Partisan and MCA merge in joint publishing venture

It has been announced that Canadian company Partisan Music Productions, owned by veteran music publisher Frank Davies, and MCA Music Publishing have completed a deal which will make MCA part-owner of all of Partisan's existing catalogues and those of Partisan's newly-acquired TMP (The Music Publisher). Future compositions will be owned by Joint Venture, a newly formed company created between Partisan and MCA Canada Ltd. The agreement went into effect January 1, 1991, and worldwide administration of the joint venture will be handled by MCA's New York office.

The deal will allow Davies to seek out and finance the acquisition of music publishing rights on an ownership, administrative and sub-publishing basis.

Some of the assets that are involved in the merger are TMP's Jonico Music catalogues, including the successful Sesame Street copyright; Zaymin/Hit List, the U.S. publisher who has Celine Dion's Where Does My Heart Beat Now; Australian publishing company MMA, owned by Chris Murphy of INXS. Partisan assets include the television music of Canada's largest movie company, Alliance Communications Corp.; and copyrights by Canadian artists A Foot In Coldwater, The King Biscuit Boy and Tom Cochrane. Through Partisan, Frank Davies also manages songwriters Eddie Schwartz and David Tyson.

Partisan acquired The Music Publisher in a separate agreement secured on January 15, 1991 from Canada Publishing Corporation, obtaining all of TMP's assets as well as use of the TMP trademark. TMP was founded in 1986 by Frank Davies and Ron Besse, Chairman of the Canada Publishing Corporation, one of the country's leading book publishers.

MCA Canada beefs up publicity department

Cori Ferguson has been appointed to the newly-created position of Publicity Coordinator for MCA Records Canada, effective Feb. 25th. Ferguson will coordinate the preparing and servicing of publicity materials such as bios, photos and press releases to the media. She will also be involved in non-tour artist interview schedules and video duplication. Ferguson will report directly to Dave Watt, Director of Press & Publicity/Artist Relations.

Ferguson joins MCA from Sam The Record Man's flagship store on Yonge Street in Toronto where she was involved in buying. Prior to that she was Editor-In-Chief of The Cord Weekly (Wilfred Laurier University paper) and has gained much experience as a freelance writer for various publications.

As Watt points out, "The increased product flow with the addition of Geffen, DGC and GRP Records to MCA, necessitated the creation of this new position." As a result the publicity department will undergo some internal changes. Andrea Orlick, Assistant Manager of Press & Publicity, will primarily be involved with tour publicity and video promotion, Kathie Gibbings, Publicity Assistant/Receptionist, will handle servicing of the country press as well as assisting in other areas, plus Ferguson's duties as outlined above.

Aquarius problems void Hart Juno nomination

"Internal misunderstanding" is being blamed for what should have been a shoo-in Juno nomination for Male Vocalist Corey Hart this year. The Aquarius recording artist scored impressive radio play with his releases this year, with his Bang! album one of the Cancon leaders on the RPM 100. The album entered the national chart at No. 28 (April 7, 1990) and enjoyed several weeks of charting. A single from the album, A Little Love, garnered much CHR action and also made impressive moves up the national chart. Consequently the album sold more than 70,000 units which would have qualified Hart for a Juno nomination in at least one category.

"I was discouraged and I felt bad for Corey when I realized we had missed out on a sure nomination," explains Aquarius president Keith Brown, who concludes with, "It was a mistake and it's no reflection on how we feel about Corey or the Juno Awards."

Wright appointed to BMG artist marketing post

Carol Wright, formerly Director of Marketing and Promotion at Island Records Canada has been appointed Director of Artist Marketing at BMG Canada. The announcement was made by Bob Jamieson, President and General Manager of BMG Music Canada.

Wright will direct all marketing activities at a national level and will take up her new post beginning March 18.

Of her appointment Wright says that she is "thrilled to work with the BMG team, I look forward to the challenges this opportunity brings."

Says Jamieson "BMG is excited to have someone like Carol on board with us. With her established talents and ability we look forward to building the strongest Artists Development team in Canada."

Dion to Toronto's Winter Garden Theatre

Celine Dion has been firmed for Toronto's Winter Garden Theatre (March 15). She is currently enjoying top of the A/C chart action in both Canada and the U.S. with Where Does My Heart Beat Now the third release from her Unison album. The album has now surpassed the double platinum mark in Canada.

Dion will also be performing at this year's Juno Awards (March 3) where she has been nominated in four categories (RPM Feb. 16/91): Female Vocalist, Album, Dance and Producer (David Foster). The 21-year old Columbia recording artist will also be playing Vancouver's Orpheum (5), the Jubilee in Edmonton (6), Calgary's Performing Arts Centre (9), and the Walker Auditorium in Winnipeg, prior to her Toronto date.

Seen at HMV's Don't Quit Your Day Job contest, HMV president Paul Alofs (r) and director of marketing Werner Welns and the judges Dominic Trolano, Alfie Zappacosta, Lee Aaron and Bill Richardson of the Phantoms.

Added performances extend Junos by half hour

CARAS has announced that the CBC telecast has been extended to two and a half hours instead of the usual two hours. The extension was necessary to accommodate the increased number of artists available to perform on the show.

The Northern Pikes, Michelle Wright and Prairie Oyster are additional artists who have been pencilled in to make appearances on the show, joining an already stellar line up of Canadian talent featuring Alias, Celine Dion, Colin James and Blue Rodeo among others.

Lynne Harvey, producer of the Junos says that "With such a wealth of performance opportunities available, we decided to capitalize on that and extend the show to make room for even more talent."

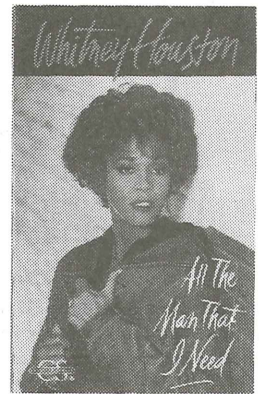

Hosted by Paul Shaffer, the Junos will be telecast live from Vancouver on March 3, on the CBC.

APOLOGY ISBA RECORDS / PARIS BLACK

On February 12, 1991, ISBA Records held a very successful launch party for Paris Black's new release at the Hard Rock Cafe, SkyDome. Parking was to be complimentary, courtesy of ISBA Records. Due to an unfortunate error, many guests were charged for parking when leaving the SkyDome. The Stadium Corporation of Ontario (SkyDome) wishes to apologize to ISBA Records, Paris Black, Hard Rock Cafe, and any guests who were inconvenienced by this oversight.

WAT SAYS

with Elvira Caprese

I don't understand it . . . ! I think that after a long time in the industry, your instincts begin to sharpen. This Wednesday past, while having lunch, I felt that I would get this kind of a note today and guess what! (EC: You did . . . !) and it was one of those Stop The Presses kind of notes. Here it is in its entirety: "Due to personal considerations, I have decided against moving to Discus in Montreal and have asked Mr. Kroum Pindoff to allow me to rescind my prior resignation and remain at Pindoff Record Sales and Music World. Mr. Pindoff has graciously accepted. (signed) Jerry Wipf." Enough said? (EC: Enough said . . . !)

Bruce Allen takes on CARAS . . . ! It has been reported that west coaster Bruce Allen is taking issue with CARAS and its choice of talent that will appear on the Vancouver version of the Junos. Allen is asking questions about who the performers are and indicating

The JUNO AWARDS were originated by Walt Grealis and Stan Klees on February 23, 1970.

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans, and by all those preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent, and their capacity for inspired leadership."

that if the Junos and CBC don't believe in Canadian performers, "why should the Canadian people?" He favours "giving those who have been nominated and who deserve to be honoured a fair chance to show Canada, in performance, how good they are and how far they've come. Isn't that what the Junos are all about?" The Junos are bringing in foreign rap artist M.C. Hammer at a reported cost of $40,000 and Allen makes a very appropriate remark: "If our industry feels the show needs a heavy hitter to bring in the ratings, they should look to themselves first and ask why? If they don't think Paul Janz is important enough to warrant a performance, why should the Canadian people? Nobody is going to believe these people are important unless CARAS, the music industry and the CBC deem them to be important." This very nationalistic feeling came to light when Allen spoke at RPM's 25th Anniversary Banquet. In the past, Allen has been an ardent supporter of the Junos and received the Walt Grealis Achievement Award from CARAS (EC: On Camera . . . !) in 1987 and served on the CARAS board for a number of years. (EC: Well respected in the industry and possibly one of the Top Ten managers in Canada . . . !)

For The Record . . . ! No matter what you hear elsewhere, the Junos were televised for the first time in March of 1975 at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre at Toronto's Exhibition Place with Paul Anka as host. (EC: RPM is not just another pretty face!) That was a year we lost two of the Juno presentation replicas. One vanished and was last seen on a private jet and the other ended up in pieces when it was dropped by a clumsy CBC person. The retail value of those two pieces of history would be in the thousands . . . today!

Cancon artists at sea . . . ! All the artists coming back from their stint on the Regent Holiday's Pegasus are very complimentary of the food and service. A recent article in one of the dailies said that this ship scored very low in the U.S. sanitary inspection. To the artists going aboard, I can tell you that the QEII, the Norway and many of the big ships don't always pass this very rigid inspection. But recently, the Pegasus got a score of 86 which is a pass . . . and I can assure you that Captain Yiannis Papadopoulos, who I know from the Atlas, will take this ship right to the top of the list. (EC: May I recommend the week when Liona Boyd will be aboard . . . !)

Terry Trojek retires . . . ? I couldn't believe it. After twenty years in the business, more than seven with Taylor Record Sales, almost three at WEA and the last ten with Saturn, Terry has decided to pack it in. He has gained a very respectable reputation over the years, and he was one of the true "hit pickers" in this country (EC: And that's how he will be remembered . . . !) We'll miss him. Terry is moving to Amprior and isn't it just like him to leave without any fanfare.

How come Roch Voisine never gets a Juno nod? Roch has to be the most successful recording artist in this country. I mentioned last year how visible he was at MIDEM and Attic's Al Mair confirms that Roch "was visible all over Cannes" in the form of giant four colour posters. In fact, he has sold over 2,000,000 albums in France, which makes him a big artist, wouldn't you say? He has sold a lot of records in this country as well. I've seen the guy perform and if the Juno people are looking for a dynamic performer, who happens to be Canadian, they should take a look at this New Brunswicker. He's a class act in both English and French. (EC: You said that last year . . . !)

Hey! Hey! HMV . . . ! Talk about retail PR, HMV's Paul Alofs is on a roll. Fresh from his industry ear & eye turning Don't Give Up Your Day Job awards, he is now opening his head office to promote a couple of new releases. Paul is laying on a couple of tables loaded with food and drink "and lots of surprises," he says for the launch of Glass Tiger's Simple Mission and Roxette's Joyride. The date is Feb. 26 at 5 pm. (EC: Is that an open invitation . . . ?)

Tribute to Catherine . . . ! If the CARAS people wanted to pay tribute to Leonard Cohen on a Canadian teevee show, they should have included Catherine McKinnon who does one Cohen composition like no one else ever has! (EC: Look into it . . . !)

Promotion is so basic and so easy. This past week, CHUM-FM's Roger Ashby included me once again on his "who's celebrating a birthday today." I'm not really surprised by the number of industry people who listen to Roger, because after all these years, the letters and faxes of congratulations and the nice gifts I receive is testament to his popularity. MCA's promotion guy Rick Wharton had a neat birthday cake tucked under his arm for me, complete with a Bart Simpson candle. It's the little things that count. Also visiting this week were The Debenham Brothers, complete with a box of muffins. RPM's offices are so exciting I hate to go to lunch, I might miss something. COVER STORY by Alison Mercer

Voisine's Double solidifies success in Europe, Quebec

Although English Canadians may feel as though Roch Voisine came from nowhere and immediately made a dent in the international market with his smash hit, Helene, the voyage for this Star Records recording artist was not quite so cut and dried.

"I feel very lucky," says Voisine of his success. "But it was a lot of work, a lot of hard work."

After almost a year and a half of solid touring and writing, Voisine headed back into the studio last summer to record Double, a double bilingual album which is available in non-francophone countries as a single English album, which in under five months has already sold in excess of 300,000 units in France alone, and has shipped 20,000 units in Canada. Worldwide, Double has sold close to 500,000.

The first single, A Fishing Day, is also enjoying success on national charts, and figures on all four of RPM's charts, establishing it as a potent crossover success.

Voisine grew up in New Brunswick, where although his primary passion was hockey, he always kept his music close at hand since getting his first guitar at the age of 14.

"I was a shy kind of kid, I wouldn't talk about things like other people would, so I wrote them down as songs," he explains.

An injury ruled out a hockey career, and soon afterwards Voisine's manager Paul Vincent, invited him to come to Montreal to try his hand at performing.

Vincent secured various successful television spots for Voisine and shortly thereafter

Voisine was offered a weekly series called Top Jeunesse, filmed in Montreal and described by Voisine as "a French version of American Bandstand." The show remained on the air for a year and a half during which time Voisine signed with Star Records run by Andre DiCesare, who also helped with the production of the Voisine albums. Star Records is distributed by another Quebec-based company, Select Distribution.

After the record deal was in place, Voisine came out with the album Helene in June of 1989 and watched the single soar to the top of international charts. With the album's success it was apparent that Voisine was going to have to leave Top Jeunesse, there just weren't enough hours in the day for a full-time recording career and weekly television show.

Voisine spent the next year and a half in Europe, touring and writing. Currently that first album is still selling, and is closing in on the 1.5 million mark for worldwide units sold. Voisine kept on working the album until his return to the studio in the summer of 1990 when he recorded Double.

As to whether Voisine feels that the Double material is different from that of Helene, Voisine says that he hopes it is: "Things have changed. I have grown older and I see things differently. I think this album has more of a classical feel to it, there is a lot of strings in many of the songs and hopefully it will appeal to a wider audience."

Hoskins' debut sports innovative CD cover

True North Records has tapped the creative field for "new ways to bring the fun back to album graphics," says the label's Jehanne Languedoc. She goes on to point out that "In the main however, there continues a mundane sameness, given the small surface of the CD booklet."

True North harnessed the creative talent of well known album designer Bart Schoales and together they have come up with what Languedoc tags "a unique" new CD package for Gregory Hoskins and the Stickpeople's debut release Moon Come Up.

Languedoc explains that the cover features Hoskins and the band standing in front of a full moon. The photo was done at Digital Magic House incorporating a front projection special effects system.

The photo was then placed on the front of the booklet with the moon, which is about the size of a loonie, die-cut out of the booklet and then printed on the CD disc itself. "When the booklet and the CD are placed back into the jewel box," says Languedoc, "the effect is that of a 3-D moon. You can then, by turning the CD disc, create your own version of the cover by simply moving the moon. Presto!" she concludes, "You can now have a quarter, half or full moon."

Moon Come Up, Hoskins' first album was released Feb. 25.

The Double tour will be kicking off at the Bercy in Paris on March 26, Voisine's birthday. It is a coincidence that has the singer a little nervous.

"We didn't plan it that way, but it was the only date we could get. I don't know what they've got planned," he laughs.

The tour will include 11 musicians and in Paris there will be a thirty piece string section as well. After the entourage finishes touring the francophone European territories it returns home for Canadian dates in the fall of 1991. All dates will be to between 6,000 and 17,000 spectators.

Voisine is enthusiastic about the upcoming tour, stating that he wants to give people "more than a show."

Roch Voisine is settling in to his relatively new whirlwind schedule these days. He acknowledges that at first things "were a little rough," but that now he is "Getting into the pace of things, and really enjoying it."

by Tim Evans

One Step further . . . All The Man That I Need, the second release from Whitney Houston's I'm Your Baby Tonight, hits No. 1 on the Hit Tracks chart. That's one position higher than the title track peaked in December.

A little fun! All The Man That I Need becomes Whitney Houston's fourth No. 1 song. She is also one of five acts with a U.S. city in their name to hit No. 1. Can you name the other four? Hint: three are groups.

Sting may get a double. Sting's The Soul Cages makes it to the top of the Albums chart in just its fifth week. That's one week faster than Madonna's The Immaculate Collection, which drops to No. 2. Sting may also hit No. 1 on the Hit Tracks chart next week as All This Time climbs to No. 2.

T for timing . . . Already a big hit in the U.S., Timmy T's One More Try is quickly becoming one here. It is the biggest mover this week, up 35 spots to No. 63.

Who? Some unusual names top the entries this week. The five highest entries come from Londonbeat, The Rembrandts, Murray McLaughlan, The Fixx, and Tracie Spencer. Londonbeat, The Rembrandts, and Spencer have never had a Top ten hit in Canada. The Fixx had one in 1983, and Murray McLaughlan's last Top ten hit was in 1974.

Remember way back when . . . ? It was October of last year when Celine Dion's Where Does My Heart Beat Now entered the Hit Tracks chart. CHR was quick to react, then AC picked up on it, then the U.S. picked up on it. All of this has helped the song stay on the chart for 20 weeks. The last song to stay on the chart longer was Elton John's Sacrifice, which stayed on for 21 weeks ending in April of last year.

Geography quiz. The four other acts with a U.S. city in the name to have hit No. 1 are: Chicago, Boston, John Denver, and The Brooklyn Bridge.

Capitol targets all formats for McLauchlan release

Capitol Records has pulled all stops in the promotion of Murray McLauchlan's latest album, The Modern Age. This is McLauchlan's 17th album and it sees him re-united with co-producer Ken Friesen (Hard Rock Town, On The Boulevard).

Capitol's Ralph Alfonso stresses that McLauchlan's release "is not a country album." The label is working all three radio formats (AOR, CHR, A/C). Country programmers however, have moved quickly on the first single, a cassette single of the title track. Impressive chart and playlist action has moved the track up the RPM Country 100 where this week it jumps to No. 84 with a bullet.

Alfonso also points out that McLauchlan plays all the guitars on The Modern Age, "something he's never done before," says Alfonso, "revealing himself as a great underrated player in the process."

A video of The Modern Age, directed by award-winner John Lloyd (Holly Cole, Mary Margaret O'Hara) "is a visual stunner," says Alfonso, "and by placing Murray in a live band setting, puts him in the proper context for the music."

McLauchlan will be mounting a cross-country tour of Canada for April and May.

ALBUMS

ROGER MCGUINN - Folk/Rock
Back From Rio
Arista ARCD-8648-N

Formerly of The Byrds, McGuinn has far from been out of commission musically, participating in and leading different projects. The lead single, King Of The Hill, is steady and carefully paced, as are all the tracks. Produced by McGuinn and David Cole, the album is a mature folk pop which has a well-grounded expertise to it, and the intensity of McGuinn's songwriting is well balanced by the melodic pace of the music. Suddenly Blue, The Time Has Come and Someone To Love are all firm examples of McGuinn undeniable prowess as a songwriter and musician. The album should make hefty appearances on multiple formats and will attract buyers of all generations. (CD Reviewed) - AM

TODD RUNDGREN - Rock
2nd Wind
Warner Bros CD 26478-P

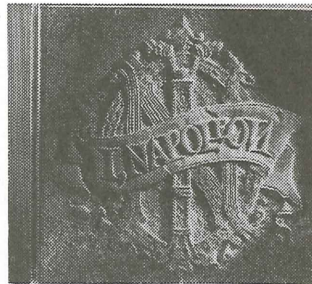

This latest album was recorded live at one of his shows at The Fine Arts Theatre in San Francisco. The current single, Public Servant, strays from the customary Rundgren attitude, flowing over into a more traditional rock genre, the song is good, heavy but happening. The rest of the album has an almost fantasy quality to it, with its new age rock sound. Lyrically Rundgren manages to be straight ahead yet enigmatic. Opening track Change Myself and I Have To Be Alone are particularly enjoyable, while The Smell Of Money's slight silliness with its Broadway styled vocals shows Rundgren's comfort with his chosen field. The multitude of Rundgren diehards will quickly add this to their collection with much satisfaction. (CD reviewed) - AM

THE DREAM WARRIORS - Rap
And Now The Legacy Begins
Island 391 310-2-W

Although new to the commercial aspect of rap, King Lou and Capital Q, the duo who make up the Dream Warriors, are veterans of rap. Their material is not hardcore rap, but hip hop, funk dance or rock with rap on top. Never monotnous, the Warriors' tunes are all fun, in the melody, the beat and especially in the thoughtful lyrics. Wash Your Face In My Sink and My Definition skyrocketed to the top of charts in the U.K., and we more lethargic Canadian are catching on, if at a slightly slower pace. Next single Ludi is sure to do as well. The Dream Warriors are the wave of the future, and are heading for some huge success. (CD reviewed) - AM

I NAPOLEON - Rock
Perfect Absolution
Geffen GEFD 24314-J

Rough and ready, I Napoleon out of Ottawa boast a very polished brand of harder rock. The layered sounds of this hard rock band often build to powerful crescendos, and the jagged vocal work by Steve Napoleon and back ups by the band compliment the sound very well. The title track and first single is typical of the band's new treatment of the genre, as is a successful cover of the Luba tune Every Time I See Your Picture. The band has a lot of merit and should gain some good U.S. success as well as doing very well on the home front. Slotted for AOR. (CD Reviewed) - AM

QUEEN - Rock
Innuendo
Hollywood Records CDH 61020-P

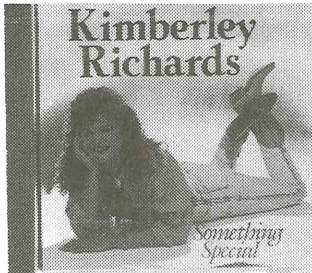

It's always a curious thing when a band like Queen which has produced so many different styled albums comes out with a new one. Their latest, Innuendo, doesn't smash any boundaries, but it does provide good solid tunes, some of them rocky, some more eclectic, all of them in Queen's own unique taste. The lead single, Headlong is one of the more pumped up tracks on the album, and it is sure to make an appearance on AOR stations, and even on CHR. There are many elements of the operatic rock genre that Queen defined in the '70s, particularly on the title track, I Can't Live Without You and the hilarious I'm Going Slightly Mad. Each song is different, there's no danger of getting a single blob of music with Innuendo, and the album brings back a lot of very fond memories. Queen fans will like this one, and the band is sure to pick up those extra admirers as well. (CD reviewed) - AM

JEFFREY OSBORNE - Pop
Only Human
Arista ARCD-8620

A mastermind at the music-to-make-love to genre, Osborne has delivered another album full of love songs that will burn it up on the A/C stations. Title track, Lay Your Head and the Eugene McDaniels tune Feel Like Making Love are songs that are especially lover-oriented and will turn the cranks of many the Osborne fan. This genre of relaxation grooves has a solid following of which Osborne is one of its fathers. Will undoubtedly make a major dent at retail. (CD reviewed) - AM

KIMBERLEY RICHARDS - Country
Something Special
Trilogy - TR-CD-9103

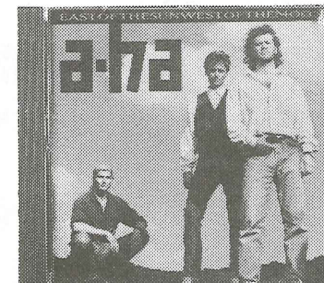

Produced by tunesmith J.K. Gulley, the title says it all. He and Kimberley Richards have put together an album that is something special and with a few pleasant surprises. The new single from the album, the title track features the well-known guitar signature of classical guitarist Lona Boyd. There is a beautiful marriage here of this tender vocal styling of Richards with the brilliance of Boyd's instrumental cushioning. And there's more, including John Allan Cameron displaying his 12-string guitar talent and vocals on Captain Andy, another key track. Background vocals aren't too shabby either, supplied by Kelita, Colina Phillips, Jim Gilard and producer J.K. Also contains the past release of We Can Dream, a duet with J.K. which was the debut single for Richards last year. This track also gained them a Juno nomination in the Country Duo or Group category for this year. Also key are Dancin' Eyes and Merry-Go-Round. Watch for crossover action. (CD reviewed) - WG

CARROLL BAKER - Country
Her Finest Collection
Tembo - MPCD

This is indeed Carroll Baker's finest collection. The songs that have endeared her to so many over the years. A variety of producers were involved dating back to 1983 with Don Grashey: Too Hot To Sleep Tonight, a duet with Eddie Eastman, Wanda Jackson's Right Or Wrong and Dick Damron's Jesus It's Me Again. Mike Francis, Eric Robertson and Hayward Parrott were also key producers. Of particular note is the Robertson/Hayward production of One Night With You, a duet with Roger Whittaker. Notable Francis tracks were I'm An Old Rock And Roller (Dancin' To A Different Beat) and Cheater's Moon. Great stuff. A must for radio libraries. No stranger to Juno nominations, Baker this year is once again nominated in the Female Country Vocalist category. By the way, there are several tracks here that are perfect for February, the month of love (Valentine's Day): I Should Have Put a Hold On Love, her new single, It's How You Make Good Love, Too Hot To Sleep Tonight, the duet with Eddie Eastman, and One Night With You, her duet with Roger Whittaker. (CD reviewed) - WG

A-ha - Pop
East Of The Sun
West Of The Moon
Warner Bros 9 26314-2-P

Thoughtful pop that is delivered with subtle harmonies, throaty vocal work and highly melodic tunes, A-ha's new album is slightly more mature than the preceding one which provided us with Take On Me. The steadily rhythmic Early Morning, East Of The Sun and the sincerity of I Call Your Name are two tracks which stand out. Cryin' In The Rain, written by Carole King and Howard Greenfield is also very good. This Norwegian band's sound has long been very popular across the ocean, and the rockiness of this album should solidify their success in North America as well. (CD reviewed) - AM

COUNTRY

Lindsay Thomas Morgan's debut single, Free, made the Most Played Artist list for 1990, according to Otto Waldoft of the Scandinavian Country & Western Corporation (SCAWC) of Copenhagen, Denmark. The single placed No. 4 out of the Top Country Tracks of 1990. The show, Country Tracks, boasts an estimated audience of one million listeners. Morgan's follow-up to Free, If Wishes Were Horses, is bulleting up the RPM Country 100.

Chuck Irvin, who has been playing and singing traditional country, bluegrass and gospel music for most of his life, releases a new single on the Showboy label. An Irvin original, When Springtime Rolls Around was produced in Calgary by Lou Torok. Irvin has toured the U.S. and Canada extensively, where he has appeared on major shows including the WWVA Jamboree in Wheeling, the Renfro Valley Barn Dance, the Rockdale Bluegrass Festival in Ashland, Kentucky and many more. The Showboy label is based in Black Diamond, Alberta.

Graceland is open for business and watch for a name change. Wednesdays have been set aside for dance lessons, Thursdays will be Ladies Night and weekends, local and name acts will be featured. This past week, Rick Jones & Silverthorn were the featured act, to be followed by Cyril Way (Feb. 28 to April 2), Tim Taylor (April 7 to 9), Patricia Conroy (14 to 16), and Texas Mickey's (21 to 23). The grand opening of the Scarborough (Toronto) country showplace will take place early in May. For information and bookings contact B.J. Cook at 416-755-3311.

The new Kimberley Richards single, Something Special, the title track from her new album, features the guitar styling of Liona Boyd. Kimberley made chart news last year with We Can Dream, a duet with J.K. Guiley, which garnered them a Juno nomination in the Country Duo Or Group category.

Royalty's MAPL logos are wrong on Greg Paul's Under Your Cover and Home Away From Home by Tommy Rogers. Both tracks should have displayed a full MAPL logo on the label copy. Paul's track is from his album, Moments In Between and the Rogers track is

London's BX93 sets date for Country Roads finals

London's country giant, BX-93 Radio has firmed March 9 for its Country Roads Talent Search finals to be held at the Centennial Hall. the station's Program Director Ian McCallum has also announced that the five finalists in the 11th Annual talent search are Greg Hanna from London, Jacki Gilmar, Gary Stocking, from Thamesville, Londoner J.P. Quinn and Jackie Henderson from St. Catharines.

In the 11 years that BX-93 has been searching its listening area for bright new talent, many of the winners have gone on to become well known in the recording industry. Most notable of these past winners are Michelle Wright and Terry Sumsion.

As McCallum points out, this year's talent search revealed a lot of good talent, "It was really tough picking only five finalists. The quality of the talent just gets better year after year." He concludes with, "It's a real testament as to how popular country music is with all ages."

The finals will be taped by CFPL TV for rebroadcast on March 23rd at 10 pm.

Thank you.

included on his album Class Of '72. Royalty's Chris Nielsen reports "very impressive" initial programmer response to both tracks.

Trilogy's David Hutchins, nominated for a Juno Award in the Country Male Vocalist category, is back with his follow-up single, These Five Medals. This is the third single taken from his album On My Own and follows You've Broken My Heart which charted nationally last year. A video of These Five Medals has also been released.

Lloyd Snow, a 32-year old singer/songwriter from Norman's Cove, Newfoundland, has finally made a recording. He has been working at various clubs all across the island province since the age of 19, and now makes his debut with Downeast Boy and Stars On Broadway. Both sides of the 7" vinyl single are Snow originals.

Saddlestone makes organizational changes

Saddlestone Records, based in Surrey, B.C. (Vancouver) has announced development changes that will effect its operation in both Canada and the U.S. New to the firm is Harold Wainwright, formerly of I.T.S., who has come on board as Public Relations Manager. Wainwright was prominent at Westec Music '91 in Vancouver this past month and will be representing Saddlestone at the Country Radio Broadcasters Seminar in Nashville this month.

The label recently released its first compilation CD, 3-21, along with a companion cassette in both Canada and the U.S. Bobbi Smith & Associates handle the label's U.S. publicity while RDR Promotions is looking after tracking in Canada.

Gerry King, who records for Saddlestone, will be in Nashville March 12 for a CD album session. A June date has been pencilled in for release.

RCA recording artist Razy Bailey has just completed a studio date in Nashville which included the recording of Handle With Care, written by Canadian Candice James and Julio Bloemhard. The song is published by Saddlestone Publishing and will be released on Saddlestone in Canada as a promotional only single promoting Bailey's upcoming album. The album will be released in the U.S. on the RCA label this summer.

Saddlestone is currently touting the new 7" vinyl single, The Face Behind Those Bottles and Whiskey, by Joe Lonsdale. Both sides are Lonsdale originals, produced at Vancouver's Bullfrog Studios by Candice James and David Adams.

Priority promotion on the Saddlestone 3-21 CD compilation centres around Rex Howard (Heartache As Big As Texas and The Last Outlaw), Dorrie Alexander (Sometime Later On and Sleepy Kitty) and Barbra Farrell (Burnin' To The Waterline and You Take Away My Breath).

Saddlestone product is available at retail through Kareena Services. JR Country Radio Mailbox and Big K Music in Canada and in the U.S. by Vista International of Nashville.

Capitol a leader with 22 Juno award nominations

Capitol Records - EMI of Canada and its family of distributed labels scored twenty-two 1991 Juno Award nominations in fifteen different categories.

Longtime Juno nominee and winner Anne Murray is again nominated for Female Vocalist and Country Female Vocalist. The Capitol star is already heading for the top of the charts in both Canada and the U.S. with Bluebird, her current release.

Alias has been nominated in the Single of the Year category for More Than Words Can Say, the second single from the band's self-titled debut release. The track topped the RPM 100 singles chart on Nov. 4/90, a position it held on to for four straight weeks, and made the Top 5 on the U.S. trade charts. Alias will be performing at this year's Juno Awards to be telecast live from Vancouver's Queen Elizabeth Theatre (March 3).

Toronto's Leslie Spit Treco and National Velvet share a nomination for Most Promising Group, and the Montreal-based MCJ & Cool picked up nominations in the Single and Best R&B/Soul Recording and Rap Recording categories for their debut single So Listen.

Warner Music to release Moscow Peace video

Warner Music Canada has scheduled the release of two videos of the Moscow Music Peace Festival. On August 12, 1989 seven notable heavy metal bands took to the stage at Lenin Stadium and performed for two days to 200,000 Soviet fans.

The two volumes will be released in March on Elektra Entertainment. Volume I features Bon Jovi, Skid Row and Cinderella. Volume II features Motley Crue, Ozzy Osbourne, The Scorpions and Gorky Park. Both Volumes are 2 hours long and carry a suggested list price of $24.98.

The benefit was staged to raise funds for the Make A Difference Foundation, an organi-

Toronto's Simply Majestic Featuring B. Kool received nominations for Best R&B/Soul Recording and Rap Recording for their Dance To The Music (Work Your Body) single and Spunkadelic, also from Toronto, were nominated in the same two categories for their Take Me Like I Am single.

Rene/Rosnes, an internationally-claimed jazz pianist, and a native of Regina, Saskatchewan, won a nomination in the Best Jazz Album category for her self-titled debut release.

Poison was nominated in the International Single category for Unskinny Bop, the first single from their four times platinum album Flesh & Blood.

MC Hammer, who will be performing at this year's Juno Awards, was nominated in the International Album category for his eight times platinum release Please Hammer Don't Hurt 'Em.

Nominees from Capitol Canada's family include Alert's Kim Mitchell for Canadian Entertainer and Best Video for I Am A Wild Party; Andy Curran as Most Promising Male Vocalist and Best Hard Rock/Metal Album for zation determined to take a stand in the war against drugs.

In December 1989 an album was released entitled Stairway To Heaven Highway To Hell in aid of MADF. The album features the same artists who are on the videos, but each act was asked to perform a song by an artist or group that had been touched by an alcohol or drug problem. The album features classic renditions, including Jon Bon Jovi's cover of The Boys Are Back In Town, Cinderella's Move Over and My Generation by Gorky Park.

Each video includes two tracks by the All Star Jam; Volume I features Rock And Roll and Hound Dog and Volume II Long Tall Sally and Rock And Roll.

Sony Canada first with diamond video

On February 18, Sony recording artists New Kids On The Block reached diamond status in Canada (sales in excess of 100,000) for their video releases Step By Step and Hangin' Tough. These are the first two home music video cassettes to attain diamond status.

Another first for the label is Rush's Show Of Hands music video, which is the first Canadian music video to sell in excess of 10,000 copies, which is platinum status in Canada.

According to the Senior Director of Sony Music Video Enterprises Don Lorusso, Sony Music "has been on the cutting edge of the music video business from its inception. We were one of the first companies to start a music video division and our market share has continued to expand with the popularity of this new music video format." Lorusso concludes with "We have been persistent in believing this would be a great business, and that has paid off. Of course it helps to have artists like Michael Jackson, Bruce Springsteen, Rush and The New Kids On The Block."

his self-titled album; and Holly Cole as Most Promising Female Vocalist.

Also from Capitol's family, IRS picked up nominations for Candi & The Backbeat in the Best Dance Recording category for The World Just Keeps On Turning and Candi Pennella, lead vocalist of the band, was nominated in the Female Vocalist category.

MURRAY McLAUCHLAN THE MODERN AGE

"This song is a conversation between a native North American child and mother. The child makes observations about the world and the mother tries to deal with these observations as best as she can. The child is questioning the frightening changes taking place in the world and the mother has only comfort to give, not answers."

THE MODERN AGE is Murray McLauchlan's 17th lp, but in spirit and content, it could be his second or third. Re-united with co-producer Ken Friesen (Hard Rock Town, On The Boulevard), THE MODERN AGE is a celebration of the lean rock-acoustic prowess that established Murray as one of our most renowned musical voices. It's a work of many rewards, one of which is Murray playing all the guitars himself as part of a four-piece band he developed playing various little places in a low-key manner over the last year, letting the character of his new songs grow to a gritty, seasoned maturity.

A lot of us grew up with Murray's songs, including your listeners. In an age of style over content, there will always be room for craftsmanship and quality.
