McLauchlan's Star series goes to air Sept. 2

CBC Radio Variety will launch Murray McLauchlan's Swinging On A Star radio series (Sept 2) with guests Colleen Peterson and P.E.I. singer/songwriter Lenny Gallant. The show will be heard Saturdays from 11:05 am to noon on CBC Stereo and from 4:08 to 5 pm on CBC Radio.

The show is about songs and songwriters and the people who perform them. "This series is a real labour of love for me," says McLauchlan. "It's something I really wanted to do, and I think it's important. This will be a showcase for Canada's established songwriters, as well as a launching for a lot of talent that deserves to be well known."

The Sept. 9 show will feature Tom Cochrane, 1989 Juno winner for Songwriter of The Year, and usually heard with Red Rider. Also guesting will be Toronto R&B singer Eugene Smith.

Says producer John Dalton, "One of the joys of taking a rocker like Tom Cochrane out of his rock 'n' roll band is we get to hear the songs as they were originally written . . . the emotion of the songs really comes out."

Dalton has apparently wanted to do a series like this since meeting McLauchlan on an awards show three years ago. Both were in Germany last year to record a Canada Day show, and Dalton again approached McLauchlan, who agreed and a pilot was recorded, resulting in the setting of the series. The first shows have already been taped in Toronto, Winnipeg and Halifax, and a further week is slated in Vancouver for this fall.

Firmed to perform and talk about their songs in upcoming editions are Dan Hill, Lori Yates, Willie P. Bennett, Lorraine Segato, Barney Bentall, Jane Siberry, Matt Minglewood, Shirley Eikhard, and a Christmas show with Rita MacNeil, to name just a few.

Interested singer/songwriters should send tapes and information to John Dalton, CBC Radio Variety, P.O. Box 3000, Halifax, Nova Scotia. B3J 3E9.

McLauchlan is currently charting with his latest Capitol single, Please Don't Call It Runnin' Away, the second single taken from his Swinging On A Star album.

Waterman label signed to WEA Canada

Pete Waterman has signed an exclusive distribution agreement for his Pete Waterman Ltd. (PWL) label with WEA Music Canada. He is the Waterman of Stock, Aitken, Waterman fame, well-known UK producers responsible for more than seventy Top 40 UK hits over the past five years, thirty of which reached the Top 10. These include the writing and/or production of hits for Kylie Minogue, Rick Astley, Mel & Kim, Bananarama, Donna Summer, Samantha Fox and more. The trio recently made UK chart history by achieving three consecutive No. 1 hits.

Initial release is Ten Good Reasons by Australian Jason Donovan, who was Kylie Minogue's co-star in the Australian/UK television series Neighbours. Too Many Broken Hearts has been taken as the first single.

McCallum to BX-93 as Program Director

Warren Cosford, Vice President and General Manager of Middlesex-Lambton Communications, has announced the appointment of Ian McCallum to the position of Program Director, CJBX-FM (BX-93) London, Ontario.

McCallum is a veteran of country music, beginning his career in the early seventies at CFGM Richmond Hill where he eventually held the post of Production Manager. He

Changes at CJNH bring programming into line

"The small station in Bancroft now has that big sound," reports Mike Cooper, host of CJNH Bancroft's Good Country mid-mornings til 2. The changes have actually been on-going since Nan Whitlaw took over as station manager last year. Besides Cooper, the station recently hired on Mike Beeston, formerly of Kitchener, who is doing the morning drive.

Ottawa's South Mountain doing an I.D. (l to r) Laurie (La Porte) Pittico, Don Reed, Todd Nolan, Steve Pittico and Mike Cooper.

"There's no reason people can't have the most up-to-date information and music that the big guys deliver, just because they listen to a small town station," Cooper stresses that he intends to keep airing country music and news "that people want to hear, and to keep attending the events that produce interviews with the artists my listeners are hearing." Cooper's live and telephone interviews with country stars keeps his large listening audience in tune with today's country music.

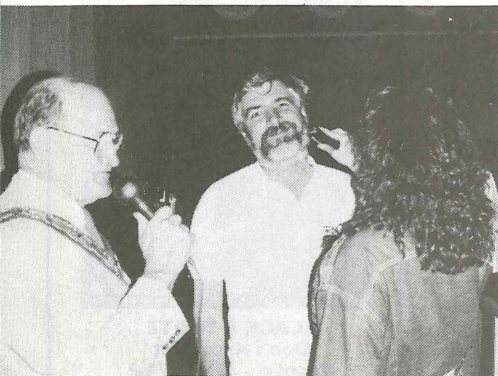

"The quality of our station has risen 100 percent," concludes Cooper, "and we intend to increase it even more."

Connors loses to Samuels in fat shedding contest

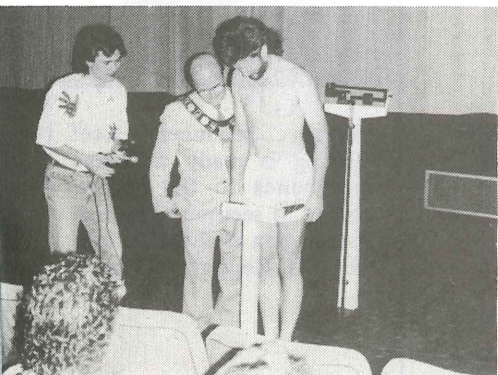

This past June 21st, at the HTZ-FM premiere of Batman, Scruff Connors and Eric Samuels held the official weigh-in to see who had lost the most weight since the first day of spring. The St. Catharines station took pledges for two months, listeners pledging for either Connors or Samuels, with the money going to the HTZ-FM Children's Fund.

Scruff Connors getting his beard, half of it, shaved at the Batman premiere/weigh-in.

At the official weigh-in, St. Catharines Mayor Joe McCafferey was on hand to make everything "official". Connors lost the bet, losing only ten pounds, while Samuels triumphed, losing 36 pounds.

In losing the bet Connors had half his beard shaved off at the Batman premiere and the following week, he hosted not only his morning show, but Samuels' afternoon show as well. He also held a barbeque at Sherston Beach (July 30) where he cooked for all the pledgers. He still has to wash 97 cars as well as Samuels' windows in order to complete the bet.

A thin Eric Samuels weighing in . . . losing 36 pounds, all for a good cause.

WAT SAYS

No fish sandwiches for this media. The SkyDome people really laid on the red carpet for the media this past week when a press reception was organized for a major, major announcement. We had the opportunity to visit the very posh . . . and somewhat restricted Windows On Skydome Restaurant, and the buffet brunch, which is on a par with any French restaurant, was enough to make me want to go back (EC: I heard you did . . . several times!) Unlike the press reception announcing the added Stones' concert the week before . . . where we had a choice between salmon and tuna on brown or on white . . . this was WOW! After they teased us with champagne and orange juice, which jetsetter Stan Klees explained to us media people, was mimosa, they dropped the bomb that Frank Sinatra, Liza Minnelli and Sammy Davis Jr. would be playing Toronto . . . pretty heavy stuff. The announcement took all of three minutes. Jeremy Brown . . . my gawd he wears a shirt and tie even in the daytime . . . wanted to ask questions. This, of course, didn't sit too well,

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans, and by all those preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent, and their capacity for inspired leadership"

being that Michael Cohl hadn't personally made the announcement and his spokespeople seem scared to death to field any questions. All this aside, it was THE best press reception of the year. (EC: You mean you rate Windows higher than The Diamond's Grapevine . . . ?)

Speaking of Sammy Davis Jr. This will be the first time Sammy Davis Jr. has performed in Toronto for a bunch of years. Apparently in his just released book, he mentions his Toronto O'Keefe date . . . where he didn't come off too well, for various reasons. He says, "When you fuck up at the O'Keefe, you're not asked back." (EC: He was alone that time . . . !)

I have a stake in "blue eyes". Guess what kind of car I'm driving? (EC: You look like an Edsel owner . . . !) A 1981 limited edition Frank Sinatra Chrysler Imperial . . . as blue as his eyes . . . which is why it's limited. There were apparently only a few hundred of these beautiful cars sold in Canada . . . and there aren't too many left. I've got one . . . and with his Toronto date coming up . . . I think I'll put it on the block. Anyone interested? (EC: Do it . . . your way!)

That's SOUTHAM . . . son! Ted Southam of Shorewood Packaging has an offer that most record companies won't refuse. Alex Fedorow of A&M suggested to Ted that Shorewood cut the price of the cassette single O cards. He didn't get exactly what he wanted, but the flat price has been cut by almost half, which is still a good deal. You'll notice I'm not revealing the price, but you can get all the details from Ted SOUTHAM at Shorewood. (EC: What's all this SOUTHAM stuff . . . ?)

Believe it or not! I hear the Ripley people were in town last week checking out a rumour that Blue Rodeo haven't been featured on the cover of a magazine for a record four weeks! (EC: Sounds like a rumour to me . . . about the Ripley people, that is!)

Check this out . . . ! Chris Brooke, Music Director of Montreal's CFQR-FM, sent me a "little note of information" (EC: Canadian broadcasters are very polite wouldn't you say!) informing me that the station has been using DAT equipment for almost a year. Since late September of 1988, "we've been featuring at least one current per hour dubbed to DAT . . . and listener response has been great and increased use of DAT technology on CFQR is guaranteed." You'll notice, unlike record people, he didn't say, "Hey meathead, you were way off base about that sucker in Vancouver going DAT, we were first." He didn't even mention whether CFQR was first or not . . . just a very polite note of information. (EC: Polite? Have you been to a CAB convention lately?)

Have we gone CD . . . ! I have to admit I was late getting into CD (EC: You were waiting for Woolco's $1.44 day!) but after sampling a few "top of the line" CD players . . . I'm now equipped with the ultimate machine, a Denon DCD 810 . . . and a tape deck . . . and a receiver. (EC: You must have got a deal . . . !)

No alternative radio in Toronto? The way is now open for a dance/black/alternative radio station in Toronto. Seems we lost one recently. Hey Bob! Time to go calling again. (EC: A smaller hall and audience next time!)

The battle of the giants . . . ? There's a battle going on at Toronto's Osgoode Hall, that I thought had been settled and I'm impressed to see that one of the parties, known to give in rather than let this type of action become public fodder, is holding its ground. The irony of the whole thing of course is that no matter whose nose is bloodied, it's business as usual. (EC: It costs more than small claims court . . . !)

More on cassette singles . . . ! I'm told that industry people in the U.S. are a little worried that the runaway success of the cassette single is creating a bit of a problem with overall sales. The price structure of the cassette single is inviting, which is leaving the high-priced CDs a little flat . . . for the time being. (EC: It'll adjust itself!)

Cockburn to Europe for nine-country tour

Bruce Cockburn leaves for a nine country European tour, immediately following his Ontario Place dates (Aug 14 & 15). Highlights of this tour will be his first ever appearance at the W.O.M.A.D. Festival in St. Austell, England (26), as well as his debut performances in Brussels, Belgium and a return to East Germany for a Berlin concert.

After his W.O.M.A.D. date the True North recording artist will play Northampton, England (28), Amsterdam (30), and Brussels (31) to take the month out.

His first date in September will be in Dortmund, West Germany (1), followed by East Berlin at the Karl Marx Stadium (3), Mannheim, West Germany (4), Stuttgart (5), Munich (6), Zurich (7), Frankfurt (9), Hannover (11), Bremen (12), Hamburg (12), Oslo (15), Orbro, Sweden (16), Stockholm (17), Copenhagen (19), Bochum, West Germany (21), and London's Town & Country (23), which caps the tour.

Cockburn's Big Circumstance LP has been his most successful to date in Europe, garnering extensive airplay in all nine countries in which he will be performing. His latest single, Shipwrecked At The Stable Door, taken from the Big Circumstance LP, is currently charting on both the RPM 100 Singles chart and Adult Contemporary 30.

COVER STORY - by Chris Murray

Keef Whiting shopping distribution for K.C. label

Veteran producer Keef Whiting, who has been based in Canada for the past twelve years, will soon be visiting major distributors to pitch his newly launched K.C. label. "There are things that I think have got a lot of potential," he points out, "that, for one reason or another, record companies in this country aren't interested in. So I figured I'd set up my own record company."

K.C. Records previously released a radio-only single by Eddie Staxx, titled Let The Music Play, which, reports Whiting, saw good response from dance pools and clubs, as well as garnering airplay on close to one hundred stations. "That was something that was turned down by all the record companies we went to," he continues. "I thought it was a really strong song and Eddie was a really good singer, so we put it out ourselves." After the success of this initial project, "I decided to go into it in a bigger way . . . and that way I could do all the projects I want to."

While Whiting will concentrate exclusively on Canadian acts, he does not plan for the label to be centred about any particular musical style. "All the acts I have at the moment tend to be black influenced," he admits. "None of the majors in this country are really doing much with black artists, but," and he stresses, "my tastes are fairly varied, so I'm not going to be a black label or any other sort of label."

In addition to Eddie Staxx, Whiting is currently involved with two acts: a jazz trio, SVP, which stands for saxophone, voice and piano and a group dubbed The Project, intended to meld African, rock and jazz influences into a pop song format.

His years of experience have made Whiting keenly aware of the pitfalls that have proven fatal for countless other labels. Of these, Whiting suggests underfinancing is often the deadliest. "Anyone can start up a record company . . . you go down and register a company for ten dollars and you've got a record company."

"You've got to do a project the way you feel it should be done," he elaborates. "You can't start skimping on things and do things really cheap and then hope it will happen because you're competing with people who are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars on an album, using the best producers, arrangers and musicians."

"I think a lot of people start up companies with a minimal amount of money, maybe enough to do one album, and if that doesn't immediately sell and get a return, that's it . . . they've blown all their money," he continues.

To properly set up a label, Whiting estimates, "you should have no less than four to five hundred thousand dollars in order to set everything up . . . have some money to operate and to record some albums." Through personal funds and private investment, Whiting informs that approximately 90 percent of the financing is in place.

While securing a Canadian distribution deal is presently Whiting's top priority, he places a great importance on arranging international deals. "You can't look at Canada as the market," he insists. "It's just a small market in the global market . . . you have to sell Europe and the States and Japan and anywhere you can."

The near future will also see Whiting setting up an affiliated publishing company. "Generally, the hardest thing is finding good songwriters and good songs," he declares. "That's going to be quite a focus . . . trying to get as many writers as I can that can be submitting."

"There aren't many publishing companies in this country that are doing a lot of work, that are aggressively going out looking for writers and promoting the songs," he contends. "There are some that are really good and there are a lot of publishing companies in this country, but a lot of them are either very small or not very aggressive."

At the moment, rather than undertaking the expensive task of setting up his own promotion staff, Whiting will be contracting out to independent agencies. "I'm much better off, firstly, financially, to use someone like Joe [Wood, of RDR Promotions, which handled promotion for Eddie Staxx] and, secondly, if you're using freelance people," he suggests, "they know that if they don't do a good job, they probably won't get the next one, so they have much more incentive to do the best job they can."

Over the next week or two, Whiting will be arranging meetings with Canada's major distributors to make a deal he views as beneficial for both parties. "For them, it cuts down having to say, 'Yeah, we like this act. Let's spend $100,000 on it and see what happens'." For his part, it will save "the step of finding something . . . going and demoing it and going to a record company where some guy says, 'No, I don't like it.' If I've done that much work," he concludes, "it's because I think it's good, and my opinion is just as valid as anybody else's . . . so I'm basically putting my money where my mouth is."

Capitol's Director of Promotion Olie Kornelsen (l) and Marketing Manager Ron Scott (r) present Poison with 3-times platinum for Open Up And Say Ahh! during Toronto date.

LeBlanc hits with "multi-format" single Travellin' Don LeBlanc, a veteran of country music, has released a new single, How Did She Do It, on his own Music Machine label. The single is described as "a progressive, danceable, happy song with a drivin' beat." He is targeting his "multi-format" single to pop-country, lite-rock and adult contemporary programmers.

The aggressive country troubadour, who has criss-crossed the North American continent, playing club and fair circuits, has been pitching the industry for 12 years (RPM - July 8/89). He has released two albums, Beatin' The Pavement and Don LeBlanc And His Guitar, both of which are still active. This latest single, his fifth, is a LeBlanc original, which he produced in Nashville.

LaBlanc is currently on the road in his mobile office, and he also maintains offices in Regina, Toronto and Nashville.

CHOO Radio presents Kenny Rogers

CHOO Radio in Ajax, Ontario, will present Kenny Rogers in concert at the Oshawa Civic Auditorium on Aug 25th.

Against The Grain release new single

New from Yorkton, Saskatchewan's Against The Grain is their second Westar single, Cheatin' On Me. Recorded at Saskatoon's Studio West, the band's "country/blues" single was produced by Craig Fotheringham with Don Warkentin as engineer, and is the follow-up to One Mile Closer. The band is made up of Rob McLane (lead vocals, guitar), Kim Scobie (bass), Jim McKillop (flat top guitar, vocals, keyboards), Rob Wintonyk (keyboards, synthesizer, vocals),

Diamond Jim Hopson self-promoting new single

Diamond Jim Hopson opened the doors into the country market last year with his debut Double Barrel single, I Only Sing The Sad Songs Anymore, a Brian Twaites original. His follow-up is another Twaites original, Lost In Her Love, which was produced at Nashville's Chelsea Studio by Tony Migliore.

Session players included Sonny Garrish (steel), Peter Bordonali (lead and acoustic guitars), Lisa Silver (fiddle), Ralph Childs (bass), with background vocals supplied by Bruce Dees, Carol Chase and Lisa Silver. Producer Migliore provided keyboards for the session.

A self-made businessman and an aggressive salesman, Diamond Jim travels extensively for his international food company, which gives him the opportunity to meet with many country programmers across Canada.

On tap is an October session in Nashville when he will be recording four sides, with material written by Twaites, Hank Locklin and Cyril Rawson.

Sheridan saves reply cards from fire
Terry Sheridan, currently charting with his latest Celebrity single, I Can't Cross A New Bridge, lost several radio reply cards in a recent office fire, but was able to retrieve a fair number, although smoke damaged, which he sends along. Weird Harold of CKWX Vancouver says "You handle that 2/4 shuffle with ease, and I love it. Send a copy to Faron Young, he'd love the sound." "Good One Terry," writes Johnny Murphy of Sault Ste. Marie's QX-104, "previewing on Canada's Country foregrounder." From Ric Johnson of CKQM Peterborough, "Another Winner," and from Paul Kennedy of CHFX-FM Halifax, "Added right away, will play often."

Tanya Marie charting with new single

There's an interesting geography lesson with the release of Tanya Marie's Comstock single, I Don't Miss Often, which is now charting on the RPM Country 100. The lyrics were written by Ben van den Hoogenband, who lives in Brampton Ontario, while the music was written by Sue Rodgers, who lives in Atlanta, Georgia. Tanya Marie was born in New Brunswick and now lives in Vancouver, and the Comstock label is based in Scottsdale, Arizona. Says Hoogenband, "It's interesting to note that with all that geography, it can still all come together as a single record release."

Triple release from Roto Noto

Roto Noto's latest packet of singles contained singles from Bobby McGee, Robin Right and Billy Canyon. The McGee single, Kentucky Grass is a McGee original, produced by Rob Asselstine. Canyon's single, When The Tears Are Gone, which he wrote, was produced at Ottawa's Isle Of Skye Studios by Joe Turner. Session people included Turner on guitars, steelman Al Bragg and Dave Arthur on bass and vocals. The single qualifies as four-parts Cancon. Roto Noto's Randall Cousins was quick to score the Canadian release of Robin Right, the winner of Indie Bullet Artist Looking For A Label Contest.
