The Junos - a galaxy of "real" stars

In the old tradition of showbusiness, and in spite of strike threats and last minute construction work, the Junos went to air on time and with very few problems. The plus factors far outnumbered the minuses - a welcome change from past shows.

On the upside, the opening was one of the best - with emcee Howie Mandel flying stage-front, hanging from a wire, ala Superman, without the grace nor glide - but nevertheless - a memorable opener.

With perhaps a couple of exceptions, the presenters and winners displayed a respect for the industry, a much-maligned industry, that made all this possible. The performances added to the new-found professionalism of the evening, and even Flora McDonald showed hints of enjoying herself.

On the downside - the corporate sponsorship bow was TV time, not well spent. It's nice to have brewery money supporting segments of the industry, but the Junos were designed to foster and promote a star system, and this is the only night of the year when that system can be paraded before a national audience.

The only rumour that was racing through the house was that Bob Dylan would be presenting the Hall of Fame Award to Gordon Lightfoot. What a pleasant surprise when Anne Murray, the "best kept" secret of the evening, walked on stage to accept her Juno as Country Female Vocalist of The Year. Interestingly enough, the decision for her surprise appearance was made by herself and manager Leonard Rambeau on Aug. 25 of this year, while they were in Chicago. So well-guarded was her entrance that not even the CBC crew were aware of what was going on. Rambeau whisked her up the freight elevator, through a bustling kitchen and into a hastily-constructed dressing room, from where she made her entrance. There were quite a few eyes glistening in the surprised crowd who stood to pay tribute to this internationally-acclaimed Canadian star.

It had apparently been originally suggested that Bob Dylan introduce Murray, who, in turn, would present the Hall of Fame Award to Lightfoot. For obvious reasons, which turned out to be a good move, Rambeau said "no", and the camera caught only what could have been a major gaffe of the evening.

Also bringing the audience to their feet was the introduction by David Foster of Man In Motion Rick Hansen. The wheelchair champ presented the Best Group Award to Honeymoon Suite.

Checking in via satellite from Amsterdam was Corey Hart, who wanted to be a part of this year's Junos. The beaming faces of Messrs Brown, Flood and Tarlton, who were sitting in the Juno audience, reflected the concentration of the house as he presented an emotionally-charge version of Can't Help Falling In Love. This will be his next single for Aquarius.

The Capitol people can certainly be proud of their showing this year - and most deservedly, awards went to Glass Tiger, Luba, and Anne Murray.

The Man In Motion, Rick Hansen, was an honoured guest at this year's Junos, where he was introduced by David Foster, and presented this year's Best Group Juno to Honeymoon Suite.

The CBS crew were wearing Billy Newton-Davis look-alike grins as this dynamic young performer picked up a Juno as Most Promising Male Vocalist - and an added plus, Best R&B/Soul Award for his single, Love Is A Contact Sport.

The win as Group of The Year by Honeymoon Suite was the result of a hectic tour schedule - and just being accommodating over the past couple of years. Of course, the talent was there to be accommodating with, and on top of that they really are a bunch of "nice guys". They came away empty-handed last year, but scored the big one this year.

Another "nice" guy in the business, who finally received solo recognition was Jim Vallance, whose name is usually connected to one or two other writers. Composer of The Year, a well-earned and "about time" honour for this West Coast legend.

Bryan Adams was not only there again this year, but he took home the Male Vocalist Award once more. By his very presence and his obvious regard for the industry, he added an air of importance to the awards evening.

From a technical standpoint, the CBC worked exceptionally well, in the rather cramped setting they had, so there was really little room for criticism. The mobile camera people were almost exciting as the polished performers, as they dodged in and out and remarkably, never got in the way, or on camera. The close-up shots they took were extraordinarily well executed. As an aside to the technical end of the show, better lighting would have allowed the audience to be more of an important part of the proceedings. GB

you!

WALT SAYS

Can't make up their minds . . . ??

Here's a strange musical chair story. It seems that after being given a high-profile appointment, with all the media hoopla that went along with it . . . the new appointee, who will remain nameless for now . . . is out!!

Wrong . . . Dunford . . .!!

Check your source . . . the public has a right to know . . . or is it all the news that fits? The truth is that it wasn't anyone from a record company who gave those tapes to a "tuxedo shop", it was a grateful client who wanted to show his appreciation for a good fit, and the event was a banquet on Sept. 24th. Change 100 to FIVE! (EC: But just who was this non-record company person?) Never mind!

Out of beer . . . ??

When the rest of us run out of beer in the middle of the night . . . do we go to a warehouse and pick up a few hundred more cases? (EC: I'd like to know in what studio this big beer bash was held!!)

The cultured Donald K.D.

After his great success with Tango Argentino, Canada's classy promoter (EC: He's BIG!!) Donald K. Donald has backed yet another show on Broadway. Flamenco Puro may also gross $19 million dollars. (EC: And that's not rock and roll!!)

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

A time for celebration . . . ??

After Juno parties have been getting more expensive and more out of hand . . . to the point where they have become a waste of time, not to mention money. The Juno celebrations got underway with a 4:30 cocktail reception, where a few people got zonked. The pre-television ceremonies went on at 6:30 and the show went to air at 7 pm. After the Juno presentations, we all shuffled into the various dining areas, where we had the opportunity to scream at one another over the "serious three" on stage . . . and to continue imbibing and socializing. Dinner was over, close to midnight . . . and then the partying began. I'm told some of the hospitality rooms offered more food and lots more booze. It's only natural that after almost 8 hours of Juno'ing, the system begins to break down, and even the heartiest drinker can become argumentative . . . and what's worse, a menace on the road. It's difficult for some not to turn that social drink into an all-nite binge. I guess I'm lucky, I got home shortly after 1:30 and was at the office at 7 am.

A powerful message from MCA!!

MCA Home Video has just released a video titled Shattered - If Your Kid's On Drugs, a powerful statement on drugs . . . and the victims. Burt Reynolds, Judd Nelson, Earl Holliman and Canadian, Megan Follows (Anne of Green Gables) take starring roles. This should be must in-store showing at every video, record store, and school across the country. MCA is donating one dollar for every unit to Canadian Drug Rehabilitation Centres and are asking both their distributors and video retailers to either match this donation or develop their own program. MCA's Janet Billett tells me the reaction to the video has been very positive, and she knows that if enough parents and teenagers see the video and recognize the issue, it will better assist them with their problem. Give Jane or Mike McKelvie a call at 416-491-300 if you have any questions.

Exclusive cooperate sponsor . . . !!

Usually when they get up before a crowd, they take a bottle with them . . . and fondle it while they talk . . . but this time it was a black tuxedo shirt and silver bowtie and, on television, it looked like it had flashing bulbs.

A VIP marriage on the rocks . . . ??

We will be hearing about a very important music personality, who is into a divorce action . . . his second. Gaining fame in this business has its complications . . . and its compensation for the wife . . . and in this case, it could be millions.

Maitre d' yet . . . !!

While I was looking for my table at the Juno dinner, I was stopped by 3 people who were having trouble with getting seated. They were told that I was the Maitre d' and I could help them out. (EC: So, it was you who screwed up the seating for an otherwise delightful dinner. I had to sit facing the Vancouver grizzly!!) Anyway it was nice to meet Prairie Oyster in this informal way.

Is the Emperor having trouble??

All's not well in lotus land. The empire is beginning to lean a little and the great white Knight (EC: I saw a lot of grey!!) is showing chinks in his armour. Could he have possibly offended the wrong person?

Here's another "how cum"

Howcum . . . it took 10 years to get Anne Murray to attend the Junos . . . and not one photograph was taken of her? It may take another 10 years to get her back.

David Lee Roth had a message!!

That Toronto date by David Lee Roth was one of the best seen at the Gardens this year, thanks to good seats from WEA. Too bad Roth has become so bitter about Van Halen, retail and radio. He had an definite message to radio, which was obvious as he humped an oversized mike. Great show. Tell me . . . how cum . . . when a group of gabby media people are given the opportunity to ask questions of a recording personality . . . they don't know how?? (EC: Maybe they have to type out their questions!!). When Roth was introduced to the media, I'm told there was an embarrassing silence that lasted too long. Roth however, being the showman he is, picked it up and rattled off a 10-min regurgitation of everything known and not known about him.

Junos are exhausting . . . !

The last week, if not last year, (EC: Go for the whole 23 years, Walt) have been so exhausting that I've decided to take a well-earned holiday. (EC: He makes it sound like he's going to his lake-side home in Whitby! Tell 'em where this resting will occur!) Never mind! (EC: Monte Carlo again!) Not this time! (EC: Probably a transoceanic cruise) Bon Voyage!

WHO IS STEVE EARLE ANYWAY?

THE 'BOSS' KNOWS.

“Solid debut album. Strong appeal for rock 'n' roll fans, too. (P.S. – Bruce, yes that Bruce, was in our L.A. store to buy Guitar Town.)”

– Mgr., Music Plus, Los Angeles

– U.S.A. Today

“Earle's music may be most appealing to the rock crowd that appreciates the roots-conscious, blue-collar focus of such contemporary figures as Fogerty, Springsteen, Petty, Henley and Mellencamp.”

– L.A. Times

RECORDS TO RADIO

A full roster of releases takes CBS into 1987

Valerie Lapp - CBS Records Canada

No doubt about it, the release that's got everyone waiting outside the record stores this fall is the Springsteen Live box set. It's worth the wait, and it's worth the price. Re-creating the excitement of a 3-hr. Springsteen concert is no easy task, but vinyl, tape and metal have gotten as close as they can. The results are phenomenal. But Springsteen won't be the only artist to find his way to the stores and on to the radio this fall. British rocker Paul Young is back with Between Two Fires, a strong album of nearly all original material - and Some People has already shuffled its way on to playlists across the country. Don't let the Strangers name fool you - their new Dreamtime LP is a hypnotic collection of hits and Always The Sun has already created a lot of mainstream radio interest.

A new song of the heart from Don Johnson, Heartache Away, featuring Ron Wood and Stevie Ray Vaughan, hits radio this week - and promises to push Heartbeat further to the double platinum mark.

Valerie Lapp

November seems to be "heart" month, as Cyndi Lauper gets the Bangles to help her tell us about her Change Of Heart. This release hit radio last week, and will solidify the platinum and a half status of True Colors. And on the subject of new singles from hit albums, watch for This Is The Time from Billy Joel's The Bridge - one of the piano man's best ballads to date - which shipped to radio last week.

Overwhelming response to Survivor's Is This Love, and Toto's I'll Be Over You, ensure these 2 bands a solid place at radio with their recent albums - and 'til Tuesday comes back with a solid second album, Welcome Home, from which What About Love is gaining solid ground at radio.

Billy Ocean tells us more about love from the Love Zone with Love Is Forever, with the magic touch that programmers love, and Eddie Money's Can't Hold Back is beginning now to see the retail reaction that Take Me Home Tonight promised from the moment it hit the airwaves.

Watch for new dance albums from Dead Or Alive and, unexpectedly, from The The, whose Infected single will certainly become a dance floor staple.

The new year starts almost as auspiciously as this year is ending with new albums from Michael Jackson and Psychadelic Furs.

Stay tuned.

Cockburn goes solo for series of benefit dates

Bruce Cockburn performed a series of benefit concerts in California between Nov. 10 and 14 in aid of The Chile/Santa Cruz Friendship Committee and The Coalition for Nicaragua. These shows will mark the first time Cockburn has played solo since the release of Dancing In The Dragons Jaws in 1978.

Two of the concerts (10 & 11) were held at the 2,000 seat Santa Cruz Civic Centre, where Cockburn was joined by Isabel and Angel Parra, the number one duo from Chile. Bernie Finkelstein, Cockburn's manager, reports "These concerts came about as a direct result of the significant airplay received by Bruce's song, Santiago Dawn, from the World Of Wonders album in the Santa Cruz/San Francisco/Bay Area." This True North album became a Top 10 item (No. 8) on the RPM 100 on Mar. 8/86, and went on to enjoy 20 weeks of chart action.

Cockburn also played the 2,000 seat Arlington Theatre in Santa Barbara (14), where he was joined by Joan Baez. This concert was to aid the National Sanctuary Defense Fund. "Bruce's single, People See Through You, was inspired by the Sanctuary Movement," Finkelstein explains, "and while Bruce was on tour in the United States during the summer of '86, he had the opportunity to meet with Gus Schultz, who started the Sanctuary Movement."

The New single Strangers in Love from the forthcoming album on Parallel One Records.

COVER STORY

Samantha Fox - the U.K's answer to Madonna . . . ??

English pin-up girl, turned singer, Samantha Fox coyly admits that "I'm not going to change my image or anything like that," when asked whether North American marketing strategies would differ from those in Europe, which have caused sales of her first single to soar above the million mark. "Because they've worked well for me so far - and I don't think it's going to be too much different for me here than it was in Europe. It's just that it's bigger here - that's the difference."

Prior to signing to the Jive label and releasing her self-titled debut, Fox was one of Britain's most sought-after models, a profession she left while her career was at its pinnacle.

She suggests however, that the decision to enter the music industry was not a spontaneous one. "My family always knew, deep down, I was a frustrated pop star," she explains. "Whenever we had a family party, it would always be me who would have to get up and have a sing-song."

Leaving modelling behind, where she was admittedly "bored", Fox explains why her father now manages her. "You have to realize when you have managers, they really don't love you. All they want is to earn plenty of money out of you."

"Most of the entertainment world is like that," she continues. "Everybody's up to something, and up to grab off that person, who happens to be the famous person. Everybody wants to cling to you - and everybody wants to know you, but they really don't. That's the thing you've got to put up with."

The Fox album was recorded at London's Battery Studios by a variety of producers, with an array of styles: Jon Astrop, Pete Q Harris, John David, Steve Power, Simultaneous release for The The in Canada/U.K.

Having already organized "viewing parties" in Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver for The The's 8-video compilation, CBS are ready to capitalize on the strong street level "buzz" evident in those markets. So much so, the company has already serviced the dance clubs with the first single and their release of the album will precede the U.S. release dates by nearly 2 months.

The Canadian release is concurrent with the U.K. "and their initial shipments doubled those of the first CBS record for The The," informs Epic label manager Bill Nealy. "We will double our sales of that last album," he continues, "which is still a strong catalogue item."

The band's large following in Canada prompted CBS to run with the U.K., but this is combined with the quality of the new record. "Matt (Johnson) has written infectious tunes that are very hooky," continues Nealy, "his songwriting has matured and his singing is better," concluding with "Matt touches on thought provoking, topical and sensitive subject matter that all hit home on the record."

Steve Lovell, and Phil Nicholas. "I used to be the record-buying public," she comments. "I used to go out on Saturday with my pocket money and buy an album, but most of the time the tracks would all sound the same, especially if they used the same producer."

Avoiding the pigeonhole stigma, especially Madonna, and offering the public "good value for money" was the rationale for employing the various producers. "I don't want this album to pigeonhole me in any music category. I don't want anybody to say 'Oh, she's a pop star,' or 'she's a rock star,' because I think most of the tracks are very different."

She continues with "I've tried to sing each song with a different vibe in my voice. Therefore, I don't think people can get too bored with it. Like certain groups are a thing of the moment and then 6 months later their music is old fashioned - so I try to record different music and try to appeal to different audiences basically."

Touch Me, the album's first single, was released last March in Europe and launched Fox to the top of the charts, but she admits that because of that success, a support tour has been impossible to coordinate. "Plus," she adds, "it's too early yet. People are not too familiar enough with my music. I've got to, at least, make another album before I decide to go out."

CFNY FM files action against dance promoter

Toronto radio station CFNY FM has filed an action against Scarborough, Ontario dance promoter Anthony Duncan. The action, filed in the Supreme Court of Ontario, alleges that Duncan "has been the organizer of community profit making dances, claiming to have CFNY involvement since April of 1986."

The station's General Manager, Bill Hutton, reports "We first learned of this ongoing hoax when the phones at the station started ringing with complaints." He continues with "People were complaining that the dances lacked organization and that no one from CFNY showed up. They wanted their money back, and we didn't have any idea of what they were talking about."

The dances were reportedly held on Apr. 18, Aug. 8, and Sept. 12 at the Thornhill Community Centre. All were promoted well in advance by posters and print advertisements that claimed CFNY personalities would be in attendance. A similar event was staged on Friday, Oct. 3rd. at the Markham Old Arena.

CFNY has also obtained a legal injunction against Duncan to stop any further promotions using CFNY as a vehicle. Darren Wasyluk, Promotions Director of CFNY explains "Apparently this practice has continued by both Duncan and 2 other small Toronto area community dance promoters."

Wasyluk also urges the public "to phone CFNY FM at 453-7452 to verify any upcoming CFNY community dance that may be advertised in their area."

The concept of a small club tour isn't considered either. "I've sold 1.4 million records," Fox boasts, "so . . . what I don't want is to do a gig and have a disaster. I want to rehearse for at least 3 months - so that when I do it - it'll be like Madonna's 'Virgin' tour."

As well, Fox emphasizes, she doesn't want "to do some little nightclub on some little backstreet, which only gets a little review in a little paper. We want to do a major tour. Madonna didn't perform live for 7 years because she waited until she'd built up a rapport and an audience and a following. And when she went out," Fox concludes, "it was amazing . . . and that's what I want to do."

CBS goldware to Miami Sound Machine's Emilio Estefan Jr. Gloria Estefan, Juan Marcos Avila and Enrique E. Garcia for Primitive Love and Conga and Bad Boy. The smiler on the left is Bill Bannon, Director, Artist Relations, CBS Music Products.

Corey Hart remains No. 1 on MuchMusic Top 30

Corey Hart holds onto the No. 1 position on the MuchMusic Top 30 (Nov. 14) with his video of I Am By Your Side. He is followed closely by Human League's Human (No. 2), Billy Idol's To Be A Lover (No. 3) and Bon Jovi's You Give Love A Bad Name (No. 4).

Significant moves were made by The Pretenders' Don't Get Me Wrong, up to 13 from 18, Parachute Club's Love Is Fire, from 20 to 17, and Daryl Hall's Foolish Pride, which moves to 23 from 27.

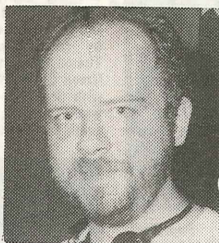

New to the chart this week are Madonna's Open Your Heart (No. 26), and Kiss You (When It's Dangerous) by Eight Seconds (No. 30).

Springsteen's box set sets pace for retailers

With only a month to go before Christmas, the Bruce Springsteen box set has created what has been described as "mild hysteria" at the retail level. A check at several retailers across the country reveals similar stories of "record breaking" days and "lineups" before opening as frantic Springsteen fans clamour for their album, cassette or CD box set. "It's pretty wild," says Stewart Duncan, Manager of Sam's Yonge Street store in Toronto, "and one of the interesting patterns of buying that I've noticed is that album sales far exceed sales of cassettes and CDs combined." Stewart continues, "in a 5-hr. time frame, beginning with opening on Monday morning (Nov. 10), we sold over 200 of the Springsteen sets. We couldn't open the boxes fast enough. Outside of the Rolling Stones, who sold a phenomenal number of their last album, a 1-record set, Springsteen holds the record, in our store, for the number of pieces sold in a short time frame . . . and he did it with a 5-record set."

Kim Zayac, Director for Promotion, CBS Records Canada, reports "exceptional" interest from radio, press and retailers, in the Springsteen release. "From the amount of exposure we're getting already, we're expecting very big things, if the airplay gets translated through to retail, which I see no reason why it shouldn't. Everybody seems to love this guy, and this has obviously been an eagerly anticipated package by fans of the man's studio work and fans of his live show." Zayac also points up that "The bootleg market for Bruce Springsteen records has, I think, been fairly lucrative for those people who deal in such things. Can you imagine, people spending between $30 and $45 for a very poor quality bootleg record. Now, I'm sure they are going to definitely want to spend the same amount of money for a high quality, digitally mastered set of 40 tunes from Springsteen."

Zayac was asked if he was initially apprehensive about the price of the Springsteen set. "Not at all," he countered. "I think CBS learned a lesson in marketing when we put out the Bob Dylan biograph set - and the price was a bit of a consideration. But the demand for that particular set, certainly went beyond our expectations. It didn't seem that price was a real big point to the consumer. I think Bruce Springsteen transcends the price-ary attitude even more so."

The box is the common packaging element throughout in all configurations. The cassettes, compact discs and albums all come in the same style box with different coloured typesetting: white for the albums, red for CDs, and blue for cassettes. The box, of course, accommodates the 12x12 36-page booklet, which is almost a tour program. Besides the lyrics to all 40 songs included in the set, there are a hundred or more black and white and colour photos. "This will definitely be THE musical Christmas gift for 1986," concludes Zayac.

Whitney Houston tops October certifications

Connie Tari of the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA) reports there were 28 certifications for the month of October, with Whitney Houston's self-titled RCA/Ariola album topping the list with 8-times platinum.

Billy Idol's Rebel Yell scored 5-times platinum, and his latest MCA album, Whiplash Smile is already moving into the multi-platinum area, registering 190,000 sales after only 4 weeks of release.

Triple platinum certifications were registered for Van Halen (5150), they also certified for double platinum, single platinum and gold, Lionel Richie (Dancing On The Ceiling), also scored double and single platinum and gold, and the Top Gun Sound-track.

Besides the platinum albums mentioned above, there were certifications for Alabama (Greatest Hits), Chris deBurgh (Into The Light), who also certified for gold, and Bananarama (True Confessions).

Also gaining gold albums were Patrick Norman (Quand on est en amour), Backstage at Toronto's Diamond Club for MuchMusic's Big Ticket live concert taping (l to r) Johnnie Lovesin (r) and MuchMusic's Janie Groom and John Martin. Airing date has been set for Sat. Nov. 22.

Peter Cetera receives gold for solo album, Solitude/Solitaire, while in Toronto, from WEA's Bill Johnston, Stan Kulin and Garry Newman. His single, The Glory Of Love is also gold in Canada.

Run/DMC (Raising Hell), The Art Of Noise (In Invisible Silence), Triumph (The Sport Of Kings), Daryl Hall (Three Hearts In The Happy Ending Machine), and a Tribute To Christmas by various artists.

Bananarama's Venus single gained a platinum certification.

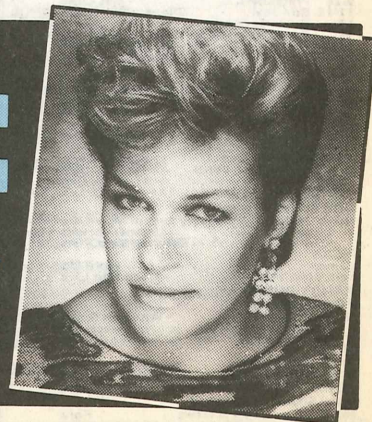

Gold single certifications were for Nuance (Vivre dans la nuit), Run/DMC (Walk This Way), John Parr (St. Elmo's Fire - Man In Motion), Doctor And The Medics (Spirit In The Sky), Nu Shooz (I Can't Wait), and Berlin (Take My Breath Away).

Compared to last year, CRIA's Tari points out that with only 16 certifications last October, "We've doubled the certifications for this year. Last year, for instance there were no gold album certifications, and this year there are 9 - and of course the 8-times platinum certification for Whitney Houston was a big plus factor."

Tari continues with, "certifications have been slow over the past couple of months, but they came around in October and I believe November will also be picking up."

ALBUMS

CONSPIRACY OF HOPE

Various - Mercury - 830-6171-Q
Contains material from Peter Gabriel (Biko), Elton John (Passengers), Tears For Fears (I Believe), Howard Jones (No One Is To Blame), Sting (Strange Fruit), Dire Straits (Brothers In Arms), J.C. Mellenkamp (Pink Houses), Simple Minds (Ghost Dancing), and Bryan Adams (Tonight). With tracks like these, how can it not sell? Music hath no boundaries and hopefully, these artists will add to the strength of Amnesty International and its 25 year struggle against injustice, and still the struggle continues.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

Live 1975-1985 - Columbia - C5X-40558-H
The stir created by this 5-record box set has already caused initial orders to dry up within days and the reason is obvious: The Boss is the boss, and his fans are prepared to pay for the consistent quality he delivers. Although there was some concern as to the track selection, considering his vast catalogue, there's no doubt, the 40 tracks are what his fans want to hear. Nothing but the best. Sure, he missed a few, but who cares? Produced by Springsteen, Jon Landau and Chuck Plotkin. Mixed by Bob Clearmountain and mastered by Bob Ludwig.

JENNIFER WARNES

Famous Blue Raincoat
Cypress - LAT-1227-W
By combining an intelligent lyric - courtesy of Leonard Cohen - with the mature and sensitive vocal of Warnes, Attic - courtesy of Cypress Records - has a strong retail contender for this holiday season. First We Take Manhattan will be the first single. Joan Of Arc features a guest vocal by Cohen. Also key is Coming Back To You, which features David Lindley on lap steel guitar. Warnes and Roscoe Beck take producer credits. The latter doubles on bass and guitar.

THE COLOUR OF MONEY

Soundtrack - MCA - MCA-6189-J

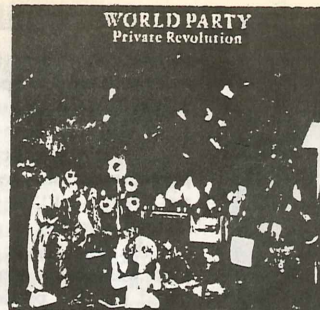

This release should prove to be hot at retail for some time. Contains 2 splendid tracks by Don Henley (Who Owns This Place), and Eric Clapton (It's In The Way You Use It). Both are expected as singles. Also included are a couple of Robert Palmer and Robbie Robertson tunes, as well as tracks by Willie Dixon, B.B. King and Warren Zevon. Joni Mitchell provides background vocals on Henley's track.

KRAFTWERK

Electric Cafe - Warner Bros - 92-55251-P

Six tracks, all fairly lengthy, and all sounding, not surprisingly, just like Kraftwerk. Double gatefold package, which makes it very impressive at retail. This is the band's first release in nearly 5 years. A lot of eager fans waiting.

- Pop

WORLD PARTY

Private Revolution - Chrysalis - CHS-41552-J

Ex-Waterboy Karl Wallinger's debut produced by himself, is shaping up to be a left field hit for the label. AOR interest in Ship Of Fools will spur brisk initial sales in major markets. Bob Dylan's All I Really Want To Do should spark interest at CHR. Instrumentally interesting with some pretty esoteric lyrics, but a good find. catchy stuff.

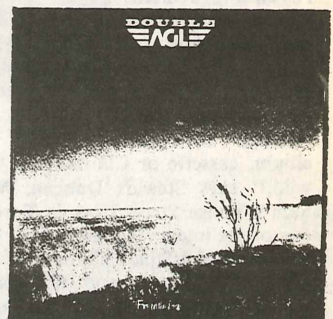

HAGOOD HARDY

Self-Titled - Duke Street - DSR-31030-J

Hagood comes through with another excellent package of entertainment - this one with a unique twist. The Stay For Awhile track, produced by Jack Richardson, this year's winner of the Walt Grealis Special Achievement Award, has the added instrumental work by Kim Mitchell, Tom Szczesniak and Kevan McKenzie and the background vocals of Ian Thomas, Tracy Richardson, Crissie Faith, and Elane Caswell. All the other tracks were co-produced by Hagood and Andrew Hermant. Anne's Theme (from the TV production of Anne Of Green Gables) has been taken as the first single with Stay For Awhile on the flip, both key tracks. Also key is the coupling of The Homecoming and Jennifer's Song. Big lush session.

DOUBLE EAGLE BAND

Fire On The Prairie

Book Shop - BSRC-33729-N

An underrated country powerhouse out of Winnipeg, Double Eagle are breaking once again with another single from this Declan O'Doherty production. This time it's Glory Train, the follow-up to their chart success of Homegrown. Heavy promotion by Direction Four, their management firm, plus the added push they receive from the Book Shop label, should bring them into chart prominence again. Also key are You're On Your Own and Aimie. Watch for tour plus aggressive TV marketing plan. Cancon.

CRTC releases overview on Cancon country music

The CRTC has released its report titled The Country Music Industry In Canada, described as "an in-depth examination of the history and current status of the industry." The Commission has also invited public comment on a set of proposals submitted by country music broadcasters, which they claim are designed "to stimulate growth in this sector of Canada's music industry and to review Canadian content requirements for country music."

CRTC Chairman Andre Bureau, speaking at the annual convention of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters (CAB), told his audience that "The CRTC is pleased to examine with broadcasters any new initiatives they put forth which will improve and increase the production of Canadian music, make available more and better Canadian programming and assist our artists and musicians."

He continued with "We will review these proposals and take into consideration the reaction of all interested parties before making a final decision on appropriate Canadian content levels."

The CAB has recommended that the Canadian content requirement for country music stations be reduced from 30 percent to 15 percent or 20 percent. It was the view of the CAB that there "are not a sufficient number of quality contemporary Canadian country music recordings being produced, to permit FM stations in this format to meet the 30 percent level."

A proposal by 16 of the 22 FM country music stations in Canada, suggested four activities which they claim are "designed to stimulate growth in this sector of the music industry." They are 1) share the cost of hiring an independent syndicator to produce a monthly, satellite transmitted, one-hour program of 100 percent Canadian country music; 2) each station would broadcast 30-second commercials promoting new Canadian country albums during the first 3 weeks of their release; 3) as well as broadcast ten 30-second commercials for touring Canadian artists playing club dates in their cities and at least one in-studio interview; and 4) contribute 0.25 percent of their gross revenues to FACTOR/CTL or to an FM country music cooperative.

It should be pointed out that in 1984 the Commission adopted the recommendations of the Consultative Committee on Music and Radio, which recommended that Canadian content guidelines including those for country music stations "should neither be increased nor decreased." This committee was composed of representatives from the broadcasting and recording industries.

It has long been argued by broadcasters that there is not enough "sufficient" country music production to meet the 30 percent requirement. One country music observer noted, "It would appear the problem lies in the interpretation of 'sufficient'. There is certainly an abundance of country music productions - eclipsing both rock and pop music forms. The quality, in the majority of releases, compares to any coming out of the U.S. Perhaps the real problem is the Cancon tag, which irks some broadcasters who fashion their stations after those in the U.S. To them, Cancon is an interruption... or an interference to their programming format."

Those wishing to submit their views on the CAB's proposals and recommendations should do so in writing and mail to the CRTC, Ottawa, Ontario. K1A 0N2. Comments must be received by the CRTC by Dec. 5, 1986.

Country music on the spot

Those involved in country music, along with their friends should take a look at the proposals and recommendations submitted to the CRTC with regard to country music in Canada (see separate story). Your comments, which will be acknowledged by the CRTC, should be sent to the CRTC, Ottawa, Ont. K1A 0N2... and it's important enough to address these comments to Commission Chairman Andre Bureau.

Double Eagle Band on the move

Kerry Renaud from Winnipeg's Direction Four Artist Management, is currently promoting the Double Eagle Band's latest Book Shop single, Glory Train. The second single taken from the band's album, Fire On The Prairie, produced by Declan O'Doherty. This is the follow-up to Homegrown, which enjoyed national chart action earlier this year. Glory Train was written by Mike Kuzyk. Direction Four will shortly launch a TV marketing campaign in Manitoba and parts of Saskatchewan. These will be 60-second spots, using 3 tracks from the album, You're On Your Own, Homegrown, and Glory Train.

Christmas singles from WEA

WEA has released a couple of interesting Christmas singles by Randy Travis and Crystal Gayle, both of whom are on the charts with current singles. The Gayle holiday release is titled Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas, with Silver Bells on the flip. Both these tracks are included on her A Crystal Christmas album. She is currently on the charts with Cry. Travis, who enters the national chart this week with No Place Like Home, gets into the holiday spirit with his single, White Christmas Makes Me Blue. The flip is the Willie Nelson penning of Pretty Paper. These tracks are not included on an album.

Leahy Family close to major deal

Brian Edwards will shortly announce news of a major signing for The Leahy Family. This band from Peterborough have been criss-crossing both Canada and the U.S. playing industrial and public dates. They caught the attention of country programmers with their single, You've Got The Fiddle (And I've Got The Bow), a single from their On The Move album.

Fireweed single for Linda Jean

New from the Fireweed label is a single from Linda Jean titled Where Has All The Time Gone with We Are Lovers on the flip. Both sides were written by Linda Jean and her husband Barry Stevens (Stevens & Daniel). The single was produced by J.F. Kelly and arranged by music veteran Art Snider at Studio 306. Linda Jean, a native of Ingersoll, Ont. is a school teacher with 3 degrees, including a Master of Education.

Haggertys & Howletts make change

M. Sean Eyre of Peterborough's Conpromed Productions, has news that he and Jim and Diane Haggerty are putting the finishing touches to a management-booking agreement. Says Sean, "Jim and Diane are dedicated country music entertainers and, with their established relationship with E&C Productions (John Collins) Belleville and the Big Country Award winning recognition of their mutual efforts, it's going to make for an exciting relationship." Sean is also re-introducing the Howlett Bros Band, who are off with their Academy single, That's All That Daddy Ever Had, a Robert Howlett original. Bob produced with the band's steelman and lead vocalist Al Kirby. He also plays keyboards, sings lead and harmony vocals. The other members of the band are Sheldon Howlett, described as "head singer and rhythm guitarist", Joe Priestley (bass and vocals), and Fred Emmons (drums and vocals). Sheldon and Bob go back to 1973 when they formed The Country Four, and in 1974 set out across Canada as a road band known as Our Country, playing the country circuit until 1976. They were full-time then, became a part-time band and now, 10 years later, are back full-time.

Columbia's old . . . and new!!

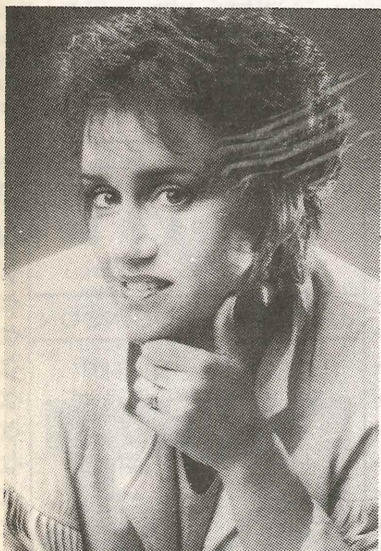

The latest country album releases from Columbia are prime examples of the wide acceptance of country music in general. Willie Nelson, the country combat vet, is off with his latest album, titled Partners. A single, Partners, After All, co-written by producer Chips Moman and Bobby Emmons, has already shown indications of catching chart action. The newest of new in country, breaks out of the box with a hit album and single. They are the O'Kanes with their self-titled album. Oh Darlin, taken as a single, has made impressive moves up the RPM Country 60. This album was produced by Kieran Kane, and Jamie O'Hara, who are the O'Kanes. The latter, who plays acoustic guitar on the session, also co-wrote most of the material with Kieran. CBS moved quickly this week with single releases from Marty Stuart (Do You Really Want My Lovin), Ray Charles (Dixie Moon), Janie Frickie (When A Woman Cries), B.J. Thomas (Night Life), and a duet by Charly McClain and Wayne Massey (When Love Is Right). The majority of these singles became chart items across the country, as soon as they were received by radio.

Flyin High release for Anne Banks

New to the Flyin High label is Anne Banks, who debuts with Who You Gonna Run To, a single written by Dieter Boehme and produced in Nashville by Cam Shillington. We'll be hearing a lot from Anne over the next little while. By the way, she sings harmony with herself on the verses - a nice effect.

NEW RELEASE

SHE'S NOT FOOLIN'

WHAT A FOOL I'D BE

Dick Damron digs up a little nostalgia

Dick Damron has been around for more years than seems possible. Back in 1955 he had a band called The Nite Riders. They played a live radio show every Saturday night on CKRD Radio in Red Deer. They also played for dances every Saturday night at Bentley and during the summer they played every Monday night at the Varsity Hall in Sylvan Lake. As well they played every Wednesday and Friday at the Gull Lake Pavilion.

Dick Damron & The Nite Riders, live from Red Deer (1955) on CKRD. Dave Dye, now a building contractor, was on bass, and Dick's younger brother Howard, now flying helicopters in the Yukon was on lead guitar.

There was always a general admission which was usually .50 cents per person with the crowds ranging from 100 to 300 people. The hall rentals were about $15 to $20 or a 60-40 percentage basis. Nobody got rich.

32 years later Damron is still going strong, with tour dates at the Canadian Rodeo Final in Edmonton (Nov. 14-15) and at the Desert Inn in Las Vegas Nov. 18 thru Dec. 25).

Diamond launch for National Velvet release

National Velvet, a new music "with an edge" quintet, will officially launch their 4-song EP at The Diamond in Toronto (Nov. 18). The band has already showcased at several local and area clubs and have gathered a surprisingly large following since being formed less than a year ago.

The band comprises Maria Del Mar (lead vocalist), Mark Storm (bass), Mark Crossely (guitar), Chris Reis (sax), and Ken Sinclair (drums). Del Mar, and Storm co-wrote the material for their EP however, Crossely does contribute to the songwriting for the group. Three of the tracks on their self-titled EP were produced by Rick Small (King's Cross, Behind The Door and Not The Thunder), at Toronto's Metal Works, while Flesh Under The Skin was produced by the band and Greg Biribaurer at Studio 1-2-1 and "treated" at Metal Works.

The aggressive young band self-financed their EP along with videos of Behind The Door and Flesh Under The Skin. Videos of Not The Thunder and King's Cross are currently in production, to be filmed on 16 mm film. As well they will be going back into the studios in March of next year to record a 9-song album.

BOOKS

ERIC CLAPTON - Ray Coleman - 368 pages (PB) $9.95 (U.S.) Warner Books, New York (No Canadian distribution information) Author Coleman, who wrote for Melody Maker for 20 years, and who wrote Lennon, considered one of "the most significant tributes to one of the original Beatles ever done," now covers the full span of Eric Clapton's career. He looks at Clapton's early days with the Yardbirds, to what he is now doing on the charts with his solo career. For those, in or out of the business, who have been "experimenting" with drugs - this is must reading. How Clapton has survived the body abuse, related here in much detail, is just short of amazing. Life as a superstar isn't everything it's jacked up to be. In writing in his diary, Clapton noted, "When Robbie Robertson says near the end of The Last Waltz that the road is a goddam impossible way of life - it's a heartbreaking reality that very few people have to come to terms with." It's also interesting to note that maintaining "the dignity of the British music industry," was of prime concern for Clapton, in spite of his problems. Canon artists take note.

ALIAS DAVID BOWIE - Peter & Leni Gillman - 511 pages (PB) - 24.95 - General Publishing, Canada. Using the Gillman's own words, they have "ventured into forbidden territory," in view of Bowie's reaction to the content of this book. Being a public figure, particularly a rock superstar, has its drawbacks - its skeletons in the closet - and there are those who have a way of digging up the past. There is always a market for gossip and the Gillman's have a corner on that market as they trace Bowie's life, his successes his failures and a lot of his frustrations. The Gillman's don't leave too much to the imagination, but then, neither has Bowie.
