Bob Rowe loses long battle with cancer

The industry was saddened to learn of the death, April 27, of Bob Rowe. He passed away in Toronto, after a lengthy battle with cancer, at the age of 55.

Mr. Rowe became a highly-respected member of the recording industry during his association with Capitol Records-EMI of Canada. Always keen on public and employee/employer relations, he quickly developed a closer tie between management and employees and an obvious change in attitude between the company and its customers.

Mr. Rowe joined Capitol from the surgical instrument field in 1970, assuming the position of Ontario Sales Manager. His ability in the sales field led to a rapid move up into the executive management level, first as National Field Sales Manager in 1972, and that same year to National Sales Manager. He was appointed Director of Sales in 1976, and to Divisional Vice President of Sales in 1977. The following year (1978), he was elevated to the post of Vice President of

A&M mounts campaign for Janz release

The combined forces of A&M Records and the field staff of some of the label's leading customers are geared for a national assault on the market with the May 12 delivery of the new Paul Janz single and album. More than 250 Canadian radio stations will have the Janz single, One Night (Is All It Takes) as well as his Electricity album, on that date.

"We have created a hundred-fold extension of our promotion staff," said Bill Ott, A&M's Vice President, Sales and Marketing, "by involving over 200 of our leading distributors in the new Janz release."

The joint assault on radio station music directors with the Janz LP/CASS/CD and single by the strike force is described as representing "a unique promotion campaign." Says Ott, "The recently inducted retail personnel will swell A&M's ranks impacting the new product in an exciting manner."

"We maintain a close commitment to radio," says J.P. Guilbert, the label's Director of Promotion, "and the excitement shared by so many of our peers is truly electrifying. It's the first step in a multi-faceted campaign for Paul Janz and Electricity."

Marketing, a position he held until he left the company in 1982.

After leaving Capitol, Mr. Rowe became involved in the restaurant business in Toronto, but never lost contact with the recording industry. He offered his Celebrity Dining Lounge for industry events which led to the establishment becoming a gathering place for the record industry.

Strikingly handsome, the tall, well-groomed "Bob" Rowe, with the instantly recognizable shock of white hair, added a touch of class to the executive level of the recording industry. He carried the mantle of "gentleman" to perfection.

Mr. Rowe is survived by his daughters Lisa and Leslie, and son Robert.

Funeral services were held in Toronto on Apr. 29.

CRTC approves sale of London/Sarnia stations

The CRTC approval for the sale of London stations CJBK AM and BX 93 FM, and Sarnia's CHOK AM, was received Apr. 14.

The stations had been privately owned by Rick Richardson for the past 15 years. Twigg Communications will assume control of the three stations on May 1st.

Mr. Richardson will continue his involvement with the stations in his new position as Chairman of the Board.

Twigg Communications is a privately-held Canadian company, and a newcomer to the broadcasting field. The firm is part of the Twigg group of companies which have been involved primarily with commercial real estate development in London and Toronto.

Mr. Don Patten, President and Mr. Tony Zwigg, Chairman of Twigg Communications have expressed their intention to maintain each station's staff and format.

Persistence pays off for "Sam" Fox debut album

Fueled by the singles Touch Me, and Do Ya Do Ya, the Samantha Fox debut album has surpassed the platinum mark in Canada, outselling the U.S. two to one and paralleling her European success. Says BMG's Ken Bain, it was "persistence that paid off", and a belief in the singer, "from the start." that has brought her home.

The second single (Do Ya), has already made startling chart jumps, particularly at CKOI, CFGO, and CKCK, Bain reports, establishing a similar pattern to the now-platinum Touch Me Single, based on phone response and equally impressive retail movement.

"There were believers right from the start from certain radio stations," Bain explains. "But the majority of radio gave us the impression that we were trying to sell her and not the music. And we're up against the same thing on this one. We're still getting some

Cancon country remains 30 percent on FM stations

The CRTC announced (Apr. 22) that it is maintaining the present guidelines that FM country music stations "broadcast 30 percent Canadian musical selections." CRTC Chairman Andre Bureau noted: "The Commission could not find evidence of insurmountable difficulties for FM country music stations to meet the existing guidelines," continuing with "Today's decision will maintain the vital presence of Canadian country music on FM country radio, and continue to stimulate the country music recording and publishing industries."

The CRTC's decision was "welcome news" in the independent country music circles, where many were worried about the possibilities of a reduction in Cancon.

"I'm very pleased that the FM Cancon country question has been put to rest, for at least the next 2 years," says Brian Ferriman, President of the highly visible Savannah label. "I thought it was encouraging the way the CRTC responded." He continues with "It was probably a good move when the broadcasters brought the issue to the forefront, because it's really galvanized the opinions of a lot of people. Now, let's forget the debate and get on with business."

The Canadian Association of Broadcasters (CAB), through a survey they made of FM country stations in 1985, reported there was a lack of Canadian country recordings and a lack of quality product. They also stated that in some markets FM country stations were at a disadvantage compared to FM rock stations since the rock stations had lower Canadian content guidelines and a greater supply of Canadian recordings. They asked that the Canadian content guideline for country FM stations be decreased from 30 percent to 15 percent to 20 percent. A CRTC study came to a different conclusion.

resistance from radio, and its mind boggling because they were saying to us the first time out that the song's no good."

However, Do Ya is generating excellent reaction wherever the song is played, he stresses. "It's that same pattern where anybody that's adding it . . . the response is so strong they have to chart the record."

Bain admits there are "a lot of holes" with the single, but is confident of its potential. "The media can say what they want about the girl . . . that she can't sing, and there's been a lot of people who have, but the fact is you don't sell 125,000 albums without something being there," he adds.

In spite of the U.S. pulling back, Bain does believe Canadian programmers will still give the new single a chance. "Yes," he agrees, "it's weird that there are stations holding back, but she did prove herself on the first one. Again, that U.S. action. They see it drop and everybody goes 'Whoa'. They'll never admit it, but you know it's there. We'll get 'em though," he concludes.

Fox is currently in the U.K. preparing material for a follow-up album, and will be seen later this year at the Montreux Festival.

WALT SAYS

Caught red handed . . . !!

While checking the bins of a record store in a major centre, not Toronto, a record company exec came across promo copies that had been sent to a reviewer from one of the dailies. By the way, this company's promo copies are coded. He dropped by the paper for a chat with the reviewer/critic, and was immediately set on as "one of those multi-nationals that's gouging the record buyers." (EC: There's one like that in Toronto!!) After taking his lumps, this record exec confronted the reviewer with what he found in the record store. Needless to say there was a short session of humbleness.

Is Vicki Gabereau interested in country?

My old "pen" pal Vicki Gabereau, the darling of the CBC, and the best damned interviewer in the business, is back living in Toronto (EC: How could she leave the swaying managers of Lotusland?) Watch for some pretty exciting things to happen to her, and it just might be in the country field (EC: Is she going to manage k.d. lang?) Vicki will be attending this year's Big Country Awards. Now, ain't that a scoop??

A little bit of educating . . . !!

Glad to hear from Samantha Hughes, that Mel Shaw and Michel Normandeau were big hits in Alberta. The pair were front and centre for a couple of seminars in Calgary and Edmonton, where they were given the opportunity to explain how FACTOR/CTL and government worked. You know what they say, 'a little bit of knowledge can be dangerous', which was why there was a lot of flack in the beginning toward FACTOR/CTL. A closer communication with the rest of the country should be top priority.

Talk about nostalgia . . . !!

Looking back through the archives of RPM never fails to surprise me. Can you imagine 15 years ago, there were 3 Cancon singles in the Top 10. Take a look at page 16. Neil Young's Heart Of Gold was No. 2, You Could Have Been A Lady by April Wine was No. 3, and Anne Murray's Cotton Jenny was No. 6. Making fast moves up the chart at the time was Wild Eyes by The Stampeders, and Poor Little Fool by Frank Mills.

Go to lunch with a Branch Manager!

You know the old expression "Join the navy and see the world" (EC: Only Stan Kulin would know what that means!!) well, have lunch with a Branch Manager and see the real world of the record industry. I had the opportunity to have lunch this week with Herb Forgie, WEA's Ontario Branch Manager, and I've got to tell you . . . the business has changed since I was last out in the field. I've never seen a more aggressive bunch. They're scurrying here and there, coming up with creative ideas to bounce off their bosses (EC: He's got a lot of boss to bounce off!!) and generally making excitement as they go. Snagging windows for displays, hanging mobiles, setting up posters, arranging tie-ins for concerts. . . and on and on. Now, I know why, when promotions are available, head office always looks at the field first.

J. Robt. Wood - what's he up to?

Contrary to what someone told me they read somewhere, J. Robert Wood is not working for the Maclean Hunter group. He has been doing some consulting work and is in the Toronto area, and like the top-rated programmer he is . . . the door is open . . . and I know where he would be working if I owned a radio station. (EC: If you owned a radio station!!)

Speaking of radio . . . !!

I hear from pretty good sources that a major Toronto programmer position has been offered to DS, who happens to be in a very cosy position in Vancouver. He bought a new boat recently, and Lotusland really has everything he wants. I wonder what will move him to come back east . . . ??

Maple Music Junket for the Junos??

While the powers that be are pondering methods to bring world attention to the Junos, perhaps a little reaching into the past would help. A few years ago, a fantastic project, known as The Maple Music Junket, was launched. This was during a crucial growth period for the Canadian recording industry. I think everybody got behind it . . . even the dailies. Journalists from around the world were invited to Canada, all expenses paid, to "look us over". Concerts and receptions were arranged . . . and these people were hanging on every word and when they went home, they printed thousands of words of praise for what they saw. It certainly opened the doors to Europe and the U.K. for those artists who took advantage for follow-up tours. Well . . . why not a similar junket for the Junos . . . ? We're only talking about, say an even dozen journalists . . . at $1,000 a head. Is there a better way . . . ??

Another awards show . . . !!

Toronto is going to have its own music awards, and if you expect a lot of flack from me, forget it. I'm all in favour of awards, and this one's not going to cost the industry anything. (EC: I don't believe it!!) As long as the awards don't conflict with the Junos, why not. Every bit of promotion helps.

No tantrums . . . please!!

A certain young lady, who has been skyrocketed to stardom has been throwing not-so-behind the scenes tantrums. She's turned off more than a few press VIPs and if she doesn't calm down . . . zap!!

Stephe Anthony moves to Much

More shuffling in Toronto radio as Stephe Anthony leaves Q107 to become a VJ at MuchMusic. What a hole that leaves in Q's afternoon drive.

What goes around comes around!!

Ain't that the truth. Keep your eyes peeled, it never fails to happen (EC: Any initials or do we just take a guess??)

Don Kollar, BMG Music's General Manager, presents double platinum to Bruce Hornsby for his debut album, The Way It Is. The album has enjoyed 28 weeks on the RPM 100.

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership." - Pierre Juneau

CANADA'S ONLY NATIONAL 100 SINGLE SURVEY

Following her last Call Of The Wild album, and a series of opening dates with Bon Jovi, Lee Aaron inked a deal with Virgin Records. The pacting afforded the talented vocalist the time to write and record her new self-titled album properly.

"I see this record as a natural progression for us," begins Aaron. "It's definitely still a rock 'n' roll album . . . it's just that there's a lot more thought and time put into the songwriting."

"The songs are much better," she continues. "I have more artistic control than anything I've done in the past," which includes the releases of The Lee Aaron Project, Metal Queen, and Call Of The Wild.

"With the Call Of The Wild album," Aaron explains, "I let myself become even more intimidated by the record company, to write 'airplayable' material, and I find that when you're really trying hard, it doesn't happen. So, with this record, we sat down and decided that rather than trying to write radio playable songs, we just worried about writing good songs."

Co-writers on the album include David Roberts, Mark Ribler, Joe Lynn-Turner and Dan Hill. The album was produced at Toronto's Metal Works by Peter Coleman, known for his previous work with Pat Benatar.

As the album approaches gold, and as a lot of people are discovering, Aaron is no longer screaming to impress. This is pure vocal talent. "On this record," she emphasizes, "you can hear the words. I wasn't even there for the mixes on my last record. I don't know what Bob (Ezrin) did to my voice."

Even though that album earned Aaron an international deal, the tour and a Juno nomination as Best Female Vocalist, what Ezrin did was obviously not enough. "He (Ezrin) was too heavy handed," she adds, and a change in style and direction were decided on.

"Contrary to popular belief, I don't think we've ever really been a . . . to use the term . . . metal band . . . in the first place, although we were marketed in that manner with the second record. We always came across as a colourful, fun rock 'n' roll band, and we still come across that way," Aaron stresses.

"When I started out, I was very young and very naive, and I was looking for people to give me direction because I really had no clue as to where I was going. I'm going to be 25 this year, and I've . . . well, grown up, I guess."

RECORDS TO RADIO - by Laura BartlettWeek at a glance - Promo Planner - May 4 - 8*T'Pau - Heart And Soul

Album released next week. R&R CHR "new and active" (80/45). Stations in: C100, OZ-FM, CHOM, CKOI, CFGO, CHEZ, CHUM-FM, FM-96, CITI, CJAY, KIK, CKYX, CHRK, CFOX. Gotta close CHR. The U.S. stats: 45 adds in its second week without an AOR base proves the strength of this track at Top 40.

The Other Ones - We Are What We Are

R&R CHR "new and active" (98/17). R&R AOR tracks "Breaker" (98/17). R&R Album "Breaker" (31* - 27*). FM support for the track has been phenomenal - with every FM station closed in 3 weeks. RPM 93* - 73*. Only have to fill 7 Top 40 slots: LG, CHAB, CKOM, CKRW, CJBK, CKOC, CFTR.

Rita MacNeil - Flying On Your Own

New single from Rita in 2 to 3 weeks. The album, Flying On Your Own, has just gone gold in Canada. On the back of the very first single (Flying On Your Own), the follow-up will be just as moving, and will

"I really lacked the confidence to stand up for what my gut feelings were telling me to do. Now, I have a lot clearer focus on where I'm going, and what I'm doing these days."

"I didn't sit down with the idea that 'I'm a hard rock artist and I have to write hard rock songs' for this album. I said, 'Let's write strong songs, good songs, with good melodies' and then we'll adapt."

"I think artists who are afraid to make slight changes and be a little more experimental, are the ones who end up digging themselves into a rut, and never going anywhere. You have to progress," Aaron concludes, "and not be afraid of making changes. Otherwise your fans get bored and I don't think they want to hear the same old thing over and over again either."

again appeal to all formats of radio. Boy! Radio has been really supportive on this. That's really great!!

Boy George - Everything I Own

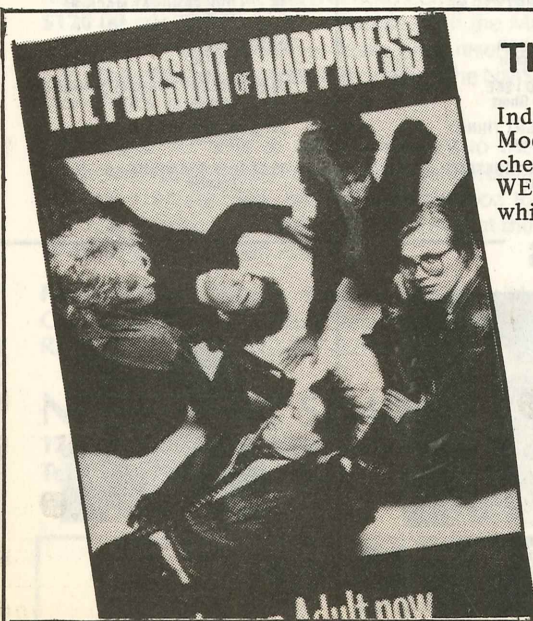

Top 40 stations still to add: CKLG, CKXL. Also a very heavy request item showing up on everybody's Top 6 at 6 and Top 10 at 10 features.

OMD - Shame

Platinum album - The Pacific Age. Go after all Top 40, AOR and A/C stations; this song has the melody of If You Leave and

The Pursuit Of Happiness pays off . . . !!

Independent recording projects don't always pay off big, but tip your hat to Moe Berg and The Pursuit Of Happiness. The band released Moe's tongue-in-cheek tune, I'm An Adult Now more than six months ago, and now, with WEA distribution and one of the best ever low-budget videos, the tune is whizzing up radio and retail charts.

Moe Berg, who writes all the band's material, relies on his partnership with CAPAC for his performing rights royalties. Radio and television rely on CAPAC for the right to perform a worldwide repertoire of music to keep advertisers and listeners in the picture.

DAVID BOWIE - Pop/Rock
Never Let Me Down
EMI America - PJ-17267-F

Although some purists won't appreciate what Bowie has done with (Iggy Pop's) Bang Bang, that is not what is important here. The album, produced by Bowie and David Richards, is chock full of nuggets, and with Bowie singing in the range of his Aladdin Sane days, will attract both his older and newer fans alike. Initially, a confusing radio response to the infectious first single Day In Day Out - those stations not playing it are missing out on a hit - but there will be others. Combined with the impending Canadian tour, this solid, aurally pleasing and creative album will remain on the charts well into the fall. All tracks are key. Featured are guitarists Peter Frampton and Carlos Alomar.

JOHN FARNHAM - Pop/Rock
Whispering Jack - RCA - 63001-R-N
Currently Australia's best selling album ever, which has already topped charts in many Scandinavian and European countries, looks to do the very same here. The former member of the Little River Band had producer Neil Dorfsman (Tina Turner, Dire Straits, among others, and who is currently producing the new Sting album) remixed the first 3, very key, tracks, including You're The Voice - the first single, co-written by Procol Harum lyricist Keith Reid and Manfred Mann's singer Chris Thompson. A big record, and for many months to come, but for good reason.

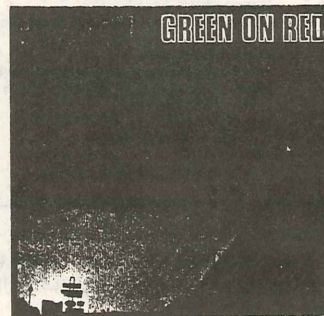

CARLY SIMON - Pop
Coming Around Again
Arista - AL-8443-N
This is the comeback album for a highly popular songstress. Includes key Simon originals, Two Hot Girls and the title track, Coming Around Again (from the movie Heartburn), and good co-writes with Gerard McMahon and Jacob Brackman. Ex-Yardbird, and longtime associate, Paul Samwell-Smith produced key tracks, as does Bryan Adams on his own penning (with Jim Vallance) of It Should Have Been Me. Other producers were Russ Kunkel, Richard Perry and John Boylan. Guest appearances by Stevie Wonder, Roberta Flack and Tony Levin.

ROBERT JOHNSON - Blues
King Of The Delta Blues Singers
Columbia - WPC-1654-H
Without a doubt, simply the definitive anthology of Johnson's blues, but interestingly on a jazz label. Tracks assembled through various personal collections and Columbia's available masters.

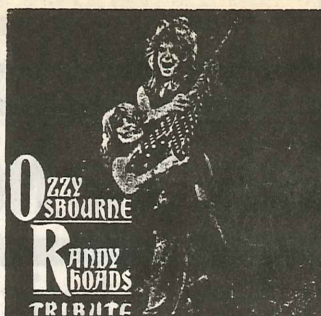

THE BLOW MONKEYS - Pop
She Was Only A Grocer's Daughter
RCA - 6246-1-R-N
Decidedly different from their last effort, Animal Magic. This band's latest could very well propel them into upper echelons of popdom. Led by the very image conscious Dr. Robert, who writes all the material, this band's album has already charted (it made its debut last week), and the first single, It Doesn't Have To Be This Way, will shortly follow suit. Produced by Michael Baker.

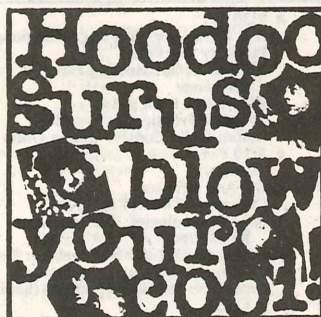

GREEN ON RED - Rock
The Killer Inside Me - Mercury - 830 9121-Q
Produced by Jim Dickinson, trundles down that crossover, post cow-punk path, but the band leave in their wake key tracks such as Mighty Gun, Sorry Naomi, No Man's Land, and the title track. Should attract following.

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND - Country
Hold On - Warner Bros - 92-55731-P
Always on the edge of rock, country and bluegrass, this package holds no surprises. Josh Leo did most of the producing, out of which Angelene and Blue Ridge Mountain Girl are key, and Marshall Morgan and Paul Worley produced Oleanna, Oh What A Love, Tennessee, and Dancing To The Beat Of A Broken Heart, also key. Should also be good fare for A/C programmers.

OZZY OSBOURNE - Rock/HM
Randy Rhoads Tribute
CBS Associated - K22-40714-H
Contains "classic" Osbourne material, even from Black Sabbath, combining both drum and guitar solos, on this double live gatefold package. Should draw on the buying power of both the rock and metal fan. Easy money for retailers who front-rack this complete set. Includes copies of letters from both Rhoads' mother and Ozzy, as well as some of Rhoads' own studio out-takes.

HOODOO GURUS - Pop/Rock
Blow Your Cool - Big Time - 830 9471-Q
Mark Opitz, known for his previous work with INXS, lends his finely honed production skills to this band's follow-up to Mars Needs Guitars, actually bringing home that precise instrument on the album. The set contains 11 tracks, including the key, Good Times, and What's My Scene. As a bonus, also contains a 4-song sampler - featuring material from Love Tractor, The Jazz Butcher Conspiracy, The Pastels, and The Lucy Show.

KIM WILDE - Pop
Another Step - MCA - MCA-5903-J
This album definitely has the potential to break Wilde, on the strength of a number of tracks prime for the summer ahead. The lead track, and first single, You Keep Me Hangin On, has already taken a foothold and is currently bulleting up the charts, following initial and heavy club support. Also key are Another Step, I've Got So Much Love, and How Do You Want My Love. Produced by a variety of producers.

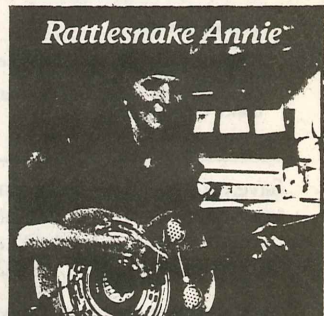

GENE PITNEY - Pop
Trans-Canada Highway - Attic - LAT-1235-W
How do you listen to a legend's new album? Very carefully, and unfortunately with more than a critical ear. To say there is some disappointment here shouldn't take away from the importance of this release. Suffice to say, it's a long way from Liberty Vallance. Perhaps there was too much of a rush to get this album on the street in time for his tour. The vocal strength is still there, but the choice of material is a little weak, although there are a couple of exceptions. He does a great job on Chris de-Burgh's Hold On, and Roger Cook's Blue Angel, but perhaps that's being a little over critical. The title track has been taken as the first single, and initial programmer reaction was good.

PHIL MANZANERA - Rock
Guitarissimo - E.G. Records - EGLP-69-W
A collection of the former Roxy Music guitarist's solo and 801 material. Taken from the albums Diamond Head, 801 Live, Listen Now, K-Scope, and Primitive Guitars; it features Robert Wyatt, John Wetton, Simon Phillips, Kevin Godley, Lol Creme, Francis Monkman, Paul Thompson, and Tim Finn, as well as Roxy alumni Brian Eno and Andy Mackay. There's not much more to say.

JODY WATLEY - Dance/Pop
Self-Titled - MCA - MCA-5898-J
Up-beat and very danceable songs, together with punchy production are going to give ex-Shalamar singer Watley a hit record. Of course, the duet with George Michael, Learn To Say No, certainly isn't going to hurt either. Both single, Looking For A New Love, and album are currently bulleting up the charts.

RATTLESNAKE ANNIE - Country
Self-Titled - Columbia - 8/C-40678-H
This West Tennessee farm girl has the folk and country patter down to a natural and easy purr that should bring her debut for Columbia into prominence. Annie's vocals have a slight edge, but not as much as the acoustic backing she has from session people who certainly know their profession. Interestingly enough Lonnie Mack, who supplies background vocals, also wrote Outsiders Of Town, Been Waitin That Long, and Funky Country Livin, all key. Annie tries her hand at writing, and Goodbye To A River, has a powerful message - an excellent track. Produced by Annie and Buddy Blackman. Callin Your Bluff has been taken as a single.

JOHN SCHNEIDER - Country
You Ain't Seen The Last Of Me
MCA - MCA-5973-J
Produced by Schneider and Jimmy Bowen, this album is already being programmed by country stations across Canada. Love, You Ain't Seen The Last Of Me, written by Kendal Franceschi, has made an impression on the charts already however, it isn't by far, the best track. Even Schneider's own penning of The Firefighter is key along with his co-writing of Credit with Larry Bryum. Don't overlook the Ronny Scaife and Mark Collie penning of Hillbilly Boy With The Rock 'N' Roll Blues, a masterful track that shows Schneider's rock edge.

Q107 organizes first-ever Toronto Music Awards

Toronto's rock radio station Q107, in association with Labatt's Blue Live, will present the city's first annual music awards at Toronto's Massey Hall (Sept. 18). The awards are to recognize the achievements of Toronto area musicians "in the world of contemporary music", based on performances and not recordings.

As do many other major cities in North America, including Vancouver, the Toronto Music Awards will focus on the struggling, or the "up-and-coming" acts, "the hometown favourites," says Q107's General Manager Gary Slaight, in his last official function for the station, as well as those bands having already achieved international success, "like Triumph, Tom Cochrane, Rush, Kim Mitchell, Honeymoon Suite, or Glass Tiger," adds Slaight.

"The People's Choice Awards, The Grammys, and even the Junos and CASBY's, all give awards to the same people," explains Joe Owens, of the Entertainment Marketing Group. "But when was the last time you saw Paul James win an award?" he asks.

Suite's Lethal Weapon included on WEA video

WEA's Video Compilation No. 63, their latest music clip release, includes Honeymoon Suite's Lethal Weapon. This track is included in the soundtrack of the movie carrying the same title, and is already moving up the RPM singles survey.

"The artists around the city," he elaborates, "that are still struggling, trying to find that magic combination of people and songs, need to be supported and need to be stimulated to continue, so they don't bail out and drive cabs. This is really a rallying point for local musicians to say 'Hey! The media does care. The radio stations do care. The people out there do care . . . and we are being recognized!'"

"By the same token," he continues, "there are some people who won't, in a million years, win an award, but now don't have to butt up against some of the big guys. This gives new people, the up-and-comers, an opportunity to win something."

The categories range from Best Toronto Guitarist to Toronto Local Band Most Deserving Of A Recording Contract. They will also recognize artists in several musical genres: rhythm & blues, reggae, country, blues, jazz and folk, as well as "catch-all" categories such as Best Toronto Group (local success), Best Toronto Group (international success), and Best Toronto Club Band.

Nominees, chosen by "a cross section of the Toronto music industry," will be voted on by the public, with ballots distributed in the Toronto Sun and through participating area retailers, schools and clubs. Proceeds from the event (all costs are being underwritten by Labatt's Blue Live) are being donated to the Variety Club.

"We thought long and hard about other things," continues Owens. "We thought 'Should there be a children's record award?' or 'Should there be a classical or best street musician award? However, one of the things we noticed at the Boston awards was that they had 44 categories and the show itself lasted about 3 hours."

"A lot of the categories they had, for the first year of this event, weren't particularly relevant. We wanted to keep it straight forward and relatively compact. Then, as the event develops, and if more categories need to be added, they'll be added in the future. We felt we would keep it streamlined for now."

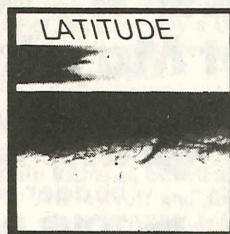

The show will not be televised however, it will be broadcast live on Q107, with on-air personalities hosting and featuring "many well known" Toronto artists in performance. "We're not going to have tons and tons of up-and-coming bands performing," says Owens. "It's not a showcase . . . the Homegrown contest does that very well."

"One thing we are going to do," he continues, "is to invite presenters from the U.S. and Europe. So the Bon Jovi's and other internationally known artists are hopefully going to be here as presenters . . . a small number of them and people who are relevant."

"We're not looking for media stars. That's really the domain of the Junos, as much as we're looking for some credible musicians. What we are not going to allow to happen is to have the international artists who may come and participate, to overshadow what we're doing," he concludes.

Toronto Mayor Art Eggleton, in honour of the city's musical community, has named Sept. 18 "Toronto Musician's Day". He will present the Mayor's Music Award for outstanding achievement, at the awards' ceremony.

Big-name sellers now battling with Trio album

Despite not gaining the crossover hit single the company had hoped for, the Trio album, recorded by country and pop veterans Dolly Parton, Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris, is becoming one of the surprise smash albums of the year, rising to the upper level of the retailer album warehouse charts.

The album, which took only one month to hit gold and has now surpassed the platinum level, has moved up to the No. 4 position on the RPM 100 Album chart, displacing such big names as Paul Simon and Bruce Hornsby.

At the retail and warehouse level, the LP is simply referred to as Trio, as if it were feared by some as yet another hit album from another rock threesome, but yet it is only this country/pop mixture from these three well known female vocalists.

Such strong sales for an album of this type isn't a common occurrence. Even without the hit single from the Trio album, other major rock and pop acts must now compete with this album for sales.

To Know Him Is To Love Him, was released by WEA as the first single, a cover of the old Teddy Bears hit, and also a Phil Spector classic. The single did get onto country and contemporary adult stations (No. 1 RPM A/C, May 2/86 and No. 2 RPM Country 60, May 9/86), but WEA was hoping for CHR action that would make it the crossover hit they wanted.

"What's really interesting is that the success has been accomplished without a hit single," said Bill Johnston, Warner Bros Product Manager. "All three of these ladies have had successful careers . . . the three of them working together have a magical quality that captures the imagination of record buyers."

Johnston pointed out that this project had been talked about as long as ten years ago. Such three well-known vocalists working together, he says, makes the project a major event. Johnston believes it's not the "fickle" young market that is buying this LP, but the older buyers who are non-country music fans.

"It's not an obvious kind of record," says Johnston. "It's not rock 'n' roll or traditional pop. And although the image of the artists is traditionally country, technically the album is not. Yet the music is very fresh. Radio support was not as we thought it would be, but the support for the Paul Simon album wasn't as strong at the beginning either."

Johnston stressed that despite the lack of success of the single, it did serve as a promotional vehicle to make people aware of the album. He reports that those who have heard the single, want to hear more, and although they like the single, they are buying the album since it is the older record buyer who is attracted to the music.

"The uniqueness of this record makes it a standout," continues Johnston. "We anticipate the album to continue selling into Christmas. This kind of album appeals to those who only buy a few records a year."

A follow-up single, Telling Me Lies, is being prepared for shipping. Also ready is a video of the track Those Memories Of You, which may be issued as a future single.

Homestead and Swell gain international status

Homestead Productions and Swell Management can be counted among the fastest rising, companies in terms of international respect and recognition in the entertainment field. As well, they gained in their stature with the recently announced CASBY nominations.

According to Steven Macklam, of the Vancouver-based Homestead Productions, U.S. interest in Canadian acts couldn't be better, and he mentions that proportionately, labels are signing bands "ahead of just about everybody but Australia." With the recent signing of Colin James to Virgin, now two-thirds of his acts enjoy a U.S. commitment. Homestead also manage k.d. lang (Sire) and Spirit Of The West.

Virgin (who have signed a limited roster consisting of Steve Winwood, Warren Zevon, Roy Orbison, Ziggy Marley, and most recently Keith Richards, as well as James), is headed by Jeff Ayeroff and Jordan Harris. The latter, while at A&M, is credited with the Bryan Adams success story. It was when Ayeroff was with Warner Bros that Macklam was introduced, through the k.d. lang association.

To have artists from the prairies signed to recording contracts is remarkable, admits Macklam, but it is their policy not to approach the Canadian operations "because of the difficulty in breaking if you sign here." Hence, the U.S. involvement.

"But in fairness," he comments, "the Canadian companies were great. All of the ones that got involved said 'Look, let's call our U.S. offices - this is going to go somewhere'."

Over the past year then, James has been on the road (his contract was only signed a month ago) playing clubs and bars, and that's the key, Macklam relates. "We haven't had to prefabricate anything in any way. We've just been basically doing the best we can to get our acts out in front of people.

"As a small management office," he continues, "all we can afford to do is really put the band out there and hope they play their socks off and that the live response will translate into something that the industry can relate to.

"In some ways," Macklam continues, "we're like the story of the small English fleet that defeated the Spanish Armada . . . I mean, we're small and we're trim. If anything, we have an excess of acts wanting to work out of our offices, but the reason we've been successful, so far, is just that we're able to keep it pared down and within our control: financially and artistically."

One of the acts Homestead turned down this past year was, in fact, the Pursuit Of Happiness, now managed by Jeff Rogers of Swell. The band was recently nominated in 5 CASBY categories and, according to Rogers, a U.S. deal is imminent. "In a couple of weeks we should have a deal to announce, and it'll be international," he advises, "with the definite involvement of a U.S. company."

Rogers, who also manages Tall New Buildings and Secret Lives, says that radio is responsible for the success of Pursuit Of Happiness, following their release of I'm An Adult Now. "Radio is why the band has record company interest," he explains. "It's really cool that it's the media turning the band on to the record companies, as opposed to the record companies having to turn on the media."

Concluding, Macklam mentions: "The only way we can survive is to have a hands-on approach, a one-on-one relationship with the band, and make sure each one is self-sufficient before moving on to the next one."

Third BMAC Awards set for May 15

The Black Music Association (BMAC) has set May 15 as the date for their third Awards Luncheon. The luncheon and awards presentation will be held in the Concert Hall of Toronto's Royal York Hotel.

This year's keynote speaker will be Donnie Elbert (former '70s R&B star turned producer and now A&R man for PolyGram). His theme will be Black Music In Canada, Dream Or Reality?

Performances will be staged by Something Extra, Debbie Johnson (Marigold Records), John James, Glen Ricketts (Sheraff), and Harrison Kennedy (Roto Noto).

This year's categories and their nominees are as follows:

TOP ALBUM

Fire For '87 - Jayson

No Heroes - Manteca
Revolutionary Tea Party

with a pending extensive Canadian tour, it's destined to put the band back on the charts.

Gary Moore - Over The Hills

Stats: R&R AOR Tracks "Breaker" (34* - 32*). Already in on CHIM, CKRK, CFMI, CKYX, CKIS, Q107, FM96, CHEZ, HTZ-FM, Q104. This is a rock 'n' roll track with an interesting Scottish flavour. Call CFOX, CJAY, KIK, CITY, FM93, OZ-FM, as it's definitely up their alley. It's been the number 1 most added album in R&R for the last 3 weeks and has already garnered Top 5 status in England earlier this year.

XTC - Dear God

Now available on the Skylarking album. The response/controversy surrounding this track has proven more callers in favour than against. Stations in: CFMI, CKYX, CKIS, CFNY, CHEZ, CHOM, Q104, OZ-FM. It's been the No. 2 most requested at CFNY for the last 3 weeks and has just taken over the top request slot at CHOM from a very heavy contender - U2. Definitely give another call to KIK and FM-96, London.

Cutting Crew - (I Just) Died In Your Arms

With it holding at No. 1 (R&R) for 2 weeks in a row, this record is simply a monster. Consistently at the top of everybody's Top 10 at 10 and Top 6 at 6 features. We have to take this all the way. Key moves: RPM 6* - 4*, CKLG 4-2, AM106 9-5, CHAB 11-9, CFTR 15-5, CKOM 8-7, CKCK 6-1, CKOC 9-6, BK 13-6, SL 13-8, C100 18-8. It's CFUN, CHUM-AM, CFRA, CKGM and CJCH's turn now.

Jennifer Warnes to play Canadian dates

Jennifer Warnes will take a quick look at Quebec and Ontario when she plays several dates in support of her Attic album, Famous Blue Raincoat. She opens at Hamilton Place June 12, followed by Ontario Place in Toronto (14), Montreal's Place des Arts (18 & 19), and Ottawa's National Arts Centre (21 & 22). Warnes is currently making good moves up the RPM 100 singles survey with her current single, First We Take Manhattan, and is scoring equally as well on the RPM A/C chart. Her single qualifies as 2-parts Cancon (ML) with the music and lyrics being written by Leonard Cohen.

New interest in deBurgh's Lady

With U.S. programmers being late on Chris deBurgh's Lady In Red single, several Canadian programmers are now treating the single as if it were a new release. The single has "had its run" in Canada, and was followed-up by Say Goodbye To It All. However, any airplay is good at this time as deBurgh prepares for a major cross-Canada tour. The dates will be announced shortly.

Lawrence, who doubles on saxophone and flute, is one of the better songwriters in Canada, and co-wrote the music for the Canadian Pavilion at Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan. He also has an impressive track record of producing sessions for Susan Jacks, The Hometown Band, Bruce Miller, and Minglewood, among others. He has also scored music for the National Film Board as well as several CBC radio and television programs. He is just finishing a new album of his own originals. The Jazz Camp is a division of the Interprovincial Music Camp, now in its 26th season, and both are non-profit organizations. For further information call 416-922-1591.

Brown heads up Hemisphere Speakers

The Hemisphere MM-3 professional audio speaker system is now being marketed in Canada for the first time. The system was designed by Jay Lewis, a Los Angeles producer and engineer, who wanted to "cut down on remixing and to increase the punchiness of a recording," says Ira Brown, who heads up Hemisphere Speakers Canada. "The Hemisphere MM-3 speaker will literally eliminate the first problem," continues Brown, "and allow a producer, engineer and artist to create the desired punch for their recording." For more information, contact Brown in Toronto at 416-499-8088.

COUNTRY

New Country Gold for Toronto

Another Country Gold showplace is set to open in the Toronto area, on Kennedy Road in Scarborough. The manager will be Bernie MacNeil. The first Country Gold Restaurant opened in the Golden Mile Plaza but was moved later to the Skyline Hotel.

Steve Earle goes gold in Canada

Steve Earle's MCA album, Guitar Town has gone gold in Canada. He is currently on the charts with Goodbye's All We've Got Left. He will be doing a swing through Western Canada shortly with dates in Winnipeg (May 8), Calgary (10), Saskatoon (11), Edmonton (12), and Vancouver (14).

Programmer reaction to Micallef single

Chuck Micallef has mounted a hefty self-promotion on the release of his latest Blue Crystal single, English Style Lovin. The single was produced in Toronto by steelman Ron Dann. Micallef has been encouraged by the comments he has received from country programmers including: "Great all-round song," Fred Barnett - CFQX-FM Selkirk, "The voice is wonderful, the tune is catchy," Kelvin Bath - CJSL Estevan, "I like everything about it," Carl W. Harris - CIGV-FM Penttinton, "A promising artist with a finely-crafted single," Brian Ackney - CHOO Ajax.

More dates for Blue Rodeo

Blue Rodeo, currently looking good with their Risque Disque single, Outskirts Of Life, taken from their Outskirts album, have firmed more dates for the West. They play Vancouver's Town Pump as a solo act (May 5), and with The Unforgiven (7), and again solo (10). They also play Vancouver's Venue (11), followed by Harpos in Victoria (12 & 13), and back to Vancouver and The Savoy (14 through 16). They move east to Calgary's Electric Ave. (June 15 & 16), followed by Calgary's Westward (17), Edmonton's Adante's (18), Edmonton's Howlin' Wolf (19), Edmonton's Sidetrack (20), and Winnipeg's Nightmoves in the Windsor Park Hotel (21 & 22).

Donna & Leroy release single

One of Canada's first duos, Donna & Leroy make a strong bid for chart action with their latest Cardinal single, Two Gypsies. The plug side was written by Leroy (Anderson), and the session was produced by Mike Francis. The comment cards have been encouraging with comments like "Excellent" from Mike Ried of CJFW-FM Terrace, "Nice contemporary sound," from Phil Kallsen of CKRY-FM Calgary, and "It's been too long since the last hit, welcome back." from Ken O'Neil at GX-94 Yorkton.

Shane Cutler off on Ebony

The Ebony label has released a new single by Shane Cutler, titled Missing You. The plug side was written by Cutler and Wilma Hopman, and produced by Rich Dodson and Brian Edwards.

Carol Martyn putting band together

Golden Eagle recording artist Carol Martyn is currently in the Toronto area putting together a band. She will then work across

Ontario and move into the circuit of fairs and rodeos in Western Ontario. Carol is currently on release with Another Day To Love, a single that is experiencing U.S. action and enjoyed several weeks on the RPM Country 60. Carol is nominated in the category of Top Country Female Vocalist for this year's Big Country Awards.

Vinson single catching fire

R. Harlan Smith reports the Laura Vinson single, Don't Wait, which he produced and released on the Royalty label, is picking up major Western charts, and he expects to parlay this success across the country.
