March industry stats indicate slight recovery

Record sales are recovering somewhat from a chilly winter season, according to statistics for the month of March released by the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA).

"[The figures] are obviously reflecting the continuing decline of vinyl," observes CRIA president Brian Robertson. Returns of 7" singles exceeded shipments by 93,000 units, down a whopping 133 percent from shipments for the same period last year. 12" single shipments were down 56 percent to 25,000 units, with sales down 57 percent from $229,000 in March 1989 to only $98,000 this year. LPs shipped only 46,000 units, a decline of 89 percent from March 1989. Net LP sales totalled only $324,000, down 88 percent from $2,696,000 a year ago.

Cassette sales remain relatively steady. Cassette shipments were up 9 percent from March 1989, to 2,590,000 units; net sales were up 14 percent to $16,255,000. For the year to date, cassette shipments decreased 4 percent to 6,960,000, while sales were up marginally from $42,324,000 to $43,050,000.

The real gains were posted for the CD configuration. According to Robertson, "for the first time the CD dollars exceed the cassette dollars." Sales of compact discs for the month of March edged out cassette sales with a total of $16,296,000, up 39 percent from a year ago. CD shipments were up 43 percent to 1,348,000 units for the month of March and up 27 percent to 3,561,000 units for the year to date. CD sales for the first three months of 1990 total $42,467,000, a 22 percent increase over last year.

Total shipments are up 8 percent for the month of March, to 4,391,000 units, while shipments for the year to date are down 3 percent to 11,829,000 units. Sales for March increased 15 percent over last year to $33,692,000, but due to the year's slow start, sales for the first three months of 1990 are up

Court action unlocks padlocked Diamond

Toronto's Diamond Club reports that it is open for business and that a dispute between the club and the owners of the building it occupies in downtown Toronto has been settled. "It's resolved . . . we're open," says the club's publicist Sharon Garvey.

The Toronto Star reported (April 27/90) that bailiffs had padlocked the popular nightclub the day before, forcing the cancellation of a concert by The Works, an A&M band. The action was apparently the result of a legal dispute between the operators of the Diamond and the building's owners, The Sherbourne Community Clinic Inc.

Garvey says the dispute was simply "a misunderstanding between our bookkeeper and the landlord's bookkeeper. It was a very unfortunate misunderstanding . . . and we went to court Friday and resolved it." She says confusion surrounding the incident has hurt the club. "We're trying to get out to the public that we're open," she says, adding that the Diamond is a valuable and popular venue. "A lot of the industry would agree it would really be a shame if the Diamond shut down . . . and the general public would certainly agree."

Stewart to sales rep for Capitol (Toronto)

John Toews, Capitol Canada's Central Region Manager, has announced the appointment of Tula Stewart to the position of sales representative for the Central Region (Toronto).

For the past three years, Stewart has been employed as a customer service representative and prior to that spent seven years as a sales secretary.

only 2 percent from the same period last year, at $88,905,000.

Robertson says the March statistics are encouraging. "Given the (economic) climate, I think the industry is holding its own." He points out that this is a transitional period, one that will continue over the year. "There's a whole generation that grew up on vinyl and they're finally realizing it's going. I think CD prices are becoming more flexible and the hardware is very attainable because of lower prices."

Janz to open for Etheridge's Canada dates

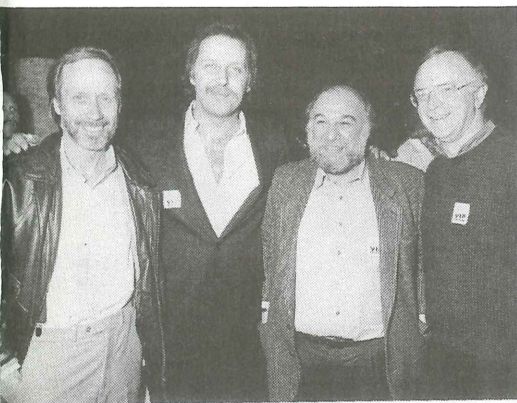

Paul Janz has been chosen as special guest for the Canadian dates on the upcoming Melissa Etheridge tour. The tour gets underway at Ottawa's National Arts Centre on May 11, followed by the Montreal Forum (12), the Moncton Coliseum (14), the Metro Centre in Halifax (15), and St. John's Memorial Arena (17).

Janz cracked the Top 10 of the RPM 100 singles chart on March 31/90 after only eight weeks of charting and two weeks later went Top 5. Renegade Romantic, his third A&M album, is now Top 30 on the RPM 100 album chart. Rocket To My Heart, the follow-up single to Tear, is expected to be released shortly. The video for Heart has just been shot on location in Miami and is set for a May 8 release.

Astley signs worldwide with BMG Music pubbery

RCA recording artist Rick Astley, who gained international chart success with his debut single Never Gonna Give You Up (No. 1 on the RPM 100 Singles chart - March 19, 1988), has signed a worldwide publishing deal with BMG Music Publishing International. The announcement was made by Diana Graham, Vice President, BMG Music Publishing International.

Astley is currently writing solo and also collaborating for his forthcoming album to be released in the fall by RCA, with whom he recently signed directly.

Studio 306 bolsters sound with a Neve VRP console

Toronto's Studio 306, now has "the most advanced audio post-production console technology available in the world," boasts Maureen Hart of Hart Communications. The studio has installed the Neve VRP, "which virtually revolutionizes the process of mixing for music, video and film," Hart goes on to explain.

Hart points out that this latest addition to the studio provides four stereo buses for music, effects, dialogue and Foley, plus additional buses combining these four elements in stereo and mono. "For mixing surround sound," says Hart, "one master button switches the entire console architecture to a left, centre, right, surround format with quad panning and Dolby DS4 matrix monitoring." The Neve VRP also allows the option of selecting a standard multi-track music format.

Hart goes on to explain that the Neve Flying Faders "provides not only a superb moving fader automation system, but also muting for both large and small faders, EQ in/out and insertion in/out.

It was also revealed by Hart that the "R" of VRP "stands for an extremely simple, yet comprehensive recall system which stores settings of all rotary, push-button and fader controls." She concludes with, "Combining these features with Neve's unsurpassed sonic quality allows for the creation of an excellent product with great savings in time and an efficient means of doing quick re-mixes."

Brian Mitchell, President of Studio 306, says he decided to upgrade the equipment available in Toronto "to encourage advanced mixing techniques and to keep us on the leading edge of the audio post-production industry."

For its debut in Canada the Neve VRP is supported by a Mitsubishi 32-track digital recorder and an Adams-Smith 2600 A/V

More Cancon signings for Warner/Chappell

The latest to sign with Warner/Chappell Music Canada are dance/rap producers Peter & Anthony Davis and songwriter/producers Wain Routledge and Anthony Vanderburgh; Routledge and Vanderburgh, well-known in the Toronto music community, have a studio in the city's Kensington Market area. Routledge has already gained recognition internationally, where a cover he produced for German recording artist Julianne Werding has gone platinum in that country. He is currently writing with Tony Kenny and Michael Hanson of The Razorbacks. In the meantime, Vanderburgh is busy co-producing independent recording artist Mark Kelso with Mark Berry at Toronto's No. 9 Studios.

Brothers Peter and Anthony Davis, who are also known as First Offence Productions, are the co-writers and producers of the debut album by Maestro Fresh-Wes, an Attic release that entered the RPM 100 Top 5 (April 7/90) and subsequently scored platinum plus.

Barbieri's Night Magic captures Lambada beat

Chris Barbieri's latest Much Morn release of Night Magic, slotted as World Beat music, but with a definite Lambada flavouring, has caught the attention of not only dance club operators but A/C programmers as well. The song was written and produced by Barbieri and veteran songwriter Frank Rondell and recorded at Phase 1 Studios in Toronto.

Targeted for both A/C and Top 40 radio. The release coincides with Barbieri's scheduled return engagement at the Sheraton Hong Kong Hotel & Towers and follow-up dates in Europe. The young Hamilton, Ontario native is much in-demand on the nightclub circuit and he maintains a hectic pace for the many return engagements he has to squeeze into his regimented itinerary.

Instrumental backing for the session was supplied by Dan Madison on keyboards, guitarist Lou Socci, Steve Dudek on sax, Guido Basso and Arnie Charnoffski on trumpets, and, on back-up vocals, Nori, Rita Chiarelli, Ann Millard and Kitt Julian. Josy Morreale was Executive Producer. The flip, You're So Beautiful Tonight, was written by Rondell.

A media and industry open house is being planned to show off the new equipment on May 10. For further information contact Hart at 416-963-5793 or Bennett at 416-968-2306.

Healey band completes Le Studio album

Rob Garner of BMG Music Canada reports the completion of the Jeff Healey Band's new album which was recorded at Quebec's Le Studio, "a sound and flavour that surpasses their debut album, See The Light," says Garner.

Titled Hell To Pay, the new album will ship May 25th. I think I Love You Too Much, the first single will be serviced to radio May 7. Guesting on the single are Mark Knopfler on backing vocals and guitar, along with Paul Schaeffer and Bobby Whitlock on keyboards.

Of particular interest is the George Harrison penning of While My Guitar Gently Weeps, with Harrison and Jeff Lynne providing backing vocals and acoustic guitar.

The Healey Band will be performing a live date on Command Performance (June 14) and are set for a June 16th airing of CBC-TV's Let It Roll (see separate piece).

Breslaw to publicist post at Justin Entertainment

Jeff Burns, President of Justin Entertainment, has announced the appointment of Shelley Breslaw to the post of publicist for the Toronto-based firm.

Breslaw is originally from Winnipeg where she gained much experience as a music publicist. She moved to Toronto last year where she took on the challenge of National Publicity Director for Duke Street Records, a position she held until her move to Justin.

As National Publicity Director/Artist Relations for Justin Entertainment, Breslaw will be responsible for coordinating all print, television and radio interviews. As well, she will be handling all artist information and special appearance requests. She can be contacted at 416-757-9991.

Mills pacts with Prestige for worldwide booking

AWAY BACK

FAX off . . . ! Hey, while there's a lot of noise over waste, waste, waste and environmental damage from packaging . . . has anyone ever considered the number of trees that are being cut down to accommodate those FAX messages. They send one sheet to tell you there are three or four sheets coming, and, in many cases, the information on those following sheets could be included on the first sheet. It's such a great deal for the plunderers of our forests . . . the paper manufacturers . . . that their middle people, the suppliers, are now sending overnight FAXes, undercutting each other for the purpose of selling more FAX paper. At least now that Thomson has gone . . . we won't be receiving their useless come-ons. Now, if only a couple of persistent Real Estate companies, Pizza chains and office suppliers would only get the message! (EC: Yeah! FAX off!!)

Brian Robertson speaks out . . . ! My little "flight of fantasy" about the manufacturing cost of a compact disc was apparently out of line, as Brian Robertson points out: Dear Walt: In last week's issue (May 5th), "Walt Says" indicated that the manufacturing cost of a compact disc "is something like 35 cents". 35 cents . . . ? This flight of fantasy seems to have spun out of grossly inaccurate statements that were made by record retailers at the NARM Convention in Los Angeles earlier this year.

The reality of compact disc manufacturing costs is that you will find them hovering in the $1.50 range depending of course on volume orders. Additional production elements such as jewel box inlay cards and product information are of course extra.

A rock 'n' roller forever . . . ! Remember Ronnie King, one of the Stampedeers who rocked the world with Sweet City Woman away back when? Well, of the three, Ronnie is the only one still rockin' and playing the club circuit. He's done so well in his hometown of Calgary, he will be featured on Channel 10 Calgary from Dicken's on May 3rd, along with 3-D. His guests include Kelly Jay . . . remember Crowbar . . . and Mystery Romance. The other members of the Stampedeers have done very well. Rich Dodson, who wrote Sweet City Woman, is a well-known producer and studio owner (Marigold Productions) and Kim Berly is an accomplished actor. (EC: I remember them well . . . !)

Pssst . . . here's a scoop . . . ! The Junos will be held in Vancouver next year. (EC: Has anyone told the president yet . . . ?)

Quick . . . check the label . . . ! The Brocum Group . . . and friends, have been busy. They've been to court on behalf of more than five hundred acts they represent, where they launched an action against a zillion clothing bootleggers. More than $10 million (retail) in illegal T-shirts, sweats, posters, patches, costume jewellery and transfers were seized and now the Brocum people, along with Winterland, Backstage Pass and The Trademark Council of Canada are donating $1 million of this bootleg rock merchandise to Global, Ed-Med Supplies. They'll be sending 44,000 T-shirts and 22,000 sweat shirts and sweat pants to the Province of Tigre in Northern Ethiopia. (EC: We'll probably see some of it back here soon!)

Now . . . that's Canadian! Stompin Tom's Road Show put on a couple of warm-up dates before they headed out across this big land and one of the concerts was in Owen Sound. Deane Cameron, President of Capitol Records Canada, and a couple of his people, drove up to the little town to catch the show in the sold-out 800-seat theatre. "Even if you weren't a good Canadian," says Deane, "you would have a tear in your eye watching this great Canadian." Somehow, Nick Jennings of Maclean's found out about the show and he stayed with Tom through the whole day, so watch for an upcoming article. (EC: What about the dailies . . . ?)

Rush goes that extra mile again! We don't hear too much about rock 'n' rollers giving to the less fortunate . . . but Rush are giving to the United Way, once more. They are donating the proceeds of the second of two concerts at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens to the United Way. That could add $200,000 or more to the annual campaign. Besides Rush, the opening band, Voivod from Montreal will donate their fees, the Gardens will forgo the rent for the May 17th date and Nederlander Concerts, the promoters, will also contribute, which makes the entire gate going to the United Way. (EC: That's big bucks!)

What the folk is going on! You can take the "folk" out of the Mariposa Folk Festival, but you can't take the folk out of good old fashioned folk music . . . and there's still lots of it around. As a matter of fact . . . and I have it on good authority . . . there's a move in the United States to bring back folk music. Actually, this music form never went away and it's detected in the recordings and live performances of many of the top names in the business. (EC: Folk music is good for the soul . . . !)

Ritchie Yorke returns . . . ! My favourite Australian, Ritchie Yorke returns next week with a dynamite story on fellow-Ozzies, Little River Band . . . and, have they got a story to tell. This is something every wet-behind-the-ears recording band should read. (EC: Let's bring Ritchie back to Canada again . . . !)

Times have changed! I remember when getting an advance for a record signing was next to impossible . . . but now . . . WOW! One major company is rumoured to have advanced a Canadian artist $600,000 and that same company forked over a $100,000 advance in another distribution deal, which in these days, pays for about half a session, with a little left over for a video. (EC: So what's the big deal . . . it's only money!)

A touch of class . . . ala B.J. Cook! Over the next few weeks there will be a lot of changes taking place at the Birchmount Tavern, one of the better country showplaces in the Toronto area . . . and they're aren't too many of them. B.J. Cook, who brought Graceland to the attention of the media, will be doing the same for the Birchmount Tavern. Watch for a lightening up of the interior and a general "good news" flow from the club. I could never understand why the Greeks seem to lean towards dark, dismal interiors for restaurants and bars. (EC: I didn't know The Diamond was owned by Greeks . . . !)

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans, and by all those preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent, and their capacity for inspired leadership" and the first single, Living Color, best exemplifies this difference: Jill Sobule's uncanny ability to bridge the gap between pop radio and songwriting complexity. The song opens with a melancholy guitar figure and Sobule's dark, breathy vocal blossoming into a soaring lift and rousing chorus. The craft of Jill Sobule's writing is strong, yet barely noticeable. Like all great artists she makes it sound all so easy. Her songs are often ironic, sometimes starry-eyed and romantic. Sometimes stark and trapped, but then,

THINGS HERE ARE DIFFERENT

COVER STORY - by Jill LawlessLaymen Twaist take a Walk On The Wild Side

One of the latest bands to emerge from Montreal's thriving dance scene is Laymen Twaist, who are hoping to make a splash with their pumped-up reworking of Lou Reed's Walk On The Wild Side.

The trio of Paul Dube, Stanley Hilaire and Jean-Francois Aube first came to prominence when they won Quebec's Empire des Futures Stars competition. The prize was the chance to record a single, and the result, Je n'aurais jamais du t'aimer, became a hit in Quebec. "It has quite a '60s sound," remembers Dube of the single, "and it had a great response on radio all across the province. People started to recognize us as a good band . . . a band with a future. So this single led to something better."

Dube attributes the band's success largely to its experience playing live in Quebec's demanding dance clubs. "It's just the three of us live," he says, "but we have sequencers and samplers and a beat box and that fills a large part of the gap. Only three people each playing a single instrument would be a lack, but with sequencers and a lot of electronics . . . we do quite well." Apparently so, since, according to Dube, "we played a lot of Top 40 places, and they let us play our own songs. We've had a lot of support from Montreal bars and clubs and clubs in Quebec City and other cities like Victoriaville and Drummondville. Doing a lot of live shows, we perfected what we were doing best, which was dance music. So with that idea we participated in the contest and the contest boosted the band to a professional standard."

After the success of their first single, the band signed with Isba Records, a label Dube says the band chose for its "young, energetic" reputation. The choice of Walk On The Wild Side as a follow-up single came about through a process of metamorphosis, Dube explains. "We were in a production meeting, and we had a song called Laymen Sound. The hook of Laymen Sound resembled what Lou Reed did with Walk On The Wild Side. Somebody threw out the idea and we practiced it and it was perfect. It blended right in . . . and so we worked on it and this is it. Laymen Sound melted into Walk On The Wild Side."

Although discarded as a song title, Laymen Sound is a concept which often crops up in descriptions of Laymen Twaist's music. "It's hard to describe your own band without bragging," laughs Dube when asked to describe the Laymen Sound. "Laymen Sound is a blend of all our influences. The three of us have different influences . . . musical backgrounds and so on. So it's a blend of black music, white music, rock, alternative, a bit of progressive. You can feel a couple of our influences . . . like Jimi Hendrix and, of course, Lou Reed. It sounds European to some people and to some its retro American music. So it's hard to describe the sound from our standpoint. We let the people decide what sound we are . . . and really, I don't care where they're putting us . . . in alternative or dance music or whatever."

Walk On The Wild Side has been released as part of a mini-album, a decision conditioned by the desire to expose the public to the Laymen Sound as quickly as possible. "Walk On The Wild Side was ready in January or February," recalls Dube, "and we wanted to release it really fast because we knew we weren't the only ones who were doing it. But we also didn't want to release only Walk On The Wild Side. We have a lot of good songs . . . so we took the time to do three other tracks. They're not bonus tracks on the EP . . . they're good songs. The two French ones are going to become singles in Quebec, and Coming Back For More is going to be released, possibly at the end of the summer . . . so the mini-album is an avant-gout (a foretaste) of what we're going to release." Dube says an album release is planned for the end of 1990.

Singing partly in French, partly in English, Laymen Twaist hope their sound will find an audience outside of Quebec. But Dube says the band did not deliberately set out to balance French and English on their record. "On the album you have fifty percent French and fifty percent English, but that isn't a goal we aimed at. We just took our best songs and it gave a 50-50 split. The next album may be all in English or all in French, or a mix. We're aware that singing in French in the rest of Canada is something new. In Quebec it's expected. But in Canada . . . why not? If it doesn't work . . . it doesn't work. We have English [songs]."

Laymen Twist's music has already attracted attention in other francophone territories, notably France and Belgium. "Isba has contacts with BMG in Europe and other countries . . . and there are other French companies interested in Walk On The Wild Side and our French songs," concludes Dube. He and the band are hopeful that listeners in the English-speaking world will be just as receptive.

CBC-TV's Let It Roll captures Healey Band

CBC Television will present a unique musical portrait of The Jeff Healey Band in a one-hour documentary special, June 16 at 7 pm on the full CBC Network.

Produced by Susan Stranks at CBC Ottawa in association with the Department of the Secretary of State, the special features exclusive footage and interviews with Healey, his drummer Joe Stephen and bassist Joe Rockman. CBC cameras followed the Arista recording band on their eighteen month international tour, right up to this year's Juno Awards, where the band was chosen Best Canadian Entertainer of the Year.

Besides a concert performance at Toronto's Skydome, there is a behind-the-scenes look at what is described as "a long and intensive" recording session, from which portions of songs from a soon-to-be-released album will be featured.

Toronto's CKFM wraps songwriting contest

A pair of Toronto songwriters, David Wilson and Lascelles Stephens came away as the big winners of CKFM's (Toronto) first Songwriting Contest. There were more than 500 entries, which was narrowed down to 15 for the final judging.

Judges were Dan Hill, David Roberts, Stan Meissner, Jody Mitchell (Capitol), David Bendeth (BMG Music), Peter Diemer (MCA), Michael Roth (The Music Publishers), Jim Slotek (Toronto Sun), Mark Caporal (SOCAN), Leslie Soldat (Sound Source), plus a few of CKFM's seasoned staff members.

Massaro's RBI release captures A/C markets

Michael Massaro's current RBI release, Smooth Sailing, is following the same pattern of A/C programmer acceptance as Flying Easy, his debut for the label. Massaro and Don Garbutt wrote the song, which they produced at Toronto's Q.E.D. Media Corp Studios with veteran producer Mel Shaw. A video for Sailing is now in the works.

Massaro is regarded as one of Canada's "most in-demand" musicians. He has appeared with Little Anthony, The Crytals, The Five Kingsmen and Percy Sledge and in 1988 was featured on a national pop music fund-raising tour for the Canadian Heart Foundation. He has performed with The Spoons and appeared on the 1987 Juno Awards show with Erroll Starr. He has also appeared in several music videos, in particular, videos for Johnny Lovesin (1986) and Liberty Silver (1987) as well as on the MuchMusic Special Ticket with the Fabulous Thunderbirds (1987).

Last year Massaro performed the Canadian and American national anthems at Toronto's Skydome, prior to an Oakland Athletics - Toronto Blue Jays game and, although blacked out in Canada for commercial time, was seen by millions of American baseball fans. Massaro is also a busy session player, his most notable work being on hits by Eria Fachin and Frozen Ghost.

Mills sets out on Southern Ontario tour

Frank Mills, currently on release with his Twentieth Anniversary - Together Through The Years album, released on Capitol, has set out on a tour of Southern Ontario. The first date was Hamilton Place (Apr. 20), followed by St. Peters High School in Peterborough (21), London's Centennial Hall (22), Owen Sound High School (23), Lindsay's Academy Theatre (24), Kitchener's Centre In The Square (25), the Orillia Opera House (26), the Arts Centre in North Bay (27), two shows in the William Dawson Auditorium in Timmins (28), the Grand Theatre in Sudbury (29), Kingston's Grand Theatre (30) and the Arts Centre in Brockville (May 1).

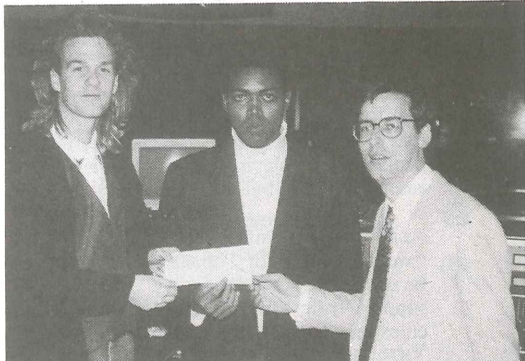

The repertoire in his concert includes everything from Music Box Dancer to Peter Piper as well as several current selections, including Heart Of The City and the title song of his album, Together Through The Years.

entry of Porchlight.

Wayne Webster, Assistant Program Director/Music Director at CKFM, points out that "Originally we were going to get some Toronto musicians to re-record the song since all entries were amateurs, but the song submitted by David and Lascelles was about ready to go as it was."

The next step was a session at Eastern Sound with the pair's producer David Shaw, who produced Candi's album. More background vocals were added along with percussion and then remixed.

The song was aired on CKFM "and we're already getting great reaction," says Webster. The song is also expected to receive airplay on CJFM-FM, Standard's station in Montreal.

Music Director's trash can only on CKSA

Erynn Fischer, Promotions Director for 1080 CKSA Lloydminster, reports on a promotion that has been running at the station on the last Wednesday of each month for the past several months. Each month the station's Music Director Jeff Hollick cleans out his office of all the extra copies of albums and singles, posters, record company promotional items, plus a selection of other "stuff", including sports items, hats, key rings, "all the things that seem to pile up over the course of the month," says Fischer, continuing with, "Most of the posters are autographed, never by the person in them, but by the local TV news anchor . . . and guess where he signed CHER!" Fischer says an average trash can contains "upwards of 150 records, tapes and CDs." Listeners are encouraged to keep track of every item (it's all packaged as ten items), then asked to recall them, late in the PM Drive to win the trash can. There are some pretty bizarre tickets to last season's hockey games, a worn out tire from the station van, paper weights etc. Fischer also reports that local record reps were helpful in supplying off-beat items.

Merry Mick-Ray backs Stompin' Tom

Mary MacIntyre, Mickey Andrews and Ray Keating, known as Merry Mick-Ray, have been chosen as the back-up band for the current Stompin' Tom road show. The trio have been working the Toronto area under the name of Scotia Sunshine and more recently as Just Us. They have joined Cap't Tom Gallant and J.P. Cormier to form the nucleus of the 1990 Stompin' Tom All-Canadian Tour.

No single, but tour dates for Bennett

It's been a long, dry spell since Willie P. Bennett had a single on the market, but the Duke Street artist, nominated for a Big Country Award this year in the Top Male Vocalist category, has been scoring some pretty good concert and fair dates. He plays

CKTY's Steve Glenn celebrates 30 years on air

Country 1110 CKTY Sarnia celebrated a milestone in the broadcast field with morning personality Steve Glenn, ringing in his 30th anniversary as an on-air personality on March 24th. Glenn returned to the Sarnia area for a second tour of duty, after spending over twenty years in the city before heading off to make a name for himself in country music radio in Ottawa, Calgary and Timmins, Ontario.

As Mark Cartland, Program Director of CKTY, points out, "Since we began Country 1110 CKTY as Sarnia's first and only full time country music radio station, it was only natural to bring back to Sarnia the area's most trusted voice to start the day from 5 to 10 am.

Glenn has won several awards during his career, including Personality of the Year, and he was a Top 10 nominee at the 1989 CCMA Awards in Ottawa for Personality of the Year.

Toronto's Diamond (May 2) and Graceland (June 1 & 2), the COCA Conference in Ottawa (17), Mariposa in Barrie (22), the North Country Fair in Alberta (23 & 24), the Alton Festival (30), the Northern Lights Festival in Sudbury (July 6, 7 & 8), CBC Arnprior, Ottawa (13), K.J.'s Cafe in Tottingham, Ontario (14), the Calgary Stampede (23), Hamilton's Festival Of Friends (Aug. 10, 11 & 12), and Toronto's Harbourfront (25).

"Earthquake Michelle" they call her

Michelle Wright, currently on a ten-day radio promotion tour of California and the Pacific Northwest in support of her Arista debut, New Kind Of Love, got a little shook up when she was in Oakland, California. She was sitting in the bathtub when an earthquake registering 5.4 on the Richter scale, hit the area. "All of a sudden the towels started dancing away from the walls," says Wright. "I wondered what was happening . . . and then I realized I was in the middle of an earthquake. It was over almost as soon as it started. It was an interesting experience, but I prefer visiting radio stations."

Golden Eagle's Cain on busy schedule

Cindi Cain, Golden Eagle recording artist, will be the subject of a CKY-TV Winnipeg half-hour special at 7 pm on May 5th. Titled Special Request, the special highlights Cain's career in country music: on the road, in clubs and in the studio. On May 13th it's the Manitoba MACA Awards in which she is nominated for Entertainer of the Year, Female Vocalist, Recording Artist of the Year and, with The Cheeters, Country Band of the Year. She will also entertain during the awards ceremonies. The next day (14) she is off to Edmonton for a week's engagement at the Cook County Saloon and on May 21st she tapes the TV show Capitol County and appears at the Crossroads for the week of May 21 to 26.

More action in U.S. for Carone

George Carone, who enters the RPM

Country 100 this week at No. 94 with his Golden Eagle single, She Doesn't Matter Anymore, has been gaining stations daily in the U.S. His single registered a No. 13 on the Indie Bullet and it gets a bullet at No. 58 on Cash Box this week. Although a little late in charting, Carone has always managed to make the Canadian charts with his previous releases which were all produced by Don Grashey.

Washburn off with You Make It Easy

Dan Washburn, leader of Shadow, the backup band for Terry Sheridan, is beginning to kick in with his latest Northumberland release, You Make It Easy, a Washburn original. The single was produced by Andy Thompson at Northumberland Studio 29 in

George Fox on stage with Willie Nelson

Fox continues with Nelson's Canadian tour

George Fox will continue his Canadian tour with Willie Nelson beginning May 13th in Sault Ste. Marie. Fox had guesting on Nelson's Eastern Canadian dates earlier this year, but the tour came to an abrupt stop when Nelson's bus was hit head-on by a car as they were heading for the last stop in St. John's. Those dates were re-scheduled for May 8th and 9th.

After playing the Sault Memorial Gardens the tour moves west to the Winnipeg Arena (May 18), followed by the Regina Agridome (19), Saskatchewan Place in Saskatoon (22), and winds down at the Northlands Coliseum in Edmonton (23).

Fox's second album, With All My Might, has been released in the U.S. on Warner Bros, and he will be beefing up his U.S. visibility with a Nashville Network taping of On Stage that goes to air June 20th with a repeat on June 21st. Just prior to rejoining the Nelson tour, Fox will make a quick trip into Detroit on May 12th to take part in the three day Hoe Down, sponsored by WWW Radio.
