Independents starting to feel the vinyl pinch

"The people who are going to hurt the most are the independents," exclaims Chris Allicock of The Music Brokers, one of the country's more prominent independent promoters. He is referring to the growing problem of vinyl delivery. However, with the current manufacturing fiasco seemingly out of control, there isn't much product for his company to promote. The whole chain of events starts with the piece of vinyl and without it the independent sector is feeling the squeeze, as importing remains unfeasible for the majority of struggling artists.

Idle Eyes, one of Allicock's clients, with several hits to their credit, have ordered the pressing of a compact disc configuration and when these become available, next week, they'll be used to promote the second single for the band. Other clients aren't as lucky, stresses Allicock.

"The independents are at the bottom of the list," he adds. "Even if we go to someone like World Records, we're still backed up four to six weeks, instead of the usual two or three. It's bad news. Think of all the independent guys who want to take a crack at the Christmas rush... we're getting screwed. It's critical. We live or die by those little seven inch pieces of wax and every company along the line, in the independent sector... well, nobody gets paid until the records are produced. Believe me, there are some people who are going to get hurt."

At a time when the International Festival of Independent Music, the first held in Canada, is underway, the news is not good. Many bands use an independently financed recording as their calling card to the industry and many more actually recoup their investment while touring and selling product off the stage. This turn of events then is deemed disastrous for the business, the hatching ground for the future of the music industry.

New appointments announced by MCA

Ross Reynolds, Executive Vice President and General Manager of MCA Records Canada has announced the appointments of Randy Lennox and Stephen Tennant to the positions of Vice President of Sales and Marketing respectively. Reynolds also reported that Peter Diemer has been promoted from Ontario Promotion representative to Director of Promotion, following the resignation of Lesley Soldat as Director of Promotion to join Sound Source (RPM - Oct 1/88).

Lennox has been with MCA for more than ten years, having previously served in the capacities of Ontario sales representative, Ontario Branch Manager, and most recently Director of Sales.

Tennant, who has been with MCA for the last five years in the positions of Chrysalis Label Manager and Director of Marketing, has been in the industry for fourteen years, gaining extensive rack and retail experience over those years.

Healey as special guest for Toronto awards

Well-known Toronto bluesman, Jeff Healey, has been firmed as a special guest star for the Toronto Music Awards to be staged at Toronto's Massey Hall (Nov 11). Healey appeared at the first annual music awards and took two awards: Rising Star Guitarist and Best Blues Act. He has gone on to sign a major U.S. record deal with Arista Records, and just returned from the U.S. where he appeared in Roadhouse, a United Artists film starring Patrick Swayze, scheduled for a winter '89 release.

Sharing the bill with Healey will be The Tragically Hip, Roman Grey, Colin Linden, Clean Slate and Micah Barnes. Host for the evening will be Tony Rosato who has appeared on Saturday Night Live and is in the current Night Heat and Diamonds TV series.

The awards show, sponsored by Labatt's Blue Live in cooperation with the Toronto Sun (RPM - Aug 20/88) will be presented by Q107. Net proceeds will go to the Q107 Children's Fund. Presenters will include Gowan, Kim Mitchell, Lee Aaron, Molly Johnson, Johnny Dee and Derry Grehan of Honeymoon Suite New Music's Denise Donlon and Laurie Brown and Toronto Maple Leaf player Wendel Clark.

It's a fragile pedestal, as it is, and the closing of plants and merging to create such a virtual monopoly is now sounding a deathknell for the industry.

Bad timing for Enigma's first "hot" album

In the music business you win some and lose some, to say the least, and timing is essential and a key marketing factor with the release of every new album. When Enigma Records decided to release Al Stewart's new album, Last Days Of The Century, stock problems would have been a dream come true for the label. Yet with the recent manufacturing dilemma, and it's getting worse, stock problems are an understatement.

The first single from the album, King Of Portugal, has been making surprising inroads across the country and though cassettes and compact discs are selling in sufficient numbers, there has been virtually no vinyl product to appease demand. So, for a young label, like Enigma, the vinyl crisis couldn't have come at a more critical time in their history. Fortunately, the Stryper album, To Hell With The Devil, has just gone gold, informs Derrick Ross, and is his most successful release to date. But the label is counting on the Stewart project.

"I'm sure you've heard the horror stories over and over again, so I don't have to reiterate them," he adds, "which is a drag. But we're starting to get some 'bubbling under' stats now, so I don't know if it's affecting us that much. It's getting much stronger at radio too. We're getting some charts now and we're going to get some tour dates as well. Al's out on the West Coast this week and will be this way around the middle of November and by that time we'll have a second single which I think is even better."

With Cinram reporting to each label that product is forthcoming, Ross cancelled an import order last week, only to find that production was, in fact, delayed again. "If I don't get it this week, I don't know what I'm going to do. It's to the point now where I have to have vinyl," he says. "My back orders aren't affected that much and the cassettes are really moving, so we're seeing good sales and we're even seeing people racking it without the actual vinyl. We're early but we need the vinyl now."

WEA arranged for Rod Stewart to meet critically ill Linda Summerhill during his CNE date where Garry Newman, WEA Vice President Sales presented him with platinum for Out Of Order, his most recent LP. Stewart surprised everyone by giving the award to Linda as a souvenir of their meeting.

Gala Tribute dinner set for Sam Sniderman

The Canadian Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences will honour Sam Sniderman with a Gala Tribute dinner at Toronto's Harbour Castle Westin Hotel on Nov 23. This year, Sniderman is celebrating his 50th year as a music retailer.

As Donald K. Tarlton of Montreal's Donald K. Donald Productions explains, "In recognition of this unique milestone, a special fund is being established that will jointly benefit a charity or cause of Sam's choice and additionally a scholarship fund that CARAS is creating. Tickets at $150.00 each and tables of ten can be ordered from Tarlton's assistant in Montreal at 514-735-2724 or from the CARAS offices in Toronto at 416-485-3135. "It will be a fun night," says Tarlton, "and we at Donald K. Donald hope to have a big contingent of Montrealers join us for this fabulous evening."

Sam and Sid to Russia . . . ! Both Sam and Sid (EC: Sam and Sid who . . . ?) are back from their trip to Russia. Is there any truth to the rumour there could be a string of Serge The Record Man stores in Russia . . . ? (EC: I hear there's an empty store next to McDonald's facing Red Square!!)

Speaking of Russia . . . ! Remember when rehearsal halls used to be as plentiful as fleas on a Russian brown bear . . . ? Most of the bands are now rehearsing in the recording studio, which adds to the cost of the session. But now, I've got wind of a rehearsal studio that's catering to all the needs of new and established recording bands. It's called In-Town Rehearsals, in the core of Toronto.

A&M takes the RPM Cup . . . ! It was a very long season for our Ontario Music Industry Baseball tournament . . . and there were new faces on the diamonds this year. The WEA Wackers got wacked early, but the WEA Warriors went right down to the line. It was no contest however, they lost the last two games to A&M 12-7 and 15-3. The A&M team was made up of A&M, Virgin, Attic and allsorts. It was KC who had the last laugh over GN. (EC: Isn't it time for GN to put on the winter fat . . . ?)

Act One is just around the corner! Act One is a new and very plush eatery in downtown Toronto, just across the road from Roy Thomson Hall, which puts it just around the corner from that growing record ghetto. DK should find the menu to his liking, particularly the wines. Michael Burt, remember him from Le Club, put together the promotion for Act One and as always he did a beautiful job. The ambience (real marble floors, keyboardist and flautist) and the food, make for a nice luncheon. I have to try it for dinner soon. (EC: Is there a drive-through window . . . ?)

Copyright scandal . . . ?? They are either pulling my leg, or there is a scandal brewing regarding copyright! (EC: Remember . . . you read it here first!) That's right!

Is this the end . . . ? Don't look for too much free money to be given away in the future. It seems the well has run dry and quietly, the whole debacle will be shelved and it will be all over . . . the victim of bad advice from her advisors who will move on to other folly in other industries. Now we can get back to business!! (EC: Who is the she of which you speak . . . ?)

I tip my hat . . . ! Want something done? My hat is tipped to one guy who moves and shakes like very few in our industry. (EC: Name him! Name him!) He knows!!

Go for soda . . . ! I wonder what would happen if the record industry held press and record launch parties . . . without booze? Kim Mitchell gave us good direction with his Go For Soda single, which the Americans picked up for a Don't Drink and Drive campaign, but how about us drunks north of the border? One thing it would accomplish, would be to bring out the people who were really interested in record industry news or a new record . . . and not the free bubbly. Think about it . . . and look at the potential

WEA Canada splits national promo team

WEA Canada has divided its national promotion department into two segments. National Promotion Manager Larry Green, a 15 year veteran with the company, will handle Warner Bros./Elektra/Atlantic product, while National Promotion Manager Kevin Shea, will look after the domestic distributed labels and WEA International product.

Shea recently joined WEA head office from the WEA Ontario branch.

corporate sponsors. (EC: Whadiyamean what about us drunks . . . ?)

He's not such a bad guy . . . ! I finally had an opportunity to spend a little time with one of the heavies from that body on the hill. He's the guy so many people are afraid of. Well, I found him very charming . . . and what can you say about a Rochdale graduate? (EC: You could ask AS or DR or how about BW and DO . . . !)

Speaking of parties . . . ! What a great party PROCAN throws . . . and this year was the best. I noticed lots of smiles on the faces of the CAPAC people who were invited to this black-tie evening. The party is a plus factor for the intended merge of the two performing rights organizations. The food was exceptional, and it gave a solid base for liquor intake . . . but I went home in a cab anyway. (EC: There will be a lot of disappointed people if they cancel the awards dinner . . . !)

Has WEA gone country . . . ? Has WEA gone COUNTRY . . . holy cow . . . have they gone country. The whole gang from across the country was in Toronto for their annual meeting and took over Graceland for a country blowout. They were two-stepping and clogging . . . I think that's what Garry Newman was doing . . . and most of them were pretty well behaved. I still couldn't figure out what that guy in the white hat had in his back pocket . . . it was pretty large whatever it was. (EC: Garry Newman doing the clogg . . . I don't believe it!!)

The bottom line . . . ! Rumour has it that a certain bottom line may be reaching the bottom. (EC: 'Nuff said!) Yep!

COVER STORY by Karen Bliss

The sky's the limit for revitalized Escape Club

A first record deal for any band is perhaps the most exciting point in their career. But when the reality of the business sets in, it can be quite disheartening. Some bands are given a few chances, and of course, many are not. For ex-patriot EMI artists The Escape Club, whose debut Atlantic album, Wild Wild West, has just been released, this is their second-coming so to speak.

According to guitarist John Holliday, who recently dropped into the RPM offices, it wasn't until they actually signed with EMI five years ago that their career came to a standstill. Together only a few short months, a bustle of interest had been created in the London music scene spearheaded by their only independent single (about the third song they had written together at the time), and their fourth gig, a live television appearance on The Tube.

EMI caught The Tube broadcast and signed the band, including Holliday, lead vocalist Trevor Steel, bassist Johnnie Christo, and drummer Milan Zekavica. They recorded the White Fields album, but the label, reportedly did little to work the record. Poor management (a friend) was also a fundamental reason for the Escape Club's initial failure. Ironing out the legal hassles with EMI, they were offered other deals before signing with "the most enthusiastic" company, Atlantic.

Only now, with a new and promising record deal in hand (even this promotion tour reinforces the big plans and belief that Atlantic has in the band) can Holliday philosophize about their first experience with a label.

"I think they wanted to hear something more of a single. The usual kind of thing. But we were an unusual kind of band for EMI to sign anyway because we were a little bit more left-field."

Musically, he says, they were once a dark politically-motivated band, a far-cry from today's funk/rock sound and lyrics complete with a rhythmic quality of their own.

"When EMI signed us . . . I think they signed us as their U2. When we made the album the problem was we believed in what we were writing, but it didn't reflect us or the band's personality. So we were doing gigs and were kind of like The Rolling Stones playing all this quite dark music, when in England bands like that normally play with their back to the audience.

"We decided we wanted to change and do something different on the next album and EMI weren't really keen on it. They were going to put it out but I think they were totally confused because they thought we were going to make an album like the last album."

As producer of Wild Wild West, Chris Kimsey (knob-turner for The Stones, the late Peter Tosh, Frampton and The Cult among others), took a minimal role towards reworking the songs, says Holliday.

"Chris is very good at capturing, to turn it into a record rather than over-producing it. I don't think it's over-produced at all. In fact that's one of my pet hates . . . over-produced records."

The changes, Holliday emphasizes, did not come about in the studio but beforehand,

CBS launches WTG label with base in Los Angeles

Jerry Greenberg has been named Senior Vice President and General Manager of WTG Records, a U.S. West Coast label, one of six under the CBS Records Division, the domestic arm of CBS Records Inc. The others are Columbia, Epic, Portrait, CBS Associated and Masterworks. WTG is the only one of these to be headquartered on the West Coast.

Greenberg, in 1974 at the age of 31, was named President of Atlantic Records, the youngest president ever of a major U.S. recording corporation. He was responsible for the signing of Abba, The Spinners, Blues Bros, Firefall, Chic, Genesis and Foreigner. He resigned his presidency in 1980 and, along with his brother Bob, founded the Atlantic distributed Mirage label, which signed and started the careers of Whitesnake, The System, Brenda K. Starr, Shannon and others. In 1986 he became president of United Artists and was subsequently named president of the music division of MGM/UA, and was most recently president of Atco Records where he signed the female rap trio J.J. Fad, as well as Sweet Sensation and Escape Club.

with the benefit of laying down tracks in demo-form at home.

"On the first album we had written everything in rehearsal. It was written around a feel with a few chords on a feel, and we would write the song around it. With this album we had a 4-track studio and a drum machine. Having a drum machine meant I had a bit more time at home to experiment with the kinds of feels of the songs because in the past I always felt we had been a bit weak in the feel of the songs. And I learned a bit more how to make a song sound good as well as feel good.

"I think this material reflects our personalities. Therefore, it can't get more honest. It's just the way we are. When we wrote this album it was really a case of writing an album that we would like to listen to ourselves on the radio. We didn't listen to what everyone else told us. 'The next album will be exactly the same . . . it will have the same attitude'."

They've already started writing for the next album. "The problems a lot of bands have is that it takes them five years to write their first album and two weeks to write their second, and that's why they flop, they don't give themselves enough time," concludes Holliday.

Midi's Okura to Canada for Red Collar Boy talks

Hiroshi Okura, President of Midi Records, a Japan-based label which now has an international agreement with Virgin Records E.C.C., will be in Toronto shortly to meet with David (Cec) Thomson to discuss a major international deal with respect to Red Collar Boy, a Toronto band, comprising Jeff Gries (lead vocals, guitar), Patrick Corbett (bass), Allan Beardsell (vocals, lead guitar), and Max Payne (drums).

Okura is also personal manager to Ryuichi Sakamoto, a renowned Japanese artist, who has worked with several international superstars including David Bowie, Brian Eno, Robert Fripp and David Byrne to name a few. Okura will be in Toronto for approximately one week to "explore in depth the developing of a strong working relationship with Cec Fire Productions and Red Collar Boy," Thomson points out.

Okura will be joined in Canada by his associate Ju-Ichi Kohno, well-known Japanese jazz publisher and president of Pan Music, a Tokyo-based jazz label.

CKEC celebrating 35th year

This December 23, CKEC New Glasgow, Nova Scotia will celebrate its 35th year of broadcasting and Program Director Rod Mackey is asking former employees of the station to send taped messages to help celebrate the event. "It's also a red letter year," adds Mackey, "since a new 25 thousand watt transmitter will be going on air." Mackey can be reached at 902-752-4200.

CRTC rules Foster track qualifies as Cancon

The Stealing Home soundtrack, produced by David Foster, which features the single And When She Danced (a duet with Marilyn Martin) plus tracks by The Four Seasons, The Nylons, The Everly Brothers, Jerry Lee Lewis, The Shirelles and Bo Diddley, will get an added boost at radio and retail with news of a recent CRTC decision allowing the Foster single to be considered Cancon. Previously, although the music was written by Foster, the artist involved was a split and thus did not qualify. This has now apparently been changed.

With the decision by the commission favouring WEA's request, the label is expecting an even greater response at radio. "We're getting a lot of A/C airplay now, but we're going to get a lot more now that it's Cancon," admits Kim Cooke, the label's product manager.

The movie stars Mark Harmon and Jody Foster and has been receiving rave reviews across the country. With the latest CRTC decree, the album response is expected to be felt immediately at retail.

CBC Ontario appointment for Bishop

In our Sept 17th issue on Magic 97 (CKWM-FM) sheds CBC shadow, we mentioned that Len Hawley and Roddie Reeves were graduates from the Kingston Radio and Television Broadcasting course, when in fact they are graduates of the Radio and Television Broadcasting Program at Kingstec Community College located in Kentville. Instructor Mr. G.R. MacDermott brought this to our attention.

Other mere qualifiers received the official tour T-shirt or a pair of Reebok running shoes, but Windsor resident Mike Huggard won the grand prize: a pair of tickets to the show, two nights accommodation in Toronto, airfare, limousine transportation and spending money as well.

Reel Radio Music offers A/C service

Delivered in full track mono on 10½ inch reels, Reel Radio Music will introduce an Adult Contemporary music service for Canadian AM radio stations at the CAB/WABE Convention this November. "What makes the service unique," explains RRM's Marketing Director Bentley Beck, "is that all gold and current reels have 30 percent Canadian content built in."

Reel Radio Music has actually emerged as an in-house service for parent company Fawcett Broadcasting in Northern Ontario with stations in Fort Frances, Kenora and Dryden. FBL President Don Fawcett points out that the service grew out of a need to get control over the music. "High staff turnover can lend itself to mishmash programming," he adds. "That's not a problem for us anymore."

Jamaica benefits from CFRB fundraiser

Toronto's CFRB was quick to organize a fundraiser for the victims of Hurricane Gilbert this past month, in particular those in Jamaica, who benefitted from a 31-hour drive to generate support in the wake of the devastating storm. The station suspended regularly scheduled programming and raised over $400,000 in the process. Newsman John Stall was in Jamaica and reported live on the hour, giving details of the rescue work.

Standard's Sound Source zeroes in on market

Sound Source, Standard Broadcasting's new radio network division, established in January of this year, is being recognized as "a new breed of syndicator," boasts Jean-Marie Heimrath, Director of Marketing for the Toronto-based firm. He goes on to point out that Sound Source "integrates syndicated radio programming with marketing and promotional concepts that cut through the noise and effectively motivate the consumer," continuing with "Each of Sound Source's top-notch programs delivers precise target audience that is highly disposed to purchasing products or services."

Radio stations and advertisers are the principal clients of Sound Source, and as Heimrath explains, "Radio stations choose the programs that are relevant to the interests of their audience, while advertisers need to be associated with programs that complement or enhance their image." He goes on to point out that both these target groups "want a unified, thematic and exciting marketing concept for their products or services," concluding with "Every Sound Source vehicle is topical and on the leading edge of today's trends, whether it is a music/entertainment program or an entertainment/lifestyle feature."

Ten new programs were tabled for the 1988-89 season, four of which are already active: Report On Business, Entertainment Week, Entertainment Today, and Command Performance. Set for an October release are Don Cherry, Countdown Canada, and Dr. Peter Hanson, to be followed in November by Primetime, and Marina Sturdza, and in January of next year by Owl Radio.

Some programs for the syndicator are produced in-house while others are joint ventures. As well, Sound Source acquires marketing rights to programs produced by independents.

Schwartz honoured with Harold Moon Award

Once again the Performing Rights Organization of Canada (PROCAN) staged a glitzy pageant acknowledging the success of their member composers and writers. This was the 20th year for these prestigious awards, a social evening that packs the house with the formally-attired movers and shakers of the music industry. The setting was Toronto's Four Seasons Hotel, and the awards presentations, emceed by City-TV's Denise Conlon, was well-paced, as PROCAN's 29 composers and 16 music publishers received their awards.

The Wm. Harold Moon Award was presented to Eddie Schwartz, one of Canada's most successful songwriters, in recognition of his international achievements. Previous winners were Burton Cummings, Leonard Cohen, Bryan Adams, Jim Vallance, Bruce Cockburn, Hagood Hardy and Frank Mills. Hardy, Mills and Vallance were in the audience this year as well.

Over the past six years Schwartz has earned performance royalties from 22 foreign countries and his work has been recorded by approximately 100 artists, including Donna Summer, Peter Frampton, Eddie Money, The Pointer Sisters and Greg Lake of Emerson, Lake and Palmer. His most successful song was Hit Me With Your Best Shot, recorded by Pat Benatar, which has sold 10 million copies worldwide since its release ten years ago. He is now in the league of the most sought-after record producers in Canada, and just recently completed work on the new Doobie Brothers album. Schwartz was also actively involved in supporting the revised copyright legislation in Canada.

In other special awards, the PROCAN Film Award went to Toronto's Eric Robertson; the Concert Music Award to Montreal composer Jacques Hetu; and the Jazz Music Award was taken by Windsor saxophonist/composer Leslie Sabina.

Leonard Cohen and his publishing company, Stranger Music won awards for three hits recorded by Jennifer Warnes: Ain't No Cure For Love, First We Take Manhattan and Bird On The Wire. Vancouver's Jim Vallance picked up his 18th PROCAN songwriting award since his first in 1978 for his contribution to Glass Tiger's Someday. Also from the West Coast, Paul Hyde of (Bob) Rock & Hyde picked up an award for Dirty Water.

The Box, a Montreal band was on hand to receive their award for Closer Together and Ottawa's Eight Seconds received awards for Kiss You When It's Dangerous.

Honours also went to Rita MacNeil for her hit Flying On Your Own the title track from her first album; Bruce Cockburn for Waiting For A Miracle; and Joey Gregorash, Norman Lampe and Brian McMillan of Winnipeg, for Together.

Awards for French-language compositions went to the authors of three songs: Chats sauvages, performed by Marjo and written by Jean Millaire and Marjolene Morin (Marjo); Incognito, performed by Celine Dion and co-written by Jean-Alain Roussel; and On traverse un miroir, also performed by Dion, and co-written by Robert Lafond.

In the country field, Gilles Godard picked up an award for No Holiday In L.A., performed by Ronnie Prophet, which Godard co-wrote; Terry Carisse received an award for Old Photographs which he co-wrote with the late Bruce Rawlins; and Colleen Peterson and Cyril Rawson won an award for What A Fool I'd Be, which they both wrote.

Patrick Raymond Leonard of Los Angeles was honoured for his part in writing PROCAN's most-performed foreign song in 1987, La Isla Bonita, recorded by Madonna for Warner Bros.

Music publishers honoured included A&M's Irving Music, Attic's Abovewater Publishing, Polygram Songs, and BMG's Dunbar Music Canada.

Surprise guest of the evening was Roger Whittaker, who attended the awards with his wife Natalie. The Tembo recording star is in Toronto working on an album session with Eric Robertson.

The Band to be inducted into Juno Hall of Fame

The Canadian Academy of Recording Arts And Sciences (CARAS) has announced that The Band will be inducted into the Juno Hall of Fame. The induction will take place at the next Juno Awards presentation at Toronto's O'Keefe Centre on March 12th, 1989.

The Band was formed by Ronnie Hawkins as his back-up band, The Hawks, in 1960. They teamed with Bob Dylan in 1968 to tour the U.S. Australia, the U.K. and Europe, and the Dylan/Band connection became successful, particularly for Robbie Robertson, who Dylan asked to guest on his Blonde On Blonde album, appearing on the Obviously Five Believers track.

In 1967 the band moved to Woodstock, New York, followed that next year by the musical event of the century, Woodstock, at which time The Hawks became The Band, releasing their debut album, Music From The Big Pink, which contained the first officially released version of Dylan's I Shall Be Released. It was in 1969 when they released their self-titled album. This Capitol album earned them gold in the U.S. and eventually sold one million copies. The album peaked at No. 2 on the RPM 100, in the December 20th 1969 issue of RPM, right behind the Beatles' Abbey Road, and just in front of Led Zeppelin II, an exceptional accomplishment for a Canadian band, considering there were no Canon requirements for radio at that time.

Several album releases followed before the band disbanded in 1976 after their final concert. The Last Waltz, was performed in San Francisco and filmed for history as the end of their 16 years together. Ronnie Hawkins was one of the honoured guests at that finale.

"The Academy is delighted to announce the selection of The Band as this year's Juno Hall of Fame winner," stated Peter Steinmetz, President of CARAS. "In its day, The Band accomplished many unique musical and performance achievements, reaching an unparalleled level of international stardom that made Canadians everywhere proud to call them their own. Few Canadian artists have had so great an impact on the international marketplace and the Academy is proud to recognize The Band's extraordinary lifetime achievements." Robbie Robertson has apparently agreed to appear during the induction ceremonies.

Vinyl shipments for all configurations for the month of August, as reported by the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA) are down drastically over the same time period last year. Shipments of 7" singles were tagged at 406,000 for the month, as opposed to 493,000 last year, a decrease of 7 percent, showing Year to Date sales of $4,119.00 down from last year's $4,619.00, a decrease of 11 percent. Vinyl album shipments for this August came in at 561,000, down from 942,000 last August, a decrease of 40 percent, showing a Year to Date net value of sales at $30,078,000, a whopping decrease of 32 percent. Ironically, the 12" single, although showing a 21 percent decrease in shipments (34,000 this August as opposed to 43,000 last August) came up with a 1 percent increase in Year to Date net value of sales ($1,258.00 compared to $1,248.00 last year).

Net shipments and sales of both cassettes and CDs indicate comfortable increases over last year. Cassette shipments for the month of August are listed at 3,387,00 up from 2,300,00 last August, an increase of 47 percent with a Year to Date increase of 6 percent. Net value of sales for that same time period is up 44 percent ($18,151.00 compared to $12,618,750 last August) with a Year to Date net value of sales pegged at $103,869.00, up from $90,682,500, last year, an increase of 15 percent.

Compact discs show net shipments for the month of August at 643,000, up from 493,000 last year, an increase of 30 percent with a 42 percent increase on the Year to Date shipments. This works out to a 22 percent increase in dollar sales for the month ($8,257,000 as compared to $6,752,000 last August), and a 28 percent Year to Date tally ($65,084,000 up from $50,715,000 for the same time period last year).

The net value of sales for the year, are up 7 percent.

COUNTRY

Warner tops RPM's Country 100

Steve Warner's MCA single, I Should Be With You, moves into the No. 1 position on the chart this week, after 14 weeks of charting. The single is the title track from his album. Warner is playing Toronto's Massey Hall (Oct 21) as opener for Reba McEntire. Restless Heart is new this week with A Tender Lie, along with J.C. Crawley's Boxcar 109, Wilf Carter's What Ever Happened To All Those Years, T.G. Sheppard's Don't Say It With Diamonds, Waylon Jennings' How Much Is It Worth To Live In L.A., Janie Frickie's Heart, Colleen Severson's Just A Broken Heart, That Old Wheel by Johnny Cash with Hank Williams Jr., and Jerry Paquette's The Old Folksingers Home.

Jennie to record Ray St. Germain

Ross Allen sends news that his Jennie label will be recording Winnipeg's Ray St. Germain over the next few weeks. In the meantime, Jennie is still looking good with Half A Heart by Sherisse Laurence, which is holding its own at No. 31 this week.

CJCJ still at 50 percent country

Charlie Russell reminds us that CJCJ Woodstock is still playing 50 percent country, and he's always interested in hearing from new Cancon artists. Charlie is now the head honcho at the Woodstock, New Brunswick station (RPM - Aug 6/88).

Donna Dunlop single shipped

Donna Dunlop's latest single, A Boy Like You, a Dunlop original, has been released on the Toronto-based Northern Dancer Music label. The single was produced by Ron Dann and qualifies as four-parts Cancon. Dunlop has been involved with country recording since 1985 when she released The Texas Moon, followed the next year by Louisiana Sky, and in 1987 by I'll Always Be A Cowgirl. She has appeared on the Tommy Hunter Show as well as Walter Ostenak's Polka Time (CKCO-TV), where she continues to guest.

Roto Noto records Jenny Lee West

Hamilton, Ontario-based Roto Noto Records continues its search and find policy with U.S.

New board members elected to CCMA

The Canadian Country Music Association (CCMA) has announced the election of new board members. They are Paul Mascioli, who is President of Vancouver's Prestige Entertainment Agencies, elected President; Harvey Gold, President of Western World Communications, Saskatoon, elected 1st Vice President; Nancy Gyokeres, Director of Public Relations for PROCAN, elected Secretary Treasurer; and Dave Charles, President of Joint Communications, elected board member at large.

Beginning their second term as Directors are Terry O'Reilly of Winnipeg's Morris Theatrical Agencies (2nd Vice President); Ron Sollefeld, BMG Music Publishing, New York; Bill Maxim, Magnum Music of Edmonton (Director & Past President); and Barry Brown of Ottawa's The Family Brown.

artists, and this week released a single by Jenny Lee West. The single, Hangin' By A Thread, was written by Stephen Younger of Richmond, B.C. Roto Noto's Randall Cousins describes the release as a "being-left-at-home-without-much-more-than-a-promise type song." Produced by Jim Shaw, the single was recorded at Maximus Studios in Fresno, California. The players on the session included Terry Christofferson, John Harrell, Jim McCarty, Doyle Singer and producer Shaw. The single qualifies as two-parts Cancon (ML).

Roto Noto touting BHB

Randall Cousins is currently touting the latest Beverly's Hillybilly Band's single, Undercover Lovers and Mister Would You, released on his Roto Noto label. The band is based in Connecticut. The single doesn't qualify as Cancon, but Cousins is using it to plug his sub-publishing deal between his own Alleged Iguana Music and Blue Hill Music. The deal was struck for three years and includes Canada as well as the U.K. where Roto Noto has established a high profile with country product. BHB have recorded material by some of the top songwriter/performers in country music including Mickey Gilley, Johnny Lee, Charly McLain, Ronnie Milsap, Dolly Parton and Paul Hotchkiss. It was the latter who wrote Straight To Your Heart, a single released by the Mercey Brothers that became a Top 10 item for the band in Canada. Blue Hill has quite a lineup of writers and Cousins will be patching into this talent for material to be recorded by Harrison Kennedy and Bobby McGee over the next year.

CFQM's morning personality, Ernie Steeves, makes an unusual entrance on Jumbo as Guest Ring Master at the Moncton Shrine Circus, an event presented by CKCW and CFQM.

Irving Heisler, President of Discus, recently announced that "In conjunction with the Amnesty International concert of Sept 17, 1988, and the Sept 15 official opening of Discus' new mega store, Discus will donate that store's first weekend profits to the Amnesty International Organization. The store is located on St. Catherine Street West in Montreal.

A special reception was held (Sept 14) at the new Discus location with members of the media, the music industry and Amnesty International as invited guests. As Heisler explains, "The Discus mega store is unique in North America . . . an almost discotheque-like atmosphere, complete with disc jockey, light shows and state-of-the-art decor."

Altman takes over Morning Music Group

Mark Altman, Executive Vice President/General Manager and a minority shareholder in the Morning Music Publishing Group, has concluded an agreement to acquire all the outstanding shares in the corporation from Stompin' Tom Limited. Morning Music owns copyrights by many Canadian composers including works by Eddie Eastman, Rita MacNeil, Kelita, the Emeralds and Roy Payne, and also administers companies owned by other Canadians such as Stompin' Tom Connors and Ian Tyson.

The purchase also includes the group's Nashville-based corporation, partnerships with the Canadian Brass, Graham Townsend and several sub-publishing agreements with foreign publishers representing all music formats.

Altman was one of the three founders of Morning Music Limited in 1971, along with Tom Connors and Jury Krytiuk. The latter left the company in 1986.
