Dianne Leigh head tabled at Variety Club Luncheon

One of the highlights of the Variety Club Salute to the Big Country Awards (May 6) at Toronto's Inn On The Park, was the participation of country recording veteran Dianne Leigh as a head table guest. Now living in Peterborough, Leigh is no longer involved in the recording business.

Leigh was the first recipient of an actual Juno Award in 1970, when she was presented with the Top Female Country Singer of The Year award at Toronto's St. Lawrence Hall. Making the presentation was George Offer, who was General Manager of Apex Records. Actually, Leigh's first win in the Female Country Singer category was in 1965 when she recorded for Capitol Records. She won again in 1966, 1967, 1968 and in 1969. However, it was in 1970 when the first physical Juno Awards were presented. During the latter years of her recording career, Leigh recorded for Quality Records.

NMS IX set to discuss Canadian marketplace

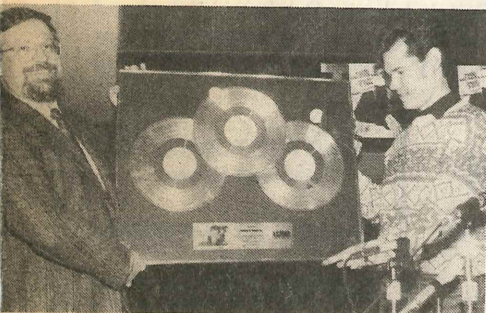

Currently the largest event of its kind in North America and expected to attract over 7,000 industry participants, this year the ninth annual New Music Seminar (New York, July 16-20), will not only feature keynote speaker Paul McGuinness, the manager of U2, and its usual variety of talent showcases, but several discussion panels have also been organized and, among the many topics slated, the Canadian market will be addressed in detail.

"We've been basically doing this off our own backs," says Intrepid Records' Graham Staris, while explaining the panel's origins. "Over the past couple of years, as the seminar itself has grown, we've been fighting for a higher Canadian profile there. Now we're getting a certain amount of credibility and it's starting to pay off."

Intrepid, an independent record company distributed in Canada by Capitol, plans to highlight and expose many Canadian acts during the convention, primarily through a compilation package available on compact disc, and perhaps with the assistance of the Canadian consular offices in New York.

"They're very eager to get involved," Staris elaborates, "and we're hoping they'll either hold a reception for the Canadian delegates and their clients, or rent a club, so there'll be a playback for the compilation." Once again though, competition for space is intense, as New York Nights: The International Music Festival will offer 13 major showcases, representing over 300 artists, in conjunction with the seminar.

Although the panelists haven't been finalized yet, each area of the Canadian music industry should be represented, he concludes. "The basic idea is to give insight to the international industry of what goes on up here, so there'll be people from all the different aspects; someone from one of the major labels, managers from some of the groups, somebody from radio, somebody from publishing . . ."

WEA Canada's Vice President of Sales Garry Newman presents Randy Travis with triple platinum for his Always And Forever LP. "the best selling country album in the history of WEA Canada. It was Randy Travis Day in Toronto (Apr. 15/88) as he performed for the Metro Toronto Policemen's Association benefit.

FACTOR announces new board members

FACTOR (The Foundation to Assist Canadian Talent on Records) has announced the appointment of three new members to the Board of Directors.

They are: Bill Kearns (President of Jobina Communications), appointed to the board by the Canadian Music Publishers Association; Peter Parrish, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Sounds In-sight; and Steve Prendergast, President of Head Office Management and Record Productions, who is also manager of Honey-moon Suite and Brighton Rock.

These new members join the following broadcasters and music industry professionals on the board: Duff Roman (President), Vice President, Industry Affairs CHUM Group Radio; Andrew Hermant (Vice President), CIRPA Appointee, President, Duke Street Records; Ann Graham (Treasurer), Manager, Government and Personnel Relations, Rogers Broadcasting; Jason Sniderman (Secretary), Vice President Roblan Distributing; Steve Harris, President, KEY Radio; Roy Hennessy, Vice President and General Manager CISS-AM and CHFM-FM; and Alexander Mair, CIRPA Appointee, President, Attic Records.

Westwood One Canada has new Pritchard Special

Westwood One Canada will have up to 30 radio stations across Canada patched into their new special from David Pritchard, titled The Yorkville Era: Canadian Rock To The World. The special, which airs Victoria Day weekend (May 21-23), was produced at Pritchard's Sonic Workshop, and features new interviews from artists of the Yorkville period. The three-hour special is hosted by Q107 Music Director Andy Frost.

Pritchard, well known for his documentaries on both the Beatles and Rolling Stones, stressed that this production isn't just focussing on Toronto acts that played in Yorkville, but includes many of Canada's top recording names from that period, most of whom played in Yorkville during their careers.

Pritchard also revealed that Terry Black, known for his 1964-5 hits Unless You Care and Only Sixteen, helped out in the writing and research of the documentary.

"It was a period that developed many of our best known artists," Pritchard told RPM. "It was a very rich period, and we in Canada should be very proud of all these dedicated artists who started it all." The special will bring attention once more on David Clayton Thomas, Neil Young, Joni Mitchell, Steppenwolf, The Guess Who, The Stampeders, The Big Town Boys, Ocean, The Mandala, Levon Helm, A Foot In Col-dwater, Richie Knight, Gordon Lightfoot, Once again Capitol Records-EMI Canada welcomes Luba to their head office to present her with another award, this time she picked up a gold single award for When A Man Loves A Woman, and a gold CD award for her Over 60 Minutes With Luba (l to r) Peter Marunzak (drummer, Luba, and Capitol's Richard Lyttelton.

Five FM tracks used in Friday 13th Part 7

Peter Ashworth of CMG reports that five tracks from the FM Tonight LP, are being used in the Friday the 13th Part 7 movie. Interestingly, the movie opened Friday May 13, across Canada.

The FM album, released on the Duke Street label, has enjoyed 26 weeks of action on the RPM 100.

Jack London, The Last Words, Mandala, Crowbar, Ian & Sylvia, Chilliwack, The Kensington Market and many more.

"I asked Westwood One, what they thought about a special on the Yorkville era," continues Pritchard, "and they liked the idea."

There has been considerable interest from the U.S. says Pritchard, who believes there would be no problem selling the special there. "Americans are much more open than we are," he emphasizes. "We seem to have quite a disregard about our musical history. The quality of playing in Toronto was much superior to the Americans because it was much more competitive in Canada."

"I didn't talk to one act who displayed any bitterness," Pritchard continues. "Most of them still perform, or are involved somehow with the music business."

Pritchard, who is owner and president of Sonic Workshop, points out there are "some great interviews and stories," in the special, including one about a Toronto band and their song written by a band member. Apparently no one wanted to release the song, and it went on to become a "very big hit". Listeners can also expect to hear some unreleased material and different versions.

The show is available on a market exclusive barter basis.

Neil Young fans bring "hero" back onto charts

Bill Johnston, Warner Bros Product Manager for WEA Music Canada, reports "extremely good" response to the new Neil Young and The Bluenotes LP, This Note's For You. The release represents Young's return to the Reprise label.

"This is the best reaction we've had in several years, for Neil," says Johnston. "We anticipate this to be his biggest seller in quite a few years. It all looks thumbs up at this point."

The response has been positive from both fans and the critics, and Johnston believes there's a renaissance or revival of sorts, especially with long-time Canadian names. He points to the examples of Robbie Robertson, whose self-titled LP is now over the platinum mark, as well as Joni Mitchell's new album, and even the release from James Taylor.

Johnston describes Young's new venture as a "bluesy, rootsy combination of rock and blues." The Reprise label itself has described the LP as "a hybrid of crunching power chords, hard bop, stax-fueled horns and high voltage soul."

Produced by Young and Niko Bolas, under the production title of The Volume

Dealers, the album was the highest debuting in the Apr. 30th issue of the RPM 100. Ten Men Workin' is being issued as the first single from the album.

Recorded at various studios in California, this is Young's first Reprise LP in six years. He recorded his debut for Reprise, and his first solo album, titled Everybody Knows This Is Nowhere, in 1969, and it was issued in 1970. His last LP for the label was Re-ac-tor.

Young most recently recorded for Geffen, his last album for this label being Life, which was released in June of 1987. A live project, it marked Young's reunion with his old band, Crazy Horse.

In addition to the East Los Angeles musicians, who contributed to the new LP were keyboardist Frank Sampedro and saxophonist Ben Keith, both of whom worked with Young since his Harvest album.

WEA surprise to Roblan - a new Aussie band

One of the highlights at the recent Roblan/Sam The Record Man national meeting (Apr. 22/88) was an unusual presentation by WEA Music.

As part of their new product presentation, WEA brought along Weddings, Parties, Anything, an Australian band, whose first Canadian release is due late May. The band performed three songs for the gathering and then met with managers and Roblan staff.

The band is currently touring Canada in support of their album, Roaring Days.

Quebec artists unite for special fundraiser

Displaying a musical unity quite rare these days at a recent Montreal concert, under the banner A Show of Concern (Un Moment de Manifestation) that sold out Le Spectrum and raised $30,000 for the Montreal Children's Hospital in the process, Alert Music president and organizer Marc Durand says the participating artists' friendship that night is what the music business lacks today.

"We always hear of musicians talking against each other, and I think the Montreal concert proves a lot of things wrong. It sounded good . . . a great performance . . . a good build-up. No technical problems. It just went very smoothly and it was a big thing with television and radio involved, and it was a success."

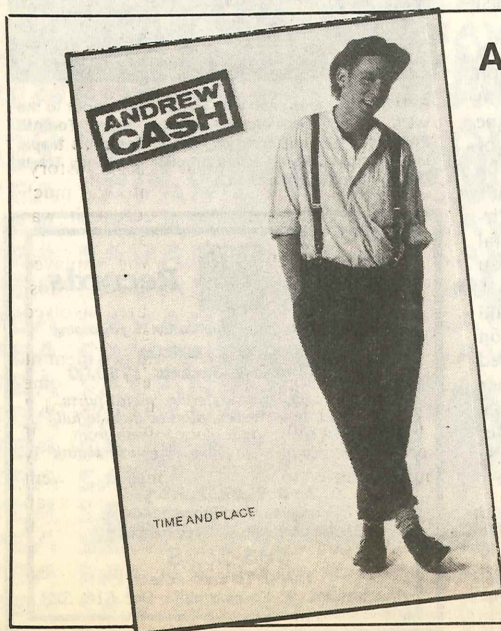

The fundraiser, which was broadcast live by CHOM and taped by the MusiquePlus and MuchMusic crews, featured many of Alert's own artists, including Bundock, Jean Marc of The Box and Michael Breen, as well as Michel Pagliaro, Martine St. Clair and Michel Lemieux, among others.

"It was the same pattern as the Prince's Trust," Durand explains. "It was a two-part show. The first part was Bundock playing with guests and the second part was Michel Pagliaro and his guests. Then the big finale, Closer Together, with 23 people on stage and everybody loved it; the musicians came off the stage pretty high. It was a very good experience."

Bundock, whose latest single, Time For Time, according to Durand, was the most requested song at CHOM this past weekend ("above the new Plant and Sinead O'Connor," he adds), will soon embark on the next leg of their tour which will take the band into several Ontario markets, including Toronto's Diamond (May 30), though the Band has yet to break in any other market.

"It takes time to break a band," Durand concludes, "Overnight successes happen, it certainly did with Men Without Hats, but I don't think it's the best route. You don't know what you're dealing with and you don't appreciate the success . . . it happens too fast and you don't want to work for it after that."

ANDREW CASH: The right time and place

Andrew Cash has long been one of Toronto's favourite acts, but it's taken his hot new album on Island, TIME AND PLACE, to put him on the radio across the country . . . just check this week's charts.

Andrew Cash, like thousands of other songwriters, is a long-time member of CAPAC, Canada's senior performing rights society.

WALT SAYS

Play it again... Sam!!!

The CRTC regulations regarding the repetition of hits is becoming a hot potato for the Commission, as people, who are outside the industry are asking what right the Commission has to dictate what a radio station should play... or how often. I'm personally opposed to any unnecessary regulations that give broadcasters the argument they're over-regulated. How about looking at this one again... now, as opposed to looking at it and changing it later! (EC: Who says the CRTC has a closed mind to changes?)

Standing up and being counted...!!

Someone told me that many of the important people in the country music industry won't be at the Big Country Awards! (EC: Now, how important can they be if they aren't there??)

Three Days In March...!!

Things are rolling around toward a very big event in the industry when RPM celebrates our Silver Anniversary - 25 years of publication - in March of 1989. This promises to be one of the biggest weekends in the history of the industry as people from all over Canada will gather in Toronto for some unbelievable events. (EC: I've waited 25 years for this one!!)

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

It's not a good cause...??

Be prepared NOT to see one of Toronto's dailies at the Variety Club Luncheon saluting Canada's country artists. We've been informed by a very reliable source that a particularly narrow minded, "navel gazing" scribe, when invited, didn't think it was a good cause. Meanwhile the other dailies, radio, TV and other media seem to be putting their support behind Variety. (EC: On the other hand, I'm on record as feeling that this daily produced a pretty poor excuse for an "Entertainment/Classified" section!)

What you've been waiting for...!!

RPM will soon publish a list of all the Canadian that reached the Top 40 in RPM from January 1977 onwards. That is where the Chartology leaves off to those stations using it. To stations who don't... can I recommend a good hotel in Ottawa!!

There goes the entertainment business!

With all the R.I.D.E. programs going on, guess who's going to suffer most? The club performers, and in some cases those acts playing large arenas. With the emphasis on NO drinking and driving... there are a lot of people who just won't take the chance anymore and would rather stay at home, which has club owners complaining. Some of the arenas around the country where acts could draw upwards of 2,000 are now only pulling crowds of around 500.

Oh ho... the FAX slips up...!!

There weren't any promo people coming in over the FAX this week, but I did receive something that should have had a "Not For

CKFM in forefront of Toronto fundraising

Since its inception in 1977, the CKFM "Children's Fund" has raised over two million dollars for Toronto's Children's Hospital. The station has also committed one million dollars to the hospital's Building Fund. To date, $400,000 has been donated, with an additional $200,000 just this past week (May 5/88).

On May 5th at 12 noon, CKFM held its first ever barbecue and cheque presentation ceremony at Nathan Phillips Square, and at the same time made impressive cheque presentations. A cheque in the amount of $533,779.69, representing funds raised by CKFM listeners during the 1987 Children's Fund campaign, was presented to Claus Wirsig, President of the Children's Hospital Foundation. Drive-home personality Dan Williamson made the presentation.

As well, Toronto's Ronald McDonald House received a cheque for $56,403.42 on behalf of the 2,000 oldies fans who attended the 8th annual CKFM Lookin' Back Dance held last March. John Donabie made the presentation to the President of the House, Colin Lipson. Interestingly enough, over the past eight years, CKFM has raised in excess of $500,000 for Ronald McDonald House.

The noon hour activity was further heightened by six barbecues set up in the Square, manned by CKFM personalities and staff, serving complimentary Shopsy's hot-dogs and Coca Cola.

Your Eyes" sticker. It was so embarrassing I couldn't even phone the record company, but I did squirrel it away in my cookie jar. (EC: I'll bet you've just added a couple of pages in your book as well...!!)

La cucaracha or is it cockroach!!

What was that short fat stranger sporting a long drooping mustache and a brightly coloured sombrero... doing in town last week? He says he's got a line on some hot records! (EC: and he means... hot!!)

A star is born...!!

Anyone who saw the SUNshine Boy in the April 17th issue of the Toronto Sun would recognize Dale Kotyk, who from time to time writes for RPM. The rest of the time, he's Activities Director of a cruise ship, and an entertainer. Only when you see him on stage, do you realize that he's a star in the making. (EC: A star is born...!!)

Question of survival...??

Although there is still some resistance, there is a good chance there'll be an announcement that a certain record company may move closer to where the action is and take part in some of the REAL action. (EC: Before it's too late!) It was nice while it lasted... living in a void... now it's time to "get down to business".

COVER STORY - by Graeme Boyce

Latest Suite album should take band over the top

Quickly eclipsing their humble "homegrown" beginnings, in five short years, Honeymoon Suite have experienced a musical career which most Canadian bands can only dream about: a committed U.S. label, competent management, support tours, soundtrack work and, of course, hit singles, and now their latest album, produced by studio veteran Ted Templeman.

Apparently Templeman has had more gold and platinum records placed on his office walls than the Suite's lead vocalist Johnnie Dee has had hot dinners. A gold record stateside is something the quintet want, need and desire, yet it's indeed something they realize can't be bought; just like respect, it must be earned.

The Big Prize, suggests Dee, was perhaps too polished, so this time around, the band spent more time in the studio writing their new songs than recording them. Though one aspect clearly different with Racing After Midnight is the greater emphasis placed on the guitar, a change in direction feasibly allowed with the departure of keyboardist Ray Coburn last year.

Rob Preuss, formerly of The Spoons, joined the band shortly after and made significant contributions to the writing, says Dee. "He's a great keyboard player in the sense that he's not like every other keyboard player who always tries to do too much," Dee informs. "Rob knows his position and fits in great. He's like 'less is more' and that attitude is really important to us.

"We're a rock 'n' roll band, and the usual keyboard players always want to put a lot of keyboard parts into the record, but he knew where to back off and he knew where to add in."

Even though both Coburn and Dee are still good friends, it's obvious the band's career is going to take precedence over such artistic differences the various bandmembers may have. These limits were tested severely during the support tours of their last album, while opening concerts for Heart, ZZ Top, 38 Special, Ted Nugent and Journey across the U.S.

"I think we made a mistake," continues Dee. "The last time around, we spent too much time in America, I mean . . . America is really important, but Canada is home . . . we toured for the whole year, and it was ridiculous: every day and every night. I'm hoping that we won't do all that touring again, but we probably will.

"I'm talking from a personal level," he elaborates. "The touring just got too heavy. It was just touring and touring and touring, and touring. It was worth it, but after a while, it gets to you. It drives you nuts. It's your career . . . yes, and you devote one hundred percent to it . . . but you still have to have a little time to yourself."

However, with Templeman producing, and their first single, which Dee adds isn't their best ("I guess the record company's saving the best for last"), continuing to move steadily up North American charts, the band's future certainly looks promising. Yet when hit by a car this past Christmas, the future was put into perspective for Dee, who says he's taking things in stride these days.

"But you have to take everything in stride," he asserts. "Like everybody right now likes our record, but it's only been out for a little while and there's always the chance that it'll stiff. You always have to think that way, because that's the way this business is, it's always up and down . . . I mean, the worst can happen at any time . . . like it happened with me and my leg, but you just hope for the best."

Neither the accident nor the surgery has prevented Dee from promoting the album, nor will the implanted steel pin stop the band from touring, as they still have a long way to go Dee admits, in their efforts to reach that next plateau: a gold album stateside, minimum.

"You give it your best shot," concludes Dee, "and you hope this is the record that'll throw you over the top, and if this doesn't, then hopefully, we can make another and maybe that'll do it. That's the attitude I keep, because you just never know what's going to happen tomorrow."

Foundation set up in memory of Andy Gibb

The Andy Gibb Memorial Foundation has been established in memory of the young singer, who passed away last month. In the four weeks since its inception, the Foundation has already raised over $10,000. All monies raised will be donated to various charities.

Renee Schreiber of the Dade (Miami) Community Foundation of the Andy Gibb Memorial Foundation, points out that the young Gibb was "a strong supporter of many charities and always made himself available to lend a helping hand whether it be playing in a tennis tournament, performing at a benefit concert, or just making a public appearance."

His last public appearance was at the Barry Gibb Love & Hope Tennis Festival last November where he performed during a telethon which was broadcast live on Miami's CBS affiliate, WTVJ, on the eve of the tennis tournament.

The Foundation plans to distribute its money to the Diabetes Research Institute, the American Cancer Society (for which Gibb's own tennis tournament benefitted), the American Heart Association, the National Drug Abuse Council, and the Starlite Starbrite Foundation.

CRTC denies purchase of CKSL/CIQM

The CRTC has denied a request by Telemedia Communications Ontario to buy London stations CKSL and CIQM-FM from London Broadcasters. CRTC Chairman Andre Bureau pointed out that "Although Telemedia Ontario is part of one of the largest private radio broadcasters in Canada in terms of revenues, it did not convince the Commission that the proposed acquisitions would yield significant and unequivocal benefits to the communities served and the broadcasting system as a whole."

Springsteen top dog at OM-FM

Keith Chinnery, Promotions Coordinator at Windsor's OM-FM, reports the station created a lot of excitement with listeners through their Third One In contest. The station developed its own math system for the Bruce Springsteen giveaway promotion: a banana cream pie, a wig, a face covered with shaving cream and an OM-FM Win sticker, for which the winner received three tickets to the Springsteen concert and a night on the town. Afternoon personality Ken Venus offered the tickets to the first trio who appeared with the required items and within minutes, Chris Hoe and Mina Sarajcic arrived at the station, minus a third person. They grabbed Dave Sorrell, a total stranger who was in the parking lot, offered him a ticket, and ran into the building to claim their prize.

Kingston "abuzz" with CKLC promotion

Chris Ryan-St.Clair, Program Director of 1380/CKLC, sends news that Kingston is "abuzz" with their Incredible CKLC Free Money Birthday contest. To date, the station has given away more than $22,000 in cash. Each day, morning personality Greg Hunter announces a birthday and the first listener to call with a matching birthday wins. The latest winner was Cindy Sells, who was met at work by Hunter, an armed guard, a super-stretched limousine and a briefcase filled with $5,000 cash.

Turner patches into Easingwood power

Federal Liberal leader John Turner, while on a speaking tour in Victoria, appeared on Joe Easingwood's C-FAX talk show recently. He was attacking the free trade agreement with the U.S. Says Easingwood, "Despite the fact Victoria has been electing nothing but Conservatives in recent federal elections, the lines were jammed all the time he was on the air."

John Turner makes a point to a caller during an appearance with C-FAX talk show host Joe Easingwood.

CIWW PD post for Jerry Stevens

Effective May 9, Jerry Stevens will assume the Program Director's position at CIWW, "W1310" Ottawa, which is part of the MacLean-Hunter organization. Stevens was instrumental in the success of London's CKSL and CIQM, which he leaves for his new position.

Jim Johnson to PD C-FOX

Jim Johnson of CHAM Radio in Hamilton, moves out of country programming to take over as Program Director at Vancouver's C-FOX. Johnson was one of the major contributors to CHAM taking hold as the leading country radio station in Canada. His new position becomes effective May 13.

STEVIE WONDER

"MY LOVE"

THE DEBUT SINGLE FROM THE NEW, ALL-ENGLISH
JULIO IGLESIAS ALBUM, "NON STOP"
ON COLUMBIA RECORDS, CASSETTES AND COMPACT DISCS.

Music & Lyrics by STEVIE WONDER
My love is warmer than a smile
My love gives to every needing child
If anyone should ask you who's my true love
Tell them my love true is ever letting all their love come through

My love sees love with not a face
And lives to love through time
and space
If all of everything about my love fits to the tune of you
Then you can say that you are my love too

(1st Chorus)
Let my love shine throughout
the world
To every mountain top and steeple
Let it be felt by every soul
'Til love's all over
Let it reach out to every heart
To every disinfranchised people
'Til it is present and no more is
pain all over

Our love sees love's the key to peace
We'll pray 'til all world wars have ceased
Should you or anyone you know enough to say they feel as we Then let our universal song
be free

(2nd Chorus)
Let our love shine throughout
the world
To every mountain top and
steeple
Let it be felt by every soul
'Til love's all over
Let it reach out to every heart
To every disinfranchised people
'Til it is present and no more is
pain all over

Say words of love to all we see
To rich or poor for love is equal
Let us lift up humanity
Spread love all over
Let all its forces join as one
So to rebuke all signs of evil
Through every valley, land and sea
Our love all people

ALBUMS

HONEYMOON SUITE
Racing After Midnight
WEA - 25-54451-P

- Rock

The band have come close to matching the musical honesty and integrity found on their self-titled debut, but coupled with Ted Templeman's smart production and an equally wise move to include a remix of the Lethal Weapon single, this new album (the group's third) will certainly turn more heads, yet again in their favour. Love Changes Everything was released as the first single, and is doing very well, domestically, though it's clearly not the most earth shattering among the remaining tracks. Their two previous releases have both eclipsed double platinum, but the band has only dented the U.S. market... this album will do it for them. Following a European tour, a full slate of Canadian dates have been scheduled, prior to their embarking on an American tour this fall.

LIVING COLOUR
Vivid - Epic - BFE-44099-H

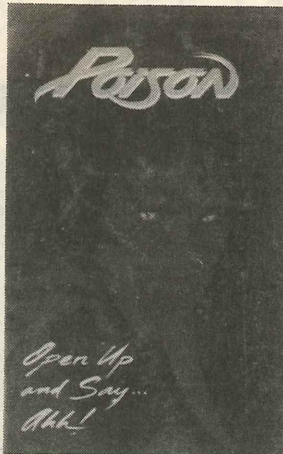

- Rock

Don't just listen to this record because Mick Jagger produced a couple of tracks, or because Jeff Beck was apparently "blown away" at one of their live shows, or because Vernon Reid is an amazing guitarist; listen to it because you want to. Debut albums have that certain youthful exuberance about them and, if there's any justice left in this music industry, this album will be the left field hit of the summer. Naturally, the production talent of Ed Stasium (Talking Heads, Ramones, Jagger) on the remaining tracks definitely helps a lot.

THE PARTY BOYS
Self-titled
Columbia - BFC-90769-H

- Pop/Rock

Don't just shrug off these lads from down under as yet another commercial rip-off; there is some serious musical talent to be found here, such as bassist Alan Lancaster. They've put together a fun collection of tunes, some covers, some originals, but nonetheless, simply fun. As one programmer once noted about covers: "at least they've already been tested." Their version of John Kongos' He's Gonna Step On You Again is flawless and a perfect summertime hit. Then there's Hold Your Head Up, Gloria and High Voltage.

POISON
Open Up And Say... Ahh!
Capitol - CL-48493-F

- Rock

And just to prove their debut was no fluke, along comes their follow-up with sure fire hits like Nothin' But A Good Time, Back To The Rocking Horse and Every Rose Has Its Thorn... not to mention, of course, their wonderful treatment of the Loggins & Messina hit Your Mama Don't Dance, because they know what they like. Here we have a very smart band, although their 'take the money and run' attitude has some people upset, they're very entertaining and can write a good hook-filled song. Front-rank album, it could become a collector's item with the recent U.S. banning, as demand will be intense. Produced by Tom Werman.

EXCHANGE
Into The Night
Audion/Passport - SYN-313-W
The credentials of these two musicians (very well known among Canada's recording community: Gerald O'Brien and Steve Sexton) is impressive enough, but the majority of their previous work has gone by virtually unnoticed, contributing individually on such albums as Loverboy's Wildside, The Portland Brothers' Electric Honey and Red Rider's Neruda; now their debut arrives via Passport Records, stateside. It is a brooding, almost moody selection of instrumental tracks, each with a differing flavour and ambience of its own, though indeed perfect for modern, contemporary and adult oriented stations today; yet quite not new age in feel.

LIBERTY SILVER
Private Property
Eureka/BMG - EK-12000-N

- Pop

Multi-Juno winner, and extremely talented vocalist (4½ octave range), Liberty Silver's much awaited debut sounds very promising. With the title track, Private Property, released to clubs already enjoying great success and I Do Love You picking up steam at radio; together with an imminent U.S. deal and the opening slot on a certain labelmate's tour forthcoming, the album looks to be a hit. Producer Joel Wertman has put together an impressive list of writers to help propel Silver into the star status justly deserved, including Lemel Humes, known for his work with the Pointer Sisters and Thelma Houston.

JON ANDERSON
In The City Of Angels
Columbia - BFC-40910-H

- Pop

Yes frontman goes solo. Produced by Stewart Levine, known for his work with Simply Red and Boy George, this album features some of the finest musical talents to be found, and look to either Hold On To Love or In This Lifetime to sail up radio charts. Watch for immediate retail action through an instant recognition factor, as the previous Yes album, Big Generator, and subsequent tour were major successes. Some tracks strongly resemble condensed versions of his more popular and best selling songs, which may disappoint some fans, but bring on board others. Altogether though, a very strong package.

THE LODGE
Smell Of A Friend
Antilles/Island - ISL-1176-J

- Pop/Rock

The album is certain to surprise, if not shock, many in the industry Early Traffic perhaps. Check out Not All Fathers, then flip over the record and try either Swelling Valley or Old Man's Mood, whichever first few bars catches the impending mood of the moment. It's not going to be everyone's cup of tea, but those aforementioned songs are going to leave an impression, one way or another.

"WEIRD AL" YANKOVIC
Even Worse
Scotti Bros - FZ 44149-H

- Pop

It was Michael Jackson's Beat It that brought Yankovic front and center with his chart breaker Eat It. Why not return to the original formula? It seems "Weird Al" is on the right track with this one. Several Yankovic originals: Melanie, Good Old Days, Twister, Stuck In A Closet With Vanna White, Velvet Elvis and You Make Me. His parodies are still as clever and side splitting as ever, including I Think I'm A Clone Now (Tiffany's I Think We're Alone Now), (This Song's) Just Six Words Long (George Harrison's Got My Mind Set On You), Alimony (Billy Idol's Mony Mony), Lasagna (Los Lobos' La Bamba) and Fat (Michael Jackson's Bad). Interesting album cover, although not surprising.

BALAAM & THE ANGEL
Live Free Or Die
Virgin - VL-2476-W

- Rock

Don't overlook the punchy number I Love The Things You Do To Me when entering your music meetings, and the remainder of the album, a hard rocking effort, is equally as good. Driving and yet melodic; sound familiar? Produced by Steve Brown, this trio is going places. It seems The Cult opened up a whole new can of worms. Breathe deeply... out with the old and in with the new. This band's hot.

BRUCE HORNSBY
Scenes From The Southside
BMG - 6686-1-R-N

- Pop/Rock

In his unequalled status, Hornsby continues to record mellow music for the masses. The Valley Road, the band's first single, is undoubtedly climbing charts rapidly; the potential of this album lies in its radio accessibility through and through, from beginning to end, this album is very easy to listen to, and "easy listening" is where it's at these days, especially with several tracks running in excess of seven minutes. Produced by Hornsby and Neill Dorfman.

Quality promo pays off for Starr single

Lucille Starr's Cardinal single, The First Time I've Ever Been In Love, is making national moves, almost six months after release. The single has been top priority for Ralph Quirino, Marketing Manager for Quality Special Products. Since doing a second mailing of the single, there has been an impressive pattern of acceptance, so much so that the single makes a healthy entry onto the RPM Country 60 this week at No. 50. The single was taken from Starr's upcoming album, Back To You.

Blue Rodeo makes it to Big Country

Interrupting their busy Canada/U.S. tour schedule, Blue Rodeo made a point to drive all the way in from Chicago to attend this year's Big Country Awards in Toronto. The band were playing Fitzgerald's in the Windy City on May 7th, and packed up and hit the road for Toronto before the birds were up.

June dates take them into Detroit (3), the Kinsmen Arena in Chatham (4), Stages in Kingston (8), and in Kitchener (9), the Norfolk County Fairgrounds in Simcoe (10), the COCA Awards Banquet in London (14), Lee's Palace in Toronto (15), Brantford's Club 232 (21), and Toronto's Palais Royale (23), a private affair. July dates firmed include Toronto's Ontario Place (15), Calgary's Calaway Park (30) for an afternoon show, the Convention Centre in Edmonton with Stevie Ray Vaughn (30), and back to Calaway Park for an evening date (31). In the meantime their latest single release, Rebel, continues to move up the charts in Canada.

Destiny on signing spree

Jeff Johnstone, President of the Burlington, Ont. based Destiny label, reports three new artist signings. Kingston, Ont. singer/songwriter Dieter Boehme, who has had a string of releases over the last four years, will have his first release on the Destiny label in July. Nashville based Doug Dixon is another signing to Destiny. His session was produced by Floyce Kendall, brother of the Kendalls. A release is expected early June. Prince Edward Island native Corlee Buell will debut on Destiny in June as well. Her session was produced in Nashville by Larry Coad. These new artists join Destiny's other established acts, Joey Knight, Susan Tyler, Debbie Myers, and Robert Bouchard. "Destiny's focus is now on developing artists from both Canada and the United States into Canadian/European markets," Johnston stresses.

Parker gets boost with album release

Billy Parker, currently charting with You Are My Angel, gets a boost with the release of his album debut on the RCA label. The album, titled Always Country, was produced by Canyon Creek label owner Bart Barton. Parker got the attention of Canadian programmers last year with the release of You Don't Have To Drive Me Crazy, which was written by Family Brown's Barry Brown and Eric Emerson. You Are My Angel is the follow-up single.

Family Brown single is charting

Country programmers were obviously waiting for the new single from the Family Brown, which experienced instant adds across the country. The single, Til I Find My Love, gets a healthy headstart with a No. 43 first week listing on the RPM Country 60 this week. The Family Brown, who will be attending this year's Big Country Awards, have just finished a tour with George Jones and

Penticton's CIGV readies Canadian Showcase '88

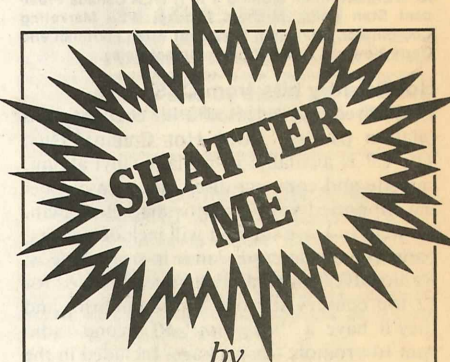

CIGV Radio in Penticton, B.C. will present their 7th Annual Canadian Showcase on Canada Day (July 1st). As the station's Music Director, Carl W. Harris explains, the Cancon showcase is "a 24-hour concentration of our year 'round effort to support Canadian country songwriters and musicians."

There will be a bit of aswitch this year as the station spotlights the ladies of country music. "We'll be playing a male/female mix," continues Harris, "but the features and emphasis will be on the girls of country music . . . so ladies . . . here's your chance."

In order to get in on this 24 hours of Country Cancon Music, send Harris a short tape, a cassette will do, about yourself and/or activities, and include a greeting to CIGV Radio listeners.

"It should be a fun day," concludes Harris, "with our listeners becoming more aware of just how much the ladies contribute to our industry."

Address tapes to Carl W. Harris, Music Director, CIGV-FM Radio, 125 Nanaimo Ave. West, Penticton, B.C. V2A 1N2.

Country 11-10 CKTY busy, busy busy

With the debut issue of CKTY's TY Tidbits, it would appear the station has already taken Sarnia and Lambton County by storm. Marie Bottrell was in town performing at the Main Event and she and J.K. Gulley stopped into the station for a chat on the air. As well, Anita Perras and Tim Taylor and the Stoker Brothers were in town as was Randall Cousins from Roto Noto Records.

Hot Country hits from CBS

CBS Direct has released a hit country compilation package titled Hot Country Hits. The LP is available as a black vinyl album, cassette and compact disc. The release is being supported with a major marketing plan. As well, in-store support will include posters, banners, headcards and in-store videos. Radio advertising has also been scheduled for 12 top country stations across Ontario, and they'll have a "very hot" 60 second radio spot to promote the package. Included in the package are tracks by several big names in country: Dwight Yoakam (Heartaches By The Number), Janie Frickie (Always Have Always Will), Steve Earle (Someday), The O'Kanes (Can't Stop My Heart From Loving You), Ricky Van Shelton (Somebody Lied), and many more.

Prairie Oyster making new tracks

Stony Plain's Prairie Oyster have just returned from a successful trip to Nashville where they guested on Nashville Now and Wrap Around Nashville. They are now reviewing and writing material for a new album. They are currently on release with You've Got A Way, written by lead guitarist Keith Glass. The band was the first group to perform at Toronto's newest country music club, The Country Nugget, where they played to packed houses three nights straight. They are playing Toronto's Horseshoe this week (May 5, 6 and 7). Besides Glass, the band comprises Denis Delorme on pedal steel, Bruce Moffat on drums and John P. Allen, who plays fiddle, acoustic guitar and mandolin.

A big BIG Country weekend

The May 6-8 weekend could turn out to be the biggest event in the history of Canadian country. At time of writing (May 4) there are pre-ticket sales of 570 for the Variety Club's Salute To the Big Country Awards, which take place at Toronto's Inn on the Park on May 6th. This is a very impressive number, considering the ticket draw was strictly Canadian. All the performers, Carroll Baker, Tommy Hunter, The Good Brothers and Ronnie Hawkins & The Hawks are Canadian, and all the headtable guests are Canadian artists, record company executives, bookers and managers. The luncheon is a first time event, and it looks like it's going to be an annual happening. A couple of days later, we are presenting the Big Country Awards, a very intimate country gathering attended by the creme de la creme of Canadian country, and we're ahead in pre-ticket sales with this one as well.

New Destiny single by Joey Knight

The latest from Destiny Records, now with offices in Burlington, Ont., is the Joey Knight single, Midnight Whispers. The Minto, New Brunswick native is no stranger to the charts, having had impressive action with his previous releases, Weakness Tonight and Nights Like This.
