The Hip complete biggest tour in their history

The Tragically Hip made an indelible showing on their biggest tour ever, selling out shows in 21 Canadian and three American cities from January to March. The Kingston, Ontario band sold more than 270,000 tickets for the 30 shows. (only Garth Brooks has ever sold more tickets for a Canadian tour.)

The Hip also kept prices for the shows at a reasonable $30, a policy they have maintained for several years.

Besides chalking up their most successful tour which was also the biggest Canadian tour ever, their other firsts included being the first band to headline Toronto's Air Canada Centre, the first Canadian and only the third act to sell out back-to-back concerts at Copps Coliseum in Hamilton and again the first Canadian band (the second band ever) to do multiple shows at GM Place in Vancouver. It was also the band's first visit to Sydney in Nova Scotia and Charlottetown. In Moncton, an unscheduled show had to be added as a result of an overwhelming ticket demand from fans and media. There were sell-outs at the Marine Midland Centre in Buffalo, the Palace of Auburn Hills in Detroit and the Chicago Theatre where tickets for the concert were sold out in only 20 minutes. The band also christened the Hershey Centre in Mississauga, Ontario with the first rock show, while holding a special benefit concert for Camp Trillium.

The band also continued their tradition of supporting local charities while on tour with this year's focus on the homeless. They mounted clothing drives in each city and the donation of ticket sales (including TicketMaster service charges) from the special Phantom Zone seating section to a local charity. For their Montreal date more clothing than could be weighed was collected and more than $50,000 was raised for local charities.

In their ten year career, the Hip have sold more than five million records in Canada. Up To Here was recently certified diamond (one million units), a first for a Canadian band. Phantom Power, their current Universal release, made its debut at #1 on the RPM Top 100 CDs chart on August 3, 1998, where it has maintained a high profile for 38 weeks.

Because of their touring dates the band was unable to attend this year's Juno Awards. However in their absence The Hip managed to snag the very important fan-voted best rock album and best album design for Phantom Power.

After a short break the band headed out on a U.S. tour, the first date in Seattle on March 30. They will continue to tour through the end of May.

HMV Canada Lilith Fair's official music retail sponsor

Donna Westmoreland, director of marketing and business development for Lilith Fair, has announced that HMV Canada has been welcomed once again as the national music retail sponsor of the annual celebration of women in music.

The Lilith Fair tour markets in Canada comprise Vancouver, Edmonton and Toronto. Throughout the festival period, HMV will provide national support of Lilith Fair and its artists through in-store racking, advertising and consumer promotion. HMV will also be on-site with a retail store in the Vendor Village in each tour city and will donate a percentage of the proceeds to selected women's charities.

HMV Canada's director of marketing Mike Arsenault waxes enthusiasm in once again supporting the tour, stressing. "It represents a significant event in music that we are proud to be a part of. It gives HMV the opportunity to further connect with Canada's live music scene and with music fans across the country. It also provides ongoing support for Lilith Fair artists and allows us to assist worthwhile charities which is in keeping with the spirit of the festival itself."

Named music retailer of the year by the Canadian music industry for the past 12 consecutive years, HMV Canada has 95 locations across Canada.

Ill health forces Stuart McAllister to leave HMV Board

On the heels of the sad news that Stuart McAllister will be leaving HMV's Board due to ill health is a report that HMV Media has made several management changes which completes the Group's Senior Executive team. It was also revealed that Alan Giles is now sole Chief Executive of the Group.

Joining the Board of HMV Media Group on May 1 will be David Kneale, who will take over from Giles as Managing Director of Waterstone's. Brian McLaughlin, Managing Director of HMV Europe, has been promoted to the board, and Neil Bright, Finance Director of the group since its formation last year, completes the Executive Board line-up.

McAllister, who has not been in the office since July of last year, had been Joint Chief Executive of HMV Media Group since its formation in March of last year. He also had worldwide responsibility for HMV since 1987.

Peter Luckhurst, President of HMV North America, Chris Walker, Managing Director of HMV Asia Pacific, and Duncan Bell, Group Business Technology Director will now report directly to Giles.

HMV Media Group was formed in March 1998

Ry Cooder has Canadian platinum

The Buena Vista Social Club, an album released by guitarist Ry Cooder on the Nonesuch World Circuit/Warner Music label in 1997, has been certified platinum (100,000 units).

What's more remarkable about this album is that Cooder went to Cuba to record the album, collaborating with a number of that country's great musicians, including 91-year old guitarist and vocalist Compay Segundo, 72-year old vocalist Ibrahim Ferrer and Omara Portuondo, whose performances on the bolero are considered second to none. The album also features Rubén González, who Cooder describes as "the greatest piano soloist I have ever heard in my life."

Compay Segundo is now in Canada (RPM - March 22/99), where he was scheduled to perform at Quebec City's Capitale Theatre (April 1) and Toronto's Music Hall (3), with Toronto-born flamenco jazz guitarist Robert Michaels who opens the show. Michaels has just come off a mall tour across Canada which has resulted in a significant change in sales figures for the album. A number of radio stations are now airing Utopia, the title track of his WEA album.

Cooder went back to Cuba last year where he produced a second album, The Buena Vista Social Club presents Ibrahim Ferrer. The album is being

KISS 92FM's lineup beginning to fill up

Julie Adam, program director at Toronto's KISS 92FM, reports a few more additions to the station's programming and promotion staff.

Melanie Curtis is now in place as the new KISS music director. Drew Keith takes on the mantle of music director for the Toronto operation which includes KISS 92 and CHFI.

Also announced was the appointment of David Wannan as the new KISS 92 promotion director. He joins the station in mid-April.

as a result of the acquisitions of HMV and Dillons from EMI Group and Waterstone's from WH Smith Group.

As of January of this year, the Group operated 207 book stores, representing approximately 1.2 million total retail square feet, principally under Waterstone's and Dillons brand names and 272 HMV music stores in nine countries representing approximately 1.7 million total retail square feet, including 107 stores in the UK.

targeted for a summer release in Canada. Well-known filmmaker Wim Wenders (Wings Of Desire, Paris, Texas) has directed a documentary on Cooder's Social Club which will be in theatres to coincide with the release of the new album. An extensive world tour by the Buena Vista Social Club is expected to begin in the fall.

WALT SAYS . . . !

with Elvira Caprese

OOPS! . . . again! Looks like history repeats itself for one guy who did the Oops-thing a number of years ago, and is out of work again. (EC: Back to the drawing board!!!) That's what happens! (EC: What is that expression???)

There's life after . . . !!! Good news finally! One of the nice guys in the business, whose career was unfortunately altered before his time, should be back with a smaller company, but nevertheless "back". He's from Montreal too, which makes it all the better. (EC: Is his first initial B???)

Planet Oblivion!!! The day it opened . . . guess who wasn't there? (EC: I smell a curse!!!) I guess they weren't attracting the crowds they could have! At the top of my list of places I never liked to go was this one! They must have sensed that because they never invited me! Nevertheless . . . good luck! (EC: When IS the Film Festival???)

Redundancy creates more redundancy!!! Back before most of this column's readers were even born, radio station music directors and sometimes even program directors knew the staff at the various local record stores by their first names. It was a practice to check out the stores and get a feel of what people were buying and that included singles. Then along came the consultants and radio lost touch with what was going on out on the street. Well, the same thing is happening to the record business. The new technology has created office nerds. They glue themselves to the tonnage of faxed and emailed reports and take it for granted that what they read is what's going on. There's one leader however, who is shaking things up in the office. He wants his troops in the field, to feel the pulse of the buyer, to discover trends themselves and to get to know the various store people by their first names. They could be surprised at what they might find. (EC: They might even set the machinery in motion for a left-field hit!!!)

Like a tip sheet!!!! As we looked over the past 35 years of putting out RPM (EC: If you're under 35, you weren't even born when this rag hired me!!!) we noticed that back then there were tip sheets that shot the news out immediately! Things have changed and because of computers and state of the art printing, we can bring RPM out in less time than those tip sheets took! (EC: Information at the speed of sound!!!) Stereo!

You can't fuck a song!!! I was ready for nod-off time at the David and Ed Mirvish production of Master Class which is running through to May 1 at Toronto's Royal Alexandra Theatre, when all of a sudden I thought I heard the word "fuck", not as plaintive as Jann Arden's "fucks", but nevertheless a bit jolting. But still I wasn't sure. A little while later Elizabeth Ashley who portrays the most controversial and naughty opera star ever, Maria Callas, spit out "You can't fuck a song," as she was reminiscing her mistressing with shipping czar Aristotle Onassis, who threw her up for the famous and probably worse lay, Jackie "O". And then I heard "All you offer me is a big, uncircumcised dick," and I thought, Hey! here's my kind of broad. Anyway, Ashley is throaty and witty and yes, naughty and I wish I had been as fortunate as RPM's Stan Klees to have spent an afternoon with this extraordinary diva who was once fired from La Scala. It's a mesmerizing production. Maybe even your kids will get a better idea on how to use that not-so-naughty word, by today's standards. (EC: I don't believe you went on and on and on about a four letter word!!!)

More than I want to know!!! We like to stay away from the politics of this industry, but unfortunately we get dragged into things from time to time! My phone has been ringing to keep me informed. But we write the news . . . not make it! So it's business as usual here at the 35 year old RPM.

We aren't going anywhere and we aren't about to change anything! We'll just go on pedalling our paper for another 35 years! (EC: My hero! Captain Cancon!!!)

Gino's all heart!!! It's nice to know there are people like Gino Empry. The guy's got a heart as big as all outdoors. It's very seldom we hear from people who move on, but Gino has become the keeper of rolls, keeping in touch with a bunch of people who have either moved into some other field or out of the country. He sends them updates of what's going on, and on a regular basis. It was Gino who reminded me that it was Dave Charles' 35th anniversary in radio, which coincides with RPM's 35 years of publishing. Gino also keeps in touch with B.J. Cook who is now living in Victoria and doing very well, thank you. So, if you think you're going to leave the business or move to another country, give Gino a call. He'll patch you into what's happening. (EC: Friends are friends forever is Gino's motto!!!)

They wear it proudly!!! It was heart warming to see Norman Jewison wearing his Order of Canada pin when he accepted his lifetime achievement award at the Oscars, and so was Celine Dion. Dan Ackroyd, who made a presentation at the Grammy's was also wearing his pin. And it's an attractive, eye-catching adornment that women can wear on their gown. It's a tremendous honour and the appointees to the Order of Canada should take great pride in showing off the respect this country has for them. And it all has to do with culture . . . Canadian culture. (EC: It looks particularly good at foreign events!!!)

What's Happening

Dett Does Duke a presentation of the best of Duke Ellington's sacred concerts will be staged at the University of Toronto's Convocation Hall on April 29. The Nathaniel Dett Chorale under the direction of Brainerd Blyden-Taylor, will present an evening of rarely-performed sacred music by Ellington, a unique tribute in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the popular composer's birth. Joining the Dett Chorale will be conductor/arranger Ron Collier, who collaborated with Ellington himself, and jazz pianist Joe Sealy on a Wurlitzer electric piano once owned by Ellington and donated for this special performance by Collier. The date is a collaboration with the Nathaniel Dett Chorale, the only professional choral group dedicated to Afrocentric music and the Multicultural History Society of Ontario. For general information contact Joan Pierre at 416-340-7000.

The Miller Stain Limit continues its cross-Canada tour which began in Charlottetown on March 8. After a number of dates in Ottawa, North Bay, Sudbury and Thunder Bay, the band moves west to the State in Regina (April 6), Red Deer's Northhale Inn (7), the Back Alley in Calgary (8), Chilliwack's Area 51 (9), Vertigo in Victoria (10), Kelowna's Flashbacks (12), The Generator in Prince George (14), and Edmonton's Sidetrack (15). The band is promoting their debut A&M album, Radiate. My Only Hope has been taken as the first single, which carries a full MAPL logo, and which is now at radio.

Godsmack and Loudmouth do a Lee's Palace date in Toronto on April 12. A Boston-based band, Godsmack are on release with their self-titled album that has already spawned two chart singles, Keep Away and Whatever. Loudmouth are described as "rock fundamentalists", but there's not much more information available. The date is being promoted by Universal Concerts Canada.

Montreal-based Belvedere Rock has scheduled its Spring Tour '99 which will feature I Mother Earth with special guests Finger Eleven and The Killjoys, three hot Cancon bands. I Mother Earth has a brand new lead singer named Brian Byrne, who replaced Edwin, who is off on a solo career. The band will launch its new album during the tour. Their previous albums, Dig, released in 1993 went gold and the second release, Scenery And Fish, released in 1996 which spawned two hit singles, One More Astronaut and Another Sunday was certified double platinum and has now sold more than 250,000 copies. Originally from Toronto, Finger Eleven, formed in 1994 is promoting their debut album, Tip, which was produced by Arnold Lanni from Our Lady Peace. Above has been taken as a single. The Killjoys, who are Hamilton-based, won a Juno Award in 1996 for best new group. Their new album, Killjoys Live - One Night And The Morning After, will be released during the tour, which begins at The outpost in Thunder Bay (April 12), followed by the Ramada Inn/Cambrian Ballroom in Sault Ste. Marie (13), Nipissing University in North Bay (15), Sudbury's Big Thunder (16), Montreal's Café Campus (17), Kashmir in Quebec City (19-20), Sherbrooke's Café du Palais (21), Chicoutimi's Centre social de L'UQAC (23), Maquisart in Trois-Rivières (24), Fredericton's Capital Exhibit Centre (25), Chevy's in Moncton (26), Charlottetown's Myrons (28), the Marquee in Halifax (29-30) and Smooth Herman's in Sydney (May 1). Contact Isabelle Lamothe at Stratcom 514-985-5340.

Mireille will debut her new album, One Small Step, at Toronto's C'est What on April 29. She will be accompanied by Jason Wilson and Tabarruk. The album, produced by Perry Joseph is described as remaining "true to the Christian contemporary genre while playfully exploring other musical forms." For more information contact Mary A Music in Toronto at 416-467-8287.

Blur goes Virtually Canadian with a special Internet only net-cast on April 6 from Toronto's Palais Royale. The show will highlight songs from their new release, 13, which is now in stores. The British band's only Canadian concert date sold out in 13 minutes. The 70-minute performance, presented by Canoe's Jam Entertainment, is scheduled to begin at 9 pm (ET). Listeners will need the newest RealAudio plug-in to listen, which is available for download from the Real Networks site at www.real.com or by visiting the Virtually Canadian site. For more information contact John Walters at Virtually Canadian 416-364-6804, ext. 26, or Anastasia Saradoc at EMI 905-677-5050.

Tony Award winner Mandy Patinkin has a May 17 one performance only date at Toronto's Hummingbird Centre. He will be performing his new concert Mamaloshen, which translates as "Mother Tongue" and marks his return to the national concert stage after having recently enjoyed both a Broadway and off-Broadway success with the show. He is accompanied on the piano by Paul Ford and is joined on stage by violinist Saceka Matsuyama. The concert is a co-presentation of Hummingbird Centre/Corey Ross Productions. Contact Mary Ann Farrell at 416-393-7461. The recording of Mamaloshen, distributed by Warner Music Canada, recently won the Deutschen Schallplattenpreis, Germany's equivalent of the Grammy Award.

Asian Dub Foundation, a PolyGram/Universal recording band is set for an April 2 date at Toronto's Opera House, with guests Audio Active and DJ Hive. ADF, a British band, comprises founder Aniruddha Das (aka bassist Dr. Das), Deeder Zarnan (Master D, the band's MC), DJ John Pandit (Pandit G) Chandresonic, and Sanjay Taillor (aka Sun-J). The band is touring in support of its most recent album release, Rafi's Revenge. The date is a Universal Concerts Canada presentation. Contact Erin Smyth at 416-260-5700 ext. 308.

The du Maurier Jazz Festival held in downtown Toronto during June and July has firmed three acts. The Oliver Jones Trio are headlining the festival with Dave Young on bass, Norman Marshall Villeneuve on drums and featuring Guido Basso on cornet. The concert will be held (July 4) at the Marquee at the corner of King and John streets. The Hot Antic Jazz Band plays two dates this year at the Colony Hotel, the festival's host hotel (July 3-4). Jazz pianist Marian McPartland plays the Montreal Bistro (June 25-26-27). Contact Joanne Smale Productions 416-922-4459, fax 416-924-0101.

Alpha Yaya Diallo is set to appear in concert at Toronto's Bamboo Club on April 21. Originally from Guinea, West Africa, Diallo's latest Wicklow/BMG album, The Message, won a Juno this year for best global album. He now calls Vancouver his home. Contact Jane Harbury at 416-466-5020.

Sleater-Kinney and Tell Quell as the opening act, have been rescheduled for a June 3 date at Toronto's Opera House. Sleater-Kinney, carrying the handle of "a potent punk rock band," was formed in 1994 in Olympia, Washington. They are currently on release with an album titled Dig Me Out. Contact Erin Smyth at Universal Concerts Canada 416-260-5700 ext. 308.

SIXPENCE NONE THE RICHER
Self-titled

Squint/Sony-7017032616-H

The verbiage that comes with this package is enough to turn a potential listener off. Even the catalogue number goes beyond what's expected. Modern Pop? A little bit. Alternative Rock, same thing. The fact remains however is that this Austin, Texas band has a vocal and instrumental glitter that just doesn't fit any descriptive music genre. And that's not bad. To say they don't fit, is what makes the entertainment value that much more focused. Take the first single for instance. Kiss Me is definitely in the pop vein, and filled both the A/C and CHR appetite which is obvious. Take the first three tracks for instance with that mesmerizing vocal by Leigh Nash. Pretty powerful stuff and as the rather lengthy and difficult to understand and read liner notes points out, these three songs bleed into one another. Very nice. But the substance is really in Mat Slocum's penning of The Lines Of My Earth, and Sister, Mother. But then there's Pseudo Escribir with Slocum doing the music writing bit with Dale Baker and J.J. Plasencio. But it's the lyrics, in English and Spanish that capture the essence here. But don't overlook Samuel Brinsley Ashworth's penning of I Won't Stay Long and Slocum's solo penning of Love. This is the band's third album, but it will no doubt capture an even larger audience than they had, particularly on this side of the border. Lots of cello and wicked guitar work by bandmember Slocum, and violins, which adds the necessary lushness to this left of centre band. By the way, the other member of the band is drummer Dale Baker. Produced by Steve Taylor, and giving credit where credit is due, Bob Clearmountain's signature mixing is evident.

- Modern Pop

The musicianship is highly tempered and the showmanship well enough honed for a Sudbury Saturday Night or a Paris, France soirée. Mostly MAPL content but universal enjoyment, especially track 7 with its compelling riffing on Mancini's Peter Gunn theme. Produced by Gary Kendall and Michael Fonfara. Various studios in Toronto, London and Stratford were used to record the album. Tracks 6, 10 and 13 were recorded with the Old Chicago Blues Band and produced by Jim Neil.

BOBBY HUTCHERSON
Skyline
Verve-44-J

Here's proof that there really can be such a thing as a surfeit of riches. Vibes and marimba master Bobby Hutcherson again demonstrates his firm yet gentle attack on jazz oriented pop. He's joined by equally excellent musicians Geri Allen on piano, Christian McBride on bass, drummer Al Foster and Kenny Garrett on alto sax. And, there's the rub. A small aggregation such as this is at its best playing superior lounge style. With Mr. Garrett wailing however, the overall sound is rather that of several musicians competing for the spotlight. That isn't the case of course. It's simply that the combination of instruments isn't correct and the nine track programme lacks focus as a result. Even so, there are some fine moments to be enjoyed, mostly the love theme from Superman which is suitably ethereal in tone whilst down to earth in jazz values. No album graphic available.

- Jazz

THE GALAXY TRIO
Lenny Solomon, Bernie Senensky,
Moshe Hammer
Marquis Classics-7471-81223-F

There was a time when every major hotel had a Palm Court or Grille Room or Venetian Cafe where a small group, usually a trio, would play music that went beyond pop to hug jazz and gently kiss the classics. The Galaxy Trio revives the memory of those golden days. Violinists Lenny Solomon and Moshe Hammer and pianist Bernie Senensky combine their considerable artistry in a tastefully eclectic programme of delights that includes some originals, some standards and a few lollipops. Any collection of music that includes Sous le Dome Epais from the opera Lakme and Under Paris Skies, the wonderfully nostalgic tune made famous by Edith Piaf, simply shouldn't fail to be popularly accepted. Double front racking for this one. Produced by Solomon with Wendy Tummon. Recorded by Michael Banton-Jones at Digital Music and Post. Mastered by Ted Carson at the Music Lane in Toronto.

- Salon Pop

- Esoterica

KINGFISHER
Vesica Piscis
First Light Music-300402

Kingfisher is a wannabe mystic based in California (where else?) with an especial interest in the world of dreams. He has, in fact, set up a website for the exchange of dreams in hope of discovering a universal and possible elemental thread to them that might hold a clue to further evolution of the species which he seems to believe is imminent. He is also a skilled musician and composer who, with this album, has set many of his, as yet half formed, thoughts to music. By and large he has succeeded. The themes of the ten tracks are reasonably melodious in deference to the arcane orchestrations though rather like what used to be experienced in the sixties when the flower children were at strength. One hates to rain on Kingfisher's parade but his music isn't original; only his intent. And, we're not too sure about that either.

-BW

WILLIAM WATSON
Burnham Woods
Burnham Woods Records-10022

Renaissance man/pianist William Watson performs his own miniatures in a delightful album of light programme music which he ascribes to his fascination with music "that is neither classical nor pop". They're all quite short and leave one waiting for the next but satisfied when the twelve selections are completed. The experience is rather like enjoying a box of small candies though it shouldn't be supposed that they're lollipops. Each one is true to its title, well constructed and, above all else, well played. So often miniatures are approached too lightly both in touch and appreciation. Mr. Watson however, knows what he has written and performs them with requisite strength. The liner notes don't indicate what make of piano he's playing, but to our ears it sounds like a Chickering. For the record -- no pun intended -- our favourite track is Renoir: Boating Party. The painting after which it's titled is quite familiar; if there is any justice in the musical world, this composition, played by Mr. Wilson or course, will some day be just as familiar . . . and beloved.

- Solo Piano

-BW

ELTON JOHN & TIM RICE
Aida

- Pop

Rocket/Universal-524 628-J

It's hard to visualize Shania Twain performing other than Mutt Lange's lyrics, but there she is singing music by Elton John and lyrics written by Tim Rice on the too brief (1:41) Amneris' Letter. However, Lange gets credit as the producer of the vocals. Not that Twain is suffering from Lange's writing, but there's certainly a definite difference in her vocal approach and projection. And that's a positive critique. Written In The Stars, the Elton John Leann Rimes duet has made a crossover star of Rimes. The country twang has all but disappeared as she patches into the genius of John's music and Rice's lyrics. The performances here are exceptional, particularly John's duet with Janet Jackson on I Know The Truth and The Messenger, a duet with an amazing voice from the past, Lulu. Includes solo performances by Sting (Another Pyramid), Spice Girls (My Strangest Suit), Boyz II Men (Not Me), Lenny Kravitz (Like Father Like Son), James Taylor (Now I Know You), Heather Headley, a member of the stage cast (Elaborate Lives), a gangbuster track by Tina Turner featuring Angelique Kidjo (Easy As Life), and Elton John, Headley and Sherie Scott (A Step Too Far). The music is from Walt Disney's new stage musical adapted from the well known Verdi Opera, Aida. The musical will be mounted in Chicago in the fall and is expected to move to Toronto before it goes to Broadway. The tracks are by various producers with Phil Ramone getting credit as executive producer.

ALBUM PICK

ANDREA BOCELLI

- Classical

Sogno
Polydor/Universal-547 222-J

Bocelli has been lovingly tagged as "the tenor of the times," which was coined after the success of Romanza. Now, he adds the icing on the cake with an incredible outflowing of passion and yes, even some theatrics which might not arouse classical music purists, but there's one thing for sure, Bocelli has the masses in the palm of his hand. Sogno, and it's a bit of a stretch to categorize the album as classical, but tenors for the most part, are part and parcel of the world of opera, liturgies, sonatas, Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Haydn and so on, so there he is, classified as a classical artist, which shouldn't be too denigrating to a pop artist who happens to be a tenor. The Prayer, sort of a pop/liturgical offering recorded for the soundtrack of the animated film A Quest For Camelot, came to life when Bocelli and Celine Dion performed it on the Academy Awards show this past month. Needless to say, it immediately became a monster hit with A/C programmers. Interesting too is that this particular track was produced by David Foster, who has been referred to as a "pop music wizard". Sorry, no Cancon cigar here. Religious music aside, what we have here are romantic ballads, Italian style naturally, and those penetrating Bocelli vocals create just the right serving of angst with the proper emotion to capture the imagination. He has a couple of other duets that fit in beautifully: O Mare E Tu with new Portugal talent Dulce Pontes and a breathless coupling with Italian superstar Eros Ramazzotti on Nel Cuore Lei. But don't overlook A Mio Padre which Bocelli wrote with producer Mauro Malvasi and, which was taken from a letter Bocelli wrote to his father, a very powerful and penetrating message.

CHRIS MURPHY
Blowin' The Horn
Speakeasy-3006

- R&B

Our review copy states "File under Blues" but what's heard here is truly Rhythm & B, or simply bar band music. London, Ontario-based saxophonist Chris Murphy fronts an aggregation playing music that demands response . . . unless of course you're dead. It's raunchy, sometimes rowdy, but never rough.

Paul Brandt's new single, That's The Truth, is now at radio. This is the first time Brandt has worked with producer Chris Farren, whose credits include Deana Carter, Kevin Sharp and the Warren Brothers. Brandt first made an impact with country radio programmers on both sides of the border in 1996. The Calgary singer/songwriter won his first ever awards the next year when he swept the Big Country Awards, winning five awards for male vocalist, country artist, single and video for My Heart Has A History and album for Calm Before The Storm. That was in 1997. Each of his succeeding singles topped the RPM Country 100 and all of which saw significant chart action in the U.S. Warner Music's Randy Stark was among the Canadian delegation attending the recent CRS30 ASCAP luncheon in Nashville, where Brandt performed several new songs, including That's The Truth. He was accompanied by a nine piece band including a three piece horn section. His performance "left the Canadian and American radio programmers stunned at the quality of the songs and the comfort with which he delivers them," reports Stark. "He exuded confidence, competence and star quality proving to all in attendance that 1999 is sure to be Paul Brandt's year . . . and that's the truth."

Kenny Chesney squeezes up to #1 from #2 with How Forever Feels, the latest single from his BNA album, I Will Stand, which was produced by Buddy Cannon and Norro Wilson. The single was written by Wendell Mobley and Tony Mullins. The album (RPM New Releases - March 15/99) is already chalking up sales at retail.

Shania Twain has the big mover this week for obvious reasons. Man! I Feel Like A Woman jumps up to #39 from #79 after only two weeks on the chart. This is another song that both Twain and her husband, "Mutt" Lange wrote. The track was taken from her Mercury album Come On Over, produced by Lange, that has enjoyed 70 weeks on the RPM Country Albums chart and consistently holds down the #1 position. There has also been much A/C action on tracks from this album, most notably That don't Impress Me Much, which still holds on the RPM Country 100 (#27) after 17 weeks.

The Wilkinsons are back with the most added single this week. Boy Oh Boy, the latest track from their Giant album Nothing But Love, enters the chart at #71 and is the follow-up to Fly (The Angel Song) which is now descending the chart (#72), their second #1 single which topped the chart on Jan. 25 of this year. Their first #1 was 26 Cents (Aug. 17/98). The Wilkinsons, originally from the Trenton, Ontario area are now living in Nashville. They have been consistently honoured with SOCAN #1 plaques and will be touring the U.S. this summer, with possible Canadian dates as well.

George Fox is back on the chart, this time with How Do I Get There From Her (#86), a song he wrote with his producer Kim Tribble. The track is included on his WEA album, Survivor. Fox is currently in Australia, his third trip in 14 months (RPM - March 29/99). He has a packed tour itinerary when he returns beginning with a major blanketing of the maritimes.

Albertan Shirley Lange hits the chart with her CD single, This Time, a Lange original which is the title track of her upcoming album. The new single follows The One You Used To Love which served to introduce Lange to country programmers and which charted for several weeks on the RPM

Country 100. Lange's upcoming album, an independent release, was produced by John Thiel and recorded at Calgary's Sundae Sound. A video of the single, directed by Robert Cuffley is now available. The single enters the chart at #89.

Marv Gunderson, program director at Country 95.5 FM (CHLB) in Lethbridge will reportedly be moving to sister station CKTA, which has a classics hits format, as morning personality over the next couple of months. He will also be doing the music for both stations.

750 CJVR does it again, taking the fan's choice radio station of the year award for the 4th consecutive year. The honours were bestowed on the Melfort station at the Saskatchewan Country Music Awards which were held in Regina recently. Other nominees in that category were CJWW Saskatoon, CKRM Regina, CHMX Regina and CJGX Yorkton. Cal Gratton, music director at CJVR for the past 13 years, took home three awards which were for music director, on-air personality and country music person of the year. In accepting Team CJVR's station of the year award, station manager Gary Fitz took the time to pay tribute to an old friend in broadcasting; "I had the privilege of working with a man who taught me the values of country music . . . introduced me to Canadian talent, Saskatchewan talent . . . it's one of the reasons I promote it . . . and the man was Fred King." Fitz also accepted CJVR's 5th straight SCMA board of directors selection for radio station "Award of Merit," an award shared with CKRM Regina.

Sons Of Maxwell have been showing an impressive pattern of adds for their single And We Dance which is being tracked by Paul Kennedy. The track was taken from their recently released album, The Neighbourhood (RPM New Releases - March 29/99). The brother duo of Dave and Don Carroll are originally from Timmins, Ontario but now call Halifax their home. The album was produced by Tim Feswick and recorded at Dartmouth's SoundPro Studios.

Montgomery Steele is releasing Debbie Darlene as his next single. This is his first release this year and is already a Top 10 hit in the U.S. on the TransAmerica Broadcasting chart where it was #9 last week. The new single is the follow-up to Red Wine Kisses, now descending the chart (#37) after 27 weeks of charting. Four singles, taken from Steele's album, First Time Out, have charted, and his research indicates that his album is the first 100 per cent Cancon debut album to have four Top 30 consecutive hits, which should gain him a place in Canadian country music history.

The Spurs, an Ottawa band, has been gaining in popularity in both Canada and Europe. Easy 1,2,3, their debut single, bullets up to #44 on the RPM Country 100 this week and is currently playlisted in the UK and Ireland and a number of European countries including Norway, Denmark, Holland, the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany and France. Don Grashey, who produced the single, has also been receiving reports on the single's progress from as far away as Australia and Uruguay in South America.

Kevin Warra has a solid European connection. He pulled a Holland hat trick recently with three tracks from his Horseplay Album appearing on the Country Express, hosted by Ries Verwijmeren. Texas Two Step was #1 with Baby That's Alright at #12 and The Magic of Tennessee at #22. Texas Two Step is currently at #12 on the RPM Country 100 after 12 weeks if charting.

The Merritt Mountain Festival, one of the most successful country festivals in western Canada has begun pencilling in the lineup for this year (July 15-16-17-18). Firmed are Julian Austin, Kenny Rogers, Lee Ann Womack, Heather Myles, Dwight Yoakam, Deana Carter, Diamond Rio, Toby Keith, Big House, and Ian Tyson.

Dan Hill, who has carefully and quite successfully moved into writing country music songs, makes his first impact. He is the co-writer, along with Keith Stegall, of the Sammy Kershaw and Lorrie Morgan current hit Maybe Not Tonight. The song has that recognizable Hill influence with an effective and haunting steel guitar giving the vocals that hurtin' property.

TWO DEGREES

events | marketing | entertainment

Two Degrees is derived from the popular idea of "Six Degrees of Separation". According to this theory, only six people separate you from every other person on the planet.

The problem? In our competitive world, "Six Degrees" requires four too many connections.
Enter Two Degrees.

Two Degrees is changing the way people and ideas come together. Imagine... an organization which opens doors into new creative worlds via innovative events and fresh marketing strategies. To achieve your company's communication goals you only need to know one name... Two Degrees.
