orr describes as the label's "hook", he didn't actually begin recording for another year. "I had personal things I had to catch up on," he explains, "and I had to get into a studio that was user-friendly, with an engineer friend of mine. We put down the songs and about 90 percent of the working weight is on the master album now."

Orr admits the prospect of recording was frightening. "I got pretty scared for a while after I said 'yes', because I had never done anything like this before. It was a large chunk to bite off. That's why it probably took so long - just gaining a bit of self-confidence and really just knocking down," he continues.

"I probably worked harder on this than I've ever worked before in music. I wanted to make it right, so I took my time." And with the previous achievements of The Cars looming in the back of his mind, he states, "At the same time not coming off sounding like The Cars. That was a conscious thought. I didn't want any influence like that."

"So, I took that little extra time, consciously thinking: 'Well, I don't want this to sound like The Cars, so I'm going to work my way around that, so it doesn't.' Why not? 'Because The Cars are The Cars and a solo thing is supposed to be a solo thing.'"

Elaborating, he stresses that it "wasn't really difficult" not sounding like The Cars. "I didn't have a constant thought of The Cars on my mind. Whatever came out in the private times, when no one else was around to influence me, that's when I got my writing done. It was totally devoid of any Cars thought."

Although a member of The Cars since 1977, Orr remarks, "it's difficult even trying to simulate writing like Ric, so it wasn't too difficult. I just didn't want the music to sound too 'Carsy' as it were, and I didn't have any problems with that . . . after about a month it went away. I never thought about it again."

Orr also suggests the only person "licensed" to record a solo album sounding like The Cars is Ocasek and furthers even if he did, "everybody would've slammed it, saying 'the guy is just rippin' off something that's already been done by somebody else.' That wouldn't have been good for my head either. It's time to move on."

Cars' guitarist Elliot Easton was called in when Orr decided "some extra work" was needed on the guitar tracks. "I wasn't satisfied with some of the stuff we'd laid down. Mike Landau is a fine guitar player but he was there for 2 weeks and did all the songs in 2 weeks. Some things were left out that shouldn't have been or thought of after the fact and there was no calling him back, so I called in Elliot."

Orr concludes by mentioning he hasn't given much thought to another solo endeavor. "I don't know where it's going to take me. I just have to get in there and do it. I probably have a conscious thought that it probably won't be the same - there'll probably be some female-male relationship trips in there but exactly where it's going or how it's going to go . . . I haven't a clue."

WEA plans to stay hot this winter

JoAnn Kaeding - WEA Music

With another year behind us I'd like to take this opportunity to update everyone on a few of last year's releases which are carrying WEA strongly into 1987. It's been a great 1986 and we are looking forward to more of the same in the coming year.

Paul Simon's Graceland is a lot of people's pick for Album of the Year. Two singles and incredible media coverage have carried Paul Simon's Graceland LP is now triple platinum in Canada, much of it due his self-promotional activity. He recently dropped into Toronto for a press gathering and he is seen above with Linda MacLennan, host of Canada AM, and Stan Kulin, WEA Canada Managing Director.

Graceland to triple platinum and made it one of the hottest gift items for this past Christmas. Wilder Penfield from the Toronto Sun said "this album is getting to people who thought they stopped buying records." During a pre-Christmas promotional visit to Toronto, Simon dropped hints about an upcoming tour - mostly in Europe but hopefully at least Toronto will be included in a handful of North American dates.

The Country Division of Warner Bros. gave us 2 new biggies this past year. Storms Of Life by Randy Travis is well on its way to becoming WEA Canada's first ever platinum country album. He will be touring Canada in March and has a new album scheduled for April. Meanwhile, Dwight Yoakam's Guitars, Cadillacs, Etc. is also gold in Canada after 3 hit singles. Like Travis, Yoakam will tour Canada and release a new album in the spring.

Elektra proved once again that they could break acts with Simply Red, Anita Baker and most recently the Georgia Satellites. During a recent club date in Toronto the Satellites displayed serious party potential before a sold-out crowd. Vancouver and Edmonton will have a chance to see them in a larger setting in late January as they open for Bob Seger. AOR embraced the Georgia Satellites almost immediately making Keep Your Hands To Yourself the hit it deserved to be. The next single will be Battleship Chains.

Madonna - what more can be said about an artist who just gets bigger with every release. True Blue has surpassed 8 times platinum in Canada and we fully expect to go diamond with this one. No tour plans at the moment.

The Pretenders made a big comeback late in '86 with Get Close and the first single, Don't Get Me Wrong. The second single is My Baby, and there will be a full Canadian tour in March.

This year is starting out strong for Canadian releases as well. Brighton Rock are touring Eastern Canada with Triumph as the U.S. gets ready to release their album, Young Wild & Free (Jan. 19) The video for We Came To Rock is in medium rotation at Much and has just been added at MTV.

Montreal did incredibly well with the soundtrack to He Shoots He Scores. K.D. Lang's first Sire release, Angel With A Lariat, will be on the streets in late-February. Frozen Ghost, who were signed last year, are readying their first album for a February release.

All this and new releases from Los Lobos, Hank Williams, Jr., Black Sabbath, Sheila E, Simply Red, Lou Gramm, and the long rumoured Trio album from Linda Ronstadt, Dolly Parton & Emmylou Harris should help warm up the long cold winter. Thanks to all for your support in '86 and the best for the new year.

The above announcement was made by A. John Rourke, Vice President and General Manager of Westwood Wood One Canada. Timmins' appointment is effective immediately.

ALBUMS

BEASTIE BOYS - Rap
Licensed To Ill - Def Jam - FCT-40238-H
Produced by Rick Rubin and by the Beastie Boys, this band is already gaining prominence in the U.S. and should see spillover action in Canada, perhaps with a cult following only. It's The New Style has been taken as the first single. Also key are Slow Ride with impressive horns and a fine lead guitar insert by Kerry King on the Brooklyn track.

CLUB NOUVEAU - Pop
Life, Love & Pain - Warner Bros. - 92-55311-P
The popularity here will be with the dance clubs, but don't expect too much action from radio. Jealousy is already a hit at the clubs. Also key are Lean On Me, penned by Bill Withers, and Promises, Promises. All tracks arranged, produced and mixed by Jay King, Thomas McElroy and Denzil Foster.

PET SHOP BOYS - Pop
Disco - EMI America - SQ-17246-F
The Pet Shop Boys: vocalist Neil Tennant, and the synthesizer genius Chris Lowe, should make heavy inroads with this follow-up to Please, described as "an inventive concept album." This set, produced, for the most part by Tennant and Lowe, comprises primarily dance mixes of their first 4 singles, including new and 12" mixes of Opportunities and West End Girls. There are also 2 new songs that are key, In The Night, and A Man Could Get Arrested. As well, there is a 12" mix of Paninaro, voted the Club Record of The Year. Front racking will attract customer attention.

LILY BLACKWATER - Pop
Living On Planet Mars - Dream - DRP-011
In the 'what's new and exciting' department, Lily Blackwater is a standout - exceptional production (Stoneybrook Sound Studio), and a vocal delivery and material that fits both the CHR and A/C formats. Key are Slipped Away, It's Not Rock & Roll and a medley of Understanding Man and You Let Me Down. Produced by Len Sheldrake, who also wrote all the material, sings lead and doubles on 6 & 12 string acoustic and electric guitars and drums. The other members are Wolfe Wilhelm (6 string electric & acoustic, lead & rhythm, and backing vocals), Bryan Chambers (bass, 6 & 12 acoustic & rhythm, 6 string electric), Paul Rose (drums & percussion), and D.W.S. (drums, 6 string electric and backing vocals). All that's missing is a hefty promotional push to get this band into prominence. The Dream label is located in Smithville, Ontario. Cancon.

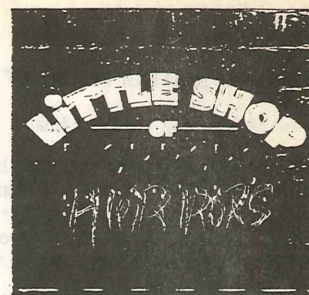

GENE TAYLOR - Boogie Piano
Handmade - Stony Plain - SPL-1101-N
Described as "a powerful blues and boogie piano player," Taylor, now living in Toronto, was a former member of The Blasters. This is what they call "roots music," which Taylor learned growing up in California when he played with some of the legends including Rick Nelson, Big Joe Turner and Hank Ballard. He was also a member of Canned Heat, and has played on album sessions for Dwight Yoakam, The Beat Farmers and Phil Alvin. Most of the tracking is instrumental with the odd vocal thrown in as a tease. Produced by Bill Bentley. Qualifies, for the most part as Cancon. Key are Jesus Is A Mighty Good Leader, Somebody's Footprints, and Hammerstein & Romberg's When I Grow To Old To Dream.

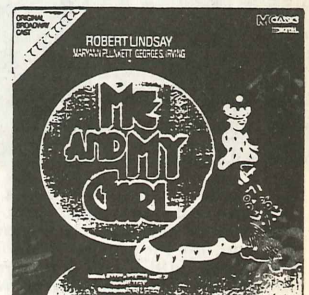

RON PALEY - Big Band
Big Band Jazz - Rocks & Swings
Foresight - RP-2
Armed with an $8,000 grant from Canada Council, this 19-piece big band from Winnipeg made their presence felt west to Vancouver and north to Williams Lake and Yellowknife on a tour that netted them a strong following. The direction is rather unique for a big band of the eighties: with an impressive mix of jazz and rock, particularly on the Da Ba Dat and A Hunk A'Funk tracks, both penned by Paley. Produced by Paley and engineered by Glen Axford at Century 21 Studios. Also key are Bye Bye Baby, a medley of Bye Bye Blackbird and Yes Sir That's My Baby, with vocalist Holly Cole, and Under The Auspices Of with soloist Brian Klowak on alto sax. Foresight is based in Winnipeg. Promotion is being handled by Direction Four Artist Management.

NICK HEYWARD - Pop
Postcards From Home - Arista - 407-205-N
This is Heyward's second solo LP for Arista. Contains 10 Heyward original songs, featuring him on lead vocals and guitars. Move It Up has been taken as the first single. Also key are Pray For A Miracle, and Goodbye Yesterday. Produced in the U.K. by Heyward's manager Graham Sacher.

ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE - Pop
SOUNDTRACK - Little Shop Of Horrors
Geffen - XGHS - 24125-P
Originally an off-Broadway smash, this musical is now a very successful motion picture. It will probably net a couple of Oscar nominations. Frank Oz is the genius behind bringing this musical to the screen, and it could be that it will become a cult classic. It might not sell because of the initial screenings, but will emerge to become a big seller. Radio should be taking cuts to program because of the popularity of the film to audiences of all ages, but it isn't rock and roll, so radio will probably miss out. A great album from a great motion picture.

ORIGINAL BROADWAY CAST - Pop
Me And My Girl - MCA - MCA-6196-J
Originally, this West End smash in London came to Broadway where it received rave reviews. Now, the show is the hottest ticket on Broadway, second only to Cats. The lavish production numbers and the scenery that changes in split seconds amidst the dazzling costumes, add to the music that all adds up to be a smash show and a great show album. Both the show and the album will remind viewers of the British music halls, and many of the songs go back to that era. Leaning On The Lamp Post was originally done by George Formby and for Cancon trivia buffs, by the Bradfords on Capitol in the mid-sixties.

PROCAN broadsides CAB

In response to the Canadian Association of Broadcasters' proposals on Canadian country FM stations (the reduction of Cancon) PROCAN has submitted a lengthy report that points out the horrendous harm such a move would do to the Canadian country music industry. There have also been several submissions by associations and individual country artists, managers and label owners. We'll have a detailed report on PROCAN's submission next week.

Brown, I Love You More, with The Faded Rose on the flip, has shown a pattern of acceptance not seen by the group in the past few years. Ernie Steeves, Music Director of CHAM Hamilton, was one of the first to recognize the potential of this album track and began airing the song over 2 months ago.

Phil Kallsen of CKRY-FM Calgary, writes, "Another great release from The Family Brown - keep them coming." Wayne Russell of CJWW Saskatoon, finds the single, "one of the best yet." Says Weird Harold of Vancouver's CKWX, "Great commercial sound of Barry's. Good positive lyrics and sound production."

Haggard single is Cancon

Someone dropped the ball with the release of Merle Haggard's latest single, Out Among The Stars. This song was written by Canadian Adam Mitchell and qualifies as 2-parts Cancon (ML). Adam, now living in Los Angeles, is still a Canadian. He wrote the song for Haggard a few years ago and published it through his PROCAN company, Ten Speed Music. Adam is very excited over the chart action the single is receiving, and now that it has the added Cancon qualities, watch the single explode.

Seen at a recent Opry North taping are Dieter Boehme, CFGM's Gary O'Brien, Larry Mattson and Eddie Eastman. Dieter is currently on release with his Flyin High single, Do It Now, which enjoyed recent chart action. Opry North is the longest-running syndicated country series in Canada.

THE SONG - "I'M HER ONLY FOOL," THE SINGER - DINO DUNSFORD.

Stompin Tom is back

In answer to the many enquiries as to the whereabouts of legendary Stompin Tom Connors, Boot Records has the answer, but it will cost you. The label has just released a new album entitled Stompin Tom Is Back to A-C-T, which is the first in a series of albums in which Tom will begin to Assist Canadian Talent. It's described as "a revolutionary way that the media, as well as the music industry, will no doubt have a field day, pro-conning the outcome." In view of the fact that over the last 10 years, there has been virtually no news of Stompin Tom, there are 2 articles included inside the new album jacket, "which contains much of the sought after information. But," says Tom, "If they want this information bad enough, let them help me to Assist Canadian Talent, by buying the album to get it."

More TV for Carroll Baker

With her latest Tembo single, Arms That Love (Hearts That Don't) making impressive gains on country charts, Carroll Baker will become even more visible over the next few weeks. She is scheduled to guest twice this month on the Tommy Hunter Show (Jan. 9 and Jan. 30). As well, she will also be a part of this year's Variety Telethon from Jan. 31 through Feb. 1.

OWNERS & MANAGERS

Let me be perfectly honest with you. I have been in broadcasting since 1950, all of that time as an announcer. I am looking for a medium market, midday position. I do not do a good audition. I have received a "Best Host Radio" award from ACTRA in Ottawa, and a recognition award from the French Radio and Television Artists in Montreal. What I seek is a contract arrangement with the owner of a station, a suitable salary arrangement and opportunity. In return, I offer my best and loyalty to the right person. References available from H.T. (Mac) McCurdy, CFRB Toronto and Gordon Atkinson, CFMO Ottawa. Interested? Call Terry McConnell 613-824-6508.
