Home Taping and DAT disturbs music group

Members of the Music Copyright Action Group have been actively lobbying government with regard to action on copyright changes and recently zeroed in on Marcel Masse, Minister of Communications, informing him of the liabilities of home taping and Digital Audio Tape. In a letter to Masse, dated August 23, 1989, it referred to the "agreement" between representatives of the recording and consumer electronics industries. The announcement, according to the letter, "lauded the joint acceptance of the Serial Copy Management System, which purports to limit the ability of digital audio tape decks to copy from digital sources."

As the letter points out, the new system's "only ability is to limit the number of copies made from an original digital copy."

It was further pointed out to Masse that "An unlimited number of original copies can be made from compact discs, pre-recorded DAT cassettes and digital broadcasts," and that "Additionally, it allows unrestricted copying from analogue sources." The music group's letter stresses that "Analogue to analogue copying, which constitutes the lion's share of our current annual losses (in excess of $650 million) remains uncontrolled."

The letter goes on to suggest that "The announcement has given the impression that the home taping problem has been solved," which the members contend, "is far from the truth, continuing with, "It is a band-aid

FACTOR funds depleted for tour support program

The Board of Directors of FACTOR, has announced that the funding for its International Tour Support Program has been fully committed for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1989. It has been indicated, however, that FACTOR will continue to accept some applications to the program should additional funding become available.

The funds for the International Tour Support Program are administered by FACTOR on behalf of the Department of Communications. It has been pointed out that FACTOR has contributed to the "shortfall incurred" on more than sixty international tours and showcases by Canadian artists since the program was established in 1986.

Merger in final stages for PROCAN/CAPAC

Michael R. Rock, General Manager of CAPAC, reports that plans for the merger of PROCAN and CAPAC are going ahead as scheduled. Directors from both performing rights organizations have met regularly over the past year to draft a Constitution for the new society. "This is being put into 'legalize', says Rock, "but we think you'll share our enthusiasm over the provisions for regional and music style representations . . . we have tried to make the new society as democratic and representative as possible."

Rock goes on to point out that collectively, the two organizations had "sought and received an opinion from the federal government that it would not oppose the merger, on the condition that the term of the composers and publishers agreement be set at two or three years." CAPAC's directors had apparently approved this condition.

Rock also reports that work is now proceeding on the mergers of the Vancouver and Montreal offices. "In Toronto," he explains, "we will have a 'downtown' members' office." Head office details have not yet been finalized.

In conclusion, Rock advises that work is continuing on "the development of a common license file . . . and we are planning for common works and television files, which are large tasks, made all the more so because we have to continue to do our regular work at the same time."

solution to a monumental problem . . . the only perceived benefit is that the two industries are communicating."

In conclusion, the members appealed to the continuing support of Masse, "in controlling the growth of home taping through a Rental Right and in enacting legislation that will provide composers, performing artists and copyright owners with compensation through a royalty on blank tape and hardware."

CHUM AM shocks with All Oldies format

While many in the industry were expecting Toronto's CHUM AM to go head to head with the city's only rocker, CFTR, Ross Davies, CHUM's Programming & Operations Manager, shocked the airwaves with a move to an All Oldies format. "It's not a nostalgic trip," says Davies, "This is the music that made CHUM AM a giant back in the early sixties and seventies, but we are programming these hits with a today's feel." He concludes with, "CHUM AM will once again be one of the most exciting stations in Toronto."

With the announcement of the format change came news of the addition of Bob Magee to the most important time slot of the day . . . morning drive. Magee In The Morning will also feature established 1050 CHUM personalities Brian Henderson and Robbie Evans, and a new addition to CHUM in the morning, Samantha Houston. Houston most recently hosted CHUM-FM's public affairs program In Toronto.

Hot Shoe Show firmed for Toronto's O'Keefe

The fourth annual T.O. Hot Shoe Show will play Toronto's O'Keefe for two nights (Oct. 27 & 28). Several top names in ballet, modern, contemporary and jazz dance will share the bill.

Among the featured performers will be Canadian prima ballerinas Karen Kain and Evelyn Hart, the Randy Glynn Dance Project, Toronto dancers/choreographers Christopher House and Robert Desrosiers, and Montreal's La La La Human Steps, excerpting from their latest work New Demons.

Denys Ganio and Dominique Khalfouni, partners from France's Roland Petit Company will make a special guest appearance as will Mercedes Ellington, star of Broadway's Sophisticated Ladies and granddaughter of the "Duke".

One of the highlights will be members of the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre, who will perform a new work by New York choreographer Barry Martin. Martin, the artistic director of Deja Vu Dance Theatre, has been confined to a wheelchair since a 1983 automobile accident in South Africa. Because of apartheid regulations, careless medical attention left him a quadriplegic.

The T.O. Hot Shoe Show is produced by George Randolph, artistic director of Studio Dance Theatre and former principal dancer with the Alvin Ailey Repertory Ensemble and Les Ballet Jazz. Executive producer is Event Productions. For further information contact Julie Giles at 416-486-0140.

New Kids On The Block receive platinum for their album Hangin' Tough from CBS Sr. V.P. Don Oates, President Paul Burger and Mgr. Media Relations Val Lapp.

WATERSAYS

WOW! How about that? Radio watchers in Toronto were flabbergasted and the record industry had to take the weekend to recover from CHUM AM's new All Oldies format. But hang on . . . it's not bad . . . in fact it's pretty good . . . but for a format like that you need someone who was there . . . RT . . . to be exact. (EC: Now you're scouting for radio!)

Tickets for the Stones . . . ? Yes, I did get tickets for the Monday concert by the Rolling Stones . . . a rare happening for a major label to supply tickets for name acts. However, thanks to Bill Bannon at CBS, I had GREAT tickets to a rock phenomenon . . . and I didn't even mind getting felt up by the female security guard. (EC: She wasn't looking for Coca-Cola . . . was she?)

Rumour has it . . . ! The Hollywood Reporter has bought Polygram records. This comes from an impeccable source . . . The Hollywood Reporter. (EC: Achtung . . . !)

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans, and by all those preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent, and their capacity for inspired leadership"

Another day for Honest Ed!

I don't know yet if I'm to call him Sir Honest Ed or not, and all he'll do is flash his new Toronto Cop's badge at me . . . something Gino Empry arranged. Anyway, as you know, it was Sir Honest, who saved London's Old Vic from the wrecker's ball, for which the Queen was very grateful. Well, back home in Toronto, Sir Honest, also saved the Royal Alexandra Theatre, away back in 1963. So, being as we don't have a Queen on this side of the pond, a couple of feds, Environment Minister Lucien Bouchard and David MacDonald (he has Honourable in front of his name), did the honours on Sept. 7th, recognizing Sir Honest's Royal Alexandra Theatre as a National Historical Site. (EC: Sir Honest Ed . . . ?)

Gino will have his day! It's getting close for Gino Empry's day . . . September 17th. That's the day when the Famous People Players will honour Toronto's aggressive, never forget a name or a face, Gino Empry, the city's name of names in the publicity and PR game. Lincoln Alexander, the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, will do the honours at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre Theatre. This is one honour making date I won't miss. (EC: Neither will Gino, but he can't promise he won't fall asleep!)

Dismal July stats trigger optimism

Across the board record sales continue to slump as the Canadian Recording Industry Association reveals its statistics for the month of July. However, optimism appears to prevail, as most in the industry believe the fall months will herald "gangbuster" sales as the "heavy hitters" are released.

Compact discs suffered a bit of a slowdown, with net shipments of only 645,000 for the month, a slight increase of 4 percent, with a 29 percent increase ($5,587,000) for the year to date figures. A 4 percent decrease was registered for net value of sales for the month ($7,891,000) with a 21 percent increase ($68,646,000) for year to date sales.

The 7" single continued its dismal downward performance, registering a whopping 41 percent decrease in shipments for the month (246,000) which works out to a 22 percent decrease (2,033,000) for year to date, and a 36 percent decrease ($358,000) for the month and a 15 percent decrease ($2,965,000) for year to date net value of sales.

Surprising was the levelling off and decrease of cassette shipments, down 25 percent for the month (2,151,000) which registered a 15 percent decrease in sales ($13,453,000). However, on the year to date shipments and net value of sales, there was a slight increase, 10 percent in shipments (16,957,000) and a 10 percent increase in sales ($94,577,000).

The 12" single levelled off and in fact registered an increase of 11 percent in shipments (40,000) for the month, which, unfortunately turned out to be a 4 percent decrease in year to date figures (290,000), with an overall increase of 5 percent ($1,191,000) for year to date net value of

A memorable Labour Day . . . ! This had to be one of the best Labour Days, for me, in recent history. Besides the Stones concert, I was invited to view the CNE Airshow from the roof of one of the pods at Ontario Place. There were quite a few record people invited as well . . . thanks to Julie Giles, publicist for the Forum. The view was terrific, the food and refreshment . . . too much. What a capper for a very exciting season at both Ontario Place and the CNE. I hope Julie has the job again next year. Taking care of the press and the record industry was done with a great deal of panache. Can't say too much about Canada's Wonderland . . . I never did find out if they had anyone up there but ticket and parking people . . . and a couple of fish handlers. (EC: They had a couple of good days . . . didn't they?)

Atilla The Hun . . . ! Watch out for A&M. They're huddled together up at Arrowhoun Pines . . . And their inspiration is that legendary hun, who won over people or killed them! (EC: Let's get together!)

Speaking of huns . . . ! Wait for the shit to hit the fan about a marriage that was definitely not made in heaven. (EC: Does it involve GL & JS . . . ?)

sales.

Vinyl albums appeared to be out of control, plunging 25 percent for the month with a 41 percent ($1,961,000) decrease in net value of sales, and a huge 50 percent decrease in year to date figures (2,215,000) which scored a 49 percent decrease ($13,634,000) in year to date net value of sales.

New on the block is statistical information on the recently introduced cassette single. There were 163,000 units shipped in the month of July with a net value of sales of $257,000. It was revealed that to date 342,000 cassette singles have been shipped, which registers a dollar figure of $547,000.

Overall, the CRIA statistics reveal that July registered a decrease in both shipments and net value of sales, 18 percent and 14 percent respectively, but that there was a slight increase in shipments and sales for year to date of 1 percent and 5 percent respectively.

Feldman wraps Penta Boyfriends soundtrack

Sam Feldman has completed music supervision for American Boyfriends, the sequel to Sandy Wilson's Genie award winning My American Cousin. The project is regarded as "a breakthrough" for the Canadian film and music industry in that it utilizes mostly Canadian talent for the soundtrack album.

Included in the soundtrack are Sass Jordan and Colin James performing Rescue Me and Back In My Arms Again respectively, a couple of tracks from the Motown era, Bachman Turner Overdrive with Woolly Bully, and Barney Bentall with his version of the Buddy Holly classic True Love Ways as well as an original composition of Restless Dreamer. Also featured on the album are original songs by Paul Hyde and Spirit Of The West, The Guess Who's Shakin' All Over, Wilson Pickett's Midnight Hour, and Sir Douglas Quintet's She's About A Mover.

The original music score for the film was composed by Terry Frewer. The film debuts at the Festival of Festivals in Toronto this September 9th, with a theatrical release in early October. The soundtrack will be released on the Penta label with distribution in Canada by WEA. The soundtrack will be released simultaneously with the film.

The Vancouver-based S.L. Feldman And Associates are also the music supervisors for CTV's Neon Rider series. The pilot is completed and will be aired in January of next year. Included in the original score by Terry Frewer is a theme written by Bill Henderson as well as songs by Blue Rodeo, The Scramblers, Mark Holden (Boulevard), and Dave Pickell. The series is now in full production and the Feldman group is pursuing original music by Canadian artists for each episode. Those interested should call 604-734-5945.

The Feldman organization has further expanded its film and television music services with the formation of a new department representing several top Canadian composers. Included are Terry Frewer, Clare Lawrence, Bill Henderson, Brian MacLeod, Bob Buckley, David Sinclair and Simon Kendall.

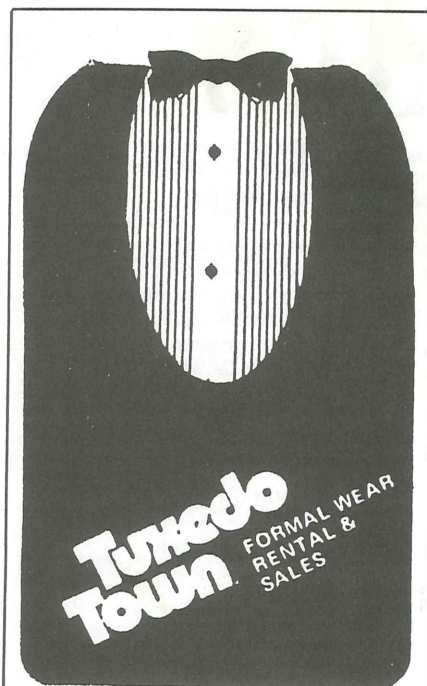

The Feldman group recently acquired Morton Talent, Western Canada's largest theatrical booking agency. As well, The Feldman organization has announced the exclusive Canadian representation of Murray McLauchlan, currently charting with Please Don't Call It Running Away, taken from his Capitol album, Swinging On A Star.

Ingold/CBC launch for Maritimer Susan Dibbin

Ingold Records, a Halifax-based label, in conjunction with the CBC, has launched the recording career of Susan Dibbin with her self-titled CD/EP. The five-track release was produced by Glen Meisner and recorded at Studio H, CBC Radio in Halifax, with Karl Falkenham doing board chores for both the recording and mixing. Digital mastering took place at Toronto's McLearn Place by Wendy Smith. All five tracks were written by David Burton, Rita McNeil's band leader. Session people included Burton (drums, percussion, keyboards), Steve Naylor (keyboards), Dave MacIsaac and Clarence Deveau (electric guitar), Bruce Dixon (bass), and Burton, Dixon, Dibbin and Wayne Hunt on backing vocals.

Several A/C formatted radio stations have already charted and playlisted True Love Never Dies, a track that made it to the No. 1 position at CKBW Moncton.

Brookes Diamond Productions handles bookings for Dibbin and The Music Brokers is looking after promotion and tracking.

COVER STORY - by Chris Murray54 - 40 chipping away at the U.S. block

With a solid following in Canada, 54-40 still faces the ominous task of breaking the U.S. market. Their upcoming American tour with the Bodeans will present a golden opportunity to showcase Fight For Love, their fourth album, to audiences south of the border.

Lead singer, guitarist and chief songwriter Neil Osborne asserts that the band's current release is the strongest to date. "We've finally been able to translate what we wanted to translate onto a record," he says. Often, "when you go in to make a record, it doesn't quite sound like you thought it would," he continues. "This one sounds like we thought it should from the beginning to the end."

"We're completely satisfied with it," he declares, "and a lot of that has to do with, I think, the fact that we did it at home and we worked with people that we've worked with for a while."

"It was produced by myself with Dave Ogilvie, and I've worked with Dave Ogilvie on every project, either on the demos or on the records themselves," he explains, "and engineered by Greg Reely, who has done our sound and has done a lot of our engineering as well, and [recorded] at Mushroom Studios, which we started out our first record in." Osborne concludes: "All those factors contributed to the fact that it's very close and sort of easy to recognize what was going on with respect to making the record."

During sessions for the album, 54-40 took a short break from recording to play in the Soviet Union. "It came about through a filmmaker who was Russian and is now living here in Vancouver who was going over there to do some documentary type stuff on this festival," recalls Osborne, "and they wanted to know if there were a couple of Canadian bands interested in coming."

"So he went to our agent and asked for a list of bands, and he ran down the list and they'd heard of us," he informs, "because they'd had our video that they had pirated off satellite that had broadcasted a couple of times, our One Gun video. So they said, 'Yeah, let's get that 54-40 band.'"

Unfortunately, the band was unable to bring along product, although the Soviets had expressed an interest. "They wanted to buy some records," comments Osborne, "but they wanted to pay less than the record company sells them for, and they wanted to pay on delivery and the record company wanted advance money... We're considering," he hints, "giving them some of our earlier independent stuff that we have control over."

While the trip has given the band a stronger profile overseas, they have yet to secure European distribution through Reprise. "This is something we've been haggling over with our record company in Los Angeles," Osborne assures. "They have world rights to our record although they've neglected to distribute it outside the U.S. and Canada because, their reasoning is, if it's not successful in the states, to the gold status or whatever, there's no point. We are going to try, as friendly as possible," he stresses, "to get released from that obligation, so that if they don't want to release it, we'll get somebody else. We're pretty sure we can get away with that."

Osborne goes on to explain that 54-40 material has already found its way into Europe through alternative routes. "Our records have been distributed through a sort of warehouse that imports records from the States and Canada over to Europe," he informs. "There's little pockets of things happening here and there. Radio stations have played songs and whatnot. We'd like to get something a little more happening."

On the subject of being a Canadian act signed directly to a U.S. company, Osborne admits, "It's good and bad. The money's really good and the people there that work with you are really good." On the other hand, "you're competing against the other acts on your label a lot before you even go out and compete against the acts on other labels... As far as the United States is concerned," he suggests, "we've suffered because of that. We've fallen through the cracks a little bit and been a little bit neglected. I hope that all that's going to change."

Sadly, in Osborne's opinion, the best chance for U.S. success will arise if the band is dropped from the Reprise roster and is free to find a company willing to devote more effort to their releases. "It's always their option," he states. "They picked the last one up [Fight For Love], which I wasn't sure that they would because of the lack of groundwork that was done on the last one [Show Me] in the States. But I guess they do that a lot still, throw it against the wall and see if it sticks."

"They're willing to stick with a band for a few records and not worry about it, so I ain't gonna worry about it," he remarks. "We're doing really well in Canada with it and," hopes Osborne, "we can get our own thing happening in Europe. There's lots to do, but next record, if nothing happens, for whatever reason, if it's because of their lack of effort or if it just doesn't go, once again I'll be surprised if they pick another one up."

Apparently, with the release of Fight For Love, 54-40 must face an "amicable" fight for the attention of their own label stateside. It can only be hoped that the act manages to get the effective exposure needed to break internationally, whether with Reprise or through some future affiliation.

Bey, Boyd and Butler set for World Congress date

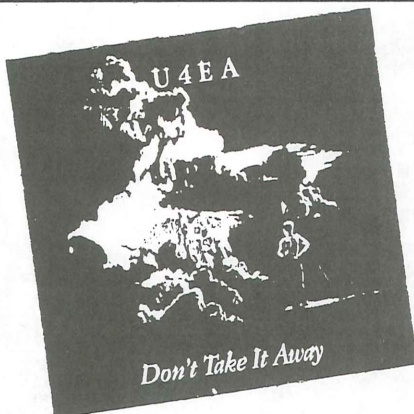

The 54th International P.E.N. World Congress will be hosted by Canada for the first time when a gala benefit concert will be staged at Toronto's Roy Thomson Hall (Sept. 24). The concert will star Salome Bey, Liona Boyd and Edith Butler and will be hosted by Adrienne Clarkson, well-known Canadian broadcast figure, currently hosting a CBC-TV series.

Proceeds from the gala will be dedicated to the International Writers in Prison Committee of International P.E.N., an organization that works to free writers who have been imprisoned for their writing.

It's expected that more than 600 delegates, including poets, playwrights, editors, novelists and essayists, will be in Toronto for the gala, the largest gathering of literary figures in the city's history.

Michael Tabbitt, Executive Director of Ottawa's Arts Court, will produce the gala. He joined Arts Court after three years as Manager of the Olympic Arts Festival of the XV Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988).

CFNY FM 102 reveals Modern Rock winners

Darren Wasylyk, Director of Promotion for Toronto's CFNY FM 102, reports that "After reviewing close to a thousand outstanding song entries from independent artists across Ontario," the station has trimmed the list down to the "Ten grand champions in our annual Modern Rock Talent Search for 1989."

The winners and their winning entries were Stranger Than Fiction (Rock The Cradle), Corey Ellis (Excited), Unwanted Pets (Stay With Me), James Connor (Utopia), The Knockouts (The Way You Make Me), Steven Boyle (A Tribute To Peter And The Wolf), Three To The Power Of Three (Walkin' On Water), Idyl Propets (Feel The Rain), Kathryn Eve (Waiting On Love), and Bossy (Girls Just Love My Number).

Each of the winners will have their song appear on the station's 1989 Modern Rock LP, to be released in the fall on the Black Label label. As well, each of the ten winners will be presented with a complete Music Computer System valued at $3,000 from Saved By Technology.

Winner of the Album Artist competition was John Carstens of Scarborough. His Photographs Of Rock composition was selected from all other entries for the jacket of the new LP. He wins $2,000 cash from Black Label and a $1,000 shopping spree at Grafix Art Supplies.

The station is currently showcasing 50 of the best song entries from this year's talent search, which can be heard weekdays at 9:50 am, 11:50 am, 2:50 pm and 6:50 pm. As well, a live concert is being planned featuring the ten grand champions. For more information contact Wasylyk at 461-453-7452.

C-FAX moves toward an all-digital environment

C-FAX Vice President Terry Spence reports the production department of the Victoria station "has moved another step toward an all-digital environment," with the addition of Digital Audio Tape mastering.

Spence continues with, "Our new Sony DAT system allows us to mix from a multi-track machine directly to digital tape, so the copies we play on the air or supply to clients to use on other stations sound like the originals. DAT also preserves the incredible clarity of CD production music and sound effects, giving us a significant improvement in quality."

Spence goes on to point out that "Our music production company, Seacoast Sound, has used DATs for some time so we know they can stand up to the rigors of daily use."

The station's Production Manager Johnny Zee apparently made the final decision to make the change after testing a DAT machine for a full week.

However, Spence stresses that as for using Digital Audio Tape directly on the air, "We think the present DAT system is a bit cumbersome, not yet as easy to use on the air as a cart machine," concluding with, "Having said that, there's no doubt in my mind that digital playback is inevitable."

COUNTRY

Cain and Carone off with new singles

Cindi Cain and George Carone, two artists who release on the Thunder Bay, Ontario based Golden Eagle label, have been quick to follow up their recent chart successes with a pair of new singles. Cain's latest, Just A Place Where Mem'ries Live, is another Fay Walker penning, produced in Nashville by Don Grashey. Cain has just gone off the charts with I Think That I'll Be Needing You This Time, which enjoyed 19 weeks on the national chart. Carone's new single, One Way Ticket, a Jerry Palmer original produced by Grashey in Nashville, follows his recent charter, When Is The Right Time.

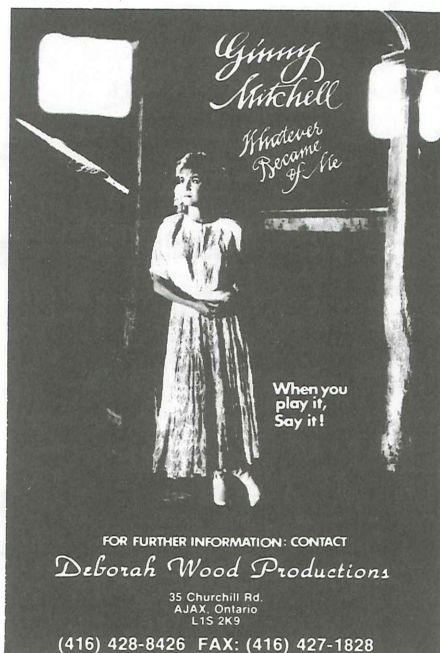

Shillington production for Dan Kennedy

Dan Kennedy releases his original, Just Like You, on the Flyin' High label. The single was recorded in Nashville at Reflections Studios, where it was produced by Cam Shillington.

Fort McMurray's CJOK active with summer dates

Super Country CJOK recently presented Highway 101 in concert for three sold-out dates at Fort McMurray's Keyano Theatre. Currently charting with Honky Tonk Heart, the Warner Bros band arrived in Fort McMurray a day prior to the concerts in order to take part in a CJOK Charity Slowpitch ball game, which attracted a large crowd and raised funds for a local charity.

The band also held an exclusive autograph session as one of the local country nightclubs and took part in a special one-hour live interview on CJOK, which focussed on their success, music and an in-depth look at the individual members of the band. One Ton Cadillac, a Fort McMurray band, opened each of the band's concerts. CJOK Music Director Barry Britto reports "The concerts went over very well. The ticket sales were overwhelming and each performance drew several standing ovations."

Lunar label sets stage for Farraway debut release

At twenty-three, Toronto songwriter, vocalist, multi-instrumentalist, sound engineer and producer Craig Farraway is somewhat unique in the recording field. He has overcome the handicap of near blindness, the result of being born an albino, to witness the release of his debut single, After All, on the Hamilton-based Lunar label. Farraway wrote both the plug side and the flip (Wonder What She's Doing), and co-produced the session with Robert Ott at Hamilton's Grant Avenue Studios. Farraway also doubles on keyboards and drums. The only other session musician was Mike "The Hammer" Hampson, on guitar.

Although playing his songwriting craft for ten years, Farraway's only previous release was his Dream On The Horizon track, which was included on the Olympic compilation album, The Big Picture. It was this Farraway track that was featured nationally in the CTV Olympic documentary Dreams Of Glory as well as on ABC-TV in the U.S. in connection with that network's Special Olympic broadcast. It was also used as the theme song on the 1988, post-game, Stanley Cup highlights televised by CBC-TV.

Farraway is currently working on material for his upcoming album, as well as adding to his major publishing signings with Warner/Chappell Music and Irving/Almo Music (A&M). For more information contact Robert Ott at Lunar Music, 416-575-0040.
