CD longbox cut-off date not suitable to retailers

The newly formed, as yet unnamed, association of retailers and wholesalers, faced their first hurdle, doing battle with WEA Music Canada and PolyGram. These two majors have indicated they will be eliminating CD packaging in January of 1990. However, a meeting with CRIA is apparently scheduled for further discussion. The proposed cut-off date is not suitable for the members of the new retailers and wholesalers association, which was expressed in a letter to both PolyGram and WEA. Although the members are in agreement with the elimination of CD packaging, they are asking that September 1st, 1990 be considered, as "a more acceptable date."

Apparently only PolyGram's Peter

Erdmann has responded, but he wasn't prepared to make any comment until "the group" (CRIA) could get together.

If WEA and PolyGram do discontinue their CD packaging on the proposed date, Saturn's Leonard Kennedy says, "We (Saturn) do have a security unit that we can get in place at store level . . . but it's a matter of timing. January is a very busy month for us. It's our accounts' year end, and we're faced with many returns, pre-Christmas promotions, and stock balancing at store level."

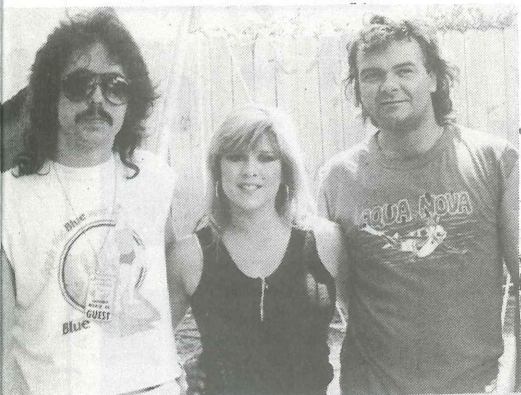

Kennedy continues, "If, for instance, our accounts want the unit for all manufacturer CDs; MCA, BMG, CBS and Capitol, (who have not made any changes), then we are faced with extra cost at our warehouses by taking the jewel box out of the existing packaging. We would also have to change all the stock at store level with the new security unit, that in itself takes three months to do across Canada, which would be very expensive for us."

A further meeting was to be held by the association on August 15, at which time they expect to come up with a name, and to further look into the CD packaging question as well as other means of merchandising CDs.

In attendance at the first meeting of the association were: Sound Insight (A&A Records & Tapes), Group De Musique/T.C., Handleman of Canada, HMV, Millbank Music, Pindoff Record Sales, Roblan Distributors (Sam's), R.O.W. Entertainment, Saturn Distributing and Sunrise Records & Tapes. Not in attendance, but reportedly in support of the association, were A&B Sound, National Record Distributors and Total Sound.

"We have membership throughout Canada," says Kennedy "and it's a pretty strong representation of record retailers and wholesalers." He continues with, "This is the first time an association like this has been formed in Canada," stressing, "It's Canadian . . . no affiliation with NARM."

Kennedy also points out that once the membership is formed and buoyed with fees from the original members, a membership drive will be launched, "to include the mom and pop stores." He continues with, "There will be something in it for everybody . . . right

BMG Music Publishing scores Cross catalogue

Nick Firth, President of BMG Music Publishing Worldwide, has announced the acquisition of Pop 'N' Roll Music and Another Page, publishing companies of Grammy-winning writer/artist Christopher Cross. As well, Cross has signed a worldwide co-publishing agreement with BMG Songs (ASCAP).

The Cross catalogue includes Sailing, Ride Like The Wind, Think Of Laura, Never Be The Same, Say You'll Be Mine and Arthur's Theme, which won an Academy Award for Best Song of 1981. Currently writing songs for his next album, Cross made what is described as "the most acclaimed debuts in contemporary popular music." His self-titled 1980 LP, which sold more than four million copies worldwide, earned him five Grammys, including Record and Song of the Year for the No. 1 single, Sailing, which topped the RPM 100 singles chart on October 11, 1980. His follow-up LP, Another Page, which went platinum in the U.S., contained his hits All Right and Think Of Laura.

As Danny Strick, Vice President and General Manager of BMG Songs notes, "Classics by Christopher Cross like Ride The Wind and Sailing clearly symbolize the beginning of the '80s musically, and we feel that this addition to our company fits perfectly with our thrust toward building a dynamic and contemporary catalogue."

across the board, from shipping to fixturing," concluding with, "As an association, we'll be in a position to make deals not only for the major companies but the little guys as well."

Hallmark Cards readies new Christmas album

Rachel Bolton, Marketing Media Relations Coordinator for Hallmark Cards (U.S.), reports the release of this year's album, Carols Of Christmas, featuring Sarah Vaughan, Samuel Ramey and the Mormon Tabernacle Choir conducted by Jerold Ottley. This is Vaughan's first album in three years and her first Christmas album in ten years. The release is available as an album and cassette for US$2.95 and in CD for US$7.95 with any Hallmark Christmas purchase. A video tape of the famous Salt Lake City choir making the album is available to interested parties.

A spokesperson for the Canadian operation advises that a similar promotion is being run in Canada, however, the album and cassette are tagged at $3.95 each, with a $10.00 purchase. There apparently is no CD product available in Canada.

Hallmark released its first Christmas collection album, which went gold in the U.S. (500,000 units sold), in 1985. Last year's album went platinum with more than 1.7 million copies sold.

For more information contact Bolton in Kansas City at 816-274-4873.

World Music pubbery to BMG Music Worldwide

BMG Music Publishing Worldwide chalks up its sixth major publishing acquisition since the start of this year with the announcement from the organization's President Nick Firth, of the completion of negotiations to acquire World Music Publishing Group.

World Music, considered one of the leading publishers in the Benelux, maintains branches in the U.K., France and Italy. Among its large catalogue of internationally-known copyrights are Sixteen Tons, See You Later, Alligator, La Bamba, Take The A Train, Come Prima, The Petite Waltz, La Playa and Manhattan Spiritual. The catalogue also contains copyrights by Jacques Brel, Toots Thielemans and Ted Heath and also has an important Belux repertoire that was made famous by Will Tura, Bobbejaan, Louis Neefs and La Esterella.

World also controls several major European and American catalogues through sub-publishing deals, including French composer Michel Legrand, and manages and owns 50 percent of Editions Acuff-Rose Belgium, an affiliate of the Nashville company, Italmusic (Sugar of Italy), and Ray Ventura (containing major copyrights of Georges Brassens and Paul Misraiki).

Through the agreement, BMG Ariola Belgium N.V. has acquired all of the Palette Record Label masters, many of which will be re-released on the Ariola Express label.

World Music was founded in 1932 and emerged as Belgium's leading independent music publisher under the leadership of Felix Faecq and Jacques Kluger, from 1945, and most recently, of Roland Kluger.

MIDEM '90 already shaping success pattern

MIDEM '90, the 24th edition of the gathering for international music professionals, will take place at the Cannes Palais des Festivals from January 21 through 25 of next year, and organizers are already confident of yet another success. With still seven months to go, stand renewals are already at "a high level," and include national "umbrella" group participation from Australia, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland.

Mary Vrantisidis, coordinator for CIR-PA's Canadian Booth, reports the organization is already planning activity for next year's event. Group Quebec is also planning their booth activities.

Bob Bingham, joint managing director of the MIDEM organization, points out that "The music business is both strengthening and diversifying. Thanks to the compact disc in particular, certain sectors, including jazz, classical and so-called 'alternative' music are finding new life and opportunities . . . and MIDEM '90 will reflect this development."

It's expected that upwards of 35 bands with more than 200 musicians will be playing in the MIDEM rock galas, which last year were televised to 23 countries. As well, a new 4,000 seat tent will be built next to the Palm Beach Casino to house four concerts. The Hotel Martinez will be the scene once again for five artist showcases and the events at the Palais des Festivals will include jazz and blues nights. The international jazz community is now being tapped for performers.

MIDEM Classique will also continue its policy of "attracting new, young performing talent," to its public concerts in Cannes, says Bingham. This year the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra from London will perform at a special gala under the direction of British conductor James Loughran.

Gus Vassos, the principal writer and front man for producer Bob Rock's new EMI project, is signed to Penta Music as Penta Music administrator Cliff Jones looks on.

Alannah Myles and songwriting partner Christopher Ward accept WEA gold for Myles' self-titled LP, now platinum plus, from WEA crew at Ontario Place Forum date.

CJRT Orchestra bows as Toronto's Philharmonic

Toronto's CJRT Orchestra will shed its name and 15-year financial link with the station and begin a new life as the Toronto Philharmonic Orchestra (TPHO). A five-concert series, beginning October 29, will serve to introduce the new orchestra under the direction of Artistic Director Paul Robinson.

The concert series, headlined as the TPHO 1989-90 Season Of Stars (Mozart Plus), will be staged at Toronto's Massey Hall. Opening the series (Oct. 29) will be internationally-acclaimed cellist Ofra Harnoy. The young Canadian is currently on release with two RCA/BMG albums, Cello Concert 1 and Ofra Harnoy Sonatas.

The second in the series will be presented Nov. 28 and will feature soprano Juliana Gondek with other soloists to be announced.

February 18th will be an exclusive Toronto date with famed Russian violinist Igor Oistrakh, who will be accompanied by his son Valery on viola.

Another well-known Canadian soloist, pianist Anton Kuerti, has been firmed for a March 18th date with Kirk Trevor as guest conductor. The last of the series will be presented on April 8th with soprano Gundula Janowitz, the leading Prima Donna of the Vienna State Opera.

The budget for the first season is expected to top $200,000, which will hopefully come from ticket sales and corporate donations. Fund raising and marketing campaigns will be in place in the new year. It is also rumoured that a major label may be interested in recording the orchestra.

Rock 'n' rollers set for Giuffria's golf classic

Gregg Giuffria of the House Of Lords, has collared a number of rock 'n' roll notables for his third annual Johnnie Walker Rock & Roll Celebrity Golf Classic. The tournament, to be held Sept. 10th at the Half Moon Bay Links, Half Moon Bay, California

(approximately 25 miles south of San Francisco), will benefit the T.J. Martell Foundation for Leukemia and Cancer

Says Giuffria, "Rock and rollers like myself are tried and true golf fanatics and we're really geared up for this tournament. It's even more exciting because we will be helping to raise funds for a worthwhile organization." Having said that, Giuffria announced that his fellow "golf fanatics" this year will include Mick Fleetwood and John McVie of Fleetwood Mac, Rick Nielson and Robin Zander of Cheap Trick, members of Ratt and The Tubes, who will be joined by sports, motion picture and TV celebrities.

Tournament play will be five man scramble with a shotgun start at 11:30 am (Canadian Music Industry Golf Tournament committee take note). It's expected that 200 golfers and 40 celebrities will take part.

Other rock 'n' roll heavies tentatively firm include Alice Cooper, Journey's Jonathan Cain, Def Leppard's Joe Elliot and Rick Savage, Julian Lennon, Van Halen's Sammy Hagar, Smokey Robinson and Stephen Stills.

Marx chooses Ducharme to open Canadian tour

Capitol recording artist Annette Ducharme has been firmed as the opening act for the Richard Marx cross-Canada dates. Capitol Canada had apparently submitted several tapes of their recording acts to Marx for consideration, and he was reportedly quite impressed with Ducharme's new album, Blue Girl, and asked that she be part of the tour.

Dates firmed at press time include Winnipeg (Sept 10), Saskatoon (11), Calgary (12), Edmonton (13), and Vancouver (21). Other dates are now being pencilled in and will be announced shortly.

For more information contact Marianne Girard at Capitol's Publicity Department, 416-677-5050.

Initial shipment of 35,000 for Polydor's Stones set

The Rolling Stones' Steel Wheels tour has not only created excitement at ticket wickets across Canada and the U.S., but their album product is showing signs of doing the same at retail. Although Polydor's catalogue product of the Stones releases (London/ABKCO) have been steady sellers, the announcement of the tour has obviously created further customer interest, particularly with the August 15th release of the box set, The Rolling Stones Singles Collection - The London Years. More than 35,000 units have been initially shipped, an impressive number, considering the high ticket price on the set: a Suggested List of $70 for the CD set and $46 for the LP/Cassette package.

The set contains 58 recordings comprising all the Stones singles, A and B sides, released in North America and the U.K. between 1963 and 1971. Also included is a 72-page book containing the lyrics and single sleeves as well as many never-before-seen photos of the band and a recording history complete with credits and anecdotes compiled by writer Bruce Eder. The recordings were digitally remastered from the original masters under the supervision of producer Andrew Oldham.

Current Stones product is released by CBS, including Mick Jagger's solo albums, while Keith Richards releases on the Virgin label. A new LP, Steel Wheels, released on the Rolling Stones label by Columbia Records, is expected to be in the stores August 28. A radio only CD of Mixed Emotions, the first single taken from the Steel Wheels LP, is now at radio. The CD contains the single version (4:00), the LP version (4:40) and producer Chris Kimsey's 12" mix (6:10).

WASH SAYS

Fighting City Hall . . . ? The CRTC recently approved the sale of London's CKSL and CIQM to Tememedia Communications, and there's big bucks involved . . . something like $7.3 million. Well . . . it didn't go unnoticed, I'll tell you. This note is very interesting: "In retaliation to the expected big corporate budget for CKSL/CIQM, CJBK has announced they are changing to the 'all-recipe' format Sept. 1st." (EC: What's an 'all-recipe' format . . . ?)

Fish wars and 54-40 . . . ! What great timing for a release. As Canada marshalls its forces on the anchored 54-40 marker . . . the border between Canada, in this case, British Columbia and Alaska . . . and the U.S. Coast Guard sends our fishermen packing . . . 54-40, the band, releases their new album, appropriately titled Fight For Love. (EC: How many Canadian troops can you get on one marker . . . ?) Now, if I were a hotshot promotion person (EC: You're not, and there aren't any . . . !) Forget it! (EC: They probably will . . . the troops, I mean!)

Have I got a dessert for you! If you're a couch potato . . . and there are quite a few of you . . . here's the perfect end of a meal, between meals or however you want to take it, sweet! It's called American Glace (EC: American? That's taking Free Trade too far!) and it's 100 percent cholesterol and fat-free, very low in sodium and suitable for all you lactose-sensitive people . . . with no artificial ANYTHING . . . and it's even kosher! I haven't tasted it yet, but I'm about to call my dear old friend, Marianne Heller at 416-962-7739, and ask her about it. She's the head honcho for American Glace Canada. Oh! By the way, if you happen to be at the CNE, you can find this frozen dessert at the Yogurt Hut. (EC: Is there a musical theme here somewhere . . . ?)

Any takers for CD Cancon gold! Ron Bourgeois of Montreal's 980 HITS is wondering if anyone had considered a CD series on Cancon gold, similar to the Century 21 Gold Disc Service out of the U.S. This service does have some Cancon, but, considering what there is available in Canada, not nearly enough. Where are all those creative movers and shakers? (EC: Between jobs . . . ?)

I hate cornflakes . . . ! They tell me the battle lines, however ragged, have been drawn over the proposed dropping of the CD long box . . . which is as inevitable as the death of vinyl (EC: Diplomacy . . . ?) To punch home his point, one of the battlers has a cornflakes box on his desk alongside a pile of jewel boxes, and he tells the record people who pass through or by his office, that the cornflakes box is real marketing smarts and sells cornflakes, which doesn't say too much for the stand-alone jewel boxes. (EC: To borrow a saying from radio programmes, "If it's in the grooves . . . it'll sell!")

They're talking Christmas already! Just as I was getting used to and enjoying the hot muggy days of summer . . . ZOWIE . . . it's Christmas talk once more. WEA's Garry Newman says the smart retailer will order their Christmas product now . . . and he's suggesting a baleful of the Randy Travis album, back to back, of course, with his new album, which is just being released as well. (EC: Is that a plug . . . ?)

Here's another Ho! Ho! item! Hallmark Cards, the American parent, sent me a cassette and compact disc of their new Carols Of Christmas release, which features Sarah Vaughan, Samuel Ramey and The Mormon Tabernacle Choir. They do all the old traditional Christmas stuff, and it's beautifully done. Did I hear from the Canadian operation? Funny you should ask. No, but I called them, but I guess I didn't have to be reminded that they're not in the record business. (EC: You should have tried W.H. Smith . . . !)

A station with heart . . . ! Q107's Rockin' John Derringer was "Johnny-on-the-spot" (EC: Is that a pun?) when he picked up on a local news item in one of Toronto's dailies. A seventeen year old Toronto youth had been fined $107 for innocently parking a drunk driver's truck . . . and being that John is a supporter of the on-going battle against drinking and driving . . . he called the kid and offered to pay for the ticket on behalf of Q107. Obviously it was an offer that couldn't be refused and as a footnote John says, "Drinking and driving is probably the most unhip thing someone can do." (EC: Right on. . . John!)

Talk about impersonal . . . ! Most people in the industry, that I know, don't really expect to get a drooly letter thanking them for lending a hand, financially or otherwise to events that happen within the industry. It's a nice touch . . . when well done, but to receive a form letter, addressed to "Dear Sponsor", and signed "The Committee", with little in between, is a little hard to take. I'd rather not be thanked. (EC: When you're losing all that business, it's hard to remember your name!)

You gotta get up before dawn . . . ! to beat Sunrise. While all the talk has been going on about the soft, soft and softer retail scene, the Sunrise people have been enjoying one of their best quarters for some time. A major factor in this success is their attitude. They're promoting the hits, catalogue . . . and country! The hits are never any problem, but when you can effectively position country and the real solid catalogue product, you have an extra edge . . . and that's what the Sunrise stores have done. (EC: You mean someone's catering to the 25 to 49 age group . . . ?)

Seals & Crofts re-enter spotlight with Peace Tour

Ten years ago, for personal and musical reasons, the soft-rock duo of Seals & Crofts called it a day. This summer marks their return to the stage and finds them with plans underway for future studio efforts.

The Peace Concert Tour, the occasion of their reappearance, was conceived of after, eight months ago, the pair was invited by the Los Angeles Ba-hai community to present a document entitled The Promise of World Peace to the film and music industries. The primary purpose of the tour is to promote a plan for peace as outlined in this document, but, assures Jimmy Seals, each date will be, first and foremost, a musical event. "We're going to have the document there and we're going to announce the purpose of our tour," he informs, "then we're going to play music and not talk about it anymore until after the concert."

The tour itself, consisting of eight shows, interestingly will take place entirely in Canada, which Seals describes as "a spiritual Switzerland". "Canada has been responsible for so many movements and has always been able to clearly state what their position was on the issues, a little more clearly than some of the other countries," he offers in explanation.

Water Music, a new record label carrying Doug Cameron, who will be the support act for Seals & Crofts, is presenting the Peace Concert Tour. "They're trying to give some new artists a break," relates Seals, "and they're trying to do some things that contribute some kind of service to mankind."

In addition to wanting to spend more time with their families, the duo decided to stop recording because they felt that the music they were producing was not well-suited to the rapidly changing popular tastes of the late seventies. "This was along about the time that disco music had come in," Seals recalls. "We found ourselves with a borderline disco hit record called You're The Love," he elaborates, "and we went out on tour, but we found ourselves in a Club 54 kind of situation."

"There are certain kinds of songs that we just can't do," he admits, "It just doesn't sound normal for us to do it. It doesn't sound believable and it's really not from our hearts." Concluding that this was not what they wanted to do, the pair split, Seals moving to Costa Rica where he has a coffee farm, Dash Crofts settling in Nashville after living in Mexico and Australia.

Seals offers an informed outsider's overview of the changes that have taken place in popular music during his decade departure from the arena. "There's a dual process I see," he states. "One is that all of the technological advancements have put music in the hands of people who normally couldn't afford to do it."

On the negative side of the ledger, "I feel like the dynamics have been lost in records quite a lot," he suggests, and "there's a certain spirit to that [live music] that's been lost, and I think there's a meaninglessness throughout everybody's lives at this time in the world and I think that the music reflects

The contemporary music scene, he feels will be much more open to his style of music than it was ten years ago. "According to what some of the record people have expressed," he states, "they're having problems with new artists: Unless they're really really dynamite, their lifespan is so short and the competition is so great . . . in order to sell records they're going back to the sixties and the seventies and trying to tap some of the oldies but goodies market because there are certain elements in those songs that are universal in their appeal."

"We're getting as much airplay in the United States now as we got when we were out promoting the records when they were fresh," he declares. "When we get our BMI statements, it reflects that that was a creative time in music that people like . . . Some of the record executives have expressed that they can sell more records with older or established artists than with new."

With this in mind, Seals & Crofts plan to re-enter the studio for another kick at the can. "We'd like to have another album out, hopefully this year," says Seals. "We, at least, have to try to give it a shot because I really feel that if you have something you want to say and there's a forum to say it, get out there and do it." With both a message and an outlet, in the form of The Peace Concert Tour, all that remains to be seen is whether the duo can find an audience that will support them as they make music geared more directly to the state of their hearts than to the state of the charts.

What is there Behind The Green Fence?

by Alexander Veretennikov (Novosti Free Press)

Following is an interview by Alexander Veretennikov of the Novosti Free Press, with Marianna Algina, editor of Behind The Green Fence, a rock paper recently launched in Tallinn, Estonia.

Our publication helps Estonian rock buffs shape their own judgement on the basis of personal impressions, rather than hackneyed lamentation about some rock threat from the West.

A whole generation of musicians were driven "into basements" by the official ban on rock music . . . and yet, Estonia's best songs for 1989 were Non-Nuclear Estonia from the rock band Data, Lord Save The King from the punk outfit Vennaskond, and Hands Up, Virumaa of the heavy metal I.M.K.E.

The demanding and critical position of our rock newspaper regarding the diversity of popular music in Estonia helped young people tell the difference between genuine art and the mediocre product of rock pushers who profit from public ignorance and semi-official denunciation of rock.

With our help, rock bands now play dates at prestigious sites which they couldn't even dream of a short time ago. However, bureaucrats have done a good job at alienating rock musicians, squeezing them like lemons and then throwing them away. Most rock musicians were denied subsidies from the government after they had played dozens of exhausting tours around the country for token remuneration. But our paper has convinced Tallin's Komsomol committee to give them financial assistance.

We are a profitable publication and we pay all our expenses. The Green Fence is a monthly with a circulation of 15,000. Our staff are not professionals, but the quality is professional.

Leningrad's Rock Club and Moscow's Rock Lab print their newspapers, but they don't have modern equipment, while ours are top-notch facilities.

The newspaper is our main tool of speaking to young people. The overwhelming majority of them listen to rock music, and their interest in heavy metal, disco, new wave, punk, and in particular, performers, acts as a character-forming factor and as a basis for friendships. Our contributors deal with it. Most of them are scholars, teachers, critics, philosophers, musicians from both this country and abroad.

In the Brezhnev era, many problems were dealt with at the expense of young people, the most energetic and cooperative segment of society. As a result, they lost conviction, their belief in the feasibility of the goals proclaimed. Today, young people are now the driving force of perestroika. But they want to live well now . . . not in some distant future. The Behind The Green Fence helps young people think about the world around them in quiet, letting them be what they are.

ALBUMS

BEASTIE BOYS

Paul's Boutique - Capitol - C1-92844-F
- Rap
Considered by many nothing more than hype-driven charlatans of flash in the pan genre, the Beastie Boy had a tall order to fill with their second outing, a task they have carried out admirably. An exceptionally varied effort, they employ more subtle samples and funkier grooves than other current rap artists, with the possible exception of De La Soul, and have delivered their most radio-accessible single to date in Hey Ladies. While High Plains Drifter is strongly reminiscent of earlier work, tracks like The Sounds Of Science, featuring assorted Beatles' lifts, and B-Boy Bouillabaisse, an extended medley, display fine versatility within a too-often banal style. - CM

THE TRAGICALLY HIP

Up To Here - MCA - MCA-6310-J
- Pop
From start to finish, Up To Here is a dark and brooding collection of musical stories with nary a happy ending to share between them. Excellent production by Don Smith focusses on Gordon Downie's instantly recognizable vocals and superb bluesy guitars. All tracks are key and the lead single, Blow At High Dough, a certain add for both AOR and CHR. This band has come a long way since their debut release, clearly defining their gutsy electric sound while displaying a quieter, but not gentler, side with several acoustic flavoured cuts, in particular, the rootsy Boots Or Hearts. - CM

DANNY WILSON

Be Bop Mop Top - Pop
Virgin - VL-2594-W
In a word, the music of Danny Wilson is popcorn. Light, airy, and it doesn't fill you up. But that doesn't mean you would want it everyday, either. Mary's Prayer was a hit for this British trio two years ago, but nothing here contains the hooks to warrant a successful single this time around. The new one is If Everything You Said Was True, perfect for A/C, but I can't wait may interest some AOR's. - DS

VAYA CON DIOS

Vaya Con Dios - Pop
Ariola - 209 400-N
After one listen, it's easy to tell why Vaya Con Dios have already proven to be a success in Europe. Fusing smokey-club jazz, blues and pop into a sound that might serve as a soundtrack for a trip through France, Belgium or Switzerland, Vaya Con Dios are now ready to take on the North American market. The group is really a duo, vocalist Dani Klein and contrabassist Dirk Schoufs, and they're backed by a variety of studio musicians, with the only amplified instrument on the LP being the organ. Quebec is the most likely place for this record to take off and with the door already opened by such international successes as Johnny Clegg and The Gipsy Kings, watch for stations there to be the first to playlist the single, Johnny (the LP's only French track), once covered by Edith Piaf. - DS

STARSHIP

Love Among The Cannibals - Pop
RCA - 9696-1-R-N
Starship is now a pure pop band, and the multi-platinum success of their last LP showed that no matter who's in the group (after umpteen incarnations, who cares), they can still sell. This is harmless music made for CHR, and it's Not Enough, the first single, is bound to make it into the Top 10 before you can say White Rabbit. The Burn and Healing Waters are also radio-worthy, but the most lyrically interesting tune is the title track, which takes a slick stab at a certain former bandmate. - DS

JASON AND THE SCORCHERS

Thunder And Fire - Rock
A&M - SP-5264-W
An apt title, indeed. The Scorchers' latest kicks into fifth gear with When The Angels Cry, and the boys make only a couple of pit stops on this one. They catch their breath on Close Up The Road and No Turning Back, but otherwise it's full tilt rock and roll in The Fabulous Thunderbirds/Georgia Satellites mode. Find You is the first single, and it's all set for AOR. This is music to wake the neighbours by. - DS

AJO & THE HUNDRY BOYS

Ride An Elephant - Pop
Edit - XTC-3301-W
This type of dreadfully stiff and uninspiring record is the result when heavy sequencing is intended to sound like a real band. Gotta Keep Movin' On, a Prince sounding funky pop track, and the softer Girl Across The Sun and Tomorrow Will I See You Again are the best of the lot on this uniformly flat effort. - CM

NEO A4

The Hard Way - Rock
Duke Street - DSR-31056-J
Over the last couple of years, NEO A4 have enjoyed a strong following in their home province of Alberta, but with the release of their third LP, that following may just swell to include fans from coast to coast. That's The Way, the first single, is a melodic, mid-tempo track that has multi-format written all over it. The rest of the LP is an interesting blend of energetic guitar rock and alternative cuts that campus radio may take an interest in. Again & Again, Calling You and In Our World are also worth a listen, and the full digital recording of this outing is a real plus. - DS

BEAT FARMERS

Poor & Famous - Pop
MCA - MCA-6296-J
A bumper crop of quality tracks, this album bounces and sways with its endearing blend of pop, rock and country. It is thoroughly refreshing, and frighteningly rare, to find a record completely devoid of synthetic sounds and the Beat Farmers make it perfectly clear that no computer can create such a warm and lifelike performance as real instruments. While all songs are key, standouts include Hideaway, Girl I Almost Married and Wheels, a ballad that should be welcomed with open arms by country programmers who take the time to listen to releases that are not entirely of the format. - CM

SHAWN PHILLIPS

Beyond Here Be Dragons - Pop/Rock
Chameleon - D1-74764-W
After six years without a record, Phillips has returned on a new label, and with material full of intense lyrics and wonderful instrumentation that's sure to please. Longtime fans of his will remember the days when his songs had a home on AOR, and Share The Wealth is the track that's going to return him to the airwaves. Wind Of The Angels and Sands Of Time are also top notch. Producer Michael Hoenig (formerly of Tangerine Dream) is also credited with synthesizer programming and 'sound colouring', and with a credit like that, you can't help but want to give this one a shot. - DS

MALCOLM McLAREN

Waltz Darling - Pop
Epic - OE-45247-H
When a new fad comes along, expect Malcolm McLaren to be nearby. This time out, the eccentric dabbler takes a run at the dance clubs and, on Deep In Vogue, vogueing specifically. He makes good use of various collaborations, with Dave Stewart sharing writing credits for Algernon's Simply Awfully Good At Algebra and Jeff Beck contributing some elegant guitar, especially on Call A Wave. Throughout, the effort is slickly produced and danceable without pandering to the accepted sounds of modern disco. While the album is of consistently good quality, it accomplishes little more than proving again that, although quick to spot a trend, McLaren is no pioneer and depends on current crazes to spark expression more commercial than artistic. - CM

HOODOO GURUS

Magnum Cum Louder - Rock
RCA - 9781-1-R-N
This is the fourth release for the Gurus, and fans who were expecting another great set of songs like 1987's Blow Your Cool may be in for a disappointment, but just a slight one. Come Anytime is single number one, an acoustic-guitar based rocker that stands out from the rest of the LP, but that's unfortunate because in the past the Gurus have proved to be one of Australia's more exciting bands. There is a slight resemblance to Midnight Oil on some tracks which may account for their popularity down under. If you try hard enough you may eventually come to like this album, but die hard Gurus fans will probably file it away after only a couple of listens. - DS

EDGAR WINTER

Mission Earth - Pop/Rock
Rhino - R1-70709-F
Talk about a blast from the past. Winter is back with a new LP, and unlike some of his contemporaries who are trying to recapture the sound of their glory days, this LP is mighty fresh. This is a concept album a la Townshend's Iron Man. This time, the music is based on a series of science fiction books of the same name by L. Ron Hubbard, with all the lyrics written by the author. Winter fans of old will like this album - it ain't Frankenstein, but his talent as a musician really shows. Try Treacherous Love or Cry Out. - DS

Daryl Braithwaite - Pop
Edge - CBS Associated - FZ-45206-H
Unless you lived in Australia in the mid-seventies, you've probably never heard of this guy. His former group, Sherbert, was a very hot band a dozen or so years ago, winning all sorts of Australian music awards left and right. This is Braithwaite's first North American release, a collection of better than average A/C tunes featuring solid vocals and tight production. Worth noting to programmers is the inclusion of two of Ian Thomas tracks, As The Days Go By and All I Do, the former being a good bet for airplay. The cassette features three bonus tracks, including a cover of Peter Gabriel's I Don't Remember. - DS

Whittaker breaking fast with new Universal single

From early indications, Universal Records, based in Nashville and tagged as the "hottest" label in country, has scored a major coup with the signing of Roger Whittaker. Initial single release, Just Across The Rio Grande, co-written by Don Cook and Chick Rains, was taken from Whittaker's album, I'd Fall In Love Tonight, which was produced in Nashville by Universal's President Jimmy Bowen and A&R Director James Stroud.

Canadian country and A/C programmers who are patched into advanced American mailing services are already charting and playlisting the single, which was shipped to Canadian radio by Tembo on August 4th.

Publicist Gino Empry reveals that Whittaker is currently recovering from surgery to both knees. He is undergoing physiotherapy until mid-August when he will launch his new album, Home Loving Man, which will coincide with a tour of the U.K. He returns to North America for a 23-date Christmas tour during which he will introduce his youngest daughter Jessica, "the only one of his five children who wants to follow a stage career," says Empry.

Westfall chalking up a busy summer schedule

Carmen Westfall, this year's Big Country Award winner as Outstanding New Artist, has been enjoying one of the busiest seasons of her career. The Reba recording artist will be on a four-date tour across Northern Ontario (Sept 14 through 17) with Terry Sumson, Marie Bottrell and Myrna Lorrie. The tour was arranged by Mark Gross a local talent buyer and promoter. Also on tap is a solo billing for the CNE Bandshell in Toronto on August 25th. That same day she will squeeze in a performance at Sneaky Dee's, a popular Toronto club celebrating Country Music Week over that time frame.

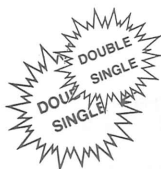

A rush trip will take her to Ottawa's Willowtree (25), and then she opens for Waylon Jennings at Brampton's Superstars Club (30).

When she's not on the tour circuit, Westfall is in the studio producing other artists. She is currently working on a session for Milton, Ontario native Carline Baly at Oshawa's Ambassador studio.

Westfall's latest single, Talk Around Town, the title track of her recently released album, is currently charting across Canada.
